RAIN OVER COUNTY MONDAY BOOSTS FARMER'S HOPES

Three-Quarter Inch Fall Gives Total of 1.39 In Week's Period

Rainfall Monday night which amounted to over three-quarters of an inch in Haskell, and reported variously as ranging between one-half and an inch in other sections of the county has greatly heartened farmers and ranchers alike.

Monday night's rain brought precipitation during the past week to 1.39 inches—the fall being gauged at .78 of an inch with .61 of an inch being recorded Wednesday night of last week.

Although more moisture will be needed in practically all sections of the county before the bulk of crop planting can be started, the recent rains were of material benefit to gardens and brought a measure of hope that considerable grain acreage would be revived until additional moisture is received.

WORK PROGRESSES ON IMPROVEMENTS TO WATER SYSTEM

All Concrete Work Is Being Rapidly Finished; Will Erect Tower Soon

Work is progressing rapidly on improvements to the city water system, which will include the erection of a steel elevated water tower of 150,000 gallons capacity, concrete surface reservoir with a capacity of 50,000 gallons, chlorinator plant, pumping houses and extensions to water and sewer mains.

First work being done is construction of the concrete surface reservoir, and foundations for the building structures and elevated tower.

Contract for the work now under way was awarded to the Veder Construction Company of Childress, and Supt. Olson of that city is in charge of the Haskell project.

Contract for the steel tower is held by the Des Moines Steel Company, and material for the construction work is now being received.

All concrete work, including the smaller buildings, will likely be completed before work on the tower is started, Mr. Olson states.

All the new installations are located on the property owned by the city one-half block south of the square, the site of two large city wells.

Forty Trapped Ravens Furnish Nimrod's Sport

Some thirty-odd ravens, trapped by Albert Peiser, farmer residing east of Haskell, met an unhappy fate Tuesday when they were released from their trap only to fall victims of gunfire at the hands of four local nimrods.

Peiser, contriving the trap which successfully snared the destructive birds, invited Hill Oates, Henry Atkinson, Ben Bagwell and Jason Smith to demonstrate their skill with shotguns in exterminating the feathered pests. As witnesses, Paul Frierson and J. F. Kennedy were on hand.

This was the first "Raven Shoot" to be staged in this immediate section, and those taking part state that plenty of sport was provided. Only three or four birds escaped.

An interesting fact which developed as a result of Peiser's improvised trap came to light as the birds were being released. One of the ravens had been banded by the U. S. biological survey, and Mr. Peiser has sent the numbered band to Washington and is awaiting with interest information concerning the date and place where the banding occurred.

GRAND JURY BILLS TWO CONVICTS FOR YEAR-OLD ROBBERY

Purported Confessions Are Basis For Re-Opening Investigation

Reopening of investigation into a local burglary which occurred in January of last year, and for which one man is now serving a nine-year penitentiary sentence, was in prospect here following action of the Grand Jury in returning indictments Tuesday against two convicts who are now serving sentences in the State Penitentiary at Huntsville.

Early in January last year, the B. & W. filling station on the southeast corner of the square was robbed, and Joe Willoughby, the proprietor, bound and foot and left in the building, where he was found several hours later by Deputy Sheriff Mart Clifton and relatives.

Investigation of the robbery resulted in charges being filed against Roscoe Conklin, subsequently indicted and convicted, receiving a nine-year penitentiary sentence in District Court. Conklin is now in the penitentiary.

According to court officials, the current Grand Jury launched an investigation this week, after purported confessions reached District Court officers, in which two inmates of the penitentiary professed knowledge of the Haskell robbery, and allegedly admitted taking part in the crime.

The current indictments named J. D. Hope and Elmer Aaron, and bench warrants directing their release from the State Penitentiary to custody of Sheriff Giles Kemp of Haskell were issued Wednesday by District Judge Dennis P. Ratliff.

Sheriff Kemp, accompanied by Deputy Ollie Kittley of Rule and Henry Atkinson of Haskell left Wednesday for Huntsville to return Aaron and Hope to Haskell, for arraignment in District Court on robbery charges named in the indictment.

