Tech President Cavazos to Speak at Graduation

Dr. Lauro Cavazos, president of Texas Tech University, will speak at WTC graduation ceremonies at 8 p.m. May 15.

Dr. Cavazos, who assumed his duties last month, is the first Tech alumnus to serve as president. He is also president of the university's Health Sciences Center. He is an early riser and always manages to find time for jogging.

The invocation for the ceremony will be given by Douglas Allee of the East Side Church of Christ. Board President Edwin Parks will provide the welcome, while Dr. Robert Clinton, college president, will introduce the speaker.

Vice President Dr. Ben Brock will present the Associate of Arts degrees, and Dr. Gene McClurg, dean of occupational education and technology, will hand out the Associate in Applied Science degrees. The benediction will be given by Kenneth Branam of the First Baptist Church.

DR. LAURO CAVAZOS

Special music shall be provided by Wanda Clinton on the Sears carillon. Members of PTK will serve as ushers.

A reception in the student center will follow the ceremony.

Lowry, Former Employee, Dies

Inez Lowry, 72, died April 22 at her home after suffering an apparent heart attack.

She was a former audio-visual department employee in the Learning Resource Center.

She is survived by her husband, Hugh; daughter, Charlene Atwood of Port Angeles, Wash.; two sisters, Fern Hall of Amarillo and Beatrice Gilliam of Pampa; and a brother, Clifford Clark of Amarillo.

'Cowboy' Kenny Levens, Belva Marsh Named Mr., Miss WTC at Spring Formal

Kenneth Levens from Anson and Belva Marsh from Ralls were crowned Mr. and Miss WTC April 29 at Spring Formal ceremonies in the gym.

Mickey Baird, activities director, served as emcee and WTC President Dr. Robert Clinton presented the awards.

Levens, a sophomore agribusiness major, was a student senator his freshman year and served as senate chaplain. This year he is student body president.

He placed first in state this year in the judo 189-pound men's division and was silver medalist in the junior college competition at Rogers, Ark.

He is a member of the college-community energy committee, belongs to Phi Theta Kappa, was selected to Who's Who in American Junior Colleges and recently was selected "Most Outstanding Male Student."

Marsh attended WTC her freshman year on a basketball scholarship, but gave it up this year to become a cheerleader.

She is a member of Phi Theta Kappa and has been on the dean's list. She is also a senator and serves on the films committee.

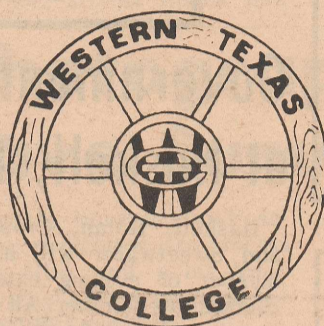

In the fall she was a nominee for the Tenth Anniversary Queen for WTC and was also selected to Who's Who in American Junior Colleges.

Recently she was honored by the golf team by being selected sweetheart. She will attend Texas Tech University this fall.

Other nominees for Mr. WTC were Chris DeSautell of Slaton, Billy Grady of Brownwood, J.D. Sheffield, Chris Welch of Midland and Mike Mahan of Midland.

Other nominees for Miss WTC were Lynda Cain of Coral Springs, Fla., Cindy Caskey of Abilene, Julie Hawkins of Aspermont, Renae McBroom of Haskell and Sheila Sandbothe of Anson.

Summer Classes to Begin May 29

Forty college credit courses will be offered this summer on the Snyder campus, including 22 evening and 18 day sections.

Day classes meet Monday through Thursday for an hour and 15 minutes. Some courses have labs scheduled and others are TBA.

The earliest morning class starts at 7 a.m., while the latest beginning time listed is 1:35 p.m.

Evening class hours are 6-10:10 p.m. Each course meets one night per week, unless a scheduled or individualized lab is listed.

Class limits are set for each course. Also, lab fees are stated for classes where applicable.

Registration is Wednesday, May 28. Classes begin May 29 and will end July 23.

