Farmers are warned that Saturday is the last day for applying for Federal seed loans. J. He expects the total amount to probably reach $25,000 before Saturday night.

Applications in the hands of the county committee before midnight Saturday night April 26th, will be accepted. If the applications are accepted, it will protect the borrower, and if waivers are necessary to obtain the loan they may be secured later.

MOTHER OF J. M. DIGGS PASSES AWAY

Many hearts were made sad upon learning of the passing of Mrs. J. H. Diggs on Sunday, April 24, at 4:30 a. m. Considering her advanced age Mrs. Diggs had enjoyed good health until recently, having passed away just four weeks from the date she became ill. All who knew her remarked of her calm and beautiful spirit, and of the patient and uncomplaining way in which she bore the weeks of suffering preceding her death. She was conscious and rational at all times, and fell into peaceful sleep just before the end came.

Nancy Alice Milan was born Oct. 10, 1883, in Henry Co. Tenn. At the age of fourteen she was converted and united with the M. E. Church South and led a consistent, consecrated christian life until her death. In 1878 she was married to J. H. Diggs, who passed away, March 1, 1933. To this union were born five children, four of whom survive. They are as follows: J. B. Diggs, Amarillo, Texas; C. W. Diggs, Waco, Texas; J. M. Diggs, Haskell; and Mrs. C. G. Maloney of Waco, with whom the deceased had made her home for fifteen years, and in whose home she passed away. ## Revival Services Being Held For Ambassadors

Last Sunday Bro. Ogie who is holding a revival for the Christ Ambassadors delivered a message on the second coming of Christ. Using the Text: St. John 14-14. The sermon was outlined as follows. Introduction: There are four questions that confront the world today, namely:

1. Is Christ really coming? Thes. 4:14-17. Acts 1:1-9.
2. How is he coming? I Thes. 4:14-17; I Thes. 5:2; Acts 1:9.
3. When is he coming? I Thes. 5:1-3; St. Luke 21:25-31.

The Apostles of old looked for his coming but now seeing we have the Bible so fulfilled before our eyes even the calendar tells us he is soon to appear. II Pet. 3:8.

4. For whom is he coming? Heb. 9:28.

In conclusion then as christ is coming why don't you make peace with him. Rev. Ogie will use as his Text Sunday night, "The Jew or Gods Time Piece." Miss Kathryn Eichman will play and sing a special song, "I've a Homesick Feeling" using her harp accompaniment. Don't miss this service.

CUNNINGHAM ASKS FOR RE-ELECTION AS STATE SENATOR

Oliver Cunningham of Abilene, State Senator of the 24th Senatorial District, and a candidate for re-election to this office, has issued the following statement in making his formal announcement as a candidate:

To The Voters of the 24th Senatorial District: Grateful to my friends who have honored me with the responsible office I hold, proud in the knowledge that I have worked hard at a hard job, ambitious to continue along the road of political success, I am seeking a second term in the Texas Senate. If you think I have done well, I shall appreciate your support.

If I am returned to the Senate, I shall continue to fight for those things for which I have striven in the past. Two of the most important of these are,—first, a reduction and equitable adjustment of taxes; second,—an effective control of public utilities. Both are most difficult to accomplish, because powerful political and financial interests are opposed to both. The man who honestly undertakes them must steel himself to withstand severe criticism, and even abuse.

All taxes must be paid by the people of Texas, and the only way to reduce the total aggregate of all taxes, is to reduce expenditures. In the past I have tried to help do this by the following plan:

1. By seeking to amend appropriation bills at the regular session in 1933, by striking out items totaling more than $1,000,000.
2. By opposing the removal of the penitentiary to Austin. The passage of this bill would have meant the jacking up of the State's expenses, the removal of 10,000 men from the State's penitentiaries, and the construction of a new building of an entirely new type, costing $1,000,000.

The above plan was carried out by the most complete and systematic investigation of the State's expenditures, and the removal of 10,000 men from the State's penitentiaries, and the construction of a new building of an entirely new type, costing $1,000,000.

Patrick Henry, head of the Texas Christian Missionary Society; Harold Lovitt, Field Secretary of Christian Endeavor in Texas; Rev. H. G. Markley and Rev. Ben Parker of Breckenridge; Rev. E. B. Surface of Abilene; Rev. L. B. Gray of Ranger; Rev. R. W. Walker of Merkel; Rev. Gary Smith of Sweetwater; Rev. J. A. Owen and Rev. Rea of Albany; Miss Lucille Russell, State Christian Endeavor Missionary Chairman; Mrs. J. M. F. Gill of Abilene; and various other Christian Endeavor leaders over the District.