The Dramatic Club is going to entertain all those who won first, second and third places in the county meet, with a dinner party.

Resident of Rule Brings In First Courthouse Photo

First response to the request for pictures of the two early-day Haskell county courthouses, published last week, came from Dennis Jones of Rule, member of a pioneer county family.

Mr. Jones brought to the Free Press office an excellent picture of the two-story structure which served as the seat of county government prior to the time the three-story rock structure was erected.

Mr. Jones' picture showed the building as it appeared after it had been supplanted by the later structure, and was being used as a hotel. He recalled that several of the downstairs rooms at one time housed the Free Press of those days, where during his boyhood he served an apprenticeship as "devil."

Other pictures are desired, all of them to be used in the arrangement of a Haskell county panel for the Texas Centennial.

Persons who have photographs of the early-day buildings are requested to bring or mail them to The Free Press, where they will be copied and returned to owners. Due credit will be given to all submitted.

There is no mystery about PALATABLE COOKING The idea of a cooking appliance able to put out a savory dinner without the aid of an expert cook has intrigued engineers for many years. In all divisions of cookery—top burner, broiling and oven—the modern gas range introduces new and higher standards of cooking performance. With its accurate control of cooking heat, its insulated oven, its simmer burners, anyone can prepare a dinner done to a queen's taste. So see these new ranges. There's a model to fit your family needs. And once you learn how easy one is to use, how economical to operate, how easy to buy... you'll see the wisdom of modernizing with a new gas range. Easy to Buy! Small Down Payment! Trade-In Allowance! Monthly Terms! Quick Installation! No wonder GAS is preferred for cooking Gas is, by all standards of comparison, the ideal cooking fuel. It is controllable to the exact degree of heat required, certain, dependable, clean and cheap. Sixteen million American housewives say "gas is best." She isn't doing so well and the doctors fear she will be a cripple the rest of her life. Her relatives and friends here regret to hear this news.

Mr. Hugh Gauntt's school closed last Friday at Gilliam. Hugh has been appointed Superintendent of the Foster school next year. His many friends here are proud of his success. A. F. Thurman, Minister

Bible Study and Class Work—9:45 a. m.
Sermon and the Lord's Supper—11 a. m.
Young People's Meetings—7:30 p. m.
Sermon and the Lord's Supper—8:15 p. m.
Study in Acts of the Apostles—Wednesday, 8:15 p. m.

Please note the change of time in the period, Sunday night and Wednesday night.

The sermon of the morning hour will be made to rest upon the following scriptures: "That I may know Him, and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, becoming conformed unto His death; if by any means I may attain unto the resurrection from the dead." (Phil. 3:10, 11.)

The foundation for the evening sermon will be found in the following Scriptures: "If then ye were raised together with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated on the right hand of God. Set your mind on the things that are above, not on the things that are upon the earth"—Col. 3:1-3.

The morning sermon will answer this question, "What does it mean to suffer with and for Christ?" The night sermon will answer this question, "What does it mean to set ones mind on things above?"

We are always glad to have you with us. COME!

THE JUNIOR ENDEAVOR

The Juniors met at the church at four o'clock. We had a very interesting program, but we missed our special numbers.

We are working on our hymn and two reported reading their Bible verses.

The hostess served nut fudge during the social hour.

INTERMEDIATE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

We meet at five o'clock. Please be on time. The Juniors are the most prompt, the high school Endeavor had the largest number present this Sunday, but the Intermediate presented the best program.

The leader for next Sunday is Bobby Jo McClain. Special Music, Martha Post. Subject of lesson: Christian Courage. Scripture Acts 4:18-20.

HIGH SCHOOL CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

We meet at 7 o'clock. Please get your Bibles and read Rom. 12:11. The leader for next Sunday is Frank Baldwin. Scripture 1 John 4:18-21.

Subject: "How To Conquer Our Fears?"

The boys beat the girls by four. Some of these days the girls will have to entertain the losing side, if they don't get busy and this is leap year too.

Don't say I can't find anyone, for Haskell claims 3000 people, the church and Bible school records show less than a thousand. So there's plenty of material for workers.

