Jones Co. Entry Swamped 27 to 0 In Game There; Indians Ramping

Scouting the Stamford high school football team 27 to 0 last week, the Haskell Indians, local school football representatives are sharpening their tommyhawks this week in preparation for the Roscoe team Friday—a formidable football

The stalwarts from Roscoe held the Rotan team, conference leaders, to a 0 to 0 score. Local fans will remember that the said Rotan players smeared the Indians to the tune of 26 to 0.

On the face of things, it would appear that the Indians have another bitter pill to swallow, but the "edge" may be upset. On the strength of their showing against Elmira and Stamford, followers of the Haskell entry believe that the team that met Rotan a few weeks ago is fighting and playing an entirely different brand of football today.

In their last two appearances, the Indians have impressed everyone as being Indians on the warpath instead of the blanket-making reservation type.

If that word will crop in) the Indians battle in such fashion as they are capable of, the Roscoe boys will have their hands full in keeping the local lads from scampering off with victory Friday.

The Missouri Hill Billies Featured On PTA Program

Under the sponsorship of the North Ward P. T. A., the Missouri Hill Billies will give two performances, matinee and night, in this city Saturday December 2, in the High School auditorium.

The above mentioned entertainers are staff artists for radio station WFAA, Dallas.

The Missouri Hill Billies will give their usual style of performance, so local sponsors state.

Recent 3.2 Election Goes Almost 2 to 1 For a "Dry" Haskell

With almost a 2 to 1 majority, 81 to 91, Haskell legal voters stated in unmistakable terms in favor of a dry Haskell at the recent election held for the purpose of determining the wishes of the voters.

Night Ride Prelude to 'Triangle Tragedy'

A strange drama of the old, old triangle, beginning with a wea-small-hour ride, had ended with Mrs. L. W. Boone passing judgment upon an alleged rival for the affections of her husband by shooting Mrs. Pearl Hall to death as the husband looked on. Mrs. Boone, with the aid of a friend, lured Mrs. Hall to the Boone apartment in Dallas at 3:30 in the morning. "Hello, Dan," said Mrs. Hall. "She knows all." Mrs. Boone fired and Mrs. Hall slumped to the floor. "Good-bye, Daddy," she murmured, and died. The Boones have an 8-year-old boy. Boone is a Dallas business man.

C. B. Breedlove, New Director-General, Says Interscholastic League Helps

The Interscholastic League of this county offers the schools this year a wide variety of contests, according to Mr. C. B. Breedlove, recently elected Director General of the organization for the current school year.

"No other extra-curricular activity," he said, "engages the interest and stimulates endeavor along helpful lines more than the contests which are scheduled for the county meets. Here we have an activity for participation in fifteen different fields, both athletic and literary, ranging from the third grade on up to the last year in high school.

"We are advised from the State Office that the Constitution and Rules is ready for distribution and that applications for membership are coming in from schools in all parts of the state. The schools in this county should get in on the ground floor and begin preparations early. Each school that joins is given a copy of the Constitution and Rules, a copy of the current spelling list and is entered for a year's subscription to the Interscholastic Leaguer. Last year nearly six thousand schools joined the League and participated in its work in 220 different counties. There are contests for every class of public school, including rural, ward, and both small and large high schools, and all-round championships are decided in each of the divisions at the county meet."

"THEY NEVER COME BACK" MAY APPLY TO MEN—NOT RED FLANNEL

Red flannel—that badge of flaming hue which has furnished many persons with a theme for a joke, is staging a comeback this fall, if sales at local dry goods stores are a criterion.

More red flannel is being sold this year than in many years, so clerks state, and the demand for the cloth is not diminishing.

While a lot of the material will probably be used in the good, old-fashioned way, despite the weather, thrifty housewives find many other uses for the flannel—which doesn't displease proprietors of dry goods houses.

D. L. Ligon, Rochester, Made Vice-Chairman; J. Leo Southern, Finances

At a joint meeting of the Haskell Service Club and the executive committee of the Boy Scout work in Haskell county, which was held in the basement of the First Methodist Church Tuesday night, French M. Robertson was elected District Chairman for Haskell county and D. L. Ligon, of Rochester, vice chairman. J. Leo Southern was elected financial chairman, who appointed H. C. King, F. L. Daugherty, J. B. Watson, Anton Theis and J. M. Crawford as members of the Finance Committee.

Ed Shumway, Scout executive of the Chisholm Trail Council from Abilene and Abe Krause of Winters were the principal speakers of the evening.

Arrangements were made for a School for Scout Leaders to begin here Monday night and continue for six evenings—the other dates to be selected Monday night. Every man in Haskell who is interested in Scout Work in Haskell county is urged to be present Monday night.

About forty men were present at the meeting. Those from out of town were Messrs. Griffith, Ashley, Carter, Gregor, Reid and Duff of Weintert; Messrs. Ligon and Graham of Rochester; and Messrs. Price, Pillely and Martin from Sagerton.

A financial drive is being made today to take care of the expenses for the year 1934.

LOCAL MERCHANTS WILL CLOSE DOORS ON THANKSGIVING

Petition Will Be Presented To Merchants Next Few Days; Usual Custom

As has been the custom during the past several years, the business firms in Haskell will observe Thanksgiving Day by closing their places of business during the day.

While no petition has been presented as yet to the firms, it is expected that it will be done in the next few days, and that it will call for the closing of all types of business places through the entire day.

Pie Supper at Howard Friday Night

A pie supper will be given at the Howard schoolhouse Friday night, Nov. 24th, for the benefit of the school.

Dry Goods Houses Advertise Host of Bargains in Free Press For People

Thrifty Shoppers in County Will Save Money by Reading Free Press Columns

Seasonable merchandise, in clothing and other dry goods, is being offered at reduced prices by various houses in Haskell, and every person within this city's trade area will, undoubtedly, save money by trading here.

A check of the prices being asked for merchandise in the Haskell stores in comparison with the stores located in other cities shows that item for item, the merchants in this city are asking a lower price for the article.

Practically every store in this city is endeavoring to help the customers stretch their dollars as far as possible, and are only charging a fair profit in order to stay in business. Only in isolated cases will any profiteering be found.

During the past two or three weeks the columns of the Free Press has carried advertisements from those merchants who are asking only a fair profit, and who are not averse to letting the customer know the prices before they step into the store.

