FORTY-EIGHTH YEAR

ATTEMPT MADE TO KILL PRESIDENT-ELECT ROOSEVELT AT MIAMI

A determined gunman with poor aim made a deliberate attempt Wednesday night to assassinate president-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt at Miami, Florida, but his shots had serious effect on Anton Mak, mayor of Chicago, and four other persons.

He was a stocky, swarthy complexioned assailant with curly black hair who fired on the president-elect's party in a Miami street. Mr. Roosevelt was not hurt. The assassin said he was Joe Zama, New York, and told police he attempted to kill the King of Italy five years ago.

"I'm sorry I didn't kill him," the man said police. "I want to kill presidents—all officers." Mayor Cermak, talking to Mr. Roosevelt from his hospital bed, said: "I'm glad it was me instead of you."

COMMON SCHOOL TAX CAN NOW BE PAID SEPARATELY

D. F. Fouts, Tax Collector, has notified that the recent law passed by the legislature permitting one to pay their common school tax without paying their property tax is now in effect and Mr. Fouts is preparing to take care of such matters at his office.

The new law was made possible by House Bill No. 261, passed by the 43rd Legislature and was approved by the Governor on February 8th, 1933, and became effective that day it was signed. The Bill requires the taxpayer of any Common School District to pay one-half all his Common School Taxes about paying other taxes assessed the tax roll.

Union Services At the Baptist Church Sunday Evening

Every friend of righteousness and government will be interested in the service Sunday evening at Baptist church, in which all the churches of the town are cooperating. The remarkable way in which this union sentiment throughout the city is rallying and becoming united is extremely encouraging. An arrested attempt at repeal of this legislation gives hope that the vicious wet propaganda yet fall of its purpose. The union will be discussed from various phases Sunday evening in ten talks in the following program:

- 1. "The Union" - Mr. J. L. Harrison
- 2. "The Union" - Mrs. J. T. Wilson
- 3. "The Union" - Mrs. J. T. Wilson

FIREMEN ANSWER ONE ALARM BUT FIND TWO FIRES

Local firemen were somewhat bewildered Thursday afternoon when they answered an alarm of fire at 2:30—and found two fires, several blocks apart. The alarm was turned in for the Bob Herrin residence in the north part of town, where a short circuit in electric wiring had filled the ceiling full of smoke. Both trucks rushed to the Herrin home, and on the way firemen noticed smoke pouring from the garage at the home of Willie Johnson, near the High School building. After going to the Herrin fire, which was quickly extinguished with no damage, firemen were soon on the job at the Johnson fire, where the garage was practically destroyed by flames, together with a quantity of home-killed meats and feedstuffs stored in the building. Origin of the fire was not learned.

METHODIST CHOR TO SPONSOR PLAY THURSDAY FEB. 23

One of the most sensational comedies of the season will be presented at the High School Auditorium on Thursday evening Feb. 23, at eight o'clock. The cast is composed chiefly of the members of the choir of First Methodist Church, under whose direction the program is presented. Each character is an artist in his role. The setting of the play is an informal gathering of country cousins who furnish hilarious entertainment for their audience. Comic dialogues, songs, skits, jokes, minstrel make up the hour of fun. Aunt Ophelia, Sis Hopkins, Mary Jenny, the "cullud lady," Cousin Sukey and a host of others keep the audience in an uproar of laughter. Two "Twisted Sisters" get so out of shape it is impossible to tell whether they are "coming or going." A comic quartet will be given in which two old maids will be sold at public auction. The Toonerville Quartet will be on hand to sing some popular numbers. Here is opportunity for an hour at least, to laugh the depression away. The costume and make-up of the characters is impossible of description. Missing this you have missed the most side-splitting entertainment Haskell has produced.

Here is the cast of characters: Aunt Ophelia, the boss—Mrs. C. L. Lewis. Cousin Sukey, from Sidecomb Corners—Mrs. Mack Martin. Cousin Molly, who plans like sixty—Mrs. Wallace Cox. Cousin Moriah, from Berghum Center—Mrs. A. W. Gordon. Cousin Della, from Doughnut Crossing—Mrs. J. L. Shriver. Cousin Sarah, looking for a man—Mrs. E. L. Harrison. Cousin Jess, who's got city ways—Mrs. Squires. Cousin Cecilia, from Skinnypolis—Mrs. J. L. Southern. Cousin Samantha, "party at 80"—Mrs. J. T. Wilson. Sis Hopkins, smitten with Billious—Miss Lois Earnest. Cousin Marindy, who sings like a bird—Mrs. Bert Welch. Ma's Jenny, hectic colored lady—Miss Velma Hamilton. Topsy and Arabella Turnover, little pickaninnies—Miss Mary Sherrill and Josephine Parrish. "Twisted Sisters"—Miss Nann Black and Miss Juanita Stone. Toonerville Quartet: E. L. Harrison, C. L. Lewis, A. W. Gordon, Lewis Smith.

