FUNERAL SERVICES OF P. D. SANDERS HELD SATURDAY

Judge P. D. Sanders, pioneer resident and a leader in civic and church affairs in Haskell for the past forty years, died at his home in this city last Friday morning.
Mr. Sanders had suffered a paralytic stroke about three weeks ago and had been confined to his bed since that time. Although hopes were held for his recovery his advanced age made recovery impossible, and he gradually weakened until the end came early Friday morning.

Coming to Haskell county in 1888, Judge Sanders had resided here continuously since that time, and was an active leader in the upbuilding and development of this section. He was engaged most of this time in the practice of law, and in the 90's served as District Judge for this district, and also as County Judge of Haskell county. In later years he was engaged in the practice of law and in the abstract business, and at the time of his death was senior member of the abstract firm of Sanders & Menefee.

Deceased was a member of the Methodist Church, having joined when a young man, and was an active church worker and a faithful christian who exemplified his beliefs in his daily relations with his fellowmen. He was a devout Bible student, and was one among the first superintendents of the first Sunday School organized in Haskell.
The deceased was born in Grimes county, Texas, October 6, 1855. In 1875 he was married to Miss Addie Elliott and to this union were born five children, four of whom are living. Mrs. Sanders died Oct. 29, 1890, and after moving to Haskell
Mr. Sanders was married to Miss Cornelia A. Porter on May 24, 1899.
To this union three sons were born,
two of whom died in infancy.

Surviving the deceased are his wife, Mrs. P. D. Sanders, and five children: P. T. Sanders of this city,
P. D. Sanders, Jr., of Montana, Mrs.
J. Earl Porter of Caldwell, Texas,
Mrs. Z. B. Park of Oklahoma City, and R. C. Sanders of Detroit, Michigan. Fifteen grandchildren also survive the deceased.

Funeral services were held at the First Methodist Church Saturday morning at 10:30, conducted by Rev. E. Gaston Foote, pastor. Interment was in Willow Cemetery, where a profuse floral offering as a last tribute to this good man was banked high upon the grave.

Active pallbearers were: Hill
Oates, Ed Sprows, Reynolds Wilson, and Ernest Roy and Wallace Sanders. Flower girls were: Mrs.
J. L. Southern, Miss Helen Cox,
Frances Ratliff, Catherine Rike,
Mary Sherrill, and Mrs. E. Gaston Foote.

the Management of the Association has made arrangements and already secured some of the finest and most celebrated mounts in America which include such burros as Dynamite, Concrete, Unconscious,
Lightning, Nitro, T. N. T., Goofy, Maybach, Wilnot, Andnot, Gay-

This International contest for the beautiful engraved cup will be just prior to game, croquet mallets and balls are to be used.

STOCK JUDGING CONTEST TO BE HELD DURING THE FAIR

At a meeting of Vocational Agricultural teachers from Haskell, Knox and Throckmorton counties
last Friday afternoon at the Haskell high school plans were formulated for holding a Live Stock Judging Contest at the Haskell Fair in Oct.
Loving cups are to be awarded the winning teams. It is the first contest of its kind to be held in Haskell and it is hoped that it may be

Plans were also formulated for continuing the meetings in Haskell at monthly intervals in order that teachers might gain help from other teachers engaged in the work and that the work of the agriculture teacher might be spread to other towns and communities.

Those present at the meeting were: M. O. Hood, Rulo; Underwood of Knox City; Rulo of Mun-day; Price of Throckmorton; Elmer Watson of Post and H. B. Henry of Haskell.

Miss Mildred Jones who attended school in Lubbock and the first week of the summer, while visiting her sister in Amarillo, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stubbly of Wichita Falls, visited here and Mrs.
Stubbly, who is the sister of Mrs.
Stubbly in Haskell, will be here

FOUR MYSTERY MEN TO BE FEATURED ON NEXT TRADES DAY

A novel feature for the next Trades Day in Haskell, which will be on Sept. 1st, is announced this week by the committee in charge of the occasion.
An award of $2.50 in gold will be given the first person to recognize and call by name either of four persons from four Haskell business concerns who will mingle with the crowds during the day. The four persons will attempt to conceal their identity in various ways, but each of the four will be prominent in Haskell business and professional circles.

BAPTIST REVIVAL MEETING TO START SUNDAY MORNING

A revival meeting will begin at the local Baptist church Sunday morning. The day service will be in the church building and the evening services will be on the church lawn. Good, comfortable seats are being prepared this week that will take care of a thousand people.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Trussell will lead the music and singing. These are the same workers that were with us last summer. Our people were so delighted with them that they were invited to return for this summer's revival. Mr. Trussell is one of the world's greatest gospel singers. His services are sought by the largest churches in the land.

