HASKELL COUNTY GRAND JURY TO BEGIN SESSIONS NEXT WEEK

MORE PROJECTS ARE SECURED FOR THIS COUNTY BY THE CWA

T. L. Donohoo, French Robertson and Judge Conner Return From Capitol

MORE CONTEMPLATED
Sum of $2,000 Spent By the CWA Here Last Week; Will Be Increased

Official approval from the state CWA organization has been secured for the working of 100 men each day for thirty days on the graveling of Haskell streets, 100 men for thirty days on sanitation work throughout the county and the working of twenty men for thirty days on the leveling of the football field in the north part of Haskell.

All of the above work was secured through the efforts of T. L. Donohoo, county administrator, French Robertson and Judge C. M. Conner, who have just returned from Austin.

There is a possibility approval will be secured for the expenditure of around $64,500 on labor and $20,000 for team and truck hire in all for this county from the CWA.

According to Joe Brooks, secretary to Donohoo, the sum of $2,000 was spent in this county last week, and it is expected that that amount will be doubled this week. After the various projects have been set in motion, a sum between $7,500 and $10,000 should be spent here weekly.

C. A. Mayberry, sanitary supervisor of Gatesville, arrived during the latter part of last week to assume charge of all sanitary improvements in this county and will work in conjunction with the Haskell county CWA organization.

Processing Tax Applies to Marketing of All Hogs

"Reports of farmers and others slaughtering hogs and selling the products to consumers without payment of the new processing tax is the latest violation of the government law to worry about, and a warning of heavy penalties for this offense has been sent out by Commissioner of Internal Revenue Guy T. Helvering.

The only way a farmer can slaughter a hog without payment of the tax is to raise from his own stock—not buy it and fatten it—and then use the meat himself. Any attempt to market it without the processing tax is a violation of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, and any person who slaughters hogs for market must file appropriate returns along with the levy.

Celery in Texas

"The finest celery and the easiest to produce of any of the 33 crops I have raised," said Theodor Katakalas of Eagle Pass, Texas, who raised thirteen acres of celery this year, beginning a new industry for the great Winter Garden area. Katakalas has raised celery in Greece and Florida before coming to Texas.

LARGE AMOUNT OF PORK-FLOUR WILL BE RECEIVED HERE

5,000 Lbs. of Flour and A Like Amount of Pork Will Be Given To Needy

According to T. L. Donohoo, 5,000 pounds of flour and 5,000 pounds of pork will probably arrive here around January 1 to be distributed among the needy in Haskell county. Notice that effect was received this week from the Texas Relief Commission.

Tax Collector Urges That Taxes Be Paid Now To Avoid More Penalty

If you are one of those far-seeing persons who looked ahead to the time when your state and county taxes should be paid, and managed your Christmas shopping accordingly, the big, bad wolf of more penalties for not paying same will probably not molest you, but in case you haven't paid your taxes, take a tip from Ed F. Fouts, tax collector, and pay them before January 1st.

Simple Method of Figuring Processing Tax Is Given

COLLEGE STATION.—A simple method for figuring out how much processing tax you have to pay for the meat you sell out of the hogs you butcher for your own home use is described by E. M. Regenbrecht, extension swine specialist at Texas A and M College. Suppose you sell two 20-pound hams. The tax is $1 per hundred pounds live-weight. Multiply $1 by the conversion factor 206% and then multiply by the weight of the hams sold, in this case 40 pounds. The result is 82 cents which is payable to the U. S. Collector of Internal Revenue accompanied by forms which are obtainable from the county agent.

A ruling of the legal department of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration states that a person not a producer may buy a live hog, have it slaughtered for his own use, and if he sells none of it need not pay a processing tax.

Deer Hunters Back From Hunt With One Deer and Large Wolf

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Montgomery, Miss Frankie Brooks, Henry Atkinson, Davis Hill and Hugh Smith returned Monday from a deer hunt in Mason county. Only one deer was killed, the trusty gun of "Monty" accounting for the animal besides having slain a large, grey wolf on the same trip.

C. A. Mayberry, Sanitary Supervisor, in speaking of the spread of disease, stated that the fly and mosquito were responsible for the spread of a large number of communicable diseases. He urged that every one unite in a battle of extermination of these pests. Their extermination will not only lessen disease, but will also save money that would otherwise be spent for illness, and make living more pleasant.

SIGN-UP CAMPAIGN FOR 34-35 COTTON CROP ABOUT READY

Extension Service Front Is In Readiness to Work on January 1 In State

DRIVE WILL BE RAPID Campaign Expected To Be Effective and Successful Throughout South

COLLEGE STATION.—Except that handbooks of instruction have not yet been received, everything is in readiness along the far flung Extension Service front for starting the sign-up campaign for the 1934-35 cotton contract in 214 counties on January 1st, it is announced by H. H. Williamson, vice-director and state agent. Indications point to a rapid, effective and successful campaign with a great majority of cotton growers signing contracts, he says.

