LIFE SENTENCE ASSESSED ANSON WOMAN AFFIRMED

Appeals Court Denies New Trial Plea of Mrs. L. Dansby

A life sentence given Mrs. L. Dansby of Jones county for poisoning her landlady and neighbor, Mrs. J. T. King in Anson last year, was affirmed Wednesday by the Court of Criminal Appeals at Austin. The defendant at one time was a resident of Haskell, moving to Anson several years ago.

Mrs. Dansby appealed on a claim that the trial court erred when it declined to order an instructed verdict of not guilty. Evidence did not prove she mixed poison with lemonade or caused Mrs. King to swallow it, she contended.

The appellate court disagreed, pointing out evidence showed she purchased poison and smeared it upon half a lemon which she gave Mrs. King to be used in lemonade.

Her conviction was for murder with malice and although she may ask for a rehearing before the highest criminal court of the State its affirmation of the life term would not be stayed unless new evidence or proof of trial court errors were submitted.

Other proceedings of the Appeals Court included the submission on brief and oral argument of Clarence (Pony) Abston from a fifty-year sentence imposed in Kent county in his second trial for the murder of an O'Brien woman in May, 1936. The appeal was submitted by T. R. Odell of Haskell, defense counsel, with District Attorney Ben Charlie Chapman and Tom Davis of this city opposing the plea.

Sherrill was named as presiding officer for the election, to be held in the City Hall. Appointment of clerks to assist in the election will be appointed later. According to the order, polls will open at 8 o'clock a. m. and close at 6 p. m.

Mayor Alexander, Secretary Coburn, and City Marshal Britton complete their first term at the close of the city's fiscal year.

A report to the Council that several complaints had been made recently concerning poultry running at large within the city limits, resulted in the Council instructing City Marshal Britton to see that an ordinance is enforced that prohibits owners from allowing chickens and other poultry to run at large. The ordinance, passed in April, 1934 provides a penalty of from $1.00 to $25 for violation.

Complaints were also investigated concerning alleged dancing in a public place, and city officials stated that if continued complaints are received, charges of disturbing the peace might be filed against parties allowing the practice.

EMERGENCY FEED AND SEED LOANS NOW AVAILABLE

Farmers Eligible Who Have No Other Source of Credit

Application for emergency crop and feed loans for 1938 are now being received at the Haskell office of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Administration.

The loans will be made, as in the past, only to farmers who cannot obtain credit from any other source. The money loaned will be limited to the farmer's immediate and actual cash needs for growing his 1938 crops or for the purchase of feed for livestock, and the amount which may be loaned to any one farmer in 1938 may not exceed $400.

Farmers who can obtain the funds they need from an individual, production credit association, bank, or other concern are not eligible for crop and feed loans from the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Section of the Farm Credit Administration. The loans will not be made to standard rehabilitation clients whose current needs are provided for by the Farm Security Administration, formerly known as the Resettlement Administration.

As in the past, farmers who obtain emergency crop and feed loans will give a security a first lien on the crop financed, or a first lien on the livestock to be fed if the money borrowed is to be used to produce or purchase feed for livestock.

Where loans are made to tenants, the landlords, or others having an interest in the crops financed or the livestock to be fed, are required to waive their claims in favor of a lien to the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration until the loan is repaid.

Checks in payment of approved loans will be mailed from the Regional Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Office at Dallas, Texas.

Popular Event on Senior Calendar

By a very unexpected call, the seniors were asked to a class meeting Monday to decide on their invitations. Mr. Breedlove presided while a committee was elected to select the invitations; the committee members were Bob McNulty, Labry Ballard, Frances Fouts, Irene Miller and Anita Jo Simmons.

Immediately after one o'clock the committee met with each of the three salesmen and selected an invitation from each. Then, the class met and voted unanimously on one of the three.

The selection of their cards was left until a later date.

Junior Column

We Juniors are surely hoping that Lon McMillin comes back from Fort Worth with the honor of being State Champion. (We hope, we hope, we hope.)

It seems that Quinton B. is the apple of a Sophomore girl's eye. Maybe she will get a chance some day.

We wonder if Christine L. had a good time Saturday night, especially while walking.

Dorothy J. says she had the old time Sunday night "lookin' old pictures." Don't let her of you, because she didn't me.

"Tuck" was really mad at Doug when he tore up a picture of someone. (Could it have been another Stamford boy?)

Has Jerry C. quit going to Rulo these days. He probably doesn't know it but some of the girls over here might like for him to return.

Lucille S. received a very nice telegram Valentine and it expressed in just a few words what he wanted to say. It was signed W. K. Who is this person?

David P. is beginning to be a "ladies man". Anyway some of the girls and boys think so.

Students Receives Scotland Newspaper

"Imagine a big strapping Scotsman, in the thick of battle, attired in the uniform of an officer of a Highland regiment, sticking out his chest and telling the world he's fighting for England."

"Sometimes I blush for Hollywood, although they do make wonderful films."

"Wee Willie Winkie" showing at the Picture House this week and next is good entertainment and shouldn't offend the Scottish Nationalists too much."

The above quotation was taken from a January 27th edition of a Scottish newspaper, recently received by one of the high school students who is corresponding with a boy living in Aberdeen, Scotland.