The pastor will do the preaching during the revival. The preaching will be plain, simple and scriptural.
The church orchestra will help to make the meeting attractive.

A hearty welcome is extended to the public to attend all services. It is the desire of the church to make the meeting a blessing to the entire town and surrounding communities.

BULL FIGHT TO BE STAGED HERE ONE DAY OF THE FAIR

A Mexican bullfight—something never before staged in this section —will be one of the headline attractions of the 1930 Haskell Co.
Fair, according to Manager Turner
E. Campe, who states that arrangements were completed this week for staging this event on Saturday, Oct. 18th, last day of the Fair.

The fight will be an exact version of the famed bullfights of Mexico,
with real Mexican bulls and Mexican toreros performing, according to Mr. Campe, and will offer one of the most outstanding attractions ever secured for a Texas exposition.
A special arena will be erected for the event in front of the grandstand, and arrangements are being considered for additional seating capacity.

Rev. and Mrs. E. Gaston Foote had as their guests over the weekend, the latter's parents, Judge and Mrs. Prentiss Young of Stephenville.
Mrs. Foote accompanied them back home to spend a few days with her family.

kell county to attend the rally.

BONEHEADS SELECT CAPTAIN, MANAGER FOR POLO TEAM

The best attended meeting during the summer months was enjoyed by members of the Bonehead Club Tuesday at their regular weekly meeting, when nearly a 100 percent attendance of members was noted. Grady Harcorer of Dallas, who is in the city for several days,
was a guest of the Club, and in a few well-chosen words expressed his pleasure in meeting with the group.

No set program was observed with the exception of the routine of business, and most of the meeting time was devoted to the selection of a captain and a manager for the Bonehead Burro Polo Team, which will be seen in action during the coming Haskell County Fair. And since the Boneheads have learned the art of politics, and incidentally developed a fine art in "stuffing" the ballot box, the selection of these two important officers was marked by warm contests. For captain of the polo team, Hollis Atkeison finally with the aid of the tellers appointed to canvass the returners, defeated Bill Holden, Mack Martin, and John Tubbs for this office. Mr. Atkeison immediately announced his selection of players and states that preliminary work-outs would be started right away in order to get the team in shape.

For manager of the team, a majority of members voted for Joe Williams, the efficient county agent, who is to have charge of the club's string of burros, and other equipment of the team.

Jason Smith was elected as a member of the board of directors,
which is now composed of Sam
Roberts, John Tubbs, D. P. Ratliff,
Hill Oates, Harry Bettis, Eugene
Hunter and Jason W. Smith.

Several committee reports were made during the business session, and it was voted by the Club to handle the concessions at the grandstand during the Fair this fall. The Trades Day Committee reported good progress on the next Trades Day program, and expected to have one of the most diversified entertainment features yet staged on this coming occasion.

Sheriff W. T. Sarrels and wife, and Miss Nell Robbins have returned to their home in this city, after a weeks visit with relatives in Oklahoma and East Texas.

T. J. and Albert Lemmon returned last Thursday from a week's outing in Colorado, and reported a most enjoyable time. Albert left Friday for Hobbs, N. M., where he will be engaged in business in the future.

A. E. King Visiter Here
Judge A. H. King of Throckmorton, candidate in the run-off primary for Commissioner of Agriculture, was in Haskell Monday morning, en route to Lubbock and other points on the Plains.

Funeral Services Mrs. W. T. Hudson Held Monday

Funeral services for Mrs. W. T.
Hudson, who with her husband were pioneer settlers of Haskell county, were held at the family residence in this city Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock, after which the remains were laid to rest in Willow Cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. Richardson, pastor of the Rule Primitive Baptist Church assisted by Rev.
H. R. Whately, pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city.

Mrs. Hudson died suddenly Sunday morning about 6 o'clock from a stroke of paralysis, and although deceased had been in failing health for the past two or three years, her death came as a shock to relatives and a host of friends. Mrs. Hudson had been able to be up and had gone motoring with one of her children the day before her demise, and was thought to be regaining her health.

