Rites for Mrs. L. C. Porter Held at Knox City Monday

KNOX CITY, Texas, March 19.—Funeral services were held here Monday afternoon at the First Baptist church for Mrs. L. C. Porter, 75, who died at her home here Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Porter had been a resident of Knox City since 1909 and was prominent in church and civic work here. Burial was in the Knox City cemetery by the side of her husband who died 11 years ago. She is survived by two sons, L. C. and Jack Porter, Fort Worth; and four daughters, Mrs. Earl Blazing and Mrs. J. B. Borrah, Rosebud; Mrs. B. C. Anderson and Mrs. F. C. Bolin, both of Knox City.

BASEBALL LEAGUE IS REORGANIZED

Hamlin Drops Out Wichita Valley Organization, But Seymour, Goree Join

The Wichita Valley baseball league was drastically shaken up by the various club managers Sunday afternoon at Stamford, and besides invoking several new rules, the towns of Seymour and Goree were added in the rearrangement which witnessed the withdrawal of Hamlin. The league was made into a six-club league composed of Stamford, Rule, Munday, Seymour, Goree and Haskell, and rules were adopted which forbids the use of any baseball player who resides further than 20 miles from the town in which he desires to play, and stipulates that said player, or players, must have been residents in the section at least six months previously. The drastic provisions adopted, if enforced, will curtail the wholesale hiring of baseball players so much in evidence last season, and club managers believe that more youngsters will have an opportunity to develop, and although they may lack a more seasoned player's skill, they will offset it by a greater amount of "hustle."

Declaring that they had no baseball players of a proven caliber residing within the 20 mile radius, representatives of the Hamlin club tendered that organizations withdraw, and served notice that they "would go it alone" and organize one of the fastest semi-pro clubs in this section. The realignment of the league has pleased the majority of Haskell's fandom and preparations are now being made to place a team on the field which may surpass the 1934 club, which was practically a "home" club and gave "paid" clubs in the league all the competition they desired.

Tennis Events of County Held Mon.

Tennis tournaments held under the direction of the Haskell Inter-scholastic League were held in Haskell and Rule Monday. The girls singles and doubles were played in this city, while boys from over the county converged on Rule. No complete report of the games played at Rule had been made to the local school up to Thursday morning. Temple Lee Bell, Rochester, walked off with the main honors in the singles here, with Rhogina Chambers, Rule, finishing second. Two girls from Sagerton, Fern Smalley and Virgie Spitzer, captured the doubles event. Teams were entered from Rule, Weinert, Rochester, Sagerton, Post, O'Brien, Haskell, and O'Brien Ward.

W. T. Sarrels Leases Service Station on South Side Square

W. T. Sarrels, former sheriff, has leased the Magnolia Service Station on the southeast corner of the square, and will assume charge Friday morning. Magnolia products will be handled by the station, and a complete stock of automobile accessories carried. The former officer is no newcomer in the filling station business, having been in business at this same stand a number of years ago, prior to his election as sheriff.

School Board Election Will Be Held on April 6

Two new members for the Haskell Independent District school board will be elected on Saturday April 6 in an election to be held at the City Hall. The terms of Lyan Pace and J. M. Crawford, present members, will expire. Mrs. Gene Smith was carried to the sanitarium in Abilene last Saturday.

Former Haskell Student Is Beauty Queen at Denton

DENTON, Texas.—"Beautiful but dumb" does not apply to the five girls selected by popular vote to appear in the feature section of the Yucca, yearbook of North Texas State Teachers College. The five young ladies whose pictures appear above rank in the upper ten per cent scholastically of the 1800 students enrolled in Denton Teachers College. Miss Mary Willis, center, of McKinney was selected from the group by Eddie Cantor, famous film and radio star, as the Yucca Queen. The other favorites are Misses Sue Dillon, Dallas; Frances Cunningham, Lewisville; Rosemary Cecil, Denton; and Annette Leatherwood, Itasca. These young ladies were honorees at a Publication-Senior all-college dance Saturday night held in the college gymnasium. Miss Willis attended Haskell High school in 1930, and after being graduated, she taught in a rural school in this county in 1932. She is a niece of Mrs. Chas. M. Conner of this city.

Automobile Tag Law Takes Effect Midnight Mar. 31

You have only a few more days left to buy that automobile license if you wish to avoid penalty—and a possible arrest if you intend to drive your vehicle after April 1. The deadline has been set by the state department for March 31 midnight, and, according to Mike B. Watson, assessor-collector, any automobile driver operating a car without a new 1935 tag will be subject to a fine. Therefore, Mike is urging all and sundry to purchase tags "before the rush" starts in ordering that buying may be convenient to the purchaser, and, incidentally, not work any hardship on the office force.

"M" Meat Market Has New Owners

Effective last Monday, the ownership of the "M" System meat market was changed from A. W. Cox, who has been proprietor for about four years, to Hollis and Henry Atkinson, store managers. Hubert Bledsoe, a former employee of Mr. Cox, will be in charge of the department. According to the new management, both country killed and government inspected meats will be handled.

Meet for Cotton Farmers Planned

On Monday night, March 25, the farmers in and near Haskell are meeting at the county courthouse under the direction of H. T. Sullivan, vocational agricultural teacher, for the purpose of discussing the Cotton Program for 1935. The fact that a farmer has already signed a 1935 contract, or if he does not intend to sign one does not mean that he should not come. The questions to be discussed will be of interest to all cotton farmers. In addition to the above discussion announcements will be made for the plans of future meetings.

Play To Be Given Soon at the Ballou School

Rehearsals on a home talent play, "A Poor Married Man", which will be staged in the near future at the Ballou school, will be started at once, according to Mr. Hope Haynes and Mrs. Ralph Duncan, teachers of the school. Selection of the cast has been completed, and considerable study will be devoted to rehearsals. Date of the play will be announced soon—watch for it.

Miss Dorothy Lewellen is leaving today for Temple, where she contemplates entering Scott and White Sanitarium training school for nurses.

CORN-HOG CONTRACT SIGN-UP TO CLOSE

Saturday Last Day for Hog Raisers to Sign 1935 Corn-Hog Program

Saturday March 23 will be the final sign-up date for the 1935 corn-hog applications in Haskell county, according to Miss Elma Kinnard, secretary-treasurer, and committee members will be in the corn-hog office both Friday and Saturday, March 22 and 23, for the purpose of helping the late signers. Positively no one will be allowed to sign an application after the 23rd. A total of 125 contracts have been signed in comparison with 144 in 1934.

ROCHESTER BANK EMPLOYEE CHARGED IN FUND SHORTAGE

Carney Doss, Asst. Cashier, Readyly Perfects Bond Set At $4,000. Carney Doss, 33-year-old assistant cashier of the Home State Bank of Rochester, made a signed statement to county official and a state bank examiner last Friday, in which he admitted taking the bank's funds in the sum of $3,855. Doss was freed under $4,000 bond Friday night to await action of the district court grand jury, on a complaint charging embezzlement had been filed against him in connection with the shortage. His statement was said to disclose that the money had been taken over a two-year period. County officers, with whom he talked freely, said that Doss stated the funds were "just lived up."

