Grand Jury Votes 2 Indictments After Questioning Number Witnesses

Grand jury votes 2 indictments after questioning number witnesses...

Regular three-weeks term of District Court for Stonewall County was convened at Aspermont Monday by District Judge Dennis P. Ratliff. Grand Jury for the term was impaneled Monday morning, with a number of reported law violations to be investigated. District Attorney Ben Charlie Chapman was assisting jurors in their investigation.

Two indictments were voted Tuesday afternoon by the body, naming Ned Nelson, negro, with burglary, and Burton Gist of Aspermont, charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated.

Indictment against Nelson, negro cotton picker, was based on his statement to the Grand Jury in which he admitted taking fifty dollars in currency from the residence of his employer near Aspermont, court officials said. The negro told officers that he lost the stolen money in a "crap game" in addition to seven dollars of his "own money."

After being in session two days, the Grand Jury recessed Tuesday evening after having questioned a large number of witnesses. The body will reconvene during the term, and have under investigation several cases in which witnesses are absent from the county, court officials stated. Law violations under investigation include offenses of burglary, cow theft, driving while intoxicated, swindling, disposing of mortgaged property, and several misdemeanor offenses.

Criminal docket for the term will be taken up next week, with Petit Jurors summoned to appear Monday.

Hold South Zone B. T. U. Meeting In Haskell Thursday

Members of the south zone of the Haskell Association B. T. U. will hold their regular meeting at the First Baptist church here Thursday November 18, at 7:30 p. m.

With the seven member church participating in an interesting and varied program is planned. A social hour will be held in the basement of the church after the program.

Using the theme "Stewardship" the following program is announced: 7:30 p. m., song and devotional service; Haskell; 7:45, business and announcements; 8:00, Bible background for stewardship by Sweet Home church; 8:15, some remarks of a good steward, C. B. Ramsey, Pinkerton church; 8:30, "If Southern Baptists Should Tell the Truth," Sagerton Church; 8:45, adjourn.

Goal for local membership has been set at three hundred and committee expect to reach the amount in the swift Red Cross drive. Fifty cents out of each $5.00 membership remains in the local Red Cross Chapter for direct assistance of the county's needy.

The service rendered by the American Red Cross since its organization in 1905 is well known to every person in the United States. Its aid to those in dire need in time of floods, hurricanes, tornadoes, in time of war and in every disaster that has beset any group of American people has been almost beyond the imagination of the ordinary person.

COMPLETE PLANS FOR UNEMPLOYED CENSUS

Registration Cards Will Be Distributed On Nov. 20

Mayor F. G. Alexander has appointed a committee to aid postmaster J. M. Diggs in taking the unemployment census of Haskell and surrounding area, during the four-day period of November 16-20.

Dave Persons, Chesley Phelps, with the cooperation of civic organizations will canvass every household and person in this registration.

If you are unemployed or partly unemployed and are able to work and are seeking work, you are requested to fill out one of these cards that will be issued to you November 16 and mail it before midnight, Saturday, November 20. Facts obtained will be used for the benefit of all who need and want work and do not now have it.

To help explain who should fill out cards and who should not Mayor Alexander has explained the following questions:

1. What is purpose of the Unemployment Census?
2. To get an accurate count of the unemployed and partly unemployed.
3. To whom will cards be sent?
4. To every family in the United States.
5. Under whose auspices is the census being taken?
6. Congress has decreed and the President has directed, that it be taken.
7. Is the census compulsory?
8. No. But every unemployed or partly unemployed person is urged to cooperate.
9. How will the census be conducted?
10. Through the facilities of the Post Office Department. Report Cards will be delivered to every family. Cards are to be returned by mail to Washington for tabulation and analysis.
11. When will the census be taken?
12. Cards will be delivered on November 16 and must be returned by midnight November 20.
13. Who should fill out and return cards?
14. Every person who is unemployed or partly unemployed who is able to work and wants to work.
15. What age limits apply?
16. There are no age limits except existing State regulations concerning workers' ages.
17. Should more than one unemployed person in a family return a card?
18. Yes. Every unemployed member of a family should fill out and return a card.
19. Where may additional cards be obtained?
20. At the local post office or from the postman.
21. Where can information be secured in filling out cards?

Fraternity Pledge

Ralph Bernard of Haskell, student in Texas University, was a pledge this week in the Alpha Phi Omega fraternity at an honorary Eagle Scout service. From a group of thirty-five Eagle scouts pledged, Ralph was the only representative from the Chisholm Trail Area, he stated in a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bernard.