LAST RITES HELD SATURDAY FOR MRS. MARY GUEST

Haskell citizens paid their final tribute Saturday afternoon to Mrs. Mary T. Guest, 85, when funeral services were conducted at the family residence by the Rev. A. W. Gordon, pastor of the First Methodist Church. Burial was in Willow Cemetery. W. O. Holden of Jones, Cox & Company was in charge of funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Guest died at her home here at 2:35 o'clock Saturday morning after an illness of only a few days. She had been a resident of Haskell for 25 years, coming here with her husband, the late J. J. Guest from Hunt county. She was active in civic and religious affairs in the community and was widely known through this section.

Surviving are four sons and one daughter, Dr. J. C. A. Guest, Wichita Falls; Dr. J. L. Guest, Plainview; Dr. J. C. Guest, Fort Worth; Dr. O. M. Guest, Haskell; and Mrs. Bruce W. Bryant, Austin; 13 grandchildren and four great grandchildren. Out-of-town relatives here were Dr. and Mrs. J. C. A. Guest and son, Wichita Falls; Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Guest, Fort Worth; Dr. J. L. CHARTER ISSUED TO COTTON CO-OP IN WEST TEXAS

First step in the establishment of an independent cooperative marketing organization for cotton growers in this area has been taken with issuance of a charter for Austin for the West Texas Cotton Growers association.

The new unit, chartered with no capital stock, is described as a non-profit making cooperative marketing association which will deal solely in marketing activities. In incorporating directors of the new association are T. E. Alvis, Roby; Hugo B. Haterius, Avoca; S. E. Clark, Abilene; B. Walters, Rule; J. L. Carrel, Snyder; C. W. Low, Bomarton; J. L. Wilkinson, Coleman; G. Y. Lee, Eden; and R. D. Buchanan, Colorado. Alvis and Walters are members of the board of directors of the Texas Cotton Cooperative Association with which the area organization probably will have affiliation. Establishment of the West Texas unit is in line with plans outlined when the state association was set up in 1928, providing for eventual disintegration of the Texas body into district units, so as to bring the cooperative marketing facilities closer to member shippers. Co-op members of this territory have sought the district set-up for some time. Organization plans and policies, not yet complete, will be ready for announcement soon, it was said by Clyde Daniel, who has assisted in organization of the West Texas unit. The new association will cover approximately 60 counties now included in District 7 of the Texas Co-op.

Mrs. Bernice Clayton, specialist of home improvements from A & M with the county agent, Miss Ellen Partlow, spent a day or two visiting in the club ladies houses this week.

Miss Myrtle Curry of A & M College and Mr. W. R. Bentley, engineer of Extension Services of A & M College were here to attend the subscription demonstration which was held Wednesday near Rule.

HUNT'S STORE IS BURGLARIZED EARLY MONDAY MORNING

Hunt's Dry Goods Store was burglarized early Monday morning and about $100 in merchandise and a small amount of cash was taken. The burglars broke in a rear window of the store and carried out the goods the same way. Several negroes have been held for questioning by the sheriff's department and a small amount of the merchandise found in the possession of a negro woman who claims to have purchased a part of it at the store and the balance she found more than two weeks ago.

CRASH INJURY FATAL TO OKLAHOMA MAN

A skull fracture received in an automobile crash on the highway north of here Saturday Feb. 6th, proved fatal last Friday to Guy O. Danielson, salesman of Oklahoma City. He had been unconscious since he was taken to a hospital in Stamford immediately after the mishap.

Danielson was thrown through the windshield when the machine in which he was riding with E. L. Miller collided with a truck. Miller and Charley Roper, driver of the truck, received minor injuries. A brain specialist came to Stamford by plane from Oklahoma City last Wednesday to consult with physicians as to Danielson's case. The injured man's condition had grown worse steadily for the past few days.

His wife, a son, Otis; and a brother, Bob Danielson of Gary, Indiana, were at the bedside when death came, and accompanied the body to Oklahoma City Saturday. It was carried overland in a Kinney ambulance.

School Board Offers to Return One-Third of Taxes Collected If Prompt Payment Is Made

It is now possible for the delinquent taxpayer in the Haskell Independent School District to save one-third on his tax bill if the payment is made during this month. The new plan is one that has never been tried before and has been endorsed by more than fifty taxpayers and citizens of the district. The following letter has been sent out by Rex Ragan, tax expert, for the Haskell Independent School District, which explains the plan that has been adopted and should cause every delinquent taxpayer in the district to respond to the urgent need of the schools.

"After spending long hours studying this question, the Board is convinced that the plan being put into operation will be of great benefit to the taxpayers; and, at the same time, permit the schools to remain open.