Special emphasis in the program is being given to "Prayer," two of the principle addresses being directed toward this subject.

The Fellowship Banquet at 7:00 Saturday evening, will be the high light of the Convention.

Sunrise Prayer meetings, Quiet Hour sessions and various conferences, dealing with problems of Christian Endeavor, will form a large part of the program.

Of special interest on Sunday afternoon will be a great Union Chorus, composed of all the members of the various groups, under the direction of Mrs. Winifred Carmalt of Breckenridge, which will render several special numbers.

Entertainment will be offered by the citizens of Albany, who are providing homes and meals free of charge to the delegates.

PIONEER SETTLER OF THIS SECTION DIES AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

S. E. (Uncle Steve) Carothers, 88, died at the home of his son, W. R. Carothers in Rule at 10:45 Thursday night after several days of illness.

Mr. Carothers was one of the oldest pioneers of Haskell county, coming here 44 years ago. He was the fifth tax collector of Haskell county, serving in that capacity for several years. He served in the civil war, and was, before his death, the oldest civil war veteran in the county. He was prominent in business circles of the county for many years.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the First Christian Church at Rule, conducted by Rev. W. B. Harris, pastor of the First Christian Church of Stamford. Burial was in the Willow cemetery at Haskell. Pall-bearers were Joe Cloud, G. B. Tanner, Will Hines, Jim Davis, C. D. Head and R. L. Vick, all of Rule.

He is survived by two sons and two daughters: W. R. Carothers of Rule, John Carothers of Waco; Mrs. J. W. Carter of Rule, Mrs. L. E. Marr of Haskell; 18 grandchildren and 70 great-grandchildren.

A CORRECTION The article published in the Free Press last week regarding the name of Mr. E. B. Sherrill being included in the list of those who have been requested for their governmental records, should have read W. E. Sherrill instead of "E. B." and not Mr. E. B. Sherrill.

The group in names was made in the Chicago office of the Department of Agriculture, Washington.

Less than twelve hours after they had robbed the Indianoma, Okla., State Bank after kidnaping two of the bank's officials, two men who gave the names of Glenn Wilkerson and Clyde Meadors, and a young woman companion who refused to give her name, were in custody of Oklahoma officers, after having been apprehended at Rule by Knox City officers shortly after two o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Loot in the robbery, approximately $2,000, was nearly all recovered, arresting officers finding $1,922.00 in possession of the trio.

Wilkerson and Meadors confessed the robbery in a signed statement made to County Attorney French Robertson shortly after their arrest.

Arrest of the trio was made by Knox City peace officers, who trailed the machine in which they were riding from a point on the highway north of Knox City to the outskirts of Rule. The chase was made after Knox City officers had been advised by Vernon police that a car believed to be occupied by the bandits had passed through that city earlier in the day and that the driver had inquired the way to Knox City.

Sheriff Sarrels of this city had also been notified and together with Deputies Dotson and Highnote, reached Rule just as the Knox county officers made the arrest.

When halted by officers, the three made no show of resistance, and following their confession, agreed to waive extradition and were later given into custody of Oklahoma officers for return to Indianoma.

GOOD RAIN OVER HASKELL COUNTY

Rainfall totalling almost one and one-half inches which will be of untold benefit to this section, fell in Haskell and vicinity last night.

The downpour came just in time to save the grain crop in this section, which has suffered badly recently, and will also permit farmers to resume planting of crops. The rain began falling shortly before midnight and continued for several hours. Mrs. P. D. Sanders, government weather observer, reports a precipitation of 1.39 inches.

"BIG BERTHA" ATTRACTS MANY VISITORS HERE

Nearly 500 persons visited Isbell-Burton Motor Company Wednesday to inspect the world's largest tire, giant replica of the tires Isbell-Burton sells, which weighs over a half ton, and is inflated to a pressure of three pounds.

A. J. Gentele, who pilots this monster tire, has dubbed it "Big Bertha." It's an interesting responsibility, he explains. Trundled along behind the specially built bus, she will buck and leap if he drives too fast over rough or wavy roads.

Wherever he goes, Mr. Gentele relates ruefully, he becomes a target for the national sense of humor. The first sight of the giant tire invariably brings forth a barrage of wise cracks—and they are always the same. "Hey, mister, you've got a flat!" "Boy! how would that tire look on this car!" or "I'll buy four of them!"