A business establishment in Tulsa, Okla., reported to police the theft of 1,000 Oklahoma tax tokens, the total value of which was only $1.

Light Rains Monday Night Halt Picking Only Short Time

Ginnings in Haskell totaled 8,880 bales Thursday at noon. Showers Monday night halted ginning for only a short time, sunshine and winds drying the light rainfall quickly.

Rains Friday night totaled .26 of an inch in Haskell with heavier precipitation in west and south part of the county, excellent for grain crops and fall gardens. Grain already up will be greatly benefited and seed just planted will be greatly benefitted and will add to the growth of that already up.

With continued favorable weather and gins operating at almost full capacity the belief was expressed that eighty percent of the county's cotton crop would be gathered by the first of next week.

FINAL HOME GAME WITH HAMLIN CLUB SET FRIDAY NIGHT

Win Will Place Haskell In Second Place In Title Race

The Haskell Indians play their final home game of the season against Hamlin Pied Pipers at Indian Field Friday night. Game time has been moved up thirty minutes, starting at 7:30 p. m.

It will be a crippled Indian club that takes the field against the Hamlin cellarites. Three first string men are definitely out of the lineup. Others are injured or on the sick list. Although Hamlin has been defeated by Stamford and Albany in the district race, the game will be anything but a set-up for the crippled Haskell boys.

Jossett will not start in the game nor will Hayes who received a twisted ankle in the Albany clash, but will be recovered for the Stamford game. Scott is still limping with bruised muscles in his leg and hasn't been working out this week.

Carmichael and Buford have been out for only part of afternoon workouts complaining of colds and flu. However both will see some action against Hamlin. Lon McMillin hasn't showed up for practice during the week.

Hamlin, beaten by decisive scores by three different clubs, was held to a 6-6 tie last Friday by Class C Sylvester. But in past history the Pied Pipers have always given Haskell tough opposition.

Depending on the outcome of the Anson-Stamford game Armistice Day at Stamford the race for championship will be over for Haskell if Anson wins. A victory over Hamlin would place the Indians in second place in the district.

Fans are urged to see the Indians in action on their home field for the last time this year with part of a second-string club replacing the injured players.

Starting lineup for the Indians: Jenkins l; Thompson lt; Carmichael lg; Ballard c; Simmons rg; Barnett rt; Cousins r; Otis Henshaw lf; Buford rf; Sam Henshaw lf; Thomason q; and Rodgers f.

Talent from Rule will give an entertaining program over KRBC Sunday afternoon at 2:30 with the regular Rochester program.

Those appearing on the program are Spurgeon Neely, Levi Davis, Zane Franklin, Ross Cannon and Ernest Westmoreland.

Miss Clara Clift, teacher in the Dallas schools, Frank Clift of Duncan, Okla., and Jack Clift of Dallas spent the week-end in Haskell, visiting in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Clift.

ANSON PLAYER IS Ruled Ineligible In Albany Game

The Executive committee of football District 9-B in a meeting in Stamford Monday afternoon forfeited the Anson-Albany game to Albany because Anson had inadvertently used an ineligible player. The committee declared the standing of Anson in the district race as one game lost. Authorities of the Anson high school appearing before the committee and after investigation accepted the decision which stated that "since the rules of the League impose upon the district committee the responsibility of declaring district champions in case of ties and since this selection must be made not later than the Saturday following Thanksgiving, the committee decided that in case of a tie in games won and lost between two schools the school which had defeated the other in conference play, if such was the case, would be declared district champions."

In this case if Anson defeats Stamford in their Armistice Day clash the district title will go to Anson, even though they have one loss marked against them. If they are defeated by Stamford they are out of the race with two losses and Stamford moves into first place with Haskell in second place.

Beard, player who was ruled ineligible, is the fleet end who has been training all season catching passes from the accurate right arm of Herndon. A check of the records show that the Albany game is the only one he played in.

TO GIVE TESTS FOR DRIVERS LICENSES

Public Safety Department Schedule Tests For Beginners

Two driver's license examiners of the Department of Public Safety will be in Haskell on Tuesday and Wednesday, November 16th and 17th, to conduct tests for drivers applying for their first license, according to Col. H. H. Carmichael, director of the public safety department.