OVER 100 PEOPLE PRESENT AT MASS MEETING MONDAY

More than 100 people, mostly farmers of Haskell county, attended the mass meeting at the courthouse Monday afternoon in protest of the action of the Commissioners Court in withdrawing the appropriation for the County Agent of Haskell county.

The meeting was called to order by S. N. Reid of O'Brien and J. F. Kennedy of Haskell was elected chairman of the meeting and A. C. Chamberlain, secretary. The chairman opened the meeting by inviting all or anyone who was interested to express themselves regarding the retention of a County Agent. E. M. Whiteaker made an enthusiastic talk in favor of retaining the work. C. J. Hannas and others were for the work. Paul Zahn and J. S. Barnett expressed their opposition to the retention of a County Agent.

Judge Chas. M. Conner was called upon and in speaking for the Commissioners Court stated that it was not a question of being for or against the work, as the entire membership of the Commissioners Court was in favor of the work, but under the present financial condition of the county it was impossible to secure the money to pay the county's part of the salary. He reviewed the county's financial statement before the meeting to show the exact financial standing and the expected revenue for the coming year.

Mr. Evans, the district manager of the Extension Service was present and stated that if a plan could be worked out to finance the county's part of the salary equal to his traveling expenses the department would consider keeping the work going in Haskell county. At the close of the meeting the chairman appointed a representative from each community in the county as a committee to devise a plan whereby the finances could be raised to meet the county's part of the agents salary, without the assistance of the county. The committee appointed for this work are: Lennis Jones, Rule; Sam A. Roberts, Haskell; J. P. West, O'Brien; Fritz Stegemoeller, Sagerton; Fred Monke Weinert; B. M. Whiteaker, Haskell; Henry Smith, Rochester; Clifford Thomas, Weinert; C. J. Hannas, Rule; and S. N. Reid, O'Brien.

TWO HASKELL PEOPLE LOSE LIVES IN WRECK SATURDAY NIGHT

BABY NEAR DEATH AS A RESULT OF TRASH FIRE-BURNS

Maxine Allred, 2, was near death in a hospital in Stamford Tuesday after receiving burns from a trash fire Monday afternoon at her home on the W. L. Harrison ranch near Sagerton.

The child's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Allred, received painful burns on the hands and arms in attempting to extinguish the little girl's flaming clothing. Maxine and her brother, J. N., 6, and sister, Annie Fay, 4, were playing in the yard while their mother was raking and burning leaves and trash. The boy took a small piece of fire from the blaze while his mother was occupied and carried it some distance from the house where he started another fire by adding broom weeds.

Maxine came too near the blazing weeds and her clothes caught. Frightened, she ran. Her mother heard her screams, but before Mrs. Allred could overtake the little girl and beat out the flaming clothing, she had been burned critically. Mr. Allred, who was working nearby, arrived in time to help extinguish the burning clothing.

Carried to a hospital in Stamford, the child was said to be in a grave condition. Doctors said burns covered almost all of her body. Drugs were administered, but attendants Monday night said the child was restless.

Mr. and Mrs. Allred received first aid for their burns.

TEXAS GOOD ROADS ASSN. WILL MEET IN ABILENE MONDAY

All people in the 12 counties of the 24th Senatorial district of Texas interested in the continued development and maintenance of the highway system of Texas are urged to attend a district meeting of the Texas Good Roads Association in Abilene on Monday, February 20.

Announcement of the meeting which will be in the ballroom of the Wooten Hotel and start at 1:30 p. m., has been made by Tom K. Eppen of Abilene, Chairman of the Road Association's organization committee for this senatorial district. One of the principal matters to be discussed at the conference will be plans of the Texas Good Roads Association to prevent further diversion from the highway maintenance and construction fund of any of the two cents per gallon of the gasoline tax now going for that purpose.

The county judges and commissioners, newspaper editors and chamber of commerce officials in each town of the 24th district have been asked to see that their communities and counties are represented at the meeting, which will be open to everyone.

Complete information will be given regarding the Texas Good Roads Association and the service it can and is rendering the state, will be explained. Included in the 24th district are Stephens, Eastland, Callahan, Haskell, Shackelford, Throckmorton, Jones, Taylor, Nolan, Mitchell, Fisher and Scurry counties.

Out of town relatives and friends who attended the funeral of Mrs. Joe Free last week were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hartline, Topeka, Kans.; Geo. E. Courtney, Fort Worth; Mrs. Geo. West and daughter, Phoenix, Ariz.; Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Humphill, Graham, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Free, Albany, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Carter left Tuesday afternoon for Fayetteville, Arkansas, after receiving a message that the latter's mother, Mrs. Harrison was seriously ill.