The tire is 12 feet high, four feet wide, and is inflated to a pressure of three pounds. If it were carrying the 25 ton load for which it is built, it would be inflated to six pounds pressure.

Here's New Firestone "Air Balloon" Tire

When Firestone pioneered and developed the original balloon tire in 1922, they established the principle of very large cross section tires and using very low air pressure and on wheels of small diameter. The "Firestone Air Balloon" simply emphasizes a further degree of this Firestone principle to give added riding comfort and safety.

A new low pressure tire, so ample in its billowy proportions that it gives the impression of being attached to the hub of the wheel instead of to the rim, is announced by the Firestone Tire & Rubber Company.

Known as the "Air Balloon," the new tire carries only from ten to fourteen pounds pressure and is designed primarily to increase riding comfort. Exhaustive tests made by Firestone Engineers have shown that its cushioning qualities bring about the nearest approach to "riding on air" that has yet been possible to achieve in tire manufacturing. Cobblestones, car tracks, road ruts and similar rough spots of the highways are taken with scarcely any jar at all.

Along with the comfort phase of their engineering task, the Firestone designers also developed the safety features of the new tire. It is announced that mud, sand, silt or soft ground, wet or slippery pavements are negotiated with ease and safety heretofore unknown. Skidding hazards are greatly reduced. In this respect the tire achieves one of its most important missions, since the combination of low pressure and increased riding surface give it a much higher resistance against skidding than has ever before been attained.

Both the tire and the special wheel were planned by Firestone Engineers with an eye to beauty. The special wheel is a concave black disk, attractively set off with rings of polished chrome. A complete set includes five "Air Balloon" tires and five wheels and an arm for adjusting the steering.

In the evolution of tires for smaller cars, for example, the tire size has been increased from cross section width measuring 3.00 inches to 3.50 to 4.40, then to 4.50 and later to 4.75 inches. Now the "Air Balloon" approximately doubles the cross section size for small cars and increases the air volume about four times.

HOWSLEY OPENS CAMPAIGN FOR SENATE AT THROCKMORTON

Coming back to Throckmorton county where his parents have lived for 62 years, and where he spent the first 25 years of his life, Andrew M. Howsley, Albany, opened his campaign for State Senator from the Twenty-fourth Senatorial District with an address at the courthouse in Throckmorton Saturday night. He spoke to a large crowd. The largest delegation was present from Albany. The Albany Band gave a concert preceding the speaking.

Judge B. F. Reynolds, a resident of Throckmorton county for 60 years, presided. Short talks were made by Jeff Fowler, T. R. Odell and John Lee Smith, local attorneys, who assured Howsley of the support of the old home county.

Howsley is now a member of the House of Representatives from Jones and Shackelford counties and is running against Oliver Cunningham of Abilene, the present Senator from this district.

A brief synopsis of his speech follows:

Andrew M. Howsley of Albany, who Saturday night opened his campaign for State Senator from the Twenty-fourth District.

Record Is His Platform

By their fruits ye shall know them. And it is upon my record as a member of the House of Representatives that I submit my candidacy for the State Senate. The ever mounting cost of Government must cease, local, State and Federal, and unless a halt is called the very existence of our free democracy is threatened. The time has come when the people should concern themselves with the expenditure of their money; false issues should be forgotten and together we must pull for retrenchment in governmental expenditures. My record is written at Austin and I invite your investigation of it believing that it will disclose I have made an honest effort to bring about a reduction in taxes.

Since I am opposed in this race by your present Senator the issues in this campaign must necessarily be a comparison of our records, both of which records I consider public property and, therefore, I shall discuss them freely with the people of this senatorial district.

Cunningham's Senate Joint Resolution No. 14 which he introduced in the Senate authorizing a statewide bond issue for the purpose of building and buying electric light plants would alone cause an expenditure of state money in a sum not less than $500,000,000, which is more than the total expenditure of money for your State Government for a period of five years. Do not let him drag this great State into private business, for it has been demonstrated by the operation of your state prison farms that your State is the most incompetent and inefficient organization ever engaged in business. With free labor, with tax-free lands and property furnished free of cost, your State, in operating your prison farms, has lost millions of dollars over a period of but a few years. May I warn the farmers of this section not to throw their coal oil cans away, for even if your Senator were successful in putting the State in the electric light business there wouldn't be any high lines run up to your front door. While the people of the cities enjoy electricity provided by the State you farmers will continue to use the old fashioned coal oil lamps. If electric light rates are too high let's regulate the concerns operating these plants, but for goodness sake let's not issue any more bonds against the credit of this State when we already owe more than we can raise in taxes.

made in the House, and I believe that results can be obtained.

