GAS IS NO RESPECTER OF INNOCENCE

TWO INJURED WHEN BLOW-OUT OVERTURNS AUTO NEAR CORINTH

Arthur Weinstein, 25, of Burnett and Miss Maxine Hill, 16, of Wichita Falls were injured Sunday night when the car in which they were riding overturned near the Corinth community. A blow-out is thought to have caused the accident. Another young woman who was in the car was not injured.

Weinstein and Miss Hill were brought to the Stamford Sanitarium for treatment. Miss Hill was dismissed Monday afternoon and Weinstein remained for further treatment. He received back injuries and painful bruises.

The group was en route from Wichita Falls to Abilene where machinery parts were being taken for repairs when the accident occurred.—Stamford American.

HOUSTON BRIDGES KILLED MONDAY BY CAVE-IN OF WELL

One of the saddest and most tragic deaths in our community for years was that of Houston Bridges, who was buried under six feet of dirt at 4:30 Monday afternoon in a well on the C. L. Cave farm two miles south of town.

Mr. Cave, Houston and Willie Hardy were cleaning out the well, taking time about working in the well. Mr. Bridges had about finished his time in the well and Mr. Cave was preparing to go down when wooden casing at the bottom of the well gave way and buried him suddenly to his shoulders. He called for help, but immediately there was a caving of dirt from above which brought down dirt to cover him about six feet.

Mr. Cave hurried to town and summoned help. In a few minutes there were 25 men on the ground and the work of extracting the unfortunate man began. Hoping that he would be rescued quickly, a call was sent to Sweetwater for a pulmotor which was rushed here at high speed.

As soon as the rescue work started the walls of the well began caving again so that little progress could be made. Within an hour the crowd of willing workers had increased to more than 100 and it was seen that it would take time to get him out, as only one man at a time could work in the well, which was three and one-half feet in diameter and twenty feet deep.

Ladies of the town carried out sandwiches and coffee for the workers and at nine o'clock they found they were within two and one-half feet of the body and thought the rescue work could be completed before midnight. Shortly after, the workers encountered a slush that further impeded the work. A mud pump was suggested, and Mr. Shaw of Abilene who was on the ground went to the highway near McCaulley to get one. Before he returned the body was recovered at 1:15 Tuesday morning.—Rotan Advance.

BOY 17 KILLED BY TRUCK

Carl Favor was called to Albuquerque, New Mexico Monday in the death of his nephew Gene Leathwood, 17, whose death was caused by a truck. Circumstances of the accident are yet unknown.

Carl was accompanied by his son Vaughnie and Mrs. E. R. Carpenter and son. They went to Rising Star for Carl's father and his sister and enroute there Vaughnie became ill. He returned to Knox City and left Vaughnie and Mrs. Carpenter and son but the other three continued en route to Albuquerque.—Knox County Herald.

BOYS KILL FIFTEEN SKUNKS AT OLD LAKE

Fifteen skunks were killed at the old Bomar Lake, also known as the old City Lake, Friday by J. M. Hill Jr. and Tom Ray Roberts.

Armed with a .22 calibre rifle and a .410 gauge shotgun the boys found the skunks in the ground where the old lake had cracked open. The old lake is about four miles south of Crowell. The land is owned by Dr. J. M. Hill of Crowell.—Foard County News.

TUSCOLA WOMAN KILLED BY SANTA FE PASSENGER

Mrs. George Westbrook, housekeeper for section foreman, T. F. Hicks at Tuscola, was killed by a west bound passenger train last Friday morning at 9:40 as she walked along the side of the railroad track. Her body was caught on the pilot of the locomotive and borne some 60 feet before the train could be brought to a stop, a short distance north of the section house.