Coming to Haskell over forty years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Hudson were among the first settlers of this section, and for many years were identified with the pioneer development of this county. Deceased had been a faithful member of the Primitive Baptist Church for many years, having consecrated herself to the service of her Master at an early age, and lived the life of a consistent christian. Her noble character and disposition had endeared her to all with whom she was acquainted, and she will be sorely missed not only by loved ones, but by a host of friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Hudson is survived by her husband, W. T. Hudson, three daughters, Mrs. L. T. Cunningham of Houston, Mrs. Jno. E. Robertson and Mrs. R. J. Reynolds of this city; and two sons, J. V. Hudson of Haskell and Delbert Hudson of Ft. Worth, all of whom were present for the funeral services. Several grandchildren and other near relatives survive.

Active pallbearers were: G. B.
Fields, Henry Alexander, J. U.
Fields, H. M. Smith, Courtney Hunt
and R. V. Robertson.

Flower girls were: Mary Couch,
Maurine Couch, Nettie McCollum,
Mrs. Roy Killingsworth, Mrs. Lola
Bledsoe, Mrs. C. V. Payne, Mrs. J.
P. Payne, Lela Welsh and Hazel Wilson.

minent educators of the State directing the work for the two days.

ness trip to Wichita Falls the first of the week.

cally all preparations for opening coming session has a very promising outlook.

Man and Boy He's Driven Same Car

As an aspiring young motorist, L. K. Arthur, North Bend, Neb., bought this Oakland Four back in 1913. Now a middle-aged solid citizen, he still drives the same car. After several years of deliberation, he plans to replace the old-fashioned air pressure fuel feed with a vacuum tank which is only three years out of date. Mr. Arthur calls his car "Old Bald Face," referring no doubt to the imposing German silver shell surrounding the "fin and tube" radiator.

MILLIONS INVOLVED IN SUIT OVER DEAD INVENTOR'S PATENTS

Wilmington, Delaware — General Talking Pictures Corporation and DeForest Phonofilm have begun action against RCA Photophone and Radio Pictures, alleging various infringements of patents covering the manufacture and use of talking motion picture machines.

The DeForest Talking Equipment constructed around the Lee DeForest and E. E. Ries patents, is in use at the Texas Theatre. The Ries Patent around which a spectacular legal battle is being fought, covering a slit-block without which no talkies could be made, was invented by Elias Ries in 1913. He filed his claim with the U. S. Patent Office at that time, but the patent was not granted until 1926. By that time the talking pictures had taken hold of the movie public, and hundreds of manufacturers of sound equipment sprang up overnight.

The inventor was too far gone in health and financially to fight these infringing manufacturers, and although M. A. Schlesinger, president of General Talking Pictures stepped into the breach, and began to lay out an extensive legal campaign to establish the rights of these patents, Mr. Ries died a poor and broken man two years later.

Mr. Ries came here from Baden when he was about three years old, and did most of his scientific research at the John Hopkins Institute. He has over 250 patents to his credit, among which are the railway trolley lines, which made possible the subways, and other electric roads, and also the modern motor car electric starter. Because of continuous litigation, none of these made any money for him in his lifetime.

Immediately after the Titanic disaster, Mr. Ries figured prominently in the news by his invention of a submarine and other under-water object detector. This invention he gave to the government during the Great War.

Dr. Lee DeForest, who for many years had been working along the same lines was the first to recognize the value of the Ries invention and it was thru him that General Talking Pictures acquired the rights.

Dr. DeForest, the inventor of the remaining patents is one of America's greatest scientist-inventors and well known as the "Father of Radio". As far back as 1919 he conceived the idea of using his audio amplifier for a practical sound motion picture system, and first publicly demonstrated his "Sound-on-Film" device at a Broadway Theatre in 1923, where it was looked upon as a unique novelty. Never for one moment did the ordinary man in the street think it would be anything else, but Dr. DeForest is a man of vision, so he set to work to produce sound pictures, not as a

WHEN THE CONOCO MAN ASKS "ETHYL?" say Yes! and you'll say it again

THE next time you drive into a CONOCO station, the man at the pump will ask you a one-word question. "Ethyl?", will be his query.

And in justice to yourself and the car you drive, we urge you to answer, "Yes!"

For Ethyl, added to CONOCO, the gasoline we're proud of, is like seasoning added to food. As seasoning brings out taste and deliciousness, so Ethyl brings out the qualities which have made CONOCO Gasoline famous.

Ethyl stops the knock that makes the foot retreat from the accelerator when you would rather "bear down" harder. Ethyl stops the knock that forces you to shift gears on hills. Ethyl stops the knock that embarrasses you when you let in the clutch in traffic.