Establishing headquarters at the County Court House the uniformed officers will give the examinations every Tuesday, 3:30 to 5 p. m., Wednesday 8:00 a. m. to 9:00 a. m. In applying for the driving tests the applicant must furnish his own vehicle or one he proposes to operate after he secures a license, the safety director pointed out.

After oral quizzes are completed each applicant will be required to drive his car or truck over a designated route under the supervision of one of the trained examiners. During the drive the operator must demonstrate the use of his foot and hand brakes, stop for signals and perform other acts necessitated in ordinary traffic situations. Before the actual driving test is made the examiners will quiz the license applicants on safety regulations and signals, highway laws and make tests of their eyesight and hearing. Any physical deformities will be recorded on a grade card.

Not only will driver's license applicant be examined as to their ability to handle a vehicle with safety, but the vehicle itself will be tested for defects in brakes, horn, lights, rear-view mirror, and windshield wiper.

If a driver proves his ability to operate his vehicle with care and safety he will immediately receive his license at the examination headquarters. If a passing grade is not made after the test is completed, an instruction permit card will be issued which requires the applicant to return at a later date for another examination.

PIE SUPPER TO BE HELD AT CENTER POINT

There will be a pie supper at Center Point school house Friday night November 12th. Proceeds are to be used for songbooks and tuning piano. The public is cordially invited to come and bring pies or buy one.

Officials Explain Government Cotton Loan Waiver

Of special interest to landlords, relative to the government cotton loan, the following letter is reproduced below to explain the waiver and consent pledge contained in the loan agreement. "Many landlords are refusing to execute the waiver and consent pledge contained in the loan agreement in cases where the landlord has received his rent or share of the cotton and has no lien on the waiver," it is stated and the latter received by County Agent B. W. Chesser is quoted to explain the matter.

"This matter has been taken up informally with the Commodity Credit Corporation and we have been advised that the experience with past loans is convincing enough to require the landlord to execute the waiver even though in some cases he has no lien. In some of the previous loans made by the Commodity Credit Corporation the landlord was not required to execute the waiver unless he actually had a lien on the cotton sought to be pledged by the tenant. It is difficult to see what objection landlords can otherwise have to signing the waiver and consent to pledge in order that the tenant may place his share of the cotton under the loan and it is believed that if these facts were generally understood, landlords would sign the waiver without question.

"You also advise that the unwillingness of landlords to indicate that they will cooperate in 1938 is causing tenants to leave the farms and as a consequence are being deprived of an opportunity to receive the cotton price adjustment payment and also are prevented from placing the cotton under loan. With respect to the loan a tenant is not prevented from placing his cotton under loan because his landlord refuses to cooperate in 1938. A tenant may place his share of the cotton under loan even though he has not yet found a place to farm in 1938. It is only required that he agrees to participate in 1938 Agricultural programs and in the event he does not he will not be entitled to the full benefit of the loan agreement that is, he will remain liable for the face amount of the note plus accrued interest and charges.

"With respect to the cotton price adjustment payment, the tenant becomes entitled to receive payment provided he submits proof of compliance with the 1938 agricultural adjustment program to be formulated. It is immaterial whether he complies on the same farm operated in 1937 or another farm wherever located. It is easily understood how the landlord's refusal to cooperate in 1938 is forcing many tenants to leave the farms. However, we wonder if such landlords have given full consideration to the probable effects of their refusal. In so refusing the landlord himself will be unable to receive the cotton price adjustment payment and will in many cases be unable to procure desirable tenants in 1938.

"Possibly landlords are refusing now for the reason that they wish first to understand the nature of the program to be formulated. While no accurate prediction can be made as to the precise nature of the program to be formulated, while no accurate prediction can be made as to the precise nature of the contemplated legislation, it may be assumed that the program formulated under it will not be a radical departure from past programs. Congress convenes on November 15 and soon thereafter will begin consideration of the 1938 agricultural adjustment programs cited in the legislation providing for cotton price adjustment payments."

won or who they are yelling for. Lynn Pace, Jr.: It shouldn't be allowed. When you go to a football game you should go to see the football game and not to get drunk.

Mr. Wimlish: I'll be glad when the time comes when anyone that drinks at the ball game or goes to the ball game drunk—to high school games or college games—won't be permitted to see the ball game at all.

Amelia Beth certainly is a nice head-librarian, and does the work well.