The signing of application forms for exercising the options taken on Government cotton by many farmers in the summer plow-up campaign is expected to be completed before January 1st, leaving everything clear for the new cotton campaign, Mr. Williamson states.

MUST REGISTER AUTOS BY JAN. 1 TO SAVE PENALTY

All Trucks For Farm Uses Will Be Registered For Half of 1933 Fee

The deadline for the registering of automobiles and trucks has been set for January 31, according to Ed F. Fouts, tax collector. If you do not intend to register your car before the 31st of January it should not be run on the public highways after January 1st. If you register after January 31st the state compels the tax collector to get an affidavit stating the car has not been run on the public highways during the year 1934 and if you run the car during January and do not register it, you could not make the affidavit, and in that case you would have to pay for a full year and 20 percent penalty.

It will be a great help to the tax collecting force if you will bring your car papers with you when you come in to register your car.

All commercial cars must be weighed before registered. All farm trucks used for farm purposes only, will be registered for 50 percent of the 1933 registration fee.

Pet Squirrel Eats Ice Cream

Best Ways To Fatten Hogs For Home Slaughter Pointed Out By Specialist

"Hogs for home killing should not be too big or fat," Paul G. Adams, livestock specialist at the Oklahoma A. & M. college, says in advising farmers how to fatten hogs for home slaughter.

Good healthy young hogs, weighing 225 to 280 pounds, are ideal for home use, Mr. Adams advises. "A hog of this weight," he says, "will produce moderate-sized cuts, and will have a more desirable proportion of fat and lean. Heavier hogs will produce more lard."

Fat Hogs Lard
"The condition or finish should be such that the carcasses will cut up firm and with little shrinkage. Most people prefer more lean than fat meat. Very fat hogs usually will produce more lard than is needed by the average family. The weight of lard rendered from a 200-pound hog will range between 9 and 13 per cent, and lard from a 250 to 300 pound hog between 15 and 18 per cent.

SEWAGE RATE MAY BE REDUCED HERE OFFICIALS STATE

Need Only 50 More Users of Sewage to Have the Rate Reduced; Labor Free

In an endeavor to abolish insanitary conditions as far as possible in Haskell, a determined drive is to be made at once to do away with septic tanks, cess pools and outdoor privies by the Sanitary Board under the direction of C. A. Mayberry.

The sanitary commission will also wage another drive which would lower the cost of sewage to $1.00 instead of the $1.25 now charged. According to city officials only fifty more users of sewage is needed in order to accomplish this goal.

City officials also state that it is strictly in violation of law for anyone living within 200 feet of sewer lines to fail to connect, and continue using septic tanks, cesspools or outdoor privies.

All labor for the connection of pipes and other necessary work will be done free, according to Mr. Mayberry, and this work can never be done cheaper than at the present time under government financing. Having this work done now also enables men in need of employment to find work.

PRESENT DOCKET HEAVIEST HERE IN MANY YEARS

Transferred Murder Cases Are Among Many Booked To Be Tried Here

GRISSOM TO PRESIDE Grand Jury Expected To Investigate Melton Death Case Next Week

One of the heaviest court dockets that has been prepared in this county in years will confront District Judge Clyde Grissom in the January term of court, which starts January 1 and lasts through the month. The first week will witness the actions of the Grand Jury.

Approximately 50 cases are already filed and more are expected after the Grand Jury has been in session. It is also expected that an investigation will be made into the death of Herschel Melton, 37 year old O'Brien farmer, whose charred body was found by searchers after his house had burnt early in December. Dick Skipworth, Sam Jay and Clarence Absten, a brother-in-law to the deceased, were charged with slaying Melton later by county officials and placed under bond. The farmer's death was the aftermath of an all-afternoon drinking party, in which eight persons were said to have indulged, including two school girls and a woman.

One important case which is to be tried in District Court, and has been set for January 8, is the murder case of the State vs. Doyle Arnold. This case was transferred from Breckenridge. Arnold was charged with the slaying of his wife. The case was tried, but the decision reversed.

Another important case concerns the alleged assault-to-murder by Gene Buchanan upon the person of Sheriff Zack McWhorter in Throckmorton county. Buchanan was indicted at the last term and tried, but a hung jury resulted.

The following have been called to serve on the Grand Jury: G. T. Bridges, Rule; O. E. Patterson, Haskell; I. A. Leonard, Haskell; W. H. McCandless, Rule; George Tanner, Rule; E. W. Brown, Rochester; J. N. Turner, Rochester; A. W. McBeath, O'Brien; W. R. Edwards, Weinert; E. E. Griffith, (Continued on Page Eight)

Office of Court Clerk Issues 37 Marriage Licenses

A grand total of 37 marriage licenses have been issued to date in this county by Jason W. Smith, court clerk, with the bulk coming just a few days before Christmas. The records show that eight were issued Saturday afternoon, but none in the morning.