The newspaper is named the "Evening Express" and sells for the sum of one penny. Chief differences that were noted in the paper's appearance may be found in the facts that the paper is of larger size, has wider columns, has the advertisements arranged in a different manner from ours, and that all headlines and significant statements in a news story are printed in heavier type.

On the front page along with general news is found the weather forecast. Inside we find the daily crossword puzzle, bridge lesson, chatty columns, and editorials, much as we have them.

In the cookery hints were found several novel and delicious American dishes which Scotch housewives were urged to try, such as devil's food cake, poached eggs with cheese and creamy fudge.

The markets have their place in the paper, also. The headline of this page reads, "Wall Street Slump Hits The London Market."

Horse races, tennis, swimming, hockey, boxing, badminton and football each have their mention on the sport pages. The Steeple Chase seemed to be the biggest event of the day.

On the inside of the back page is found the Aberdeen Entertainment Guide, which includes in its list several of the shows with which we are familiar such as Gene Autry in "Round-Up Time in Texas," Bobby Brien in "Make A Wish" and Ronald Coleman in "The Prisoner of Zenda."

On the last page of the newspaper are found the want ads. One of the want ads reads:

"Man or Halflin wanted, now. Apply Miss Scott, Masshead, Clatt."

One of the most interesting things that the students noted were pictures of the football team. The Scotch use a different system of playing football and naturally they wear a different kind of uniform. In the system which they employ, the ball is never touched except by the goal keeper.

The name which is used the most throughout the paper, is that of Robert Burns, the Scotch poet. Apparently, his memory was paying tribute to his Scotland at this particular time. In supper, dinners, radio broadcasts, concerts, editorials, and even in motion pictures, his name and works were being discussed and praised.

(A Sequel to "Drama Takes A Holiday")

ACT I

Introduction: We left our characters from the foreign countries in the capital. Now perhaps they might like to get back home; after all, it would be a shame to have penniless dukes, lords, and barons roaming the streets of Gaustin.

Time—Sixteenth Century.
 (Actors pass through the capital's streets singing "Aren't We Happy"—from the picture of the same name—leaving the inhabitants shaking their heads in pitying sympathy.)

Lady Wimbish: I feel like chirping—"chirp, chirp."
 Lord Wimbish: (Aside) Ah, the ostrich feathers have gone to her head.
 Mlle. de Vick: Oh, look! There's El Mal Actor, the greatest dramatist of this golden age. I have seen him many times in Paris.
 Srta. Riley: I tell you it's a shame the way these actors get around—goodness gracious, I saw him in Madrid only six months ago, and here he is in Gaustin. How fast the canoes do travel!
 Baroness Meyer: There's the king's palace. Let's stay while they are changing the guard.
 Sir McCollum: Goody, goody!—I think I'll get out and display my new suit. (He walks to where the guard men are marching. At that instant a coach comes around the

Random Remarks

Strange how a little bad weather seems to affect the attendance at school so strongly. But those who came seemed to think that it was a lot of fun having so few here.

Economics students in the morning class through Mrs. Wimbish was only joking when she told them she was giving them a test. But she surprised them and meant it. To add insult to injury, the other section of the class was not given a test until Tuesday.

The other day when Mrs. Wimbish asked Irene Miller if she is related to the Woods, Irene exhibited the most realistic blush seen in many years.

Perhaps it is only a sub-conscious result of the lecture that Mrs. Wimbish gave her class, but there has seemed to be a larger number of students doing things together than before. Especially do the hayride bunch seem to be getting some fun out of life.

Then there were people who didn't come to school because they thought they could have more fun elsewhere. The question is—who gets the last laugh?

There is to be a practice debate between Stamford and Haskell Thursday of this week. Next week the Haskell debaters plan to go to Stamford for a return debate.

Students Sing

For our assembly program Wednesday, February 16, we sang. It was the first time this year for us to sing as we had not had the opportunity until we occupied the new auditorium and were provided with a piano. Mrs. Wimbish led the group and Marjorie Ratliff accompanied. Besides old favorites and negro spirituals, several novelty songs were sung. Everybody seemed to enjoy "Polly Wolly Doodle" more than any other song. Students feel that they have a real part in assembly when they sing; everybody contributes something, and thus more is obtained from it. We should sing more often!

"Tis Said"

Seems kinda funny that Sam and Louise like to walk so well that they get out on the highway and walk back to town, when they could ride.—Frances actually went with a different boy Friday night. It was Claude Jenkins, Jr.—We have several boys in high school who are good cooks, as far as candy is concerned. Jack S. seems to like the exotic ticket-seller.—Kinzie sort of got her dates mixed Friday night, but we think she made the wisest choice: Foy.—If it would snow more often, it might be possible to take out a little revenge on some people by rolling them.—You children must learn that you can't put anything by Mr. Wimbish and remember what playing hockey leads to.

Student Wins State Boxing Championship

At the State Golden Gloves Tournament that met from Feb. 17 to Feb. 21 at Fort Worth, Lon McMillin of Haskell High School became the lightweight amateur champion of the State of Texas. All of the fights were great but of course Lon's was the most interesting to me.

Thursday night Lon's first fight drew him another K. O. to his list. His second fight of the night, with Parker of Dallas, gave him a narrow decision. Gene Tunney is promoter of the Parker boy, so the Fort Worth Star Telegram picked him to win the championship.

