MANAGER NEEDED

Whita Valley League May Open Season With Eight Clubs; Meet Sunday

A preliminary to the Wichita Valley League baseball meeting will be held in this city Sunday afternoon at 1:30 at the Ton Hotel, Haskell players and will hold a meeting at the City Friday night to select a play-manager and receive applications for the various positions. Five Server Leon, Henry Atkinson, Oates, Rex Ragan and Mack Maloy will serve as a committee to conduct the business affairs of the club.

A large number of players lined up, and several new in the shuffle, no trouble is expected by local parties in getting a hard-hitting team on the field for the first game. No player has a place on account of the fact that material is available and both veterans and newcomers will start on the same footing. Greater competition is expected in the league as a whole this year, if the teams now joining can be taken as a criterion. At the meeting here last Sunday, Stamford, Hamlin, Munday and Peacock were selected, with indications that more would join at the meeting next Sunday. Rochester, Bonham, Knox City and Abilene are considered.

Haskell is well represented with men who are willing with the trusty arm, but the new manager is expected to scour the country for players, who would be able to do something up to the plate before a prayer. Anyone with aspirations to become another Hubbell will by all means attend the meeting Friday night.

45 SERVICE CLUB MEMBERS HEAR ED SHUMWAY TUESDAY

Scout Executive Explains Importance of Boy Scout Work; Haskell Praised

A total of 45 members attended the regular week-day meeting of the Haskell Service Club Tuesday noon and heard Ed Shumway, scout executive of the Chisholm Trails Boy Scout Council speak. John A. Couch occupied the president's chair in the absence of President F. M. Robertson.

Discussion of loyalty on the part of Haskell business men to other business firms in the city occupied the attention of the member. Consensus of opinion expressed indicated that the members present believed that all business men should patronize each other, instead of buying elsewhere, unless absolutely necessary.

Mr. Shumway praised the Haskell spirit as exemplified by the members of the local civic organization, and stated that, in his opinion, the Haskell Service Club was the liveliest and largest, so far as city population was concerned, of any he had ever seen. The Scout executive also explained how important Boy Scout work was to the nation.

The newly elected members may then place the marshal's salary at the figure they choose.

The pay for this position was formerly $100 per month, but later lowered to $50, with city scrip as pay. Up to date Bill Larned, Wilton Kennedy, Al Cousins and W. E. Welsh, incumbent, have announced for City Marshal.

Texas Girl Was Only Woman Ever Portrayed on Paper Money

Lucy Holcombe Pickens, famous southern belle of Civil War days, and the only woman ever to have her likeness on paper money, was a Texas girl. Her family came to Marshall, Texas, from the old South before she was born, and when Lucy grew up, her popularity on her visits to Virginia caused the powers of the Confederacy to place her picture on the $100 bill, as shown above. Subsequently Mrs. Pickens' husband was United States ambassador to Russia. As far as is known this is the only paper money ever to portray a woman.

Over 1600 Cotton Contracts Signed

According to R. H. Maxwell, county agent, there is a possibility that the total number of cotton acreage signers will reach the 1650 mark in Haskell county for 1934. While all of these may not be approved, it is expected that only a small percentage will be turned down. All told, 55,000 acres will be placed under government control in this county.

Mr. Maxwell praises the manner in which both landlords and tenants are arranging their contracts to conform to government requirements. About 15 percent of the contracts signed have had to be changed.

Various Offices Sought In County

Still they come—candidates and more candidates—with the July primary still five months away. Aspirants for offices ranging from Congressman to Justice of the Peace present their candidacies to the voters through the columns of the Free Press this week.

Judge Mullican is at present Judge of the 99th District Court at Lubbock, having served in that capacity for the past eleven years. He does not make a formal announcement at this time, but at a later date will set out his platform through this paper.

Matt N. Graham, principal of the Rochester Schools, enters the race for County Superintendent this week. He will present a formal statement of his candidacy in an early issue. Ab Hutchens of Rochester, well known throughout Haskell county, this week enters the race for Commissioner of Precinct No. 1, and his name appears in our announcement column. Mr. Hutchens states that he will outline his claims for the office in a statement to be issued at an early date.

AMERICAN FARMERS HELPED TO EXTENT OF $1,327,500.00

Result of Appropriations Under AAA—Apart from Price Rise Benefits

That American farmers will benefit to the extent of $1,327,500.00 as the result of appropriations of government money already expended, approved or projected under the Agricultural Adjustment Act is indicated by a preliminary analysis just completed by C. W. Young & Co., Inc., New York.

These cash benefits, according to the analysis, are in addition to any advantage which may accrue to the farmer because of higher prices or because of government credit advanced to him for the purpose of enabling him to hold his crops for higher prices. Haskell County Beautification Program Now Being Pushed Rapidly

The program of beautification of highways and towns throughout Haskell county is being pushed at a rapid rate, with various communities doing their part. The work which the state highway department is overseeing has progressed satisfactorily, according to those in charge, and the program will be continued as rapidly as possible. All churches have taken steps to beautify premises, and plans for preparing the courthouse lawn are being formulated. Both the North and South Ward Parent Teachers organizations are cooperating wholeheartedly. The marking of historic spots, under the direction of R. E. Sherrill, is under way, with wooden markers placed temporarily, but changed later in favor of stone. A county-wide meeting of all the various committees will be held in Haskell early in March.

Haskell CWA Men Visit In Austin

In an attempt to secure additional CWA projects for Haskell county, T. L. Donohoo, local administrator, Chas. M. Conner, F. M. Robertson and W. A. Bandy made a trip to Austin during the fore part of the week. All returned Tuesday except Judge Conner who remained to consult officials.

