

FUNNY TIDE MAKE VORTEXES THAT GIVE UP FEW VICTIMS

Whirlpool Swallows Everything Within Its Reach in Mighty Unescapable Gulfs.

Washington—The famous tidal currents of the Bay of Fundy create few stranger phenomena than are to be found in the whirlpools that lie between the southern tip of Deer Island, N. H., and Eastport, Maine.

One moves up the main channel past Campbell's Island, turning near Eastport and flowing toward the St. Andrew's Bay and the St. Croix river.

At full tide these are particularly wonderful to behold. They twist and turn, swirl and boil. Rafts of logs, driftwood, and ends of defuncted and miscellaneous boats and beams are swallowed in mighty and unescapable gulfs.

One white, the "Old Sow," is feared even by the fishermen. It has an estimated depth of from 50 to 100 feet, although no person knows absolutely how far below the surface its mysterious vortexes extend.

Many years ago the vessel straggled to its doom in a stormy sea. The crew was killed and the vessel was wrecked.

This Bear Is Looking for Strange Colleague

Birmingham, Ala.—There is a black bear at Arapahoe who here that is still looking for the strange black bear that gave him indigestion.

Teddy recently grabbed a woman's purse through the bars of his cage, opened the handbag and found another bear in the pocketbook.

The presence of the bear irked Teddy exceedingly, and he finally ate the other bear, which turned out to be very fat and small and hard.

Teddy's anger grew worse with a pain in his stomach, and castor oil and other things that were forced down his throat to ease the pain of ground glass from the mirror.

Miss Mary Bell Clark Laid To Rest In San Antonio, Texas.

There is a Reaper whose name is Death; And with his sickle keen— He reaps the bearded grain at a breath.

The sad news of the death of Mary Belle Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fox C. Clarke of San Antonio, Texas comes to her aunt and family Mr. and Mrs. R. E. DeLard and a long excerpt is taken from The Alamo School Paper, "Hi Life."

The New Year was sad indeed as friends of Mary Belle Clarke learned of her sudden death. With the ending of school for the holidays, health and looking forward greatly to the fun and good time of Christmas.

Mary Belle was born in Haskell, Texas, Nov. 14, 1914. She started as a teacher in the Alamo Heights school in the present tender days, and was very near and dear to her family.

Mary Belle was a very bright and cheerful girl. She was very popular and was very near and dear to her family.

Air Success Independent of Stage Experience

Radio Stars Create a New Natural School of Music

New York City—The radio in choosing its favorite artists does not ask for credentials that vouch for vocal training and experience.

Many of these baffled stage stars have gone back to their own studios and tried to train for the radio, only to discover that there is no teacher, no existing formulated technique of radio singing to guide them.

The radio is developing a new school of individual singers. Possibly, some day, this radio school can be defined, put into books and taught. But, at the moment, the singer who can't develop his own radio technique won't be able to get it in lesson form from anyone.

Miss De Leath is perhaps the greatest favorite of all the artists of the air, and her voice has a quality which is entirely devoid of over-tones. She was trained for grand opera, but she explains, "I long ago out grew that."

Her singing of "Fanny Dear What Love Can Do," a foxtrot song, is one of the outstanding musical achievements of the year.

Public Is Air Shy

Although the United States government is spending about 30 million dollars a year in aid of commercial flying, the aviation industry is in serious difficulties according to Postmaster General Brown.

Passenger air lines carried a paying load of only 16 to 40 per cent of their capacity last year and operating losses have been so great says Mr. Brown that the very life of the passenger transport industry is in the balance.

He further points out that if the air lines should collapse through lack of public support the millions which the government has contributed as well as much of the money invested by the public, would be lost.

The trouble appears to be that the air lines have been extended too rapidly. Only a small percentage of the public will as yet trust themselves to the airplane for long flights.

Every airplane has a pilot which is a spring arrow. The pilot is afraid of the bomb, and the passenger is afraid of the pilot.

The pilot is a man who has spent years of his life in the air, and he is a man who has seen the world from a different angle.

Seed Catalogue Joys

Enormous quantities of seed catalogs are distributed through the country as the days of spring approach. It is a happy day for the gardener when these fascinating volumes come in. He sits in his easy chair, and no matter how chill or stormy it is without, he is happy planning garden adventures.