Progress Is Made On Auditorium

It will not be long until we will have a new auditorium. The workmen do not like much, according to a statement made by the resident engineer inspector for Public Work Administration. The most important things yet to be done are as follows:

Putting the down spouts on roof, putting in concrete slab floors, laying the hardwood floors for both auditorium and stage, putting casing on windows, putting on paint, putting on wainscot trim, building the steps that lead to inside of building, building outside steps, putting on refinishing touches of hardwood, cleaning the whole building.

The building will be finished by the middle of December. What could be a nicer Christmas present for us all?

High School Band Is Started

A high school band was started last Monday afternoon. We met for the first time to see how many would be interested in such a cause and about thirty members were present. Although it was a pretty good bunch, we expect more to come out in the future.

Mr. Meacham, who will conduct it, will be authorized by the school just as any other teacher. The class will meet every day and will last a full period. It counts just as a class in English or Math. Affiliation has not yet been received but we hope to have it so by the end of the year.

For such a chance in the musical world there will be a small tuition fee of a dollar and thirty cents per month.

We urge that everyone try to take a part in this organization.

Thoughts On War And Peace

The ability to think is our greatest possession. That fact is the outstanding difference between man and animals. So often people do and say things they afterward wish they had not said. The rule

"Think twice before you speak" can be applied every time one speaks. Many unwise mistakes of history would have been avoided had the above quotation been put into effect. We have two eyes, two ears, but only one mouth.

So often, as the teachers know, needless and even foolish questions are asked when a few moments forethought would have made them unnecessary. In a recent class, several students began asking the teacher personal questions. Theirs was a light attitude—anything for a laugh was their object. If the teacher had not had a fine sense of humor the situation might have resulted in a totally different manner.

That was a case of poor judgment and lack of good manners on the part of the students involved. Everyone was given a most precious organ—the brain—use it wisely.

In line of thought we might go back twenty some odd years to glance at the world situation at that time. Into the blue, ethereal heavens were drifting dark, threatening clouds of hatred, jealousy and racial prejudice. A few years later those clouds broke, raining fire and destruction and reaching its climax when our nation cast its lot with other lands of the earth.

That same condition exists today, though on a more scientifically barbarous scale. We celebrate the Armistice without fully

Haskell Scalps Albany Friday

Playing their first out-of-town game of the season, and on a dirt field too, the Indians took the Albany Lions to a 7-0 cleaning Friday night. The score came in the third quarter after an Albany fumble was covered by Haskell. Several Indian lettermen were on the bench practically the entire game because of disobeying orders. This victory gave Haskell a 500 standing in the district with Anson and Stamford with 1,000. Both sides played a rough game and injuries were sustained on both teams that will bench players for one or two games. It seems though that Albany received more severe injuries than Haskell did. As a slight reward for their good playing the warriors were treated to a supper in Luaders.

The boys were supported by the pep squad, the band, and a large caravan of fans. With this same backing we hope to have Stamford Bulldogs instead of turkey for Thanksgiving.

District Standing In Football

On Thursday, November 11th, the two leading teams of District 9B met in a clash to decide who will wear the district championship crown, now in possession of the Stamford Bulldogs. If the attacking team, Anson, is victorious the crown is hers with a 1,000 standing. If Stamford should luck out over Anson it would be a tie between the two teams. Then, should Haskell on Thanksgiving Day beat Stamford the district would be a three way tie between Haskell, Anson, and Stamford. Each would have lost one game.

It is said however that Anson will take Stamford with ease, but don't let that get you Bulldogs down. For once the Haskell tribe will be there rooting for you to win; but beware of us Thanksgiving Day. We are still fighting for a district tie.

Passing Comments

Verdict line: The young men might as well sit up and take notice to the following lines. In a recent survey in English class the students wrote on "What I Most Admire in a Boy" and "What I Most Admire in a Girl". How many can guess what the girl's verdict concerning the boys was. It was Politeness with a capital P. Almost 100 per cent of the girls, without one consulting the other, voted on that quality as most outstanding in a boy. The boys verdict about the girls was not given in so many words but might summarize into the same turn—politeness. Beauty and a well bearing were important supplements.

That was excellent advice on both sides. After all, politeness is everyone's duty, whether we vote on it or not. It is left up to the individual and if any person is minus such an asset he is robbed of the "holl" of life. A car cannot run without oil; the friction would tear it apart. So society cannot run without the oil of politeness. Be generous and pour it on plentiful, and life will be a lot smoother.

Noise line: China has its Shanghai, Spain its Madrid, and Haskell High its lab room and its auditorium to create noise. As both are hearing completion we will not have to hear it much longer. Noise—we leave that to the Spanish class.