Owing to the unsettled conditions surrounding unsold bonds, which has handicapped CWA work throughout the state, the matter in which the Haskell county men were interested could not be settled so early in the week. Orders have been received here, however, to decrease CWA payrolls ten percent weekly, with no trucks hired, except those now on projects approved.

Florists To Meet In Mineral Wells

The florists of the Southwest will "go to school" on March 5, 6 and 7 at Mineral Wells, Texas, according to Charles M. Conner of Haskell, who is on the publicity committee.

During the past three years the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association—composed of some 5,000 to 6,000 retail florists throughout the United States and Canada—has put into effect a far-reaching program of education for its own members and other interested florists. This consists in the holding of schools of floral designing, first in one geographical section, then in another. By this means the customer who places an order with the "F. T. D." member in his own city for delivery by a member in another city, even though the town be small, has a better assurance that the bouquet or design will measure up in every way to an acceptable standard of artistry and value.

One of four such schools being held this winter and spring is that scheduled for March 5, 6 and 7 at the Baker Hotel in Mineral Wells. As students it will draw florists and their helpers to the number of several hundred from the states of Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Texas.

Income Tax Collector Will be In Haskell on March 3

For the convenience of those persons who are required by law to file Federal Income Tax returns a deputy collector will be at the City Hall, Haskell, Texas, on March 3, 1934, to assist taxpayers in filing their returns. No charge will be made for this service. The matter of filing income tax returns should be given immediate attention by all taxpayers who are due to file returns in order to avoid penalty and interest. Calendar year 1933 returns shall be filed not later than March 15, 1934, with the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the taxpayer resides or has his principal place of business.

HOG PRODUCERS WILL HOLD MEET HERE FRIDAY EVE

Meeting Scheduled at the High School Building; All Urged to Attend

Hog producers interested in the government's Corn-Hog contract plan will meet at the Haskell High School Friday evening, February 23, at 7:30, according to R. H. Maxwell, county agent. He urges all producers to be present.

The second preliminary meeting of hog producers was held Tuesday and at least 25 additional contracts were secured. It is expected that the total will pass the 100 mark by Friday night. According to Mr. Maxwell, data concerning all hogs farrowed and raised by the party making the contract is absolutely necessary, from December 1, 1931 until December 1, 1933. The number listed will then be taken as a basis for the hog estimate.

MEETING CALLED FOR FRIDAY NIGHT TO CONSIDER PLAN

Government May Furnish at Least 60 Percent of The Capital Necessary

WAREHOUSE NEEDED

All Farmers and Business Men Urged to Be Present At Meeting Here

A meeting of Haskell business men and farmers living adjacent to this city, will be held Friday night, Feb. 23, for the purpose of determining whether a compress and cotton warehouse should be built here under a cooperative plan. According to H. K. Henry, local vocational agricultural teacher, the government will furnish sixty per cent of the capital. The plan, as presented by Mr. Henry, received enthusiastic approval from the members of the Service Club, local civic organization which has a membership of around seventy-five business men.

At present all cotton ginned here has to be shipped to Stamford, 14 miles south, before it can be compressed. Slightly over 20,000 bales of cotton were shipped from Haskell last year by rail. Many more were trucked. Rule and Munday, neighboring towns, have compresses also, but local sponsors point out that several county communities would truck cotton to Haskell in the event that a compress and warehouse was built, which would considerably increase cotton shippings from this center.

It is estimated that a building which could house at least 8,000 bales should be erected. While an estimate of the exact cost of such an undertaking has not been made, Mr. Henry and others interested expect to have the necessary data ready for the meeting, Friday night. It is known however that the farmers of this section will be enabled to make a considerable saving on freight rates and damage to the cotton before being compressed.

Every Haskell business man and every farmer in this section who is interested in the proposition is urged to attend and take part in the meeting which will be held in the court house.

Perrin Rites Held Here Wednesday

The funeral rites of Stephen G. Perrin were held Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the First Methodist Church, with Rev. Orion W. Carter, Methodist pastor, officiating and Rev. H. R. Whately, Baptist minister assisting. Mr. Perrin had been in poor health for several years, yet his death came as a severe shock to the family and many friends, as he was up and doing his work about his farm Wednesday morning, death occurring at 4:45 p. m. Wednesday due to a stroke of paralysis and complications.

S. G. Perrin was born December 31, 1879 in Wise county, near Decatur, Texas, and lived there until 10 years of age. He was married to Miss Julia Vandivier in 1908, December 31, on his birthday. The family moved to Haskell county in 1918.

There were six children born to Mr. and Mrs. Perrin, one preceding him in infancy. His widow and five children survive. They are: Julian, John Paul, Henrietta, Woodrow and Jim Perrin, all of Haskell. Other survivors are his mother, five brothers and five sisters: Mrs. Henrietta Perrin, mother, Haskell; Jim Perrin, Haskell; Carl Perrin, Adrian, Texas; Willie Perrin, Haskell; David Perrin, Haskell; Clarence Perrin, Archer City, brothers. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS on AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT PLANS

Prepared by Texas A. and M. College Extension Service

Corn-Hog Plan

Question: Can a contract be signed by a cash tenant without the signature of the landlord?

Answer: Yes.
Question: Can a contract be signed by a crop-share tenant who rents all of the land in his farm from one landlord, without the signature of the landlord?

Answer: No.
Question: What evidence of 1932 and 1933 production is required of a contract signer?