There is no age limit to Endeavor.

News of Haskell County Boys In C. C. C. Camp

(By Morris Hill)

Barracks Two is the banner barracks for this week. A special Camp Flag has been donated for the winning barracks. It has U. S. C. C. C. in large letters at the top, and the winning barracks gets to keep it for each week that they win.

The boys who left at the end of this term were: Clarence Chitwood, Ben H. Fletcher, Lloyd Webb, Glenn and Buster Yarbrough, Henry Fancher and N. J. Bishop. We wish them luck, and shall miss them greatly.

We were awakened the other night by a great commotion, and upon investigation found Hardy Woods raising a great cry because his bed had disappeared. Looking fully into the matter we found his bed had been suspended from the rafters. After a few minutes work it came down with a bang and Woods was soon fast asleep.

Ben Fool and a pal from Fort Bliss visited among the Haskell county boys last Thursday night.

W. T. (Canary) Holmesly is singing "I'm Alone Because I Love You". We wonder why he doesn't sing "Isn't Love the Grandest Thing" any more?

Alfred (Cue Ball) McIver is the boy who always leads in the rush to Mess Hall.

It is reported that Wayne Hunter and Thomas I. Sitton have a hobby of collecting the pants of visitors to Barracks 4—much to the displeasure of the visitor.

Munday Drubs Haskell 9-5 In Season Opener

A disappointed crowd of Haskell baseball fans witnessed the defeat of the Haskell Braves by the Munday aggregation in the opening game of the Wichita Valley League at Fair Park last Sunday afternoon.

Munday took the heavy end of the 9-5 score.

The game was not without its thrills for the crowded grandstand however, as the score veered in favor of first one team and then the other, with Munday one run in the lead in the ninth, when that team's hefty first-sacker smacked the pill a full 400 yards with two men on bases. It was Munday's game then!

Next Sunday, Haskell pays Munday a visit for the second game of the season.

SONG WRITTEN BY HASKELL MAN WILL BE PUBLISHED SOON

Y. L. Thomason returned Monday night from Fort Worth, where he made arrangements to have music written for two songs of which he is the author, "Texas Cowntown" and "Texas Centennial." This work will be done by Prof. L. A. Garden, music director of radio station KTAT of Fort Worth, Mr. Thomason said.

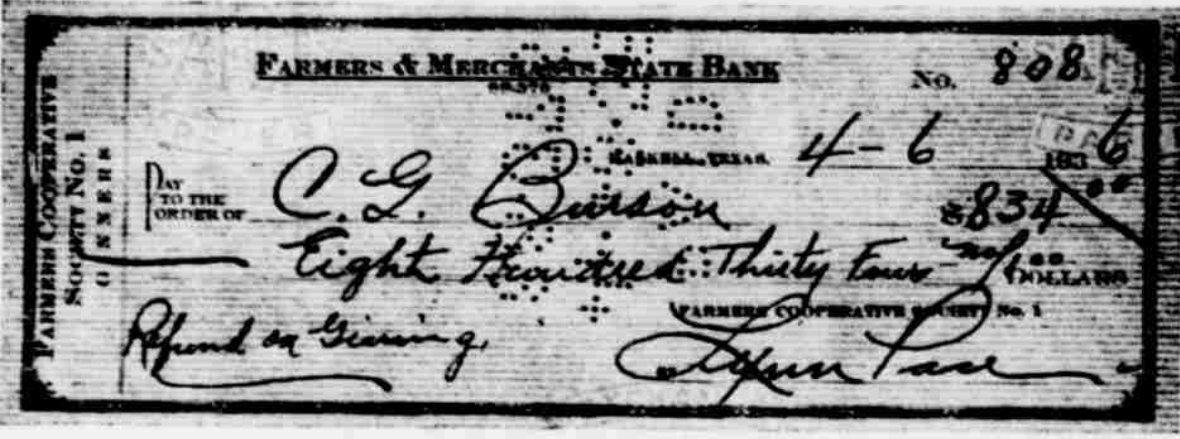

A limited number of these songs will be placed on sale locally about May 1st, Mr. Thomason said.