Paper line: Students have raised the question on whether it is "fair" to be so strict concerning leaving paper on the floor and in desks. It would be well if the question was looked at in this way: Would it be natural to throw paper on the floors of our homes? No, not in a well-kept one. The school is our home a large part of the day, so why not keep it neat? It's easier on the person who cleans up. After all, he serves us and not we him. Be considerate. He'll appreciate it and so will you.

Medal line: This week's mythical medal goes to Mr. Mason for his faithful work in getting the team in shape to win the Albany game! Good work—Keep it up!

Coincidence

One day last week, if you had looked forward in the second period study hall, you could have seen Anita Jo Simmons sitting in her regular seat, clad in a navy polka dot, with her hair combed smooth and looking like spun silver. Just ahead in the next seat sat Nannie Patterson, also clad in a navy polka dot, with her hair combed smooth and looking like spun gold. The next day Anita Jo appeared in a green jacket, with her hair still looking like spun silver, and Nannie appeared in a green jacket, with her hair still looking like spun gold. Purely coincidence, but interesting—and beautiful, speaking of the hair.

A Grammatical Letter

We are aware that it isn't ethical to print something that someone else has written, without the writer's permission or at least without giving due credit to the source. But what are we going to do when we find something rare, and don't know who wrote it nor where it came from? It is a shame to let a work of art sink into obscurity; so, at the risk of being unethical, even plagiaristic, we submit the following masterpiece for your appreciation.

Dear Anti-Climax:
 I have been in a COMMA every since I left you, but I trust I shall be alright in a PERIOD of time. Sping must be on its way as it was only SEMI-COL-ON Tuesday and the ADVERBS have been flying over all day on their way to the south. A terrible APOSTROPHE happened to me last night. While making a DASH for the cupboard I ran into a DEMONSTRATION PRONOUN, and CONJUGATED, on the floor. I landed on my CONJUNCTION, SPLITTING AN INFINITIVE and "busting" my brand new BRACKETS. I also warped my PARENTHESIS a little. Today I am black and blue all over, and just covered with QUOTATION MARKS.

Our neighbor was taken with ACUTE INTERJECTION this morning while hanging PARTICLES up to dry.

Life is a sad PREPOSITION, you just mark my EXCLAMATION. Perhaps I am in the OBJECTIVE CASE today; anyway I think this is a CAPITAL LETTER, don't you? If any one asks you, you may say I METAPHOR the sake of ENGLISH.

Life is full of CLAUSES. This is only a PHRASE of it.

Adverbially Yours,
 Et-quette.

P. S.—If you see Perbale, you may say "Hy-Perbale!" Grammar is down with a case of descriptive adjectives again.

Let's Boost Our P.T.A. Association

What does the P. T. A. mean to you? The High School organization of the Parent-Teachers Association was organized two years ago with its purpose being to aid the high school in every way possible. The president of the P. T. A. last year was Mrs. Bailey Post and under her leadership the association presented to the school several very worthwhile things, and also provided certain educational facilities.

This year with Mrs. Leon as president the P. T. A. has already presented to the high school a new complete set of encyclopedias and have made plans to do many other things which will benefit us greatly.

So let's support our Parent-Teachers Association by asking our parents to come and take an active interest in it. The more we help the P. T. A., the more they will help us.

Children of World War Veterans

November eleventh brings to our minds always, Armistice. It is perhaps one of the most universally celebrated days of all the year. A great swell of pride comes to Haskell High School when we remember that we have students whose fathers did service in the World War, either at home or overseas.

In our effort to find out whose those students are, we asked them to sign a paper on the bulletin board. Those who signed are the following:
 Edman Williams, Ruby Mae Scheets, Opal Mae Rose, Ruby Sue Persons, Jean Conner, Paul Kuenstler, Dale Harris, Mary Louise and Leta Mae Curry, Marie and Curtis Ballard, Buns Faye Reynolds, Omega Lee, Wayne Dunn, Frank Spencer, Eunice Darnell, Maelyn Sellers, Virginia and Cullen Heath, Nettie Lowell Harrell, Marticia Bledsoe (Own father and step-father), Martha, Marvina and Henry Post, Madge Leon.

Girls Appear On P. T. A. Program

At the last regular meeting of the high school P. T. A. the members were favored by two vocal numbers from a trio of freshman girls. These girls were Maxine Perdue, Marjorie Busby, and Sue Quattlebaum; with Marjorie guitar accompaniment they sang "Little Old Lady" and "Indian Love Call." The audience enjoyed their singing, and appreciated having them on the program. It is hoped that we can have a student number of two on every program.

