Care Home schedules alzheimer's meeting

As a part of activities highlighting National Nursing Home Week, Brazos Valley Care Home is sponsoring a community awareness meeting on Alzheimer's Disease Tuesday, May 12, at 7:00 p.m. at the W.R. Baker Audito-

Speaker for the event will be Sue Davis, Executive Director of the West Central Texas Alzheimer's Association, a chapter of the national Alzheimer's Association. The West Central Texas Chater serves a 24-county area which includes Knox County. Davis also serves as an Education Coordinator for the Abilene Regional Resource Center of the Alzheimer's Disease Education Program administered by Texas Tech University's Health Sciences

In Knox City, she will present an overview of Alzheimer's Disease and will provide opportunity for questions and answers concerning recent research developments, drug treatments, or any aspect of the disease.

Free literature will be available for all those attending the meeting. Special packets will be available for ministers attending from local and area churches, as the emphasis of the Alzheimer's Disease Education Program is helping clergy members learn how churches can minister to families affected by Alzheimer's Disease or related disorders.

Alzheimer's Disease is a progressive, degenerative disease of the brain and the most common form of dementia. Approximately four million Americans have Alzheimer's, and this figure is expected to grow to 14 million by the middle of the next century unless a cure or prevention is found. The estimated number of patients in Knox County alone is 151. The number of patients in the state of Texas is estimated to be 265,000. Half of all nursing home patients suffer from Alzheimer's Disease or a related disorder.

Nineteen million Americans say they have a family member with Alzheimer's Disease, and 37 million know someone with Alzheimer's. It is the fourth leading cause of death among adults and the third most expensive disease in the U.S., with the average lifetime cost per patient estimated at $174,000. A person with Alzheimer's Disease can live from three to 20 years or more from the onset of symptoms.

All local and area residents are invited to attend the May 12 presentation.

The information is designed to be helpful to family members of patients, healthcare professionals, clergy, and all those interested in helping families affected by Alzheimer's Disease or related disorders.

In a meeting held at the W.R. Baker Auditorium in Knox City last Wednesday evening, more than 190 concerned individuals from all over the Big Country area discussed ways to band together and fight the actions of a company known as Santa Fe Rail, Inc. of Graham.

Representing concerned land owners, irate business owners, utility companies, city governments, county governments, and the State of Texas, the group's agenda for the evening was to protest and legally fight the recent actions taken by the Graham firm to sell high priced easement and land rights to land that used to be railway right of way in an area that stretches from Chillicothe to the North, and Sweetwater to the South.

Recently sending out letters to land owners, business owners, utility companies and city and county governmental agencies whose personal property, business property, or utility lines cross over on to former RR right of way property purchased by the Graham firm, Santa Fe Rail, Inc. appears to have made many people mad enough to fight with whatever means are possible.

Speaking to the group, Bill Parks, President of Home State Bank in Rochester, stated, "One of the main purposes of this meeting tonight is for everyone to get an understanding of how far reaching the effect of the F&H Rail, Inc. requests are!! Utility companies are being asked to pay $2,500 per easement crossing the railroad property. This right was paid for in he past, but now they are being asked to do it again at up to 20 times the original costs. This cost will be passed on through rate increases to each and every consumer in their area, not just those people who happen to live along the line.

Cities and counties are being requested to pay for easements to properties, they have previously paid for. This will be passed on to each and every individual in these areas in the form of higher rates and taxes. The majority of communities and many of the counties effected by the requests do not have any surplus for such money demands. This is going to be a problem for everyone.

Landowners that have been farming and ranching the land along the railroad have been requested to give in excess of $1,300 per acre. Outstanding irrigated farmland that has irrigation wells and is ready to farm does not bring over $500/acre and this land is covered in creosote and gravel. It is not productive land and it cannot be used

The owners of the property along the railroad line that built improvements on their land are being asked to repurchase the assets they have been struggling to pay fro since they built them. Some of these people are still trying to pay for the assets the first time. If they are required to pay for them again, they could be forced out of business. If they are no longer in business, then they no longer pay taxes, they no longer pay salaries and they no longer can support the communities they are involved in. When this happens, the rest of the community, homeowners, landowners, citizens and business owners are required to pick up the difference. The majority of these businesses are ag related and everyone knows the problems and downturns there have been in anything ag related.

F&H Santa Fe Rail, Inc. has spent money to acquire this property. I will not suggest that they do not deserve to make a profit from their investment, but the overpricing they have requested on this property and the manner they have gone about trying to force people to give in to them is not acceptable. As you see every dollar that is paid out to this group will be money taken from every community and from every citizen involved. We must unite together and work together to find a solution to our problem.