Witnesses of the accident expressed opinion Mrs. Westbrook

East to West

This girl was "Miss Nacogdoches" in the Slave Mart of the Texas Centennial Exposition until the Nacogdoches (East Texas) sheriff arrived with two guns at his side. Then she was nameless until the citizens of Benjamin (West Texas) telegraphed, "Benjamin lost its clothes in the depression, too. Call her 'Miss Benjamin'." So now "Miss Benjamin" she is.

either thought she was walking along a parallel side track, unaware it had recently been removed and did not apprehend her danger, or that she hoped to reach a path just ahead before the train came upon her. She had started to a garden on the right of way west of the track to gather vegetables. As the whistle of the approaching train was sounded, she waved her vegetable basket as in salute, onlookers said.—Jim Ned Valley Reporter.

The new store will have as its manager A. G. Dunwoody, who has been in the dry goods business for the past twenty-five years with the exception of two years. Mr. Dunwoody is well known here, having worked for J. O. Brown and Bryant-Like company here.

He has several brothers here. Mr. Dunwoody is moving here this week from Spur.

Mr. Marlow says he will have an up-to-date store.—Western Enterprise.

SANTA FE OFFICIALS SAY DAWSON COUNTY CROP PROSPECTS BEST

H. M. Bainer, general agricultural agent for the Santa Fe railroad was in Lamesa, Thursday, looking over the crop prospects for this section of the Southwest and declared that he found the best crops in Dawson county that he had seen throughout his tour.

Mr. Bainer is a veteran Santa Fe man, having been with the road since the days when Lamesa was merely a village, and he recounted several anecdotes of his early days in this territory.

He was especially impressed with cotton prospects around Lamesa, stating that he could recall one or two other years when prospects were so fine, but was also very enthusiastic concerning the outlook for small grain. The grain market is beginning to show signs of considerable activity in this section of the state, and Mr. Bainer is of the opinion that much of the country's supply of feed and seed grain will come from right around here.—Dawson County Courier.

6 FIGHT, ALL LOSE

Six fighters entered the "ring" during a dance at Dickens Tuesday night of last week, but the county won the decision in the first round, according to Sheriff Koonsman.

A fight between a drunk and a dancer grew into a gang contest involving six would-be pugilists before the county stepped in with so many "charges" to retain the championship and win the "money". It is understood the sluggers will be disqualified hereafter.—Dickens County Times.

FRY EGGS ON SIDEWALKS

The new fashion or fad is frying eggs on the sidewalks. All over the country they have done this. Here in Stamford, Albert Ivey, Jr., tried it and he had a fine egg with each and every calory present as a result. This was Wednesday when the weather man actually turned on the heat here to 114 degrees at 4 p. m. "sack and all and you board yourself," as A. C. Braun would put it. Or perhaps it is "Pope Leo the Two Eye," his clerk who uses that expression.—Stamford Leader.

RECALLS MOB RULE IN SAN SABA COUNTY

(Ft. Worth Star-Telegram)

Forty years ago in July and August were the darkest days in the 80-year-old history of San Saba County. For it was in these two months that factional differences reached the proportions of a war and for two years Rangers struggled with it before mob rule could be suppressed.

Credit for running down and breaking up the San Saba mob is given to Ranger Sergt. W. John L. Sullivan and his men, although Capt. Bill McDonald also was active in the prolonged operation, as was W. C. Linden, now assistant district attorney at San Antonio for this district. Captain McDonald is the authority for the statement that mob rule in San Saba County cost the lives of forty-two men.

Sullivan, who had scouted here alone, arrived at San Saba on August 13, 1896, with a detachment of three men whom Governor C. A.

Miss Cecile Bray of Wichita Falls spent the past week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bray of Post community.

Mr. W. R. Dyson, Constable of De Leon, was transacting business in our city the latter part of last week.

Mr. Chamberlain recalls that the first detachment of Rangers were reinforced in May of 1897 by McDonald with eight men—Van Lane, Billy McCaulley, Ed Donnelly, Bob McClure who is now in business in Brady, George Thomas, Jack Harley and Eugene (Blue) Bell.

Indictments being secured on information uncharged by the Rangers, 339 witnesses were compelled to appear at the first district court held after their arrival. The case of Jim Brown who was shot from his horse while riding home from church with his wife, was an outstanding one in breaking up the mob. He was a nephew of Jim Brown, the old fighting racehorse sheriff of Lee County who was afterward killed in Garfield Racing Park in Chicago. Jim's father, Ace Brown, had received his death at the hands of the mob in a hanging here. It was customary to shoot their victims with nine bullets in this mob law and most of them received that number.