He should be encouraged. No one should whisper a word about insect pests, or perspiration and weariness of summer heats, or the blistering work with spade and hoe. Any man or woman who can cultivate the habit of gardening has found a new resource for joy.

A well illustrated seed catalog is a thing of beauty, because it pictures the glorious colors that nature gives to flowers and fruits. A well tended garden is one of the most beautiful things on earth. A well tended garden is one of the most beautiful things on earth.

DEAF MUTES GET COLLEGE TERMS

United States Provides Higher Education for Girls in Washington.

Washington.—More than forty young girls from thirty-five states are wards of Uncle Sam at a school occupying one of Washington's finest college properties.

These girls wear short skirts, bobbed hair and look and act like any other girls of their age. But all are deaf and some also are mutes. But for this institution, the Columbia institution for the deaf, subsidized by the government, they could never get college training. No other school in the country gives college work to deaf boys and girls.

The problem of training the girl graduates of this school so they can find jobs when they go out into the world, has become complicated. Uncle Sam has been asked to provide additional instructors so they can learn to be business women.

Some Trained as Teachers.

Boys who are their fellow students have less difficulty making a place for themselves, but the girls are finding it increasingly hard.

Some are trained to be teachers of the deaf. This heretofore has been the chief avenue of employment for deaf college trained young women, but state deaf schools are more and more inclined to "hearing people" as teachers. There are nearly 3,000 jobs of this kind scattered over the country, but only 400 are filled by deaf girls.

Some of the girls take library work and are employed in large libraries and scientific institutions, where filing and classifying can be done by them as well as by normal young women. Others learn expert dressmaking; some teach in the winter and work in the alteration departments of large stores in the summer.

Ask Business Teachers.

The management of the school is asking the government to provide business teachers and business school equipment so the deaf girl students may be taught to run adding, calculating, mimeographing and other business machines. At present typewriting instruction is available, but not a complete business training.

The annual graduating class at this institution is very small—12 to 15 in all, including boys and girls—but teaching positions absorb only four or five of the girls each year, and for the rest there is the problem of finding some means of becoming independent.

They come from 35 states and are awarded free government scholarships after passing special examinations. They are sixteen to eighteen years old when they enter, and they spend five years getting a college course, which is taught normal boys and girls in four years.

Mexican Coat of Arms Traced to Aztec Fable

That the name "Mexico" comes from "mexitli," the Aztec word for the native maize or pulque plant; is the conclusion of Enrique Juan Palacios of the Mexican direction for archeology, who has searched for its origin in native Indian documents, as well as in other sources of information. Every Mexican school child knows that his national coat-of-arms is an adaptation of the ancient Aztec hieroglyph or place name for "Tenochtitlan," as pre-conquest Mexico City was called. Mexico's shield, therefore, is at least six centuries old. It represents an eagle in mortal struggle with a snake, which he holds with one claw and his beak. With the other claw he is balanced on a spiny nopal cactus growing on a rock in the middle of a lake. This pictorialization of an extremely difficult position illustrates the Aztec fable of the founding of the ancient city that is now the capital of the Mexican republic.

Possibility That Great Auk May Still Exist

Does the Great Auk still exist? The last authentic case of one having been seen was in 1843, but "Bird Notes and News" raises the question as to whether a bird which has been seen in the Lofoten Islands (off the coast of northern Norway) is not a Great Auk. A writer tells how a Finnish hunter and naturalist saw a strange bird which he could not recognize. He was shown a picture of the Great Northern Diver, but said it was not the same. He was then shown a razorbill, but declared that the bird was bigger. The book was opened casually at the Great Auk, and he immediately identified it and persisted in his story, which was corroborated even to the identification by an independent witness who had also seen it.

The bird was never seen again, but it is possible that on such a wild coast a few Great Auks may have survived.

Odd "Break" in Sermon

The former pastor of a Tioga church tells a good one on himself, which shows the queer breaks a man can make, even in the pulpit. The pastor was preaching on "Faith" and among his illustrations of the value of faith declared that "it was by faith that Moses discovered America."