Answer: Sales receipts, weight tickets, signed statements of persons or agencies buying, selling or consigning hogs; farm account records, and any other documents which the producer may have available which prove his claim to hog or corn production. The producer who does not have such evidence may not receive his first payment as promptly as others, and his figures will be subject to closer scrutiny.

Question: Is the producer who buys feeder pigs but does not raise any of his own eligible to sign a contract?

Answer: Not unless he is eligible to sign for corn acreage reduction. Hog reduction payments go only to those who owned the pigs when farrowed and sign contracts. If he does sign a contract for corn acreage reduction he agrees not to increase the number of feeder pigs bought in 1934 above the adjusted average number for 1932 and 1933.

Question: Can a producer reduce his corn acreage more than 20 percent?

Answer: Yes, but he will not receive payments for a reduction greater than 30 percent.

Question: Can a producer reduce his hogs farrowed and his hogs produced for market more than 25 percent?

Answer: Yes, but he will not receive payments for a reduction greater than 25 percent.

Question: Are there any restrictions placed on the acreage of crops other than corn or livestock other than hogs?

Answer: Yes. The producer agrees not to increase on the farm in 1934 above 1932 or 1933 whichever is higher: (a) The total acreage of crops planted for harvest, plus the contracted acres; (b) The acreage planted to each crop for sale, designated as a basic agricultural commodity in the Agricultural Adjustment Act; (c) The total acreage of feed crops other than corn and hay; (d) The number of any kind of livestock other than hogs designated as a basic commodity in the Act for a product of which is so designated; kept on the farm for sale for the sale of a product thereof; (e) The number of feeder pigs bought in 1934 above the adjusted average number for 1932 and 1933.

Question: Can a contract signer buy feeder pigs in 1934?

Answer: Yes, but not in excess of the average number of feeder pigs bought by him in 1932 and 1933.

Cotton Plan

Question: If the producer is not satisfied that the county committee has given him his fair allotment, has he any recourse?

Answer: Yes. If the difference is over the correctness of his figures of acreage or production, he may present evidence of production to the county committee and their decision shall be final. If the question is one regarding rules and regulations, then a statement of the facts agreed upon shall be submitted to the Cotton Section, Production Division, Agricultural Adjustment Administration, Washington, D. C., for final decision.

Question: What is the farm allotment?

Answer: The farm allotment is 80 percent of that figure (expressed in pounds) which results from multiplying the average number of acres planted to cotton on the land in the farm during the years 1932 to 1932 inclusive by the average yield (expressed in pounds) per acre during said years.

Question: If a part of the farm is sold or a part disposed of in any other way during the term of the contract, how will the farm allotment be divided?

Answer: In proportion to the cultivated area suitable for cotton on each part as the Secretary of Agriculture or his authorized agent may determine.

Question: Can a producer sell or transfer his allotment to another producer who has signed a contract?

Answer: No.

Question: Will the farm allotment be changed in 1935?

Answer: No. The allotment made in 1934 will remain unchanged in 1935, except for the correction of errors.

Question: When is the rented acreage released from the terms of the contract?

Answer: The rented acreage is released from the terms of the contract in 1934 and in 1935 for the purpose of planting crops for harvest in the year following such release.

Question: What are the payments for 1935?

Answer: In the event that the Secretary prohibits any reduction in the acreage to be planted to cotton in 1935, payments similar to those for 1934 will be made for the year 1935 on approximately similar dates.

Question: Can a claim for payments be assigned?

Answer: No, except that the producer may pledge any rental payments due him under this contract for the purpose of obtaining funds for carrying on the current operations of his farm.

Question: What is the procedure if the producer receives any payments and then fails to reduce his cotton acreage?

Answer: His contract is canceled, he receives no further payments, and any payments already made to him must be returned to the Government.