For information concerning sections, times and days, see the "Schedule of Classes," available in the registrar's office.

Fashion Cruise Springs to Life

"Fashion Cruise '80" displayed spring and summer fashions May 1 in the Student Center cafeteria.

WTC students modeling the fashions were Stephanie Johnson of Seminole, Reba Knight of Austin, Gina Willman of Roscoe, Shari Teal of New Deal, Denna Danford of Winters, Judy Medrano of Hobbs, Leslie Harris of San Antonio and Cindy Koonsman of Snyder.

Sheila Sandbothe of Anson was Cruise Director. Renae McBroom of Haskell and Mickey Baird, student activities director, coordinated the program. Gay Idom of Snyder, formerly assistant student activities director, also assisted with make-up and selection of clothing.

Traci Gilstrap was the Cruise photographer. Helping with technical aspects were David Fleming of Snyder, Darrell Hayes of Caldwell and Mark White of Midland.

Richardson a Winner

He calls himself a loner. Snyder calls him a true winner. He speaks with frankness and honesty. This is coach Nolan Richardson, men's basketball coach and former athletic director.

Coach Richardson and his wife, Rose, came to Snyder three years ago as strangers. They leave us as special friends. Nolan has truly left a mountain of success at WTC and Snyder. His efforts and accomplishments are greatly appreciated by the community and college.

On April 15 "Nolan and Rose Appreciation Day" took place. The community and college recognized their efforts and wanted them to know that they backed them as they journey to Tulsa.

At the Athletic Banquet, the coach was given a set of golf clubs by the Booster Club and a plaque by Coach Bob O'Day and Coach Joe Cushing. Rose was given a diamond necklace by the Booster Club.

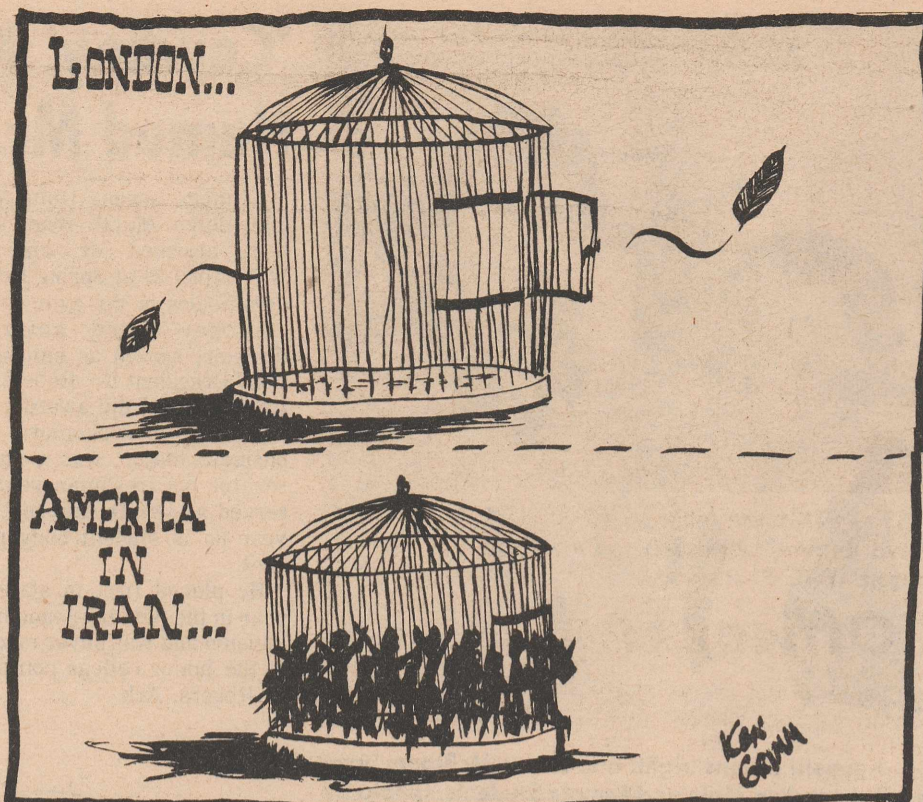

When Nolan spoke, he acknowledged the community as well as the college for their support of the basketball team. He said that the one most important word any person needs to keep in mind is the word "We". He said that "I" doesn't mean anything. "I don't do anything — it takes us all to make something what it is."

