FORTY-NINTH YEAR

Thanksgiving Proclamation By the President of the United States of America

"I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, hereby designate Thursday, the 29th day of November, 1934, as a day of thanksgiving for the people of the nation.

"Thus to set aside in the autumn of each year a day on which to give thanks to Almighty God for the blessings of life is a wise and reverent custom, long cherished by our people. It is fitting that we should again observe this custom.

"During the past year we have been given courage and fortitude to meet the problems which have confronted us in our national life. Our sense of social justice has deepened. We have been given vision to make new provisions for human welfare and happiness, and in a spirit of mutual happiness we have co-operated to translate vision into reality.

"More greatly have we turned our hearts and minds to things spiritual. We can truly say, 'What profiteth it a nation if it gain the whole world and lose its own soul?'

"With gratitude in our hearts for what has already been achieved, may we, with the help of God, dedicate ourselves anew to work for the betterment of mankind.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done in the City of Washington this fifteenth day of November in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-four and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and fifty-ninth."

(Signed)

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

RAINFALL GENERAL OVER COUNTY PAST WEEK IS REPORTED

Rain In Haskell Exceeds A Total of Three Inches; Moisture Falls Slowly

WATERHOLES FULL

Distressed Condition Over Entire County Relieved; Crops Rejuvenated

Rainfall totaling 3.12 inches has fallen in Haskell during the last week, according to Fred Sanders, local government observer, and terminated a drought conditions which has hovered over Haskell county for the last six months. The downpour was general and spaced over a period which allowed a greater part of the moisture to soak into the ground.

Sanders gauged a total of 52 inches last week and 260 this week. Dry water holes, according to ranchers, have been filled in practically every case, and the hauling of water by both farmers and ranchers will be alleviated.

Grain crops have been saved for the present, and pasturage placed in a condition which will relieve a distressed situation which has caused the shipping of thousands of cattle from this county.

EDITORIAL

In the affairs of most governments there comes a time when, for the good of the majority, a change should be made in officials, but, likewise, there are times when changes may not prove wise on account of unusual conditions—when "untried" timber may perhaps undo a vast amount of good already accomplished. Such a condition is now before the citizens of West Texas in the appointment of a new highway commissioner to the place now ably held by Judge W. R. Ely, of Abilene.

The Free Press has ever tried to boost for the things, and for men, that would do the most good for West Texas, and in suggesting that Judge Ely, the present chairman of the powerful commission, be re-appointed, this newspaper does so only because it is firmly convinced that the RIGHT MAN for the place during the next two years, is already in the chair.

Judge Ely has been a member of the commission for eight years, and during those years West Texas has made greater strides in road development than ever before. Judge Ely is a West Texan; he understands the needs of West Texas because he has made himself familiar with them.

As chairman of the highway commission, Judge Ely has not fought the needs of the other sections. He has helped them in a fair and just manner, but he has stood up for the rights of West Texas as few other men would have probably done under the same circumstances.

A firm hand—a just mind will be needed upon the highway commission during the next term, and the Free Press, with other thinking factors in West Texas, believes that the re-appointment of Judge Ely to the position he now holds will be for the best and will please the majority of West Texas citizens and will mark another step forward in the progress of the entire state.

The present time is not the proper time to rock any seaworthy boat.

NEW RULING MADE BY TEXAS RELIEF ON MONEY SPENT

Families on Relief Spending Portions of Grants on Alcohol, Gambling Warned

TO BE PAID IN KIND

Conviction in Police Court to Bring Client Within Scope of Commission Ruling

Drastic rules regarding the handling of relief cases where a family allows a part of its grant to be expended on alcoholic beverages, gambling and other derelictions has been outlined by the Texas Relief Commission and county administrators instructed as to the procedure, according to T. L. Donohoo, local administrator.

The rulings were made in response to the requests of many county administrators over the state and will apply to all sections of Texas.

Each case must be handled on its own individual merits and then only upon personal investigation by the Case Supervisor or the Relief Administrator, Donohoo declares.

In instances where either the County Administrator or the Case Work Supervisor has first-hand personal knowledge that the head of the relief family is expending his funds for alcoholic liquors, that family thereafter should receive relief in kind only. Regardless of the fact that relief is being extended in kind only, it shall and must be relief work.

The same rules apply in respect to gambling and similar derelictions on the part of relief clients. Conviction in police court or frequent arraignment before any local court immediately brings the client within the scope of these instructions.

If the head of the family steadfastly refuses to perform work when he is not paid in cash, the instructions state, the Administrator is instructed to confer with local public officials and prefer charges of vagrancy against the client. If public officials refuse to act, they are to notify the state office.

Copies of New Spelling List

Advice from the Interscholastic League headquarters in Austin state that 200,000 copies of the current spelling list have been printed and are now ready for distribution, according to Ellis Cole, recently elected director of spelling for the League in this county. The price of the spelling bulletin of sixteen pages is the same as it was last year, one cent a copy when ordered in lots of one hundred or more copies.

It would be well for schools needing less than one hundred copies to club their orders so as to get the benefit of the cent-a-copy rate, Cole adds.

"Teachers of spelling are cautioned that the League spelling contest involves also a plain writing feature," Cole explains. "Certain errors in writing are listed in the spelling rules of the current constitution and rules. It would be well to drill pupils to avoid the errors there listed."

"The words included in the list have been carefully selected and graded and form an excellent supplement to the State Adopted Text. None of the words in the State Text appear in the spelling list of the League."

"It is hoped that there will be wide participation in this contest in this county. All one hundred per cent papers produced at the county meet are sent to the State Office of the League where the papers are re-graded, and, if adjudged perfect, a suitable award is given."

PROCESSING TAX RULES GIVEN TO HOG RAISERS

Processor Required to Make Monthly Returns and Pay Taxes Stipulated

PROCESSOR' DEFINED

Who Is Not Processor If Slaughters and Sells Portions for Resale

Instructions regarding the handling of the hog processing tax under the new setup were received this morning by Miss Elma Kinnard, local collector, from W. A. Thomas, collector of internal revenue, whose office is in Dallas.

Under the Agricultural Adjustments Act every processor of hogs is required to make monthly returns to the collector of Internal Revenue. Such returns are required to be filed in the month following the month in which the processing tax on hogs is $2.25 per hundred live weight.

Previous to November 1, 1934, a processor of hogs was defined as a person slaughtering hogs for market. Effective November 1, 1934, by regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture, in addition to the above definition of a processor such definition was amended to include any person, merchant, hotel, club, hospital, or similar establishment purchasing hogs or edible hog products from a producer or feeder of hogs for resale or further preparation for market.

In such cases it is the person, merchant, restaurant, hotel, club, hospital, or similar establishment purchasing hogs from farmers or feeders for resale or further preparation for market, who is required by law to make monthly returns to the collector of Internal Revenue and pay the processing tax on the live weight of all hog carcasses or hog products purchased from farmers and feeders at the rate of $2.25 per hundred pounds, live weight.

To restore the weight of a hog carcass to a live weight basis a conversion factor of 132 has been provided. For example, a hog carcass weighing 100 pounds restored to live weight by use of the conversion factor is 132 pounds. In other words, the weight of the carcass is to be increased by 32 per cent in order to determine the live weight.

From the foregoing, effective Nov. 1, 1934, it will be noted that a person slaughtering hogs for market, restaurant, hotel, club, hospital, or similar establishment, is not a processor.

Lions Club Holds Regular Meeting

The Haskell Lions Club should be well attended by all progressive men, because, like other organizations, it means something worthwhile," said Ed Shumway, of Abilene, executive chairman of the Chisholm Trail area, Boy Scouts, and special speaker at the regular meeting of the Lions Club held last night in the Tonkawa Coffee shop.

President F. M. Robertson presided over the meeting which was attended by about sixteen Lions. The attendance was occasioned, as Shumway pointed out, on account of the fact that several members were on deer hunts.