Weinert 4-H Club Girl Plants Garden Early; Pays Profit

By growing a garden as early as possible, Durene Lowe, Weinert 4-H Club girl, plans to take care of the family food budget. Spinach, mustard, lettuce, radishes, beets, carrots and onions are already growing in this garden. Tomatoes and pepper plants are growing in boxes in a protected place. They will be transplanted to the garden later. A plot of ground near the house was selected this year and carefully fenced.

Carl McGregor Is New Deputy Sheriff

Carl McGregor, recently named as photographer for the sheriff's department, has been commissioned as a deputy sheriff by the Commissioners' Court, under Sheriff Giles Kemp. McGregor, an expert photographer, has established a modernly equipped studio on the second floor of the courthouse, and has already accumulated a sizeable collection of pictures and fingerprints of persons who have ran afoul of the law. Deputy Sheriff Mart Clifton was a business visitor to Wichita Falls here over the week end with friends Tuesday.

Maloy To Hold Baseball Meeting On Monday Night

In order to secure some idea as to the number of baseball players in this section, a meeting has been called for Monday night at the City Hall by Manager Mack Malloy. All baseball players and would-be baseball players are invited to attend. According to Maloy, he intends to give all aspirants a thorough opportunity to make the Tribe this season, and will give special attention to youngsters who are not afraid to "hustle." While a number of men who did not play last season with the Tribe have expressed their intention of working out, Maloy believes a meeting is necessary in order that a general check-up may be made of pitchers, catchers, infielders and outfielders.

California Woman Injured in Auto Wreck at Weinert

Mrs. S. A. Mallory of Pasadena, Calif., was injured seriously Monday when an automobile in which she was riding with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Kessinger overturned near Weinert. She sustained a fracture of the right leg above the ankle, her left wrist was broken, and cuts about the head were inflicted by shattered glass. Mrs. Mallory and the Kessingers were en route from Pasadena to St. Louis, Mo., to visit a relative, who is ill. Mrs. Kessinger, driving, lost control of the car, a light sedan, which overturned twice after leaving the pavement. The injured woman was taken to a Seymour hospital in an ambulance from the Kinney Funeral Home of this city.

SCANT INTEREST SHOWN IN HASKELL CITY ELECTION

Names of R. C. Lowe, Hollis Atkeison, Ed F. Fouts, Roy Sanders Filed

Little interest has been manifested in the city election, which will be held here on Tuesday April 2. Only four names have been filed with the City Secretary up to noon today for the three positions on the City Council. For the two year term with two to be elected three names have been filed for the place: R. C. Lowe, Ed F. Fouts and Hollis Atkeison. For the one year term, to fill the vacancy created by the death of J. T. Bynum the name of Roy Sanders has been filed. The balance of the city officers were elected last April for a two year term and they have another year to serve. The two councilmen to be elected for the two year term will succeed Hill Oates and A. C. Pierson, who are not candidates to succeed themselves. The time for filing for a position on the ballot will expire tonight and unless other names are filed this afternoon the ballot will appear with only four names from which the voters may select their new city councilmen.

Former Haskell Girl Weds In Graham.

From the Graham Leader: At 9 o'clock Sunday morning March 3rd, Miss Faye Free and Mr. Ed F. Gibbs were united in matrimony at the home of the bride's pastor, Rev. J. Dale Torn. The only witnesses were a few close friends of the couple. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs left for Dallas where they will spend several days, returning to Graham to make their home. The bride chose a crepe frock of Nausau blue for her wedding gown. Her accessories were in white. For traveling she wore a red sport suit with brown accessories.

Mrs. Gibbs is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Free. She was graduated from the Haskell High School and for a number of years has been a dressmaker in Graham, being quite efficient in this line of work. She will continue to operate her shop in this city.

Mr. Gibbs is the son of Mrs. H. M. Gibbs. He attended Howard Payne College at Brownwood and spent three years at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Ft. Worth. He is field representative for the Baptist Standard Publishing Company of Dallas. Mr. Gibbs has made a number of friends in Graham, having led the singing for the Oak Street Baptist Church revival held here recently.

Magazine Club.

The Magazine Club met Friday March 15th with Mrs. Courtney Hunt, director. Twenty-eight members answered roll call with a Texas law.

Fred Sanders gave a declamation on "The Cost of War."

Judge Clyde Grissom gave an interesting talk on Texas Laws Pertaining to Women.

Mrs. Courtney Hunt led a round table discussion on Texas Laws.

Birthday Party.

On Thursday evening March 14 E. L. Hollar, age 10, was complimented with a birthday party in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Hollar.

After a pleasant social hour refreshment were served to the following: Dan Oates, Archie and Wallace Henshaw, Buford Barton, Roy Everett, J. L. Shriver, Wallace Parrish, Jack and Ural Jerrod, Moody Jones, Olin and J. T. Segro, Misses Evelyn Rousseau, Vivian Jerrod, Myrtle Jones and Rosa Nell Hollar.

South Ward Pupils Hear Program Over Radio.

All South Ward pupils (205 present) heard the P. T. A. program rendered by the two local units, over KGKO at Wichita Falls, Texas at 11 o'clock Friday, March 15.

The first, second and third grades (101 pupils present) and their teachers, Mrs. Irene Ballard, Mrs. W. M. Murphy and Miss Alma Sprows, went to the home of Mrs. C. R. Cook and enjoyed the wonderful program over her radio. These children were comfortably seated in the living room on the rug.

The fourth and fifth grades (74 pupils present) and their teachers Mrs. Ada Rike and Miss Patsy Lou Koonce went to the home of Mrs. Edith English where they heard their friends broadcast. Interest grew for this group when one child

At the Texas Theatre

Will Rogers in "The County Chairman" at the Texas Theatre Saturday 11 P. M., Sunday and Monday, March 23-25

was heard to whisper, "There's mother's voice."

The sixth grade (12 present) and their teacher Miss Velma Hambleton went to the home of Mrs. T. M. Poteet. There, along with their host and hostess, they too, enjoyed the program very much.

We want to thank these ladies who so graciously opened their homes, thereby making it possible for the whole school to enjoy the program.

Methodist Missionary Society

On Monday March 18 the women of the Methodist Missionary Society met in the home of Mrs. Guy Mays. Twenty-six ladies, including the hostess, were present. This was the third of a series of Bible lessons being taught by Mrs. J. L. Fields. Promptly at 3 p. m. all joined in singing "Yield Not to Temptation." This was followed with a prayer by Mrs. Breedlove.