Turkey growers of Haskell county are being urged by H. K. Henry to meet at the Haskell county courthouse on Monday afternoon at 2 p. m., November 27th. At that time the Christmas pool will be formed and a marketing committee appointed. It is hoped and urged by those sponsoring the move, that every grower of turkeys will attend the meeting whether he intends to pool or market independently.

RED & WHITE STORES PLANNING A GREATER USE OF 'NEWSPAPER' ADVERTISING FOR YEAR 1934

Unusual offerings are being made the people of this section this week in food specials for Thanksgiving by the Red & White Stores, so the managers of the two stores state.

As outlined elsewhere in this issue, the managers have chosen items peculiarly adapted to Thanksgiving needs.

No attempt was made to confine extra-specials on food for Thanksgiving, it was stated, but most of these were chosen for their appropriateness. The usual low prices will prevail on other merchandise as well.

TURKISH FLAG FORMED MONDAY NIGHT BY THE MOON AND STAR VENUS

Those Haskell persons who do not go to bed at the time chickens do probably witnessed an unusual sight Monday night, if they looked towards the solar system instead of into each other's eyes, because the moon and the star Venus were in such close accord they made almost a perfect Turkish flag.

Apparently the star appeared to be right in the moon.

On the following night they were a considerable distance apart, because the moon is traveling eastward much faster than Venus. It will probably be many years before the sight will again be seen.

LOCAL NRA BOARD RELEASES NOTICE FROM S. H. AVERY

District Compliance Director, at Dallas, Says All Should Post "Group"

Sherwood H. Avery, District Compliance Director, Dallas, Texas, has just sent to R. E. Sherrill, chairman of the Haskell Compliance Board the following ruling with instructions to have same published in your home paper:

"Every retail store must post, and keep posted in a conspicuous place, a notice indicating the group under which it is operating. The notice should include store hours and the basic work week of its employees.

Non-compliance with this provision is considered a violation of Section 2 of the Retail Code, according to Mr. Avery. Suggestion has been made that stores should also post a copy of the wage and hour provisions of the Code.

The following form, suggested for use by the employers, appeared in the National Recovery Administration Retail Bulletin No. 1:

"This store is operating under Group—of the Retail Code. It is open for business—hours per week. The maximum periods of labor for its employees are—hours per week,—per day, and six days per week.

(These maximum hours do not apply to employees specifically exempted by the Retail Code.)"

May we request again that all Compliance Boards, while not actually passing on code complaints, assist would-be complainants in filling out the proper blanks.

All complaints are treated absolutely confidentially. Code complaints should be mailed to this office, Dallas, Texas."

Tom Patterson of the Patterson Brothers Red & White Stores at Jayton was here Wednesday visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Patterson.

HEARINGS ON ALL PROFITEERING TO BE HELD BY NRA

Johnson Says Compliance With Eagle Agreements Lax; Must Be Enforced

WASHINGTON—Hugh S. Johnson came back from his Midwestern swing last week voicing a determination to obtain better compliance with blue eagle agreements and codes and announced at night Dec. 12, NRA would conduct public hearings on charges of profiteering.

Johnson said he had found compliance conditions bad and that steps would have to be taken at once to correct the situation. He took that report to President Roosevelt, when at the luncheon table he described in detail his findings on a ten-day speaking trip that took him from Chicago and Minneapolis as far south as Port Worth.

The profiteering investigation, at which anybody's complaint that is backed up by suitable evidence will be received, was announced as purely a fact finding inquiry at which all interested parties will be given ample opportunity for the preparation and presentation of any facts bearing on the subject.

At the hearings individual complainants will have a chance to lodge complaints against retailers and any of the latter who have grievances against manufacturers likewise will be allowed to do so.

HASKELL MEN ATTEND MEET AT CAPITAL

Relief Representatives from All 254 Counties in State Hear of F. D.'s Plans

WESTBROOK SPEAKS

Work Already Underway to Good Start in Haskell; Pay Is 40 Cents Hour

With Tom Donohoo, Judge Chas. M. Conner, Commissioners T. M. Mapes and O. L. Darden, and Joe A. Brooks, in attendance at the state relief meeting held this week in Austin, over which Lawrence Westbrook, state director of the civil works program presided, plans were made whereby additional projects for Haskell county are expected to be launched in the next few weeks for the benefit of the unemployed in this county.

Governor Miriam Ferguson, and her husband Jim Ferguson, spoke to the assembly, composed of state civil works directors and assistants, from all of the 254 counties in the state.

The unemployed relief work was launched immediately last week upon notification from the President. At first it was stated that the men would be paid at the rate of 30 cents per hour for eight hours, with four days work to each man, but a telegram was received late Wednesday night notifying Donohoo that the men should receive 40 cents per hour and work 10 hours. This was later amended to an eight hour schedule.

So far as it has been possible, the unemployed relief machinery in this county has moved on schedule and early projects completed in the county.

While practically all of the men being employed are eager to work, and to give a full day's work for the pay, there are a few isolated cases where a few men seem to care very little about working, although thoughts of the money has an appeal. These men will receive short shrift from local directors.

On the whole, the negro men seem to appreciate the work more than anyone, and count themselves very lucky to get it. The spouse of one negro man complains that her husband talks of nothing but his job—and even awakened her the other night just to tell her he couldn't sleep because he kept thinking of that "fo' dollars a day."

Westbrook is authority for the statement that the entire unemployment relief work in Texas will be pushed as quickly as it is humanly possible.

Seymour Lawyer is Candidate for Post of Representative

Seymour, Baylor county, Texas, will furnish one Candidate for State Representative for the 113th District of Texas. Hon. Dick Dresser of Seymour, Texas, will be a candidate for State Representative of the 113th District. He stated Saturday that he would be a candidate and would, in the near future, make formal announcement stating his platform.

A Bachelor of Laws degree was obtained by Mr. Dresser June 2nd, 1915 from Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn. and he also attended Baylor University, Waco, Texas, and he has been in the active practice of the law graduation with the exception of 27 months spent in the National Army during the World War. He is now engaged in the practice of law in Seymour, Texas, and served Baylor county as its County Attorney for a period of three years. He is a native Texan and has been active in the progress of Community, State and Nation, and is well versed in the needs and problems confronting Texas and her people. He is a life long democrat.