So when the CONOCO salesman asks, "Ethyl?" . . . Say, "Yes!" . . . and you'll say it again.

novelty, but as a real improvement on the silent film. For some years he spent all his time in his laboratory work in research work, and how far his labors have been successful is found in the wonderful perfection of natural tone now achieved by the machine that bears his name.

The present suit being waged by Schlesinger as owner of the Ries and DeForest patents is making history in the motion picture industry. These, with the suits he has pending against many other manufacturers for the same infringements, may tend to decide the complete control of the whole industry.

The ladies did not send a delegate from their club.

We arrived at College Station at 10:30 p. m. Sunday night, July 27. When we arrived we were carried to the main building where we were registered, then we were taken to our dormitories. The next morning we marched to breakfast at 6:30 a. m. After breakfast we marched to Guin Hall for a joint meeting. The girls and boys elected a chairman and secretary.

We then marched to the Y. M. C. A. parlor where we were given a lecture on Home Making and Citizenship by Mrs. Minnie Fisher Cunningham. This was very interesting for we will all be citizens good or bad some day whether we want to or not. After this lecture we marched to the dormitories and got ready for the noon meal. At 12:15 we ate dinner and from 1:00 p. m. to 2:00 p. m. were rest hours.

At 2:30 p. m. we marched to the Civil Engineering building where we were given a lecture on the Gracious Hostess. After supper everyone prepared to go to the free picture show. After the show we were taken to our dormitories and everyone should have the lights out by 10:30 p. m. Those having their lights out by this time would have a flag in the window the next morning, and we are glad to report that we always had a flag in our window.

The following days were followed by this program only different lectures were given.

Friday night at 1 a. m. all the girls that were not going to Galveston left for home. We arrived in Haskell at 6:00 p. m. Saturday, August 2. Everyone enjoyed the Short Course and are anxious to go again next year.

ROADS TO REDUCE AUTOMOBILE COSTS

(By E. E. Duffy)

The average American motorist this year will travel between nine and ten thousand miles and will burn in the neighborhood of 600 gallons of gasoline.

Fortunately most of this traveling will be done over roads that have been improved if not hard surfaced. But much of this travel will be on roads which although they keep the motorist out of the mud still perform only half the function of the modern road.

There was a time, when automobiles first descended on an unsuspecting public like a flock of locusts, when keeping out of the mud was the prime consideration. But today, with merican motorists piling up a quarter trillion miles of travel a year, the prime factor is that of building roads over which travel may be accomplished at the possible cost to the motorist and the tax paying public.

Peculiarly, this matter of car and road economy has been neglected in countless communities. Unfortunately few motorists keep accurate car operation cost figures so that actual costs of operating over various types of highway surfaces can be determined. This is one reason many communities permit themselves to become equipped with pavements that give a semblance of good service, but do not. Another reason is that few citizens take the trouble to ascertain how much of the community money goes for road and street maintenance.

For instance, a community may possess a considerable length of lightly surfaced thoroughfares which cost a great deal to maintain. It is decided to resurface and because the price is somewhat lower than that of first class rigid paving, a fairly thick coat of flexible material is installed. But the important item overlooked is that this new surface has a life only one third or one half as long as hard surfaced pavement, and an upkeep cost two or three times greater.

Investigations have revealed that hard surfaced pavements, with a life of two or more decades, are by far the cheapest both to the individual motorist and the government. Studies have shown also that a pavement is no stronger than its base, and if the base is strong enough there is no need for top surfacing.

Obviously the yearly mileage of the average motorist is to continue growing. A few years ago the mileage was five thousand; today, nine thousand; tomorrow it will be twelve thousand miles. All this means that the cost of the unit of travel must be reduced; this can only be done by building rigid pavements that save the motorist from one to two and a half cents per mile of travel over lower types.

First of all, that running a successful household involves the application of the same business principles required in the management of any other well conducted going concern. Your salary represents the gross business — this, minus expenses, is the PROFIT of your “firm.” Don’t let ‘expenses’ eat up your ‘profits.’

Both you and your partner, over there, can cut down your expenses by investigating the market before you do any buying. When we buy supplies down at the plant, Mr. Brown, our purchasing agent, acquaints himself with the market through his current catalogs — price lists, and various other reports, so that when we buy, we buy RIGHT.

You can follow the same plan, read the various ads in your newspaper, they cover your market pretty thoroughly. Keep posted on your market, investigate before you buy and you’ll buy RIGHT.