CHEVROLET ANNOUNCES a revolutionary new line of low-priced trucks

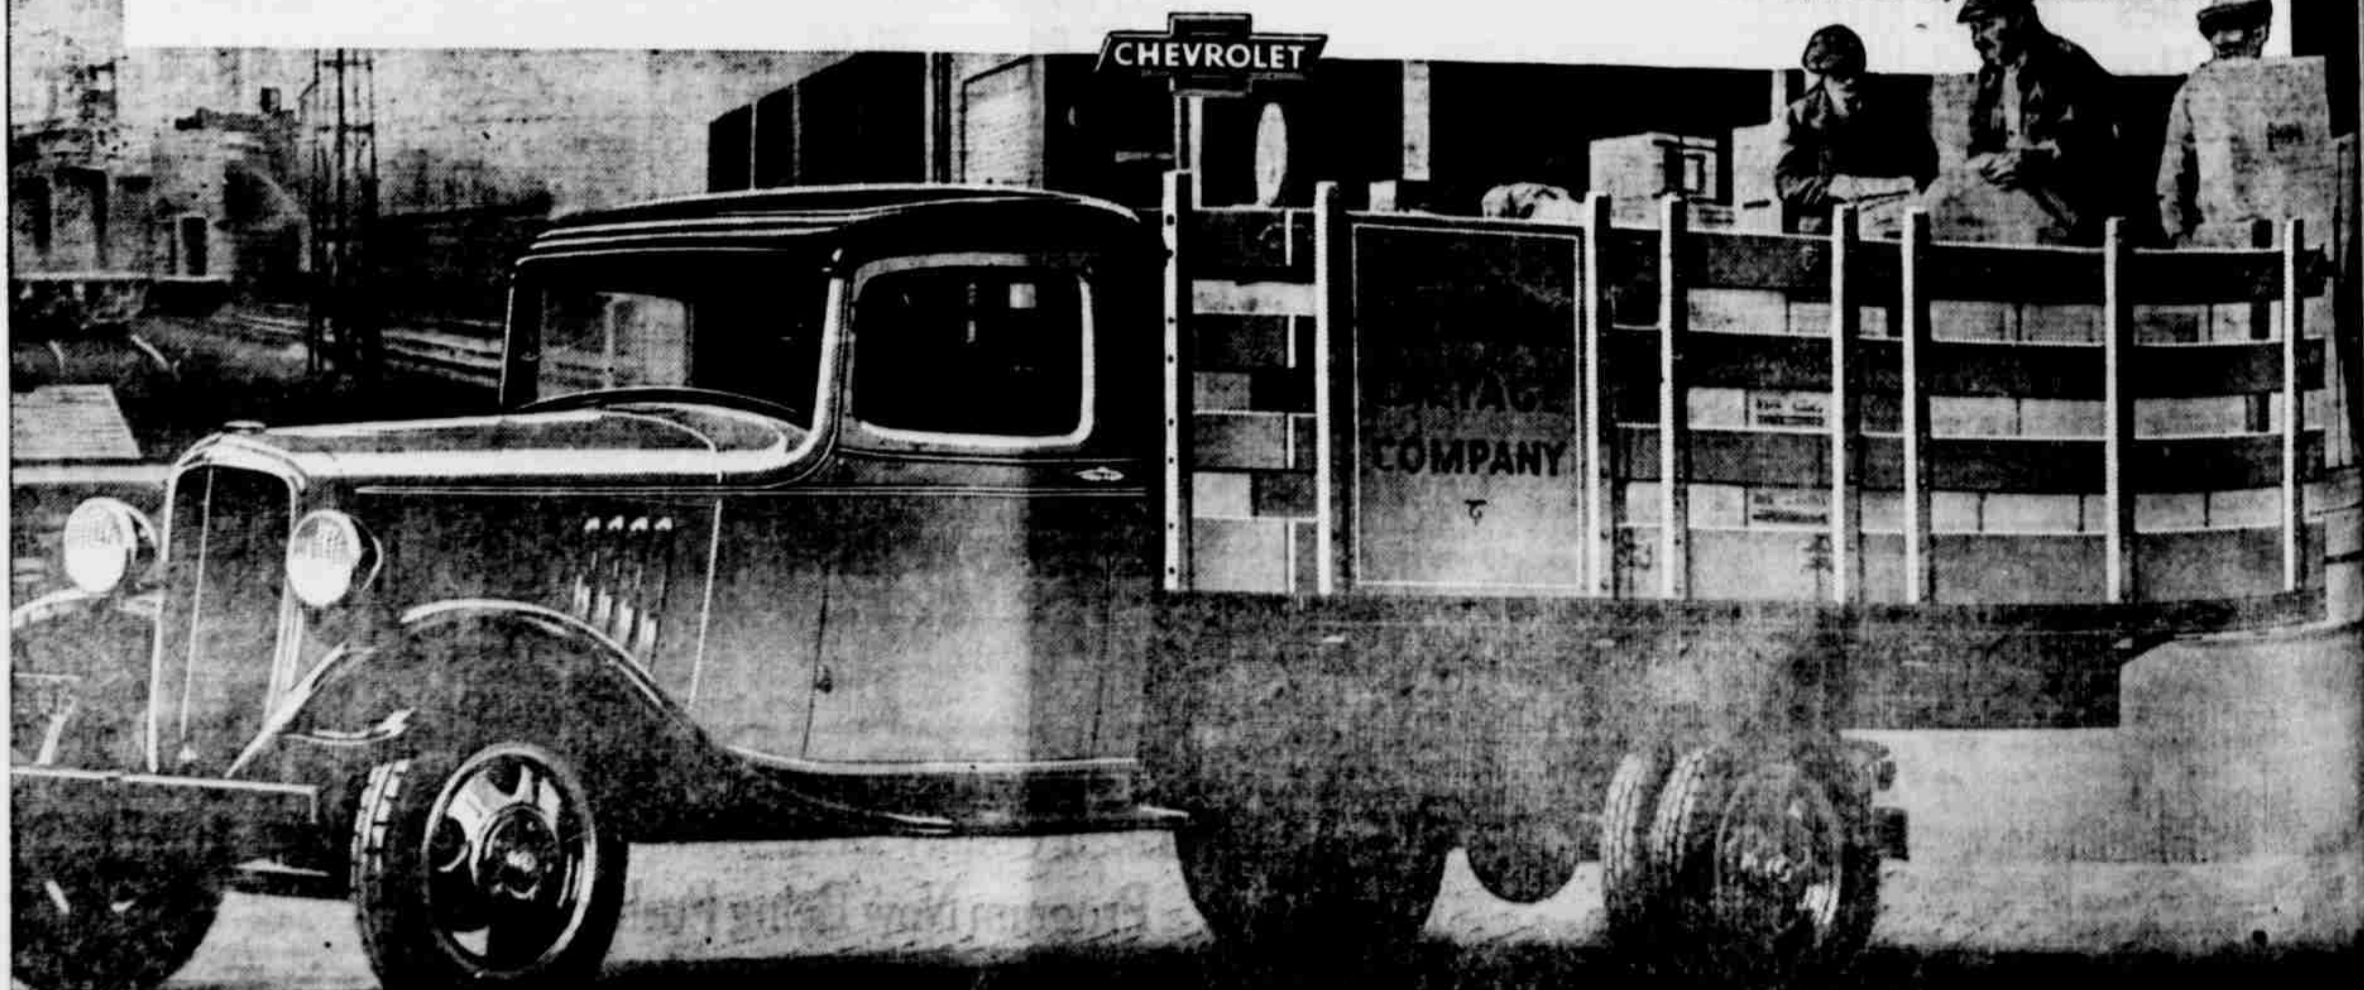

Bigger, huskier models feature an entirely new engine, giving increased power on less fuel than ever!

