THROCKMORTON COURT TERM TO END THIS WEEK

One Criminal Case Heard Monday; Civil Docket Being Cleared

With the current three-week term of District Court in Throckmorton to end this week, court officials expect to clear several civil cases from the docket today. Since Monday, when one criminal case was heard, the entire week has been devoted to the civil docket.

Waiving trial by jury, Gil Parker of Woodson, charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated, entered a plea of guilty, and his punishment was fixed at 10 days in jail with a fine of $50 and costs levied and his driving license revoked for 12 months.

This case developed from an indictment voted by the Grand Jury during the present term of court. Principal civil case heard during the week concerned litigation over the estate of an aged Throckmorton resident who died last year. Involved was division of the estate, variously estimated worth between $12,000 and $15,000. A letter written by the aged man before his death and which was probated as his last will, was basis for the litigation. All principals in the case are residents of the state of Arkansas.

THE ADVENTURES OF OZZIE

How Texas Joined United States Is Briefly Outlined

A brief account of the legal steps by which Texas became a part of the United States is given by Attorney General McCraw in a statement opposing a congressional resolution to determine federal right to submerged lands along the Texas coast.

McCraw termed the resolution a serious threat to Texas' sovereignty and control over possibly a million acres of submerged coastal lands worth perhaps hundreds of millions.

"Prior to December, 1845," McCraw wrote, "Texas was a republic; a free and independent nation having the customer intercourse with other nations, including the United States. Its boundaries embraced a vast territory sparsely populated.

"Sometime prior to the above date the people inhabiting the republic formed the desire and aspiration to become a part of the union of its great neighbor, the United States.

"The original plan took on the form of a proposal for annexation. This plan was later abandoned, and was followed by a joint resolution wherein the congress of the United States on March 1, 1845, proposed to the republic of Texas that it be admitted as a state of the union, said resolution providing, among other things, that Texas should retain all the vacant and unappropriated lands lying within its limits.

"In reply to that resolution the ninth congress of the republic of Texas on June 23, 1845, passed a joint resolution agreeing to the terms proposed by the United States. This action of the Texas congress was ratified by popular vote of the people of Texas.

"Texas was then admitted to the union by joint resolution of congress passed December 29, 1845 with its public lands retained and with all the guarantees provided for in the original offer of congress."

Josselot Home Demonstration Club Has Interesting Meeting Tuesday

L. Walker and Mrs. Jim Curry hostesses.

The style of picture hanging changes just as the style of dress does. So the invisible hanging has come back in effect. Picture frames change also. No longer the big wide frames are used. The narrow frames do not attract from the picture. Group your small companion pictures together. They look lonely by themselves. It is not necessary to discard your old family picture. Take them out of their big wide frames. They will look more attractive in narrow frames and place them in your bedroom, stated Miss Vaughan as she discussed "Suitable Pictures."

Milk A Mainstay Of Farm Income

Year	Farm Cash Milk Income (in millions of dollars)
1933	$990
1934	$1133
1935	$1289
1936	$1417
1937	$1475

ABILITY of the dairy industry to maintain cash payments to farmers for milk and employee payrolls is evidence, says the Milk Industry Foundation, that this $1.4 billion dollar industry is a mainstay of agricultural and industrial purchasing power during periods of recession.

Milk, the largest source of farm cash income, was also the only major farm commodity except cotton to return farmers more cash in January than the same month of 1937. Farm cash income from milk of $132,000,000 for January was the largest for the month in eight years and 14.8 per cent greater than in January 1937. Total farm cash from marketings of all other farm products was down 10 per cent.

Total farm cash income from milk for the twelve months of 1937 was $1,475,000,000, an increase of $58,000,000 over 1936 and $490,000,000 greater than the low of 1932. An important factor in the steady increase of dairy farm income results from the axiom that farmers benefit most from milk sold in fluid form to homes, stores, hotels, restaurants.

Foundation reports from 136 markets throughout the country show that payrolls of milk companies were 4.3 per cent higher and employment down only 1.8 per cent in January 1938 compared with January 1937.

Further evidence of the importance of fluid milk distribution to economic stability is that despite curtailed business activity during the last quarter of 1937, milk company payrolls increased 4.8 per cent and employment 7 per cent over the last quarter of 1936.

Come to CHURCH Easter

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The Easter season will be observed at the Baptist church both morning and evening services. The great hymns bearing on the Resurrection will be used in the morning services. The sermon will deal with the place the Resurrection occupied in the preaching of the Apostles, its importance as a doctrine and the place it should occupy in our preaching and thinking today.