While most of those desiring licenses make application during the regular hours of business, Smith, or his deputy, Miss Daugherty, are called upon ever and anon to issue one from the hours of six p. m. until four a. m., but in practically every case those anxious to secure legal papers are turned down.

Sometimes it is hard to refuse, for one reason or another, but Miss Daugherty still regrets having to turn one young man down. He called at a very late hour and stated that he wished a license. Upon being refused he replied "thank you." "He has such a nice voice," Miss Daugherty laments, "and I've wondered about him many times."

SOCIETY

Mrs. J. U. Fields Entertains Group of Young Matrons

Mrs. J. U. Fields was a charming hostess to a group of young matrons Friday afternoon in her tastefully decorated home. Stories from Henry Van Dyke's book relating to his travels in the Holy Land were read in turn by each guest and the hostess in a graphic manner, related several interesting personal experiences woven around her trip through Bethlehem and Jerusalem which occurred about three years ago. Mrs. Field's sketches brought the true spirit of Christmas more vividly to her listeners.

At the tea hour the guests were invited into the dining room and seated at one long table. A delicious two course luncheon was served, with the first course consisting of chicken-salad sandwiches, congealed Christmas salad and olives, and the second course composed of ice cream, two kinds of cake and coffee.

Decorations observed the holiday theme, with a beautiful bouquet of roses forming the centerpiece. Clusters of red berries and green leaves were used as border to the center ensemble. Red tapers burned in silver candle holders, giving a more friendly air to the whole. Places were marked with individual lace doilies and silver compotes, with candies and assorted nuts reposing therein, were placed at both ends of the table. The guests were Mrs. Wallace Cox, Mrs. W. H. Atkinson, Jr., Mrs. William G. Forgy, Mrs. T. E. Davis, Mrs. Virgil Reynolds, Mrs. James L. Williams, Mrs. Bert Welsh and Mrs. A. A. Bradford, of Rule.

4K KLUB.

Miss Nettie McCollum entertained members of the 4K Klub with a few guests Thursday night at her home. A Christmas theme was prevalent in the attractive house decorations. After bridge games Mrs. Lola Welsh Bledsoe was given high plate of fruit cake with whipped cream, olives, coffee and mints with china dogs as plate favors was served by the hostess to the following: Mesdames Roy Killingsworth, Ino. V. Davis, W. P. Trice, Lola Welsh Bledsoe, Oscar Oates, Ralph Duncan, Misses Lewis Manly, Madeline Hunt, Ermine Daugherty, Eunice Huckabee and Ruth Milstead.

New Year's Day Good Time to Have Friends To Dinner

DENTON, Dec. 26.—Let us forget that we had the past depression and for this one day, the first day in the new year, have friends in for one or more meals during the day. Many people have neglected inviting guests to meals for the past three years, because of the additional cost. But it seems there could not be a better way to show our optimism in the future than by sharing the day with friends.

For most people having guests for dinner is the best plan, but young people are more apt to enjoy an evening meal together. The New Year's dinner does not carry so many traditional ideas as did the Thanksgiving and Christmas dinner; so we are left to select a bountiful dinner of foods which appeal to us. In some cases the guests may be with us the entire day, and then our problem is to give variety throughout the day. The following menus would be suitable to serve in such a case.

Breakfast: Fruit cubes in grapefruit baskets, roasted pecan rolls, gooseberry jelly, sausage patties, coffee.

Dinner: Almond soup, toasted bread cubes, roast goose, cornbread dressing, duchess potatoes, parsnips with drawn butter sauce, spiced apple ring, olives, celery, nuts, water-cress salad, Russian dressing, fruit cake, coffee, mints.

Supper: Oyster stew, crisp crackers, sweet pickles, date and celery sandwiches, frozen fruit salad, tea.

Dinner: Broiled salmon steaks, French fried potatoes, brussels sprouts, sweet pickles, whole wheat biscuits, lemon pie, coffee.

Supper: Cheese croquettes, creamed peas, lettuce salad, pineapple sauce, cookies, hot chocolate.

Cheese Croquettes: 1 c diced cheese, 1/2 c grated cheese, 2/3 c thick white sauce, egg and crumbs, 2 egg yolks, 1 tsp. salt, pepper. When the white sauce is finished, while it is still hot stir into it the egg yolks and the grated cheese. When cheese is melted and mixture is somewhat cool, add the diced cheese and seasoning. Pour into a greased pan to cool. Cut into squares, roll in crumbs, egg and crumbs and fry in deep fat. Do not let them touch while cooking.