He noticed a smile spread over the faces of the congregation, but couldn't imagine what it was about, and repeated that but for his faith Moses would never have crossed the stormy Atlantic to America.

Having observed that his wife was as much amused as anybody, he promptly asked her on reaching his home what the people were smiling at.

When she told him he was forced to wonder at the restraint the congregation had shown.—Philadelphia Record.

To "Turn State's Evidence?"

State's evidence is the evidence produced by the government in criminal prosecution. The term also applies to a person who gives such evidence. When a person implicated in a crime voluntarily confesses his share and gives testimony that will incriminate his accomplices he is said to "turn state's evidence," namely, he becomes a witness for the state. In such cases there is generally an express or implied promise on the part of the authorities that they will not prosecute the witness who thus testifies, or that he will at least be dealt with leniently. Prosecutors do not usually promise such immunity unless there is insufficient evidence to convict the defendant without the testimony in question.—Pathfinder Magazine.

Famous Early Bishop

Francis Asbury was born at Hamstead Bridge, near Birmingham, England, in 1745. He died at Spotsylvania, Va., in 1816. He came to America as a missionary in 1771. There were then only 316 Methodists in America. When he died he had traveled more than 27,000 miles, preached more than 16,000 sermons, and ordained more than 4,000 Methodist ministers. He never married. Constant travel, limited resources and his zeal in church service were some of the reasons advanced for his single life.

Unprofitable Smartness

A farmer's son who had been some time at the university came home to visit his parents. Two fowls were placed on the table for supper, and the young student said he could prove that there were really three fowls.

"This," said he, "is one, and this is two, and two and one make three."
"Since you have made it out so well," said his father, "your mother shall have the first, I'll have the second, and you may eat the third yourself."

Paper Money

The use of paper money began about 600 years ago in Italy, when the goldsmiths and silversmiths deposited bullion under supervision and the receipts circulated as currency. All the original states issued paper money in Colonial days. The first federal paper money was issued in 1775, under authority of an act of the Continental congress.

Camp Fire Girls Reduce Age Of Admission From 11 to 10

New York.—The Camp Fire Girls, a national organization of over 210,000 members, announced today through its president, Miss Florence Hughes, that the age of admission to the organization has been reduced from 11 to 10 years. This will make eligible to Camp Fire Girls many members of the Blue Birds, its junior organization.

"Reduction of the age of admission from 11 to 10 years has been made by the Camp Fire Girls because the average 10-year-old girl of today is actually more developed, mentally, than the 11-year-old of only a few years ago," said Miss Hughes. "The growth and popularity of the junior high school idea is strong evidence of the shift downward in the age of adolescence. Of course, fundamentally, the change is probably the result of the intensity of modern mental and physical training."

"There has been no element of forcing behind this change. It comes primarily because of the nationwide demand of the ten-year-old girls in the Blue Birds, our junior group, for the more highly individual activities which the older Camp Fire Girls have enjoyed. The fundamental purpose of the Camp Fire Girls is to develop a creative individualism combined with the highest standards of moral, mental and physical health. "In accord with this principle, the girl admitted to Camp Fire first chooses a name and symbol expressive of her ideals and ambitions. Artistically, the Camp Fire Girl is encouraged to be more and more herself. The strong and beautiful symbolism of the various Indian tribes offers an unexcelled medium for this purpose. It is so simple that it may be used with ease by the girl of ten, yet it permits of combinations and complexities of design numerous and beautiful enough to satisfy a mature artist of genius.

"In more practical work the young Camp Fire Girl is taught to assume responsibility, however heavy, immediately and without flinching. Thus, some years ago, when a Western village was inundated by floods, the Camp Fire Girls from surrounding towns marched at once to the scene and organized and took charge of the relief work.

"The reduction in the age of admission is supported, generally, by psychologists and psychiatrists throughout the country."

IT HAS GREATLY HELPED HIS CASE

"Orgatone Relieved My Husband of His Troubles and He Now Feels Fine," Says Mrs. Hill.

"Orgatone has greatly benefited my husband, and has relieved him of all his troubles," said Mrs. John L. Hill of 207 Pine Street Wichita Falls, Texas, while in a conversation regarding the benefits her husband had derived from the use of Orgatone.

