

SOCIETY and Club

Harmony Club.

The Harmony Club took up its work for the season on Wednesday Oct. 7th.

According to custom the first meeting of the year is the President's Day Luncheon with the entertainment committee acting as hostesses. All members gathered for lunch preceding the program.

Lunch consisted of fried chicken, cream gravy with giblets, candied yams, fruit salad, hot buns, lemon pie and coffee.

The main feature of the program was the president's speech, which was as follows:

"Club Members, Friends: When time was young and the first fresh dew sparkled on all tender, green things, and the stars were first flung into space, glittering and twinkling, fairly shouting a grand and glorious chorus—a 'Harmony Club' was organized.

"In the Garden of Eden, while the first man and woman walked in the cool of the evening listening to the song of the birds and the shrill call of 'Katy-dids'—'Katy-broke-my-china-saucer'—'She-didn't'—'She-did'—a chuckling rhapsody of harmony.

"A group of music lovers organized in our lovely little City of Haskell, twenty years ago, more or less, our own beloved Harmony Club.

"It seems proper and fitting that we should at this time express our appreciation to that far-seeing body of women, who, perhaps, faced difficult odds in organizing a Harmony Club that has substantially stood throughout the years.

"I would, too, at this time, express appreciation to the capable, talented ones of you who have acted as former Presidents of this Harmony Club. And I assure you it is no small obligation to preside over so gifted a body.

"I am honored to have been chosen President of our Club, and shall endeavor to give the best in me at all times to further its interests and ideals.

"May our Club continue another harmonious twenty years.

"I thank you," Mrs. Vaughn Bailey, chairman of Year Book Committee gave an outline of the year's study. All members answered to roll call with American composers. Mr. Meacham one of our associate members made an interesting talk on "What the Harmony Club Meant to Our City and What the Harmony Clubs of the State Were Doing in the Way of Promoting Better Music Throughout the State.

Members present to enjoy the excellent lunch and program were:

Madames Vaughn Bailey, T. C. Cahill, D. L. Cummins, J. T. Ellis, R. L. Harrison, Mack Martin, Geo. H. Morrison, Carl Powers, R. J. Reynolds, D. Scott, B. M. Whiteaker, Jack Sills, J. A. Bailey, C. L. Lewis, J. D. Hughes, O. E. Patterson, E. Gaston Poote, H. R. Whately, Mr. Joseph Meacham, Misses Bertha Carman, Lucile Gilstrap, Eunice Huckabee, Mary Emma Whiteaker and Marjorie Whiteaker.

The Harmony Club is the best music club of our little city and we are looking forward to one of the very best years work since the organization of the club. We stand for and work for better music in the church, home and school and we hope that we will have the co-operation of our music loving friends to promote this work in our country communities as well as in the city of Haskell.

Senior League.

The round table discussion, "What Shall We Do On Sunday?" was of such great interest that the Leaguers voted to continue it next Sunday night. To do this and not interfere with Woodrow's program, "How to Answer 'Wet' Arguments," we will have to begin earlier, at 6:30. Please remember, 6:30 promptly.

Pains Stopped When Lady Got Stronger

"About a year ago, my health was not good," writes Mrs. W. F. Siverly, 1808 First Court, N. Birmingham, Ala. "I felt weak, tired, I had pains in my back. I know by these symptoms I needed something to build me up. My mother advised me to try Cardui, which I did. I found it was what I needed, for it built me up. The pain in my back stopped, and I felt better and stronger than I had in some time. I took about 7 bottles of Cardui in all."

Epworth League Organized.

The young people of Howard organized an Epworth League Sunday night. There were about 22 young people that joined the League and the officers were elected as follows:

President—Clara Medford.

Vice President—Nevada Underwood.

Secretary—Joy Balthrop.

Epworth Era—Edith McMahan.

We want all the young people to come to League.

We meet next Sunday night about 7:30 o'clock. All members be present and bring some one with you.

Jossett H. D. Club.

The Jossett Home Demonstration Club met October 13 in the home of Mrs. P. J. Jossett with eight regular members, one visitor and the Agent present. In the absence of our Chairman, Mrs. Jesse Jossett presided over the meeting and Mrs. E. B. Calloway served as secretary.