His season of 37-0, with Regional and National Titles, will be remembered as the best season at WTC. His team has worked hard for him, and he has proven himself a true winner.

"Snyder will probably forget me, but I will never forget Snyder." Nolan Richardson has left a lasting impression on Snyder that will be remembered a long time. Like all coaches or businessmen in life, one must move on — and for Nolan and his family the dream continues.

Personal Note: I hope that you are always climbing the mountain of success and being the best that you are. Thanks for the wonderful year, and good luck in the many seasons to come!

Complainers Don't Vote

Have you noticed how much hand-shaking and baby-kissing has been going on lately? Yep, looks like the race for the election is on.

But one thing I've noticed is the steady stream of "grippers" who always seem to speak up about this time. You know the type, always an "If we're not in bad enough shape already, now they want to put him in office," here or a "Heaven help us all if he gets elected," there. How many of these constant complainers, I wonder, ever get up off it and down to the polls?

If you don't like the way things are being done, our forefathers worked all their lives to assure us the right to do something about it. It was their blood, sweat and tears that gave us this thing called a vote, and I'm sure Thomas Jefferson would turn over in his grave if he could see how it's being neglected and abused.

Okay, so you say, "What difference would your one vote out of the millions at the polls make?" Stop a minute and compare it with as insignificant a thing as a snowflake. Snowflakes are the most fragile things in creation, but just look what they can do when they stick together?

Used Car Buyer's Guide

Kick the tires and see what happens. Buying a used car can be fun. Here are a few things to look and listen for:

- 1) Heavy blue exhaust — The engine may need an overhaul.
- 2) Strange sounds — Well, this one's obvious. But pay special attention to transmission and engine noise.
- 3) Check that tailpipe — Sooty looking deposits are a bad sign. A light gray color is the way it should be.
- 4) Uneven wear on tires — May indicate front end trouble.

PTK Officers Announced

Psi Zeta Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa sponsored a Toga Dance April 8 in the Student Center. Prizes were awarded for the best costumed dancers.

Carrie Taylor and Kelly Blackerby were chosen "Most Colorful." Karen Littlepage and Mike Cotter were named "Sexiest." First place was awarded to Renae McBroom and Ken Lawrence; they received oak leaf crowns and gift certificates from Hastings.

Officers were elected at the last meeting of the year, April 24. They are Neva Reaves, president; Chris Johnson, vice-president; Anne Beuerlein, secretary; Carrie Taylor, historian, and Linda Belvin, reporter.

Johnson Places Fourth at OEA

Stephanie Johnson from Seminole placed fourth in receptionist competition at the Office Education Association National Leadership conference in Minneapolis, Minn.

She was one of four WTC students who qualified for nationals by winning contests at the state level in Fort Worth.

Other students attending were Tonya Porter from Hobbs, Gina Willman from Roscoe and Mary Pruitt from Snyder. Charlene Light, assistant professor of office occupations, accompanied the students.

Theme for the conference was "OEA — A Foundation for Our Nation's Future." Speakers and entertainment included Rich DeVoss of the Amway Corp., Col. Charles Duke of the U.S. Air Force, the USAF Rock Band, Mach One Concert and the Navy Rock Band.

The climax of the conference was an awards assembly where the top six national winners in each competitive event were announced and recognized with plaques and trophies for their achievements.

Faculty Foursome Appear at History Conference

Four faculty members recently participated in a history conference at Texas Tech University.

Dr. Harry Krenek, professor of history and sociology, read a paper titled "The Cloze Procedure as a Means of Determining Reading Ability and Comprehension of Historical Material."