Peanut Butter Soup: 1 1/2 T fat, 1 1/2 T flour, 3 c milk, 1 T grated onion, 1 tsp. salt, 4 T peanut butter. Make a white sauce of fat, flour and milk, add seasonings. Warm the peanut butter to a thin paste in a small amount of the milk. Add to the sauce just before serving, beating to a smooth paste.

It's been suggested that the people of the District of Columbia be given the right to vote. Why not? Not more than half of them will use it anyway.

Glad Girls Have Party.

Talking about a happy bunch—well, you certainly could have seen one last Tuesday night if you could have seen the Glad Girls at their party in the Walling home. It was just a form of a get-together affair and everyone enjoyed themselves by doing the first thing that popped into their minds. About nine o'clock our pals were revealed and everyone present received a lovely gift along with a huge stick of candy.

Members of the class enjoying this party were: Misses Gladys Mayes, Hortense Walling, Kate Darnell, Frances Walling, Claudia Tate, Fairy Ballard, Ruby Williams, Sue Couch, Dorothy Lewellen, Theda Maples, Sue Kinney, Lucille Akins, Ester Johnson, Chapman, our teacher, Mrs. Hayes, and two visitors, Mrs. Walling and Mrs. Mayes.

NOW, Here's the Important Part of this Ad—

Friday and Saturday will be clean up days all throughout this great store. You'll find all these odd lots and broken lines out on tables at prices that will make you wonder if we are not trying to "just give them to you".

—So many things in all departments that we won't attempt to describe them—but come Friday and Saturday. You'll find every thing out on tables, plainly marked.

Regrouping and lowered prices on these items will make Friday and Saturday two big selling days.

Let the car speak for itself

HUNDREDS of thousands of people now own and drive Ford V-8 cars. Some neighbor or friend of yours has one. If we told you what we think of the car, you might say we are prejudiced, so we let the car and its owner tell you.

Economy of operation is one of the first points they will emphasize—the owner will boast of it and the car will prove it.

The 1934 car is even better than the 1933—and that was our best car up to its time. The new car is more beautiful—faster—more powerful—gives more miles to the gallon—better oil economy—is easier riding—cheaper to own and operate than any car we ever built.

You owe it to yourself and your pocketbook to ask our Ford Dealer to let you see this car, and let you drive it for yourself. At the wheel of the car you will be sure to reach a right decision. The Ford V-8 will tell you its own story.

NEW YEARS DAY

January 1, marking the beginning of the year, has been observed as a public holiday for many centuries, certainly in Rome since the reformation of the calendar by Julius Caesar in the century before Christ.

Owing to the confusion in dates which has resulted from the imperfection of various calendars, which caused skipping of dates at various times, New Year's Day may be said to be merely an arbitrary designation. As late as 1752 the adoption of the Gregorian calendar by England and the American colonies caused a skip of 11 days.

However, regardless of the day designated as New Year's day at various times and in various centuries, it has generally been observed as a holiday.

The Romans celebrated it with processions, the abandonment of litigation and strife, exchanging visits and gifts, feasting and merrymaking. Early fathers of the Christian church did not approve of these festivities, but recommended that the day be devoted to meditation, scripture reading and works of charity.

But about the fourth century when December 25 had been agreed upon for the observance of Christ's nativity, New Year's Day, falling one week later, began to assume a sacred character as the anniversary of the circumcision, and as such, it still figures in the calendars of certain branches of the church.

Other religious faiths, such as the Mohammedan and Jewish, have their own calendars with distinctive holidays and festivals, in which their New Year's Day has a corresponding significance to that of Christendom.

Among all it is considered an appropriate day for reviewing the events of the previous year, the making of new resolves and the adoption of plans for the future. It is also the occasion for the expression of good wishes. We join in the spirit of the day in wishing all a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

TAKE AN INVOICE

We have reached the threshold of another year with all of its possibilities for good and ill, success or failure, and we do not agree with those who say "Never look back," and "Let the dead past bury its dead."

The passing of the old year and the coming of the new is a time for serious thought and reflection. It is a time when successful business men take an invoice of their business, and it is a time when we should take an invoice of our faults, failures and mistakes. Have we gained or lost during the past year? Have we used the talents that have been given us? Have we declared any dividends in the way of loving and helping others, and have we added anything to the capital stock of our character?

Every man makes mistakes. Let us look them squarely in the face and profit by them. It may not be his fault the first time, but it is if he makes the same mistake the second time.

We believe that the secret of success with those who succeed and the cause of failure with those who fail will be found largely in the ability and disposition to study the cause of both success and failure not only in our own experience, but in that of others. Serious study of our weaknesses, if diligently pursued, will strengthen and develop all that is best in our natures, and make us better, stronger and nobler men and women as the years go by, and the time will come in the life of every one when such a record of honest, earnest and persistent effort to improve will afford far greater satisfaction than anything else in the world.