In addition to the above songs, Mr. Thomason has written fourteen other sonnets.

R. W. Smith, Representative of the Universal Credit Company of Dallas, Texas, was transacting business in our city Saturday.

Miss Naomi Potest of Wichita Falls spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Potest.

Who Wouldn't Look Pleased Over $834?

C. G. Burson, well-known Haskell county farmer, is pictured above as he was handed a check for $834 recently by W. H. Overton, general manager of the Farmers Co-Operative Gin No. 1 of this city. The check in this amount was a rebate on ginning which accrued to Mr. Burson through his membership in the farmers group who own stock in the Haskell gin plant.

Organized several years ago as a cooperative venture, "Co-Op No. 1" as the gin is known to Haskell county farmers, last season ginned a total of 8,372 bales of cotton. At the end of the ginning season, after operating expenses were paid, a cash rebate of $6.00 per bale was voted—this sum being allotted for every bale ginned—and checks were issued to each farmer who ginned one bale or more during the season.

Check given Mr. Burson was the largest issued to a single individual, covering a rebate on 139 bales which he ginned during the season. A number of farmers ginned over 100 bales each, gin records reveal.

After paying the $6.00 per bale rebate, officers of the Society state that a substantial surplus remains, which will be used this summer in making needed repairs and the installation of new equipment for the 1936 ginning season.

We Appreciate

The loyalty that has been shown us by most of the people of Haskell and community in buying only Haskell-Made Bread. We also wish to express our appreciation to the merchants who have refused to handle out of town bread. Most of them have been loyal. Only a few of the stores have agreed to sell bread baked out of town.

The two local bakeries are owned and operated by Haskell people. They support 8 Haskell families... families who spend their entire income in Haskell. This would not be possible if Haskell citizens bought out-of-town bread!

8 CENTS OF YOUR MONEY OUT OF EVERY LOAF SPENT FOR OUT-OF-TOWN BREAD LEAVES HASKELL. THINK IT OVER!

You know Haskell-made bread is equal to the best. We do not believe that it is necessary for us to distribute free samples throughout the city to get you to use it.

"Why don't you visit the shut-ins, the sick and the needy more?" This circle decided to become more missionary in its work in the future.

North Ward P. T. A. Summer Round-up Campaign
 All parents are ambitious for their children. The feature achievements of the nation depend upon how successful we are in fulfillment of these ambitions. There are three great gifts which it is within our power as parents to pass on to our children. The first of these is good health, the most precious thing which any individual can possess. The second is home education. A pleasant, wholesome, well-rounded home and social life will enable the child in later life to gain a proper idea of the mental, moral, religious and material issues of life and to live happily with his fellowmen. The third is a sound school education which will permit the individual to make the most of his opportunities. The North Ward P. T. A. urges all parents with pre-school age children to co-operate with the Summer Round-up committee and let them help you with your child's health problem. Summer Round Up Committee, Mrs. C. B. Bredlove, Mrs. M. D. Crowl, Mrs. Tom Davis.

ONLY GERMS CAUSE COLDS

You can't catch a cold, says Dr. J. A. Doull, by sitting in a draft, by stepping into a cold room after a hot bath, by getting feet wet or by rushing outdoors without an overcoat.

The doctor is director of the Department of Hygiene and Public Health at the Western Reserve University School of Medicine. He stresses the fact that colds are caught only by infection.

We would be the last to dispute the learned doctor but the idea is generally prevalent that the individual can bring on a cold by doing the very things that the doctor says will not give you a cold. Maybe, doing these things only tend to a condition inviting attack by the cold germ, which is successful because of the susceptibility of the victim.

Anyway, it is good to emphasize to readers that colds are infectious and that any person with a cold should not contact others and thus give them the same malady. It has been a common observation that a cold "goes through a family" and it is a helpful sign when people begin to take preventative measures to prevent the spread of the common cold.

TRADE AND THE BONUS

Distribution of the soldiers' bonus will begin in less than two months and about $1,700,000,000 will be available in cash if the ex-service men and women desire it.