The evening service will be in charge of a well known organization of our town. The entire service will be given to singing about the greatest of all events. You will be charmed with this service and no one can afford to miss it.

In addition to these two services we are looking for a great Sunday school attendance. Practically every service the Sunday School is running above four hundred in attendance. Three Sundays ago there were five hundred and two present. Sunday should be a great day in attendance. In all these services you will feel a religious spirit and will be given a hearty welcome.

Sunday will not be a day when we shall parade in expensive garments. It will not be a dress parade. Some people are tempted to stay at home on this day because they do not have a new outfit. The tempter has won a great victory if he can switch the mind of the public from the sacredness of the day to fine garments. It makes no difference what kind of a house we live in, what we have to eat or what we have to wear, we will be on the same plane in Heaven and ought to be on the same plane at church. We invite you to worship with us Sunday.

H. R. Whately, Pastor.

BAPTIST MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

If you are not attending Sunday school you cannot afford to miss the fellowship and Bible study you will find in this class. The average attendance for many Sundays passes the hundred mark. You are urged to bring your Bible and study great chapters verse by verse.

You will really enjoy being with more than a hundred men in the study of God's Word. It is equal to any preaching service. It is worth any man's time to join in with this large number and sing the great gospel songs. A splendid song and prayer service precedes each lesson. The class meets in the theatre on the west side of the square.

RESURRECTION DAY TO BE DECISION DAY AT THE FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Next Lord's Day will be a day of decision for several people who wish to unite with the church. There will be a baptismal service at the close of the regular morning worship service which begins at 10:45 a. m. In addition to this beautiful service which the Apostle Paul says represents the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ when the candidate is immersed in the water, will be some special music which the choir has prepared for the morning worship.

The special music includes a beautiful solo by Mrs. Wayne Koonce. A large crowd is expected as a climax of the special "Christ Campaign." During this campaign the attendance was nearly doubled at all the services when the weather was favorable. A successful mid-week meeting was conducted in connection with the campaign. As a result of these special meetings, a greater appreciation of the life and teachings of Christ was evidenced. The climax of the whole campaign will be reached next Lord's Day which is the choosing day of the campaign, when a sermon will be preached on the subject: "Christ's Resurrection."

There will be no services at the church Sunday evening. We will dismiss for the "Cantata" presented by the Harmony Club at the Baptist Church.

WEINERT FOURSQUARE CHURCH NEWS

We are happy to report that the Foursquare work is still progressing and that Heb. 13:8 is our motto. Rev. Ernest Spinks has returned from San Angelo where he attended the Foursquare State Convention and reported a glorious time.

Rev. and Mrs. Russell Davenport and Rev. Ruth Whitfield held services Saturday evening and also Sunday morning for us. A large crowd enjoyed the services.

Our regular services are as follows:

Saturday afternoon, Children's Church—2:30 p. m.
Saturday evening, Service—7:30 p. m.
Sunday morning, Sunday School—9:45.
Sunday evening, Easter Pageant—7:30.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

J. G. Malphurs, Minister

All our regular services will be at the usual hours, with preaching at eleven and eight o'clock. While we do not celebrate Easter nor give that Sunday prominence above other Lord's days, because it is not so required of the New Testament church, yet we will have for our morning subject, "Faith in The Resurrected Lord." We are sure you will enjoy the discourse on this subject, whether you believe in observing Easter or not.

At the evening hour the minister will begin a series of sermons on "Church History." We urge all to hear the first of these sermons. We are sure they will be a spiritual blessing to all who want to know the truth about the church, during the past centuries.

"Come thou with us, and we will do thee good."
Rev. Ernest Spinks, Pastor.

CANDLE LIGHT SERVICE AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Special Easter services will be held at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday, both morning and evening. At the 11 o'clock service the sermon will be a communion meditation on "The Sacrifices of God." Special music will be heard, and the quarterly communion service.

Senior Class Play Will Be Given Tonight

The Senior class of Haskell High School will present as their next production a play which they feel confident will prove one of the most successful ever attempted here. The play is "Don't Ever Grow Up", a comedy in three acts by James Reach. It will contain a cast of local favorites, headed by Elizabeth Huckabee in the central role, and featuring also Bob McAnulty as her proud father.