In my opinion the most important bill introduced in the Forty-second Legislature for the benefit of the laboring man was the minimum wage bill specifying a wage of 30 cents per hour for manual labor on highway construction. I was the author of this bill and it is now the law. May the Legislature, whether I be a member or not, preserve this safeguard to the man in the ditch. He is entitled to a living wage, to a wage sufficient for the support of his family, and let's pay him enough so that in driving down a concrete highway he will not see the faces of hungry and half-clothed children looking up at us with the accusation that Texas does not pay her workmen.

The payment of outstanding road bonds issued by the counties of this State should be paid out of the gasoline tax, however, in order to do so it will be necessary to amend the State Constitution. I favor the submission of this question to the voters of Texas, in order that the people might determine whether or not the burden of road bonds should be shifted from the property owner to the traffic on our highways. This relief can be had only by amending your Constitution by a vote of the people.

I have no magic wand to wave over this State that will restore prosperity. Should the people of this district send me to the Senate, I shall adopt as my slogan and use as my guide, and compass the following phrase:

"The Government must get its hands out of the people's pocket."

considerable portion of veterans' expense payment of the certificates.

Members of the Munday post already have gone on record unambiguously in favor of the Wright Patman measure now pending in Congress which would authorize such payment.

Dallas Man Killed In Car Wreck Near Quanah

E. B. Summers, 41, of Dallas, collector for the Oliver Farm Equipment Sales Co., was burned to death Sunday morning at about 8 o'clock as the result of fire that immediately followed the head-on collision of an automobile and truck on Highway 28, about 17 miles west of Crowell.

R. S. Shelton of Clovis, N. M., driver of the sedan in which Summers was riding and salesman for the Oliver Co., received a broken right leg and cuts about the face and other portions of his body, however, he was not seriously injured. After receiving treatment at the local hospital he was removed to Quanah for X-ray of his injuries.

Will Build Mill at Throckmorton

Citizens of Throckmorton are rejoicing in the fact that F. B. Strubling has closed a deal for lots near the railroad tracks east of the Continental Oil Company for his mill and elevator. The lots were formerly the property of Mrs. Albert Venting of Fort Worth.

Work on the mill and elevator was started Monday morning and is rapidly going forward. It will require something like two months of work before the mill will be ready to start the wheels rolling. Workmen are now excavating for the basement and laying of the foundation will be started next Monday morning.

1270 Rabbits Killed Last Ten Days in Knox County

Since the county placed a bounty of five cents on jack rabbits there have been 1270 pairs of ears received here. As the minimum number of ears paid for is 20 it is quite provable that many more than this number have been killed that are not accounted for. The rabbits have been doing an undetermined amount of damage to the grain in this section and it is hoped that the bounty offered will rid the county of the pests.

Road to Lake Ready

The Seymour Chamber of Commerce committee on the road to Lake Kemp makes the report that this road will be in excellent condition for beginning the fishing season. This includes the lane as far as the caretaker's and the road through Cara Blanca park.

The time for spring freshets is at hand, and heavy rains always have their effect on this road, with its many gullies. But this time culverts have been put in on the worst places, and they will carry the water under the road, instead of over it.

Salary Reduction Bills

In your Senator's announcement in the Abilene Reporter he brags of the fact that he voted for the bills introduced to reduce the salaries of state employees. He does not tell you that I was the one who wrote the bills, neither does he say what effort he put forth to secure their passage. As a matter of fact, with the chairman of the Appropriations committee fighting me on the floor of the House, I secured the passage of some of these bills thereby saving the taxpayers of Texas approximately $2,000,000, but when the bills reached the Senate they were killed. Give me a chance in the Senate and I promise to make the same fight there that I

Members of the local post of the American Legion declined at a meeting last week to join numerous other posts in official censure of their national commander for the assertion attributed to him that world war veterans as a class, do not favor the immediate full payment of adjusted compensation certificates.

It was emphasized, however, that the local legionnaires emphatically disagree with any declaration from any source to the effect that any

X-tra Chick Feed

Today there's a new tag on the feed bag that makes it easier for you to choose feed for your chicks. It's a red tag that tells about ingredient "X" (syn-cronized proteins)—the X-tra that gives extra chick life and extra chick growth.