This is some dollars. They make quite a splash in the business world and many experts expect trade to improve in response to the stimulus. Already hopeful salesmen are planning determined assaults upon the recipients and manufacturers of motor cars, and like necessities, are buoyant.

Haskell County will receive its share of the flood of cash and participate in the business that results. In the fight for trade many of those who get their bonus money will be over-persuaded to buy, with the result that some of them will acquire a headache. Every individual should be on guard and make good use of the money that is received. It may be a long time before there is another such windfall.

WRITING LIKE COCKROACHES

"The handwriting of the public school graduate resembles the meandering of an intoxicated cockroach," says Prof. Robert E. Rogers, of Massachusetts, who insists that the ability to write and talk like gentlemen is wholly as important as a knowledge of mathematics or geography.

The professor feels that the schools of today are neglecting the proper emphasis on writing and oral expression and urges that our schools speed up teaching the three R's or the fundamental skills. Afterwards, he would devote time to "establish international ideals and insight concerning other nations essential to peace in the modern world so that the child can build up some sense of reality concerning other times and other peoples."

There may be something worth considering in what Prof. Rogers has said, and it deserves the attention of school officials, teachers and all those concerned with what we call modern education.

MORAL SUASION FAILS

Moral suasion or the force of world public opinion, had a good test in the Far East when the Japanese walked into China, and recently, an opportunity when the Italians decided to civilize the Ethiopians.

The lesson that stands out clearly is that world public opinion cannot be expected to keep the peace when strongly armed powers make up their minds to take what they want.

This does not mean that joint action for world peace is wrong. It simply makes clear the necessity of force to restrain wrong-doers in the area of international affairs. One of these days peace-loving nations will be willing to put forth the efforts upon which peace depends.

THE FARM PROBLEM

The farm problem in this country, we think, revolves around those crops which our farmers normally produce on an export basis.

At present, there is little evidence that other nations are ready to buy our crops, although effort is being made to develop outside markets and something has been accomplished along this line.

Present opinion is that the new conservation program has little prospect of regulating the production of these basic crops unless the farmers of the United States cooperate to an extent not yet accomplished by voluntary methods. Hence, with the hope that we may be wrong, we fear that larger yields this season will not help solve the farm problem, which has plagued the nation for more than a decade.

Farmers of the nation like business men and industrialists, are threatened with disaster by the unscrupulous practices of what should be termed a wifful minority. Always, everywhere, there is a small group ready to seek selfish advantage at the cost of general welfare. How to handle this problem is a real problem in view of past experiences.

THE AGED PAID CLEMENTS

The leaders in the Townsend movement have professed to be particularly concerned with the welfare of the old people in the United States. The Townsend Plan called for paying pensions of $200 a month to all over sixty years of age. Clubs were formed throughout the United States and the old people encouraged to send in their dime and quarters to permit the propaganda for the plan to be broadcast.

The facts are now showing that the leaders in the Townsend movement were well paid for their efforts. Mr. Robert E. Clements was the nation secretary. Last October at a Townsend convention it was stated that Mr. Clements received a salary of $50 a week plus about $74 a week for expenses. Testifying before the Congressional Committee Mr. Clements said he received $100 per week in 1935 as a salary and something over $7,000 in dividends from the publication company which issued the weekly printed to promote old age pensions. In addition to the $12,585 he received his wife drew $1,445 as secretary. The Clements also had their car, $130 a month, their grocery bills, the wages of their servants and all traveling expenses paid for by the organization.

CURRENT COMMENT

THE POWER OF GOOGLES

There need be no quaking in their boots on the part of Amarillo motorists at the announcement that an augmented force of highway patrolmen is going to make its headquarters here and will see that traffic regulations are rigidly enforced.

But there will be quaking, nevertheless. There is something about the sight of a googled motorcycle rider—when seen in the rear-view mirror—that strikes misgiving into the soul of the most innocent of auto drivers. The driver, in a panic, is quick to review his driving for the past several blocks, questioning for some little thing he may have done wrong. There is no doubt in his mind—he knows that uniformed nemesis is tracking him.