Mr. and Mrs. Trussell will arrive Saturday and will have charge of the song service and music Sunday morning. It is a well recognized fact that Mr. Trussell is one of the greatest gospel singers to be found any where.

A Revival Our Greatest Need
A revival of religion is Haskell's greatest need. A revival of religion will settle the rain question. In 2 Chro. 7:14, we have this wonderful promise: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sins, and will heal their land."

A Welcome To Everybody
We trust that every member of the different churches of our town will feel a warm welcome to attend our services. We are anxious for you to find a place of service in the revival. It is our chief desire to make the meeting a blessing to all.

A Special Invitation To The Unsaved
We want the men who do not make any profession of religion to attend our services. We are anxious that you come, both young and old. We want you to feel at home and to know that you are coming among friends. You will not be embarrassed at any time. If some men is mastered by strong drink or any other sin let him feel free to come and take a front seat. He will not be abused, but we will do our best to point him to a higher power that will help him to live the victorious life.

GOOD MUSIC, GOSPEL SINGING AND A WARM WELCOME AWAITS YOU.

Our Vote

The Free Press will support Ross Sterling for Governor in the run-off primary on August 23rd. We could not do otherwise with the regime of the Fergusons still fresh in our memory. Their abuse of the pardoning power in the last administration, with a campaign promise that two thousand more convicts would be turned loose on the public as soon as he was elected, would be sufficient grounds for us to oppose him. And we have not forgotten the charges filed in the impeachment trial upon which he was convicted and removed from office. Nor the highway scandal during Mrs. Ferguson's administration, when more than three quarters of a million dollars were recovered in excess profits from road contractors and the Federal Government withdrew all appropriations for highways in Texas.

Ross Sterling is not a politician and has never before made a campaign for office, but he has made a success of his own business and we believe that as big an institution as Texas needs a man at the head of its affairs, who is capable, efficient and honest. A good many people will vote against Sterling because he is rich, but some of the best governors Texas ever had were considered rich men in their time. Jim Hogg, Tom Campbell and Chas. Culberson were wealthy men.

With this out of our System we might say that we do not have any particular choice between Edgar Witt and Sterling P. Strong for Lieutenant Governor.

In the State Treasurers race we are going to vote for Charlie Lockhart of Travis County who is opposed by John E. Davis of Dallas.

For Attorney General we are for James V. Alford of Wichita Falls and against Robert Lee Bobbitt of Webb County.

For Commissioner of Agriculture we are going to vote for our friend A. H. King of Throckmorton County who is opposed by J. E. McDonald of Ellis County.

For State Railroad Commissioner we will support Pat M. Neit, who is opposed by W. Gregory Hatcher.

However we refuse to get all "het up" over the campaign. We are going to vote as we please and expect everyone else to do the same and we are not going to abuse any of our friends because they do not see fit to vote as we are going to do.

Side Issues

A friend who recently attended a college commencement made the following remark which hits conditions in all towns, including Haskell.

"Most of what these young people have learned in this college," said, "will soon be forgotten. But one thing they have learned, and college graduates usually have that power is that they become able to distinguish side issues from really important things."

This gift is not confined to college graduates. A lot of people who have but little education have it. But it makes all the difference in the world to a person or to a community.

Take organizations. A society will be running along fine. And then someone gets elected to some office, and people think that person wears the wrong kind of clothes, or fails to use good grammar, or does not go with the right set. If that person is doing good work on the job, these side issues make no particular difference. But a lot of people can't see it, and they get sore over these side issues, and quit or lose interest and the organization suffers a decline.

Take community progress. Some one starts a good project, which ought to be put through. But some people think the one that started it does not belong to the right crowd, or they find minor flaws in his idea. They turn down the whole proposition because of some quarrel about these little side issues, and the plan is wrecked.

A lot of people in their own personal efforts are constantly being diverted by side issues from the real ends of life. Anyone who keeps reading good books, magazines and newspapers, and tries to associate with intelligent and thoughtful people, is apt to keep his mind on the main aims and objectives of life, and not waste effort and do harm by dwelling too much on the side issues.

Home institutions

The development of a community depends mostly upon its reputation, and its reputation is built up not merely by showing business enterprise but by providing all the institutions needed for modern community living.

Perhaps the most essential institution in a community is a good public school system. People will go to much expense and make some sacrifices, for the sake of living in a community known to provide good schools for their children. Top dollars paid out for extra good school equipment and for superior teachers make lack in the form of taxes paid by people who move into communities known to have good schools.

