He is still my hero, but for quite different reasons now. Superman impressed me because he was invulnerable; Jesus impresses me because He was not. Jesus knew that his flesh would tear when the nails were driven in, yet He still went to the cross for us. Jesus' super miracles still amaze me like they did when I was a boy, but Jesus is my hero for other reasons that are even more amazing to me. After all, which is more amazing, to say "peace be still" to the winds and waves, or "Thy will be done" to God? Which took greater power, to walk on water or to say "Lazarus come forth" or "Father forgive them"? Now we gather around His table, not to remember a comic book hero, but a truly heroic life, and Jesus calls today to share that same life with Him, a life totally emptied of self and totally given to the Father.

(Dave Langford)

We have not fulfilled every duty until we have fulfilled that of being cheerful. Cheerfulness is a friend to grace, putting the heart in tune to praise and "adds something to our fragment of life" . . . By the grace of God, any one of us can be cheerful, contented, joyful and optimistic in outlook . . . And cheerfulness helps to balance things . . . One with a cheerful heart sees cheerful things . . . The habit of viewing cheerfully and thinking about life hopefully can be made to grow in us as any other habit . . . Cheerfulness is the bright weather of the heart.

Between the great things we cannot do and the little things we will not do, the great danger is that we will do nothing. Remember that no one ever left footprints in the sands of time by sitting down. The man who does things makes many mistakes, but he never makes the biggest mistake of all — doing nothing.

There was this church where a box was hung in the doorway. It was used for communications for the pastor. Cranks may put their notes in it, but occasionally it does serve its purpose. One Sunday, the minister preached, by request, a sermon on "recognition of friends in heaven" and during the week the following note was found in the box: "Dear Sir, I should be much obliged if you could make it convenient to preach a sermon on 'recognition of friends on earth' as I have been coming to your

Silverton Public Library News

New in the library is "Voyager," a novel by the author of "Outlander" and "Dragonfly in Amber." These works introduce a reluctant time traveler named Clair Randall, whose wry twentieth-century sensibility meets its match in eighteenth-century Scotland with a gallant young clansman named Jamie Fraser.

On the shelves is a novel by James A. Michener called "Caribbean." The lush islands of the Caribbean have always possessed a special allure—as colonial treasures in days gone by, as vacation retreats today.

Beginning with tribal conflicts on the island of Dominica, "Caribbean" sweeps on to tell of the arrival of Columbus and Spanish control and the English campaign to wrest power away. Then on to the days of buccaneers, sugar plantations, moving up to the present day.

The library is open Tuesday mornings, from 8:30 until 11:30, and Tuesday and Friday afternoons, from 2:00 until 5:00 p.m.

Go Owls, Lady Owls!

Grimland-Garrison Vows Exchanged Here December 18

Miss Jennifer Leigh Grimland became the bride of Walt Lee Garrison in a double-ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Jim Hancock of Plainview at the First Baptist Church in Silverton at five o'clock in the afternoon on Saturday, December 18, 1993.

Parents of the couple are Terry and Sally Grimland of Silverton and Max and Kay Garrison of Canyon. Grandparents of the couple attending the ceremony were Grace Hutsell, Beach, North Dakota; Doris Yates, Peggy and Norman Strange, Pascal and Donny Garrison, and Fern Holt, all of Silverton.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of heavy candlelight satin by Jena. The bodice was appliqued with Alencon lace which was heavily beaded with pearls and iridescent sequins. The wide portrait collar was of Alencon lace and it dipped into a low "V" in the back. There were buttons from the collar to the back waist. Satin roses enhanced the portrait collar. The fitted satin sleeves extended to a point at the wrists. Alencon lace appliques and cut-outs trimmed the sleeves. The bouffant skirt fell from a natural basque waistline. A large candy box bow was placed on the back waistline of the gown, and a satin rose highlighted the bow. Alencon lace appliques were sprinkled over the front of the skirt and down the length of the train. A wide border of Alencon lace studded with pearls and iridescent sequins edged the skirt and cathedral train.

The bride's veil of illusion fell to waist length from a circle of satin rosebuds, pearls and sequins.