Friday night "Rosie" McMillin, an exgraduate of Haskell High School made his bid for the light heavyweight crown. His efforts however were of no use. Monday night was the time for the last and final rounds. In his first fight of the evening Lon battled Morris Weston. A judge of the fight. The lightweight champion.

Results of Pest and Water Control

A. Bellamy, Profitt, county, inspects kill of farmers and ranchmen in the North Central Texas district. Right, individual terrace with 5 rounds on the farm of C. A. Waller, 6 miles northeast of Henrietta in Clay county. 202,848 acres were terraced in 1937 in Extension Service district 3.

age of 25 bushels per acre for the entire county. Added to the fact that a bumper wheat crop was harvested, favorable prices were received for this crop, the farmers being paid 90c to $1.00 per bushel at harvest time.

The biggest cotton crop in the history of the district was harvested although the price received by the farmers was somewhat discouraging. Evidence of the favorable economic condition is reflected in improvements; some new farm homes have been built within the last year, new barns and outbuildings have been built and old ones repaired. Radios have been installed in many homes, new light plants have been purchased and new and improved farm machinery replaced much which was old and worn out.

County agricultural agents have put forth an extra amount of effort in boys' 4-H club work, knowing that these boys will be the leaders of tomorrow. 1,918 boys were enrolled in the 17 counties. This enrollment exceeded the goal set by the state 4-H club agent by 51 boys, and exceeds the 1936 enrollment by 225 boys. These boys are carrying on many types of demonstration including calf feeding, lamb feeding, improved cotton projects and improved grain sorghums, and projects of feeding pigs and poultry raising. Several judging teams were trained by the agents in district 3, including poultry judging, livestock, cotton, grain sorghums and meat identification teams. A meat identification team and a poultry judging team, both from Young county, won the state judging contest in these two branches and represented the Texas Extension Service with honor in the national contest which was held in connection with the International Livestock Exposition at Chicago in December. Incidentally, Young county is the only county in the State which sent two teams to Chicago from Texas last year. The 4-H club boys of Wise county fed 50 lambs during 1937 and realized a net profit of $5.37 each.

The county agricultural agents of district 3 during 1937 perhaps devoted more time to problems in connection with soil conservation and the conservation of water than to any other problem. NYA boys were used in several counties during the early part of 1937 to run terrace and contour lines under the direction of county agricultural agents. Many farmers and 4-H club boys have been trained to run terrace lines and are now assisting the agents in putting over this very important phase of Extension work. A total of 202,848 acres was terraced in the district during 1937 under the direction of the county agricultural agents. The majority of the terraces were constructed by county machinery at a cost of just enough to cover the operating expenses of the machines. This operating cost is around $1.00 to $1.50 per acre. Because of experiments which have been carried on for years by the Experiment Stations and demonstrations which have been carried on for years by the Experiment Stations and demonstrations which have been conducted by the county agricultural agents, the majority of row crops in district 3 are planted on the contour at the present time, thus conserving the moisture, which is the limiting factor in crop production in this section of the State.

A trench silo campaign was put on in the district during the early summer and the trench silo specialist together with the district agent held 12 meetings in the same number of counties, and as a result, 251 trench silos were dug and filled this year, which is an increase of some 200 per cent over the number that were in the district in 1936. It is felt that this is one of the most valuable pieces of work accomplished by the Extension Service in District 3 during 1937 because a trench silo is feed insurance.

Much interest has been manifested by farmers and ranchmen throughout district 3 during the past year in improving the wildlife conditions and in setting up and carrying on wildlife and game management demonstrations. This resulted in the signing up by the landholders of a total of 1,385,425 acres.

A serious grasshopper infestation occurred throughout every county in the district during the summer and government aid was secured to fight this serious menace to growing crops. Five hundred tons of poison were distributed

MARINE COMMANDER

Brigadier General John C. Beaumont, commander of the second brigade fleet marine force, who embarked from San Diego, Calif., for the Sino-Japanese war area in Shanghai to take command of all United States marines in China. He will be responsible for disposing his country's most effectively to protect America's nationals in the war zone.

There are seven ways by which a sinner might be trapped.

- 1. The guilt conscience tells on him. This is especially true of amateurs in sin. The guilty conscience made Adam try to hide himself among the trees of Eden from the fact of God, in whose image he was made. (Gen. 3)
2. Success in the practice of sin leads to boldness, and boldness leads to apprehension. The little fish usually nibbles before swallowing the hook. If the first bottle of whiskey is sold without getting caught, the law-violator waxes bolder and bolder until the officers have plenty of proof, and the bootlegger is pinched. The dram-drinker prides himself in the amount of whiskey he can hold, and in this self-confidence he takes one drink too much, and is ditched. He has been caught as a drunkard.

- 3. Hardness of The Face leads some to get trapped. Solomon said: "A wicked man hardeneth his face" (Prov. 21:29). The continual practice of sin and wickedness changes the innocent face of a boy into that of a criminal. A criminal's face is soon detected by policemen, and the owner is held for questioning.
4. Disease and Sickness often reveal the fact that the sufferer has violated the moral code. Not all sickness or disease can be traced to the sin of the individual but some can, and those that can, speak in no uncertain sound, except as the doctor uses some medical term for a social disease to keep your friends from knowing your downfall.
5. The pul in the sin sometimes squeals. This is often the case of social sins. It has its sequel in lawsuits for breaches of promise, and for alimony.