Now they are wanting to compromise and talk. We need to join together." During the meeting, several individual, representing many different interests along the former rail line, all spoke and expressed basically the same sentiments as Bill Parks. There was an overwhelming agreement that all persons involved need to band together, hire tough legal representation, and begin to research each individual deed along the right of way to determine not only how F&H acquired the land, but how the land was deeded to the rail companies in the first place.

Following the strong presentation by Bill Parks, he was named the group's temporary chairman. Other presentations were made by State Representatives David Counts (District 70) and Charles Finnell (District 68). Several land owners and business owners stood and talked about the threatening tactics being used by F&H

Representatives from the offices of Texas State Senator Tom Haywood, and U.S. Congressman Charlie Stenholm were also on hand at the meeting. Media representatives from the Wichita Falls Times and Record News, the Abilene Reporter News, The Knox County News, and KTXS (ABC-12) television in Abilene were also at the STATE REPRE-SENTATIVE CHARLES FINNELL also addressed the Thursday night meeting in Knox City, expressing his concern to those in attendance.

A little known secret

Last week I was dismayed when I discovered that the lock on my garage door was not working, it appears that after 14 years, the tumblers inside had ceased to function. In calling around to several places to try and find a replacement, the end result was equally dismaying. No luck, as the lock was too old. And to top things off, a newer type of lock wouldn't even fit the same mounting holes.

I was just about to give up all hope when I was told that I should try Johnny Melton at P-M auto Supply in Munday. While not many people over on this side of the county know it, it seems that Johnny is a locksmith and can fix just about anything.

Sure enough, Johnny took the lock apart, manufactured a new piece, filed down another, put it back together..... and it works better than it did when it was brand new!!! But, as Paul Harvey is so famous for saying, here is the rest of the story: To do everything he did, Johnny only charged me a total of $7.50!! During his work on the lock, Johnny told me about old locks and how people just throw them away whenever they don't work just right. He has taken fifty year old locks and made

The election is over, but the public still needs to be kept informed

This past Saturday, three new faces were elected to the City Council of Knox City. While the pressure of an election is over for Charles Lankford, Jeff Stanfield and Tommy Mangis, it is my hope that their 'real pressure' is just beginning. We are in the middle of tough economic times, and tough solutions will be needed for the problems that face our community now and in the future. Input from the citizens will be valuable, but the citizens do have to be kept informed so everyone knows what's going on. Charles Lankford came by the NEWS office on Monday morning and wanted to know if it would be possible to put the minutes from City Council meetings in the paper so the citizens of Knox City would know what is going on. I took his question as a very positive first step. This newspaper has been trying for years to put minutes in the paper, but we have been stonewalled in every way known to man. My belief has always been that the more information is put out to the residents of our community, the citizens will have an opportunity to become better informed and more involved. Information also helps to put a stop to Knox City's most famous product - the rumor and gossip factories.

Yes, this newspaper will be more than happy to publish the minutes - as long as they are received in a timely fashion. Minutes that are delivered two or three months late are not considered timely for publication! Even though minutes have to be approved, we can run them right after any meeting by just using a disclaimer at the top that they are unapproved minutes that still have to be approved at the next regular scheduled council meeting. We've done this in the past, and other newspapers do it this way all the time. At least that way, the residents of our community will have an opportunity to know what is going on before something's a 'done deal' and nobody knew about

That also goes true for minutes and financial statements from the School Board, the Hospital Board, and the Commissioner's Court. A few of these items are required by Texas law to be printed, and we still do not get some of them, or don't get them in a timely fashion.

My answer to Charles Lankford (and all other elected officials) is YES! We will be happy to print minutes and financial statements from all the governmental agencies that our newspaper serves, as long as we receive them on a timely basis. And - as is often the case with a small newspaper...... space permitting.

Wide Variety of Uses for KARATE®

To produce a high-yielding, quality crop in our area, growers must be crop protection experts. Most insecticides are crop specific, so growers need to know about a vast array of products to combat each problem. Multiple crops, multiple insects and one solution. That's what Karate insecticide offers growers. Karate is labeled for use on a wide variety of crops, including corn, soybeans, cotton and peanuts, as well as many vegetables, such as broccoli, tomatoes, onions and more.

Karate offers excellent control of yield-damaging insects. In addition to controlling budworms, bollworms and boll weevils in cotton, Karate also is tough on corn pests like fall armyworms and corn borers. The insecticide consistently works well on troublesome soybean and peanut pests, including bean leaf beetles, earworms, cutworms, stinkbugs

Karate even works where most pyrethroids fail. It suppresses secondary pests, such as aphids and mites. Not only does Karate provide superior insect control in many crops, but it offers growers several other benefits.

Karate offers longer residual control than other pyrethroids or chemistry classes. Longer lasting control can mean fewer insecticide applications throughout the growing season, which saves growers money.