These Christmas Candies Should Make Ideal Present To Give Away

If you are going to make candy to give away at Christmas, you will need certain cooking utensils and accessories which are not usually needed in home cookery. While these recipes are simple, and do not call for a candy thermometer, more accurate results in candies of the fondant type will be had with a thermometer.

A double boiler (aluminum), as well as a good saucepan of the same metal; a wooden spoon, and metal spoon are needed; shallow tin pans for cooling the candy; and waxed paper to wrap it, especially caramels. No box of candy should be packed without layers of waxed paper between the layers of candy; and the sticky types of candy warped, each piece separately, in a small square of waxed paper. Taffy is wrapped in a twist of paper. This year with colored cellophanes and papers on the market, a very attractive box is easily made.

For the more intricate types of candies—fondants dipped in chocolate coating, and other fancy types—a candy recipe book is recommended. And as in all specialized cookery, the directions must be carefully followed as to kind of utensils, time, temperature, and all detail of handling.

Mexican Panocha

Four cups brown sugar; one cup sweet milk; one eighth teaspoon salt; one tablespoon vanilla; two cups chopped hickory nuts, or pecans; one tablespoon butter.

Use an enameled kettle for this, and mix in it the sugar, milk and salt, and cook over a slow fire until it sugars around the edge of the pan. Then add the butter, nuts and vanilla and remove from the heat, stir rapidly and pour into pans rubbed with butter.

Mexican Fudge

Four cups sugar; one cup milk; one cup grated coconut; one additional cup of grated coconut; one additional cup of sugar.

Heat together the four cup of sugar with the one cup of milk, boiling over a slow fire until it is sugary on the side of the kettle. Add the tablespoon of butter, and stir in and boil very gently the coconut. Meanwhile caramelize the other cup of sugar in an aluminum or iron skillet, (simply melt in dry skillet until brown and liquid). Add the caramel to the fudge mixture, remove from the fire, mix well, beat until creamy. Pour into buttered tins. Cut in squares.

Coconut Candy

Six cups light brown sugar; one cup milk; one teaspoon butter; one cup grated coconut. Boil the sugar, milk and butter together until it sugars around the sides of the kettle. Then add the coconut, beating rapidly, and let boil again. Remove and beat until thick. Drop in spoonfuls on waxed paper. Let cool.

There really is no need to say to the bride, "with all my worldly goods I thee endow." She'll get them anyway.

New Mid Club Members Realize Value of H-D Work

Estimated in terms of dollars and cents the 14,804 pounds of food canned by the 20 cooperators and 2 demonstrators of the New Mid Home Demonstration club is worth $2,978.80. There are 22 club members working on the live-at-home program and these members have aided 35 non-club members with some phase of Home demonstration work. The following is a summary of the accomplishments in farm food supply demonstration: 13 provided a pantry in which to store home canned products, 3 started tested recipes files, and 214 pounds of dried vegetables stored, $200 pounds cheese made at home.

In addition to the farm food supply demonstration work was done in bedroom improvement and clothing: 6 improved walls by papering or painting; 3 improved floors by staining or painting; 9 added new draperies, 6 refinished furniture, 3 built new clothes closets, 1 made hooked mat; 11 added new mattresses, and 18 added to the linen supply.

The clothing reports shows 9 foundation patterns made, 11 improving storage space and a total of 298 garments made at home.

This according to records kept by Mrs. Floyd Hutchens, club secretary, is a complete report of work done by the New Mid Home Demonstration Club.

The Story of My 4-H Club Work (By Pearl Lee)

I joined the Post 4-H Club in 1930. When I joined this club I had a desire to accomplish something, but I did not know how to begin. I took poultry for my demonstration the first year. I thought that I could do better by doing something that I already knew about. That year I gained something, if nothing but experience.

In my second year I decided to try something that I knew nothing about—food preservation. That year I canned 300 quarts of fruits, vegetables, and preserves. I decided, right then, that I liked the work and the goal that I was striving for (not only to preserve food, but to learn something new every time I canned a jar.) That year I gained some experience; but most of all—I developed confidence in myself. I have added very much to the home life during these two years both improving exterior and interior.

In 1932 I decided to be a garden demonstrator and I wanted to do the food preservation work. I cared for the garden and planted many different vegetables and had some kind of leafy or green vegetable until frost.

I attended the meat show at Lubbuck and gained much valuable information about meat which made me want to try meat canning. Mother knew something about it, so we worked together and canned a beef for ourselves and also five for the neighbors, since mother was too busy to help with the canning she said she would let me do all the canning. With the help of my sisters in getting the vegetables ready to be canned I preserved about 750 quarts of fruits and vegetables for our family and about 250 for neighbors. I filled out a budget card for the family of five. This showed what the family should have to have a balanced diet. The fruits and vegetables canned consisted of about 32 different varieties. I had very little time for making the interior of the house more attractive but the yard was improved. With the help of my sisters we kept the household in good order. The yard was kept clean and some type of flower was kept growing the year around. Dad fixed me a good place in the cellar for storing the food. In addition to fruits and vegetables, I helped to can about 300 cans of meat, making a total of about 1500 cans that year.

This year a club was organized at Rose and I joined it. I was away from home, in school and unable to plant or plan the family garden. After school was out I cared for the and canned vegetables for three other families. We did not have to buy any new cans or jars and we used home made vinegar; so I have estimated that the value of my canning is $69.00.

In my bed room improvement I added more racks and more lines. I also added new curtains and a new bed spread. The room was kept in order and clean.

The purpose of summarizing the three previous years is to show how we can climb nearer to our goal by taking one step at a time. I feel like I could tell where one year ended and another began; because the value and experience of one year continues in the others following.

In my yard improvement I have learned that a well cleaned yard with weeds kept out and ever green plantings add very much to the attractiveness.

I have learned how to can the same vegetables different ways. I also learned that when canning in glass jars the variation of temperature will make the juice boil out if the cold air is not driven out of the jar before sealing. I have learned the different kinds of jars and have my own opinion about the best kinds.

I have learned to work quickly and keep things in order as I work. I have learned to do my fitting of patterns and to do my own sewing I have enjoyed my work and also helping others. A lady ask me a few days ago how much I valued my club work and I answered, my club work can not be estimated in dollars and cents only. I have gained experience and that is something that can not be taken away from me.