Sometimes people speak lightly of the country newspaper, but it is one of the most potent and uplifting factors in our national existence. The great dailies have their mission, but their scope is too big to touch very closely the inner things of life.

We Wish You And Yours---

The very best of everything during the coming year that makes life worthwhile, and unlimited opportunities to help your fellow-man. And at the same time we desire to express our appreciation for the amounts you have allowed us to HELP YOU in the way of insurance.

FOR CONGRESS

Arthur P. Duggan Believer In More Equal Taxation

To the Citizens of the 19th Congressional District:

In announcing my candidacy for Congress in the new 19th Congressional District I am fully aware of the importance of that high office. Our country never needed serious, well balanced, real thinking, hard working Congressmen as it does now in this time of National readjustment and uncertainty. The prosperity of the people; yes, the very existence of our Nation, is in the hands of Congress. The more wisdom and experience the man you elect to this office possesses the better it will be for YOU personally and for each and every one of us.

Your Congressman certainly ought to know intimately your needs from close personal contact, be sympathetic with them, and be willing and able to actually strive to meet them. It is a fact that my life time spent in West Texas, my active and varied business, civic and Legislative experience in this district, for the past 30 years, and my association with all classes of the people have given me the best possible opportunity to learn their requirements. I state to you emphatically that no Congressman you can possibly elect will put more time on the job, study the entire situation more carefully, or work harder to SERVE YOU, the district and Country than I.

Here are a few of the things I am particularly interested in and that I would endeavor to accomplish:

Protection of Home Ownership.
The Homes of the Nation are its greatest asset and their preservation is of first importance. Fairer appraisals of our lands, valued according to production, will make the large majority of them eligible for Federal Land Bank Loans with low interest rates and easy terms. Similar consideration should be given in the matter of loans on urban homes through the Home Owners Loan Corporation.

The Farm is a manufacturing plant producing raw products such as meat, grain, cotton and wool. As such it is entitled to all special privileges, rates, concessions, tariffs, etc. granted the large manufacturing concerns of the country.

Farm homes are of more importance to the nation than Big Business of any kind.

Urges Better Educational Facilities.
Good schools are, and always have been, the bulwarks of American liberty and freedom. The making of good citizens of our boys and girls ranks next to the happy home as a National obligation. The Home Demonstration clubs of our country are not only solving the "live at home" program but are helping wonderfully in the improvement of homes and schools. The Federal Government should continue its support of all Extension work.

The Texas Technological College, located in this Congressional District, should be made a Land Grant College. It is as much entitled to Federal support as any other College anywhere.

Amend Federal Income Tax laws so that Profiteers, Big Bankers and Investment Banks will have to pay their proper Income taxes. The very rich largely evade payment of taxes. The very poor pay no taxes at all and the tax burden, therefore, falls on the Middle Class—the COMMON PEOPLE—such as you and I. This ought to be changed and it can be with sufficient representation.

I would study Economy of Government and vote for it as I did in the Texas Legislature when appropriations were cut some $13,000,000.

Solution of Grim Problem
Gangsters, Chiselers, Racketeers and Profiteers certainly are a National problem today as well as a National disgrace. The cost of crime is estimated at some thirteen billion dollars annually, which is more than the cost of the Federal Government with such emergency measures as RPC, AAA, CWA, PWA and all the balance thrown in. Crime should be punished adequately and quickly though it will never be stamped out until its source is sought and eliminated. The proper instruction and education of our boys and girls in our homes and schools, when very young, will prevent the making of criminals, solve the prohibition question, stop the divorce evil and preserve the sanctity of the Home.

"The Honest Dollar." I fully subscribe to the principle recently set forth by President Franklin D. Roosevelt when he said: "Those who have borrowed money should, on the average, be able to repay that money in the same kind of money which they borrowed." A proper parity should be ascertained between the value of the dollar and the price of commodity products, and be automatically maintained by law.

There are 334 lawyers and professional men in the present Congress, and only 24 farmers. The framers of our Constitution thought that the safest and best laws are passed by Legislative bodies with their membership more equally distributed among all occupations.

During the very active campaign I expect to make for this office I will express myself on all National issues, and I will welcome the opportunity to become even better acquainted with you than I now am. This is your Government and you should help run it. Your suggestions and ideas will be appreciated.

Respectfully and earnestly asking for your consideration, influence and vote in the Democratic primaries next July, I am,

Sincerely your friend,
ARTHUR P. DUGGAN,
State Senator 20th Senatorial District.

Potters Broke Street Lights
PAWTUCKETT, R. I. (UP)—The electric company here recently complained to police the couples parking on Moshassuck street had been breaking street lamps, apparently because the street was too well lighted for them.

SKETCHES

By W. G. FORGY

Well, that's over! No more Christmas for a year. Back to work after the short holiday. Several million more persons were able to go back to work this Christmas than the one a year ago, for which we should all be thankful.