Shumway was the only visitor from outside, who spoke, and throughout the meeting he stressed the need of a more organized and a functioning Boy Scout program in Haskell.

"You'll find that the leading business men of a community are members of civic organizations, and are active in their time, which they could devote to the needs of their community. The Boy Scout leader declaration it is up to every one of us to play our part in helping to build, and once you have done that, you'll find that the work is done. Attending every once in a while is no good," Shumway said.

Principals of Haskell County Schools to Meet

TERRACING PLANS FOR COUNTY MADE

Plans Call for Co-operation of Relief Administration in Next Five Months

Tentative plans are being made for a Terracing Campaign in Haskell for the next five or six months according to R. H. Maxwell, county agent, in cooperation with the Relief Administration work and it is essential that the Farm Terrace levellers that are out be returned to the County Agents' office at once so that they may be checked for accuracy.

If you wish to have terrace lines run on your farm get in touch with your Farm Association Chairman in your community that he may report it to the County Agent's office for a part of the schedule in the campaign, Maxwell says.

Indians Strut Stuff Early Here Friday Night, But Outplayed Last Frame

Battling for all they were worth, the Haskell Indians swept the Stamford Bulldogs off their feet during the first two quarters here Friday night and defeated the invaders 29 to 6 in one of the hardest fought football games of the season.

But Stamford can take it. The snarling Bulldogs, buffeted hither and yon through those first two quarters, gave the shivering crowd a demonstration of how a bulldog fights—take, take, take, and then, when it seems almost as if the death rattle is due, grab a different hold and make the other fellow like it. Stamford did just that very thing Friday night.

Terry, fast-stepping quarter for Stamford, switched his line of attack in the second half and took to the air. Pass after pass, good ones, were hurled, and if the several footed Indians acted as if they were bewildered, the invaders were in, and every one of them extremely elusive. Stamford only penetrated Haskell's 20 yard line once, but the invaders were in charge of the game throughout most of the last half. Their touchdown was made after several passes placed the ball on Haskell's 12 yard line. Terry, seeing the Indian guards had spread out loosely for another pass, (Continued on Page 5)

New Supervisor

L. D. REES

REHABILITATION SUPERVISOR HERE

L. D. Rees To Be In Charge of Program In Haskell, and Adjoining Counties

L. D. Rees is Haskell county's newest employe in President Roosevelt's recovery program. Mr. Rees is supervisor of Rural Rehabilitation in Haskell, Shackelford and Throckmorton counties. He opened his office here last week.

"Rehabilitation is a big word and one that is hard to say," Mr. Rees said in introducing the subject in an interview yesterday. "The program it represents, however, is one of the Nation's most cherished. It has been created expressly to help the farmer who has lost his foothold for one reason or another, but would take the first opportunity to get back to the land."

"The success of this project depends on the community and not alone on the Federal government. In a tour of the Tennessee Valley recently in behalf of this program, President Roosevelt said: 'You are not being federalized. We still believe in the community and things are going to advance in this country in proportion to the community effort.'"

"It is the plan of the Rehabilitation Committee to apportion small blocks of land to the farmers on a three-year contract. The farmer and his family are set up on one of these tracts and are aided and supervised until they are in position to take care of themselves. It is an opportunity to improve living conditions of its farmers which any community should welcome."

T. L. Donohoo, county administrator of the FERA, has cooperated fully in launching this program, having secured several leases before the arrival of Mr. Rees. The cooperation of the entire administration force of the county and of the agricultural agent, home demonstration agent and the citizens is appreciated by this new department. Mr. Rees requests full support in making the program a success in this section.

CITY TAXES TO BE 'COLLECTED' SOON

City Administration Hopes Citizens Will Pay Up In A Voluntary Manner

Rumors of the misconduct of a city official were investigated at a special session of the City Council Wednesday afternoon. The investigation satisfied the Council that the rumors were false and unfounded, and the charges were dismissed.

At the same meeting the tax situation was discussed and it was decided that all taxes, both delinquent and current, must be collected on the one hundred per cent basis. Mayor Thurman says that he believes that the good, ever dependable and worthy citizens of Haskell will cooperate in the present crisis and pay their taxes as fast as possible. Those who will not, he says, will find themselves forced to do so, at some time in the future and the additional penalties added by law will make the burden that much harder to bear. "Those who often try to shift the blame to where it does not rightfully belong will find the error of their way," he added.

In talking over the tax situation the Mayor used a football expression and said "We want a touchdown" and called upon the taxpayers to "Help hold that line" and make their payments as soon as possible.

Baptist W. M. S.

The Baptist W. M. S. met in an all day meeting at the church Monday Nov. 19th to study a foreign Mission book entitled, "Where Is He?" Mrs. D. Scott had charge of the program.

Mrs. Gilstrap brought us a very interesting devotional, beginning with the Pilgrims and their first Thanksgiving day and coming down to the present time. The main thought of her talk was "We would see Jesus." She brought out many beautiful thoughts wherein we could see Jesus along life's pathway.

In the study of this book, Mrs. I. N. Simmons told us how "His Love Ransomed Us." Mrs. R. C. Couch told how "His Cross Conquers the Crescent and His Light Displaces Their Images." Mrs. Whitley told how "His Truth Overcomes Doubt." Mrs. Jno. Ellis told how "His Spirit Triumphs Over Selfishness." Eight ladies took the examination. On account of the rain many of our ladies failed to come, but those who availed themselves of the opportunity to spend a pleasant day in the study of God's work were: Mesdames I. N. Simmons, H. R. Whitley, R. C. Couch, Jno. Couch, L. F. Taylor, Jim Gilstrap, Jno. Ellis, and D. Scott. At the noon hour, each lady brought forth her favorite dish and we found that we had a feast good enough for a king.

The outstanding prayer of the day was led by Mrs. Taylor thanking God for all of His goodness, mercy and love to us and rejoicing that He had called one of her daughters as a missionary to the foreign field. It made us all happy to see how thankful and how submissive she was to God's will. Maybelle is in the Seminary at Louisville, Ky., training for work in Brazil.

Beginner's Department Have More Than 100 Per Cent Present

The beginner's department of the Methodist Sunday School had over one hundred per cent of their pupils present for Sunday School last Sunday. It is only a few weeks since promotion day and there are only fifteen on the roll but last Sunday there were seventeen present. There were two reasons for this nice attendance. The teachers had impressed on their minds that our pastor would be in Abilene at the conference and that we must be loyal and keep the Sunday School going while he was away.

Then too, it was a lesson on food and clothing being provided by the heavenly Father and the teachers had prepared cookies and punch and at the conclusion of the lesson a regular tea party was enjoyed. At this time we wish to extend a hearty invitation to all parents of children between the ages of three and six to bring them to us we will do our best to lay a foundation for christian character. The following were present: Rita Hansen, Mrs. Hassen Russell Shriver Della Louise Hulsey, Mrs. Hulsey, Bob, Bob Welsh Collins, Welsh, Edwin Gentry, Jane Gentry, Joe Ann Berry, Anita Jo Pittman, Richard Berry, Queen William, Jack, Willie, Maxine Burton, Giles Kemp, James Morrison, Isaac Edwards, Peter Raley and the teachers: Mrs. R. C. Couch, Fitzgerald, Mrs. C. M. Kaigler and Mrs. W. J. Snow.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Jenkins and Mrs. Marshall and Thorne and Mrs. Irma Groves of Tuscola, visited in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. White and Mr. and Mrs. McKelvey over the week end. They were accompanied by I. I. Lomax, who had been visiting several days in Tuscola.

We can't boast of a charter member, but we do have five of the old regime, namely, Mesdames Tommie Hawkins, our president; Mesdames O. E. Patterson, C. L. Lewis, M. H. Post and D. Scott, Mrs. D. L. Cummins, one of our number, went away several months ago, but her sweet memory lingers with us still.