Additionally, research studies show cotton fields treated with Karate out-yielded those treated with other pyrethroids 70 percent of the time and those treated with non-pyrethroids 82 percent of the time.

Try Karate for all your insect control needs. Contact your local ag chem dealer to find out more about Karate insecticide by Zeneca Ag Products.

The Knox City-O'Brien CISD Health Advisory Committee met on April 16 to discuss the Sex Education Seminar that David Gordon conducted at the schools in March. Packets of questions that were submitted by the students to Gordon were distributed and discussed by the Committee members. Gordon offered to come back to Knox City and do a Parent Seminar concerning how parents can answer questions about or how to approach their children on sensitive issues. The District hopes that our parents will take advantage of this excellent resource. Parents will be receiving a mailout in the near future concerning their attendance at this seminar and we hope that many of you will respond favorably.

As always, let me encourage you, as parents, to feel free to call or come by the office with any questions concerning your children's education.

I am pleased to announce our TAAS scores for this spring are in and they are excellent! The Sophomore Class scored 100% in Writing, 95% in Math and 100% in Reading!

These numbers could enable our school to qualify for the Exemplary rating from TEA. If you get a chance, pat these students and their teachers on the back for a job - WELL DONE!

New 'Grass Roots' cartoon featured

A new cartoon series begins with this edition of The Knox County News, replacing the 'J.P Doodles' cartoon series that has been sponsored each week by Home State Bank in Rochester.

The new series is titled "grass Roots', with a theme more geared towards this part of the country and the way of life known by so many ranchers and farmers in this area. Also sponsored by the 'down home folks' at Rochester's Home State Bank, the cartoon will be featured in the bank's ad each

Cartoonist and author Stan Lynde is returning to his roots more specifically to his grass roots. Beginning in May, Lynde's cartoon panel Grass Roots - all new and updated - will once again appear in daily and weekly newspapers across Texas and the western Lynde is no stranger to newspaper readers; his comic strips Rick O 'Shay and Latigo were syndicated world-wide over a period of nearly 25 years—from 1958 to 1983 - and were followed daily by a readership that numbered in the millions.

The original Grass Roots cartoons were carried by weekly newspapers during 1984 and 1985 and offered commentary on inflation, politics, religion, agriculture, social issues, and other topics - from a "grass roots" point of view. The cartoons featured ranch hands Billy and Shag, homespun characters who expressed through humor and country wisdom the common-sense values of small town and rural America.

"Two factors led me to revive the feature," Lynde said, "the health, growth, and viability of weekly newspapers, and the country's return to 'grass roots' values."

"It has long been my belief," Lynde said, "that the national media, for a variety of reasons, seldom reflects the views, values, and concerns of people in the heartland. My cartoon series Grass Roots is designed to do just that." Syndicated by Cottonwood

Stan Lynde

Publishing, Inc., of Helena, Montana, Grass Roots will begin during May in newspapers all across the state of Texas.

Gloria Nevarez is triple winner

The United States Achievement Academy has announced that Gloria Nevarez has been named a United States National Award winner in cheerleading, English and Science.

This award is a prestigious honor few students can ever hope to attain. In fact, the Academy recognizes less than 10% of all American high school students.

Gloria, who attends Knox City High School, was nominated for these awards by Melissa Espinosa, Pat Risinger and Bob Collins.

She will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, which is published nationally.

Just when we thought the federal government couldn't get any more involved in our lives, along comes the Secretary of Transportation with a federal plan to crack down on people who run red lights across the country.

His plan essentially would form a public-private partnership between Washington, businesses, and local communities to educate people about the dangers of running red lights. The program will include such measures as increased police enforcement and putting cameras up at stoplights to take pictures of those who break the law.

Now, people who run red lights are a problem. And having Washington work with local communities is a lot-better than having them come in and tell people what to do -- as has happened so often in the past. But somehow I question whether the Founding Fathers would have envisioned traffic enforcement as a federal responsibility when they drafted the Constitution in 1789. And while you can argue that the world has changed a great deal since then, you can also make the case that the need for limited government is as great now as it was 200 years ago.

The federal government is bigger than it's ever been in our

I had some visitors last week from Lubbock. Cody and Brandi Manning and new baby girl Shailee Brook and Pearce and Christi Manning of Knox City. They were my neighbors at one time and I do miss them. My son Jim Johnston of Lubbock visited with me a while Sunday afternoon after a weekend attending an anniversary party in Panhandle for his mother-in-law, Maizie Kainer's sister and husband.

Visiting Mutt and Bertie Ivie and Roy and Kay Stewart over the weekend was Roy and Bertie's sister, Mary Sue. They all attended church together Sunday at O'Brien.