Dr. James Palmer, Dr. William Cumiford and Dr. Franklin Pruitt appeared as panelists for a discussion of "The Problems and Prospects of Teaching History at the Rural Community College."

Palmer is social science division chairman and professor of history and geography. Cumiford is associate professor of history and government, and Pruitt is professor of history and government.

Robert Remini from the University of Illinois was keynote speaker for the conference luncheon. His speech dealt with the idea that the major goal in teaching history is to generate enthusiasm in the students involved.

Educators from several states, including Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Colorado, Louisiana, Virginia and New York, attended the session.

Drama Workshop Schedule

A theatre workshop will be offered during the summer session scheduled May 29-July 23.

James Rambo, speech and drama instructor, will direct the workshop and encourages adults interested in theatre to join the class. Most of the activities will be planned during evening hours, with some technical work done in the afternoons.

Early admissions students, high school seniors who have the permission of their school principal, are invited to enroll.

Rambo plans to produce a musical comedy through the workshop, with auditions to be held soon after May 29. Opening date for the show has tentatively been set for June 26.

Community residents interested in auditioning for the show are invited to contact Rambo.

Hostels Tour Promotes Understanding

DELAPLANE, VA. — American Youth Hostels, Inc., announced three new trips in its popular "Share America" tour plan which brings hostellers from Europe together with Americans. The travelers will explore different sections of the U.S. by van and public transportation.

Although spaces are filling rapidly, there are openings in the "Share America" groups for American members between the ages of 18 and 35.

The three-week East Coast trip, which begins July 11 in New York City and ends in Nassau, the Bahamas Aug. 1, will include 18 Swiss members and two AYH-trained Leaders. The group will visit New York City, Philadelphia, Washington, Nashville, Atlanta, Charleston, Orlando, Miami Beach and Nassau, the Bahamas.

Sixteen German travelers have signed on for the two-week West Coast trip and the three-week Southwest trip. Each trip will have one German and one AYH Leader.

The West Coast itinerary begins July 26 in San Francisco and ends there Aug. 8. This two-week itinerary includes Lake Tahoe, Yosemite, Kings Canyon, Sequoia National Parks and Los Angeles.

Travelers on the three-week Southwest trip will visit Denver, Colorado Springs, Flagstaff, Prand Canyon, Bryce Canyon, Jackson Hole, Teton National Park and Yellowstone among other places. The trip begins July 17 in Denver and ends there Aug. 6. American members may travel independently, at their own expense "on one's own" with the German participants until their return to Germany Aug. 13.

Although the transportation for the trips is mainly via 12-passenger vans and some public transportation, hostellers will have ample opportunity for horseback riding, rafting, hiking and cycling along the way.

A number of cultural, theatrical, diplomatic and educational exchange activities have been planned for each tour.

The cost of each trip is all-inclusive for lodgings, meals, transportation and insurance, as well as all leadership services, from arrival to ending dates. Details and trip prices are available in the brochure, A UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY TO SHARE AMERICA, from AYH National Travel, Delaplane, VA 22025 or 800-336-6019.

Photography Courses Help Save Summer Memories

Capture your summer activities in pictures, and process your film and print your photographs in two courses to be offered this summer.

Introduction to Photography, listed as Journalism 130, will be offered Thursday evenings from 6-10:10 or on an individualized study basis. Journalism 230, listed as News Photography, will be offered as a special topic: Color Photography. It will meet Tuesday evenings from 6-10:10 or on an individualized study basis.

Both courses are convenient to working people and students home for the summer from other colleges, as well as anyone interested in photography.

Both classes will meet in SC-105 and a $10 lab fee is charged for use of college darkroom facilities and chemicals. Cameras and accessory equipment will be provided for those who need them during the courses.

An individualized laboratory schedule will be arranged with each person enrolling, allowing for possible day, evening or weekend work.

Sample topics to be covered in Jou. 130 include cameras and lenses, processing film, exposure, printing and finishing, filters, lighting and flash, and composition.

Some study of scenery, architecture, still life, people, action and emotion in photographs will be covered.

Jou. 230 will process and print from color negative and color slide films.