Only in Purina Startena and Purina Growena, the feed in Checkerboard bags, can you find this X-tra something—the greatest development in chick feed since the discovery of vitamins. Look for the red tag.

What a difference it makes. Chicks of the same age, same hatch, that did not get the new ingredient "X", at 14 weeks of age, weighed 1 lb. and 1 oz. less than chicks that did.

This year there are two kinds of chick feed—those that have ingredient "X" and those that haven't. Ingredient "X" comes only in Checkerboard bags. Accept no other. Feed Startena and Growena. Get it here. You'll be chicks and profits ahead.

TIMELY PROGRAM BEING ARRANGED FOR WTCC MEET

A program of unusual and timely interest to all West Texas is being formed for the Fourteenth Annual Convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, Sweetwater, May 12, 13 and 14.

The prevailing theme of the convention this year is that the progress and development of West Texas must come about by united, organized efforts of its own people in solving the present problems that beset business and industry in general.

This theme is carried out in the program that is planned for the convention on the reduction of public expenditures and taxation—the leading subject of the entire convention program. A group conference each day is planned on public expenditures and ways of reducing them. To the conferences are being especially invited the five hundred men composing the seventy local public expenditures and taxation committees that are working with the central committee of the regional organization on this problem.

Speakers of outstanding and recognized ability are being invited to attend and address the convention upon the problem of public expenditures. Some who have already accepted are: Dr. Herman Gerlach James, President of the University of South Dakota, and formerly head of the school of government of the University of Texas; Chas. Jay of Dallas, Walter Beck of Fort Worth, Senator Carl Hardin of Stephenville, and State Auditor Moore Lynn.

Another group conference will be held upon the All-West Texas beautification program of the West Texas Chamber. To this conference will be invited all of the eighty local beautification committees in as many West Texas cities.

Another group conference will be devoted to livestock and agricultural problems. The regional chambers campaign for increased consumption of Texas meat will be forwarded, and a number of outstanding speakers are being invited to address the conference.

James S. Carson, vice-president of the American and Foreign Power Company of New York, and H. Gerrish Smith, vice-president of the Bethlehem Ship Building Company have accepted places on the general convention program. Both are outstanding business men of America, and will also address the group conferences.

Luchon programs for chamber of commerce secretaries, presidents of local chambers, West Texas Chamber of Commerce directors, West Texas legislators, and West Texas newspaper men are being arranged.

Entries in the My Home Town Speaking contest are coming in and Chairman C. M. Caldwell and Secretary B. H. McLain of the contest committee are urging towns to hurry and send in their contestants. Sixty entries are anticipated in the contest this year.

Walter E. Yaggy, Chairman of the Elections Committee has received a number of nominations for local directors including A. C. Surman, Post; C. L. Glana, Matador; Frank W. Kennedy, Quanah; Joe L. Culbertson, Albany; R. H. Nichols, Vernon; R. B. Brown, Muldoon; H. E. Hoover, Canadiah; Dr. C. E. Eaton, Fort Davis; J. E. Petro, Henrietta; Joe Whaley, Menard; O. W. Carr, Fortales; Houston Harts, and Walter Yaggy, San Angelo. All cities and towns are being urged to send in the names of their directors.

Sweetwater is planning a big Gypsy Old Revue as the outstanding entertainment feature of the convention. Every city in West Texas is being asked to participate by sending a gypsy girl delegate to the convention to be paraded in gypsy costume, and appear in the revue.

All local chambers of commerce were asked during the past week to enter exhibits displaying the resources, advantages, and assets of their respective cities. A premium is being offered for the best exhibit and all of the exhibits will be placed in a prominent place for all visitors to see.

Organized delegations are being formed for the convention. Anton in Hockley County, has the honor of being the first city to advise the headquarters office that it will send a band. Secretary Paul Whitfield advises that a forty-piece band will head Anton's delegation.

Cook and Marvin Gholson gave some instrumental selections.

Plans are being made by the Sixty Minute Club for the first of its annual entertainments honoring young women members of the senior class of the High School. Committees appointed at the regular meeting of the organization Monday night are to be in charge of Miss Marguerite McCollum, chairman of the special committee.

It is the intention of the Club to make this annual affair one of the best of its year's work, as well as a part of the senior class activities. Owing to the fact that the club was organized only recently, temporary plans are being made for this year, and the affair will be a picnic in honor of the girls.

Union League Institute.