- 6. Photographs of finer prints never lie on anyone. Like the snow crystals, no two are ever found to be identical.
7. The lie detector is the last invention of science to help the law trap criminals. If the face is no longer innocent enough to blush because of sin, if the hard face does not show the criminal up and if he will not confess with his mouth his wickedness, the lie detector shows his words are crooked.
This is one of several subjects on sin. The one for 7:30 p. m. next Lord's day will be "The Devil", in which his origin, his dress, his manner of work and his punishment will be discussed. The public is invited to study this subject with us.

Improved Economic Conditions In Central North Texas Evidenced In 1937

AGE STATION — The rainfall for this district was a little above the average for several years, grazing conditions were very good throughout the majority of the district for 1937, the price of cattle was good during the early part of last year and a bumper wheat crop was harvested in the majority of counties, some counties having yielded an aver-

Soil Conservation Program for State Makes Progress

Texas' fight for soil and water conservation, started some 25 years ago, has accomplished one-third of its objective, according to the annual report of M. R. Bentley, agricultural engineer of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service.

The figures are based on a survey made by county agricultural agents in November, 1937. Bentley said. The survey revealed that 20,389,492 acres of crop land are in need of protection against soil and water loss, while protection measures have been taken on 10,587,744 acres.

The work went forward at a steady rate in 1937, the report reveals. During the past year, 890,781 acres of crop land were terraced, 2,166,898 acres of crop land contoured but not terraced, and 232,632 acres of pasture land were terraced, contour listed, or protected in a similar manner.

Thus more than three million acres of crop land were added to the area previously terraced and contoured, while the 232,632 acres of pasture land protected against loss of soil and water compared very favorably with the 100,000 acres so treated in 1936.

A major development during 1937 was the increased use of county road machinery in the construction of terraces. Bentley pointed out. Of the total acreage terraced in 1937, terraces were built on 373,009 acres by county machinery. The arrangement applied to 170 counties in 1936, while commissioners' court in 189 counties made county equipment available for use in 1937. The usual arrangement is to furnish the equipment at cost of operation.

County agricultural agents continued training schools throughout the year, and there are now 9,261 men and 6,266 boys who are qualified to run terrace lines, the report shows.

SEVEN TRAPS FOR SINNERS

By J. G. Malphurs. Moses said in Numbers 32:23, "Be sure your sins will find you out". The same thought is expressed in the New Testament when Paul said, "For he that soweth unto his own flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption." (Gal. 6:8) distributed through the county agricultural agents to farmers and ranchmen throughout the district. The poison material with a certain amount of wheat bran was furnished by the government. The farmers and ranchmen of the counties then furnished a like amount of wheat bran or cottonseed hulls with which the poison was mixed under the direction of the agents and distributed in the sections of the counties where the infestation was heaviest. In some counties NYA boys were used in the mixing of the material, in other counties the commissioners' courts cooperated by paying for the labor required to mix the material and in some few instances furnished trucks for distributing the poison to the farmers and ranchmen in the remote sections of the counties. It is estimated that about 2-3 of the growing crops was saved from being destroyed.

Why We Need Floor Covering Discussion At Foster H. D. Club Tuesday

Why we need floor covering, was discussed when the Foster H. D. Club met with Mrs. J. M. Harrell February 15.

Covered floors improve the looks of a house helps make the house warmer and is lots easier to clean. When making crocheted hooked, or braided rugs or mats always have the amount of material needed before you start. Never mix cotton and wool or wool and rayon. Only use one kind of material to the rug. Mixed colors make very pretty rugs or mats.

Roll call was answered with "One thing I have learned about color" Mrs. J. M. Harrell presided during business session as our president was absent. A very interesting program about the different rugs, mats and color was given by several of the club members. We learned quite a few points on rug making.
Refreshments were served to the following: Mesdames J. R. Wade, G. M. Wade, L. G. Server, H. A. Gauntt, and J. M. Harrell.
We adjourned to meet with Mrs. M. G. Martin March 1.

The woodwork and floors must be refinished.
In this room I have a closet but it is not in good condition, I need to add shelves, shoe racks, tie and belt racks and hat stands. When these things have been added my clothes closet will be very convenient.

The Josslet Home Demonstration Club

"Small braided mats protects polished wood surfaces when placed under such articles as a bowl of flowers or a lamp," stated Mrs. Jesse Josslet to the Josslet Home Demonstration Club last Tuesday February 22 at 2:30 p. m. in the club house with Mrs. Walter Rogers and Mrs. Jesse Josslet hostess.

Either braided or hooked rugs are suitable for any room of the house providing they harmonize with the furniture of the room, further stated Mrs. Josslet as she discussed Hooked Rugs and Mats.
"It's a protection to the floors to have floor coverings," said Mrs. Walter Rogers as she discussed the need of floor coverings. Before covering a floor that has cracks in it fill them full of sand and then lay building paper over it before putting down your rug and they will last much longer stated Mrs. J. L. Toliver.
Ten minutes of recreation was directed by Mrs. Jesse Josslet.
Refreshments were served to: Mesdames J. L. Toliver, John Paul Perrin, Walter Rogers, Fred Monke, Jesse Josslet.