Students will supply film and print paper, but all photos made will belong to them.

Each class carries three semester hours credit and is transferable to four-year schools.

Registration is Wednesday, May 28. Classes begin May 29.

For more information contact Dr. Mike McBride at 573-8511, ext. 273.

Student Art

WTC's first annual student art exhibit was set May 4-9 in the Fine Arts Building.

The exhibit was open to all students on campus. A maximum of three works per artist was allowed.

Cash and Merit Awards were to be presented for 1st place, $50; 2nd, $50, and 3rd, $15. Judging was May 2-3.

Terry Gilbreth, director of the Diamond M Museum, judged the exhibit.

Yearbook Here

The Tenth Anniversary Trailblazer, WTC's yearbook, has arrived on campus.

A limited number of copies are available for purchase since students and faculty reserved copies in April and early May.

The book features a look back through WTC's ten-year history.

Editor is Lisa Anderson, Colorado city sophomore.

Spring Concert

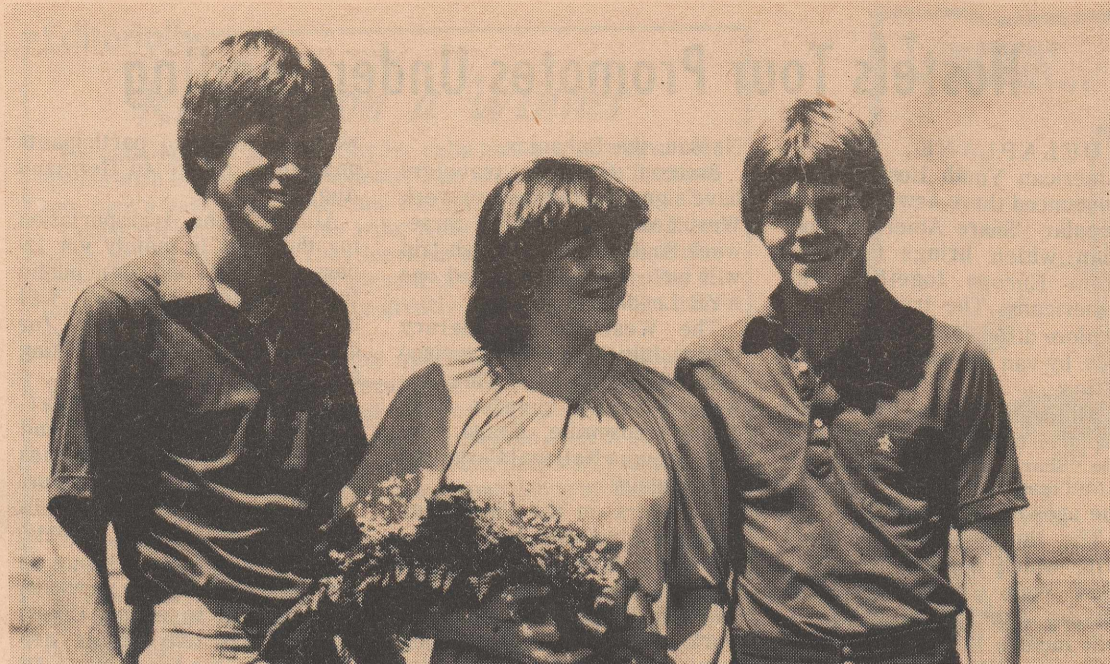

The music department hosted a Spring Concert at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the Snyder High School auditorium.

The concert included performances by the WTC Jazz Ensemble, under the direction of Guy Gamble, and the WTC Vocal Ensemble, directed by Jane Womack.

All proceeds will go to the WTC music scholarship fund for the fall of 1980.

Dunaway Named Head Coach, Vows to Win Championship

by Gerald Colbert

WTC has recently hired a new head coach to replace Nolan Richardson, who has left to coach at the University of Tulsa. The new replacement for Richardson is Larry Dunaway, former assistant coach at Oklahoma University.