Heard of a fellow who took the pledge after walking past the snake museum in his cups the other night. Couldn't blame him for thinking he had 'em.

Josselet H. D. Club

Miss Johnnie Reed, H. D. Agent, speaking on "The School Lunch", presented a program for Josselet H. D. club in the home of Mrs. Lee Curry Tuesday November 14th.

She discussed a balanced diet using charts to show the club women what foods should be used to make a balanced diet. She stressed the importance of milk in the child's diet, "he should have a quart daily" she remarked. It may be served in different ways.

Pictures were shown in which the difference in growth could be seen in that of a child who had been fed a balanced diet and of one who had not.

The way in which food is necessary to our bodies was also discussed by the agent.

A school lunch suggested consisted of a meat or cheese sandwich, milk or a milk dish, fruit raw or cooked, a cookie or sweet chocolate. A lunch kit containing a thermos jug in which the lunch, and a hot or cold drink could be packed was shown the group.

"Have a surprise in lunch each day", Miss Reed suggested. Sandwich spread recipes were given by the agent and by members in answering roll call.

Gib Gilchrist, State Highway engineer, cut the ribbon before a great throng to officially open the new road.

Herman Pittman Is An Active Member Horned Frog Band

FORT WORTH—Herman Pittman of Haskell is an active member of the Horned Frog Band at Texas Christian University this year. Pittman plays the trumpet in T. C. U.'s most active musical organization. The band has made three football trips this fall—to Shreveport, Waco and Austin. Military drills and letter formations of the field between halves have been stressed this year, and the band has attracted much favorable comment. "The 1933-34 Horned Frog Band is one of the best musical organizations that the university has ever had," says Prof. Claude Samis, the director. "The instrumentalization is almost perfect, and we have first-class musicians in the first chairs in every section." The Horned Frog Band is also the official band of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce. Convention trips are made each year for these organizations. This year the band hopes also to make a concert tour.

C. B. Breedlove Placed On Honor Roll At McMurray

Abilene. (Special)—Among the thirty-five students named on the honor roll at McMurray College at the close of mid-semester examinations was C. B. Breedlove, freshman student, and son of Superintendent and Mrs. C. B. Breedlove of Haskell. Young Breedlove made a total of 57 grade points. In order to be named on the honor roll a student must rank among the upper tenth of the student body scholastically, basing rank on the number of grade points. An A counts 12 grade points, and a C 6 grade points.

Salvation Army In Annual Drive This Week In This City

W. D. Pedigo, campaigner for the Salvation Army, who has solicited memberships in this organization for a number of years, was here this week and secured $42.00 in Haskell for the organization. Through the Free Press, he expresses thanks to local people for their support, which is so strongly needed at this time. This appeal is for the entire year. Any other solicitation, tambourine or otherwise, will be without authority from the Salvation Army, according to Mr. Pedigo.

All Star Cast in "The Bachelor's House Party"—Coming Soon.

Rehearsals began last Monday night on "The Bachelor's House Party" a gripping five act drama that will be sponsored by the South Ward Parent Teachers Association, directed by Mrs. C. M. Kaigler and produced early in December. This play is a departure from the usual comedy plays that this organization has sponsored in the past.

In a February number of a popular magazine, Allen Martin's picture appears, and the article telling of his having risen from newsboy to millionaire is read from Maine to California, which brings ardent attention from ardent "mammies" who once knew dear Allen's departed father and mother back in the days when they were neighbors and when Allen had no place to stay except the boarding house run in Tin Can Alley by Mrs. Hawkins (Mrs. J. E. Bernard). The hero, and popular young bachelor is Rev. Hardegree—and guess who the beautiful young South American girl is, who comes to the house party by accident. Two of the most designing mammals are Mrs. Maloy and Miss Patsy Lou Koonce. A little newsboy today, Paul Crawford. Cousins of Allen who help entertain the house party guests, Joe Short, Raymond Rowland, Lewis Ramsey, and Calvin Whately. The stenographer, Lillian Kaigler. Office boy, Joy Maples. Allen Martin's attorney, Joe Brooks. An old sweetheart of the boarding house mistress returning suddenly, Mr. F. L. Daugherty. Mary Ann, the parlor maid, Mrs. Irene Ballard. Butler, Jerry Irby. Daughters whom the mothers have brought to the house party, Misses Alma Sprows, Lillie Fay Stoker, Aletha Fay Davis Annabel Burt, and Mrs. Bailey Taylor. Watch for the date of this play, you will not want to miss it.

Gypsy Ramblers.

The Gypsy Ramblers met in the home of Mrs. Wimbish Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock for a "Fireside Supper." We prepared the supper after we arrived and what fun we did have making sandwiches and candy. Our candy didn't get hard so we ate it with our fingers, and it was twice as good. Lorene and Marjorie Wright sang for their supper and they certainly did deserve it. We sat on the floor to eat and ate all we could hold—perhaps immensely!

Those who enjoyed the supper were: Our guest, Miss Vick, Marjorie and Lorene Wright, Geraldine Norris, Geraldine Fouts, Gladys Fouts, Dorothy Irren, Ava Grindstaff, Margaret Breedlove, Mayre Lena Tubbs, Mary B. Chapman, Alberta Orr, Odell Williamson, Geraldine Conner, Gladys Mayes, Virginia Williams, Lois Mapes, Ethel Irby, Lois Laird, Kathleen Crawford, Dorothy Lewellen, Eva Dell Squyres, Catherine Wair.

We wish to extend our thanks to all local business men and all other persons cooperating with the school by helping procure transportation to Stamford. We appreciate the help of local men for the use of their garages while decorating the cars.

Use of Fruit In Diet Is Now Said To Be Necessity

DENTON—The use of fruit in the diet is no longer looked upon as a luxury but as a necessity. At least two fruits should be eaten daily. Fresh fruit is to be preferred but when they can not be secured, dried fruits may be used to a good advantage.

The use of dried fruit has many advantages. They are within the reach of everyone the year round. It is especially during the late fall and winter when fresh fruit is scarce that dried fruits hold an important place in the diet. They are inexpensive and for this reason can be used by everyone. They are important in the diet because of the valuable mineral salts and organic acids present. They are a good addition to the diets of both children and adults. They may be combined with raisins, dates, and apricots. The juice left over from dried fruit may be used in puddings, sauces, gelatin desserts, sherbets, ices, cold beverages, or fruit salads.