The first district of Texas Federation of Music Clubs met in its 10th annual convention Nov. 16 and 17 in Fort Worth. Mrs. Geo. Herren was our delegate. Other ladies attending the Federation were Mesdames Hawkins, Carl Power and B. M. Whiteker. Mrs. Bert Welsh was unable to attend. Mrs. Whiteker is parliamentarian of the first district. ### Pantry Demonstrator's Work Has Money Value of $253.30.

HOUSTON.—"I became a pantry demonstrator because I desired intelligent directions in planning and providing an adequate diet for my family," Mrs. Horace Cooper of Harris county told Helen Cowan, home demonstration agent. With this in mind, Mrs. Cooper planned her food budget, planted her garden, and canned food for the winter according to Extension Service plans furnished her by Miss Cowan. She put up 1584 containers this year and now has 992 in her pantry in addition to 500 pounds of dried, stored and cured foods valued at $253.30. There are 175 varieties in her pantry.

In addition, Mrs. Cooper has renovated the two rooms used as storage for a canning kitchen and storage space for her foods. She has also made 26 pounds of cheese, set out 100 grape vines, 20 black 100 fig trees, 25 pecan trees, 12 trees and 8 pear trees.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish that we could express thanks to so many friends and neighbors who were so kind to care for our dear wife and me in her last hours.

Also we are thankful to so many who were so good as to visit home and help us bear our sorrow and loneliness. The Church, Christ, Mrs. Conner, Mrs. D. and Mrs. Bland, and the teachers and pupils of the South Ward have our thanks and best for the sweet flowers that gave.

a Postal Money Order or
YOUR PERSONAL CHECK?

Are postal money orders better than checks? Let's see. . . To buy a money order, you must go to the post office. You must fill out an application blank for each order. A $1.00 money order costs 6 cents, and if it is for $65.00 the fee is 20 cents. Then, too, the largest money order you can buy is for $100. Money order receipts are small, confusing, easily mislaid—in which case it may take time and trouble to prove payment of a disputed bill.

Contrast this with the advantages of paying your bills "by check" . . . make them out anywhere . . . they become the best receipt . . . they give you "business standing" . . . and when you keep a reasonable balance in your account in keeping with the checks you draw, they don't cost you anything.

TO OUR READERS

Students have exclaimed "Why? Do students write these editorials? I just supposed the teachers wrote them!" and for fear lest this opinion may be true, we wish to state that we do write the editorials, as well as practically every other item that appears in the Warwhoop. Ordinarily the editor-in-chief or associate editor writes the editorials. As sponsor writes the publication we try to correct technical errors, offer suggestions, and assemble it for the press. Other students, it is your Warwhoop, it will reflect high school life according as you contribute to it.

that those minds would not be pleasing to even their owners. Many people become possessed of the habit of telling a lie until they themselves believe it. The lie that sinks into one's mind and settles there is the lie that is most harmful.

An ancient poet once said, "No pleasure is comparable to the standing upon the vantage ground of truth and to see the errors, and wanderings, and mists, and tempests in the vale below." Certainly, it is wonderful to have one's mind turn on the poles of truth.

Clear and straightforward dealing is the honor of man's nature. A mixture of truth and falsehood is like an alloy in a coin of gold or silver which makes the metal work the better, but it cheapens and debases it.

Anyone would rather be found guilty of any other fault than to be found false and perfidious.

Part of the armor for the good man is that of truth. To say that someone is a liar is only another way of saying that he would rather defy God than man, for a liar faces God and shrinks from man.—Mattie Pistole.

TO THE AMERICAN

(By Ed Parsons)

There are very few crops to be gathered. For a drouth hit the farmers this year.

Through many a hardship they go though. Thanksgiving finds them full of cheer.

I can smell that big turkey cooking. All our faces are brim full of joy. You can hear the sparkling laughter of that happy girl or boy.

It seems that depression has vanished. Prosperity has taken its throne. What America can do in a crisis Her people have readily shown.

Make every day a day of Thanksgiving. Come on fellows, cheer up and smile. If you lend a hand to your fellow man, It will make your living worth while.

CLASS ROOM CLASSICS FROM KAIGLER STUDIO

"Great minds have purposes, others have wishes, little minds are tamed and subdued by misfortune, but great minds rise above them."—Washington Irving.

"When you get in a tight place and everything goes against you till it seems that you could not hold on a minute longer, never give up then, for that is just the place and time where the tide will turn."—Harriet Beecher.

Two girls of our Dramatic Club, Janice Tate and Beverly Gilbert, went to Rochester last Thursday night and danced two tap routines in the negro minstrel sponsored by the Methodist Church and directed by a former student, who received a diploma from the Speech Arts department last year, Mrs. Charles D. Kay.

Since the opening of this school year the members of our department have responded to the following invitations to appear on programs: At a banquet in the Stamford Inn, at the local Magazine Club, once in the Presbyterian Church, once in the Methodist church, and twice in Rochester. We think it a compliment to appear before these various groups.

SENIORS TO SPONSOR HOLIDAY REUNION FOR EX-SENIORS, 1930-1934

Instead of having the annual Christmas party that Senior classes always have, this year the Seniors are planning to sponsor a holiday reunion for all ex-Seniors since the 1930 class, including that class. This affair will be held at the high school building some night during the holiday week, the actual date not yet being determined. On this occasion guests will be served light refreshments during an informal social hour, after which a program will be presented. Members of this year's class will take part on this program, and it is hoped too that we can prevail on some of our former senior stars to appear again "for old time's sake."

Ex-seniors will remember that it has been the custom for all members to share the expenses of a social affair; for this reason all those attending—Seniors and ex-Seniors alike—will be asked to pay fifteen cents each. Ex-Seniors who may have attached husbands, wives, or constant admirers (who are not ex-Seniors) are invited to bring these acquirers along; they will be received with a hearty welcome—if accompanied by fifteen cents.

Be watching, ex-Seniors, for the exact date, and be planning to come. Help us talk it up, and write it to ex-Seniors living elsewhere. We hope to make it a happy occasion for all.

NORTH WARD P. T. A.

Thursday, November 8, some 80 or more members and visitors were present for a most enthusiastic meeting.

A splendid program was given, with Miss May Fields as the director. Many inspiring thoughts were expressed in the devotional by Mrs. Tucker. "The School Looks to the Future," by Mrs. Wallace Cox proved to be an intensely interesting subject. Some of the high lights are—Increasing cooperation between teachers and parents is among the hopeful signs of our times. If they will freely discuss together all the problems of childhood, the very face of the world may be changed in twenty years. New education is trying to develop tolerance and open mindedness. It is trying to develop a spirit of cooperation and team work. It may use the playground for doing this. This is trying to develop the body as well as the mind. Health isn't a fad, but a fundamental.

The children's part on this time program is always good and this time a gift from the P. T. A. The Rhythm Band, directed by Miss Hunt, played several numbers. Then a sketch thanking the organization for the play ground equipment and books was given by Louise Pierson, Rosellyn Morrison, Jack Pierson and Joe Maples.

If you, as parents, are appreciative of your schools and teachers, make an effort to attend our next meeting in December, and see if your cooperation will make better schools in the future.

Let's Talk About New Clothes

By a "Young Modern"

DENTON, Texas.—Shall we curl up on a chaise lounge with a good book and read, or shall we talk? I would suggest talking because on cold winter evenings when there's really nothing exciting to do, it makes an excellent pastime.

Then, no matter what subject one begins talking on, clothes are sure to end the discussion, and eyes naturally wander to the garments for those long winter evening "sessions." Suppose we let the mannikins of Texas State College for Women (WLA) model their "dormitory duds" for us.

First in importance comes the way corduroy pajamas made with full blousy short sleeves, high necklines and trimmed with contrasting boue buttons. These make brilliant costumes in red, blue, green and orange. Then, for a touch of the Russian influence, long loose fitting sleeves, banded with gay plaids, high necklines, likewise banded, and tunie blouses opening on the shoulders would give any ensemble a "different" slant.