Industries Still Go Elsewhere

Commenting on the recent announcement that the Chipman Chemical company of Bound Brook, N. J., and the Pennsylvania Salt company of Philadelphia "will jointly build a plant near the Bonneville dam in Oregon," in order to utilize the low-cost electrical power which the dam will provide, for the manufacture of sodium chlorate, the Texas Planning Bulletin says:

"Just why sodium chlorate should be manufactured in Oregon for use on Texas farms is difficult to understand." This chemical is used to control Johnson grass and rag weed, two pests with which Texas farmers have to contend.

Dams under construction in Texas will supply cheap power for a chemical plant such as the two eastern companies will build in Oregon. Texas also has the raw materials for making sodium chlorate. Furthermore, a considerable saving in freight rates might be effected by making sodium chlorate for use on Texas farms in Texas plants.

As the Planning Bulletin says, the cheap power that will be supplied at low cost by the Buchanan and Marshall Ford dams in Texas, plus the proximity of raw materials, would apparently create a "perfect combination for a chemical industry." Then why do these companies cross the continent and project a plant on the Pacific coast that might serve them better if built in Texas?

The answer to this question might throw light on the failure of Texas to progress industrially as fast as its natural advantages would warrant. To quote the Planning Bulletin again, "Perhaps the answer lies in the fact that Texas will be just what Texans make it." If the people of Texas do not offer inducements to industry comparable to or greater than those offered by other states, Texas may continue to wonder why new industries go elsewhere.

Memo For Husbands

A lot of mere husbands could do worse than frame a little news item which came out of Hollywood recently to the effect that when a studio wanted a sleazy-looking evening dress the prop experts toured all the cheap shops and finally ended up by buying an exclusive model for $250.

It seems that all the cheaper stores where evening frocks are hung on racks for $11.95 and even less, featured smart lines and a certain available chic which their patrons recognized at sight.

Studio designers explained that the exclusive model which they finally chose was extraordinary and "must have been a nightmare" on the part of some couturier.

Many an exclusive model has been a nightmare to a husband, too, about the time the bill appeared. Hollywood has done the male sex a tremendous good turn. The little news item justifies itself. No home should be without it.

When United States Fights In The Air

The United States is at war. A fleet has invaded the Atlantic coast and is standing off hurling thousand-pound projectiles at the seaboard cities. From Cleveland, Dayton, Louisville, Des Moines and a score of other inland towns, huge "flying fortresses" are wheeled out of protected hangars. Crew members who act with trained precision take their places and the huge ships soar coastward, lightly laden, while over them buzz tiny pursuit planes.

Converging on certain coastal points the big bombers land and nose into underground "air stations" where they are loaded with complete cargoes of bombs and shells for small cannon each plane carries. The fuel tanks are filled for extended flight. The ships are wheeled out again. Overhead the pursuit planes are dogfighting with enemy craft. A hurried bomb misses its target and explodes harmlessly several hundred yards from the underground hangars. A riddled pursuit ship goes into a faltering spin, leaves a trail of black smoke as the pilot bails out.

The laden bombers take off and the darting hornets in the sky form in convoy again. Wheeling over the Atlantic, the big planes loose their cargoes on the invading fleet, which may or may not be already under fire from American land batteries and battleships. Their work done, the bombers turn and fly back to their inland bases where they are safe from invaders by sea.

That is the picture army experts have just about decided upon for aircraft's part in preparation for any invasion of these shores. Generals don't all agree and admirals don't all agree—with each other or among themselves. Some want many bombers, at a cost of $250,000 each, while others favor building dozens of smaller ships with the same money.

The one thing all agree upon is that aircraft is still an uncertain commodity in wartime, despite the laboratory testing grounds of Spain and China. The U. S. air force will keep experimenting, continue evaluating, hunting the best combination, the deadliest formation.

Meanwhile, an interesting public pays the bill, not so much minding payment, but hoping it will never have to cash in.

Lady With An Axe

It will be a little difficult for the average layman to understand the action of 15 Protestant ministers in Alton, Ill., in delivering resolutions from their pulpits which praised the feats of Alton's "lady with the axe."

On the surface the deeds of Mrs. Irene Kite might appear faintly admirable, if extra-legal. After the style set by Carrie Nation, Mrs. Kite shouldered a hefty axe, marched into seven of the city's taverns and smashed sundry slot machines, leaving a trail of tinkling dimes, nickels and quarters.

But the difference between Carrie Nation and Irene Kite lies in the fact that while the former crusaded against vice for vice's sake, Mrs. Kite goes around smashing slot machines because her gambler husband is not allowed to operate his own dice game, she admits. If Mr. Kite can't be in on the Alton gambling racket then as long as she can swing an axe no one else shall be.

Maybe the ministers justify their praise under the reasoning that any tool is righteous in a good cause.

It would be more understanding if they would influence their congregations to clean up Alton's vice situation for more admirable motives.

Haskell County History

As Revealed by the Files of the Free Press 20, 30 and 40 years ago.

40 Years Ago—Feb. 26, 1898

Inquiries of late have been coming to our postmaster and to others here from persons wanting work at wages on farms and ranches. The inquiries frequently state that they have heard quite a bit about Haskell and this section.

Several prospectors are here from Cook county looking at our section with the view of locating. A telephone message from Joe Smith states that with the assistance of several racing men he has arranged a racing program for the big reunion to be held here in August.

Mr. T. E. Keith of Curtis, Texas, was here this week selling a patented cloth water bucket for which special merit is claimed.