THE 1934 line of Chevrolet trucks—truck-built for truck service all the way through—feature the Blue-Flame engine—a great new development that will be welcomed by every truck buyer in America. Here are the remarkable facts: The new Chevrolet trucks are even bigger than last year's models—bigger in bodies, with stronger, heavier frames, huskier transmissions and rear axles, and larger brakes. They will deliver more power. They will haul bigger loads than ever. Yet, thanks to the new Blue-Flame engine, operating costs are actually lower than before—and that means the lowest in the hauling field. The net result of all these improvements is a line of trucks like no others on the market—the first to offer such a combination of big capacity, great power and unequalled economy. CHEVROLET MOTOR CO., DETROIT, MICHIGAN

Why the Sudden Change to Liquid Laxatives?

Doctors have shown pronounced value of the liquid laxative, and he must be thus regulated to his need.

The public has been led to the use of liquid laxatives, and have learned that they are more palatable and more effective than movement without any discomfort at the time, or after.

The dose of a liquid laxative can be varied to suit the needs of the individual. The action can thus be regulated. It forms no habit; you need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. Nor will a mild liquid laxative irritate the kidneys.

The wrong cathartic may often do more harm than good.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a prescription, and is perfectly safe. Its laxative action is based on senna—a natural laxative. The bowels will not become dependent on this form of help. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is at all druggists. Member N. R. A.

Individualized SERVICE

WHEN it comes it is attended by deepest grief, shock, bewilderment. Funeral and burial arrangements must necessarily be hurried and distressful.

That is why it is best to know in advance the qualifications of the mortician, the cost of burials and other details of procedure that can be discussed calmly and free from stress. Such a practice is gaining increasing consideration among far-sighted people and to such understanding we owe our position as Haskell's leading morticians.

G. F. Mullino Asks for Second Term As Commissioner

To the Voters of Precinct One: Having served you as Commissioner for the past thirteen and one-half months I take the privilege of placing my candidacy before you for re-election to this very important office.

In my previous campaign I promised the voters of Precinct One and Haskell County, if elected, I would endeavor to give to the voters a practical, conservative, and economical administration. This I have endeavored to do to the very best of my ability and, in this connection, I respectfully submit my official record as your Commissioner, a matter of public knowledge, as a basis of my candidacy. The records of the Commissioners' Court are open to the public, and I invite all interested voters to investigate these records in my behalf.

In an endeavor to discharge the duties of this office, it has been my intention to be fair, open-minded, and unbiased in the major problems that have confronted the Commissioners' Court. It has been my aim at all times to put Haskell County and her interests first, and I have made an honest effort to protect the interests of the voters and taxpayers of Precinct One and Haskell County.

I believe that my past experience as your Commissioner and the experience that I will gain before my present term of office expires will enable me to render better and more efficient service, if elected, both in road building and maintaining of roads and in other matters of vital importance to the voters and taxpayers that come under the jurisdiction of the Court.

I want to thank each and every voter who cast a vote for me in the last election, and assure you that your vote and influence, as well as your co-operation has been appreciated. I ask for a continuation of your support, and I kindly ask all my friends who did not support me in the previous election to give my candidacy their careful consideration.

It is my intention to see and make personal contact with every voter in Precinct One before the July Primary.

G. F. MULLINO.

H. F. Grindstaff Asks Re-election as District Attorney

To the Voters of the 39th Judicial District:

In announcing for re-election to the office of District Attorney, I am fully aware of the increased responsibilities and the increased amount of work of the office. I realize that the District Attorney's office is a position of great responsibility and vital importance to the people at this time.

I was appointed to the office of District Attorney in 1931, and offered for election in 1932, and now offer for this, my second elective term.

I feel that I am more capable of meeting the responsibilities of the office than when I first entered upon the duties.

My fair degree of success has in a large measure been due to the co-operation of juries, grand juries, and helpers. I shall strive for a continuation of that co-operation, for co-operation and friendship go hand in hand, and someone has said "The greatest of all earthly possessions is the friendship of those we meet along the way." This past term has left impressions of friendship for which I am grateful.

If I am permitted to serve you another two years, I shall give my work the same careful attention that I have heretofore.

Every individual shall have a careful hearing, the lowliest man or woman shall receive the same courteous treatment as the rich and powerful. And I shall strive for the rights of all.

I shall ever hold the principle that I am merely a trustee to perform certain functions under and in accordance with the law. I shall be loyal to the law and its intent. I shall ever glorify and hold in the greatest esteem, the home, the school, and the church.

Assuring you of my grateful appreciation for your past co-operation, and sincerely trusting that I may have the benefit of your valued support and confidence, I remain,

Henry F. Grindstaff.

Mr. Leflar states that if the voters see fit to elect him, that he will fill the office to the best of his ability, honestly, efficiently, and with due consideration to all. He asks that the voters give his candidacy their earnest consideration, and is willing to abide by their verdict.

He will endeavor to see as many of the voters as possible before the election is held, and place his claims before them personally. In the meantime, he asks that you keep his candidacy in mind.