For something old and borrowed, the bride wore a diamond and pearl drop necklace given to her mother by her father. She also wore pearl earrings given to her as a wedding gift by her sister, Alison, brother-in-law, Dwain Tipton, and brother, Jeffrey.

Something new was her veil and something blue was her garter, made by Carolyn Lowrey, aunt of the bridegroom.

Attending her sister as matron of honor was Alison Tipton of Lubbock. Bridesmaids were Alena Harral of Encino, New Mexico and Jamie Collinsworth of Perryton. They wore dresses by Alfred Angelo designed of emerald taffeta with tea-length skirts, and long puffed sleeves. The fitted bodices were highlighted with emerald lace and black sequins and a candy box bow in the back. They carried bouquets of cream poinsettias accented with greenery showered with gold and cream ribbon made by the bride's mother.

The flower girl was Miss Caitlin Carson, cousin of the bride, of Houston. Caitlin wore a similar dress by Alfred Angelo with cream lace at the bottom and on the collar.

The ringbearer was Clay Strange, cousin of the groom, of Silverton. The ringbearer's pillow was designed and made by Carolyn Lowrey, aunt of the groom.

Best man was Cody Garrison of Leoti, Kansas, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Todd Firkins of Canyon and Clay Allison of Sheffield.

Guests were seated by Jeffrey Grimland, brother of the bride, Dwain Tipton, brother-in-law of the bride, and Justin Vaughan, cousin of the bride.

Guests were registered by Maria Justice, a friend of the bride.

LaRue Garvin provided Christmas selections at the organ and accompanied Shana Strange when she sang "I Will Go There With You" and Lisa Cherry as she performed "Nobody Loves Me Like You Do."

Mrs. Walt Lee Garrison

Vows were exchanged before the church altar which was decorated to resemble a Christmas tree with gold and crystal decorations. The banisters were adorned with evergreen with tiered votive cups and cream poinsettias.

RECEPTION

The bride's parents hosted a reception following the wedding. Served at the bride's table was a four-tiered candlelight confection with cream roses accenting the cake made by Lee O'Neal. Also served were Christmas punch, mints made by Lana Burson and assorted nuts. Serving refreshments were Cathey Perryman of Matador and Jeanne Milles of Pampa, former classmates of the bride.

Centerpiece on the table was the bride's bouquet of cream poinsettias, pearls and Christmas greenery accented with baby's breath made by the mother of the bride.

The groom's table held an Italian cream cake made by Lee O'Neal, along with coffee. The centerpiece was a counted cross-stitch piece made by Diana Wood, aunt of the groom. Serving refreshments were Shavonne George and Angie Smith, cousins of the groom.

Following a trip to Las Vegas, Nevada, the couple are residing in Stratford, where the groom is a feed delivery foreman at Stratford Feed Yard.

The bride is a 1992 graduate of Silverton High School, and will be attending classes at Frank Phillips College and West Texas A&M University. Her husband is a 1988 graduate of Canyon High School and a 1993 graduate of Texas A&M University.

REHEARSAL DINNER

A rehearsal dinner and party were hosted by Max and Kay Garrison, parents of the groom, on Friday, December 17, at the Country Club in Tulia. Steaks and all the trimmings were cooked by Max Garrison, Bill

Wood and Norman Strange.

BRIDAL COURTESIES

A lingerie party was given by Alison Tipton, Carrie Ann Grabbe, Amy Fuston and Kayla Ramsey.

PRENUPTIAL COURTESIES

Prenuptial courtesies extended to the couple included a bridal shower at the Pioneer Room of First State Bank in Silverton and a bridal shower in the home of Lou Dawson in Canyon.