Miss Partow gave a very interesting demonstration on preserving green tomatoes and making different kinds of relishes.

The hostesses, Mrs. C. A. Thomas and Mrs. J. L. Toliver served refreshments of ice cream, angel food cake and iced chocolate.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Clay Kimbrough, Jr. Oct. 27. —Reporter.

FARMERS ARE DIGGING IN FOR THE WINTER WITH TRENCH SILOS

It cost $86.25 for man, horse and tractor labor for Wright Brothers, Bexar county dairymen, to build this 180-ton trench silo, and 88 cents per ton to fill it with the crop from 20 acres of begari. Built in a hillside, the silo is 140 feet long, averages 13 feet in width at the top, 8 feet at the bottom, and is 9 feet deep. It was dug with plows, slip scrapers and Fresno and the walls smoothed down with hoes, according to W. O. Thompson, assistant county agent, and the cut ensilage was packed down by tractor during the filling process. When filled the silo was covered with a six-inch layer of oat straw, thoroughly wet down, and covered over with six inches of dirt. A terrace thrown up around the silo keeps water from running in.

County agents in every section of Texas reported dairy herd demonstrators digging and filling trench silos in August because of the urgent need to cut production costs of dairy and other livestock products. They are finding this method cheaper than providing barn space for the bumper feed crop, less wasteful than stack storage, and more productive of dollars than either. The cost of construction is running about 50 cents or less per ton capacity, and the cost of filling with corn, begari, milo, kafir or sweet sorghums less than $1 per ton. Most farmers plan to feed the ensilage out during periods when pastures are short, the county agents say.

While trench silos are more wasteful than other types, in need of yearly repair of walls, and apt to fill up with run-off water unless precautions are taken, they are so cheap to build and easy to fill that they are considered entirely practical by livestock and engineering specialists in the Extension Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Texas A. and M. College and culture. Among the counties reporting trench silos recently constructed are Bexar, Hopkins, Harrison, Mitchell, Guadalupe, Travis, Johnson, Titus, Gray, DeWitt, McLennan and Lamb.

DENNIS P. RATLIFF FOR BROOKS BILL

The "Abilene Daily Reporter," of date Wednesday, September 30th, carried an article concerning the Brooks Bill, pending before the Legislature, which bill proposes to set aside one cent of the gasoline tax for the purpose of paying interest and retiring county road bonds. The writer of the article, under the head "West Texas Vote," stated in substance that Representative Ratliff was against the Brooks bill. That statement was erroneous for the reason that I voted for the bill, and the record will so show, and not against it as the "Reporter" states.

I did not authorize any statement by the press, and had no knowledge of such statement until I saw it in the "Reporter." I voted for the Brooks Bill with no intention of embarrassing the Governor or the Highway Department of Texas in its work, but with the hope that some plan might be worked out whereby the Highway bond tax burden might be lifted from the homes, farms and ranches and placed on the highway traffic where it properly belongs.

Respectfully submitted, Dennis P. Ratliff, Representative 118th District.

Smiles

Why take life too seriously? You'll never get out of it alive.

Judge: "I cannot conceive of a meaner, more cowardly act than yours of deserting your wife. Do you realize you are a deserter?"

Rastus: "Well, if you all done knowed dat lady as Ah does, boss, you all sho wouldn't call me no deserter. Ah is a refugee—dat's what Ah is."

In the game it's GRIT. In spinach, it's terrible.

"That is a falsehood," said the teacher sternly. "Do you know what will happen to you if you lie?"

"Yes'm," replied Skinnie. "I'll go to hell and burn."

"Worse than that; you will be expelled from school."

Taking No Chances A stranger asked for a ticket to Buffalo, handing in a $20 bill.

"Change at Albany," the clerk said.

"None of that now," replied the stranger. "O! want me change right here."

Chelly Chapps—Yesterday I was in the company of the one I love most.

Mrs. Pepper (sweetly)—I'm surprised you don't get tired of being alone so much.

Fessie had a new dime to invest in an ice cream soda. "Why don't you give your dime to the missions," said the minister, who was calling.

"I thought about that," said Fessie, "but I think I'll buy the ice cream soda, and let the druggist give it to the missions."