Churches are an institution the necessity of which is equally vital. People look to church life for the training of their children, for the satisfaction of their cravings for better living and for pleasant social life. A community having churches that provide altar preaching, good music, well equipped church buildings, looks twice as attractive to the majority of people.

Fraternals and social organizations are a vital essential. People have no time for a cold town. They want to move into a community with pleasant societies and clubs, where their social instincts can be gratified, and where they can make progress in culture and make friends.

A good public library and reading room is an essential institution, though thousands of American towns do not yet realize it. The time will come when a town without a library will seem almost as backward as one without a school. The people need books and magazines and newspapers to keep up with the times, and they feel out of the world if these are not provided them.

These are a few of the vital essentials of community life. Money devoted to their support all comes back for communities can not expect to attract progressive people, unless they have such essential features.

Clean Up As You Go

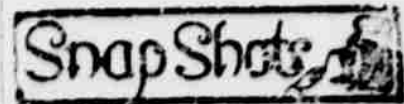

One man had a bit of refuse to handle, and he drops it in his back yard, thinking he will take care of it the next day. But he doesn't. Probably he drops something else equally unsightly. His grounds are a mess of litter.

Another man who has a bit of refuse to dispose of, makes a suitable disposition of it at once. If it is combustible, he puts it in a stove or fireplace or furnace. If not, he dumps it in some can or barrel kept for that purpose where it is out of sight. When the container is full, he has it dumped in a suitable place. His grounds are pleasing all the time, and they attract people to the neighborhood. We want that kind of folks here in Haskell.

Brown Skinned Folks

Sun tan is the fashion. People are seen returning from their vacation, brown as berries. Many boys and girls are so tanned that you could take them for Indians.

The girls who in former years would have refused to play out in the open, for fear they would spoil their pale and delicate loveliness, now expose their faces, legs, and arms freely to the sun. According to all talk, the rays of the sun are very beneficial, if not overdone. Lying so much in the sunlight should not merely make people stronger physically, but they seem to acquire a more normal point of view. They get away from the artificialities of civilization, they are less nervous, more contented, less restless. Sun tan not merely browns the body, but it is a tonic to the soul.

WTUC SHOWS SPLENDID IMPROVEMENT IN ITS SAFETY DEPARTMENT

The Accident-Prevention work is showing a splendid improvement throughout the properties served by the West Texas Utilities Company is evidenced by a recent report released from the company's Safety Department.

The West Texas Utilities Company established a record of 2.90 lost time accidents per 100 employees during the first six months of 1930, as against 3.00 lost time accidents for the same period last year.

From January 1st through June 30th, 1930, the company records show a total of 37 lost-time accidents with 407 days lost-time, compared with 58 lost-time accidents and 629 days lost-time in 1929.

A good feature of the improved ratio is the lack of fatal accidents. During 1929 two fatal accidents had been reported during the first six months, while this year to date there has been no employe fatalities. The employes are using every care to maintain that record.

The West Texas Utilities Company maintains a regular Safety Department, the purpose of which is to educate employes in Accident-Prevention measures and to train workers in first aid treatment. In addition to this work, inspection of the properties is carried on as regular routine work. In this manner, it is possible to eliminate all foreseeable hazards.

The company anticipates a continued improvement in Accident-Prevention records. According to figures recently released, the West Texas Utilities Company ranks fifth in Division 1 of the Middle West Utilities System.

Our costs are absorbed by several different lines instead of one. We sell and service the complete Firestone line, including Tires—Tubes—Batteries—Brake Lining—Rims and Accessories. Instead of buying these items from several different places, we get them from nearby Firestone branches or warehouses—all from one place on one shipping order—one handling.