OUT-OF-TOWN GUESTS

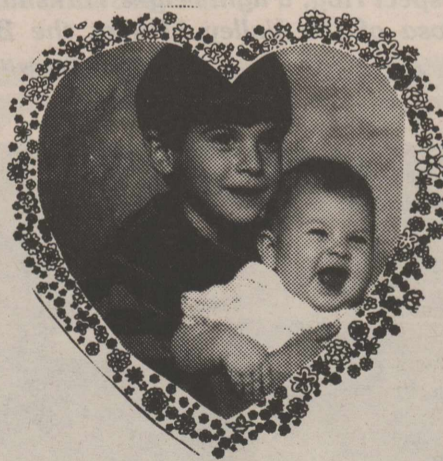

Out-of-town friends and family of the bride attending the wedding included Grace Hutsell, Beach, North Dakota; Claudia Caitlin, Emily and Elliott Carson, Houston; Pamela, Ronnie, Robert, Ryan, Justin and John Vaughan, Coppell; Elliott Hutsell, Dallas; Rick Hutsell, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, and many other out-of-town friends. Boy Scout Troop Named Best in Haynes District

Silverton Boy Scout Troop 262 and Cub Scout Pack 262 outshone the troops from Plainview, Olton, Tulia, Dimmitt and Lockney Saturday night at the annual Haynes District awards banquet.

Scoutmaster Larry Comer was presented the Wendall Patterson Chrome Axe award for having the top troop in all of the district. This award is determined by membership of Boy Scouts, their advancement, Scout spirit, community service and adult leadership.

Comer also received his Woodbadge Beads indicating completion of his Woodbadge training.

Assistant Scoutmaster Rick Minyard was presented the Spark Plug Award and an organizers pin for motivation in his work with Cub Scout Pack 262 and adding a den.

Attending the banquet were Larry and Cindy Comer, Rick and Beverly Minyard, Barry and Michelle Francis and David and Denise Kellum.

Also attending the banquet were Jared, Nathan, Andrew, Caleb and Jacob Francis to honor their grandfather, John McDonough, who was inducted into the Haynes District Hall of Fame.

Appreciation was extended to the Burson family for providing the rendezvous site for a Winter Camporee last weekend, attended by Area Council Troops. The Scouts enjoyed black powder rifle shooting, axe throwing, archery and other competitive endeavors while keeping warm around campfires at Burson's Lake.

Silverton is honored by all the recognition received at the district level, but is even more proud of the advancement of the individual Scouts. They were presented new patches and pins to distinguish their advancement into even higher ranks at a Court of Honor candlelight ceremony and Christmas party on December 20. Troop Guide Cy Comer recognized himself, Desley Kellum, Will Hester and Miles Comer at Star Rank, just two ranks below Eagle. Heath Braddock, Donny Burson and Jared Francis now are First Class Scouts. Ryan Minyard, Martin Younger, Nathan Francis and Aaron Wederski moved up to Second Class rank. Tyler Young and Kevin Duncan were inducted into the Troop as new Scouts. Tyler is the son of Rance and Nancy Young, and Kevin's mother is Connie Henderson. He is the grandson of Doris Yates.

Many of the boys received merit badges for animal science, environmental science and wilderness survival.

The Boy Scouts are gearing up for a ski trip February 11 at Angel Fire. In May they have volunteered to serve barbecue at the Five-Year Anniversary Caprock Jamboree as a community service project.

The office employees and the producers of Briscoe County would like to take this opportunity to thank Alvie for his years of dedicated service. He served a total of 13 years, including a term as Community Committeeman, and in filling a vacancy for another County Committeeman's term.

The newly-elected Community Committeemen from LAA-3 ("C" Community) are Dwain Henderson, Chairman; Perry Brunson, Vice-Chairman, and James Alan Patton, Member. Elected as First Alternate was Zenobia Self. Second Alternate is Rance Young.

ACP SIGNUP

We are currently accepting applications for cost-sharing on conservation practices under the ACP program. Our 1994 ACP allocation has been received. To be eligible for cost-sharing, applications must be approved by the County Committee before the practice is begun.

1994 FARM PROGRAM

Farm yields and bases for 1994 have been mailed to producers. The ACR (set-aside) requirements for all crops except cotton is zero. The cotton ACR requirement is 11%.

The 0/92 and 50/92 options have been replaced with 0/85 and 50/85. These options will be in effect for CU for Pay. You will earn 85% of your Maximum Pay Acres rather than 92% if you choose one of these options. Normal Flex Acreage remains at 15% of CAB, and Optional Flex Acreage at 10%.

CONSERVATION COMPLIANCE

Producers are reminded to contact this office and Soil Conservation Service prior to breaking out any new cropland. Also, if you plan to buy or lease new land, check with SCS to see if the land is in compliance with the Conservation Plan of Operation (CPO). Farms not in compliance with the CPO will be ineligible for all Federal programs.