One thing can be said for the worm: When it gets ready to turn it does not hold out its hand to confuse you.

Without "Free Wheeling"

A teacher was instructing her class in the use of antonyms. "Now, children," she said, "what is the opposite of the word sorrow?"

"Happiness," shrieked the class in unison.

"What is the opposite of pleasure?"

"Pain."

"And what is the opposite of woe?"

"Giddap."

Another Moral

It was the first real snowstorm of the year and the teacher felt it her duty to warn her pupils before she dismissed them.

"Boys and girls should be very careful to avoid colds at this time of the year," she began solemnly. "I had a darling little brother only seven years old. One day he went out in the snow with his new sled and caught cold. Pneumonia set in and three days later he was dead."

The schoolroom was so quiet you could hear a pin drop. Then a youngster in the back row asked:

"Where's his sled?"

Teacher—Why do we use soap?

Johnny (feelingly)—That's what I'd like to know.

Proof

Teacher—And so we find that heat expands things, and cold contracts them. Can anyone give me an example of that?

Bright Student—Yes, ma'am. The days are longer in the summer!

THE SMOOT-HAWLEY TARIFF

The favorite argument adduced by the proponents of the Smoot-Hawley tariff during the long debates in Congress, was that the higher rates were necessary to maintain the wage scales for American labor.

In vain the opponents of the measure protested that the industries most sought to be benefitted showed no diminution of profits or production, and therefore did not come within the rule laid down by the President that tariff changes should be limited to those industries that showed distress, resulting in unemployment. They merely replied that the American standard of living must be maintained and that American working men must be assured against wage reductions.

Still forgotten are such prophecies as that made by Senator Watson, of Indiana, administration spokesman by virtue of his majority leadership, that the passage of the Smoot-Hawley bill would be followed within a month by an upturn in the industrial situation and shortly thereafter would place the United States back on the plane of prosperity.

What are the facts? We now have the biggest industrial group in the country cutting wages, despite the tariff favors extended. The sequence of events is obvious. The Smoot-Hawley embargo rates resulted first in the imposition of reprisal duties by our best customers among foreign nations. In order to escape these, billions of dollars worth of American industries moved over the border into Canada, and into other countries, where they not only avoided the high import duties, but were able to market their goods abroad, notably in the various colonies, dependencies and dominions of the British empire, with full benefit of a preferential tariff for them, and reciprocity agreements, with other nations, denied to the United States.

Tens, perhaps hundreds of thousands of Canadian, Belgian, Italian and British workmen are now engaged in the manufacture of goods, which previous to the threat of the Smoot-Hawley bill, was being done by factory hands in our own country. Obviously this alienation of business from our total of commerce, involves the partial idleness of concerns that formerly supplied all this export trade.

The diminution of business motivates the decrease of wages, so the net result of the tariff bill which was to rehabilitate our whole economic system, to domestic labor has been to take ten per cent of the pay envelope of a million American workmen.

COLUMBUS

After the lapse of more than four hundred years the fame of Columbus is not dimmed, and each succeeding year but adds new luster to his name. Monday the nation celebrated the anniversary of his great exploit, one that shaped the course of history and brought about more changes than perhaps any other in the long march of human progress.

Here was a man alien to our land in birth and nationality, differing from the majority from the standpoint of religion, and yet honored by men of every creed and belief. To achieve such a position in the hearts of Americans proves that the man himself, in his own personality, as distinguished from the great discovery of which he was the instrument, must have possessed qualities that appeal to the American mind.

When we analyze his life the reason for his eminence is not hard to find. He had in full degree the quality that has distinguished above all others the people of this country—the pioneering spirit. It was not enough for him to follow along the beaten paths of life, where all is peaceful and quiet and safe. Life for him was a quest, a challenge, a thing to be lived beyond the tame and commonplace.

It is well for America to recall at this time the hardships and difficulties that he overcame in the pursuit of his quest, and at the same time to hold in remembrance their ancestry, who were men of the same type, of the same indomitable spirit that characterized the discoverer of this great land.

There is need in the trying times through which we are passing to remember the hardships that those who made this land passed through, from the discoverer down through the long line of pioneers who gave it to us. The old American pluck and cheerfulness under the stress and strain of hardships appears to be weakening. We are too much given to nerves, fault-finding and fears.