One-Minute Interviews

Question: What is your attitude toward open drinking and drunkenness at high school football games?

Answers:
 Miss Riley: People who engage in that sort of thing do not have the backbone that a fishing worm should have.

Martelle Clifton: I think that if certain individuals want to indulge in drinking, it's no other person's business but their own; but they should be the decency and respect for the school to not make a show of it at a school activity.

Grady Brown: If a person wants to drink, it should be done privately.

Miss Vick: I still have a tender regard for all my ex-pupils. It is always a grief to me to see any of them that far beyond their self control and self respect.

Anna Mae Lee: It shows poor sportsmanship and it causes a condition in which the person involved doesn't even know who captain, Marion Josselet, and co-captain Eugene Rogers, also told how they planned to defeat the Lions.

 The pep squad and their leaders Anita Jo Simmons and Louise Pierson gave the stunt they were to give the following night at Albany. This stunt was the one for which they won a silver loving cup during the fair week. All the girls were dressed in Indian blankets and danced around a camp fire and tents to the sound of drums beaten by Bob McAnulty and Foy McKennon. When these Indians had quieted and began chanting, Kinzie Tucker came out of the tent and danced. A Mexican war dance around the drums with a rapid beating of the drums and a loud cry as the dance ended, the Indians arose with a wild "yippee" and danced off.
 Before the pep rally was over everyone showed a new and enthusiastic spirit and pep with which to win the game. Everyone be sure and come to the next rally we have. It is going to be better than the last!

Pep Squad Goes To Albany Game

About 5:30 Friday the pep squad left in the buses for Albany. We were so filled with pep and enthusiasm over the game that we yelled and sang all the way. At 7:00 we met the Haskell band in Albany and marched down the main street to let those Lions know we were on the war path. Stopping in front of a filling station near the stadium we yelled at the top of our voices and the band played. Then we proceeded to the field and on arriving we marched across the field and sang "Hail, Hail the Pep Squads Here!" while the band played.
 And let us say here that the pep squad heartily appreciates the support of the band, and we were especially glad that in Mr. Meacham's absence last Friday night we had a high school student in the person of Joe Maples Jr., who was able to lead the band on that occasion.
 At the half the pep squad gave the Indian stunt which was given at the pep rally on Thursday night on both these occasions the solo dancer was Kinzie Tucker, replacing Madge Leon who danced in the original performance, on the night of the pageant. Drummer and-tom beater were Bob McAnulty and Foy McKennon.

 Much credit is due our sponsor, Mrs. Meyer, who worked untiringly to make it possible to give this stunt in Albany. Much planning and gathering of materials was necessary and at last she obtained a trailer for her car in order to transport all the paraphernalia, including the wigwam, campfire, lanterns, etc. Haskell spectators could well be proud of the results—if we do say so.

Sophomore Chatterbox

Ho Hum! The Sophomores have been very quiet lately and I haven't heard much. But would you be surprised to know that—
 Wanda D. tells us all she knows about Bernard P. every day? (Frankly I don't think it makes him much difference).
 When Margaret M. comes around the corner all the girls put on happy, agreeable faces? (Some say they don't like to be hit).
 Jean C. told Jack L. she wished there was two of him so she could have one.
 Some out-of-town boys, including Coach Whitaker's nephew, were asking about Mary Louise H. one Saturday night?
 Wayne L. ran his watch up Saturday night because—Oh yes, reasons unknown.
 Louise H. went with an ex-senior and Zeldon T. got mad?
 Hathell Hunter's lipth is natural?
 Mr. Banks pet word is, "Now-w-w?"
 Bill W. can't find a steady again? (Maybe he isn't looking hard enough).

Personals

Nannie Patterson, senior, is suffering serious difficulty with her eyes, and will likely be out of school for some time.
 Eva Jo Ratliff has been ill and absent from school for several days.
 Eulis Hayes received an injury to his ankle in the game with Albany and is walking on crutches this week. He will not be able to play in the game with Hamlin but hopes to be fit again in time for the Stamford game.
 Joyce Nell Hambleton attended the funeral of an uncle in Granbury the latter part of last week.