But the traffic drive now being mapped for Amarillo and this territory will not be a reign of terror—officials have promised. The officers won't "get tough," nor will they too severe on drivers who obviously want to do the right thing.

What they will be firm. They intend not to throw a scare into everybody, but to remind everybody that there are such things as traffic regulations and such things as traffic officers to see that they are observed.

It might be a good idea to watch your driving a little more closely just to be sure that you, like Caesar's wife, are above suspicion.

Haskell County History

As Revealed by the Files of the Free Press 20, 30 and 40 years ago.

20 YEARS AGO TO-DAY

S. A. Huskey had completed the installation of machinery for the Haskell Bottling Works, in the building one block east of the Farmers State Bank. Haskell Commandery No. 49 met in stated convocation Tuesday night and conferred the degree of Knighthood on several candidates. A number of out-of-town visitors attended.

The Wichita Valley had a crew of men at work improving the appearance of the railway property near the depot. Haskell High School baseball team defeated Rule 3 to 2 in a game played at Rule. Members of the Haskell team were: Ed Robertson, c; Albert Lemmon, p; Fred Shaw, 1b; Ralph Stewart, 2b; Nick Neathery, 3b; John Draper, ss; Lowell Robertson, lf; Dick Sherrill, cf; Bud Whately, rf.

W. A. Whately has leased the building formerly occupied by the Craft Garage, and will operate a garage and automobile sales agency in the location. L. J. Kellum is erecting on south Clark street, a large feed and sale stable to be used by himself in his business of buying and selling horses and mules. The natatorium was opened in the Opera House building by Chas. E. Rutledge. The interior of the building was remodelled and partitioned off into dressing rooms, and private bath rooms.

Wm. Jennings Bryan was scheduled to speak in Stamford on April 26th, on the subject "The War and What It Catches Us." E. L. Parish left for an extended trip to West Texas, New Mexico and Arizona.

Semi-annual statement of the City of Haskell on March 31, 1916 revealed that $33,000 bonds and $7,756.77 in script and notes were outstanding. Receipts during the period covered by the statement totaled $13,010.50, and expenditures were $9,985.39.

30 YEARS AGO TO-DAY

The First State Bank of Carney (O'Brien) opened its doors for business in April, 1906. J. Frank Potts was cashier of the institution.

A. M. Allen, who with his family had been living in Stamford for several months, moved to Jud to go into business with his brother.

T. E. Coppage, engineer in charge of the construction of the Wichita Valley railway, struck a snag the other day when he reached a certain farm north of town, and started cross sectioning the right of way for the graders. According to our information the old man owning the land appeared on the scene with a double-barrelled shotgun and in language more persuasive and convincing than elegant, bade the railroaders to vamoose—which they promptly did. Later a complaint was filed against the farmer in Justice Knowle's court, charging him with threats of murder, and his case set for trial May 5th. Mr. C. W. Zug of Stamford located in Haskell, and was manager of the Haskell Lumber Co. Twin girls were born to Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Coleman of the Saylor's neighborhood. Grover Schwartz, 13 year old boy, was bitten on the leg by a rattlesnake out on S. W. Scott's ranch. Prompt treatment was given, and although severely painful the bite was not expected to prove fatal.

Shelby Jones 2-1/2 year old son of Mrs. Mary Jones, a widow living in the southeast part of town, was also bitten by a rattlesnake. Dr. Gilbert was quickly called, and the child was recovering under his treatment. Haskell was bound to be up with the times back in 1906—with a skating rink doing a flourishing business. Mistrot Bros. purchased two business lots on the east side for a consideration of $3,000.

40 YEARS AGO TO-DAY

There is again talk at Fort Worth of reviving the Fort Worth & Albuquerque railroad scheme, which was put to sleep several years ago by the financial panic, after much work had been done on the project and considerable money spent. Fort Worth however has not ceased to yearn for the western outlet, and her success will mean a railroad for Haskell.