One of the best and most instructive institutes ever held in the Ever-Ready Union met in Haskell on Friday, Saturday and Sunday April 22-23-24. All of the larger leagues in the Union were represented and some of the leagues in the district but not in the union.

Haskell had the largest representation and were in charge of all of the entertainment for the 3 days. Eighteen certificates were issued Haskell delegates; four to Rule; two to Munday, Gore, and Avoca; one to Stamford, and six to Throckmorton.

In Memory of Mother Alexander

As an artist draws his inspiration from the marvelous creations of God's handiwork; just so are we inspired and uplifted by the influence of a beautiful character.

Seldom are we permitted to know one whose sole thought is of others, whose only aim is to lighten the burdens of her fellow-beings—who looks for good rather than evil—ever finding something to praise rather than criticize.

Her very presence radiated love, kindness, a depth of character and consecration that are beyond comparison. Her sweet personality was so magnetic, it drew everyone to her irresistibly and everyone who knew her loved her.

The good that she accomplished and her influence over others are immeasurable, and will be a lasting monument to her dear memory.

She was a devoted wife and mother and gave her time and energy unobtrusively to her family.
But above all, she was a consecrated christian, one whose daily life was the exemplification of her Savior's teachings.

She has gone from our midst but her precious influence lives on and on, enriching our lives and giving us a greater incentive to live as she would have us live.

"One Who Loved Her."

Balanced Farming Would Help Farmers, Says Chicago Banker

Alvin A. Traylor Would Make Modern Farm More Self-Contained

Leads From Own Experience

Speaking before the International Chamber of Commerce at Washington, D. C., Alvin A. Traylor, President of the First National Bank of Chicago, said in part:

Like all of us, in every line of activity, the farmer was deceived by high values in the time of his prosperity. In a well-intentioned, but what now seems at least an unfortunate venture, the Government provided abundant credit facilities for the farmer's use. These facilities were supplemented by other large and liberal lending agencies which, likewise, were misled by high values. The result was that millions of farmers assumed obligations out of all proportion to any possible normal farm income.

All of us interested in farm activity and farm finance must assume our share of responsibility for this situation. We are learning our lesson and will have to take our medicine with the farmer himself. For this mistake, time and hard work seem to be the only remedy. Certainly, more credit will not solve the problem.

I wish I possessed some prophetic vision that I might suggest an easy way by which the agricultural industry could be relieved of its distress and started on a course of well-being and profit. God has not given me that power, but I think there is at least a partial remedy which the farmer himself can apply. That remedy will start him on the only course which, experience and observation convince me, any of us can hopefully anticipate: the making of a comfortable livelihood.

When we find that on approximately 20 per cent of the farms in the United States there is not a single cow nor a chicken, and that on more than 20 per cent there is not a hog, and on approximately 90 per cent not a sheep; when we know, further, that on many farms in our large agricultural states, no gardens are kept and almost every article of food is purchased at the store, we are forced to the conclusion that the farmer, by and large, is not farming as he should. I know that there are certain sections where some, or all, of these means of increasing farm income cannot be applied, but, so far as possible, every farmer should produce his own milk and dairy products, his own meat, and his own poultry, raise his own garden truck, and can the fruit and vegetables he requires for winter use.

Pigs and Chickens Help
Until he obtains from his farm every item for personal consumption which it is humanly possible for him to produce, he has not done his job properly. Pigs and chickens and cows are worth more to the individual farmer than all the government relief programs that may possibly be conceived.

Once the farmer lives at home, then I believe that whatever kind of money crop he may produce, whether it be large or small, the price high or low, his major difficulty will be solved and his margin of income for the necessities and luxuries he so much desires will be greatly increased.

There is no romance about farming. If it is successfully done, I know it means hard work day in and day out. But so does any other business successfully performed. I know the privations of farm life. They are much less now than they were thirty years ago. I should like to see every farm home equipped with the modern conveniences of urban life. I should like to see every farmer with an automobile, a radio, and all other modern inventions which have contributed so much to social welfare.

Entitled to Modern Comforts
No one is more entitled to these advantages than the farmer; but the farmer, like everyone else, should have them only when he can pay for them. The income for such purposes will be largely determined by the extent to which the farmer exhausts every possible means of supplying his necessities from the farm itself.

The way out for the farmer is not an easy one. Neither is the course smooth for industry, finance or government, and the problem in one sphere is little less difficult than in any other.