THE POLITICAL TREND

On the eve of the recent Congressional election in Missouri, Mark Sullivan, known to Washington correspondents as the unofficial spokesman of the White House, declared that the election would be looked upon as a "barometer reflecting just how great is the swing away from the Republicans." As he viewed it, it would be safe to say that "if the regular Democratic candidate should win under the handicap of a divided party, that would be a bad omen for the Republicans."

It turned out to be more than a "bad omen." It was a tidal wave. The returns give the regular Democratic candidate, opposed by an independent Democrat as well as the Republican contender, a lead of nearly 10,000 votes. It was the largest majority ever scored in the district. Compared with a Republican majority of more than 6,000 in the Hoover landslide of 1928, and a Democratic majority of 2,500 in 1926, the latest vote, with a divided party, takes on the nature of an earthquake for the Hoover hopes.

It is agreed that the result was due to "discontent with the party in power because of economic conditions." It takes no more than a glance at the results to tell how deep and intense this dissatisfaction is, and it will be found that this dissatisfaction is not confined to Missouri.

CONQUERING DIPHTHERIA

Except through ignorance or neglect no person need die from diphtheria in the future, according to Dr. Harrison of the National Institute of Health, who recently described the wonderful effects of toxoid immunization, the latest method of preventing this once dreaded enemy of childhood.

Toxoid was first introduced by Prof. Ramon of the Pasteur Institute in Paris, but credit for developing it to its present efficient state is given to Dr. William H. Park, of New York, who is said to have done more to wipe out diphtheria than any other living man.

A course of two or three treatments by the toxoid method makes children immune in nine cases out of ten. Toxoid is non-poisonous and entirely harmless, no case of injury having ever been known to result from its use.

While diphtheria antitoxin has been employed with much success for many years, the new method of treatment is declared to be far superior to any heretofore developed. Dr. Harrison considers it the greatest health discovery since Jenner's introduction of vaccination against smallpox. He predicts that diphtheria will entirely disappear within a few years.

Haskell County History

Twenty Years Ago Today—1911

The Haskell Free Press and the Haskell Herald goes to their readers this week in consolidated form, retaining the old name of Free Press. We are necessarily delayed with the paper this week on account of so much work attached to the change, etc. We hope to reach the people on time in the future and we feel confident that the generosity of the Haskell County people will overlook any short comings of the paper for an issue or so, until we get entirely adjusted.

The Jury Commissioners for the County Court were: R. Massey, Crawford Allen, C. B. Norman. These commissioners met last week and selected the jury men to serve in the county court for the next six months.

W. M. Druesedow left Thursday evening for Williamson County on business.

J. D. Hall the versatile editor of the Rule Review was in the city yesterday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wood of Putnam came Thursday night to visit their daughter Mrs. N. I. McCollum.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Arbuckle visited Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Jenkins of Buffalo Gap the early part of the week. The report is current that they wandered off into the mountains of that section and were lost for a day or two.

Mrs. M. H. Strickland of Sedwick returned home Wednesday evening after visiting the family of J. W. Robertson of this city.

Dr. Taylor reports the following births this week:

To Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wellen, a son.

To Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gammill, a daughter.

To Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Davis, a daughter.

To Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Grissom, a son.

To Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Burson, a daughter.

Thirty Years Ago Today—1901

The people of other portions of Texas are finding out just what Haskell County is and they are coming—A steady stream of farmers have been flowing in for the last year and half, until now riding over the county in almost any direction one sees more new farms and houses than old ones.

For the past year and a half the demand for houses in Haskell has exceeded the supply. We believe that money invested in residences of moderate cost will pay a good dividend on the investment.

Mr. and Mrs. Major Smith were in town Monday starting on a trip to Clairmont. They returned Thursday.

T. G. Carney is making an extensive addition to his store.

Thomas Griffith of Stamford visited in Haskell Sunday.

Sheriff Boardner of Stonewall was in Haskell several days this week.

Dr. Manning made a professional visit to Haskell this week, from Stamford.

Mrs. Coopwood left for her home at Lockhart this morning after several weeks visit to her daughter, Mrs. Sam Anderson of this place.

John P. Slaton of Montague, Tex., was here Tuesday looking over the country.