We are authorized this week to place the name of R. H. Davis in our announcement column as a candidate for Justice of the Peace of Precinct No. 1, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary in July.

Before the primary is held, Mr. Davis will endeavor to discuss his candidacy with as many of the voters as possible, and in the meantime solicits your careful consideration of his candidacy.

The kind of garden seed best adapted to West Texas was discussed by the ladies of the Midway H. D. Club and a tile demonstration was given by Miss Reed, H. D. Agent, who met with Mrs. Paul Frierson in an all day meeting on Tuesday, February 20.

During the early part of this month plant spinach (Bloomsdale Savoy for fresh and Bloomsdale Long Standing for canning.) English Peas (Early Alaska and Thomas Laxton). Carrots (Danvers half long or Chautenay). Beets, (Detroit dark red), Onions (Bermuda for fresh, Austration brown for storing), Radish (Scarlet Globe, round Charities Globe, long) Turnips (Surgom, lice resistant, Purple Top), Irish Potatoes (Bliss Triumph, Irish Cobbler), set out cabbage (Jersey Wakefield, Copenhagen market) from hot bed. Set out Lettuce (Ice berg or Big Boston) from hot bed.

The Red Cherry or Red Peach is the best tomato for West Texas. They are small but they will bear and their fruit is excellent for juice, for canning, and for salads.

According to a statement made by Mrs. Date Anderson, the Boston Pickling or Chicago Pickling is the best cucumber to plant. From fifteen vines she canned forty quarts besides what was used fresh.

The following ladies each brought a "dish" and enjoyed luncheon together.

Movies Destroy Sanctity of Sabbath

In writing these articles we are making no fight on personalities. It is a fight against an institution that is destroying the sanctity of marriage, the sanctity of the Sabbath, undermining the church and lowering the moral standard of the American people. This institution is doing more to destroy modesty and cultivate familiarity between the sexes than all other evils combined. It seems to care nothing for the Lord's Day (Rev. 1:10) nor for growth and success of the churches. If this institution, with its wolfish nature, is about to face the evils of which it is guilty, it will seize the clothing of a sheep, attire itself and speak of church and church attendance, but in the very next act, you can hear the snarl, see the teeth and the tusks as they fasten themselves in the virtue of womanhood. But in the face of these truths, this institution insists that it has a right to operate even on the holy Sabbath day.

What was the show that followed on the heels of the preaching services last Sunday night? "Flying Down to Rio" was the title. A large poster on the wall of one of our public buildings tells the story. The big poster was about 7x14 feet and revealed the figures of twenty-five women, several of them life-size, and not one of them had a rag on as large as a small pocket handkerchief. These nude women were placed in every conceivable position in order to be suggestive to the vulgar. What a show! Yes, what a show to be shown on the Day that Christ rose for the redemption of poor, lost humanity. May God help us to wake up and rise up against such an institution. If preachers, deacons, elders, stewards and all the rest of us can look upon and permit our children to look upon such posters for a whole week without protest, then it is a certain token that we belong to that class so vividly described in Jude 17-19. Yet, this institution seems to think that six days are not enough in which to carry on this work of destruction, but it demands the use of the Lord's Day to destroy the principles of Christianity.

May we love Christ more than money and such sinful indulgence and rise up to protect His Day. Will the Lord's people give the Lord's Day to the movie to wreck the Lord's work? A vote against the movie is a vote for Jesus.

A Methodist friend wrote an encouraging letter and enclosed one dollar to help pay for this space. Thanks.

ed age when fat, grey hair, colorless complexions, straight hair, and misfit clothing are so easily remedied.

If you are approaching forty with misgivings—don't. Mr. Walter Pitkin's "Life Begins at Forty" may well be true for you if you will face your mirror with an unbiased mind. If you've treated yourself fairly you'll see a bright and shining reflection, but if you have a dull, jaundiced appearance and eyes are lack luster, you'd better heed these danger signals.

Try to have an occasional day in bed when telephones and door bells means nothing in your life. Relax completely—and do things to your face—it works like magic.

If you are as busy as the proverbial cranberry merchant, and can't spare a whole day, why not an hour in your beauty shop where you can relax and receive the professional treatment you need? It eases jumpy nerves as well as stimulates locally. This is a grand tonic when you're feeling low. Try it.

Round, fat faces require a tailored mode, no fluffiness, and a well tapered neckline. A diagonal wave in the back gives height.

Hair can be worn back of the ears only if they are small and well shaped.

THE LITTLE FELLOW PAYS

It took only three years of the depression to reduce the number of reported million dollar incomes in the United States from 513 to 20. Income tax statistics just released by the Internal Revenue Bureau show that in 1929 there were 38 persons in this country with incomes of more than $5,000,000 yearly. Figures for 1932 show there were none in this category. Of the 20 fortunates reporting in the millionaire class 12 were just inside the charmed circle; three were below $2,000,000, three were below $3,000,000 and two below $5,000,000. Figures for 1929 show more than half of the 513 reporting million dollar incomes received in excess of $2,000,000.

Strange as it may seem the real standby of the tax collector both in 1929 and 1932 was the fellow who made less than $5,000 yearly. The 513 millionaires paid taxes on a total net income of $1,212,098,784, while the little fellows with incomes under $5,000 reported on and paid on a grand net total of $8,106,000,000. In spite of the fact that the millionaire incomes dropped to less than one twenty-fifth in 1932, the little fellow with less than $5,000 a year continued to report and pay taxes on a net total income of $7,112,000,000. It will be remembered that recent investigations disclosed that many wealthy individuals had evaded the payment of large amounts of taxes while the little fellow who could not afford expert counsel stepped up and paid. This may account for a part of the shrinkage in the millionaire class.