At the regular meeting of Commissioners Court this week election judges for the seven voting boxes in the county were appointed, and road overseers named for the several road precincts, to serve for one year.

Mr. T. G. Carney tells us that on his farm, under the management of his father, they are putting in a larger acreage than ever before. They will have 300 acres in various crops.

The news as given by the latest papers received before going to press yesterday indicated that war with Spain is imminent and may be precipitated at any moment. A telephone message received here Thursday stated that Spain had ordered all Americans out of Cuba, and yesterday (Friday) it was reported that all Americans and the United States consul had left Havana for Key West, Fla.

Mr. D. M. Winn has resigned as office deputy in the sheriff's department and gone to Van Horn, where he has accepted a very lucrative position.

Mrs. N. McNeill entertained the Intermediate Endeavor Society with a Valentine Party Friday night of last week.

Dr. L. D. C. Nolen, who came out from Alabama to attend his father, who died on the 13th, returned Monday to Alabama and will ship his household goods to Weinert in this county, where he has decided to locate permanently.

Mr. T. J. Lemmon resigned his office of Constable and left Monday for Holtville, Calif., where he has secured a position.

John Couch, manager of the Spencer Lumber Co., suffered a painful injury to his right foot Wednesday, when it was crushed under the wheel of a heavily-loaded wagon.

Rev. Ed R. Wallace and F. L. Daugherty made a tour of the rural schools Tuesday in the Red Cross work. They report good interest at all the places visited.

Luke Darnell, young farmer of the Post community, enlisted in the army last week, and has been assigned to training at Camp Travis.

Miss Nola Hallmark has been spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. W. S. Moore in Knox City.

For the last week there has been a considerable number of farmers to avail themselves of the Government's offer of seed at cost to farmers in the drought stricken region.

King Perdue of Camp Cody, N. M., is visiting his parents in the Foster community during a 30-days furlough.

J. C. (Cliff) Chamberlain of Camp Bowie is now visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain in this city.

Range Program Continues Under 1938 Farm Bill

The Range Conservation Program under which ranch operators may earn specified payments for practices designed to maintain and improve rangeland will continue under provisions of the recently passed Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 practically the same as under the Agricultural Conservation Programs of 1936 and 1937, according to George Slaughter, Chairman of Texas Agricultural Conservation Committee.

Slaughter summarizes the status of the range program as follows: The Act includes an allotment of not to exceed 5 percent of the total appropriation for payments for the range program, and non-crop pasture lands.

Under this limitation a program has been divided for the conservation of natural resources on rangelands. The program is essentially the same as the 1937 program under which 15,000 ranch operators controlling 62,000,000 acres participated in Texas. Texas has about one-third of the participation in the entire United States.

The 1938 range conservation program establishes range-building allowances as the maximum amount which ranch operators may earn for approved practices. In Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota, and California, this allowance is 2 cents an acre on all range land in a ranching unit, plus $1.00 time the grazing capacity.

All the practices approved by which part or all the allowance may be earned are designed to fight erosion by promoting or restoring stands of grass.

They consist of natural reseeding by deferred grazing, better distribution of water sources, runoff and erosion control by contour furrowing and other devices, removal of range destroying plants which compete with grass, and the establishment of fire guards.

Specific rates of pay have been established for the various practices outlined. Full details will be sent to all county offices as soon as received in the State.

Slaughter pointed out that the range program is now available for the entire State.

been called on the first Monday in March, to be held in the courthouse, for the purpose of discussing the proposed organization fully.

Wayne Perry, R. Overton, Dave Terrell, E. M. Bishop and Ita Davis of the Post community composed a fishing party at the mouth of Paint and California Creeks Thursday. They report fair success.

Increase In Sale of Gas Ranges Is Reported In Area

Keeping abreast of the gas industry of the nation, the Abilene division of Community Natural Gas Company reports more modern gas ranges purchased for kitchen modernization during 1937 in this section than for any previous year.

The industry throughout the nation reports the greatest annual purchase of ranges for domestic use since 1929, the peak year. In 1937 housewives bought 1,600,000 gas ranges, a gain of 10 per cent over 1936. The local gas company reports an even greater increase.

Further growth in popularity of gas ranges is indicated by additional national business statistics just released to M. L. Bird, division superintendent of Community Natural Gas Company. In 1937 alone the sale of gas ranges was greater than the next nearest competitive industry had in total domestic use.

Gas water heater national sales also increased 20 per cent in 1937 over 1936 with Community Natural Gas Company reporting a 40 per cent increase in its territory.

Also shown by 1937 national statistics is the fact that back of each gas industry worker stands an average investment of $37,000 for rendering gas service. This is more than either the steel, railroad or automotive industry has invested per worker.

The survey shows that the national gas industry has a greater capital investment than the steel industry, one of the most basic of the great national industries. Wages paid by the gas industry are higher than those paid by the steel or automotive industries.

While the average gas industry employee worked 48 hours per week in 1929, the big year, 1936 salaries were slightly higher, even though the average employee worked only 40 hours per week, an important contribution by the gas industry to improved living conditions, Bird said.

Mrs. Roosevelt to Visit Wichita Falls

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, America's First Lady of the Land and an outstanding woman in her own name, will make her first appearance in Texas when she speaks in Wichita Falls, March 7. Mrs. Roosevelt is being brought to this city by the Business and Professional Women's Club.