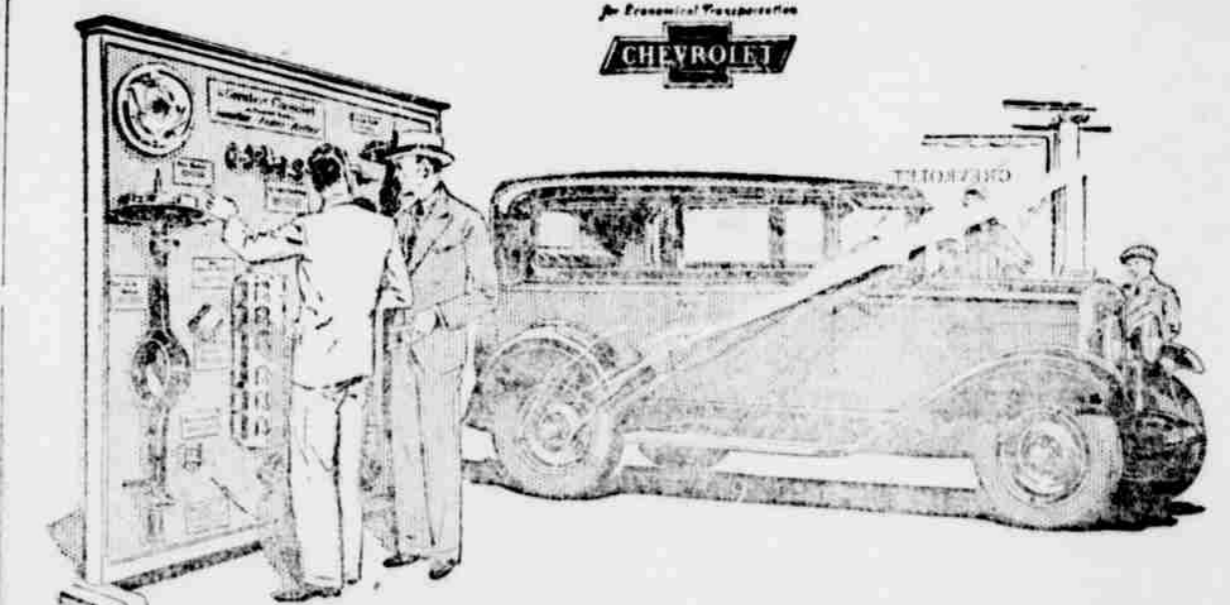

"He has suffered over five years," continued Mrs. Hill, "and it just seemed as if he would never get over it. He suffered from a torpid liver, and had intense, severe pains in his side and back. He had a drowsy and languid feeling, and got to where he had a blurry sight, and couldn't see well. He was always tired and worn out and needed something to bring back his vitality and energy."

"My daughter had been taking Orgatone and received good results and finally persuaded John to give it a trial," she declared, "and right from the very first few doses, we noticed a change in his condition. He is feeling better now than he had in years, and goes about his work with a cheerful feeling and doesn't dread the days as he did. All of his pains have left him, and he has more ambition and energy. He gets up of a morning feeling refreshed and rested and really enjoys living now, so to speak. I am glad to give this statement for him, for Orgatone has certainly benefited him. I think if it hadn't been for Orgatone, he would not be working today."

Genuine Orgatone may be obtained in Haskell at the Oates Drug Store.—Adv.

When the time comes, an appropriate inscription on the monument to Senator Sheppard might be: "He Started Something."

the Challenge

- 1 Combines with metal surfaces and never leaves bearings and other working parts.
2 Refined from carefully selected paraffin base crudes by patented processes. That means stability.
3 Positively increases gasoline mileage by reducing friction. That means economy.
4 Will not break down under cylinder wall heat. That means less oil consumption.
5 Substantially reduces motor wear in starting because this oil penetrates metal surfaces and stays there. Other oils require 15 to 20 minutes to lubricate all moving parts.
6 Crankcase dilution does not seriously impair its "oiliness" value. That means greater motor protection.
7 Will lubricate efficiently at sub-zero temperatures. That means thoroughly de-waxed oil.