Mrs. Wimbish, director of the Seniors, gives the information that "Don't Ever Grow Up" is a comedy of youth, dealing in an amusing and sprightly manner with the problems of adolescents. The scene is laid in a typical small American community and the central character is a girl on the borderline between adolescence and young womanhood. Her pranks and escapades furnish a running barrage of laughs, while romance is provided by her flirtations with her sister and a handsome young football hero. According to the Seniors the cast has been having an hilarious time rehearsing this sparkling comedy, and they promise an evening of genuine entertainment for those who attend the performance.

Tickets for "Don't Ever Grow Up" may be obtained from members of the Senior class for the performance which will take place Friday evening, April 15 at 8:15 at the high school auditorium.

Cramming and Cramming

You'd think that the obvious solution to the problem of attaining the school girl figure would have suggested itself long before this:

Be a school girl. A survey made at Hunter College in New York recently showed that during the cramming period . . . no, no, not food-cramming, ladies, knowledge-cramming . . . the girls lost, altogether 13,860 pounds. Women have no excuse now for "putting it on," because the people who plot the class schedule offering courses to adults have seen to it that they have no excuse for not going to college.

There's only one catch to this study-and-grow thin plan, which you must have thought of by now if you remember your school days. Cramming is what you do to make up for six weeks of looking out the classroom window or drawing pictures in your notebook.

What reason is there to expect that the women who now kill themselves taking it off, and then put it all right back on again by allowing themselves an intermission, are not going to do exactly what their kid sisters do after exams are over: go back to sleep?

Solving Everything

Gadys Swarthout, the singer, says that a careful avoidance of "irritating foods" has in some measure been responsible for the marital happiness of her and her husband.

"The lady's idea should be taken quite seriously," says Bernard Shaw, assuming quite needlessly a slightly defensive attitude. Everybody will agree that the very best people are slaves to their stomachs whether they like to admit it or not. The pity is that more people don't take advantage of this situation.

The proper kinds of food can be used to wonderful advantage not only as preventive but correctives. Think of the possibilities of doing good work in this world as you scan the following random suggestions:

Distribute pickles among the sticky-sweet child actresses.

Put all the diplomats on what is professionally known as "a bland diet."

Open a fund campaign for the purchase and free distribution of head-lettuce among the country's bald men.

Send regular supplies of clams to your talkative friends.

See that the sallow wash all their meals down with Pink Ladies.

And make it a law that every citizen in the country take a little love potion before breakfast.

Rev. Oliver Saylor protested against an advertising sign erected by the town of Azusa, Calif., near a proposed dam site. The sign read: "Azusa, the dam city."

Lo, The Poor—

If history would stop seesawing so, maybe a man could get his bearings.
Palm Springs, the desert resort down in southern California, turns out to be the property of an Indian tribe. Its hotels, cafes, mineral baths, and cocktail bars swarm with movie stars and society people, but back of every rustling thicket lurks a painted brave . . . hand on till.

First the white men had to be protected from the Indian, and then the Indians from the white men, and . . . here we go on our seesaw again. The lower numbers on the Palm Springs cash registers are reported to have been long covered with dust.

Maybe these Indians remember the trifling payment another tribe got for the Number 1 Cafe Town back of the Statue of Liberty. Maybe they're planning on expanding around here and there and doing a little farsighted land bargaining themselves. A man ought to think about these things. Maybe we never should have bought New York in the first place. Maybe Palm Springs will prove too much competition and we'll have to sell that other place in the east dirt cheap and get out from under.

Or maybe it would be better just to wait for that seesaw. Palm Springs, it should be mentioned has as many Indian advisers as it has Indians.

Dash It

What these crafty military strategists manage to think up in the way of new twists to warfare certainly beats all.

Anybody reading that news about Italy's military authorities waging war on profanity in the ranks might think it was just one of those little oddities of life across the water, snicker a little bewilderedly, and proceed to forget all about it. The devilish ingenuity of it!

American veterans remember that tearing out a choice selection of crimson-violet oaths was a required part of the military training in camp, especially in the bayonet practice. It was that way, it has been learned since in all the best military finishing schools here and abroad. When a man got into the . . . as it were . . . practical application period of what he had learned, universal cursing was the thing that was expected.

Consider any future conflict that Italy might be involved in. A cold dawn. A surprise attack by the Italians. A charge of assorted Giuseppe and Arnaldo yelling: "Gracious!" "land sakes!" "dearie me!" then, maybe, "silly bambinal!" and "now you stop!" The chances are 100 to 1 that the enemy would do just that. Stop.