Incidentally, did you notice the large number of job-holders who WERE back at work Tuesday, instead of taking another day. Mayhap they wanted to prove they had kept sober.

We were never very good at geography in our youth and bitter experience has had to be the medium by which we learned. Take the place Santa Claus is supposed to inhabit, for instance: We've always supposed it to be at the North Pole—and have been told that, but the Santa Claus who talked over radio WFFA in Dallas had a very pronounced southern accent!

MUSINGS: Speaking about absent-mindedness, what about the man who asked Barton Welsh the DATE when asked to sign a check on Christmas Day? . . . Quit your worrying—J. D. Montgomery took his trusty gun in hand Saturday while on a deer hunt and downed the big bad wolf! No more hard times for Monty if the killing of one wolf will turn the trick. . . . There's one Haskell girl who'll probably hint for the type of gift she wants next time—three of her boy friends gave her practically the same kind of presents and she couldn't eat any of them nor wear them at the same time. 'Stuff! . . . We also know a boy who refused to eat turkey dinner after receiving a picture of his girl. Just admitted he was living on love—and gazed at the picture hour after hour. The girl, however, enjoyed the meal very much! . . . Spot Lemmon acted as Sandy Claus about two weeks ago by helping pack a gift to be given him at Perkins-Timberlake and didn't ever dream he was acting as such. . . . And was news scarce after Christmas? You're whispering it to US! Came near not being, though, because a certain young miss received a new bicycle for Christmas and on the trial spin was chased by a dog. To keep the dog from biting her, she jumped off the wheel, hurting her leg. If she had become madder, she would probably have bitten the dog and we've been told that that would be news! . . . The boss has been away since Saturday on another deer hunt. We invited him to visit us after he returned to eat deer—and told him to bring the DEER. (Apologies to Wimpy). . . . More than one Haskell man was seen with a very bright nose Tuesday, and still celebrating the Yuletide by being in an inebriated condition. . . . Pranks may be fine, at times, but was it nice to send about twenty men to a certain business place for a lil drink when there was only enough for about four. . . . Plenty of coffee was sold Tuesday morning at the cafes. . . . It takes a woman to dissemble and dissemble RIGHT. If you don't think so, try acting thrilled sometime over some kind of a gift that was nice, when it was a diamond you EXPECTED! . . . Not all of the high-priced nuts Christmas were of the edible variety. More than one boy spent his months wages on a girl he'll have forgotten five years from now. . . . Times have changed more than you probably realize when it comes to the giving of presents from girls to boys. Remember when it was coat hangers and more coat hangers that were given, all done up in fancy silk? They were the days, boys, because you didn't have to fork over several dollars for ravishing silk lingerie. It would have been SCANDALOUS to have even thought of buying even fancy garters! . . . After losing a white dog and a black dog we advise Joe Brooks to select a bulldog next time and then just let someone try to do a little stealing. . . . No, Mary, the sound you heard that resembled the voice of Santa saying "Donner and Blitzen" was only papa saying "Thunder and Blixon" when he stumbled over the gas heater.

Yes, sir, the only thing wrong about visiting the old home town in expectation of seeing old friends is that you find those worthies have decamped to another place for the same purpose.

The Saturday Evening Post this week has a nice Christmas present for the Democrats in the way of political propaganda by Republicans. Samuel G. Blythe, a versatile writer, stirs the contents in the pot, which is only a forerunner of dirtier stuff to come. And we predict that the "deer peepl" will swallow most of it hook, line and sinker.

Next week, if they'll let us we intend to print the New Year Resolutions of a few Haskell persons.

And speaking of resolutions, why not make up your mind THIS MIN-

UTE to have at least three or four nice news items for us when we see you every week in 1934, but if you can't do that resolve to let us plan several advertisements for your business. Our services are FREE! The boss pays us, so just call upon us anytime you wish. He won't mind a bit.

To The Merchants of Haskell

At the close of another year, may we take this opportunity to express a word of appreciation for your loyalty and patronage during the past twelve months!

Without the active interest and support of its advertisers, no newspaper could long survive. On the other hand a good newspaper is of inestimable value to the business interests of any city.

Your loyal patronage, therefore, has been the means of giving to this community a much better Free Press than it could possibly have been without your patronage, and we are sure that our readers, one and all, will join us in this expression of appreciation.

Brunk's Comedians To Start New Year Run Monday Night

Henry L. Brunk's Comedians will open a week's run in Haskell, beginning January 1, so the advance agent for the company states. The show will play here under the auspices of the American Legion.

All performances will be held in the big rainproof and heated tent, one block south of the Tonkawa Hotel.

The opening play will be "Ace in the Hole," a comedy, which according to their representative, is full of fun, drama, and contains an unusual love story.