Extracts from the April Missionary Bulletin were read by Mrs. Wilson, superintendent of literature and publicity. The lesson being on the Book of Zephaniah, Mrs. Sanders gave an interesting historical background of Zephaniah. The following ladies, with the director, read the entire book: Mesdames Graham, Cahill, E. Martin, Wair, Patterson, Atkinson, and Leon. After the reading questions were asked by the director.

Song, "Higher Ground" was next sung. Mrs. Patterson offered a prayer, which was concluded by the reciting in unison of the Lord's Prayer. The hostess, assisted by Mesdames Persons and Robert Harrison, served delicious refreshments of tea, wafers and candy. On next Monday we meet in the home of Mrs. Hollis Atkinson and study the book of Daniel. All come and be on time, 3 P. M.

James A. Greer, editor of the Rochester Reporter, was a visitor in Haskell Monday.

Jossett Home Demonstration Club News

Miss Peggy Taylor, Home Agent, gave a demonstration on the uses of foundation patterns. By using your foundation pattern you may cut many different styles of patterns, such as pajamas, slips, and the raglan dolman, bell sleeve, and many others. Miss Taylor told Jossett Home Demonstration club members when they met in the J. B. Edwards home Tuesday March 12th.

Mrs. W. C. Norton, Mrs. C. A. Lewellen, Misses May Cothron and Maurine Norton gave a report from the Meat Show at Wichita Falls. "Roast should always be put in plain cans as the enamel can will cause the fat meat to turn dark," Miss Cothron said. These ladies also told how home cured meats could be put in refined cotton seed oil and be kept fresh for years.

Mrs. Edwards served hot cocoa, cookies and chicken sandwiches to Mesdames C. A. Lewellen, E. L. Lancaster, Guy Jenkins, Geo. Bird, G. L. Walker, Lillian Walker, John Thomas, C. A. Thomas, S. G. Perrin, Fred Monke, E. B. Callaway, Jerry Williamson, Leon Gilliam, Jim Curry, W. C. Norton, Allen Adams, Billie Bynum, Misses Maurine Norton, Henrietta Perrin, May Cothron, Peggy Taylor and the hostess, Mrs. J. B. Edwards.

On March 26th in the home of Mrs. S. G. Perrin we will study "Is the A. A. A. Threatening Our Foreign Markets?"

Mrs. A. L. Shelley Entertains Her Daughter on 12th Birthday.

Mrs. A. L. Shelley was hostess at a birthday dinner in honor of her daughter, Lou Venia Shelley and Olay Strickland at her home March 17.

A few games were played by the girls, then Lou Venia and Olay Strickland were led into the dining room where a lovely chicken dinner was prepared by her mother. A white birthday cake was set before Lou Venia with 12 pink candles lighted on the cake for Lou Venia to blow out. All of the girls enjoyed the chicken dinner very much.

In the afternoon several games were played by the girls. Those who enjoyed the occasion were Flora Mae Pool, Vivian Pennington, Pauline Zahn, Alvie Hancock, Hazel Proffitt, Hattie Jewel, Olay Fay, Roxie and Verna Fay Strickland, Blanch Proffitt, Daisy Bell Shelley and Miss Alice Maud Latham.

Mrs. A. W. Shelley, the girls Sunday School teacher, assisted the hostess in entertaining the girls.

All departed at a late hour wishing Lou Venia many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Oates returned Tuesday from Dallas where Mr. Oates had been taking treatment for the past three or four weeks. He is somewhat improved.

Miss Ethel Irby returned the last of the week from Abilene where she has just finished a business course at Draughon's.

Mrs. O. A. Adkins, Rule.

A Tribute Above Measure

Who can measure the devotion that is the expression of a loving heart? Who can measure the sincerity of a service which does everything in its power to express that devotion? We believe that our superior funeral direction must succeed in expressing such devotion and at the same time must be kept within the means of all.

CHURCHES

THE DANCE OF DEATH

This subject will be discussed at the Baptist church Sunday night, March 24. The message will be filled with helpful information for the youth of our community. Our young people will not be condemned and ridiculed. But for the libertines and the married people who stand for the dance, the message will be a scathing one. Their talk of modesty in the pulpit will not paralyze the tongue of protest. The plain, naked, unvarnished truth will be proclaimed. If you come expecting to hear a compromising, weak-kneed, spineless message, you will be disappointed and had better stay at home.

Bible School, 9:45 A. M.
Lord's Supper, 11 A. M.
Christian Endeavor, 5:30 P. M.

There will be no preaching next Sunday. The minister preaches at Rule morning and evening. It being such a short distance, the minister invites the Haskell folk to drive to Rule for the evening service.

Every class of the Bible School invites its members to be present for the study of the Bible lesson next Sunday. If you have been a little careless and negligent about your attendance, resolve now to make a special effort to be present. Interesting and profitable lessons each Sunday. A good class must have regular attendance. Think about this.

Cottonwood Home Demonstration Club Meeting.

The Cottonwood Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Clyde Mayfield March 13th.

Our agent gave the demonstration on cutting different patterns from a foundation pattern, such as pajamas and slip pattern.

Mrs. Pauline Derr took the first year wardrobe demonstration, as Miss Mildred Wright decided she couldn't.

We made plans for helping to serve luncheon for the P. T. A. association March 3rd.

We had thirteen members, the County Home Agent, and two visitors present. Sandwiches, cake and cocoa were served to the following: Miss Taylor, Mrs. Frank Nicholson, L. A. Stratton, Edd Newton, Slover Bledsoe, G. V. DENTON, Texas.—With the approach of the mild season there is frequently a loss of appetite, accompanied by a dulness and a feeling of fatigue.

A careful discrimination in the choice of food at this time is important. It is now desirable to make a few cautious changes from the usual cold weather menus.

Simplicity in the food combination is always desirable from the standpoint of digestibility and from the standpoint of the labor involved in the preparation. Rich combinations of dishes can be replaced by simpler dishes or frequently by fresh or uncooked foods. It may be well to use less of the food naturally rich in fats and to reduce the quantity of fat too habitually used in the preparation of other foods. Vegetables can be artfully seasoned by using a very limited amount of fat, or none at all, if other seasonings are used with discrimination. The less fat meats and fish may partially replace those more fat, and all should be used more sparingly. A light French salad dressing can be frequently substituted for the heavier dressings. Instead of the persistent use of a pie a la mode, rich steamed puddings, and other heavy desserts, fresh fruits or other fruit desserts should be used more freely. Use fresh fruits and vegetables liberally. Use milk and eggs freely and reduce the quantity of meat. Restrict the use of fat largely to milk, cream butter, and salad oils. Plan to use some coarse grain product frequently.

city was born in she has secured her the schools of Okla. Ponca City, Okla. and Haskell; and every work, she has and dancing. In school she was a Reserve organi- tive pledge to the Greek Letter Society in the Texarkana school. Last year she was treasurer of the Gypsy Rambler Club and this year she is the president; she was a pep leader during the last football season. At present, she is an active member of the Warwhoop Staff. Her greatest ambition is to become an accomplished musician. She played dramatic roles in "The Meddlesome Maid" and "Gangway." Vida Lee Nichols was born in Rule in 1915. After moving to Haskell during her second school year, she has lived here ever since. She attended school at the North Ward, continuing through the seventh grade. After this year, she will have attended Haskell High School four years. She has been interested in sports for many years, playing on the volleyball team every year of her high school education.