FARM NOTES BY JOE. C. WILLIAMS COUNTY AGENT

Fake Poultry Remedies

At this season of the year the counties over the state are having numerous Poultry Remedies peddled by agents who make all kinds of claims about the things that their medicines will do for hens such as; gets rid of insects that infest chickens; rids the flock of worms; and to cap it all, guarantees to make the hens produce more eggs. Farmers and farmer's wives should be on the lookout for such peddlers, as they take fryers, hens, eggs and other farm products that are of value.

The extension service is getting collections of the various makes of medicines and after they have been carefully tried out according to the directions they have found that in most cases all to be fakes. These agents or peddlers will even guarantee the hens to produce more eggs, and get by with it because at this time of year when the hens get plenty of green stuff they will naturally lay more eggs. As for the various remedies, that guarantee all kinds of things, your local dealer handles the best known brands for the insects that infest your hens. Do not be fooled into buying any kind of the various remedies, or rat poisons. Your County and Home Demonstration Agents can give you information on these lines that are safe and have been tried out and proven successful.

Grasshoppers

These pests are more than likely to cause trouble this year again where there was trouble with them last year. Most every farmer who has had experience with them should be on the lookout for them as well as others who have not had to fight them.

The best methods of control are as follows:

25 pounds coarse wheat bran, 1 pound of white arsenic or Paris Green. One ounce amy acetate, 2 quarts of cane molasses, and water sufficient to make a moist mash.

Thoroughly mix the bran and poison together while dry. Dilute the amy acetate and molasses with two gallons of water, pour this mixture over the bran and poison, mix well until every bit of it is wet. Then add more water as you need it.

This mixture as suggested will cover five acres of land and should be broadcast. A good plan is to mix up the poison the evening before it is to be used, the next day. Be sure and do not use lead arsenate.

Of course, there are many things you want and need . . . but you may be letting many of them wait until you see in a store or a window exactly what you have in mind, at an especially alluring price.

PRETTY POLLY: Looks as if Polly Walters, blonde movie queen, was getting ready to smile. "Well, we'll smile!"

FIDDED HIS WAY FROM BOLSHEVIST JAIL: Victor Young, noted radio conductor, played his way out of a Red prison in which he was jailed as a royalist sympathizer during the Russian revolution. That was before he became a headliner on such coast-to-coast programs as the Romanzo Exchange.

CAKES IN THE NEWS: When little Lindy helped himself to a piece of cake on his first birthday his famous parents—thoughts of kidnapping far from their minds—didn't realize how widely the above picture would be used. At right, another cake in the news recently. A Swans Down Sky-scraper Special, 4 1/2 feet high, was baked for the Oklahoma Memorial Association's banquet. Over 125 pounds of cake flour were used.

and strong political pressure. But this successful fight prevented the useless expenditure of $10,000,000 to $15,000,000.

3. By actively and vigorously opposing a change in the Texas Constitution to permit the issuance of $300,000,000 worth of state road bonds. At the low rate of 4 per cent, the annual interest of such a debt would be $12,000,000. There are, in round numbers 100 million dollars of local road bonds outstanding in Texas. Therefore, the issuance of 300 million of state bonds, even though the 100 million of local bonds could be retired, meant trebling the bonded debt of Texas people for roads, and almost doubling the annual payments of interest for them.

In order to show the extent to which the issuance of State bonds could go, if the practice was ever commenced, I introduced a resolution proposing the issuance of state bonds to buy up and run the electric power plants of the State. This resolution was purposely made word for word, exactly the same as the road bond resolution, except the paragraph which declared the purpose for which the money could be used.

Its introduction was part of the movement to weaken and defeat the road bond issue, and its effect was tremendous. From the time of its introduction, there was a pronounced cooling-off of sentiment for the road bonds. Many of the members of the House of Representatives were so reluctant to vote on it, that it was necessary to resort to force to keep them in the Chamber. The last three votes taken on the bond issue in the House were behind locked doors.

4. By opposing the creation of new district courts. The 104th judicial district was created less than six years ago. Today there are 126 districts, an increase of 22 districts in less than six years. The creations of new and unnecessary district courts, for the convenience of lawyers, is an expensive practice which ought to be stopped.

5. By favoring, at the last session of the Legislature, a salary cut of 10 per cent for all state employees.

For the future, every candidate will promise tax reduction and economy. All this means absolutely nothing unless he goes into some detail and specifies where and when the operation is to take place. Roughly, the agencies and institutions of the state government spend a little more than 100 million dollars a year. Approximately, one-third goes for roads, one-third for education, and one-third for the support of all other departments and institutions, such as courts, prisons, asylums, etc.