If you're ambitious, get out your needles and knit some of those cunning little two piece affairs in pastel shades that are all the rage now. The necklines of these are gathered with a contrasting satin ribbon which ties in the front, and gay worsted thread outlines the contour of the neck. The pajamas legs are likewise gathered at the ankles, and the ensemble can be used for either sleeping or lounging.

What? No Smiths In the Collection of T. T. C. Names

LUBBOCK, Texas.—The ancient saying of the "butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker," is personified at Texas Technological College, with a Butcher, a Baker, and a Chandler registered.

Other vocations and avocations represented by student's names include: Carpenter, Cook, Farmer, Gardner, Miller, Porter, Potter, Butler, Brewer, Chesser, Collier, Cooper, (barrel-maker), Chapman, (merch-ant), Forrester, Harper, Archer, and a Driver, a Waggoner, and a Carter. The textile industry is well represented by a Shearer, a Weaver, a Webster (female weaver), a Dyer, a Fuller, and a Taylor.

Both a Walker and a Trotter are enrolled. Religiously Texas Tech has as students a Priest, a Christian, an Elder, a Parson, a Prior, and Noah. The nobility is as well represented with Royalty, a King, the Gentry, an Earl, a Knight, and a Prince.

The previously mentioned Fowler and Archer can find a Wren, a Crow, a Crane, a Drake, a Fox and a Lamb on the campus. Fishermen can easily cast their bait for the Bass, Herring, Sturgeon, as well as Fish enrolled.

Produce and staple goods enough to stock the Market are found in Bacon, Bean, Korn and Kolb for those who prefer their corn on the cob, Lemons, Pancake, Rice, and Wheat.

Both Snow and Frost are on the campus, as is a Case, a Couch, a Box, and a Tubbs. Cotton and Ginn, Stocking, Hair, and Glass are attending. Those interested could find Money, Cash and Price attending with a Wiseman and a Witt.

A few without classification include: Chernosky, Oooly, Opp, Zatterelle, Zaratonetis, Wischkamp-er, and Tyskiewicz.

LOWELL, Mass.—Because a sister in Scotland was fond of American ice cream, Samuel took her five gallons from here. He reported the ice cream was in good condition when he arrived abroad.

YOUR HEALTH

By John W. Brown, M. D. State Health Officer

AUSTIN, Texas.—"What the average community needs is a well organized health department which emphasizes five types of activities," says the American Public Health Association. These activities are: (1) The safeguarding of child health and motherhood; (2) the control of contagion; (3) accurate recording of births and deaths; (4) support of public health laboratories and (5) sanitary control of diseases spread from human waste and by vermin and insects.

The Texas State Department of Health provides that due emphasis be given to each of the above mentioned activities. To illustrate how these five essential functions are inter-related, the interest of the various bureaus in the new born baby, preschool and school child may be cited as an example. Child health is safeguarded by providing information and instruction of the mother. Through the Bureau of Vital Statistics, complete and accurate birth registration is kept, as well as records indicating deaths which occur among children from preventable diseases.

Contagion is prevented or controlled against further spread through the encouragement of immunization early in life, through the prompt reporting of infectious disease. Public health laboratories and sanitary engineers provide additional bulwarks of protection about child life.

Adequate health organization and wholehearted support on the part of various state and local agencies are essential if these activities are to be successfully maintained.

George Mahon Appoints Lubbock Man As Secretary

LUBBOCK, Texas.—Congressman elect George Mahon, Colorado, of the new 19th district of Texas, announces the appointment of Lloyd Croslin, a graduate of Texas Technological College, as his private secretary. The appointment will be effective upon Mahon's taking office.

The new congressman states, "I am fortunate to have such a splendid West Texan to assist me in Washington. I know Mr. Croslin intimately. He was associated actively with me during my campaign for congress and accompanied me on many occasions, going into every county in the district. I do not know of a man that I feel would be more loyal to the people of the district than Lloyd Croslin."

During the summer months Croslin was associated with Mr. Mahon in his primary campaign. Croslin was graduated from Texas Tech in the late summer of 1930 with a B. A. degree. After graduation he taught two years in the Post High School, going from there to Colorado to teach in the public schools.

Only 19 Commercial Failures Recorded

AUSTIN, Texas.—A total of nineteen commercial failures were recorded in Texas for October, against 8 for September and 34 in October last year, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. Average liabilities per failure totaled $8,632, 21 per cent greater than in September but 91 per cent below that of October last year.

THANKSGIVING DINNER IS HIGHER

Market Survey Shows 10 to 12 Per Cent Increase In Foods Comprising Menu

CHICAGO, Ill.—In eating your Thanksgiving dinner be thankful for the celery and sweet potatoes—these about the only items in a menu ranging from soup to nuts haven't gone up in price. The entire dinner will cost from 10 to 12 per cent more than a year ago, a survey of markets showed today. Primarily responsible are the increased cost of labor and last year's drought.

The national turkey population is estimated by grocery houses at 20 per cent less than last year. Figures from Texas show a decrease of 15 per cent and in the Northwest a drop of from 10 to 15 per cent. Storage of feed made turkeys difficult to raise this year, and further turkeys were so low last year, commission merchants said, that they didn't make a profit and consequently didn't raise a heavy crop this year.

Turkeys last year retailed at 22 cents a pound here and this year the housewife may expect to pay from 29 to 33 cents. A 1-cent increase may be expected Thanksgiving week. The birds are not so hefty this year, averaging 22 pounds, nor are they as good quality. There are very scarce and have jumped in retail price from 14 to 20 cents to 21 cents and 22 cents a pound. Ducks will cost from 23 to 25 cents a pound, an increase of 8 to 10 cents. Chickens are up 10 per cent and roast beef about as much. Canned goods almost have doubled. Canned corn, bottled cranberries, cranberry sauce, and other goods are higher, in addition to the cost of raw foods to consumers. Mince-meat, listed last year at 12 1/2 cents a pound, now sells at 14 cents. Potatoes, however, at 3 1/2 cents a pound, showed only an increase of half a cent. Cheeses are about the same price as last year, but a little higher, and nuts, especially imported varieties, are about the same. Good news for the young-ster Gandy is but little, if any, higher.

Processing Tax—

No longer purchase carcasses of hogs or portions thereof from farmers or feeders without incurring liability to the payment of the tax on the live weight of such carcasses or hog products where purchased for resale, rehandling or further preparation for market. Such person, market or other concern is also required to report and pay the tax on all hogs slaughtered by him for market or resale.

A producer or feeder of hogs is not defined as a processor where he slaughters hogs and sells the carcasses or portion thereof to any person or concern for resale or further preparation for market. However, the producer or feeder of hogs, who slaughters hogs and sells the carcasses or portions thereof, direct to the consumer (not for resale), such feeder or producer in such case is the processor and is required by law to make returns to the Collector of Internal Revenue and pay such tax as may be shown to be due on account of such processing. The producer (not including a feeder) of hogs is privileged to slaughter and sell not more than 300 pounds of pork products during any marketing year direct to the consumer, tax exempt.

The 300 pound exemption referred to means that not more than 300 pounds of hog products can be sold tax free by any one producer to the consumer during the marketing year. The marketing year is from November 5th of one year to November 5th of the following year. The producer who sells more than 300 pounds under the above exemption provision of pork products during the marketing year incurs legal liability for payment of the processing tax on the full amount sold in excess of 300 pounds.

Football—

took the ball right smack through the center of the line for the six point score. Haskell players were out there, but not in front of Mr. Terry.

The Indians, belying their reputation of not being able to play hard in the first half, took charge of the game from the start and for the first two quarters played their best ball of the season. Every Indian player got into the game with a vengeance, and not until both Jack Kimbrough and Starr were knocked out, did the highly-touted Mr. Terry of Stamford do anything. Not a semblance of a first down could the Jones county lads make while the first-string lineup was intact.