FINAL 1993 PAYMENTS

The final 1993 wheat, oats and barley deficiency payments were mailed in December. The wheat final determined rate was $1.03 bu. for grain, and $1.05 bu. for 0/92 designated acres. Final deficiency rates for 1993 cotton, corn and grain sorghum have not been announced.

Producers and researchers got together Thursday, January 20, at the Texas A&M Research and Extension Center north of Lubbock to hear progress reports on projects funded through the State Support Program of Cotton Incorporated (CI) and the Texas State Support Committee (TSSC).

According to Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers (PCG) the CI program was set up to provide five percent of CI's annual operating budget to producers in cotton belt states to fund cotton-related research and promotion activities.

Projects presented for review during the day-long meeting received funding in 1993 through the TSSC. A total of 25 projects were reviewed that seek to find answers to a number of important

My Home Town — Silverton

by Rex Douglas

(Editor's Note: This essay was written years ago and was found printed in a 1974 issue of the Briscoe County News.)

In the heart of the Great Plains of Texas is situated my home town—Silverton—which claims as her heritage one of the most romantic histories of any town in West Texas.

It was near Silverton that General Mackenzie fought the famous Mackenzie Battles with the Comanche Indians that forever ended the power of the redman.

It was near here that Charles Goodnight started his career as one of the most noted of Texas' Frontiersmen.

There are many legends regarding lost mines and buried gold near Silverton. The buried gold—supposedly—was the loot of Mexican bandits.

Several miles west of town are to be found scores of well preserved fossils. Several heretofore unknown species have been unearthed and are now on display at the Panhandle Plains Museum at Canyon, Texas.

Recently Fuller's Earth has been discovered in abundance near my home town. Fuller's Earth is a rare specie of clay necessary in the refining of oil.

Nature has endowed the county surrounding my home town with vast rolling plains, waving grass, beautiful canyons and scenic drives, the brightest sunshine, an unlimited supply of pure, fresh water, invigorating air, and a cool and soothing breeze. Why, even the sandstorms come to us laden with rich soil from Kansas and Nebraska.

With these assets and an elevation of something near three-fourths of a mile, my locality is adapted to the growing of wheat, cotton, grain sorghums and questions facing the cotton industry.

Reports were presented on projects ranging from efforts to remove gossypol from cottonseed to developing improved pest management and cultural strategies for cotton production.

TSSC Vice Chairman Larry Nelson, a cotton producer and ginner from Edmonson, notes that several of these projects also were approved by the committee for further funding in 1994 and are therefore only partially complete. He adds that TSSC members will be meeting in the near future to select projects for funding in 1995.

Funding request totaling close to $600,000 were approved for 1994. Of that total, $160,000 will fund projects specific to the High Plains and $340,000 will go to projects of interest statewide. The remaining funds will be divided among other cotton production regions to fund additional regional projects.

CAPROCK COTTON CONFERENCE

A number of outstanding opportunities to hear about what is going on in agriculture and the cotton industry on the High Plains presented themselves January 25-26 during the Caprock Cotton Conference, which was held in the Pioneer Memorial Museum in Crosbyton.

Plains Cotton Growers officials note that producers and other interested parties attending the conference had a chance to hear Texas Commissioner of Agriculture Rick Perry, Congressman Charles Stenholm and others discuss issues facing agriculture. Extension Cotton Specialist Kater Hake and a number of other researchers from the Texas Agricultural Extension Service spoke the second day and discussed a variety of production and insect management issues.

Lotto Texas Nets Nearly $720 Million in Prizes

"From $3 to $38.6 million, Lotto Texas players won 18 million prizes in 1993 worth a total of nearly $720 million."

Towns are like people: the same individuality which marks success in people also distinguishes towns.

Too often men misjudge success to be their possession of wisdom, ambition and wealth. But, indeed, were this the measure of success those of us who have not the wisdom of Solomon, nor the ambition of Napoleon, nor the wealth to rival the staggering heights of Croesus's fortune, must wail aloud defeat. But neither wisdom, ambition, nor wealth are the attributes which make men happy. So with towns, 'tis not their vastness, their towering buildings, their rush of suffocating crowds that monument their worth, but, rather, the kind of people who live within her limits.