This versatile woman will speak on a subject of interest to all true Americans, "A Day at the White House." Because of the interest in the home of the First Family, and because Mrs. Roosevelt is reputed to be one of the most gracious hostesses and most efficient home managers of the country, the speaker's subject was requested by the sponsoring organization.

In addition to her educational political and philanthropic work, Mrs. Roosevelt has become a well known author in recent years. She is the Author of "When You Grow up to Vote," "It's Up to the Women," "A Trip to Washington with Bobby and Betty," "Hunting Big Game in the Eighties" (the letters of Elliott Roosevelt, sportsman), and her recently published autobiography "This is My Story." Secession and The South Texas 'State'

Present agitation for the secession of four counties to form the State of South Texas breaks almost 17 years of silence on the question of division, Dr. W. J. McConnell, president of the North Texas State Teachers College and an authority on the division question said in an interview recently. Not since 1921, said President McConnell, has the subject been broached, but in that year John Nance Garner, then Congressman from Uvalde, suggested that the largest state in the Union be carved into five separate states, the maximum permitted under the treaty of annexation.

Prior to that time, according to the Teachers College head, not a decade passed without one or more efforts by convention, state legislature, or Congress to divide the Lone Star State.

President McConnell, who wrote his doctor's dissertation at Columbia University on the history of attempts to break up the Lone Star State, broadcast an interview on the subject of division in Texas over the radio station WFAA less than two months ago. Following his broadcast a trickle of inquiries reached him about his book on the subject — "Social Cleavages in Texas" — which Columbia published in 1925 as one of its studies in history, economics, and public law.

Dr. McConnell was startled, but interested to read an Associated Press story Jan. 20 telling that a South Texas group was agitating secession of Hidalgo, Wallacy, Cameron, and Starr counties into a new state which would offer a cheap 30-day divorce law, state owned liquor stores, and legalized horse and dog racing.

Now Dr. McConnell, wondering whether there is any save an accidental relationship between the broadcast and the new secession movement points out that Publisher Montgomery's movement is unique in that never before have such subjects as gambling, easy divorce, and racing been mentioned in connection with division; secession rather than division; seems the aim of the South Texas group; the suggested State of South Texas is the smallest ever proposed to be carved out of Texas, and present agitation for division breaks the longest silence on the subject in the history of the state.

So bitter was feeling on the matter that in Reconstruction days of 1868-1869, says Dr. McConnell, that General Camby had to bring Constitutional Convention debating the question to a close at the point of bayonet.

Mr. and Mrs. Sewell Roy spent the week-end with friends and relatives in Wichita Falls.

tween our fighter and a Mexican, Matt Martinez of Austin. Lon took the first round with hard left jabs and terrific rights to Martinez's body and face. The second and third rounds were fairly even but Lon took the championship belt along with a free trip to Chicago and a fairly bruised body.

We are all glad that Lon won and wish to congratulate him as Haskell's State Champion. We are also sorry that the Ft. Worth Star Telegram can't pick the winners. Maybe from now on they will know that these boys from the Abilene district can fight.

We can also thank Lon's good luck to Jimmy Edward's careful instructions as Lon's second and to Ray Crowell, once a Haskell jeweler who has been Lon's promoter during his entire career.

School Students Enjoy The Snow

The student of Haskell High School enjoyed our only snow of the season by having snow ball fights. At noon Monday the groups were formed by all who happened to come up on either end of the field.

As usual it was hard for the freshmen. They were rolled in the snow or snowballed by the older students. A few teachers also received the freshmen's luck as they returned from lunch. Snows being very rare in this section of the country, they are always enjoyed very much by the boys and girls. Sled riding, snow-balling, and wet, cold feet were to be seen every where.

Students Write Many News Stories

Copy for the Warwhoop this week includes a number of articles which the seniors call "news stories." It's a newspaper term, and seniors this week are studying a unit in newspaper writing which includes the writing of various types of news stories, editorials, and feature stories; It also affords practice in headline writing and copy-reading. Most of the news stories of this issue are stories written by these students for their regular class assignment and some of them were copy-read in class by other members. Editorials and feature stories to be written will pertain to school life; these also will be copy read by the class members and some of them may appear in later issues of the Warwhoop.

Juniors Postpone Play To March 1

Due to the continued rains of last week and to other conflicting affairs of this week, the Junior class play has been postponed until next week. The date of next Tuesday evening, March 1, was decided by the Juniors in a call meeting early this week, and they are saying "For sure" this time. So keep the date in mind, and help the juniors make a success of it.

The Freshman

When from the farm he comes to school, He is as blank as any fool. His lack of brain is quite the rule. The Freshman. Of high school life and ways and work. He is as green as any Turk. In all things he is one great shirk. The Freshman. But if within these walls he stays Until he has fulfilled his days, We then may lift our voice to praise. The Freshman. —Joe A. Larned.

DON'T BE FOOLED IN JULY BY THE KIND THAT'S GOOD ONLY IN FEBRUARY! Try their statements and you will be saved the expense of trying the box with insufficient low temperatures for West Texas summer weather.