Many people make mistakes in cooking dried fruits. In order to have a perfect finished product, they should be properly cooked. They should be washed thoroughly and then covered with cold water and allowed to soak for several hours, or over night. The fruit should be cooked in the same water in which it is soaked and kept at the simmering point until it is done. If sugar is to be added, it should be added when the fruit is nearly done.

BREAKFAST: Stewer prunes, shredded wheat, cream and sugar, omelet, toast, butter, coffee, milk.

LUNCH: Macaroni and cheese, cole slaw, buttered beets, whole wheat muffins, butter, chocolate pudding, milk.

DINNER: Sliced baked ham in raisin sauce, string beans, creamed potatoes, celery, olives, hot biscuit, butter, hot tea, fruit jello, whipped cream.

APRICOT WHIP: 1 lb. dried apricots, 2 eggs, sweeten to taste. Soak the apricots until they are plumb. Cook slowly for 20 minutes. Remove fold in stiffly beaten whites of two eggs. Serves six.

SLICED HAM BAKED IN RAISIN SAUCE: 2 slices of ham, 1 c boiling water, 23 c raisins, 1-4 c brown sugar, 1 sp. mustard, 1 T butter. Place the slices with bits of butter in a baking dish or pan and cover with 1-2 c water. Dot with bits of butter and bake about twenty minutes, basting frequently. If the water cooks away, add more. Pour over it a sauce made of the remaining 1-2 c water, brown ugar, mustard, and raisins. Cook until tender and brown.

BIRDS OUR PROTECTORS

Although some varieties of birds are considered a great nuisance by farmers and others, it is doubtful if any of these feathered tribes are more destructive than useful.

Birds are the natural enemies of insects, and insects are the greatest enemies of mankind. Scientists have declared that without continued research and the employment of improved means of combating insect pests they would overrun the world, destroying all other life, including man.

The rapidity with which certain insects multiply is beyond the imagination. For example, a pair of puceons, a species of flea, will in a year produce more than 441 quadrillion young. One small bird, such as a tomtit, will destroy about 1500 of these in a day; a partridge will eat 30,000 white grubs in a year. Various birds have their favorite insects upon which they prey, but all eat practically any insect which crosses their path.

With this ever present menace of insects to combat, we can hardly have too many birds. Not only out of humane sentiment, but as an actual protection to civilization, the birds should be spared.

SCOTLAND YARD

For more than a century the police force of London, operating from headquarters in famed Scotland Yard, has held an enviable record for efficiency, although in its early years the organization was far from popular with the public.

Owing to the unsatisfactory state of law observance at that time, Sir Robert Peel in 1828 took steps toward the organization of an effective police force for the British metropolis. Its first headquarters at Scotland Yard was furnished with only a table and two chairs, but its facilities were rapidly expanded and the force was soon recruited to about 3,000 men.

Feeling that the new powers conferred upon the police constituted an undue restriction of liberty, hooting crowds reviled the new force, calling its members obnoxious names, including those of "Bobbie" and "Peelers" which have persisted to this day. These names, of course, were derived from that of their sponsor, Robert Peel.

As an illustration of the effectiveness of the present force, it has been pointed out that in a recent year only 15,662 crimes were reported in London, while 333,083 were noted in the less populous city of New York. The efficiency of Scotland Yard detectives is proverbial, and comparatively few London murders go unpunished.

This probably accounts for the fact that while the yearly homicide rate in London is only 1 in 100,000, in several cities of the United States it runs more than 50 times as high and averages more than 10 times as high in the country at large. We need a Scotland Yard in the United States.

PROPHETS OF DOOM

Luckily for humanity, it still maintains a saving sense of humor. Were this not true, the wailings of the pessimists would drive us all crazy, for surely there is no lack of prophets of doom to harry us with their doleful warnings that the world is going to the dogs.

Each long-faced brother solemnly assures us that unless his particular panacea for saving the race shall be speedily adopted there is no hope. Modernism, flapperism, automobiles, hootch, movies, dancing, bridge and cigarettes, singly or in combination, constitute the outstanding menace, according to the viewpoint of the particular alarmist who happens to have the floor.

Thus, after listening to these apostles of doom, with a more or less pronounced feeling of boredom, unregenerate humanity turns to the funny page and smiles at the varying fortunes of Jiggs and Andy Gump.

Take The "Scotch" Squirrel for Instance!

Men, and women too, pride themselves upon the fact that "Man" has dominion over all of the earth, and possesses a greater intelligence than the fowls of the air and fish in the stream, but has he?

Take the little squirrel—does he "trust to luck" in the providing of the winter meals or fail to see that his comfort is insured. We're not Robert Ripley, but we'll answer that one! He does NOT. HE INSURES! On everything we hold of value, we should be protected by a reputable insurance company. It has paid others—it will pay you. Of course we may make a little money if you buy but ours is also a mission as worthwhile as any other. Let us help you.

F. L. Daugherty

"THE INSURANCE MAN"

Publishing a newspaper is a "funny" thing—to those not engaged in doing so. One man will tell you that if HE was "running" a newspaper, he would do this—and he would do that. Another thinks he would publish it to suit himself, but owing to the fact that newspaper people are recruited from all types, it's a foregone conclusion that, after having learned the "game", they would conduct the business like the present crop are trying to do—to the best of their ability, and their capabilities to please as many as possible.

There's another thing that is "funny" about a newspaper, so far as the readers are concerned. When a person goes into a grocery store, and do not find what they desire, they simply purchase other articles they had in mind and go somewhere else to finish out their buying, but people don't do that with a newspaper. If they find something in it they don't like, they don't hesitate to say so—instead of reading the "news" they like—and letting the other fellow choose his particular brand. A newspaper, to be a NEWSpaper, MUST seek NEWS for all classes of people, for every person from the bootblack to the President reads them.

A real newspaper man, or woman, is not concerned with any issue, so far as the news is concerned in presenting it to the people. They simply write the facts of the case—and let the editorial page interpret the EDITOR'S views. There's many a Republican working on a Democratic newspaper and vice versa.

Take this so-called "colyum" for instance. No one asked us to write it. No one would be disappointed if it didn't appear. The writer bangs it out for his own amusement—and to have a little more copy for the linotype machine on Monday so we can go to press with the first run quicker. That's all.