Clovis Norton was born in Haskell county, 1917. After attending school at Gilliam, he came to Haskell. He has attended Haskell schools ever since he was in the second grade. In 1932 he was a member of a judging team which went to A. & M. Since he has been taking Agriculture, he intends to put his knowledge into practice by being a farmer.

ASSEMBLY HEARS ABOUT THE BRAZOS DAM PROJECT

On Wednesday March 13, Mr. McDavid of Seymour spoke to the students of Haskell High School concerning the Brazos Dam project. After explaining the value these dams would be for flood control and irrigation purposes, he asked every individual to write to Washington, D. C., and stress our need of federal aid.

The students appreciated hearing Mr. McDavid, and will do all they can to help.

SENIORS ORDER INVITATIONS

Since the class meeting last week, the seniors are realizing more than ever before that graduation time is close at hand. We have sent in the order for our graduation invitations, and we expect them to be here within a few weeks. Another purpose of the class meeting was to decide on a farewell gift to the school. This was done, and a committee was appointed to carry out our plans. More about it later. At the close of this meeting we grouped on the west steps for a kodak picture of the class, all members being present except three.

PERSONAL COLUMN

The student body, and especially the Sophomores, certainly do miss Alfreda Pogue, who has been absent from school for several days. She was taken to the hospital at Knox City last Thursday night to be operated on for appendicitis. We hope that she has a speedy recovery and returns to school soon.

We wish to express our deepest sympathy to Artie and Eva Belle Pippen at the death of their beloved mother. We that knew Mrs. Pippen, feel that we too, have suffered a loss.

C. T. Field is back in school now, after being absent for several days on account of illness.

John Kimbrough and Lloyd McMillan participated in the track meet held at Electra Friday night. Mr. Wimbish, Mr. Mason and Mr. Richey accompanied them.

The following pupils of Mrs. Kaigler's studio were in Abilene, Saturday, participating in an invitation speech tournament: Beverly Gilbert, Fred Sanders, Helen Ballard, Ruth Josselet, Lyndell Anderson, Geraldine Hunt, Mattie Pistole, Claude Warren, and Faye Stickland.

Gladys Fouts and Alberta Orr will represent the high school in the spelling contest.

GIRLS WIN SECOND PRELIMINARY DEBATE

The Haskell girls defeated the Sagerton girls in their second debate of the Round Robin series, Wednesday night, March 13, at Sagerton. This places the Haskell team in the final interscholastic League Debate, which will be held March 22.

The debate teams of Haskell High School and their coach, Mrs. G. V. Wimbish, express their sincere appreciation for the willing services extended to us by the following in acting as judges for our practice debates: Rev. C. A. Tucker, Rev. O. W. Carter, Mr. Dick Hayes, Rev. H. R. Whately, Mr. F. T. Sanders, Mrs. Guy Mays, Mr. Walter Murchison, Miss Jessie Vick, Mrs. C. M.

Kaigler, Mrs. T. R. Odell, Judge C. M. Conner, Rev. A. F. Thurman.

WHY THEY GET CROSS

Maybe it's because you and fifty others ask these questions every day:
 Do you want us to write it with ink or pencil?
 May I find out the lesson assignment?
 When do we have our next book report?
 May I go back to my locker and get my English text? I brought my Algebra instead.
 Will you ask us to give any of our memory selections on our test?
 Will you ask us anything about our book reports on our test?
 Did you say for us to write the exercise for tomorrow?
 How long did you say our themes must be?
 Does anyone have an extra pencil?

Mr. Sullivan says the things that make him cross all pertain to the agriculture boys but he refused to disclose any further information.

Mrs. Wimbish says she never gets cross but that her pupils just think she does. She claims she is a "misunderstood soul" and that she is just joking when she behaves in that manner. For proof she suggests that you ask Artie Pippen, Claude Warren, either of the Twins, or Dorothy Herren (she contends they understand her). Seriously, Mrs. Wimbish doesn't mind any questions students ask but she doesn't like "I don't know" for an answer, and gets weary of students having to borrow pencils.

Miss Davis says the only thing that makes her half-way angry is for a student to reply, on being asked why he didn't study his lesson, "Oh, I don't know—I just didn't have time." And she doesn't like "I don't know" from a student who says he has studied.

This is all the teachers we had time to see, but I think the things they said are enough to make us think before we ask uncalled for questions or give unsatisfactory answers.

IF I WERE A BOY—

And happened to be walking down the street with a girl who failed to take the inside of the sidewalk after crossing the street. I'd just step behind her and take the outside anyway; and I'd say to her: "Excuse me, but this is just an Old Continental Custom, dating from the time When Knights Were Bold, and I'm fond of observing it, lest some casual observer should think that I don't know my sidewalks and might consequently conclude that I don't know my entrances or my exits either, and that I have none of the instincts of a true gentleman, etc." or something like that, and maybe she'll move over before you have to insist.

AGRICULTURE NEWS

Some of the Agriculture students attended the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show last week end.

Those who went were Edwin Bledsoe, Jack Harris, Albert Barnett, Jr., Earl Wiseman, Eugene Rose, Robert Couch, Harvey Simmons, and Mr. H. T. Sullivan.

It seems that these students had a hard time keeping up with Mr. Sullivan while they were in Fort Worth. He was supposed to go to a banquet one night. But was knows?

WHOOOPS

Once upon a time some freshman asked who won the Punic Wars and Frances Fouts said "We did."

Woody Roberts says that his girl is a decided red-head.

Yes, we remember when she decided.

When Lois Laird rose hastily in geometry class the other day, Mr. Richey is reported to have exclaimed, "Now Lois, just semi-horizontalize yourself, please."

Lloyd never lets a night go by without leading some girl on and leaving her in the dark, and he's not a heartbreaker at that—just a movie usher.

Fred Sanders tells us that butchers never use white paper because they like to do things up brown.

S. A. declares that he only says what he knows—he's one of those big strong silent men.

Yes, Wilma, if you're talking about the Brazos River dam project you just come right out and say "dam."

Just granting that a student is wasting two points if he makes a grade of 72 per cent, we still insist he's being economical to a fine finish when he makes 18 per cent.

Problem in Geometry: A boy and girl in love, love each other. Given: John and Anita Jo with John in love with Anita Jo. To Prove: Anita Jo is in love with John.

Proof: John loves Anita Jo. Hence—John is a lover, and since—all the world loves a lover, and—Anita Jo is "all the world" to John. Therefore: Anita Jo loves John.