Marvelene Lancaster of Springtown visited her father Marvin Manning in the Brazos Valley Care Home over the week-

Alan and Jennifer and Ileta Holmes were all in Sonora last week to attend the funeral services for Jackie Holmes. Jackie was the brother of the late Grady Holmes and he finished high school here in O'Brien. He was survived by four children and a host of other relatives.

Wayne and Corrine McKinney spent sometime in their house here last week and mowed and cleaned around their home while here.

Scott Stephens, student at Tech in Lubbock, is home for summer and will be involved in many different jobs throughout the summer.

Trish Roberts is also home from college and preparing for her wedding in June.

Beatrice Ellis is in the Rehab Center in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. She is going through a lot of pain at this time and needs our prayers.

It's a shame that her dog had given her more affection and attention than her dad.

Benjamin news

By Gladene Green, Benjamin Correspondent

It's another beautiful day dawning here. The birds are singing and the fragrance of the early spring flowers surely does invite one to stay outside. This is a beautiful time of the year when the winds are calm and the thunderstorms are at rest. A prelude to the hot summer days ahead.

I'm happy to be able to report that news of our ill this week in encouraging. Clodell Duke returned home Tuesday and is out and about and doing great after her knee surgery three weeks ago. Says she has a little discomfort but for the most part is doing real well.

Debra Moorhouse continues to improve daily. Will begin chemo on May 11 having a week of treatment, then be off the treatment for three weeks. That will continue for six months.

Hazel Stockton had cataract surgery last Tuesday. She had one eye operated on in January and hopes after this most recent surgery her eyesight will be much better. She's doing pretty well.

Betty Bohannon received word that her mom fell the last of the week and broke her hip. At last report, she was still in the hospital and no word on when she may be able to return home.

Janice Tolson's brother, Ed Daniel of Knox City, has been quite ill after suffering a stroke at his home last Wednesday. He's in a Lubbock hospital but late reports are that he is improved.

Mabel Moorhouse continues to improve since she broke her hip a couple of weeks ago. She's still in the hospital but hopefully can return home soon.

And I ask your prayers in behalf of my sister-in-law, Elizabeth Yeager of Weatherford. She's quite ill in the Weatherford Hospital and when her condition improves she will go into a rest home there in Weatherford.

Florence Ray of Seymour, who lived in Benjamin, several years ago underwent surgery last Wednesday in Seymour. She's home now and is doing well. She's a sister-in-law of Nora Duke and Clodell Duke.

Dennis Duke was in Wichita Falls Friday for some tests. So far all his reports have been pretty good and that is good to report.

Then we still are plagued by allergies, hay fever, an occasional virus and all the usual "stuff". We just ask your prayers for all in need, regardless of the needs.

Here 'N There - Several parents accompanied the kids to Levelland last Friday for the regional track meet. Our kids didn't advance but were winners by making it that far. Kids qualifying for regional were Tyler Carroll, Jacy Collins, Lynne Moorhouse, Mica and Juli Larned, Lacy Carver and Cathy Rainwater.

Billy Trainham of Lubbock visited Joy and Charles Jones a couple of days last week.

Jack and Mary Young were in Childress Saturday to see the "Indian show". Can't recall exactly what it was called but do know there was much Indian "goings on". Also a parade, dances, etc. According to Mary Jane (and my kids) it was a fun time.

Dutch and Imagean Young, Deann and Anthony Lamb and Jane Gideon joined Joe Nunley and his daughter Janet who lives in Arizona for a family gathering at Joe's home in Seymour Sunday. Also enjoying the day with them were Joy Yancey of Lakeside City and Mike Young and family, also of Seymour.

Rachel Duke of Texas Tech was home for the weekend, as was Audra Neal, student at HSU

Louise Hertel and Nora Duke visited Nora Hertel in Leisure Lodge in Munday on Sunday. Said Nora is doing fine. Louise's mom, Leola Isbell, in the Brazos Valley Care Home is about as she has been for awhile. Doesn't make much change but does rest and lot and that is very good for her.

Word was received here this past weekend of the death of former resident Chip Smith and his wife who were killed in an automobile accident. No details were readily available but certainly our condolences to the families of this young couple.

Also I received the news of the recent death of Dean Dukes, also a former resident. The young st son of Juanita and the late Howard Dykes, Dean was a resident of Fort Worth. He was the grandson of the late Bill and Mildred Hamilton and nephew of Gary Hamilton.

Homecoming 1998 is fast approaching and we hope everyone is making plans to be here. We're gonna try to make it a good

And it's congratulations to new school board members, Mitzi Ham, Randy Reed and Shana Heard, who was already serving an unexpired term; and the incumbent Wyman Meinzer.