Forty Years Ago Today—1891

H. C. Dillahunty left Monday for Strawn to be at the bedside of his father who is very sick. He was summoned by telegram.

E. A. Rose was in the city this week.

J. W. Becknell and Will Dickenson took in the circus at Abilene Monday.

T. P. Martin, J. M. Collins and L. M. Rider made a business trip to Abilene this week.

The press, type and other fixtures of The Star sold last Monday under a deed of trust for $130.00.

G. W. Smith was in the city this week and reports that he is preparing his wheat land and that it is in splendid condition for plowing.

One of our business men had a letter from a gentleman of prominence stating that a railroad from Vernon south to Abilene will come through Haskell.

S. W. Scott, Esq., will go to Dickens and Motley counties on business.

Miss L. B. Henderson of Colorado Texas has been elected as one of the teachers by the board of trustees for the Haskell schools. Miss Henderson is a niece of Capt. Killough.

Mother (teaching son arithmetic) Now, take the Spinks family! There is mother, daddy and the baby. How many does that make? Bright Son—Two and one to carry!

Statement of Ownership

Statement of the Ownership, Management, Circulation, etc., required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912, of the Haskell Free Press published weekly at Haskell, Texas, for October 1, 1931.

State of Texas, County of Haskell, ss.

Before me, a Notary Public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared Sam A. Roberts who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the publisher of the Haskell Free Press and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management (and if a daily paper, the circulation), etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 411, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are: Publisher, Editor, Managing Editor, Business Manager—Sam A. Roberts, Haskell, Texas.
2. That the owner is: Sam A. Roberts, Haskell, Texas.
3. That the known bondholders, mortgages, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: The Haskell National Bank, Haskell, Texas.
4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the WARNING!

We wish to call the attention of all persons to the fact that anyone entering upon the premises of the courthouse, where construction work is under way, between the hours of 6 o'clock p. m. and 7 o'clock a. m., is guilty of trespassing.

Parents are warned that it is extremely dangerous for children to play in and around the premises; and it is especially hazardous after nightfall, when no one connected with the construction work is present. Parents are urged to impress upon their children the dangers involved in entering upon the premises at any time, in order that possible injuries or property damage be avoided.

SAMPSON CONSTRUCTION COMPANY

"More genuine satisfaction than any car I ever owned"

THE FORD is good-looking. It is safe. Comfortable. Speedy. Reliable. Long-lived. Economical. Everything a good car should be.

There is, too, an added something about it that brings enthusiastic comments from every one who has ever driven a Ford . . . the joy it puts in motoring.

"I have been a car owner continuously for nearly 20 years," writes a motorist connected with a leading university. "During this period I have bought eleven new automobiles. Eight of the eleven were in the middle-price field, one cost three thousand dollars, and the last is a Ford I purchased thirteen months ago.

"In the light of this experience I can say in all sincerity that I have derived more genuine satisfaction from the Ford than any car I ever owned. In saying this, I am thinking in terms of comfort, safety, driving pleasure, ease of control and economy. My next car will also be a Ford because it will give me what I want at a price I can afford to pay."

When you get behind the wheel of the Ford and drive it yourself you will know it is a truly remarkable car at a low price. You will like it when you first buy it. You will become more and more enthusiastic the longer you drive it.

After thousands of miles of driving you will say "it's a great car." Its economy will save you many dollars.

SOCIETY Club

Magazine Club Opens Season.

Mrs. Dallas Scarborough of Abilene, connoisseur of antiques and widely-known civic leader, was speaker at a tea given here Friday afternoon by the Magazine club in their club house to celebrate president's day in opening the club year.

Mrs. C. V. Payne directed the program, introducing the incoming president, Mrs. R. C. Couch, who brought greetings and a message to members. Mrs. Payne then introduced Mrs. Scarborough, whose talk on "Furniture of the American Empire," was closely related to the study program for the year. Music was given by Mrs. Pace and Mrs. Patterson, who played "Night Dream" (Mendelssohn-Liszt).

After the program, a social hour was held, when a salad course was served.