And Where'd You Get It?
 "How old are you, sonny?" asked the inquisitive old man of the little boy on the beach.
 "Six," came the brisk reply.
 "Six," echoed the old man, "and yet you are not as tall as my umbrella."

The boy drew himself up to his full height. "How old is your umbrella?" he asked.—Montreal Star

Why!

LOOK at that McCall Pattern piece reproduced above—it all meets tails to you! All of those sections of printing you see are sewing directions—they tell you exactly what to do with this particular piece of the pattern. Each McCall pattern piece has similar printed directions—Not even the tiniest sewing detail is left unexplained! The notches, you will notice, are numbered—on this piece the numbers are 1, 2 and 4. To match them, you only need to join notch number 1 to notch number 1 on another pattern piece—and the same is true of notches 2 and 4. That double line around the edge of the piece is the printed cutting line which is a patented McCall feature—and which reproduces exactly the lines of the original Master Pattern. With all these expert helps, no wonder home sewers can turn out really professional clothes with McCall Printed Patterns!

Haskell County . . . . . History

20 YEARS AGO TODAY

Last Friday evening Miss Tommie Boone, of Reynolds street, entertained at Dick's Theatre in honor of her house guest Miss Morrow of Seymour. After the theatre Miss Boone served a six course luncheon at her home, with violets as plate favors. Those in the party were Misses Ann Morrow, Lela O'Neil, Willie Grace Stephens, Beryl Doolittle, Mamie O'Neil, Messrs. Earnest Groom, Owen Hill, Cole Menefee, Tom Anderson, Virgil Hudson and Eugene Williams.

Friends of Walter Gump, a boy who grew to manhood in this county, will be proud to know that he has attained national notoriety as an ad writer and humorist and has retired from the drug business, placed his business in the hands of a manager in Wichita Falls and is devoting his time to literary work. He is the brother of Mrs. J. W. Collins of this city, having married her sister.

30 YEARS AGO TODAY

Mr. P. C. Montgomery of the Farmers Exchange Bank exhibited commendable enterprise this week in having a plank sidewalk built around the north and east side of the bank building.

Next Saturday the 25th inst. is prohibition election day throughout Haskell county.

W. T. Hudson and T. J. Lemmon, Sr., were in the north and northwest portions of the county this week buying cattle for the East Worth market. They say they got some nice fat cattle but the price was not mentioned.

40 YEARS AGO TODAY

The hotel question is settled and Haskell is to have a grand hotel. Dr. J. G. Simmons is arranging for a 20-room building at the northeast corner of the square.

Haskell county is well represented at the cattle raisers convention at Fort Worth this week. We learned the names of the following who are attending from this county: J. A. Bailey, A. H. Taylor, J. W. Middleton, W. T. McDowell, T. J. Lemmon, Jam McLaren, M. H. Gault and Bob Dickenson.

The running expenses of the Texas state government are placed at about $216,000 per month the past two years.

The following are the counties composing our new judicial district:

Let's Talk About Clothes

By a "Young Modern"

DENTON, Texas.—What's new in hats? It's a hard question to answer, and especially when the answer is "new" and the "makers" or "breakers" of your spring ensemble is taken into consideration. They seem to do things to you and for you and the latest modes offer smart, not tricky adaptations that are never fussy but chic and trimly tailored.

Foremost in the Texas State College for Women (TAS) spring fashion guide to hats is listed the sailor. They go everywhere. Blacks, browns, blues and whites are the feature colors for this season while various fabrics and styles are being shown.

There is the hand-woven sugar cane sailer combined with crepe that is tailored in a pleasant fashion cleverly lending itself to any luncheon engagement. Then there are cellophane straw sailers with wide brims finished with a small roll. These hats can be had with both wide and narrow brims and are certainly smart. Smaller brimmed sailers feature a slightly rolled effect.

The "off the face" hat is coming in strong this year, and a slight modification is evidenced in the halo effect of the brim. These hats are smartly decorated with artificial flowers, ribbons and some even show the upturned brim run through a contrasting buckle.

Paper panama hat sin black or brown with belting ribbon show brims that shoot forward in a most flattering manner. Then stitched felt, a new addition, can top off any sport outfit and it is certainly correct and comfortable.

ELECTION NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that an election will be held at the City Hall in the City of Haskell, Haskell county, Texas, on the first Tuesday in April, same being the 2nd day of April, 1935, for the purpose of electing the following:

Three aldermen, two for a two-year term and one for a one-year term.

The polls of said election will open at 8 o'clock A. M., and will close at 7 o'clock P. M. Every person not disqualified by law who shall have attained the age of 21

Little Johnny had eaten all the soft part of the toast at breakfast and piled the crusts on his plate. His father, noticing this, remarked: "When I was a little boy I always ate the crusts."
"Did you like them?" inquired Johnny.
"Yes," said his father.
"Then you can have these," returned Johnny as he put the crusts over on his father's plate.

"Wilfred! Wilfred!" whispered Mrs. Jones excitedly. "There's a mouse in the bedroom."
Wilfred sat up in bed and looked sleepily at his wife. "Well what about it?" he groaned.
"I can hear it squeaking," she said. "Well, dyu want to get out and oil it, or something," he snapped.

A successful man is one who deserves promotion when he doesn't get it.

Don't try to stop thinking unless you have started.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Weinert and daughter Miss Beatrice of Weinert spent the past three weeks visiting friends and relatives in Houston, Galveston, Austin and other places.

"-- as advertised"

How many times you see those two words in the course of a day's shopping: "This article for sale—as advertised."