ATTENTION IS CALLED TO DANGER OF COMMON COLD

"Beware of the common cold," Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, cautioned the people of Texas. "This is the season of the year when colds are most prevalent, and their consequences more far reaching. The organism causing the disease is not known, but every individual is acquainted with its effects."
 "Not a little of the susceptibility of catching colds can be overcome by a gradual acclimation to lower temperatures and inclement outdoor weather. This hardening should begin now, and consist of regular exercise—walking is good—to be continued throughout the winter in weather of every kind. One should be careful to avoid wet stockings drying on the feet, over-heavy clothing and over-heated rooms.
 "There are two broad principles to observe in the treatment and prevention of colds. The first says: 'Let every person with a cold consider it seriously. Every cold should be regarded as the possible beginning of a serious illness. That means seeking a physician's advice and explicitly following his directions. If he orders bed, then bed it should be. Complete rest is a fine way to overcome a cold in short order.'
 "One's resistance to many diseases, including colds, can be raised by increasing one's vitality through observing the fundamental rules of health: plenty of fresh air, good wholesome food, neither too much or too little, sufficient rest and the avoidance of habitual over-indulgence of devitalizing stimulants, including alcohol, tobacco and the like.
 "The cold is a common disease," Dr. Cox repeated, "but every cold is important enough to justify careful attention and treatment for its immediate cure. Death-dealing pneumonia and tuberculosis may begin with colds that do not receive care and attention."

Thomas J. Stinson, diemaker of Lakewood, O., recently built a 10-foot sailboat in his 2nd story bedroom. He lowered it out the window.

Grapefruit Stored In Sand; Keeps As Well As In Vaults

J. B. Morgan of McAllen, is using sand to store grapefruit and finds it nearly as efficient as common refrigeration vaults.
 The secret of this method, he points out, is to pick fruit for storage which has not been bruised. The fruit is placed in boxes and each grapefruit is separated from others by sand. Only four inches of sand needs to be kept around the fruit, Morton explained.
 The reason for using sand to pack is that it will absorb moisture from the stored products. It is essential that the sand storage be free from dampness, as moisture from the fruit must be transferred to the sand and thence into air by evaporation.
 Morton employs sand storage for family use, keeping fruit from the harvest season until July. He indicated that the system eventually may become of commercial value.

Francis Merle Edwards was hostess for members of the Junior Y. W. A. girls at her home Tuesday evening. Marjorie Ratliff gave a chapter of the book "Ann of Ava" after the business session. The hostess served refreshments to twenty-four members. Next Tuesday Marjorie Ratliff will be hostess for the regular meeting. Come and bring someone with you.

The Methodist Missionary Society

On last Sunday night in the beautifully decorated and brilliantly lighted auditorium of the M. E. Church the women of the W. M. S. presented to a large audience the opening program of their annual "Week of Prayer". The altar presented a beautiful picture with the 48 candles, representing our retired missionaries and Deaconesses. The wall back of the altar was centered with a brilliantly illuminated cross. The entire program was most inspiring and the reporter feels that further comment would be presumptuous, so will give the program as rendered.

Mrs. Patterson at the organ gave a program of old hymns, which was concluded with the Methodist Missionary hymn "Jesus Calls Us".

Mrs. R. Q. Roberts, accompanied by Mrs. Patterson at the organ rendered a beautiful violin solo. Mrs. Persons, president, called the audience to worship. Led by the president all joined the responsive reading, Hymn, Holy Holy, Holy was sung.

Prayer by Rev. Huckabee. At this time Mrs. Persons introduced Miss Daisy Baskins of Seymour who is district superintendent of Spiritual Life Cultivation, Literary of Praise and Petitions was given by Miss Martelle Clifton and Elizabeth Huckabee. These young ladies beautifully gowne entered the church and to the strains of soft organ music walked to the altar and lighted the 48 candles. Mrs. Randall of Seymour, president of the Women's Missionary Societies of the Northwest Texas conference was next introduced and brought a most spiritual message. The subject being "Lifting Up Christ". Verses from the 3rd, 8th and 12th chapter of John was the scripture chosen.

The offering was collected by young ladies of the Cora Cox Circle. Before dismissing the president announced that the program would be continued by the Missionary group meeting in the church auditorium at 8:30 a. m. Monday.

A feeling of reverence seemed to prevail the entire group as each sat in silent meditation and prayer. During this time Mrs. Patterson played softly a program of missionary hymns. Mrs. B. Cox offered a prayer.