We this week printed for Haskell land agents 5,000 circulars descriptive of Haskell county which will be distributed by the T & P excursion trains being run regularly to the East. W. T. McDaniel returned from Kansas City, where he accompanied a shipment of cattle. He observed the country along his route closely, and says that nowhere were prospects any better than in this section.

Messrs S. W. Scott and G. R. Couch were attending the meeting of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar, in Waco. The school picnic on San Jacinto day was an enjoyable affair and well attended.

Dr. Gilbert stated that some of his relatives who visited him last week might come back and locate in Haskell county.

Messrs J. W. Collins, L. N. Ritter and W. M. Townes went out on Elm creek Monday to try their luck at fishing for bass.

T. J. Wilbourn opened a new Cash Store in Haskell, dealing in notions, ladies and gentlemen's apparel. The store was located on the east side of the square.

A. C. Foster made a business trip over to Throckmorton this week on his bicycle. The Cumberland Presbyterians are taking steps to organize a church in Haskell.

Gurley Bros. of Abilene, had a large advertisement in the Free Press telling of their large stock of saddles and harness.

Plans Quick Work On Bed Spread

In order to speed up the work on her candle wick bed spread Mrs. D. L. Speer is putting the spread in a quilt frame and inviting the entire Rose Club in to spend the day and candle wick.

The spread is made on unbleached sheeting, size 90 by 108 inches. It is tufted in shades of brown and orange. A two by four was used to mark off the diamond shaped design.

Refinishing Dressing Table Plan of Club Member

A refinished dressing table is a part of the bed room improvement of Mrs. J. B. Smith of the Midway Home Demonstration Club.

Sal soda was added to cooked starch, which made a paste. This was put on the dressing table to remove the old finish. Then the wood was rinsed well with vinegar water to neutralize any sal soda that might have been left. After the wood was completely dry all of the surface was rubbed smooth with fine steel wool. A coat of clear hard varnish was added and after drying rubbed with steel wool. Another coat of varnish was added and rubbed again with steel wool and waxed.

Remodelled Furniture Aim of Bedroom Demonstrator

Remodelling furniture will be a big part of Mrs. Louise Merchant's work as a bedroom demonstrator for the Josselo Home Demonstration Club, during this year.

Mrs. Merchants has rebuilt and refinished a discarded old fashioned bed, by cutting down the head and foot board. She is making a desk from an old oak dining room table. The design is being copied from an Early American desk in a wood craft magazine.

These pieces of furniture will be refinished to bring out the natural grain of the wood.

Weinert Residence Burned Saturday

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Saddler was destroyed by fire early Saturday night while the family was at Haskell. It was practically a total loss, only porch furniture being saved. The entire community was grieved over the misfortune and loss. It was partially covered by insurance with which they plan to rebuild in the near future.

The ladies of Weinert gave Mr. and Mrs. Saddler and family a miscellaneous shower at the Methodist church Monday afternoon. A large crowd attended and many useful gifts were given. SAN ANTONIO

In San Antonio, center of early Texas military activities, this week is being held one of the most colorful pageants ever staged, in connection with the Texas Centennial—Fiesta de San Jacinto—which annually attracts thousands from over the United States.

Now a great commercial center, San Antonio still retains the military atmosphere of 100 years ago, for here is located Fort Sam Houston and Randolph Field, two of the largest military establishments in the nation.

Beauties Chosen By Classes

Being Texas Centennial the city of Fort Worth is sponsoring a "Frontier Centennial Celebration," and fifty towns in Texas have been asked to send a beauty to represent their town. One of these is Haskell. She will be five feet, six inches tall, between the ages of fifteen and twenty. As there are so many in high school that meet the requirements the classes were allowed to choose representatives from their classes to enter the contest. The seniors and juniors are submitting five contestants each, while the Sophomores have only four and the Freshmen only one, due to the minimum age. The chosen from the classes were:

Senior Class — Frances Woodson
 Junior Class — Anita Johnson, Melba Cullum, Naomi Barnett, Martelle Clifton
 Sophomore Class — Annie Barnett, Corine Laird, Woodson
 Freshman Class — Anabel Stanton, George Fouts, Christine Tucker, Armitta Bland.