A very special feature will be presented in the act of "Siona," psychic wonder who answers any question. In addition to this and the main performance, they present a special line of vaudeville.

According to reports from Graham, where Brunk's Comedians showed last week, they have one of the best shows they have ever presented with more people, a larger orchestra, better vaudeville and a carefully selected run of plays.

Karl Von Hildemann, of New York, directs the nine-piece orchestra. The doors will open at 7 o'clock each night, with the orchestra prelude a little later and the curtain rises at 8 p. m. promptly.

Fatten Hogs—

(Continued from First Page) conditions or deformities, and that are smooth and moderately well finished, produce the best meat. Young hogs that are full through the hams and loins, with long, deep sides, produce the best meat for a home supply.

Proper Ration Important In order to get choice hogs that will yield the best carcasses, the feeding of a well-balanced ration is very important. Since a correct mixture of lean and fat is desirable, a ration containing a relatively high per cent of protein is necessary.

Some of the best grains for fattening hogs for home use this year are corn, barley, kafir, darso and milo. Wheat is good for fattening hogs, but the present price makes its use practically prohibitive.

Wheat and corn have about the same fattening value. Kafir is considered to be about 92 per cent as efficient as corn in producing pork.

Two of the best protein supplements on the farm are skim milk and buttermilk. Where skim milk is available, a good balanced ration consists of two to three pounds of skim milk to one pound of grain.

The following rations are suggested by Mr. Adams for fattening hogs weighing 150 to 250 pounds, fed for home use in a dry lot:

Ration 1.—Grain one part, consisting of corn, kafir, milo, or other suitable fattening grain; skim milk or buttermilk two to three parts.

Ration 2.—Grain ninety parts, tankage ten parts. If alfalfa meal is available, the ration can be slightly improved by using ninety parts grain, nine parts tankage and one part alfalfa meal.

Ration 3.—Forty parts corn, kafir or milo; twenty parts wheat shorts and one part alfalfa meal.

Where pasture is available, the daily rate of gain in hogs ordinarily can be increased 30 to 100 per cent, and the amount of grain to produce 100 pounds of pork can be reduced 15 to 50 per cent.

Those interested in information on killing, curing and canning pork on the farm can secure such information from the extension service of the Oklahoma A & M College, at Stillwater, Okla.

that their number is an excellent index to the sanitary conditions. The State Health Department, County and City Health Officers are only too glad to assist in banishing this source of disease.

Will Urge Petition to Congress Against Tax on Necessities

The following article concerning a meeting of farmers called in this city for Saturday, who further explains the purpose of the meeting herein:

"In calling a meeting of the farmers and all citizens 'who believe in equal rights to all and special privileges to none' to meet at the courthouse in the city of Haskell at 2 o'clock p. m., Dec. 30, 1933, to petition Congress to provide a better mode of taxing farm products, so the farmers can exchange farm products with each other and with merchants, so they can obtain the necessities of life, without paying a tax on what they produce.

"It is not the intention of this meeting to call the President to ask for any mistake, if any, he has made, or the NRA. The sole and only purpose of this meeting is to discuss the legal rights of the farmers to exchange what they produce with each other and with merchants, to obtain the necessities of life.

"Ever since man was created, he has exchanged what he produced, for the necessities of life and to deny him of this inherent right by taxation, when he is struggling to overcome the world's greatest known depression, brought about by the wealth of this nation and every other nation in the world getting into the hands of the few, will in a way block consumption, destroy the producer and merchant.

"I challenge Congress to show wherein the Constitution of the United States of America gives them the power to tax farm products of the producer. The rights given to the farmers to produce farm products and to exchange them for the necessities of life are beyond the powers of the Government and Congress. The inherent rights to live by the 'sweat of thy brow' can only be taken away from them by death."

GLORIFIED GIRLS FORM BEAUTIFUL CHORUS IN FILM

A beautiful chorus of fifty girls recruited from the "Follies" and the stage version of "Take a Chance" embellishes the Paramount film, produced by Laurence Schwab. It will open on Sunday at the Texas Theatre.

The girls, all of whom are outstanding dancers, will appear in numbers written especially for them by an imposing group of composers and lyricists.

"Take a Chance" tells the story of four carnival side-show entertainers who win fame and fortune on the Broadway stage through the good offices of a producer, played by Charles "Buddy" Rogers. It is by no means another back-stage romance, since the locale ranges from the side show to a splendid (though crooked) gambling club, out among the society folk of Long Island and finally to the front of a stage at a Broadway theatre.

NOTICE OF BANKRUPT PETITION FOR DISCHARGE

In the District Court of the United States for the Northern District of Texas.

In the matter of Carl Loney Bird, Bankrupt. No. 1603 in Bankruptcy.

Office of Referee
Abilene, Texas, Dec. 22, 1933.