INK SPOTS—Met one of the Gold-Dust twins on the street selling insurance, without his side-kick, and didn't recognize the gentleman at first. . . . They sho' are go-getters. . . . Singer salesman, asked a man to have coffee with him the other day—and six others standing nearby accepted, which helped the Texas Cafe's business. . . . Barber shops, despite feminine encroachment, still retain that "goodfellowship" atmosphere. . . . Wonder why a man had rather spend 15 cents on a machine to get a package of cigarettes rather than just pay outright for it? If all the nails, hairpins, peices of wire, etc. littering Haskell's streets were placed end to end, the line would reach—oh you figure it—we can't! . . . Evidence shows most of us still inflict our stalest jokes on the "shine" boys. Wonder what they really think of our "brilliance"?

Have you found an English bull pup, with white marks around eyes and behind each paw? The pup is a brindle color (if "brindle" can be called a color.) If you have, why not notify George Goetze, the owner at Perkins-Timberlake.

The dollar may look inflated to some people, but the five we received last week appear to be the same size as of yore.

Some of these days we look for General Johnson to insist upon all persons displaying the Blue Eagle to BUY ONLY from other Blue Eagle members, or have their own insignia removed. Why not?

We haven't lived very long, but after a wee bit over thirty years on this earth we still observe that too many of us are seeing the faults of the other fellow and still managing to twist our arms around to pat ourselves on the back.

While it may be true that everyone can't wait until the so-called shopping news is out, we venture to predict that most farmers still prefer the smooth paper in Leers-Lobuck catalogs.

There's one publicity seeker in Haskell that calls us by another newspaper man's name because "you never get anything right", but we'll manage to get one thing right from now on by leaving the linotype lug with HIS name up so we can insert it each week.

One Haskell waitress hopes Russia will send an ambassador to the United States with a name she can pronounce, such as Lenin, Stalin, etc. Of course the Rooshians pronounce those names just like we do.

Well, well! Joseph Weldon Bailey, Jr. aspires to the senatorial job Senator Connolly now holds. Betcha (not over 50 cents) that Bailey wins. The name of Joseph Weldon Bailey will be hard to defeat.

Why Not More Voters?

Commenting on the fact that Texas provided a large percentage of the Roosevelt plurality than any other State in the Union, the Charlotte (N. C.) Observer remarks: "But with that, Texas has no cause to crow, for here comes in evidence of the slacker vote and a field for operation by the Bring-Out-the-Vote-Club. Five States in the Union have more population than Texas, thirteen cast a larger vote than did the Lone Star State and ten gave Roosevelt a larger vote than Texas. Here we have an evidence of how many people in Texas failed to vote in an election that held the interest of the world."

North Carolina, by the way, has a right to chide Texas on this point, for with only a little more than half as much population as Texas in the Presidential election. Where as the North Carolina vote constituted more than 22 per cent of the State's population, the Texas vote constituted less than 15 per cent of the Texas population. But the negroes and the Mexicans! Have you allowed for them? That's the perennial excuse. North Carolina, for one thing, has 63,000 more negroes than Texas, in spite of its much smaller total population. If we deduct both the negroes and the Mexicans from the Texas population, though a large percentage of them vote in general elections, the total Texas vote in the Presidential election will be seen to be less than 20 per cent of the remaining white population. On the other hand, if the negroes are deducted from the North Carolina population, the total North Carolina vote in the Presidential election is seen to be more than 31 per cent of the remaining white population.

There is no explaining away this difference, and similar differences that could be cited, on any other ground than that of indifference by Texans to the duty and privilege of participating in elections.—Peter Melyneaux, in "Texas Weekly"

ACE CAST MAKES MOST OF DRAMATIC SITUATIONS IN "BEAUTY FOR SALE"

With an impressive all-star cast, Metro Goldwyn-Mayer's new feature, "Beauty for Sale," opens November 28, 29 at the Texas Theatre as an adaptation of Faith Baldwin's sensational magazine novel "Beauty."

The picture, directed by Richard Boleslavsky, is a swift, racy, modern story of three girls who follow different paths to desired happiness. They all work in the same beauty salon where intimate bouffoir secrets are revealed within its perfumed walls. It is here many hilarious situations develop. The drama in which the triangular love episode is featured is enacted by Madge Evans, Alice Brady and Otto Kruger.

Una Merkel plays a gold-digging role and Phillips Holmes is cast as a youthful philanderer. May Robson achieves another notable mother characterization. Others in the splendid cast are Eddie Nugent, Hedda Hopper, Florine McKinney, Isobel Jewell, Louise Carter, John Roche and Charles Grapewin.

The sleeping car porter may feel insulted by the size of your tip, but he always pockets the insult.

Smart buyers ARE PUTTING ON NEW GOODYEARS Now!

FIRST for non-skid safety and protection against trouble on winter's slippery, darker, colder roads.

SECOND for greater mileage. New rubber wears longer on cool roads. Goodyears put on now will still be almost new next spring.

THIRD for low-cost economy. Most Goodyears today are still lower-priced than a year ago.

Good reasons, these, for buying now. Why not trade up your troubles before they happen?

Primary Reason of Thanksgiving Day Was For "Health"

AUSTIN (Special)—The primary reason for the institution of Thanksgiving Day was health. We know how Governor Bradford called together the people, those few of them who were left after that terrible first year of death and disease, to give thanks to God for all his mercies.

We have come a long way since that time in the matter of health, but now one seldom thinks of Thanksgiving in connection with the health that we enjoy. Most persons have been so accustomed to having those advantages that they are scarcely given a thought until sickness makes its appearance.

The State Department of Health, city and county organizations have labored for years to secure the measure of health protection that the public now enjoys. They give thanks for the methods that have helped in the saving of thousands of lives each year and look forward to the years to come for greater service.

Since the first Thanksgiving, the mode of transmission of many diseases has been discovered and in many instances the prevention has become common knowledge. Yellow fever, plague, and cholera have practically ceased to exist. Smallpox, diphtheria, and typhoid fever can be eliminated as a cause of death if a person would have themselves and children immunized. Malaria and many other diseases can be controlled if the public would demand that this protection be a part of the everyday activities of the government and practice what is known in regard to prevention.