During the time the Rangers were stationed here they also captured the notorious Wax Lee and his son, Charley, Oklahoma outlaws who were in hiding in San Saba County.

Neal was elected sheriff in 1898 and served in that capacity for 10 years, later moving to Fort Worth; he returned to San Saba and in 1922 was re-elected to that office and served three consecutive terms. He moved to Lubbock in 1929.

Nervous, Weak Woman Soon All Right

"I had regular shaking spells from nervousness," writes Mrs. Cora Sanders of Paragould, Ark. "I was all run-down and cramped at my time until I would have to go to bed. After my first bottle of Cardui, I was better. I kept taking Cardui and soon I was all right. The shaking quit and I did not cramp. I felt worlds better. I gave Cardui to my daughter who was in about the same condition and she was soon all right. Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician."

IN MEMORIAM

(Written by Miss Pearl Patterson, Dallas, in memory of Mrs. T. J. Johnston).

Many years we have cherished, One who was steadfast and true, One who understood each care, And cheered us when we were blue.

Never questioning childish fears, Giving the best advice, Painting the way down thro' the years, In paths of truth and right.

As a wife she was true and loving, As a mother none could surpass, As a grandmother all adored her, As a friend the kind that would last.

As a Christian, staunch and loyal, Never complaining her lot, Saying that things were for the best,

Praising God for blessings she got, But now it is only a memory, We have to cherish and love, For God saw fit to call her away, To dwell in that home above.

And Tho' Our hearts are heavy And we mourn for her up there, God always knows what's best for us, Tho' it's always hard to bear, And now as we go on life's journey, We pray to meet her on high, Where there will be no sad parting, In that beautiful sweet by and by.

F. M. Robertson FOR District Attorney 39th Judicial District

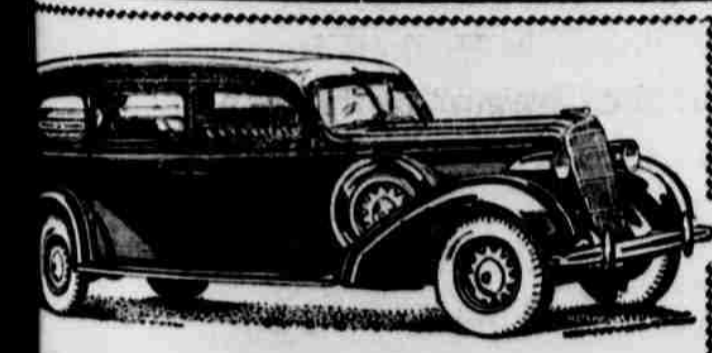

I wish to thank every citizen of the 39th Judicial District for the fine vote I received for District Attorney in the first primary. It is through your kind consideration that I am in the "run-off" election to be held on August 22nd.

As you probably remember I made the race 4 years ago and was defeated by a small vote in the second primary. I am in the same position again and I believe that I deserve advancement to the office at this time over my good friend and opponent.

I am thirty-five years of age, have had nine years actual experience as a lawyer, four years of which I served as County Attorney of Haskell County.

I have mailed letters to all the poll tax payers of the District placing my claim to the office before them, and since I did not have a list of the voters who are over or under the age limit I could not send them a letter... but I ask each one of you to take this advertisement as a personal solicitation for your aid and influence.

We've been in Haskell for 5 years and we still have no other business to take up our time—nor any else to advertise.

TOO OLD TO WORK AT 45?

The tendency toward lower age limits for positions under civil service, and in business and industry generally, appears to be meeting with increasing disfavor.

A recent instance is that in Cleveland, O., where the city's civil service commission has abandoned its general age limit of 45 years in holding examinations.

City officials agreed that it's obviously absurd to consider that a person reaching 45 automatically becomes less competent to fill a post than one year or so younger or to assume that every man or woman at 45 is ready for the shelf.