'MEMBER how crude the old family bus of a decade or so ago seems today? Cost three or four times as much to operate as the present efficient machine. Well, Sir, the same is true of electric refrigerators. They blazed the trail, bringing the greatest domestic improvement of all time into every other West Texas home by 1937. So now, in 1938, there is no comparison with those pioneer models. Electric refrigeration of today gives absolute food protection with temperatures around 40 to 45 degrees—the only safe temperature. No other form of mechanical refrigeration can offer this guarantee at any price. But Electric Refrigeration gives that guarantee at a cost which drops to less than 3 cents a day!

Debt-Raising—

had been framed for permanent keeping. Mr. Emory Menettee, on behalf of the board of trustees and the stewards presented these to the congregation. The notes were "burned in effigy" while the crowd cheered and cheered for those who had signed the notes for the church those who had led in the campaign to pay off the debt and those who did the paying. The pastor stated that the payment of the debt was not an end within itself, but simply the removal of a great boulder from the highway around which the church had detoured and had frequently bogged down and becomes despondent in spirit. Significant of the spirit of the day was the unanimous vote to now double the attendance of the Sunday school. Dr. E. A. Reed of Stamford preached a most inspiring sermon at the eleven o'clock hour. Many have complimented the local pastor on his choice of a preacher for this important occasion. A wonderful feast with an abundance of well cooked food awaited those who stayed for the hour of fellowship and dinner in fellowship hall. Many of the friends of church who had helped in the debt payment were present and partook of the feast prepared by the church. On Sunday night the young people had a meeting led by Mrs. C. M. Kaigler.

At the evening preaching hour the pastor and members of the First Christian Church visited with their Methodist neighbors. One of their prominent members said, "I like the feeling of worshipping in a church that is free of debt. I think this will become contagious with us." The Rev. Mr. Huckabee says, "The struggle through which we have just passed with such a display of sacrificial giving is to be followed immediately with another far more fateful and titanic struggle than that through which we have passed, a struggle to conquer the power of indifference and discouragement, preoccupation and inconsistency which have characterized Haskell Methodism for so many years. The victory of last Christmas time in our church was made possible because of our revived interest and love for the church. A far more significant victory awaits those who have the time and the faith to go forward."

Rochester

This Monday the ground is covered with snow, the heaviest we have had in this part of the country in several years. It is fine on wheat, and for the land prepared for row crops. Naturally, the farmers are happy.

The Rochester people had the pleasure Sunday of having Mr. Boyd Reese, from A. C. C., Abilene, a foreign missionary who is preparing to return to Africa to resume his mission work. He made a wonderfully impressive talk.

We also had with us Rev. James Reynolds, also of ACC, who preached at the 11 o'clock hour, and a quartet of ACC students, composed of Bill Hicks, Jimmy Wims, Dean Kirk and Bob Hornbaker rendered some good music.

Mrs. Doris Brown and little daughter, Geraldine of Abilene spent the week-end here with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Reed. Mrs. Frank Moore died at Stamford Sunday February 20th and was brought here for funeral rites and burial in the Rochester cemetery, Monday. She was the youngest daughter of Mr. Jim Turner, who resides here. The relatives have the sympathy of their many friends. Out-of-town relatives and friends who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hull of Knox City, Hubert Bell and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bell of Coleman, T. J. Turner of Chalf, Carlton Mooney of Monahans, Mrs. Ed Howard and children of Wickett, and Rev. and Mrs. Josef Grimes of Avoca.

Frank Baldwin, student in Texas Tech, Lubbock, spent the week-end with relatives and friends in this city.

Mrs. Hettie Williams and Miss Maybelle Taylor were visitors in Stamford Wednesday afternoon.

Hallie E. Chapman Issues Statement of His Candidacy

Hallie E. Chapman of this city, who announced recently as a candidate for the office of Tax Assessor-Collector, this week publishes the following statement to voters concerning his campaign for the office:

"TO THE CITIZENS OF HASKELL COUNTY: "After being urged by my friends over the county I decided to make the race for Tax Assessor and Collector.

"I was born in Bell County. I am 34 years old. I came to Haskell county when only 4 years old and have spent the rest of my life in this county.

"I feel that I am fully qualified to fill this important office should you feel like giving me a chance to get in.

"I am a land owner and taxpayer and feel this office an important one to fill.

"I moved to Haskell 5 years ago from the Mattson community and opened a produce house for the Fort Worth Poultry and Egg Co. of Fort Worth, Texas, and have been employed by them since that time.

"Two years later I went into the Tractor and Implement business on the side and up to this time I still operate both places.

"I have met and made lots of friends while in business. I have always tried to give my friends a square deal and will continue to do so should you feel like giving me this important office.

"This is my first time to ever ask for a public office. As I have already said I honestly feel that I am capable of filling this office. I don't have anything against my good friend, Mr. Watson.

"But I feel like 16 years is long enough to hold any office. He has educated his family from these 16 years while in office.

"Now I have a family to support and would like to educate my two girls should you see fit to elect me for your next Tax Assessor and Collector.

"To those who don't know me please ask someone about me and vote for me if you can.

"I will try and see each and every voter between now and election time. Should I fail to see you just vote for me any way and I assure you I will appreciate it.

"Now once more please consider the 16 years Mr. Watson has had the office and I think you will say this is too much for any one man to pass the pie around if there is any and give me a nice little slice by voting for me and electing me your next Collector and Assessor.

"Now I earnestly solicit your vote and influence in the coming primaries.

Respectfully yours,
HALLIE E. CHAPMAN.