The entire town and community was shocked last Sunday morning when the news was received here that Mrs. D. L. Cummins and her father J. Bascom Davis were killed and her son-in-law, Virgil W. Meadors was critically injured in an automobile accident near Alice, Texas, about midnight Saturday night. The trio were en route to Raymondville, Texas, to visit Mrs. Meadors and children who have been spending the winter in the Rio Grande Valley. Within a few miles of Alice, Meadors who was driving, failed to see the abutment of a culvert on account of a heavy fog and pulled the car too far over to the right to make room for a heavy truck approaching from the opposite direction. The car struck the banister of the culvert and careened into the path of the approaching truck. The passenger car caught fire with the impact.

Mr. Davis was burned beyond recognition. Mrs. Cummins is believed to have been killed almost instantly from a blow on the head. Meadors is in a hospital at Alice suffering from serious burns and lacerations about the head and body.

Double funeral services for Mrs. Cummins and her father were held at the community church near Belton, Texas, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Tiedie of Dallas and Rev. Rogers of Belton, assisted by Rev. Sweet of Belton and Rev. Whatley of Haskell. Interment was in the Walton cemetery, located on the Davis old home place. Pallbearers were 10 tenants, who lived on farms owned by Mr. Davis.

Mrs. Davis' death occurred just two years to the day prior to that of her husband and daughter, and the funeral services were held two years to the day, from the same church.

Dr. and Mrs. Cummins came to Haskell from Belton 25 years ago. She had been prominent in church, club and social affairs of the city for many years, and by her sweet and lovable disposition had won a place in the hearts of Haskell people that will be hard to fill. Her untimely death has cast a shadow of sorrow and grief over the entire city.

Surviving are the husband, Dr. D. L. Cummins; a son, D. L. Cummins, Jr., of Haskell; and five daughters, Mrs. Virgil Meadors of Haskell, Miss Lucy Cummins of New York City, Mrs. Eugene Reagen of Memphis, Tenn., Mrs. A. B. Pumphrey and Mrs. J. P. Berry of Fort Worth. Seven grandchildren also survive.

Mr. Davis was well known here, as he had made his home with his daughter since the death of his wife. He was a prominent land owner of Bell county and was a man who was loved and honored by all who knew him.

Haskell people who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Hunt, Mesdames P. M. Baldwin, Chas. M. Conner, Bert Welch, C. V. Payne, Judge and Mrs. Joe A. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Sarrels, Rev. H. R. Whatley, George Fields, M. H. Post, W. M. Reid, T. E. Ballard, Mike B. Watson and the following Haskell people who were in Austin: Hon. D. P. Ratliff, Hon. Bruce W. Bryant, Joe Lee Ferguson and Mrs. George Sauer of Austin.

ADVOCATES A NEW JUDICIARY SYSTEM

Haskell, Texas, Feb. 14, 1933.

No people are higher than its Courts and the constituted authorities and every nation goes up and down with them. We are so frail, we want to look down in the place of looking up. All the beauty and grandeur of life is upward and we should not beguile ourselves into looking down for them. We should not be guided by any selfish motive or remuneration, but perfection should be the key to our hearts. We should do our part for the contentment and happiness of the people of Texas and our nation. With the greatest crime wave that was ever known to man hovering down upon the people of Texas and our nation, we should marshal all the good forces at our command to overcome and chain the great monster that is trying to destroy the confidence of the people and defying all authorities and the law. We need a new broom to clean house in Texas, as there are about ninety per cent of the people, who condemn and say every disrespectful and disgraceful thing known to the English language about the courts, until the people have lost confidence and respect for them. Every litigant is entitled to justice and equity, regardless of color, race or standing, and it is the duty of every court and citizen of the State of Texas, to see that we have a judiciary system that cliques, and rings and slyster lawyers can not influence. Is it not time to take this old court bull by the horns and pitch him out of the courthouse, so decent and respectable citizens can have a trial, without abuse and slander to defeat justice and equity? If we had a law that only two witnesses could be used to prove any one fact by litigants and to be required to give ten days notice to the opposite party or parties of the names and for what purpose they are to be used, it would do away with a trained bunch of professional witnesses that hang around every courthouse in the state of Texas to testify for a few cents to confuse the jury and court and to defeat justice and equity. As long as we have a judiciary system that will permit eleven Courts of Civil Appeals to write long winded opinions and keep the so-called law bedclouded, the courts and the lawyers will be continually reading, as they can not read the law as fast as it is printed, to find out what the law is, as no one knows the law, as it is only a bunch of confused opinions and a hijackers paradise. Why are the courts, lawyers and the people, so infatuated with a judiciary system that is only abuse, slander and technicalities, is more than the ordinary human mind can understand? Judges and lawyers turn their libraries upside down searching for the law, until their health is impaired, disgusted and almost persuaded to repeat their Sunday School lesson backward. If we had a Superior or a Court of Law of five judges to pass on all questions or points of law, for the Supreme Court of Texas, without even knowing the style of the case, name or names of any of the parties, lawyers or witnesses, or any other facts that would tend to influence them in doing their solemn duty to keep the cold letter of the law, free from taint and confusion, so every litigant could get a fair and impartial trial without being abused and slandered, all the people of Texas would be happy, so the above laws would save the taxpayers between two and three million dollars a year. No more professional witnesses, to burden and confuse the courts, and lawyers and juries. The courts and lawyers could read all the law and it would be the same every time the Superior or Court of Law passed on it.