THROUGH SCHOOL AND AFTER

School administrators and pupil personnel workers held a conference at Cornell University the other day that might well be copied in every state. It covered the vital problems of adjusting the child to school and to life after school.

ARE YOU FINGERPRINTED?

The G-men have announced with pride that they now have the fingerprints of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and other well-known men. These are the latest additions to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's growing list of civilian fingerprints.

"When a person places his fingerprints in the bureau's civil files, he automatically insures his family against prolonged mental suffering and the expenditure of a large amount of money in an effort to locate him, should he be unfortunate enough to perish in some manner in which all means of identification except fingerprints are lost, or should he become the victim of amnesia."

TEACHER'S OATHS AGAIN

Mrs. William A. Becker, President-General of the Daughters of the American Revolution, announces a campaign for strict enforcement of laws requiring all teachers to take an "oath of allegiance" which she characterizes as "an honor and not a reflection" upon character.

Mrs. Becker says that the Daughters are not trying to "raise a Red scare" but, in insisting on the pledge, would "weed out, as far as possible, the un-American teachers engaged in planting subversive doctrines in the minds of our future citizens.

Aside from the fact that teachers who are compelled to express patriotism in this manner may consider such action subversive of the liberties guaranteed by the Constitution, it is obvious that a disloyal teacher, as a rule, would not object to a perfunctory oath of allegiance in order to continue to carry out his or her activities without molestation.

FAILING GOVERNMENTS

One of the major "disclosures" of the depression has been the inability of most local units of government to handle their own affairs, notably the relief program.

There are 175,000 separate federal, state, and local governments in the United States, the vast majority of which are local. Local taxes absorb nearly two-thirds of the tax dollar.

Many counties and municipalities throughout the country still operate on the systems of an ex-carriage, and so today, paradoxically, they are tax-burdened and income-poor.

WE WAVER AT TIMES

Every once in a while we have to waver in our faith that the people of the universe are more intelligent, on the average, than ever before.

IEWS AND REVIEWS

CURRENT COMMENT

ROOSEVELT IS RUINING THE COUNTRY

Last Saturday's Wall Street Journal may give you some idea of how "Roosevelt is ruining the country"—according to the Wall Street alarmists. In that one issue of the Wall Street Journal the following headlines appeared: Carloadings Best for Any Week Since Fall of 1931. Western Union Restores Wages, Shows Net Gain. General Motors Sales in July Establish New Record for Month.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Note on Neighbors. There are still a lot of neighbors who, if they can't sleep, don't want anyone else to sleep.—Rochester Times-Union.

For Straight Backs Only. Fashion experts say that the bustle is coming back again. Maybe so, but if so what is going to become of the rumble seat roadsters?—Lewis County (Ky.) Herald.

Horse Feathers. We note that the French suffragettes are using feather-dusters in their campaign. They ought to be successful. Look what Sally Rand did with hers.—Ohio State Journal.

English Sparrow Days. The horse and buggy had one advantage: Dealers couldn't change the design every year to make your old ones look funny.—Buffalo News.

Nothing New. A prehistoric skeleton has been found with its legs locked about its neck. This bears out the belief that the rumble seat is not as new as is claimed for it.—Greenville Piedmont.

A Distinction. One of the funniest things about the good old girls of our set is the stern distinction they draw between a person who dyes her hair and one who merely touches it up.—Ohio State Journal.

Big Ears. Keeping them to the ground is necessary, politically which perhaps explains why both the Democratic donkey and the G. O. P. elephant have big ears.—Jackson (Miss.) Citizen Patriot.

Old, Old Yankee Joke. The test of a sound film is whether the movements of a character's lips synchronize with the words heard. This test, however, is useless for American films in which the characters generally talk through their noses.—London Opinion.

Haskell County History

As Revealed by the Files of the Free Press 20, 30 and 40 years ago.