Besides being an assistant at OU, he also acted as recruiting coordinator for the Sooners. The 36-year-old, from Hobbs, N.M., coached at Carrollton and Longview, Texas before taking the head spot at San Marcos High School. When Dunaway had completed the 79-80 season at San Marcos, he had a 27-5 record and captured the school's first district championship in 15 years. In that one year his team set 21 school records and allowed only 47.4 points per contest, the lowest of any 4A school in the state.

He was also named the Central Texas "Coach of the Year."

Dunaway's achievements go on and on, including producing two professional athletes.

Dunaway shows a lot of confidence and remarked, "I don't plan on giving them second best."

Dunaway has been the topic of many articles written in National Coaching Magazine, and is himself in the process of writing a book on coaching.

"My goals are the same as the other coaches here at Western Texas, to go to the National Tournament, and win it as often as possible," he said.

Dunaway, whose team will be returning five sophomores from the championship squad, doesn't believe that being the defending National Champions will add any additional pressure to his team's performance.

Oscar Alvarado, a Westerner freshman, said, "I like a tough coach. I think he's going to be a good one."

Golf Team Heads for Nationals, Beats Out Odessa in Contest

What a comeback! What else can one say? Coach Bob O'Day's golf team is on its way to the National Tournament for the fourth time.

"We have really come on strong this spring. We didn't have a good fall, but we've worked hard, especially the last month. We worked seven days a week," O'Day said.

He added, "It took a lot of hard work and dedication, but that's the reason why we're going to the National Tournament."

The Westerners fired rounds of 291 and 295 April 26, to go with a 299 April 25, for a total 885 in Roswell, N.M. — good enough for a trip to the NJCAA National Golf Tournament to be held the first week in June, at Fort Myers, Fla.

McLennan College of Waco, one of two No. 1 ranked teams in the nation, came up with a final 291 for a total of 882 and first place. The two top teams automatically qualify for the national meet.

The Westerners, staffed largely with freshman talent and not really considered a threat earlier this year, had already won their fourth Western Junior College Athletic Conference championship in Roswell, April 25. They defeated second-place Odessa by seven strokes, 299 to 306. The bid for nationals was a tougher race.

"After 18 holes we were seven shots behind McLennan," O'Day recalled.

"Then through 26 we were a shot ahead and Odessa was 13 back. But the final 18 became a foot race. Odessa turned the first 18 seven-under and we were five-over; McLennan was four-over. So going into the final nine, we and McLennan were tied and Odessa was a shot back."

In addition to qualifying for the national tournament, Western Texas placed four individuals on the All-Region 5 Team — Jeff Wagner, freshman and Ken Lawrence, sophomore, with 219 each; freshman Richard White with a 220; and

Mike Owen of McLennan and Kevin Brenesh of Odessa tied for top honors with 214 apiece.

Other WTC finishers were Chris Johnson, 229, Mike Mahan, 230, Scott Barrett, 232 and Frank Monfrey, 239.

The lowest 18-hole round fired for WTC was a 67 by Lawrence.

"I compare this team with the United States hockey team," said O'Day. "Individually our goal is make All-American. Our team goal is to win the national championship. If a ball or two bounces the right way for us at the right time, we might make it. It's possible. These kids think they can do it."

WTC's dream of winning conference this year was considered just that — a dream. Odessa, New Mexico Junior College and Midland were all thought to have a better chance.

Final team regional scores were: McLennan, 882, WTC, 885, Odessa, 888, Weatherford, 899, Midland, 901, NMJC, 904, NMMI, 918, Grayson, 930, Frank Phillips, 952 and Cisco, 958.

Earlier, the Westerners fought 30 mph winds, rain and 32 degree temperatures to win its fourth WJCAC golf championship.

WTC shot a first-place 299, good enough to win the season's final conference tourney by seven strokes over Odessa, which carded a 306. Midland and NMJC tied for third with 310 each. NMMI had 319 and FPC shot a 320.

Keying the conference victory were a pair of 73's by Wagner and White.