The cornerstone of my home town was not built through the idealistic dreams of capital, but rests on a firmer foundation of faith, friendship, and fidelity in her fellowman. Here people were not lured by booms and adventure, but, just as every soul yearns for a home where he can live and serve humanity, and be at peace with God and man, so our people came to Silverton to make that kind of a home. With that aim in mind throughout its history, the old time spirit of neighborliness and hospitality has been characteristic of its people. They have followed the policy of Live and Let Live. No stranger goes friendless or begging within her limits.

To make Silverton a more pleasant place in which to live, her citizens have provided modern conveniences—electricity, gas, paved streets, water and a fine school with 26½ credits of affiliation and fifteen teachers of the very finest type. There are also five churches that exercise a wholesome effect upon the lives of the people in my community.

Now, friends, in the true spirit of one West Texan to another, I entreat you to come to my home town, where the cool night breeze after a hot summer day makes you forget all your troubles, where there is nothing to mar your vision of Texas' most beautiful landscapes, where the sunshine kills all gloom, and where there awaits you a welcome as broad as her boundless ranges.

million," Nora Linares, Acting Executive Director of the Texas Lottery Commission said.

"After the 104th Lotto drawing of 1993 on Wednesday night, we were ready to wrap up what has been a tremendous year for Lotto players," Linares said. "In fact, we've paid one prize for every man, woman and child in Texas, an average of more than 170,000 winning tickets for every drawing.

"In addition, players now have more than 11,000 retail locations at which to buy tickets—and redeem most winners."

Lotto highlights for 1993 included:

★ A total of 87 players won a jackpot prize for matching all six of the winning numbers randomly selected during the Wednesday-and-Saturday drawings. Their prizes totaled nearly $551 million, for an average of $6.3 million each. The largest jackpot prize was the $38.6 million won by Rebecca Brown of Irving on September 8. (The other jackpot winners of $10 million or more are listed at the end of this article.)

★ The Lotto jackpot reached $50 million twice, including the May 1 drawing, when a record 14 lucky players split the jackpot prize.

★ Since the advent of Quick Pick on May 29, 15 of the 42 jackpot winners have been Quick Pick tickets, in which the Lottery's computer randomly selects the player's six numbers.

★ More than 17,200 winners matched five of the six lucky numbers for a combined prize total of $25.5 million. The average 5-of-6 prize was $1,481, and the largest was the $6,923 paid on March 6.

★ More than 920,000 winners matched four of the six winning numbers for a combined prize total of $91.7 million. The average 4-of-6 prize was $100, and the largest was the $248 paid on March 6.

★ More than 17 million tickets matched three of the six winning numbers to collect the guaranteed $3 prize.

★ On May 1, nearly one million players matched three or more of the winning numbers (7-10-11-23-34-43) to win prizes ranging from $3 to $3.5 million.

In addition to Rebecca Brown, the other Lotto jackpot winners of more than $10 million included Arjustice Morris, Caldwell; Allen Haynes, Houston; Robert Morales, San Antonio; Rick Wilson, Loneoke, Arkansas; Lynette Nichols, Dallas; Janie Elizalde, Corpus Christi; Welmore Trust, Midland; Leonard Trapp, Dallas; Pedro Quezada, Fort Worth; Edith Baker, Arlington; Vuth Tem, Houston; Emmett Neal, Lubbock.

TIMES OF TROUBLE CAN BRING OUT THE BEST IN ALL OF US

We have just completed a year that those of us who survived it will not soon forget. In addition to the man-made calamities of war and economic recession, we saw an incredible parade of natural disasters throughout the world. There were floods, along with tornadoes and other killer storms; as well as earthquakes and volcanic eruptions. For the answers to why these things happen, go to your House of Worship. There you will learn that misfortune can bring out the best in us, causing us to forget our own problems and pursuits while we help our neighbors in trouble. This is true of nations as well as individuals. God has been reminding us of the power of His universe, and helping man to develop an unselfish capacity for dealing with it.

He who helps in the saving of others Saves himself as well.