PIONEER CITIZEN CELEBRATES 49TH ANNIVERSARY HERE

F. G. Alexander celebrated the 49th anniversary of his arrival in Haskell, Tuesday of this week. He moved to Haskell county on January 14th, 1884. He is the only citizen who has lived here continuously for almost a half century.

Only three houses were in Haskell 49 years ago when Mr. Alexander arrived. One occupied by Bob Wilfong, one by J. D. Standifer and the other had just been erected by John Labry and was not occupied. Mr. Alexander had located a ranch on the Brazos River south of the present town of Rule and was on the way to the ranch with a herd of cattle and stopped in Haskell for lunch. Arriving at the ranch that afternoon, he spent the night. Next morning the ground was covered with four inches of snow.

Mr. Alexander erected a house on the ranch during the next few weeks. He had purchased a lot in Haskell and early in the spring he erected a home in Haskell.

Very few people were living in the county at the time and none of them are still living here with the exception of Mr. Alexander. A man by the name of Cassner was living on a ranch southeast of town and a Judge Tucker was living on Paint Creek. G. R. Couch was located northeast of Haskell just across the line in Throckmorton county. Wat Fitzgerald came to this section in May of 1884, and Mr. Ballard, Frank Draper, J. L. Baldwin and possibly others arrived later in the year.

Mr. Alexander states that there was plenty of wild game in this section. He related an instance of the turkeys being so plentiful, he shot into a bunch on the Brazos river with a rifle and killed three and crippled another with one shot. Antelope were here by the thousands and occasionally a deer or a bear could be found. Mustangs or wild horses could be seen by the hundreds.

T. J. Lemmon, Sr., another pioneer, arrived in Haskell 45 years ago on January 10, 1888. He celebrated his 77th birthday on Tuesday of this week.

Hills-Reber.

Motoring to Walters, Oklahoma, on Sunday February 6, Mr. Jerrold Oliver Hills and Miss Lily Reber were united in marriage by a Christian minister of that city. Mr. Hills is connected with the W. L. Hills Hardware Co. of Rule, and is the son of Mrs. Lula B. Hills, a pioneer woman of Haskell county. Miss Reber is the daughter of Mr. William Reber of Old Glory. Mr. Reber and sons are prominent architects and farmers and the daughters are popular with the younger set of the Sagerton and old Brandenburg communities. The many friends of these young people feel confident of their future success and happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hills are at home to their friends at the residence of Mrs. Lula B. Hills in South Rule.

"A $10 Gold-piece for Sale Cheap"

Not so long ago, an interesting experiment was made, to test the "sales-resistance" of the public. Several men paced the down-town streets of a large city, hawking their wares. And the wares, believe it or not, were ten dollar gold pieces—offered for sale at a dollar. No one bought; the price was reduced to fifty cents; finally to a quarter . . . still no sales!

Only after this experiment appeared as news in the papers did those who turned down the bargain gold become convinced of their mistake. They doubted the evidence of their own senses when they were offered something for nothing, but they believed in the opportunity they'd lost when the newspapers told them the story.

In the papers that you read, you are offered a parallel opportunity—equally genuine, and sponsored by people of proven responsibility. What! You've never seen it? Stop for a minute and think. This newspaper cost you a trifle—which you gladly paid to learn what's happening in the world, to read about people and events. But there's other news here of vital importance to you—about things and services, about automobiles, clothing, food, household wares—about all those things which you pay money for, to live.

The advertisements! Your newspaper-pennies buy this news too. If you read the advertisements, let them show you how, where, what and when to buy; they will save you dollars . . . and put money in your pocket just as surely as if you purchased a bargain gold-piece.

IMPORTANT

When you ask for a product by name, as a result of advertising, do not accept a substitute—substitutes are offered not as a service to you, but for other reasons.

A TRIBUTE

When the Death Angel entered the little hospital room in the Bedford Sanitarium Tuesday Feb. 14, 1933, at 5 a. m., and carried Mrs. Elizabeth Rose, wife of Mr. Rose, this community lost an outstanding pioneer woman. Grandma Rose, as she was known, was a devoted wife and mother. In her were found all the qualities of a beautiful life with service to her family, friends and her church. It is with grief that I pay little tribute. Yet with me know that I was given the privilege of knowing her and calling my friend, and although her friends miss her so much she has forever gone from this house she called home for many years, I know she has gone with hands which she so richly serves. And if she could speak day she would say as her mother said so long ago: "Whither I go, thou shalt follow now, but thou shalt be with me afterwards."