J. D. (Call Me Speedy) Tidwell, Haskell half, was started in a conference game for the first time this season and played a whole of a game, even though the field was muddy, which hampered his running. Haskell fans, after Friday night's "classic" are already figuring on next year's team.

Right through the Haskell lineup you can name the various players and list good plays they made, and only a play-by-play would give jus-

CHURCHES

THE CHURCH OF CHRIST

A. F. Thurman, Preacher

The sermon subject for the morning hour is to be this: "Solomon Dedicates the Temple." It would be well to read the following while you wait: "I was glad when they said unto me, let me go into the house of Jehovah" (Ps. 122:1.) And this "And Solomon offered for the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered unto Jehovah, two and twenty thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the King and all of the children of Israel dedicated the house of Jehovah." (I. King 8:63.) Now that you are reading read this: "To whom coming as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious. Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ." (I. Peter, 2:4, 5.) Being anxious to read more, as you now are, I offer this for your study: "But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God—which is the church of the living God—the pillar and the ground of the truth." (I. Tim 3:15.)

Sermon subject for the evening is to be this: "Foot Washing—Jesus Washes the Apostles' Feet." What is the good lesson taught by it? Should we do it now? Is it a church ordinance? Are you too good to do it? Are you too proud to do it? Look for the principle involved.

METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. Sam H. Young of Snyder, the new presiding elder of the Stamford district will fill the pulpit at the Methodist Church Sunday night. Rev. Young takes the place of Dr. Geo. S. Slover and Dr. Slover goes to Memphis, Texas, as presiding elder. The public is cordially invited to be with us in the services Sunday night.

Justice where justice belongs—even for that fatal last quarter.

How the scores were made seemed only incidental to the fans, who only wanted, a check would show, from five to twenty touchdowns against Stamford.

Haskell chalked up the first touchdown of the game when, after a few minutes of play, Phippen intercepted a pass by Terry on Stamford's 30-yard line and streaked down the field over the goal line. Adkins elected to kick and made it good.

The second touchdown was made soon afterward on straight football plays. After receiving the ball about midfield, John Kimbrough plunged several times for substantial gains which took the ball deep into Stamford's territory. Tidwell then rang up additional yards with a beautiful end run around left. Jack Kimbrough passed about 15 yards to John Kimbrough, who later went over the final line by a hard line plunge. John's kick was good.

Haskell's next scoring came quickly, and the nature of it had the fans puzzled. Terry attempted to punt out of his own territory, but "attempted" was all, because McMillian, husky Haskell center blocked, and after a free-for-all race for the ball which had bounded back toward the Stamford goal, he fell toward the ball. A safety of two points was counted.

In the third quarter, John Kimbrough, on a deceptive play, took the ball on his own 35-yard line and raced ahead of the charging Bulldogs for a touchdown. He also kicked for the extra point and failed.

Haskell countered again in the first quarter when the Indians marched down the field on a mixed assortment of plays to Stamford's 10 yard line. The referee slapped a penalty on Stamford for talking, and placed the ball half the distance. Sherman plunged for the touchdown and John Kimbrough kicked for the point.

Haskell made thirteen first downs to Stamford's seven. Ten of Haskell's down were made in the first half, while Stamford "saved" all of theirs until the last half.

A PRACTICAL WAY TO CREATE EMPLOYMENT

A large number of prominent industrialists, along with an army of public officials and economists, are of the opinion that stimulated residential construction offers the best chance of accelerating the pace of recovery.

Construction is a local industry. The money that is spent goes first to local people—to workers, contractors, building supply houses. Every business in the community is benefitted, from the corner grocery to the electric utility. Every pocketbook feels the fattening effect of construction dollars.

The great drive to boom construction is getting under way now. Private capital that has been tied up in non-productive channels is going to work. A vast need for housing exists, in both urban and rural localities—there has never been so great a potential demand for better and more modern homes.

So far as the individual citizen is concerned, he is now being offered an unprecedented opportunity to build on extremely favorable terms. Almost all the costs involved—from paint to interest charges—are well under previous levels. It is the part of wisdom to make the fullest possible use of that opportunity.

WHEN TO STOP ADVERTISING

When every man has become so thoroughly a creature of habit that he will certainly buy this year where he bought last year.

When younger and fresher and spunkier concerns in your line cease starting up and using the newspapers in telling the people how much better they can do for them than you can.

When nobody else thinks "it pays to advertise."

When population ceases to multiply and the generations that crowd on after you, and never heard of you, come on.

When you have convinced everybody, whose life will touch yours, that you have better goods and lower prices than they can ever get anywhere outside of your store.

When you perceive it to be the rule that men who never do and never did advertise are outstripping their neighbors in the same line of business.

When men stop making fortunes right in your sight, solely through the discreet use of this mighty agent.

When you can forget the words of the shrewdest and most successful business men concerning the main cause of their prosperity.

When you would rather have your own way and fail than take advice and win.

When you want to get out of business with a stock on hand.

When you want to get rid of the trouble of waiting on customers.—Gazette, Lexington, Virginia.

A SOLDIER'S VIEW

It may be true that military men favor maintenance of larger armies and navies than the average citizen deems necessary. But that they want war is not true. No class is more opposed to war than those who must inevitably take part in it when it comes. Particularly is this true of those who have experienced the horrors of war.

But military men who have seen the slaughter of untrained or partially trained troops are naturally believers in adequate measures of preparedness. As a rule they have little faith in the idea that war is a thing of the past.

At the same time they realize that public sentiment is against a large regular military establishment and content themselves with making the best preparations possible with the means Congress provides. Their attitude is well expressed by Major General Charles P. Sumner, who once said:

"We have never fought a war with trained and equipped troops, and we never shall do so. It is inconsistent with the form of our government and the psychology of our people to maintain adequate military preparedness. They would rather pay the price that has followed every war than to spend a part of that amount in preserving peace."

AMERICAN HOMES BEST

The advantages enjoyed by the average American citizen are more impressive to B. C. Forbes, the well-known American writer of business subjects, whenever he visits Europe. He was born in Scotland and he knows his way about in Europe. He has just returned from abroad with some interesting conclusions directly in favor of our home conditions.

Telephones are rare, and newspapers do not have the wide circulation they have here, where they are regarded as a necessity in the average home. In a typical English boarding house he visited he found only one ordinary workman wearing a spotless shirt, collar and tie, and that workman was an American.

Furthermore, Mr. Forbes reports that he found virtually no washing machines, another American device which has become so widely adopted in this country that its absence in the average home is likely to be a matter of comment by any visitor.

The living standards of the average European family are so much lower than the average American family that the contrast is remarkable. Mr. Forbes points out that anyone who goes into the home of the average European and observes its great lack of such equipment as is common in America to ease the burden of the housewife and to make living simpler and more economical, becomes thankful that he lives in the United States instead of in Europe.

PICK UPS

During moonlight nights the roof of the home of S. A. Hughes appears as if covered with snow. . . . We wonder what type of tobacco Jason Smith smokes? Someone, whose name we modestly hesitate to mention, placed shavings out of a pencil sharpener in Jason's pipe the other day—and how he did splutter when he tried to smoke the mixture. . . . and Willard Warren paid no attention to the fact that someone had placed red pepper in his pipe. He just blew on it—and one of those responsible for the pepper being in the pipe received the benefit and had a fit of sneezing. . . . Too bad Fritz Taylor wasn't here when that fine rain fell this week. . . . We felt rather sorry for the girls selling programs at the football game Friday night. No one offered to assist them. . . . Two little Haskell girls squabble to see which one gets to take her nap in the bathtub. How times do change. We remember how we fought to keep from taking our bath in the water which had been used to wash the clothes. Water was not wasted in those days. . . . One Haskell couple came out of the picture show the other evening, tried to start their car, but the key wouldn't fit. So they called up a son of theirs and told him to bring the right key, but said son found that his dad had been trying to start a car belonging to someone else. . . . Did you see that ten-point buck Giles Kemp brought back from the Davis "mountings"? "Rusty" DeBard says Giles killed the deer at 600 yards, but the sheriff-elect is more modest and claims that the bullet only traveled about 400 yards. . . . Incidentally while on the hunting trip, Giles met T. A. Tucker, Haskell county's first sheriff, who is now about 90 years of age, but still "hale and hearty". . . . We listened in over a radio and heard a good suggestion made, to-wit: Let's all say "I Know Something Good About You" instead of saying, or repeating, things which are derogatory. Haskell should sponsor a "Good Sayings Week". . . .