Haskell received her first bale of the new cotton crop Wednesday. The cotton was raised by I. S. Grindstaff who lives 7 miles north of town and was ginned by the Farmers Gin Co. The bale weighed 407 pounds and was purchased by Robertson Bros. & Company at 14 1-2 cents per pound. A premium of $33.50 was paid by Haskell business men.

The Roberts schoolhouse has just been completed and will be fully equipped with modern desks and other fixtures in time for opening of the fall school term. T. F. Curry, M. A. Johnson and Yandell Gilbert have graduated from Hill's Business College as bookkeepers and were granted their diplomas Monday.

The Western Cotton Oil & Gin Company of this city are rebuilding their plant which was partially destroyed by fire early in June. New machinery and enlarged hull and seed houses will make the Haskell plant of the most modern in this section.

R. L. McAnulty and Miss Carrie Kinnison were united in marriage last Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock by Rev. Jno. D. White at his residence in the north part of town.

The enterprising firm of Hancock & Company received a shipment of 52 cases of shoes this week probably the largest single lot ever to be purchased by a Haskell firm.

Seventeen new automobiles were registered in Haskell during the week. Capt. T. M. Freeman announces that a new 50-barrel flour mill has been contracted for by Munday interests.

Bill McCarty, W. H. Starr, Harry Farmer, G. Glenn and Joe Reeder went down on California Creek last Friday on a fishing trip. They claim they had excellent luck.

W. A. Whitley, distributor for Chevrolet automobiles, unloaded another carload of Chevrolets this week.

Mr. J. W. Light of Chickasha, I. T., and Mr. S. W. Scott of this place came down from Seymour Sunday evening on the construction train and were standing on top of the caboose viewing the town as the train came in when they struck a slack telephone wire and were knocked down. Mr. Scott fell so that he caught hold of the food board and he grasped Mr. Light as he was about to roll off the car. It was a fortunate escape from what might have been a serious accident.

The Wichita Valley railroad has not yet put on a regular passenger train service to Haskell, but is running a combination passenger and baggage coach in a mixed train which arrives here about noon and returns north about 1 o'clock.

Forty Years Ago—1896. Gov. C. A. Culbertson is billed to speak at Seymour on the 24th. Last week Mr. M. A. Lowery of the north part of the county went out to the salt beds in the western part of Stonewall county and got three wagon loads of strong, white pure salt just for the shovelling. He reports that salt is there in large quantities.

We mentioned last week that Messrs. Foster, Anthony, Smith and Pierson had started to Fort Worth on their bicycles. The next heard of them was when Mr. Lee Pierson came in Tuesday, looking "like a man of sorrow and full of woe." The torrid weather going down had been too much for him and he quit the drive at Graham and came back, leaving the other three to continue their trip.

The Rayner revival last week is reported as a great success.

HENRY-LESSON RADCLIFFE

GOSPEL FOR ALL MEN

International Sunday School Lesson for August 23, 1936. Golden Text: "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish but have eternal life."—John 3:16.

(Lesson Text: Acts 11:5-18; Romans 1:15-17.) In the early years all the members of the Christian faith were of the Jewish race. This was natural because Jesus worked practically his entire life among the Jews. The only Christians were Jews who still held to the traditions of the fathers but who went further and accepted Christ as the fulfillment of the expected Messiah.

So, it was inevitable that this early group of Christian believers would retain and be affected by the Jewish idea of exclusiveness which had been a dominant national trait for some centuries. However, while the very excellent health regulations prescribed by Moses had been beneficial to the race, by this time they had become a superstitious religious observance which threatened to prevent the extension of Christianity to all mankind.

These Jewish Christians, when the problem of admitting Gentiles into the Christian faith was presented, believed that it would be necessary for these adherents of other races to enter the new faith, as the old, through certain ceremonies of Judaism, or else they felt they would lose all the elevating and glorious experiences of the prophets and teachers. So, this idea of exclusiveness came into direct opposition to the doctrine of human brotherhood of Jesus and threatened to prevent the free and easy admission of Gentiles to the Christian faith.