PROGRESS AND POWER

Present-day industrial progress of small communities is based in a large measure on ample and economical power facilities which deliver a practically unlimited power supply at once—when and where needed.

Small local plants, serving single communities, generally lack these facilities—lack the variety of volume and demand, which is necessary if the road to industrial growth is not to be blocked.

The transmission system, which has resulted from a group of towns pooling their power requirements and resources, can deliver this power easily, economically, at any time or place.

Progress and Power go hand in hand in the small city—and the West Texas Utilities Company is aiding this desired progress in 125 alert cities and towns in West Texas, the "Land of Opportunity."

Get Rid of That SORE THROAT!

Any little soreness in the throat grows rapidly worse if neglected. Crush some tablets of genuine Bayer Aspirin in some water, and gargle at once. This gives you instant relief, and reduces danger from infection. One good gargle and you can feel safe. If all soreness is not gone promptly, repeat. There's usually a cold with the sore throat, so before gargling take two tablets to throw off your cold, headache, stiffness or other cold symptoms. Bayer Aspirin relieves neuralgia, neuritis, too. You may use it freely, it does not hurt the heart.

STATE SUPERVISOR MAKES REPORT ON HASKELL SCHOOLS

Miss Sue B. Mann, a supervisor from the State Department of Education, visited the Haskell Schools on February 3rd and made a report to the Department in which all patrons of the schools should be interested. The recommendations which she made are as follows:

1. That the members of the school board continue their efforts to inform the property owners of the district of the terrific or grave economic situation that exists in the schools. About one-half the taxes of last year are delinquent, and more than one-half of the taxes are not paid this year.

2. That these schools needs be considered when the economic strain shall have passed:

a. Library facilities are inadequate. The books of fiction in the high school library are badly worn. Reference books are needed there too. The elementary schools need many new books of a miscellaneous nature.

b. The teaching staff is overworked. The primary rooms are overcrowded. There is need for a person to supervise the physical education program.

c. The buildings are in need of reconstruction. Not one of them is adequate to the program of work that the teaching and administrative staff is capable of carrying on. For example, the high school does not have a study hall of standard merit—there is no gymnasium in the high school building. The elementary schools, in the beginning, were not planned for small children. These buildings are old now.

d. Certain grade rooms need new furniture, double desks being used in some classes.

3. That Latin and home economics III be dropped from the course of study.

a. These courses have not been offered for two consecutive years.

4. That commendation be given the splendid work that is going on despite the handicaps that have come necessarily with the several measures to reduce expenses.

a. Teachers have been selected with care. They have been able to effect a strong organization, in that they are a continuous group.

b. The elementary teachers deserve credit for work done in beautifying the old buildings in which they work.

5. That commendation be given for certain improvements noted:

a. The grounds are in process of being terraced, the R. F. C. funds being used for this improvement.

b. The P. T. A. has purchased some chairs for the primary grades. Courtesies extended by Superintendent Breedlove and others are appreciated.

29 GOWNS WORN BY CLARA BOW

Clara Bow has twenty-nine beautiful gowns to wear in "Call Her Savage," her first picture in eighteen months. It is a Fox production and will be seen at the Texas Theatre.

Miss Bow is ultra-feminine when it comes to clothes, and didn't utter one complaint during the long tedious process of fitting and altering.

"It's great fun to get into some snappy clothes for a change," Clara laughed, "after more than a year of wearing sweaters and riding breeches."

With her husband, Rex Bell, she spent most of her time in retirement on their big ranch on the California Nevada line. She has become an expert horsewoman under her cowboy husband's tutelage.

David Cox designed Miss Bow's gowns for her picture, and they were made under the supervision of Rita Kaufman, Fox stylist. "Call Her Savage" was directed by John Francis Dillon.

Ferris Wheel Designed to Rival Eiffel Tower

The Ferris wheel was named after its inventor, George W. G. Ferris (1859-1906), an American engineer and steel bridge builder, who was born at Galeburg, Ill. He organized an engineering firm at Pittsburgh, where he lived after 1885. His imagination was fired when Daniel H. Burnham, chief of construction for the World's Columbian exposition in Chicago in 1893, challenged the civil engineers of America to design something novel and unusual to rival the Eiffel tower at the Paris exposition in 1889. Ferris conceived the idea of constructing a gigantic revolving wheel on which to carry people up into the air for amusement. His friends and business associates advised him against its construction. The country was in the midst of a business depression and financing the undertaking was a difficult task. Even those in charge of the exposition at first regarded the scheme as fantastic and waited several months before granting Ferris the concession. The fair had already opened when the Ferris wheel was completed. It was the chief attraction at the fair and proved to be a profitable investment. Engineers from all over the world admired the daring and accuracy in its design and the precision in its construction. The wheel was 250 feet in diameter, 825 in circumference and 30 in width. It carried 36 cars with a seating capacity of 40 passengers each.