We received a postal card from Lieut. H. K. Henry, former Haskell citizen, who is now located several miles from Rimrock, Ariz., in a CCC camp. . . . H. K. reports that he is enjoying his stay very much, which is fine and dandy, but we refuse to get excited about the place ourselves. He declares that they need a publicity agent and invites us to join up, but we had rather write about more mundane affairs. . . . A picture of an ancient cliff dweller's ruins was on the postal, and although the picture may have been taken before H. K. got there, those haddlers up to the various "houses" looks suspicious. H. K. likes to raise chickens and we venture a prediction that some of those rooms would make a fine place for chicken coops. . . .

Our Wife's Pet Peeves

They all have them—those trifling irritations that makes one want to scream. One husband will spill ashes on the new rug, while another will try to act cute before other women. It doesn't matter how good a provider said husband is, he is generally good for at least one annoying habit that "us girls" would like for him to cast away. It is needless to say that very few husbands cease these annoyances, regardless of how much scolding our wives do. . . . While making the rounds this week, we queried several women regarding such habits, and their answers were remembered; not one woman did we meet, however, that failed to give us at least one "pet peeve". . . . Husbands, here are a few of those replies. See if you can recognize your wife's. . . . Says the woman: —For three long years, every morning, my husband has asked me if I put any sugar in his coffee. I never have, but I'm going to some morning with a vengeance. —My husband is TOO punctual. No one has to wait on HIM. He is always ready and rushes everyone else. So "rushed" is he, that his tie is generally askew, his shoes unshined, etc., but he'll be ready and waiting. —My husband? He has so darn many, I can't remember all of 'em, but one thing that does peeve me a lot is that he won't take care of our son as much as he should. —My husband makes me mad because he goes to sleep sooner than I do. —My goodness! He'll read his newspaper after I have called him to the table—and then have to wash before coming to the table. —My provider is only interested in business. He'll take me places sometimes, but never, in all our sixteen years of married life, has HE ever expressed a desire to go anywhere or do anything except attend to business. —Matches! How I hate 'em. My husband strikes one and then throws it just any old place in the house. He doesn't care. —I don't know whether it is a peeve or not, but my husband makes me mad because he waits so long to get a haircut. —Just as regularly as clockwork, my husband will start the car, and before I can even think, he kills the

-CURRENT COMMENT-

PARENT SHIFTS BURDEN OF CHILD TO TEACHER

(Wichita Falls Record-News)
Unless we revise our way of training children in the public schools we may presently find that we have reared a generation of "faded old youngsters" utterly devoid of a sense of value.

This is the warning of Dr. William Ernest Hocking, professor of philosophy at Harvard, issued to a school teachers' convention in Ohio recently.

Teaching children how to solve problems in arithmetic, how to spell, how to reel off the names of the presidents, and how to hound the state of Kentucky, Dr. Hocking suggests, is pretty near useless unless, at the same time, we give them the mental and emotional training which will enable them to get something out of their lives besides the empty repetition of a monotonous routine.

Now the significant thing about this is the fact that the speaker seems to take it for granted that the youngsters are to get this kind of development in the school rather than in the home.

One of the most profound changes any human society could undergo has been taking place in this country in recent years, and most of us have hardly noticed it.

We have not only given to our schools the job of teaching our children how to read and write; we have, to a very great extent, also given them the task of developing our children's character, establishing their ideals, and suggesting to them the approaches to adulthood.

A homely illustration will show the trend. Hardly anyone spans his child any more; and while that may be an excellent thing, the old-time firmness of parental discipline has pretty largely vanished at the same time.

It has been transferred to the school room. The child whose parents "can't do a thing with him"—and his name is legion, nowadays—takes the mark in school very obediently.

He has to. He knows teachers will make it hot for him if he doesn't.

Now there is merely a symbol of the way in which we have transferred parental responsibilities to the school ma'am. The only reason why we are not raising the most spoiled brats the world ever knew is that the schools are doing our work for us.

It is for that reason that Dr. Hocking's warning is timely. It calls on the educators to recognize that they have been given a responsibility which, from time immemorial, has rested on the parent.

engine. Day in, and day out! Then he wonders why I almost scream. —My husband will invariably try to talk with his thumb in his mouth. —Maybe you haven't noticed it, but my husband is so polite to other women—tips his hat, asks them about their health, tells them how nice they look—but lets me get in the car the best way I can and just grunts when I tell him I am not feeling well. And other women marvel at the nice manners my husband has! —If I walk home, my husband will go too, but just as soon as we get there, whether at noon or night, he immediately falls asleep and snores. But let me swish around and prepare to go back to town, awake he comes and ambles along, too! He is the sleepingest man in town. —My husband grumbles terribly if I tell him we are going to a party, fusses all the way there and then always has a good time. —My husband is always wanting to read me something out of a newspaper, or magazine, just when I am interested in something else. —My husband thinks it funny to step on my pet corn. —If you are a contract bridge player and want a partner that will bid, bid and BID, play with my husband. He thinks I know nothing about the game. All you have to do to get my husband to bid is to indicate—and he'll take your bid up to four, five or six. He doesn't mind. He's just "playing for fun" anyway. —My husband is the best in town, but at that, he has a habit, I wish he would quit, but I know he won't. I've noticed other husbands do the same thing—they have nice enough manners when they want to have, but they'll attend some party and then act as if they never had anything to eat before in their life. And how they grab for things. —My husband thinks he has a gift for sarcasm. —I've wondered many times why my husband acts like he cares for me more than anything in the world while no one else is around, but just let us get in public and the brute tries to act like a cave-man. —My husband (and other husbands, too) wouldn't take that "Pittie drink" if they could see what they look like—perfect fools! —My dearly beloved husband is close-mouthed. He hears something downtown, which he doesn't tell me, and when, about a week later I breathlessly inform him of a new tidbit, he mumbles that he knew it several days ago. Am I mad? —Hidden letters. After ten years of wedded bliss, my choice still gets my letters out of the postoffice and then forgets to give them to me. But that isn't as bad as the way the husband of my friend acts—he OPENS all of her letters, even if it is only a circular. —And on and on. Hundreds, yes thousands of irritating manners. The story is only half told, however.

The husband can point out a few "pet peeves" of his own, which we may take up in our next broadcast. What does your husband do? . . . Some people repent because their sins were found out.

Thanksgiving Dinner Had In Traditional Manner

Innovations in food are all very well on other days in the year—but on Thanksgiving we all expect to feast our palates and appetites on the traditional turkey with its accompaniment of cranberries, turnips, puddings and pies. So, while menus all over the country will not be identical on this great day they will, to be sure, have certain fundamental things in common. Here is a menu for a typical Thanksgiving dinner:

Stuffed Celery
Green and Ripe Olives
Giblet Gravy
Mashed Potatoes
Baked Squash with Pineapple
Holiday Salad
Parker House Rolls
Pumpkin Pie
American Cheese
Coffee
Stuffed Celery
1 package Camembert Cheese
14 cup heavy cream.
1 cup chopped California walnuts.
Salt to taste.
1 tablespoon lemon juice.
Few drops tobacco sauce.
Paprika.