TO REGULATE STOCK EXCHANGE

Some uproar may arise in certain quarters over the President's request for legislation for the regulation of stock exchanges, but it will be welcomed by the general public, especially by the small investor who has been unmercifully skinned in the past.

In the words of Chairman Fletcher, of the Senate Banking Committee, who introduced a regulatory bill in the Senate, the legislation is designed "to make stock exchanges market places for investors and not places of resort for those who would speculate or gamble."

No one unless he has an axe of his own to grind, can quarrel with such an object.

Provisions of the restrictive legislation, as summarized by the press, appear reasonable and eminently fair. Registration of all exchanges with the Federal Trade Commission is required, the commission having broad power to promulgate rules for their operation. This is the prime object of the administration measure.

Other provisions of the proposed legislation cannot help but meet with general public approval. Among them is one fixing a minimum marginal limitation of 60 per cent, and another placing severe restrictions on borrowing by exchange members and their use of customers' securities, including the requirement that loans on registered securities must be made from Federal Reserve banks.

The objection may be advanced that the proposed legislation may have the effect of curtailing the volume of business in securities, but legitimate business cannot suffer by reason of the proposed legislation.

Warning—It is nearly time for out-of-town clothing representatives to "make" Haskell and do their best to convince the men that they should order suits, because of better quality and lower price. Those persons having purchased suits in the past from such people won't have to be told that you can't beat the other fellow's game. Besides the stores in Haskell, local tailor shops will sell guaranteed suits that ARE suits and at prices in keeping with quality. Buy everything you possibly can from your home-town merchants. Pat the fellow on the back that pats yours—groceryman, dry goods men, lumbermen, tailors, bankers, insurance men, peanut vendors and, oh yes, newspaper men.

INK SPOTS—Crunch, crunch, go young teeth when a sandstorm hits the country. . . . If grape nuts are eaten because they are rough and good for your teeth, so much sand should provide enough roughness to prevent pyorrhea for 99 years. . . . When the wind is blowing strong, tie yourself to the second floor of the courthouse and hear sounds that will make you believe ten thousand demons are writhing and moaning in anguish. Such ghoulish wails. . . . In case you didn't read it, 750,000 automobile accidents occur annually and 40 per cent of the accidents and 45 per cent of the deaths happen when traffic is lightest, between dusk and dawn. . . . We saw a "funny" paper recently that had been published over 20 years ago and a certain comic strip, featuring a homely wife, with social ambitions, a hen-pecked husband who liked pretty girls and wild parties, was being dished out to the public, exactly as the same artist is doing today. Said artist receives a lot of money for drawing the same old thing, year in and year out. . . . Wonder how many women put down their actual age on the religious census cards distributed by church workers Sunday? . . . And how many men ditto? We didn't. As they say in court, "I can't remember!" . . . Lindbergh went into a "tail-spin" and blundered terribly when he countenanced the sending of that protest to Roosevelt regarding the revoking of air-mail contracts. Anyway, the only part injured was part of his popularity and that sort of thing comes to everyone who manages to hit newspaper front pages. . . . Heard one young man remark that the brisk winds reminded him of March—the men chasing hats and the women keeping their clothing from being blown hither and yon. . . . The new wind-blown styles will receive plenty of cooperation in West Texas! . . . Wonder why it is that you can get up so early on Sunday morning and then have a whale of a time rousing yourself from slumber on every other morning? . . . One girl in Haskell offered us a few "hot" tips for our column, if we would pay her, but why should we pay anyone for something we don't get paid for ourselves? That girl has been seeing too many newspaper movies, where go-getting "colymists" nonchalantly hand over a five-back note in exchange for an item regarding "Blessed Events!" . . . No, Hortense, the word "flash" was not invented by a famous New York correspondent, but has been used by reputable newspaper for many years. . . . Believe It or Not, when you bathe in Haskell water, you've gotta be plenty dirty for a ring to form around the bath tub! . . . Wonder how men managed for amusement before marble machines were invented?

We were introduced to Gilbert Smith, by Judge Conner, the other day when making one of our rounds of the court house. Mr. Smith is a lawyer now, but in course of the conversation admitted that he formerly served as "printer's devil" in the Free Press office—way back yonder. We also learned of a few incidents that happened to various members of the Free Press staff. It has been said that there's nothing new under the sun, but it was probably said before Lon Pate "worked on" Gilbert, while the "devil" was feeding the Potter press one night. Young Smith had been working hard and was tired—so tired that he went to sleep while feeding the press. Lon heard the youngster when he fell off the press, and threw the lever which stopped the piece of machinery. Was young Smith excused from further work that night? He was not. Lon merely tied the young pressman to the press, so that if he fell again, his falling body would jerk the lever and stop the palpitating Potter.

The Wichita County Bar Association, when in session last week, heard a queer topic discussed between a lawyer and a newspaper man, to this effect: Resolved that lawyers are even more low-down than newspaper men! Whew! Two wew's in fact. The debate was a draw. And here we've been hobnobbing with lawyers, thinking we were moving with the elite. Bring on your whitewings!

SLIPS THAT PASS IN THE NIGHT—In the March issue of Cosmopolitan, Elsie Robinson, noted columnist, writes the story of her life, with the familiar "I" splashed throughout the text—BUT in the picture which reproduces part of her column, in the same magazine, you can easily read where she castigates people as BORES who always talk about themselves!