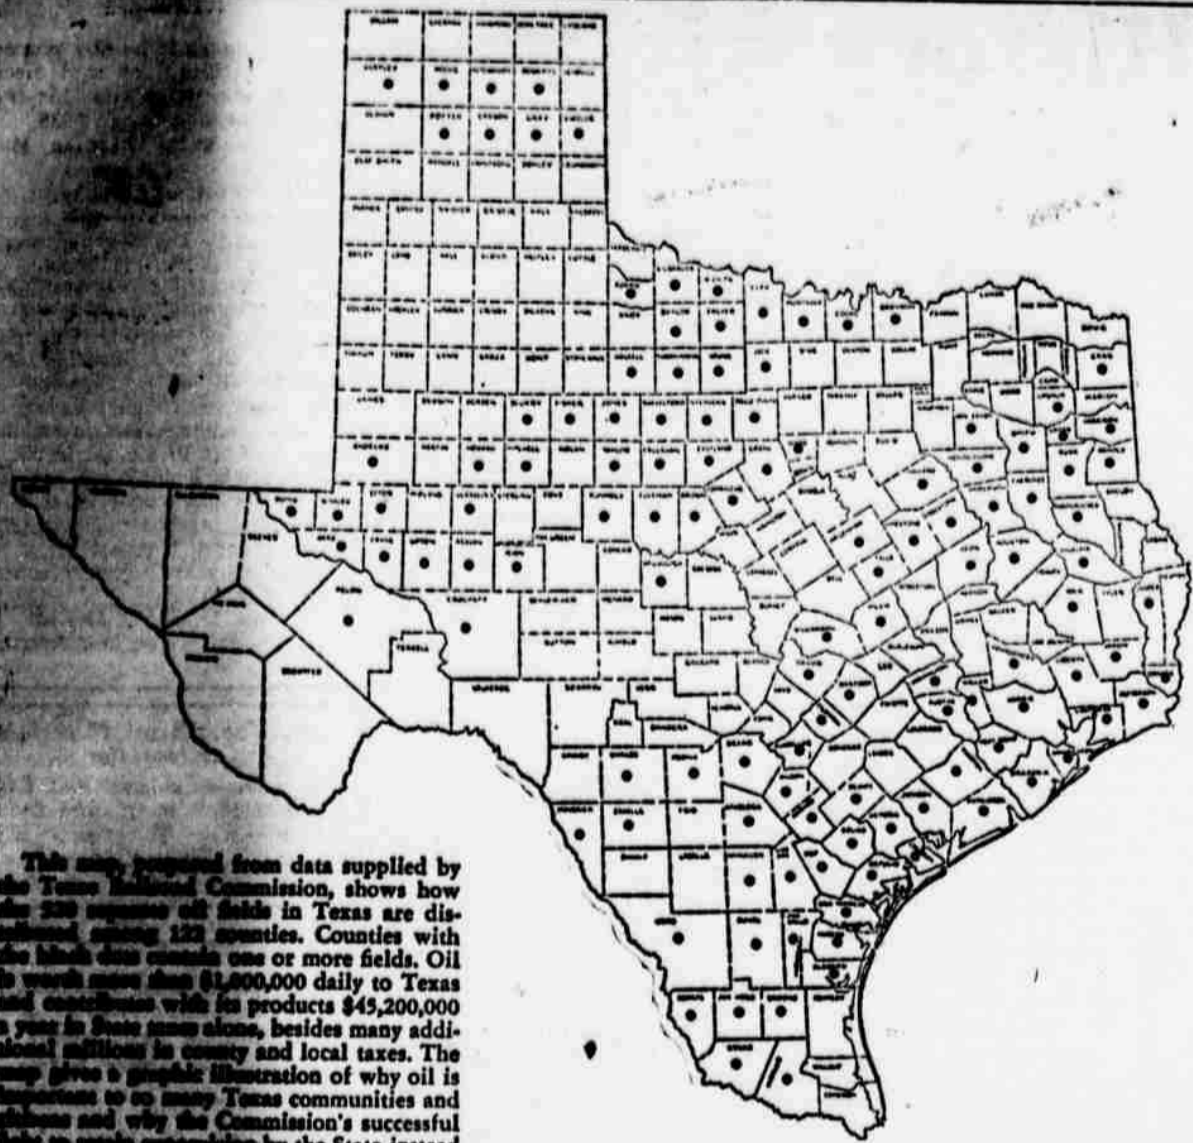

And those two words are as welcome as they are familiar, for they form a bond of confidence between the merchant and yourself. They are his guarantee to you of worth and value.

Here is an article that has been described in your newspaper. Its merits have been told; possibly, too, its price. You know exactly what you will get when you buy it. You know its quality, its utility; you know how it fits into your needs. And when you buy it, you know you are getting not some unproved substitute but the specified article—as represented.

It is easy to understand why that phrase, "as advertised," creates a feeling of confidence. You have learned to depend upon consistently advertised products. You know that the maker has confidence in them, else he would not spend money calling your attention to them day after day, and month after month. You know that they have been approved by the most critical of investigators—the buying public. And above all you know from experience that buying goods "as advertised" is the best investment you can make.

It pays to read the advertisements.

WHAT OIL MEANS TO TEXAS

This map, prepared from data supplied by the Texas Railroad Commission, shows how the 250 counties of Texas are distributed among 122 counties. Counties with the black dots contain one or more fields. Oil is worth more than $1,000,000 daily to Texas and contributes with its products $45,200,000 a year in state taxes alone, besides many additional millions in county and local taxes. The map gives a graphic illustration of why oil is important to so many Texas communities and shows why the Commission's successful fight to retain supervision by the State instead of sending jurisdiction of Texas oil over to Washington bureaucrats has won favorable consideration by the Legislature of the Commission's request for a slight increase in the allocation of taxes paid in by the industry, so that efficient supervision can be maintained.

"I just dropped in to kill time," said the neighborhood bore to Mr. Busman.

We wish to express our thanks to our many friends for the kindness and sympathy through the illness and death of our dearly beloved wife and mother. May God bless you for each of your kind acts and deeds. Our prayer is that we may be as much consolation in your hours of sorrow.

A Responsibility THAT IS YOURS

"SHOULD I buy XYZ stock?" is a type of question frequently put to bankers by their patrons—one that thinking persons will agree is hardly fair to ask any banker.

If you should buy on his recommendation some stock, or make any other speculative investment, the market value on which later goes down, you are going to blame him. On the other hand, if it goes UP and you did not buy, because he advised against it, you will again blame the banker.

Banks do not buy and sell stocks for their own account. Their business is banking, not speculation.

Your banker desires to serve your interests and to give you reliable financial information; not to decide such matters for you, but to aid you to make wise decisions for yourself.

THE OLD RELIABLE

NECESSARY SERVICE

Electricity has brought a new era of dependable service to West Texas in recent years. Twenty-four hours of the day, approximately 43,000 homes and places of business served by this Company in 160 towns and communities rely on this service in some way every minute of the day.

Its large variety of uses acclaim its acceptance as a necessary service. Homes employ it as a means of lighting, washing and ironing, refrigeration, cleaning, water heating, cooking, air conditioning; for the operation of the radio and many small appliances. The uses of electricity in industry are innumerable. Almost every task has in some way been lightened and more nearly perfected by this necessary service. It has truly served all the people in some way and has shared immeasurably in our progress.

The West Texas Utilities Company has provided this service practically uninterrupted and economically cheap. No greater words of praise could be spoken of this service than that our customers have become so accustomed to its reliability, until today it has become a commonplace item of the household and place of business.

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule . . . and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC—Any erroneous reflection upon the character, reputation or standing of any firm, individual or corporation will be gladly corrected upon being called to the attention of the publishers.

The dividing line between news and advertising is the line which separates information for public interest from information which is disseminated for profit.

No charge is made for publication of notices of church services or other public gatherings where no admission is charged. Where admission is charged or where goods or wares of any kind are offered for sale the regular advertising rates will be applied.

Cards of thanks and obituaries are charged for at regular advertising rates.

BEGIN ADVERTISING NOW

Newspaper advertising enjoys the greatest patronage of any form of advertising. Huge corporations spend tremendous sums every year to inform and lead the buyer. The press delivers the goods and gets the bulk of the appropriation.