Notice is hereby given that Carl Loney Bird of the county of Haskell and district aforesaid, did, on the 10th day of November 1933 file in the Clerk's office of said Court, at Abilene, a petition setting up that he has been heretofore duly adjudged a bankrupt under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1898; that he has duly surrendered all his property and rights of property, and has fully complied with all the requirements of said acts and of the orders of the Court touching his bankruptcy, and praying for a full discharge from all debts provable against his estate in bankruptcy, save such debts as are excepted by law from such discharge.

On considering the above mentioned petition, it is ordered that any creditor who has proved his claim, and other parties in interest, if they desire to oppose the discharge prayed for in said petition, shall, on or before the 30th day of January 1934, file with the Referee for the Abilene Division of said district, a notice in writing of their opposition to a discharge in the above entitled cause.

D. M. OLDFHAM, Jr., Referee in Bankruptcy.

Farm Outlook—

Meat Animals
Supply of meat animals in 1934 above 1933; peak in cattle, sheep probably passed. Federal plan cut hog numbers. Heavy stocks of meat.

Better consumer demand expected; low prices now favor reduced supplies; price depends much on consumer demand.

Horses and Mules
Numbers declining, shortage beginning; no danger of overbreeding likely soon, breeding stock short; a profitable farm side line.

Prices declined less than other products, have recovered about average; likely to hold up well; long-time demand depends upon mechanization trends.

Farm Family Living.
Income rise likely in 1934, probably more than rise in living cost. Income still too low, home-living needed.

Farm Credit
Commercial supply small, Federal supply enlarged. Demand likely to be about same as in 1933, possibly some smaller.

LASKY TAKES EXPERT ADVICE

Heading the advice of theatre operators who proclaimed him one of the best box-office bets of the year, Jesse L. Lasky selected Warner Baxter for the leading male role in "As Husbands Go," the Fox film coming on Saturday at 11 p. m., and Sunday at the Texas Theatre.

The assignment of the Fox star to head the cast in the film version of the highly successful play by Rachel Crothers was no hit and miss affair. Shortly after the purchase of the play by Lasky, he solicited the advice of theatre managers and owners, asking them to cooperate with him in the selection of a male lead—a man capable as an actor and a certain boxoffice draw.

A preponderance of replies named Baxter as the actor most suitable for the husband role in the screen play.

The supporting cast consists of Helen Vinson, Warner Oland, Frank O'Connor, Catherine Doucet, G. P. Huntley, Jr., Eleanor Lynn and Jay Ward. Hamilton MacFadden directed.

ESTATE OF KATE F. MORTON Deceased

A. M. Ferguson, Temporary Administrator
NOTICE AND INFORMATION FOR INTERESTED PARTIES:
Concerning Void Order on Receivership

In cause No. 4394 in the District Court of Haskell County, Judge W. S. Mauzey, presiding Judge, entered an order on October 25th, 1933, attempting to appoint J. V. Hudson as a "Receiver" for the Estate of Kate F. Morton, Deceased, on the application of Joe Lee Ferguson.

Hudson filed bond and attempted to act as such Receiver from October 28th, 1933 until December 8th, 1933, at which time the Court of Civil Appeals at Eastland reversed the judgment of the District Court and dissolved the purported receivership, on the grounds that such appointment was VOID under the laws of Texas, and without authority, because contrary to the Constitution, contrary to the Statutes, and contrary to the holdings of the Courts of Texas in such matters. These facts had been called specially to the attention of the District Judge before this order of appointment was entered. A copy of this decision of the Court of Civil Appeals is a matter of public record and is on file in the office of the District Clerk of Haskell County, Texas.

Of this action of the Court of Civil Appeals, we trust not only all interested parties, but also all other good citizens who expect to leave estates for their heirs, and which they hope will be decently, economically, legally, and prudently administered by the Courts, as the Constitution and law requires. The administration of Estates makes the Probate Courts the most Sacred Courts which we have, because on the average, three times in every 100 years all the property of the country comes under the jurisdiction of the Probate Courts.

The spirit of the guiding laws of all English speaking countries, for over 300 years, has been that Estates of deceased persons shall be administered by nearest of kin or blood, or those most interested in the Estate. The same laws and the holdings of the Courts for these 300 years say that strangers or outsiders, favorites, or kinsmen of the priests, of the King, or of the judges of the Courts shall not administer Estates, or replace the principal or proper heirs, etc. It has been attempted by local County and District Courts in Texas before, but in every case the Appellate Courts have set aside such unwise and unlawful actions, just as in this case for Haskell County.

We call these matters to the attention of the mothers and fathers of Haskell County, as also all good citizens who frown upon such actions by the officers of their Courts.

All persons having business with this Estate will see me personally, or write to me at Howe, Texas. Mr. E. Q. Furrh of Weinert, Texas is foreman of the farms.