We received several thrashings when attending grade school from teachers who thought we were "sassy" and had a habit of "talking back," when all the time we were trying to find out things by taking the opposite side of the argument. Well, times haven't changed much. We still get into trouble by asking questions about this and that. We've always heard that there are two sides to a question and have tried to find out why the other side is wrong.

From the number of people who believe they could publish a newspaper better than those who are now trying to do so, the world will never lack for journalists of all types.

Farm Benefits—

ment expenditures made and projected for farm relief under the AAA up to this time are the following: $374,000,000 for the cotton crop reduction and loan programs of 1933 and 1934; $104,200,000 for the wheat crop reduction programs of 1933 and 1934; $316,400,000 for the corn crop reduction and loan programs of 1933 and 1934; $283,700,000 for the hog reduction and hog buying programs of 1933 and 1934; $11,000,000 for the emergency butter buying program of 1933, and $38,000,000 for the tobacco crop reduction program of 1934.

In addition to the above, a recommendation has been made and has just been accepted by the House of Representatives that Congress authorize an appropriation of $200,000,000 to be used, outside of any monies which might accrue from processing taxes levied on cattle and milk, for the relief of the dairy products and beef cattle producers.

Of the estimated total governmental outlay of $1,327,500,000 some $448,000,000 is for loans offered on cotton (exclusive of loans on cotton options) and loans on corn. These loans on the part of the Government will presumably be repaid, provided the price of cotton advances above 10 cents and the price of corn above 45 cents.

The remaining $879,500,000 is also designed by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration to be a self-liquidating commitment, to be covered by the Government through the imposition of processing taxes.

Better System of Credit Expected For 1934 Farmers Under New Plans

The 1934 crop season will mean the beginning of a better system of credit for many farmers who are preparing to finance the year's farming by means of short term loans through the production credit associations which are being organized under the Farm Credit Administration throughout this State.

Under the Farm Credit Administration the Federal Land Bank of Houston will continue to make long term real estate mortgage loans; but the administration is also providing a long-needed system of short-term production credit for farmers and stockmen—loans to be used for producing crops and for the breeding, raising and fattening of livestock. This is a comprehensive credit system and it is designed to be permanent.

Farmers and stockmen in this locality will be served by the Haskell Production Credit Association, chartered on January 2, 1934 to serve producers in Haskell, Jones, Knox and Stoneham counties. About four or five counties is the average size of an association. There is no fixed number of counties standard for all associations, but each must include enough territory to give a volume of business sufficient to secure efficient organization and low cost of operation.

The Haskell Production Credit Association was organized through the cooperation of representative farmers of the counties included, with the assistance of the Production Credit Corporation of Houston. The local association will obtain loanable funds from the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston, which will discount well-secured notes of farmers and stockmen.

A production credit association does not lend Government money. The funds that will be loaned are obtained by the Intermediate Credit Bank which sells short-term bonds, or debentures, to the investing public. In other words, the money is being borrowed to be loaned to eligible farmers to enable them to produce a season's crops. The association is not a charity institution; but a business credit institution for business minded farmers. The purpose is to make loans that farmers can afford to use for a season's operations and which will be repaid at the end of the season. It is a pay-as-you-go plan for agriculture.

Applications for these short-term loans are handled in this territory by V. W. Meadors, Haskell; John Ed Jones, Munday; W. W. Coffman, Goree; Roy Smith, Knox City; J. L. Hill, Jr., Rule; and Warren B. Tayan, Stamford.

Applications will be acted upon quickly when they give a clear financial statement of the applicant's farming condition, listing all assets and liabilities, and estimating net worth. The applicant should name specifically all of his farming assets offered as security for the loan, and give a plan, or budget, showing how he is going to use the loan applied for, and how he is going to repay it.

Primary security for production loans consists of livestock, farming equipment, growing crops, or other personal property most appropriate to secure the loan adequately and make up a chattel mortgage. It is not intended that loans shall be secured primarily by mortgages on real estate. Where this type of security is taken it will be regarded as only additional collateral.

After a farmer's or stockman's application is received his financial statement is checked and the property offered as security for the loan personally inspected by a loan inspector of the association. Regulations about inspection charges and collection may be changed as required by the Production Credit Corporation. Usually no charge will be made for inspection if the loan is not granted.

If the report of the inspector is satisfactory and the loan is approved by the loan committee of the association, the farmer's or stockman's note is endorsed in the name of the association, and sent, along with his credit statement and chattel mortgage, to the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston. If the bank approves the credit statement and the security, it makes funds available to the association and the association sends a check to the borrower immediately.

Each association is capitalized according to the credit needs of the territory it will serve. Most of the capital stock is purchased by the Production Credit Corporation of Houston and this enables the association to begin making loans immediately. Funds derived from the sale of stock to the corporation are used by the local association to purchase high grade collateral, chiefly Government bonds, which are placed with the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston to establish a line of credit, that is, to get the bank to discount the notes of farmers and stockmen which the association has endorsed. Ordinarily the bank will discount well-secured farmers' or stockmen's notes up to five times an association's capital. In this way an association may get all the credit it needs.

"Snake cucumbers are a good variety for this section," said Mrs. J. O. Merchant, president of the Cottonwood Home Demonstration Club at a tile meeting held at her home on Feb. 11. According to Mrs. Merchant about 120 quarts of pickles were canned from ten vines.

A tile demonstration was given by Miss Reed to thirteen members and visitors. This tile is to be used in Mrs. Merchant's tomato garden. According to Miss Reed less water is required than when surface irrigation is practiced.