The situation in Haskell is the same as everywhere else. Here the newspaper is the best form of publicity, as well as the cheapest. Merchants who delay their advertising because they do not intend to outspend cigarette manufacturers are losing business through their failure.

It is better for every advertiser to begin modestly and expand rather than to begin extravagantly and lose his money, and most costly to his business, his faith in the power of advertising. If there is anything on the market today that has been put over without advertising we don't know what it is. Every merchant realizes this, even if he doesn't emulate the example of those who put things over.

IN HAPPY AGREEMENT

When both capital and labor agree that the country is beginning to come out of the depression, there must be something in it.

On the same day that the American Federation of Labor — usually deeply pessimistic — announced that "under the ruffled surface of the business stream, currents of revival are steadily gaining strength," the United States Chamber of Commerce noted that a rise in production figures which began in December has continued steadily into March.

While the federation saw small promise of jobs for the jobless in the immediate future, the Chamber estimated that 700,000 should have been re-employed by March 31 over the beginning of the year.

Certainly the conjunction of these two reports would seem to indicate pretty definitely that a real upward trend is at last in progress.

STILL WAITING ACTION

If the people of this country ever really appreciate how terrible the auto traffic situation is, you will see a sudden flare of laws, regulations, and supervision more drastic than anything now dreamed of. Take a current example. A 6-year-old Cleveland boy, excited and tickled because he is at last big enough to go to school, makes it a point to hurry to the schoolhouse to be there in plenty of time. One day he gets there ahead of time; the traffic officer detailed to the school intersection hasn't arrived. The boy crosses, anyway—and a motor car kills him. Now this sort of thing is almost too common to be worth mentioning. Yet when you stop to think about it you realize, all of a sudden, that it is the tragic product of a situation which is absolutely intolerable. Why we continue to put up with it—why we don't get up on our hind legs and put this traffic juggernaut under control regardless of the cost or the difficulty—is the greatest mystery of the age.

PERPETUAL MOTION

It takes thirty-six States to ratify an amendment to the United States constitution but he Child Labor amendment, rejected ten years ago, by twenty-five States, is still popping up before various legislatures.

In other words, once a State ratifies it is eternally bound but if it rejects the proposal the question can continue to come up until ratification wins. Without discussing the merits of the Child Labor proposal but only referring to the process involved there ought to be a time limit on State action.

LET'S LOOK AHEAD

The progressive town will consider the needs of its children. The progressive village will take care of this situation before it grows, and acquire sufficient land for park and playground purposes.

Haskell is not as big as it will be. Its needs along this line are not as great as they will be. Land will never be cheaper. The time to buy is at hand.

We hope our responsible officials will carry this thought in their minds. Let's make Haskell an ideal city in the future by undertaking its broad development along the right ideas. Acquire park sites and playgrounds now even if we have to postpone their development until some future period.

Even a newspaper man likes to hear somebody compliment what his journal prints but he knows, from sad experience, that people never read anything except the mistakes.

Our own experience is that the man who gets a public salary, regularly, has little sympathy with the little business man who has to pay his expenses and then live if he has anything left to live upon.

Judging from some cigarette advertisements a few puffs equal a ham sandwich, and a couple fags will give the same energy as a full meal.

The trouble with many organizations is that the members who insist upon running the show are just the ones that ought to be put in the cellar.

-CURRENT COMMENT-

EACH FOR ALL—ALL FOR EACH
(Dallas Morning News)

Texas, more than any other of its sister States, is in itself an e pluribus unum. It has great centers of important historical traditions and several geographic regions each sharply defined and different in kind. At times discordant interests in these regions develop a sort of temporary antagonism but again there is a strong feeling of unity through pride in past history and anticipation of a great future.

Texas is really facing a soht of crisis in its development. Its citizens are becoming dimly conscious of the approaching abdication of King Cotton and of the possibilities of great industries built on the State's natural resources. There is also a growing realization that the Centennial year will mark a turning point in the State's career. Interest in the approaching celebration is broadening and all Texas begins to think in terms of points of historic attraction and of preparation for local exhibitions and pageants. The State takes pride in past achievements and hopes for larger advancement in the immediate future.

By 1936, it is assumed that the worst of the Nation's depression will be past, that capital will again be seeking new forms of investment, that once settled industries will be on the move, seeking more favorable locations, and that several millions of tourists will be passing round about the State, many with thought of future settlement in some favored spot. Mexico also will have open arms for tourists from the States, most of whom will travel toward their destination over the excellent highways of Texas. The entire State will be on exhibition and, if this proves to be worthy of high commendation, new citizens, new industries, new capital will come to Texas to aid in the upbuilding of this imperial domain.

Texans should manifest to the visitors of 1936 a glowing pride in the State's history, its achievements and its prospects. Each region, proud of its own resources, should also generously extol those of other parts of Texas. Each should be for all and all unitedly should aim to secure the prosperity of each section of the State. Petty jealousies and narrowing animosities will naturally fade away when all parts of the State unite in a vigorous determination to put Texas first.

The citizens of Texas also should stand unitedly each for all and all for each in kindly fellowship under the flag of the Lone Star, whether they are residents East or West, North, South or Central, or of the Golden Valley along the Rio Grande. Texas, one and indivisible, is a union of hospitable citizens who have their faces turned toward the future.

THE CHRISTIAN LIFE

International Sunday School Lesson for March 24, 1935.

Golden Text: "Sanctify in your hearts Christ as Lord.—I Peter 3:15."
(Lesson Text: 1 Peter 3:8-18)

Following his miraculous escape from prison, there are only brief scriptural pictures of the activity of the apostle Peter. He went to the home of Mary, the mother of Mark, then we next hear of him at the Jerusalem conference considering whether Gentile Christians should keep the Mosaic law, about which Peter took the liberal viewpoint. Later he saw Paul at Antioch. It is believed he traveled with his wife through Asia Minor and that he died a martyr's death in Rome during the last years of Nero's reign.

Peter's first epistle was addressed to the "sojourners of the Dispersion in Asia Minor." It was probably written about thirty years after the death of Jesus. The verses of our lesson text describe the characteristics of the true Christian life as briefly summarized by Peter. He holds us a high ideal for those who profess to follow Jesus to emulate. Verse nine forbids not only retaliation in act but retaliation in words and goes much beyond the mere negative doctrine of not doing harm by insisting that Christians must bless those with whom they come in contact, regardless of the treatment received by them.

Peter tells how one would love life. "Peter gives a new turn to the old thought," says George H. Morrison. "The Psalmist asks, Do you desire life, do you want to live for many years? Peter asks, Do you wish to love life, to find it sweet and delightful to the end? In other words, the psalmist teaches us how to live if we want to reach old age, while Peter teaches us how we ought to live if we want through everything to find life lovable. At the back of Peter's mind there lies the thought that in youth we are all in love with life. . . . The difficult thing is to keep in love with life through all the experiences of the years, through the sorrows and trials of the after days, and the disappointments which are the lot of everybody."