During the past fifty years the expectation of life has increased about fifteen years. This means that a baby born now can be expected to live fifteen years longer than if he had been born fifty years ago. We have much more to be thankful for now than our Pilgrim forefathers, so let each in his Thanksgiving, pledge to assist in furthering the work being done to improve health conditions throughout Texas.

We read that in excavating the ruins of an ancient Greek temple a song estimated to be 1,700 years old was found. Let's see—1,700 years old—could that be the banana song?

Mince Pie Season Is Here and Here's One Tested Recipe

Hot mince pies, while an old-fashioned dessert, are still in favor, especially for the holiday dinner. Mince meat for pies may be purchased already prepared, or if you wish to prepare it yourself, here's a good old-fashioned recipe, suggested by Inez S. Wilson, home economist. The proportions in this recipe are a good average, but they may be varied to suit the taste of the individual.

- Mince Meat
- 2 pounds beef chuck or neck
  - 2 cups apple, cut fine
  - 2 cups meat stock
  - 2 cups chopped seeded raisins
  - 2 cups currants
  - 2 cups brown sugar
  - 1-4 cup minced candied orange peel
  - 2 teaspoons salt
  - 1 cup fruit juice
  - 1 teaspoon cinnamon
  - 1 teaspoon clove
  - 4 teaspoons grated lemon rind
  - 4 tablespoons grated orange rind
  - 1-2 pound citron, minced
  - 6 tablespoons lemon juice
  - 2 cups orange juice
  - 1 quart cider

Cover meat with hot water and let simmer until tender. Chop meat and mix with other ingredients. Let simmer until the apples are tender (about twenty minutes).

(Timely News of Texas Farmers Furnished by A & M Extension Service)

Cotton and corn crops grew this season where there were ditches two years ago on the farm of Dave Link in Milam county. He terraced 75 acres at that time and the county agent is helping him terrace more this fall.

A three-year average of 25 bushels of wheat per acre due to sowing state certified turkey red wheat is the record of Dietz Brothers in Runnels county. The county average has been 18 bushels per acre, the county agent states.

After selling 1980 fryers this season, Everett Dickard of Fairview 4-H club in Harrison county has completed a new poultry house which he hopes will make it possible for him to sell 100 fryers per week next year. He has 7 sections in the house and plans to put 100 chicks in each section in successive weeks.

A cotton oil man at Rotan is financing the purchase of baby beavers for 29 Fisher county 4-H club boys who will feed them for show and sale at Sweetwater next spring.

For a total cost of $34, J. N. Swain, Somervell county cane demonstrator, has made and sold 200 gallons of syrup from one acre planted to certified honey drip seed. The syrup sold for 50 cents per gallon.

COLLEGE STATION—The general intent of the Government in farm relief activities is to bring the purchasing power of the principal farm commodities up to their pre-war level or parity, according to Agricultural Adjustment Administration officials who last week visited the Extension Service at Texas A and M College. For the portion of the cotton, wheat, corn and hog crops consumed in the United States this parity price is to be obtained by subsidies obtained from processing taxes. The remainder of the annual production is expected to rise in price because of the reduction in production obtained as a part of the contracts by farmers with the Government.

"Parity" is explained as the purchasing power farm commodities had in the "good old days" of 1909-14. During that period farmers were generally prosperous, prices were regarded as satisfactory, and everything the farmer sold was in fair adjustment with the price he paid for goods. The prices now sought as "parity" are not necessarily the prices that obtained from 1909 to 1914 but are prices large enough to make farmers' products exchange for the same amount of manufactured goods they did in that period. In the case of cotton the parity price is estimated at about 15 cents per pound and the parity wheat price is placed at about $1 on the farm.

The general plan by which these prices are being obtained for farmers is known as the domestic allotment plan. On the portion of these crops domestically consumed processing taxes have been levied by the Government for payment to farmers who sign contracts restricting their acreages in these crops. This acts in much the same way as the tariff which has long given a subsidized market to American manufacturers for that part of their output domestically consumed. The remainder of the farmers' production is expected to move into foreign trade in free competition with that of other countries. As this surplus is reduced by restricted acres in America the world price is expected to rise until such time as production gets into complete adjustment with demand and the prices of the entire farm output come up to parity.

COLLEGE STATION—A small farm manufacturing enterprise of converting cottonwood logs into turkey crates has developed in recent weeks near Wellborn in Brazos county as an outgrowth of the work of C. W. Simmons, farm forester of the Texas Forest Service and Extension Service of Texas A and M College. Finding the sale of cottonwood logs at $2 per thousand as scaled by the Doyle Rule an unprofitable business, several farmers got together for a demonstration in making cottonwood logs into useful products, using the College demonstration portable farm sawmill. A contract for 1000 turkey crates at 65c apiece was obtained, and one of the men has now bought a portable sawmill for this and other work.

Several farmers are selling the logs, but it is D. D. Berkhalter, H. G. Massey and W. D. Lander who are operating the business which is employing 10 to 12 men, Mr. Simmons says. Logs are bought by the International Rule which is said to be a fairer scale in measuring small purchases of logs. This is the first time this rule has been used in Texas, Mr. Simmons thinks. It is taking 1000 board feet to make 50 turkey crates.

The informal roadside lumber workers now have orders for split log houses and plan to make a complete bill of lumber for an all-cottonwood house including flooring, dimension stock and shingles, Mr. Simmons reports. These logs are also particularly good for gates, wagon tongues, and various long-handled stock. Orders have also been received for cedar shingles and for boards for cedar chests.

"This demonstration gives an idea of how many usable products may be made from farm timber by farmers themselves," Mr. Simmons states. "The cost of a small portable sawmill is not great if shared by several men. In many parts of Texas not regarded as timbered areas there is plenty of cedar, ash, elm, mesquite and other native woods that may be turned into dollars. One third the timber of East Texas is farmer owned, and most of the useful hardwoods in the rest of the State are farmer or rancher owned. Small farm sawmill enterprises offer one way these owners may make some extra dollars," he concludes.

NACOGDOCHES—A birthday dinner for her husband costing only 89 cents did not mean that Mrs. Barcie Lester, farm food supply demonstrator of Smith's Chapel Home Demonstration Club in Nacogdoches county, did not celebrate this anniversary with a good dinner, but instead it meant that the balanced-budgeted food supplies that have been worked out in that home this year need only to be supplemented with such staples as coffee, sugar, spices and rice in order to set forth an excellent meal at any time. The dinner, which was served to 16 people, consisted of chicken, rice, gravy, green butter beans, sweet potatoes, hot biscuit, butter, plum jelly, pepper relish, coconut custard pie and coffee.