Our Costs Are Lower Your Savings Greater

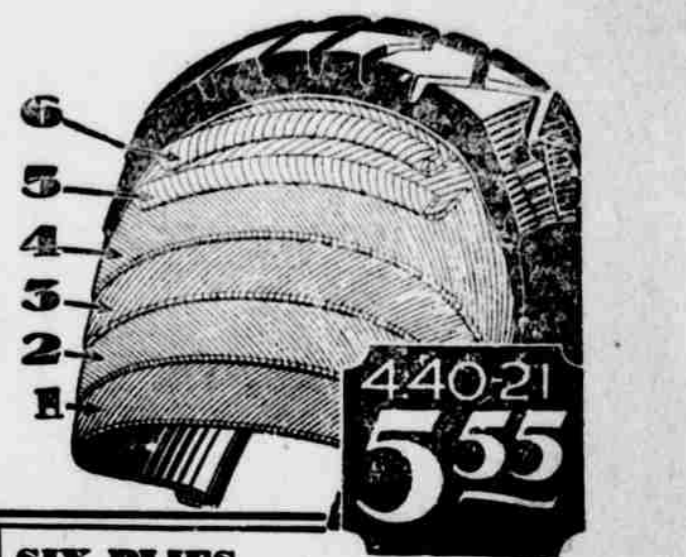

Firestone leads in bringing down prices. Firestone leads in new tire improvements and builds more miles into tires than any other manufacturer. Every advantage Firestone has in world wide resources—buying-rubber and cotton at the lowest prices—is put right back of us for the benefit of our customers. Result—you get more in value for less in price. The name "FIRESTONE" on every tire is the pledge of the manufacturer that the tire you buy is the best you can obtain for the price you pay.

THIS SEASON

Has become known as a Tornado period. At this season of the year the Twister's Terrifying Threat often becomes a reality laying waste thousands and thousands of dollars' worth of property and snuffing out many lives. Tornadoes are beyond the control of man, and the only defense is insurance to pay for the damage they cause. Almost every day the newspapers carry big headlines with reference to the latest disaster. No locality is exempt—yours may be next. Anywhere in this country—windstorms can and do destroy millions of dollars worth of property. Each year adds to the list of places which "could never have a destructive wind storm"—and did. Windstorm insurance rates are so low that it is not worth the risk to be without it. Let us tell you how little it costs to protect yourself from loss through damage done by wind to home or business property or car. Wind destroys a lot when you pay only a few dollars.

Funeral services for A. L. Cox, age 42, prominent and well-known farmer of this section, were held Tuesday afternoon at the Howard Baptist Church, with interment following in the Howard cemetery. Services were conducted by Rev. I. N. Ables of this city, assisted by Rev. H. G. Hammett, pastor of the Howard church.

Mr. Cox died in a Mineral Wells hospital early Monday morning, following a long siege of failing health. He had been seriously ill for about two weeks, and it was thought that treatment in the Mineral Wells hospital might restore his health.

The deceased had lived in Haskell county practically all his life, and was among the county's most enterprising farmers, and was a leader in community affairs of his section. Mr. Cox served as Commissioner of Precinct No. 3 for four years, and was also at one time engaged in the grocery business here. During late years, however, he had devoted his time to farming. In his long residence in this section Mr. Cox became intimately acquainted with practically everyone in this section, and the large concourse of friends who were assembled for the funeral rites attested to the high esteem in which he was held.

He is survived by his wife and seven children—his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Cox; three brothers, Jay, Seaton and Jim Cox, all of this county; and four sisters, Mrs. George Weaver, Mrs. Mart McCreary, Mrs. A. A. Green and Mrs. Tom Wiley.

The bereaved ones have the sincere sympathy of a host of friends in their sorrow.

NEW OPERATING DISTRICT FOR W. T. U.

Announcement was made this week from the Abilene General Office of the West Texas Utilities Company of the formation of a new operating district comprising recently acquired properties in Dallam, Sherman, Hartley and Moore counties. District Headquarters have been established at Dalhart, with J. A. Brewer appointed District Manager.

Stratford, Dumas, Hartley, Teguine, Chamberlain, Condon, Phillips, Altman, Epps and Exum are the towns included in the new division, to be known as District "D".

The new district is located in the center of a rich farming, ranching and natural gas territory. A commercial producer has been located in south of Altman, and many desirable oil locations have been located in that territory.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rike of Aspermont visited relatives and friends in Haskell last weekend.

Mrs. W. H. Price Funeral Held Here Wednesday

Mrs. Laura L. Price, age 62, wife of W. H. Price, and long a resident of this city died at the family home in the west part of town Tuesday August 12th after a brief illness. Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church in this city Wednesday afternoon at 2:30, conducted by Rev. H. R. Whately, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. C. Jones, a long-time friend of the family. Interment was in Willow Cemetery.

The deceased and her husband and family have been residents of this city for a number of years, and the death of Mrs. Price came as a distinct shock to a host of friends. Although she had reached an advanced age, she had enjoyed good health until a short time prior to her death. She was a member of the Baptist Church, having professed her faith many years ago, and her life was lived in the service of her Master. The large concourse of sorrowing friends and the beautiful floral offerings during the funeral rites were a tribute to the love and friendship of all who knew this good woman and the bereaved loved ones have the sincere sympathy of our entire citizenship.