Debate Teams Have Good Record

Few students realize the importance and good one may receive out of debating. To many it is merely reciting a written speech containing arguments for their side. It is much more than that. In declamation or extemporaneous speech you merely learn a speech and say it, or learn facts and say them. It takes very little reasoning power for them. But in debate you have to be alert and be able to think up a suitable answer or argument for everything your opponent says. It not only accustoms you to public speaking and talking but it teaches you to think quickly and with intelligence. Debate offers better training along literary lines than any other one thing, and is becoming more important each year.

Now to say a few words about our debate team this year. The boys were Tom Clifton and George Wm. Fouts. The girls were Mattie Pistole and Margaret Breedlove. Winners in the County Meet, both teams lost in the District Meet; we remember, however that much of their material was lost when our building burned, and both teams were badly handicapped.

Track Men Win Places in District

Saturday, April 18, Coach Richey carried five members of his track team to the District Meet, which was held in Breckenridge. Haskell placed about fifth in the meet, winning nine and one half points. Artie Pippen, who was Haskell's high point man, won four and one-fourth points. He won the first heat of the 100 yard dash, but placed second in the finals. He tied for fourth place in the low hurdles and was a member of the mile relay team, who placed second in the meet.

P. T. A. Wins Honor at District

In the District P. T. A. Conference held at Olney last week, our High School P. T. A. gained distinction by winning second place on their yearbook. Since the Thirtieth District includes a number of counties, and several towns considerably larger than Haskell—and also since our organization is still in its first year—we are proud of this honor coming to us. This yearbook is a mimeographed "home made" book which contains the year's programs, etc. The cover was designed by the president, Mrs. Post, and the contents were typed and assembled by Vada Thomas. The program committee was Miss Vick Mrs. Whatley and Mrs. Virgil Meadors.

Fields and Head Play Tennis At District Meet

C. T. Fields and Martha Head represented Haskell County in the district tennis meet which was held in Breckenridge last Saturday. C. T. began playing in first set for boys' singles at ten o'clock. Knox county won the first set by a score of 6-4. C. T. won the last two sets by 6-4 and 6-3 scores.

Detention has started again; "Just as I expected!" you seem to say. Well, maybe so. Mrs. Kaigler Arranges Program Of Interest

Keeping Tab On The Exes

Joe Brooks, a graduate of 1932, was married April the 4th to Miss Dorothy Simpson of Childress, Texas. Miss Simpson is a graduate of the Childress High School. She was formerly employed as a typist in the District Relief Office in that city.

Mattie Pistole Margaret Breedlove

While in high school Joe was an outstanding speech student. He was especially noted as a debator. After finishing here he had one term in Arlington College. Later he became a member of the staff on County Relief. He was transferred to the district office at Childress last August. At the time of his marriage he was employed as bookkeeper for the Consumer's Gas and Oil Co. in Childress.

We were informed recently that Ralph Bernard, a graduate of 1934 and a freshman in H-S. U., had been chosen to escort the freshman queen of Hardin-Simmons University at the time of the crowning of our school. He is an Eagle Scout and he was presented with a scholarship to H-S. U. this year.

 It seems that the younger set still has a ruling power over the seniors. From a Fish to a Senior. Just what is this power?

 It seems that the first love is the best, anyway. Artie is still that-a-way, about—you know who.

Sophomores Hold Important Meeting

Wednesday, April 15, the Sophomores had a class meeting to select four beauties to represent the class in the county beauty contest. The four girls that won the honors of class beauties were Naomi Barnett, Martelle Clifton, Melba Cullum and Anita Jo Simmons.

The class also made a start on plans for their annual picnic. They decided to go to Scott's crossing. Two committees were appointed. Anita Jo Simmons, Frances Fouts, and Martelle Clifton were appointed to get enough cars for them to go in and the required number of mothers. On the menu committee, Geneva Thompson, Bob McAnulty, Melba Cullum, and Naomi Barnett were appointed.

A class party was discussed but no further arrangements have been made. Further plans are yet to be made for both the picnic and party.