ACHIEVEMENT! Since You Read This CHALLENGE on November 14th, 1929 An Army of American Motorists has Changed to CONOCO Germ-Processed Motor Oil

Have you noticed that Conoco stations have been busier in the past few months? The reason is, of course, that amazing new oil, Conoco Germ-Processed. Introduced only last November, this revolutionary motor lubricant has startled even its makers by its instant public acceptance.

Don Ould Holds Special at Pippin Hospital.

quite unique and spectacular was Senior Epworth League Valentine party in the home of Miss Wilda on last Friday evening. Dr. Dan Ould (Marvin Branch) held a special clinic and was assisted by following trained nurses, Misses of McIver, Edith Foote, Wilda and Madge Hambleton, the agency ward and from there were tested for broken and lost and every known disease of a tickle organ and were sent to our wards (tables) where they were repaired and as they progressed to tables. Prizes were given last evening for improving to try and to Henrietta Perrin for showing the least signs of improvement. Many other heart games played before the evening was and the nurses brought refreshments on invalid trays, cocoa in medicine bottles, sugar in capsules with directions to take one teaspoonful every fifteen minutes. Hot rolls and potato salad were also served and the plate favors were hearts carrying the invitation, "A Hearty Welcome to the Epworth League." G. A. Girls of Baptist Church Give Banquet Honoring Mothers.

The G. A. Girls of the Baptist church, sponsored and helped at all times by their leader, Mrs. R. L. Burton tendered a lovely valentine banquet to their mothers in the basement of their church last Friday evening. Hearts were in evidence everywhere but the long banquet table, centered with a large quilt surrounded with hearts, and either end bearing long red tapes, with places marked with red hearts, was indeed the center of attraction. When all were seated the girls sang their motto song, "We've a Story to Tell to the Nation." Then between the courses the girls told of various phases of the G. A. work to better acquaint their mothers with what they were really accomplishing. Mrs. R. L. Burton also told of finished work and hopes for the future. Theda V. Maples gave two readings and Irene McGregor furnished the piano music for the evening. The honor guests were Mesdames Joe Maples, Jim Fouts, John Ellis, Jim Gilstrap, H. R. Whatley, Horrace Oliver, I. N. Simmons, R. C. Couch, J. E. Walling, R. L. Burton and the girls: Theda V. Maples, Lois Fouts, Norma Ann Gilstrap, Maxine Simmons, Sue Couch, Frances Walling, Hortense Walling, Annie Maud Taylor, Kate Darnell, Lucile Gilstrap and Irene McGregor.

Mrs. J. U. Fields Honors "Good Luck Pals."

The Good Luck Pals of the Haskell High School are made up of students of the Home Economics Department and they with their teacher, Mrs. Ed Sprowls, were honored on last Saturday afternoon by their sponsor, Mrs. J. U. Fields with a lovely tea. The door was opened by Frances Rathiff and the following ladies with officers of the organization made up the house party, Mesdames C. L. Lewis, R. J. Reynolds, F. T. Sanders, Ed Sprowls, A. H. Wair and hostess Mrs. J. U. Fields with the club president, Mattie Muriell Walling. Each of these ladies talked to the girls on worthwhile subjects and complimented them upon the organization. Olive and Ola Frazier sat at the tea table and poured tea and Wilda Pippin Anita Collier and Lucile Gilstrap served sandwiches and cake to the ladies mentioned and Mattie Muriell Walling, Frances Walling, Kate Darnell, Zelma Anderson, Maxine Branch, Nancy Guest, Vannie Lee Mays, Archie Henry, Roselle Jones, Contine Guest, Lillian Kaigler, Jackie Lyise Martin, Frances Rathiff, Lena Hill, Kemp, Virginia Sills, Agnes Grissom, Melbie Foster, Pauline Dismann, Juanita Mason, Dixie Orr, Margaret Richer, Clara Wilfong, Juanita Stone, Fran-

Anita Joe Simmons Given A Surprise Party.

Mrs. I. N. Simmons prepared a surprise Valentine Party for her little daughter Miss Anita Joe Simmons on last Saturday afternoon from 4 until 6. The house was appropriately decorated with Valentine hearts. Of course a big time was had by all who came and every body's game was played. Then Mrs. Simmons served the little folk with cake squares and hot chocolate with candy hearts as special favors. The little guests were: Geraldine Conner, Ruby Sue Persons, Frankie Doris Bledsoe, Frances Fouts, Elsa Gholson, Lynn Pace Jr., Jack Wallace Watson, Jack Davis and the honoree, Anita Joe Simmons.