One of the points emphasized by the Apostle is that the Christians should "refrain his tongue from evil." We do not know of any injunction which is more in need of observance at this date. It includes the repetition of coarse and degrading chatter as well as the telling of evil things about people and no distinction is made as to whether the gossip is true or false. Much harm is done in this modern world by loose talk. Very often, good Christian men and women help damn a life or establish a slander by repeating things they have heard or suspicious remarks about acts of which they have no confirmation.

"Seek peace and pursue it," advised Peter. "Not merely prefer it, but with zeal and care endeavor to promote it," says Charles H. Spurgeon. "Peace with God, with thine own heart, with thy fellow man, search after this as the merchant-man after a precious pearl. Follow after peace when it shuns you; be resolved not to be a contentious spirit. The peace which you thus promote will be returned into your own bosom, and be a perennial spring of comfort to you." At the same time, Peter knew that the Christian would face persecution, that, as A. Thouluck says: "The Christian principle, as such, would encounter the most determined opposition in the world; that the bitterest hostility would be directed against the disciples, simply on account of their connection with the Redeemer, is expressed in various forms. The Christian is, by his very appearance, a moving conscience to excuse or condemn the children of the world."

All Christians were exhorted by Peter to "sanctify in your hearts Christ as Lord." "Set Christ in your hearts on the pedestal and pinnacle that belong to Him, and then bow down before Him with all reverence and submission," says Alexander Maclaren. "Be sure that you give Him all that is His due, and in the love of your hearts, as well as in the thoughts of your minds, recognize Him for what He is, the Lord. Deep down in the very midst of your personal being, as it were, there should be, fundamental to all, and interior to all, this reverential awe and absolute trust in Jesus Christ—an habitual thought, a central emotion, an all-dominant impulse. Put the healing agent into the fountain-head, and all the streams that pour out thence will be purified and sweetened. Deep in the heart put Christ, and life will be pure."

If a man or woman lives according to the Christian doctrine the satisfaction of what Peter calls "a good conscience" will be enjoyed. "Such a conscience is a good companion for our days and a good bedfellow for our nights," says F. B. Meyer. "Every effort should be made to preserve its integrity. And when life is moulded by such an inward influence, it will live down all misrepresentation and slander; it will outshine all the mists of envy and malice which have obscured its earliest beams; it will falsify false reports. Detractors shall be ashamed at the triumphant answer made, to their accusations by the beauty of a holy Christian life; whilst those that love God shall take heart."

Early in the history of the Christian church there were men who learned how to live righteous lives. Cyprian, Bishop at Carthage, wrote in the third century: "If I could ascend some high mountain and look out over the wide lands, you know very well what I would see. Brigands on the high roads, pirates on the seas, in the amphitheaters men murdered to please applauding crowds, selfishness and cruelty, misery and despair under all roofs. It is a bad world. But in the midst of it I have found a quiet and holy people who have learned a great secret. They are despised and persecuted, but they care not. They are the masters of their souls. They have overcome the world. These people are the Christians—and I am one of them."

BEHOLD the stranger!

A stranger moves to your neighborhood. You observe him tolerantly, but with no immediate display of interest. You are an established resident, getting along very nicely before he came.

But you do not avoid him. For reasons not entirely unselfish you wait for him to reveal himself. Possibly he will take a highly respected place in the community. He may even become one of your intimates. It is up to him.

So you note his manners, talk with him, and form an opinion. If he comes up to your requirements, you accept him, and often he proves a welcome addition to your group of friends.

It is with exactly the same attitude that the intelligent newspaper reader regards the advertisements of products new to him.

These strangers may add something to his civilized enjoyment.

They may contribute to his comfort, safety—even his success.

In many ways they may prove valuable. Certainly it is wise to give them careful consideration.

Read the advertisements in this newspaper. They may be the means of introducing you to products that will take important places in your life. And every day they will give you information that enables you to buy intelligently and make your money go farther.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kendricks and baby Freddie Jewel of Rose spent Sunday with Mrs. Kendricks' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Miller. It's still dry here but if everyone will come to Sunday School next Sunday morning I'm sure it will rain!

Brushie and Union Chapel

We've really been having some fine sandstorms. Everyone appreciates them I am sure. Bro. McGregor filled his regular appointment at the Baptist church Sunday morning and Sunday night. Sunday School at both churches was well attended Sunday morning. The Epworth League presented an interesting program on "Prayer" Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Hensen, Brushie teachers, entertained his room by carrying them to the show last Tuesday night. Several from our communities enjoyed the program at Cartwright Wednesday night. The declaimers from Brushie were: Senior boy, Floyd Bowman; Senior girl, Elise Patton; Junior boy, Lloyd Routon; Junior girl, Doris Williams. They will declaim at Haskell March 22. On last Thursday night the young people entertained the adults in the basement of the church. After the devotional conducted by Bro. W. M. Culwell, there was an interesting program presented followed by music and refreshments. Sandwiches, cake and lemonade were served to a large crowd. Faye Cooke, Alvin Bowman, Boyd Jenkins, Bo Chamberlain and Robert Poer visited Jerry and Elise Patton Sunday. Henry Bowman and family visited Mrs. J. A. Bowman Sunday. Miss Eleanor Griffith of Sunset community and Lloyd King of Hefner visited in our community Sunday. Those visiting in the Pat Freeland home Sunday were: Ivan Fannin, Floyd and Kenneth Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Williamson and children, R. P., and Nig Chamberlain. Mrs. H. L. Chamberlain is sick at this writing. We wish for her a speedy recovery. L. P. Fritz of Wichita Falls is visiting in the Edge home. Orville Britton left Sunday for Arizona.

Good Selection

Landlady—I'll give you just three days in which to pay your board. Student—All right. I'll pick the Fourth of July, Christmas and Easter.

At Last

Mrs. Scollap—So your daughter has married a doctor. Well, that's great! Mrs. Crabflake—Yes, I'm so glad! At last I can afford to have appendicitis.

Against the Law

He—When I marry I shall lead a handsome girl and a wonderful cook to the altar. She—Heavens! That would be bigamy!—Grit.

Binks—What do you mean—that you are going to reverse the usual process when you make your garden this spring? Jinks—I'm going to plant weed seeds and see if vegetables won't come up.

Man of Iron

Coolidge liked wheat cakes for breakfast. Hoover on peanuts would munch. But here's to a man So strong that he can Eat hot dogs with mustard for lunch!—New York Sun.

Boy—Say, will you change this quarter for me? Grocer—Sure! What do you want it changed for? Boy—Cause mother thinks it's a bad one.

Kitchen Kinks

Icing the Cake You can alleviate that struggle to get icing on the cake before it hardens, if you stand the container in a pan of warm (not hot) water. A little heat will delay the stiffening process. Brighter Stoves The open iron work and burners of an old gas stove can be greatly improved with a coat of aluminum paint, which brightens as well as preserves.