Our lesson today reveals one of the steps which led to the breaking down of this prejudice and barrier. Peter, the leader of the Apostles, was engaged in religious work at the Jewish seaport Joppa. Here he lived with a man named Simon, who was a tanner, following a trade regarded as ceremonially unclean by the Jews. Peter's presence in this house indicates that already he was becoming ing contempt for other races and people. It should realize, too, that God loves and accepts righteousness, right living and thinking, and an honest search for truth wherever and in whoever there are found.

ANCIENT RELICS ARE FOUND IN BIG BEND

Two teeth of an elephant believed to have perished in the mud and water of an ancient lake have been found by National Park service geologists in the Grapevine Springs district of the proposed Big Bend National Park in southern Brewster county.

Other discoveries made in the Big Bend district include bones of dinosaurs sharks, and giant turtles. More than 100 specimens have been collected of oysters, clams, and other shells, and a similar number of varieties of volcanic rocks have been found. Some of the petrified oysters are thirty inches in diameter. The relics are being assembled in a temporary museum as the nucleus of a collection for a permanent museum building that is included among structures planned for the park. It is possible to travel by boat from Antwerp on the north to Marseille on the Mediterranean through the heart of France.

Don't Let Your Dollar Become a "TRAMP" THERE is a Big Difference in Dollars. There is the "Tramp" dollar—the dollar that is spent away from home. Then there is the "Home" dollar with its "home" circulation, "home" benefits and "home" profits. Though both of these dollars are marked "One Hundred Cents" the "home" dollar continues to multiply itself—"at home"—for community interests are mutual. Not so with the "tramp dollar"—once spent it is gone forever. The success of Haskell and its surrounding territory contributes to the success of everybody in it. A prosperous town rests on the individual prosperity. The advantage to you of spending your dollar in Haskell is far greater than the "tramp" dollar can possibly buy—even if it bought a hundred cents' worth—and which it cannot possibly do, because the other fellow in the out-of-town field must make a profit. There is big truth in this worthy of your serious thought. It pays to trade at home with your "home" dollar.

Here's Way Modern Buffalo Is Hunted

Buffalo are still hunted in the west.

Though the hunt today draws sportsmen and sportswomen from every part of the world, it is mere ghost of the old time buffalo hunt when Indians drove their mustangs among the stampeding herds and shot their arrows into the sides of as many bison as they could overtake. Like the unrestricted savages themselves, the stampeding herds have vanished into thin tradition. Today's method of buffalo hunting has been brought to the attention of writers who are preparing articles for the American Guide, the forthcoming travel handbook of the Works Progress Administration.

The hunt is held generally in January. Its setting is House Rock Valley, a geological pocket on the edge of Kaibab National Forest in the Grand Canyon district of Northern Arizona.

The Arizona buffalo herd is the only one in the United States which is not fenced in, though the natural barriers constitute an adequate check to prevent straying. The State Game Department of Arizona founded the herd with a hundred animals in 1927.

When this year's hunt was held on January 20, there were 130 buffalo on the range. The conditions under which the animals live are excellent and, if allowed to breed without interference, they would soon be too numerous for the available grazing. An attendant, who is an expert in the care of buffalo, lives on the range and watches over the herd. The animals in spite of their freedom are far from wild and regard me more with curiosity than fear.

When the time for the annual hunt, the attendant decides on which animals are to be killed and points them out to the hunters. Each hunter stalks the animal assigned him in any way he desires. While horses and even automobiles have been used, most sportsmen prefer to approach their quarry on foot. As practically all of the people permitted to take part in the slaughter are expert shots, the animals are not caused to suffer unduly. Women are allowed to participate and they bring down their animals with as much skill as their masculine associates.

Buffalo heads, hides and meat are highly valued trophies and probably have much to do with attracting sportsmen. The hunt is opened both to residents and non-residents. While most of those who ask permission to join the hunt are from Arizona, every state and nearly every part of the world is usually represented among them.

Resident licenses cost $3.50 and non-resident licenses $25. Each year, from 80 to 100 hunters apply for permission to hunt for eight or ten buffalo marked for slaughter, but only about one percent of the applicants get a chance to take part in this rare pastime. One chosen to dispose of each animal. The hunting privilege is not non-transferable. When a principal is unable to attend his alternate takes his place.

Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Keller of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Stephens and son of Lamesa, were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rogers and son Eugene over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Jenkins and Mr. and Mrs. Groves of Tuscola were here Sunday to attend the funeral services of Mr. Groves' sister, Mrs. McKelvain.

H. D. Club—

Year programs on Texas history were conducted in all of the clubs. One program was held in each club on "The History of Haskell County" and another on "Three Heroes From Texas History."

A study of Parliamentary Procedure is being made in clubs. Eighteen books on Parliamentary Procedure by Logan were bought this year and are being studied.

Mrs. Fred Monke of the Josselot Club, who is parliamentarian of the County Council says, "I would not take anything for my knowledge of parliamentary law that I have gained in Home Demonstration Club work."

The Josselot Club has bought a building and remodeled it for a club house. The building is located in the center of the community which makes it more convenient for the members to attend.

The clubs and council sent thirteen women and two girls to Short Course in July. All those attending gave reports in the clubs at subsequent meetings on the things they learned while attending Short Course.

A total of 128 women went to Knox county to attend the Encampment. Others would have attended if it had not been so far away.

One hundred and thirty 4-H club girls and their sponsors attended the girls encampment on July 15, which was practically 100 percent, the total enrollment being 135.

Both of the 4-H Club girls who attended Short Course received special recognition. Bonnie Jo Vannoy won second place in District Three on her bedroom improvement, and Ruby Stodghill received a Gold Star for outstanding work.

Mrs. S. W. Vernon, Pioneer Resident Claimed by Death

Mrs. S. W. Vernon, resident of Haskell county during the period from 1885 until 1920, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Sloan in Spur, Sunday August 16, at the age of 81 years.

Deceased was the widow of the late S. W. (Uncle Sam) Vernon, pioneer county residents whose death occurred seven months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon moved to Haskell county in 1885 from Corvallis county. After living in the town of Haskell for two years they bought land in the southwest part of the county near the Vernon school house, where they lived until 1898, moving in that year to the Pinkerton community on what was known as "Wild Horse Prairie". In 1920 Mr. and Mrs. Vernon moved to Spur to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon were the parents of ten children, six of whom survive. They are: Mrs. Callie Denison, Mrs. R. L. English, Mrs. Ovie Draper, and Mrs. George Sloan of Spur, Mrs. W. F. Markham of Seminole, Texas, and Mrs. Angie Herren of Haskell. Thirty-three grandchildren and thirty great-grandchildren also survive.

Mrs. Vernon was converted and united with the Baptist Church at the age of seventeen years, and lived a consistent christian life until her death.

Saturday First Anniversary of Death of Rogers

One year ago, a brief message from Point Barrow, Alaska, Arctic outpost, shocked the world.

"Will Rogers and Wiley Post killed in airplane crash 15 miles from here," it read.

Today finds real progress being made toward perpetuating the memory of Rogers beloved throughout the world for his homely wit.

Rupert Hughes, chairman of the California section of the national committee preparing a memorial to Rogers, said, the nation committee has received about $250,000 to use as a memorial for Rogers.

A new actor's hospital at Saranac, N. Y., costing $1,000,000, has been dedicated to Rogers. The polo field where Rogers used to gallop is now called Will Rogers field. A bronze plaque bearing his likeness marks the new $500,000 Will Rogers sound stage at the Twentieth Century-Fox studios in the Westwood hills.

The widow Mrs. Betty Rogers still resides in the Santa Monica canyon ranch home. The youngest son, Jimmy, is in school. Will Jr. is a newspaper publisher. The daughter, Mary, is pursuing a stage career.

There was no public recognition of the anniversary of Rogers' death in Hollywood, excepting a brief tribute on the radio by his long-time friend, William Farnum. Hughes said, "It would be morbid to try to do much in the way of a public gathering on the anniversary of Will Rogers' death."

Mrs. B. Baker was a business visitor in Dallas the first of this week.