READJUSTMENT OF VALUES

A virtual two-year moratorium on mortgage foreclosures in Iowa is now a certainty. The bill, passed by both houses of the Legislature and certain to be approved by the Governor, makes it obligatory for district courts to continue trial of foreclosure actions until March 1, 1935, if the defendant applies for such continuance.

Capital as represented by money or the evidence of money is wholly out of line with capital as represented by lands, buildings, machinery, commodities, etc.

Thus far the latter kind of capital has been compelled to bear all the losses. Of all the country's assets, debt alone has not depreciated. Homes, farms, factories and commodities have been put on the auction block to satisfy the demands of debt.

Shrink as we may from the thought, capital in the form of money and securities, must bear its share of the burden. This is not only just, but sensible.

In normal times, it is perfectly proper to hold the debtors responsible. If they have gone beyond their depth, it is their own fault, but when a disaster occurs, and through no fault of their own, debtors are unable to meet their debts, the rules which were designed to maintain a system based on personal accountability must be set aside.

Whether you boost prices, write down debts, go in for moratoria, reduce the gold content of the dollar, operate through script or issue paper money, the end is the same—lowering the dollar's value and a corresponding increase of other values. A drastic readjustment of values is imperative.

WILL YOU BE PREPARED?

Prosperity is "just around the corner." This slogan has been common for the last two years and now it looks as if the corner will soon be turned.

But are you prepared for prosperity? When prosperity returns, there will be an influx of business houses in every city.

Those who have become discouraged, and acknowledge that they are licked, will enjoy no prosperity. It will take them too long to recover from a chronic depression, and unless they cheer up, dress up their places of business and go after the trade before prosperity enters with a bang, they will find that some more enterprising individual has captured their trade.

Business will not be helped by continually harping on hard times. Such talk will frighten the buyer away from your place of business. Do not be too optimistic and try to create a false recovery of business, but play the game on the square and fight for your business, your town and your community.

Do not be misled by the transient door knockers, who come into town offering bargains of questionable merchandise, but trade with the local merchants, and preferably with those who think enough of your business to present their message through the advertising columns of the papers.

Keep in training, and be ready to go at the drop of the hat when the whistle of prosperity sounds.—Portales Valley News, Portales, N. M.

BAN ON BILLBOARDS

Drastic action against the billboard nuisance is reported from the province of Ontario, Canada, where strict regulations are being enforced in pursuance to a recently enacted law. It is said that existing billboards are being removed at the rate of about 100 a week.

The Ontario law prohibits the erection of billboards on the public highways, and even forbids the painting of advertisements on barns or other buildings near the roadsides. Signs erected by persons on their own property are restricted in size and are subject to a tax. No billboard can be erected at turns in the road, and old, unsightly signs must be cleaned up or removed.

Enforcement of the new regulations has already made a marked improvement in the appearance of the countryside, and the absence of billboards will tend to reduce the number of traffic accidents, it is believed. Regulations similar to those established in Ontario, are being adopted by other Canadian provinces and might well be extended into the United States.

PRESIDENT-ELECT ROOSEVELT'S PLAN

In an editorial discussing President-elect Roosevelt's plan for reforestation, flood control and power development in the Tennessee River watershed, the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette says:

At the moment this is to be said in behalf of the project: That it is refreshingly positive. It is a departure, at least, from the negative attitude into which of late discussion so frequently falls. "We mustn't do this," "we can't do that," "To do so and so might produce such and such a result; so let's do nothing." That kind of talk is far removed from the spirit of progress and achievement.

Work must be found. Production must be resumed, and, of course, power of consumption increased, to support production. Money, of which there is an abundance, must be put into circulation through the channels of credit in productive enterprise.

Six Persons Bit By Mad Dog Got Treatment

From The Chillicothe Valley News—Six persons are under the care of two local physicians as a result of being bitten by a mad dog, belonging to George Waldrip.

Following the attack on the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Edwards, the animal was penned for 72 hours and revealed to the physicians as having rabies. Serum treatments are being given to those attacked, the Edwards child being the most severe case. The condition of the victims is said to be very satisfactory, however, and it is felt the medicine will prevent any outbreak of rabies.

The property was traded about two years back by Willie D. and Roy Baker to Dayton W. Cochman of Brownfield, who owned it at the time of the fire, it is stated. Until a few days ago the place had been occupied but was empty at the time of the fire. The house carried $2500 and the furniture $500 in insurance.

There is quite a good deal of cotton to scrap around here yet, due to so much bad weather of late.