Confusion, panic, utter demoralization. Then rout.

Rules For A Husband

Domestic infelicity threatened to dash the matrimonial bark of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Walsh of New York upon the rocks. In fact, matters had reached such a crisis that Mrs. Walsh was suing for a divorce. Peter pleaded for one more chance to hold his job as husband.

Mrs. Walsh heeded his plea and agreed to withdraw her suit if Peter would promise to abide by eight simple, easily understood rules which she would lay down for his future guidance. Peter promised. Here are the rules:

You shall not drink.

You shall respect your wife at all times.

Do not teach your children insubordination by interfering when I am correcting them.

Do not bring your pals home when you are all drunk.

Give me your salary each week, because I can save out of it what you spend on booze.

Keep yourself tidy and fit for a woman to look at.

Do some repairing around the house and make our home beautiful.

Do not smoke in bed.

Historic Hoaxes

By Elmo Scott Watson

Clan War

ONE day a Scotchman of the Clan MacLean dropped in to the office of the Toronto Mail and Empire, as was his custom, to see his friend, Charles Langton Clarke. On the newspaper man's desk he noticed a clipping of an article which quoted "the noted Scottish historian, Strangway," as saying that the MacLeans had been the first to flee from the Battle of Culloden, thus causing the defeat of Bonnie Prince Charlie. That clipping had been "planted" there deliberately by Clarke, who expected his friend to find it and "blow up."

Instead, the victim of Clarke's hoax rushed from the office and sat himself down to write an indignant letter to another Toronto newspaper. Immediately other Scots in Ontario took up the matter and a bitter controversy began. To the MacLeans, proudest of all the proud Highlanders and numerous in Canada, such a reflection upon the courage of their ancestors was an insufferable insult.

Members of other clans — and these included men who were supposed to be authorities on Scottish history — declared that they were quite familiar with the works of Strangway and had always found him accurate. For days the battle of Culloden was fought over and over again in the columns of the newspapers. So bitter grew the feeling that Clarke began to wonder how he could still the tempest that he had raised, before there was bloodshed. Then, almost as suddenly as it had begun, the controversy died down. But it wasn't until years later that Clarke dared confess that he was the author of the hoax.

Indian Is No Longer Vanishing American

The "Vanishing American" is a myth, officials of the Indian Bureau say at Washington. The Indian, victim of years of conquest and pestilence, is reappearing on the American scene with startling rapidity.

Commissioner John Collier estimated that the present Indian population of the United States was 337,366, compared with 266,000 at the turn of the century and 846,000 when the white man first came to this country.

Mr. Collier said the Indian mortality rate still is 13.7 per cent per 1,000 of population—but that it was dropping slowly because of improved living conditions. The birth rate—22.3 per cent per thousand—remains among the highest of any population group in the country.

Fire which was discovered at 3:30 Tuesday morning completely destroyed the administration building of the Stamford College, entailing a loss estimated at $100,000. Officials of the school have no idea of the fire's origin.

A number of enthusiastic ladies fill the American Red Cross work rooms each day and as a result of their loyal efforts a box of surgical dressings will be shipped this week.

30 Years Ago—April 11, 1908
The city election Tuesday went off as quietly as a church social. Only a light vote, 270, was polled with the following result: T. E. Matthews was elected mayor, O. F. Patterson city secretary, Clyde F. Elkinton city attorney, W. K. Whisman city marshal, and H. S. Wilson, Jno. F. Jones, D. H. Hamilton, W. M. Stephens and W. W. Fields, Aldermen.
The rainfall has been 2.59 in-

The Presbyterian Ladies Missionary Union of the El Paso Presbytery will meet at Haskell April 16 and 17, services to be held in the Baptist Church. On one of the dates the Union will be addressed by a Japanese missionary from Mexico.

J. D. Roberts of the east side was in the city Thursday. He said that a pressing need existed for a good road from Haskell to the northeast part of the county, and believes that building of such a road would result in more business for Haskell merchants.

F. F. A. News

The first Father and Son Banquet will be held April 26th. The date had been unsettled for a long time because of other things conflicting but this date has been set as official and the banquet will be held as the Weinert boys have a habit of doing what they say.

Plans have been made for the purchase of a registered Jersey bull by the boys and when the bull is received he will be available to all farmers at a very small rate.