Methodist Missionary Women Enjoy Voice Program.

The Missionary Voice is the official organ of the Southern Women's Missionary Society and is a very fine monthly periodical and from this magazine many splendid programs are given in local organizations. On last Monday Mrs. Guy Mays directed a Voice program that was deeply spiritual from the time Mrs. Bob Harrison played as a prelude to the prepared program several sacred hymns, quietly and impressively on through the program. Mrs. C. M. Kaigler lead the devotional, Spiritual Culture, reading as scriptural reference, the 25th and 32nd verses inclusive of the 6th chapter of St. Matthew. A talk on the dire need of the Russians in many places of that country, for bread, the staff of life and for enough bibles for them to read, by Mrs. F. T. Sanders. A special article was given by Mrs. Bob Harrison, comparing the manner, the average American man with that of his foreign brother. "Thank God For Good Breads" was the topic. Mrs. Mays here gave a heart to heart talk on the "Peaches of Man," the poem, "Mother Heart" was read by Mrs. Ethel Irby vocal solo, "I Found Him In My Heart," by Mrs. Bert Welsh. The meeting was then taken in charge by the president, Mrs. J. U. Fields and after all business on hand was disposed of, Mrs. A. H. Wair gave a delightful report of having carried plate lunches to shut-ins and the sick of the church. Mrs. S. R. Rike will teach the first bible lesson next Monday, subject, "Palestine." These lessons will comprise map study and scrap book work and are going to be deeply interesting and very beneficial, every woman in the church should avail herself of this opportunity. A bowl of red carnations was presented to Mrs. F. G. Alexander at the conclusion of the meeting by the president.

The Last Two Programs of The North Ward P. T. A.

Following we take pleasure in chronicling the last two programs sponsored by the North Ward P. T. A. On last Thursday there were present 31 members, including patrons and teachers. The local boy scouts put on the first part of the program unaided and this was a credit to the boys themselves and to their scout masters. One of their directors, Mr. Lewis Sherman, was in the audience, but had nothing to do with the arranging of the program. The boy's subject was "Safety" and the devotional was given by Fred Sanders, Jr. He repeated the 16th Psalm. Among other things the boys told of the of the American Scout and each had a part in giving the scout oath and pledge of allegiance. These boys were: Frank Bryant, Fred Sanders, Jr., Ralph Bernard, C. B. Breedlove, H. J. Hambleton and O. D. Cook. The program was concluded by the Freshman Class sponsored by Messrs Bertha Carman and Jesse Vick who put on a comedy farce, "The Fish in School." The audience was invited to the Home Economics rooms and were served Valentine cookies and ice cream. There were over fifty present.

Two weeks ago the P. T. A. program was put on by pupils of Miss Mary Sherrill and they wrote their own little plays and dramatized them. The first was written by several in the room, "The Careless Girl" and was put on by Elsie Gholson, Mary Eleanor Diggs and Tammie Lee Donohoe. The cast of the "Blind Man" was Walter Zahn, Albert Barrett and Fred Gilliam and this was written by R. F. Harrison. "The Tea Party" was composed by Cathyrne Wair and Oleta Fields and was played by them as-isted by Geraldine Conner, Dorothy Morgan and Mildred Osborn.

Mrs. Joe Maples Circle Meets Tuesday.

The south side circle of the Baptist Women's Missionary Society met last Tuesday in the home of Mrs. J. E. Walling with seventeen ladies present. There was a meeting of the unit at the church on Monday but these loyal women were not to lose their lesson of the week so they elected to meet on Tuesday. After a prayer and song, Rev. Whatley taught the 9th and 10th chapters of Romans in the continuation of the bible study. After a short business meeting they adjourned with prayer. Those present besides the pastor were: Mesdames Maples, Jones, Davis, Cass, Stoker, Rose, Holland, Alvia Stoval, Andrews, Fry, Crawford, Stewart, Quattlebaum, Free, Highnote and Walling.