Quite a number of the young people went kodaking Sunday evening. They report a fine time, with lots of pictures taken.

A Penny In Your Hand

What was your first adventure as a customer before the world? Possibly as a very tiny tot . . . with a penny in your fist; and your nose flattened against a show window. Long you debated with yourself—cocoanut strips, or licorice pellets, or chocolate soldiers? It was serious business, for you and the storekeeper.

But he put his best values before you, and in the end everybody was happy—you, because you'd made a satisfactory purchase; he, because he'd made a satisfied customer.

In that transaction blossomed a buying acumen which no doubt has helped to serve you ever since. Likewise, the aim-to-please policy of that storekeeper is to this very day the golden rule of successful merchants and manufacturers. Read any of their advertisements and see. Could they afford to spend money for advertising space and then disappoint you? Of course not. The goods they advertise are their best offerings. They count on them to win both your immediate and your continued patronage.

When there's something you need or want—or might want if attractively made known to you—clutch your pennies and greenbacks in either hand; study the advertisements in this paper; and surely you'll be guided in the direction that leads to the most for your money.

County Judges of State Notified Must Be Patient About Roads As Money Is Not Available At Austin

The Texas Highway Commission Secretary sent a communication to county judges pointing out that increased revenues have made it impossible for the commission to start immediate construction of needed improvements and asking the officials to be patient.

and that we may expect their cooperation in furthering the aim of the department to do as much work as possible with the revenues expected.

W. N. Kinney Has Narrow Escape In Near-Accident

W. N. Kinney, Stamford undertaker, and his brother-in-law, R. Clark, were making a run to Austin for a suit woman Tuesday afternoon late when an accident occurred.

The large automobile was on the bridge over the Salt Fork of the Brazos between Seguin and Old Glory when the corner of the bridge gave way and nearly sent the large car into the river.

Mr. Kinney and Mr. Clark walked back into Seguin for suit and trousers and then went westward Wednesday morning to repair the bridge. The automobile suffered considerable damage, but it will be repaired, Kinney said. "I was glad to get out of that alive," Stamford declared.

Early Rebellion Over Vest Memorial Estates

The first settled territory in New York was along the Hudson and consisted of vast estates or manors granted by the Dutch government to persons. The persons held the land in fee and collected rents from the settlers. At first there was little objection to the system, but soon before the Revolution trouble began. After the death of Stephen Van Rensselaer, one of the descendants of the original persons, the rents fell in arrears and the "anti-renters" organized to resist payment. The anti-renters, supported by several Whigs and "Barnburner" Democrats, became a power in state politics. The state, however, was beaten in a suit testing the title of one of the persons, and rents were sent to Rensselaerville to enforce the law. In 1847 an office was shut in Delaware county while trying to collect rents and the governor proclaimed the country in a state of insurrection. The day was a contest of murder, but later pardoned by the governor. That was the end of the "anti-rent" war. Later the memorial estates were broken up.—Francis Fisher Maguire.

Old American Road
The earliest of all the white man's roads in this country was the old Bay path connecting the Plymouth Pilgrims with their Puritan neighbors when they settled in Boston in the fifties. Most of the white man's early highways were developments of old Indian trails. When they got across civilized they had their little "chick-saw-paw-mas," the easiest means across the sand that formed the bases for the cart or wagon wheels to rest while the horses sought their second wind on the mill ground and the leaders for the wear guiding its way into the ditch. By night the same "chick-saw-paw-mas" were "kiss-me-quickies" (the explanation necessary). Martin Stiebel Dawson in "From Here to There."

Endurance
It is only when there is no possible amelioration that endurance is the courage. To be the genuine article we mean, of course, that it is to be accompanied by a respectable show of cheerfulness, that one's nerves be kept off the house, and that the sympathy of one's neighbors be not drawn upon to exhaustion. As endurance in this sense is more or less a matter of endurance from first to last, this species of courage is more important in the long run than any other.—H. S. Merriam.

Reverence for Trees
Trees have always held an important place in the imagination of primitive man. This special regard for trees is not restricted to African races, but appears in the art and mythology of almost every nation. In the growth of a tree one sees a resemblance to his own life. Their age-long existence was to him a symbol of immortality. It is not surprising, therefore, that one worshiped trees back to the earliest times, and one of the established traditions among the ancients was that of a World Tree.

The price of a cut of cherry pie....

When dining out the meal is usually tapered off with a cut of pie... it's the natural thing to do. Besides, 10 cents is not big money to satisfy a sweet tooth—unless you have stopped to reckon with the purchasing power of a penny.

For this same dime you spend for cherry pie, you can cook 10 good dinners with natural gas, or heat enough water for 20 baths, or operate a gas refrigerator for more than three days. By simple comparisons you will agree that natural gas service is the cheapest thing you buy or use.