Mix together cheese and cream and thoroughly blended. Add the chopped nuts, lemon juice, tobacco sauce and salt to taste. Fill small uniform stalks of celery with the mixture and sprinkle with paprika.

Roast Turkey
Draw and singe a turkey. Rub with flour. Wash with lukewarm water, then rinse with cold water and drain, after which rub with salt and pepper both inside and out and let stand overnight. In the morning fill with any good stuffing. The following is a good dressing—

Turkey Dressing
Mix 4 cups bread crumbs (no nuts) with 2 teaspoons salt, 14 cup onion pepper, 1 1/2 teaspoons of dry seasoning and 4 tablespoons finely chopped parsley. Moisten with 3/4 cup hot milk or broth to which 6 tablespoons melted fat have been added. Add 2 1/2 cups of finely chopped bread crumbs. Mix well. Put turkey well inside. Stuff. Sew up the turkey, place in a roasting pan and roast until tender and done.

Baked Squash With Pineapple
Halve, remove seeds and steam 1 medium-size winter squash. Then slice 1 1/4 inch thick. Arrange squash in layers in a baking dish and sprinkle each layer with butter or other fat and 1/2 cup of crushed canned pineapple. When dish is full (squash should be top layer) place in a moderate oven and bake about 1 hour.

Holiday Salad
First layer:
1 tablespoon gelatin.
1/4 cup cold water.
1 cup seasoned strained tomato juice.
Second layer:
1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin.
1/4 cup cold water.
1 cup boiling water.
2 tablespoons vinegar or lemon juice.
1 tablespoon sugar.
1/2 teaspoon salt.
1 cup finely shredded cabbage.

1 1/4 cup finely shredded green pepper.
1 1/2 cup finely cut celery.
Soak gelatin for the first layer in cold water 5 minutes. Add seasoned tomato juice, puree, or soup and stir until mixed. Pour into a small square or loaf pan and chill until firm. Pour over this the second layer made as follows: Soak the gelatin in cold water 5 minutes. Add the boiling water and stir until mixed; then season with the vinegar or lemon juice, sugar and salt. Cool, add the shredded cabbage, pepper and celery. Pour over the tomato-gelatin mixture. Chill until both layers are firm. Cut into squares and serve on lettuce with mayonnaise.

Parker House Rolls
2 cups scalded milk.
1 teaspoon salt.
1 tablespoon sugar.
6 cups flour.
4 tablespoons butter.
1 yeast cake, dissolved.
2 teaspoons lukewarm water.
Put salt, sugar and butter in bowl; pour over scalded milk, when cool add yeast and 4 cups of flour, beat thoroughly. When full of bubbles add yeast and 2 cups of flour, knead until smooth and elastic to touch. Let it rise to twice the bulk, cut down, rise again, then turn onto the board and roll out in sheet 1/2 inch thick, cut with pastry cutter, brush with butter, fold so that the upper edge overlaps the under one, press edges together and let rise 1 hour and bake in a hot oven 15 to 20 minutes.

Pumpkin Pie
1 quart milk.
3 cups boiled and strained pumpkin.
1 1/2 cups sugar.
1 level tablespoon ginger.
1 level tablespoon cinnamon.
1/2 cup molasses.
4 eggs.
Pinch of salt.
1 level tablespoon of flour mixed with sugar.
Mix the above ingredients and pour in a pie shell lined with rich pastry. Bake until a silver knife inserted in the filling comes out clean.

Filling
1 cup sugar.
2 tablespoons flour.
1 cup boiling water.
1 package dates.
2 tablespoons lemon juice.
1/2 cup nut meats.
Mix flour and sugar and stir in boiling water. Cook until thick, stirring constantly. Add the chopped dates, nuts and lemon juice. Cool. Cut chilled dough into thin pieces. Place a spoonful of the filling into the center of a round. Cover with a second round and press edges together firmly. Bake on a well oiled baking sheet in a moderately hot oven for 10 minutes.

After cooperating in the 1933 plow-up campaign, Mr. Wischkaemper decided to plant 50 acres to alfalfa on a narrow strip of land one mile long. The land is sandy loam and lies along a ravine; it is usually flooded during heavy rains. About 18 pounds of alfalfa was planted per acre last September. Mr. Wischkaemper reports that on October 12 he had made four cuttings of 400 bales and that it was almost ready for another cutting of 1200 bales. He says that the net returns from alfalfa exceed that of cotton or other crops on this tract of land by a large per cent.

Friday night. The Indians really played a wonderful game and we were certainly proud of them.

Did you hear the Pep Squad? Their enthusiasm was running high and they were peppier than ever. Usually, near the end of the season the Pep Squad's spirit is rather low, but, Oh! no not this year. We have a Pep Squad whose pep grows with each game.

Among some of our heartiest football fans are the parents and relatives of our "Braves". Some of them came from such distances as Wichita Falls, Abilene, Sweetwater and Albany.

Just think Indians, only two more games before the season of 1934 will be over. Remember, "Boys" every Haskellite is backing you and wishing you the best of luck when you meet the Roscoe Snowboys next Friday. Will you be our part?

We also want to know what the outsiders thought of that game with the Bulldogs of Stamford. How did you feel when you saw "Old Stamford" rolled, tumbled and tossed about for four quarters? We noticed that little half-back Tidwell was leading a bunch of barking Bulldogs around and also that one trick play was worked so well that even the players themselves knew not where the ball was going until someone on the side line noticed a stray player running wild for 25 yards.

We're sorry that some of our players received injuries and hope they will be in fine shape for the next battle. What would the fan "backs" do if they did not have such splendid centers, guards, tackles and ends to open holes for them to plunge through?

As you know the Indian Braves are scheduled to meet the Roscoe Snowboys next week and we want them to fight hard and bring home another victory for dear "Old Haskell High School". We know they will do their best so who knows that perhaps next week we will have another star in our crown of victories?

Oh! Yes! We must say something about our "Little Indians" game Saturday with Hamlin at Hamlin. Score: Haskell 24, Hamlin 0. Just imagine Eugene Rose's surprise when he woke up and discovered he was dreaming and the true score was Haskell 6, Hamlin 7. Eugene! How could you deceive us like that? Now don't get discouraged, "Little Indians" that score was a great improvement over your first game with Hamlin and shows that the team is improving. So keep up the good work "Little Indians" you'll be big Indians some day.

BASKET BALL FLASHES
Our girls played their first game of the season against the Rochester basket ball girls last Friday afternoon on Haskell court. The score was 14 to 10 in Rochester's favor. Since this was Rochester's ninth game of the season we feel that our girls had a good showing.

The line-up of our team is as follows:
Annie Ruth Bates, Forward, Co. Captain.
Mary Helen Bland, forward.
Rose Cousins, Captain, center.
Velma Davis, forward.
Violet Harrell, forward.
Corene Laird, center.
Lois Laird, forward and center.
Edyth Moody, guard.
Maggie Pfland, guard.
Grace Rose, center, guard.
Christina Tucker, center.
Louise Zahn, forward and guard.
Janice Tate, center.

Several games have been scheduled for the future, and we are expecting other girls to join our basket ball club.

LUCKY GIRL
Her mother felt that family physicians and child specialists, and the hospitals must be right. A simple test that proves they are.

If anyone in your family is occasionally sluggish or constipated; especially any child, you should know this medical truth:

You cannot get safe relief with any medicine if you cannot regulate the dose. And to regulate dosage, you should have a liquid laxative. With a liquid laxative, you can gradually reduce the dose. And that is the secret of safe relief from a sluggish, constipated condition.