Surviving are her husband, W. H. Price, and seven children. They are Mrs. Lee Irvin, Mrs. Minnie Adkins, Mrs. Myrtle Toptlett, and Mrs. Archer, Edward and Henry Price.

Section 1. That Section 3 of Article 2 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

The Legislature shall meet every two years as such time as may be provided by law and at other times when convened by the Governor. When convened in regular Session, the first thirty days thereof shall be devoted to the introduction of bills and resolutions, acting upon emergency appropriations, passing upon the confirmation of the Governor and such emergency matters as may be submitted by the Governor in special messages to the Legislature; provided that during the succeeding thirty days of the regular session of the Legislature the various committees of each House shall hold hearings to consider all bills and resolutions and other matters as may be submitted by the Governor; provided further that during the following sixty days the Legislature shall act upon such bills and resolutions as may be then pending and upon such emergency matters as may be submitted by the Governor in special messages to the Legislature; provided however, either House may otherwise determine its order of business by an affirmative vote of four-fifths of its membership.

Sec. 2. That Section 24 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

Members of the Legislature shall receive from the public Treasury a per diem of not exceeding $10.00 per day for the first 120 days of each session and after that not exceeding $5.00 per day for the remainder of the session.

In addition to the per diem the members of each House shall be entitled to mileage in going to and returning from the seat of government, which mileage shall not exceed $2.50 for every 25 miles, the distance to be computed by the nearest and most direct route of travel, from a table of distances prepared by the Comptroller to each county seat now or hereafter to be established; no member to be entitled to mileage for any extra session that may be called within one day after the adjournment of a regular or called session.

Sec. 3. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to the electors of this state qualified to vote on constitutional amendments at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1930.

COTTON COOP TO GET TRIAL BY FARMERS

This is the first week of a new cotton season. It brings with it a new, government-supported cotton marketing system.

The new service will be brought directly to the cotton grower of this territory at his home market. The grower will find an agent near him who will handle, in person, all details of the system from supplying information to making final payment.

Branch offices and sub-offices are in charge of federally licensed cotton classifiers. Receiving agents at smaller points will give similar service, but will send samples to branch or sub-offices for grading and stapling. Managers of branch and sub-offices are being selected from the best-qualified cotton men of the state. It is required that they have at least four years of grading and stapling according to government standards, as well as to have a government license.

The American Cotton Co-Operative Association, with E. P. Creekmore, one of the South's outstanding cotton merchants for many years, as general manager, makes all sales not only for the Texas Association, but for fourteen other associations covering the American cotton belt. This association is expected to have such a large volume of cotton passing through its hands that it will attract world-wide attention and be assured of the world's top market.

Since members are bound to deliver only part of their cotton to the association, the association must command a price equal to that which can be obtained elsewhere, if it is to obtain the rest of the member's cotton. Cotton growers might remember that the price being paid on the street is higher than it otherwise would be because the association is on the job, keeping the price up. But they may not be farsighted enough to appreciate that fact. The association must meet competition under the new plan, because delivery by its members is largely voluntary.

But the farmer might also bear in mind that his loyal support is necessary to make the program a success, and that the government which has been 154 years in putting itself behind the farmer, may be a long time in doing so again should the farmer fail to accept this opportunity.

Facts and Figures

Numerous unfounded reports are being circulated throughout Commissioners' Precinct No. Four regarding amount of gasoline used by my road machinery in maintenance of roads in this precinct and the further statement that a general tax raise will be made of property values in Precinct No. Four immediately after the Second Primary Election has been held.

Regarding amount of gasoline used will state that gasoline bills paid by Precinct No. Four for the first six months of this year show a total of $1,234.61, which, in fact, is a less amount than has been used by any Precinct in the County, for the same period of time.

Regarding general tax raise will state that all changes in renditions of property in Precinct No. Four were made in the month of July and all notices have been mailed and hearings have been had. No further raises of any kind will be made this year.

Each of the above statements may be verified by the records in the Office of the County Clerk, and in all fairness to me and to yourself I ask that you call at the above office and satisfy yourself as to the truthfulness of statements made above.

Signed:
L. C. PHILIPS,
Comr. Precinct No. Four.

Subscribed and sworn to before me on this the 12th day of August, A. D. 1930.

Total Amount $20,619.20

The total debt of $20,619.20 is as much as $3,500.00 less than the debt was when I took office in 1925. And we have today $1,500.00 to the credit of the Road and Bridge Fund in Precinct 4, whereas there was $53.00 cash to the credit of Precinct 4 the day I took office.