Mae West Sings, Dances in Her "I'm No Angel" Picture

Mae West, who "scorched" the nation with her first starring picture, "She Done Him Wrong", became a national idol, and then took Paris by storm and revolutionized feminine styles, came back to town yesterday with her new picture, "I'm No Angel." It opens at Saturday night's preview.

From every standpoint, "I'm No Angel" is a better picture than its predecessor, Miss West is even more colorful as Tira, the Million Dollar Beauty, who tames savage lions and men with equal facility, than she was as the diamond bedecked Lady Lou. Paramount has given the second production of its greatest star an excellent cast, smart direction and gilded mounting.

Mae sings seven "scorch songs," dances the midway, as a remarkable danc in which she moves everything except her feet; puts her head in a lion's mouth; utters a succession of breezy wisecracks which probably will be heard everywhere, as was "Come up and see me sometime"—until another West picture brings us some more Westisms.

Prominent Farmer of Rule Visits In This City Saturday

T. J. Hodgins, farmer on route number 1, out of Rule, was a business visitor in Haskell Saturday, and while here made arrangements to have the Free Press coming to his home for another year.

When asked if the Free Press was found interesting enough by either he or his family, Mr. Hodgins dryly replied "you should be at our house when it arrives, if you want to know how we really maneuver to be the first one to read it."

He also stated the particulars of the wedding of his son Fred to Miss Winnie Best on Tuesday, November 14. L. L. Hanks, pastor of the Church of Christ in Rule, performed the ceremony.

The recent bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Best, of Rule.

The couple returned Friday from a honeymoon trip to Fort Worth and Dallas.

FOOTBALL---

(Continued On Page Eight) scrapping Koscoe team isn't impossible—that all the Haskell players need is the consciousness that they can win if they will fight till the last whistle blows.

Whether you think Haskell has a chance or not, you'll probably see a real, fast-battling football game Friday afternoon on the local gridiron.

The Indians need your support, and that means your Presence at the game. They are playing the game for fun and the glory. They received no money, therefore the least anyone can do is to cheer them on, and if defeat should come, slap each player on the back and tell him he had done his best and "his best" was appreciated.

in the prices asked. Highgrade merchandise at reasonable prices, with the usual Texas policy of fair dealing in force.

Hassen Brothers Company, while new in the city, are not backward in letting the people of this territory know of the big Round Up Sale now in progress at the store. Mr. Hassen states he has no intention of singing the now popular song of "lower prices. He also states that it is a Round Up of bargains.

The Style Shoppe, catering to ladies, have thrown the entire stock of highgrade merchandise always to be found in the store into an Opportunity Sale. Clothing formerly priced higher, or purchased to sell at a higher price, have been reduced to unusually low figures.

Perkins-Timberlake store is stressing the many bargains to be found in the store and listing prices that should interest everyone desiring to save. Each week this store offers suggestion of merit to the people through the Free Press. A perusal of the items listed will indicate the prices asked on all merchandise, so George Goetze, manager, states. The Haskell store is a member of the large Perkins-Timberlake Company and the policy of fair dealing will be found here.

Fouts Dry Goods and Variety are offering special bargains in dry goods and variety merchandise in an endeavor to have more room for the large stock of holiday goods now arriving. Prices have been slashed, so Mr. Fouts states, and the people given an opportunity to purchase merchandise at real savings.

Perry Brothers Store are now arranging for the holiday merchandise and the spirit of the season carried out in the decoration. Clyde Raley, manager, states that while bargains may always be found at the store, even greater ones are being offered to the people at this time in order to clear the shelves for the new merchandise.

May's Department Store is displaying highgrade merchandise at prices unusually low considering the prices asked now by wholesalers, and issues an invitation to the people to investigate the prices and merchandise in the store, if they are in need of reasonable materials. Pearl's Dry Goods Store have a special selling event and are offering quality articles at reduced prices. This is another new store, comparatively speaking, in Haskell and the trend of the management is to hold prices down, the same as other Haskell stores, in keeping with "no profiteering advantages."

12-Year-Old Boy Seriously Injured In Fall From Horse

Ben Clifton, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Mart Clifton of this city, sustained a serious fracture at the base of the skull when he fell from a horse near his parents home this morning. He was rushed to a Stamford sanitarium in a Kinney ambulance, and an X-ray examination revealed the extent of his injuries.

ALL COTTON OPTION FUNDS TO BE PAID AT ONCE TO OWNERS

AAA Finance Director Says All Farmers To Receive 4 Cents Per Pound

WASHINGTON—Immediate distribution of $18,000,000 constituting a 4-cent a pound advance to cotton producers who are to receive options on 2,400,000 bales of government-held cotton, was announced Monday by Oscar Johnson, director of finance for the farm administration.

The advance will be made to approximately 600,000 producers as quickly as necessary forms can be signed.

The Reconstruction Finance corporation notified Johnson today a commitment on the cotton covered by option had been made to the Commodity Credit corporation which will make the funds available to a cotton pool to be established by Secretary Wallace.

The producers who asked options on government cotton at 6 cents a pound as part of their consideration for acreage reduction will be required to participate in the 1934 program.

After signing the agreement and transferring his option to the pool, the producer will receive $20 for each bale upon which he is entitled to an option.

The pool will issue participation certificates to option holders who will retain their beneficial interest and upon sale of the cotton will receive their ratable share of any price above 10 cents a pound after deduction of expenses.

TURKEY POOL---

(Continued from First Page) mittee on marketing time to get in touch with more buyers and therefore secure a better price. Late pooling of the Thanksgiving turkeys cost the growers two and three quarters of a cent a pound, for one live car dealer wanted three cars at 12 1/2¢ per pound but at that time growers were only starting to pool in this county.

"Growers of turkeys," Mr. Henry continued, "are reminded that everyone growing turkeys receives the benefit of the increase in price because of co-operative selling. With everyone co-operating a much larger price can be received than it only a few pool."

The Thanksgiving pool recently sold for 9 1/2 cents per pound, or one and one-half cents above market price, it was also stated. George Smith handled the turkeys for an Abilene firm.