New officers along with Mrs. Couch are: Mrs. J. U. Fields, vice president; Mrs. T. G. Cahill, second vice president; Mrs. Clay Smith, recording secretary; Mrs. J. B. Post, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. A. Couch, treasurer; Mrs. R. J. Reynolds, parliamentarian; Mrs. Virgil Reynolds, publicity director; Mrs. J. L. Southern, counselor.

Other guests were Mrs. Harry Tom King and Mrs. Harry Porter Brooks, Abilene; Mrs. J. E. Williams, Fort Worth; Mrs. John Pace, Jr., of Dallas; Mrs. Sam Chapman, and the following club members: Meses. W. N. Huckabee, Guy Mays, John Oates, C. V. Payne, H. S. Post, R. E. Sherrill, H. M. Smith, Courtney Hunt, C. L. Lewis, O. E. Patterson, S. R. Rike, F. T. Sanders, H. S. Wilson, N. I. McCollum, W. M. Reid, Joe A. Jones, E. Gaston Foote, Hill Oates, Ethel Irby and R. C. Montgomery.

North Ward P. T. A.

The North Ward P. T. A. met October 8th with Mrs. D. H. Persons directing the program. This was an unusually fine meeting, for we had a splendid program and a large number of patrons present.

The program opened with two song numbers by members of the Sixth Grade who were trained and accompanied by Miss Madalin Hunt. The songs were (1) Indian Lullaby and (2) Robin Red Breast.

The speaker for the program was Mrs. Fred Sanders, who talked on "The Work of the P. T. A." She gave as the purpose of the organization the study of the child and the creation of better atmosphere for him in home, school and community.

Two numbers by pupils of Mrs. Kaigler were next on the program. The first was "Sidewalks of New York," a tap dance by Misses Gussie Mae Patterson and Lillian Kaigler, accompanied by Miss Louise Kaigler. The second number was "My Mother's Wedding Gown," a reading by Miss Louise Warren. Both numbers were repeated from a previous program by special request.

Mrs. John W. Pace gave a piano selection as the last number on the program.

A short business meeting followed the program. Yearbooks were distributed and discussed by Mrs. A. H. Wair. The next meeting will be on October 22. Dues of 50c for the year are now payable.

4-K Klub.

Last Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Roy Killingsworth entertained members of the 4-K Klub from four until six o'clock.

Rosebuds added much attraction to the rooms where two tables were laid for bridge. At refreshment hour dainty refreshments were served to Mesdames: Oscar Oates, Lola W. Bledsoe, Ino. V. Davis, Misses Nettie and Margaret McCollum, Madaline Hunt, Lewis Manly, Eunice Huckabee and the hostess.

Mrs. John A. Couch Entertains Golf Widows.

Mrs. Ino. A. Couch entertained members of the Golf Widows Club and guests last Tuesday afternoon, with a pretty fall party.

Fall flowers, cosmos and queens wreath, were emphasized in the decorations and the dainty refreshment plate which held a salad course. Forty two was the diversion of the afternoon. Members and guests present were:

Mesdames Courtney Hunt, F. L. Daugherty, R. C. Couch, H. M. Smith, O. E. Patterson, B. M. Whiteker, A. H. Wair, Sam Roberts, R. J. Reynolds, J. M. Diggs, H. S. Post, D. L. Cummins, H. S. Wilson, F. T. Sanders, R. C. Montgomery, Joe Jones.

In Memory of Mrs. Martin Rueffer:

Our Father in heaven has called home. A loved one to us so dear. Oh! How we miss her sweet smile. And long for her presence down here. She faced this world with a smile. And brought joy to others every day. But Jesus thought twas best to take her. From this weary world away. Through her hours of suffering and pain. Affectionate and kind was she. As she thought of her Heavenly father. And the great eternity.

We often wonder dear Father Why Thou called her home so soon. She resembled a rose in a garden That had just begun to bloom. But we feel dear Lord and Savior, That Thou her soul has won. And we pray some day to meet her. When our work on earth is done.

—By a Friend.

CARD OF THANKS

I take this means of expressing my heartfelt thanks to the many kind friends and neighbors for their acts of kindness during the illness and death of my beloved wife, Olga Rueffer, and for the beautiful floral offerings. Your kindness will always be remembered and appreciated, and I pray that God's richest blessings may rest upon each and every one of you.

Martin Rueffer, 1tp.