This fact must be faced—a cut must be made in all three thirds, if the whole is to be substantially reduced. It is possible to cut from six million to ten million from road construction, and a similar amount from both the other thirds—a total reduction of from twelve to twenty millions.

There should be no reduction in appropriations for the common schools and high schools. But reduction can be made in the cost of higher education in Texas. It is notorious that the cost of educating a pupil in the state colleges and universities is two or three times as great as the cost of educating one in the denominational colleges and universities.

The burden of taxation falls heaviest on land-owners and homeowners. This is partly due to the existence of bonded debt for roads and schools. The amounts which I have suggested cutting from road construction can be appropriated each two years to the payment of the interest and sinking fund of these local bonds. This would relieve to some extent the crushing burden of land taxes. I am the first man in West Texas to publicly advocate the retirement of local road bonds by appropriations out of the current revenues of the Highway Department, and I am gratified to notice that this plan is being approved by nearly everybody.

Public Utilities
The public utilities companies are running wild loose in Texas. They are absolute monopolies. The services they render are public services, and many of the privileges they enjoy are governmental in their character. They engage in the most extravagant financial operations. They have borrowed money and issued their bonds more recklessly than city and county governments. They pay their executives and technical men high salaries. They spend enormous sums of money to support "public relations" departments—glad-hand artists and politicians, they are—whose sole duty is to propagate good-will and "educate" people into believing their racts are fair. They maintain the most expensive and smartest lobbies at the State Capitol. They are more ruthless than outlaws in the competitive methods they employ against municipal plants. They are in politics up to their eyes—city, state and national. And the consumer pays for all of it, high salaries, interest on enormous bonds, wasteful and extravagant financing, the best lawyers to fight rate reductions in the courts, and the smoothest set of lobbyists that ever cut the throat of any legislative bill.

They must be controlled, and their rates lowered so as to allow them only a fair return on a wise and necessary investment.
Oliver Cunningham.

SADDLES TO BE GIVEN WINNERS IN COWBOY CONTESTS

Through the courtesy of Walter Cousins, Dallas, publisher of the Southern Pharmaceutical Journal and a pioneer cowboy of West Texas, two $150 saddles and four special made bridles have been donated as prizes for the rodeo contests to be held in connection with the Texas Cowboy Reunion in Stamford on July 4th, 5th and 6th.

One saddle is to be donated by Carl Weeks of Des Moines, Iowa, as first prize in the old-timers calf roping contest. Mr. Weeks is the maker of Armand's face powder and toilet articles. This saddle is being made by S. D. Myers Saddle Company of El Paso, under the personal supervision of S. D. Myers. The saddle will be similar to the first prize saddle given at the World Series Rodeo in New York in 1929.

The other saddle is to be given by B. Orr of Columbus, Ohio, as a first prize to the champion cowboy in the rodeo contest, and will be made by Switzer Saddle Company of Matador, Texas, according to specifications furnished by Frank Rhoades of Throckmorton, Texas. The four special bridles are to be awarded by Walter Cousins to individuals selected by him. Mr. Cousins is taking a special interest in the Texas Cowboy Reunion and its efforts to reunite old-time cowboys and honor the men who rode the range over thirty-five years ago.

NEW FORD CAR TO BE SHOWN HERE THIS WEEK

The New Ford V-8 automobile will be shown for the first time in Haskell on Friday and Saturday of this week, April 29th and 30th. Announcement to this effect was made Thursday by J. D. Montgomery, manager of the Haskell Motor Company, local Ford dealers. The new Ford, which has attracted nationwide interest, will be on display at the company's showrooms on the east side of the square.

"In view of the fact that more than 8,000 Ford dealers must be supplied, we are particularly gratified to be able to state that the new Ford is to be available to us at this time," Mr. Montgomery said. "Word just received from The Ford Motor Company's Dallas branch advises that the car we are to have for display is already en route to us.

"We have of late been fairly swamped with inquiries. Aside from a large number of visitors at our show rooms, we have been in receipt of many telephone calls, including inquiries from out-of-town points. To date we have been obliged to depend upon pictures and literature to satisfy all inquiries. But on Friday and Saturday the new eight-cylinder car will be here to speak for itself."

Mr. Montgomery said that word from Dearborn, Michigan, is to the effect that all production schedules are being increased to accommodate the orders for cars that are pouring in from all parts of the country. The public in general is cordially invited to see the new automobile while on display here.