Two registered boars are also to be purchased by the chapter. A lot of the boys have Chester White and Poland China hogs therefore it was decided by the boys to get a bear of each breed.

Within the last two weeks the Weinert Aggies have culled 539 chickens and plan to cull a great deal more as every boy is culling his home flock.

Phil Cadenhead is the proud owner of a young Hereford calf that he plans to have as a project next year. The calf is also going to make all the local shows and the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show so Phil says. Just the same may luck be his. Some of the other boys have been looking over calves for projects for the coming year.

We all wonder what "Jew" is going to have as his outstanding project next year. This year its a goat next year its going to be frogs so we hear. Any way we can say that Jew knows his agriculture. He made 84 this six weeks.

Football Practice Being Held Daily

Aiming at the first season of football during the 1938 school year Weinert is having bright prospects for a well modeled team. Something like thirty-five boys are reporting daily for workouts and learning the rules of the game. Most of the practice has been toward teaching the boys the fundamentals of the game.

Coach Hinson and his assistant Mr. Perrin have outlined a training season until the last week of school and the main stress will be placed on the fundamentals of the game.

A football field for the squad is in the making while the boys are using a temporary field. The field will be located northwest of the high school building.

Weinert To Have Entries In Softball Meet

Weinert will be represented by four teams Saturday at Rule. The high school junior girls are out to win county or else. The junior boys don't have such high ideals but will offer stiff competition to all comers.

The grammar school teams have practiced long and hard and from their looks they can play ball. So Saturday Weinert expects to win a few more laurels in the game of ball for which the boys and girls of Weinert have proven is their great asset.

Mr. Jimmie Bird To Be Speaker At Father And Son Banquet

Arrangements have been made with Mr. Byrd so that he will be able to attend the banquet. Mr. Byrd also stated that if anything interfered with his coming he would let the Chapter know in plenty of time.

Invitations have been mailed to several other well known men some of those are Congressman George Mahon, and Dr. Davis our State Representative.

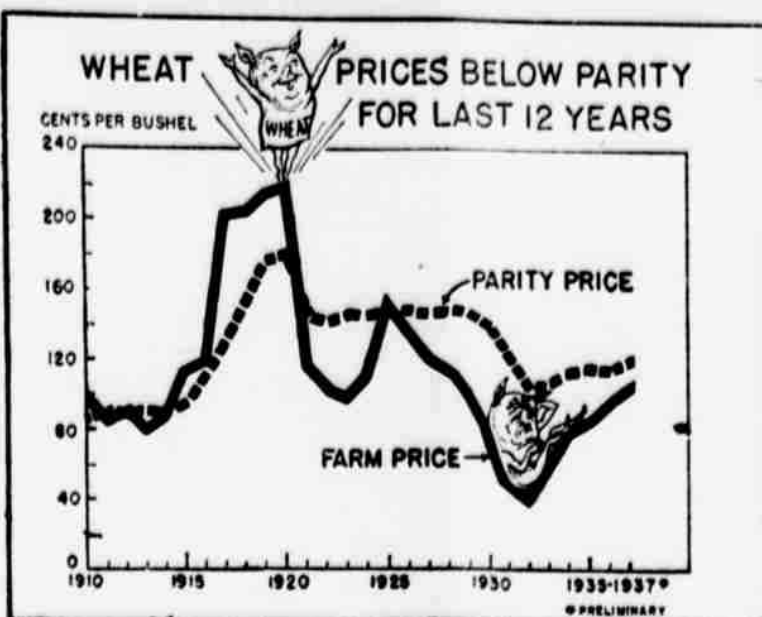

Denton Bound

In the wee early hours of Saturday morning the Senior class will be bound for Denton to spend a glorious day. Denton has planned an interesting program that should be enjoyed by everyone. And too, the Seniors hope to win the twenty five dollars for coming the farthest as the graduating class here did last year. So wish us good luck to win the money but you need not bid us a farewell or "Have a good time", for we all shall.

Last Year In High School

School has just taken up, and the seniors are coming to school for their last year. This is some of the talk that is heard, "Well one more year, and I'll be through" "I'll be glad when the year is over." The year is now about half over and this is what they are saying, "I'm not in such a hurry for school to be out." "You know I kind of hate to see school out." The last six weeks you can hear this, "I wish I was just a Junior this year." "I would like to play football next year." The last day there will be crying and moaning. Honest we are glad to get out, but we don't like the idea of leaving "Old Weinert High."