Why Doctors Use Liquid Laxatives
A liquid laxative can be measured. Its potency can be thus controlled. If properly made, of natural laxative elements like senna and cascara, it forms no habit—even in the youngest child. And such a laxative will help the bowels to help themselves, not make matters worse.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is an approved liquid laxative containing herbs, active senna, and cascara, and is the one widely used. You can always obtain it at any drugstore. Why not make the "Liquid Test" which has attracted so much attention of late? It helps nearly everyone who tries it. It may make you feel better than you have in a long time.

If you will risk sixty cents to discover the natural, comfortable action of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, we believe bowel worries will be over for your household.

RISES IN STATE COSTS IS SHOWN

Legislature's Appropriations for Texas Almost 3 Times Amount 18 Years Ago

Appropriations of the Texas Legislature are almost three times as much today as they were 18 years ago, according to a survey just completed by Wallace C. Murphy of Dallas, director of research of the Industrial, Commercial and Agricultural Conference.

In 1915 the Legislature appropriated $15,843,140 to operate the state departments and institutions for a two-year period and in 1934-35 the appropriations totaled $40,054,860, according to the survey. "Appropriations for the latter biennium were almost entirely to cover salaries and expenses of state employees—very little in the way of permanent improvements being included—while in 1915 more than $2,000,000 of the total was for permanent improvements, making the appropriations for state employees in 1934-35 more than three times what they were in 1916-17," the survey states.

"No serious attempt has been made during the last 18 years to reorganize the government departments in the interest of economy and efficiency," says a statement issued by the Industrial, Commercial and Agricultural Conference. "As a result the number of employees has steadily increased until at present the total is more than three times the number in 1916. In fact, this branch of the state service shows the greatest total appropriations, amount to operate the various state departments being $2,744,400 in 1916-17. For 1934-35 the amount had grown to $8,728,372, an increase of 290 per cent. Some of the departmental increases were more than 300 per cent.

"Increases in appropriations for educational institutions are slightly less than for the executive departments, the rise being 156 per cent. Appropriations totaled $3,585,438 in 1916-17 and $9,194,145 for 1934-35."

Another section of the report says that although the state population increased only 44 per cent from 1915 to 1933, the appropriations for the state judiciary increased 86 per cent

Invests Only $1.20, But Secures $14.50 In Canned Products

On an investment of only $1.20 for 90 feet of tile, a return of $14.50 in money value in canned products was made by Mrs. Paul Frierson of the Midway home demonstration club. The products consisted of 100 pounds of fresh tomatoes, 12 quarts soup mixture, 12 quarts of juice, 4 quarts catsup, 12 quarts of canned tomatoes.

Tomatoes grown on tile required watering every 10 days or 2 weeks and produced abundantly since July 18th.

Mrs. Frierson set out 60 tomato plants of three different varieties, New Prichard, Break O' Day, and Peach.

Spinach was grown on the tile in the early spring before the tomato plants were set out. Mrs. Frierson plans to put down 90 feet more of tile and plant lettuce, mustard, and radishes on it before time to set out tomato plants.

SAGERTON FARMER OWNS HEN WHICH LAYS EGG OF PEANUT SIZE AND SHAPE

If any person living in the sandy lands wishes to know how to grow "peanuts" or rather know how peanuts should look, M. D. Ross, farmer of Sagerton, advises them to take a look at an egg one of his hens laid recently.

Ross brought a peanut-shaped egg into the office of R. H. Maxwell this week, which he declared was laid by one of his year-old Plymouth Rock hens. The egg was no larger than a good-sized peanut.

When questioned, Ross admitted that this particular hen did not make a practice of laying such type eggs.

Little Robert Bruce Reynolds arrived at the Knox City hospital Wednesday, November 21st, weighing 7 lbs., 11 oz., and will call Virgil Reynolds "papa". He is the grand son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce W. Bryant of Austin and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Reynolds of Haskell.

Tempting Dishes For Holidays

Certain dishes seem to "fit in" with the holiday spirit—plum pudding, mince and pumpkin pies, fine cakes and crunchy cookies. They intensify the holiday mood and give a special enjoyment to the meals they enrich. Here are some variations of the old familiar foods and some new dishes that will be appropriate to the holiday season.

Glazed Sweet Potatoes

6 cooked peeled sweet potatoes.
1 cup dark brown sugar.
1 cup water.
4 tablespoons butter.
1 teaspoon salt.
14 teaspoon pepper.
Cut potatoes in halves. Mix rest of ingredients and boil 4 minutes. Pour over potatoes which have been placed in a shallow pan. Bake 30 minutes in a moderate oven. Turn frequently to allow even cooking.

Sweet Potatoes With Apples

3 cooked medium sweet potatoes.
3 cooking apples.
1 3-4 cups crumbled ginger snaps.
1-2 teaspoon salt.
3 tablespoons butter.
1-3 cup sugar.
1 tablespoon lemon juice.
1 cup hot water.

Scalloped Chicken With Mushroom Sauce

1 medium sized cooked chicken or about 1 quart cooked and diced chicken.
2 cups soft bread crumbs.
1 cup cooked and drained rice.
1-4 cup diced pimento.
4 beaten eggs.
1 teaspoon salt.
1-4 cup melted butter or chicken fat.
3 cups milk or chicken stock.
Pepper to taste.

Mix these ingredients in the order named and pour into a greased ring mold or casserole. Bake in a slow oven for 1 1/4 hours. Let stand about 10 minutes then turn out on a deep platter and if baked in a ring mold fill the center with mushroom sauce.

To make one pound of dry alfalfa hay, the growing plant needs to absorb and later give off or transpire from 500 to 750 pounds of water.

room sauce or if baked in a dish the sauce may be poured over.

Mushroom Sauce

4 tablespoons fat.
5 tablespoons flour.
2 cups chicken stock.
Pepper and salt to taste.
1 tablespoon chopped parsley.
1 teaspoon lemon juice.
1-2 pound cooked sauted mushrooms.
2 beaten egg yolks.
1-4 cup thick cream.
Melt the fat, add the flour, and smooth to a paste. Add the chicken stock and seasonings and cook. Add the mushrooms and beaten egg yolks mixed with cream. Cook gently, stirring until the egg yolks are cooked.

Mince-meat Pinwheels

1 9-ounce package condensed mince-meat.
1-2 cup cold water.
2 cups flour.
5 teaspoons baking powder.
1-2 teaspoon salt.
2 tablespoons shortening.
2-3 cup milk.
Cinnamon, brown sugar and melted butter.

Break the mince-meat into pieces, add the cold water, place over heat and stir until all lumps are thoroughly broken up. Bring to a brisk boil and continue boiling for about 3 minutes or until the mixture is practically dry. Allow to cool. Mix and sift the flour, baking powder and salt. Work in the shortening with the finger-tips. Add the milk gradually, mixing to a soft dough. Toss on a floured board and pat and roll lightly 1/4 inch thick. Brush with the melted butter and sprinkle lightly with the brown sugar and cinnamon. Spread lightly with the cooled mince-meat. Roll up like a jelly roll and cut off pieces 3/4 inch thick. Place with cut edges down on a greased pan. Bake in a hot oven for about 25 minutes. Remove immediately from pan turning upside down to serve.

Cranberry Pie

Line pie plate with well-chilled rich pastry. Fill with washed and drained cranberries. Allow about 4 cups of cranberries to a 9-inch pie plate. Sprinkle over the cranberries

1 cup sugar mixed with 2 tablespoons of flour. Place strips of pastry, lattice fashion over top of pie and flute edges with a fork. Bake in a hot oven 15 minutes, then reduce heat to moderate and bake 30 minutes longer.

Date Pie-Cookies

3 1-2 cups flour.
3 teaspoons baking powder.
1-2 teaspoon salt.
1 cup shortening.
1 cup sugar.
1 egg.
1 teaspoon vanilla.
1-2 cup milk.
Sift dry ingredients. Cream butter, add sugar slowly then beaten eggs and vanilla. Add flour, baking powder and salt alternately with milk. Shape mixture into two long rolls about 2 inches in diameter. Chill thoroughly.