Wagner's showing, added to previous efforts, captured him conference medalist for the season, with a total of 287. Second in the overall standings was teammate White, with 288. Also finishing high was Lawrence, who placed eighth with a 295. All three were named All-Conference.

The Western Athletic final conference standings left WTC in the championship spot with 30 points, followed by Odessa and NMJC with 26 each, Midland with 25, NMMI with 12 and FPC with 7.

Western Texas has been to the national tournament three times, finishing sixth, fifth and ninth.

Tolbert Rodeo Queen

The crowning of Snyder's Susan Tolbert as Rodeo Queen locally highlighted the WTC-sponsored National Intercollegiate Rodeo April 24-26 at the old arena on West 30th St.

Other candidates for the honor were Jennifer Gregg of Temple, Jan Holley of Pecos, Tammi Sparks of Rotan, Julie Young of San Antonio and Renae McBroom of Haskell.

Top Cowboy and Cowgirl were Cody Lambert of Howard College and Miff Galey of Sul Ross University, respectively.

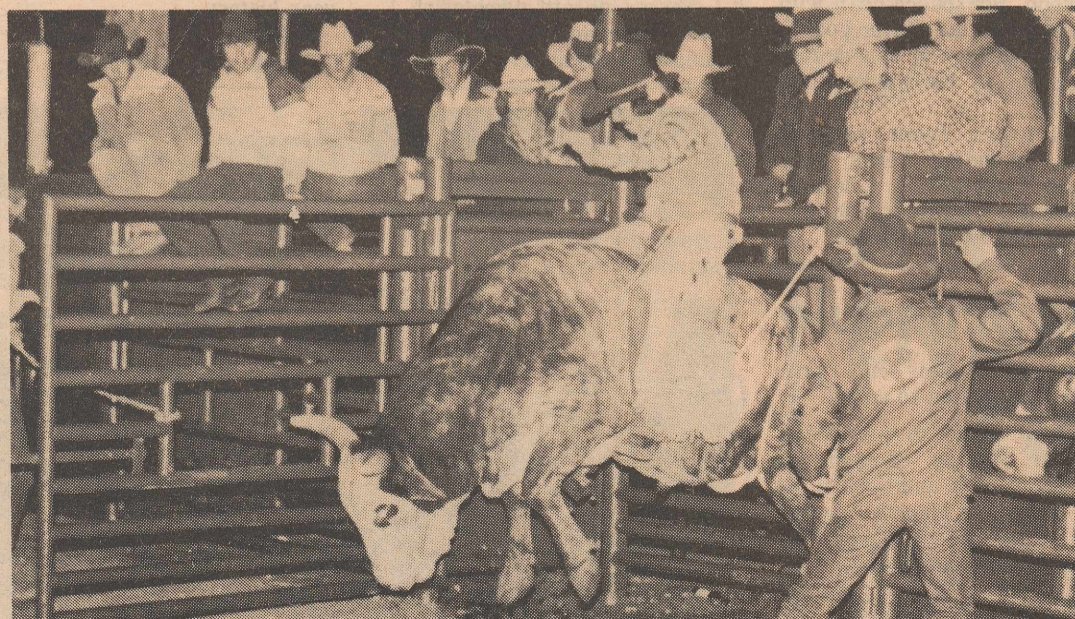

They were two of about 230 students competing, including 25 WTC entries.

In the men's division, Howard took top honors, followed by Sul Ross, second, and Tarleton State University, third. In the women's division, Eastern New Mexico University was first, New Mexico State University took second, and Sul Ross was third.

James Zant was WTC's lone high placer, with a score of 10.51 in calf roping, good for third behind two Tarleton competitors.

Schools participating included Cisco, Clarendon, ENMU, Frank Phillips, H-SU, Howard, NMJC, Ranger, Sul Ross, South Plains, Tarleton, TSTI-Amarillo, Texas Tech, Weatherford, WTSU and WTC.

Bob Doty, WTC's rodeo coach and agriculture instructor, was responsible for arranging the rodeo.