Wheat has been consistently below parity price for the past 12 years according to W. E. Morgan, economist of the Extension Service of Texas A. and M. College. This means that a bushel of wheat, when sold, will buy less than a similar bushel bought back in the years 1910-1914.

Under the new farm act commodity loans will be offered wheat farmers to enable them to hold their wheat when the regular markets will not absorb it. The loans on wheat will be made in years when the farm price on June 15 is below 52 percent of the parity price, or when the July crop estimate is greater than a normal year's domestic consumption and exports.

Had the new farm act been in force, loans would have been made in all the years since 1923 except in 1925, 1933, 1934 and 1936.

Under the act, loans will be made at rates of not less than 52 percent and not more than 75 percent of the parity price at the beginning of the marketing year.

The Future Life of Milam Jones

After graduating from the W. H. S. in 1938 Milam attended the A. & M. College at College Station, Texas. Here, of course, his major was agricultural. In this work one naturally has to go places and see things. One day the teacher took the boys out to Mr. Mitchell's farm to see and discuss an underground silo. On arriving, Mr. Mitchell's daughter, Clara Sue, greeted them.

Milam fell in love with her as he had always wanted to go with her in high school. He began to date her. These were his first dates but Milam was not as bashful as people back in 1938 might think he was. But Milam lost Clara Sue for along came Winton Palmer and away she went with him.

Heart broken over this, Milam grew to be very careless. So one day on his way to school he had a wreck and was taken to the hospital. Here of course he had a special nurse, who is none other than Bulah Mae Vayles.

She payed him much attention; however, he wasn't badly hurt. After a few weeks Milam was well again, and in order to repay Bulah Mae for her kindness, he took her to a dance where they won the prize for being the best dancers. This prize was won over three other couples that Milam and Bulah Mae went to high school with.

These couples were: Mattie Louise Chatwell and Alton Newberry, Eldon Sanderson and Margaret Toller and Clara Wigley and Joe Bailey King.

On the way home they stopped at a cafe for eats and drinks and guess who owned the cafe? None other than Mr. and Mrs. John Mark Whitman.

The next day Milam went to a newly married couples house to terrace. The farm is owned by Olesah Maston and his wife, formally Miss Marion Anderson.

During Milam's Junior year in college a group of young folks went for a moonlight picnic. Here they met some old friends. Ben Sloe, Mildred Owens, Anna Bell Haines and Edward Havran who married May 21, 1941 and asked him to be present for the wedding. The more Milam thought of this, the faster his heart beat. The next night Milam proposed to Bulah Mae. It was so sudden that she said "yes" before she thought, but she has never regretted it. So Milam and Bulah Mae were also married May 21, 1941.

Milam only liked one year being through college so he finished his work.

Immediately after his graduation he became the county agent of Haskell county.

So today, March 15, 1943, Milam is a happy married man and is very happy that the wreck happened after things turned out like they did.

Boxing Tourney At Weinert May 6th and 7th

Boxing fans from Weinert and surrounding territory will have the pleasure of attending a well rounded boxing tourney sponsored by the Future Farmers of America.

There will be 12 bouts both nights and three special bouts every night.

Winners in each class will be awarded suitable prizes. All amateur boxers are cordially invited to enter.

Sebo Britton of Haskell will referee all bouts.

Those that are interested should get in touch with the match making committee composed of Vernon Anderson, Junior Owens, and Carl Jenkins.

The advertising management is composed of W. T. Johnson, Milam Jones and Ben Sloan.

Those taking care of the seating places and ring reserve seats and all such items is the managing committee composed of J. B. King, Alton Newberry and Winton Palmer.

Our Seniors

Eldon Sanderson
Eldon is one of our Seniors who came and joined our class late in the year. He came to us from

Rule High School. He has brown hair and blue eyes, and has made himself well liked since he has come to Weinert. Eldon was on our track team this year, and did very well at Haskell in the County Meet. He also liked to play basketball and tennis. Eldon is liked by all of his teachers for the work he does, and the energy he uses trying. He is always ready to do anything for the Senior class and I think the whole class will join in thanking. So good luck, Eldon, may your life be a happy one.

Seeing his automobile being driven down the street, Roy Scott of Arkansas City, Kan., begged a ride from the driver, and begged him to go to the police station.

Burglary of a Rochester garage several weeks ago, in which a small sum of money was taken from the garage cash register, is also due for investigation by Grand Jurors, according to court files.