Mrs. Huckabee at this time invited all to the dining room. This room was very beautiful. The long tables laid with snow white cloths were centered with pots and vases of lovely white chrysanthemums. At these tables were seated 30 women who were served a most delectable breakfast consisting of bacon, eggs, pineapple rolls, butter, jam and coffee. Places were marked by beautiful place cards with a tiny candle. Mrs. Huckabee conducted an interest round table. Each woman was asked to tell of some missionary she had known. At the conclusion of each woman's talk, the candle was lighted by the woman preceding her. Mrs. Huckabee repeated the words "Pass on the torch, pass on the flame". The prayer of dismissal was read by all in unison.

Returning to the auditorium, Mrs. Kenneth Thornton explained the "Retirement and Relief Fund."

The spiritual retreat was conducted by Mrs. Fields and Mrs. Ethel Irby. All joined in singing "All Hail The Power of Jesus' Name."

Mrs. Fields prefaced her scripture reading which was "The Sermon on the Mount" by a vivid description of Palestine, which she visited a few years ago.

Mrs. Irby gave a most spiritual address, her subject being "Defied or Denied." Her scripture was "Why do you call me Lord, Lord and do not the things I say." "Blessed Assurance" was next sung. Mrs. Huckabee conducted the very impressive altar service.

This concluded one of the most inspiring services that has ever been held in the Methodist church.

Mrs. Patterson's mother, Mrs. Metcalf of San Antonio was a much appreciated visitor at this service. We meet on next Monday at the church at 3 p. m. All are urged to be present.

Mrs. Herren Address High School P. T. A.

Mrs. Sam P. Herren Sr. was the principal speaker at the last regular meeting of the high school P. T. A. With "Health" as the general topic for the program, Mrs. Herren gave a very informative talk giving many poignant facts, and citing instances within her own experience in connection with health service in this town. All who heard Mrs. Herren were much impressed and wished that many other high school parents might have been present.

As an entertainment feature on the program, Maxine Perdue, Marjorie Busby, and Sue Quattlebaum sang two songs with guitar accompaniment by Marjorie Busby, these are freshman girls.

The devotional was given by Mrs. J. M. Glass and a discussion following the main address was led by Miss Jessie Vick, the director for the afternoon. The president Mrs. H. S. Leon, presided.

It was encouraging to have present the number that were there, and to be hoped that more will be present at our next meeting the first Thursday in December. In the meantime let us have more mothers and fathers to give

Foster H. D. Club Meets With Mrs. Server

It is very important that a child have toys to play with, stated Miss Vaughan when the Foster Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. L. G. Server, November 2. Playing is one of the best things a child can do. They should not play with all their toys at one time. Put part of them away and they will enjoy them a lot more. There should be a certain place for playing in the house, so they can play in bad weather the same as they do outside. Fix a place for their toys and they can put them away when they finish playing. This way things are not thrown around everywhere.

The club is to use a punch board to sell the closet.

Mesdames A. J. Oates, J. R. Wade, A. C. Sege were appointed to get something for Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Adkins. They lost their home by fire last week.

The recreation program was enjoyed by all. We adjourned to meet with Mrs. J. R. Wade November 16. Sandwiches, cookies and hot chocolate was served to the following members: Mesdames A. C. Sege, H. A. Gauntt, A. J. Oates, E. M. Server, J. M. Harrell, J. R. Wade, M. M. Clark, Jim Best, M. G. Martin, J. E. Adams, L. G. Server and Miss Vaughan. Reporter

Mrs. J. C. Atkins of Powell, Texas returned to her home last week after a few weeks visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Johnson.

CHURCH OF CHRIST HAS BIG ATTENDANCE

The Church of Christ, of which J. G. Malphurs is the minister, is enjoying a great increase in attendance. Extra chairs were placed in the available spaces to care for the audience last Lord's day. Many who have been irregular in their church-going are now coming. The attendances at Bible school, which begins at nine-forty five has improved considerably. Mid-week services on Wednesday continue to draw a fine hearing.

The services next Lord's day will be instructive and inspiring to all who come. The subject for the morning will be "How To Put To Silence Ignorant and Foolish Men"; and for seventy-third, "The Binding of Satan" (Rev. 20:1-3). Much is being said these days about the angel binding Satan with a great chain, and of the millennial reign of Christ on the earth. Come and study this timely theme with us.

Visitors are urged to attend all services. Come and worship with us, rather than to be entertained by us.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST DESTRUCTION OF HIGHWAY FLOWERS

Sounding the tocsin, "Preserve the autumn beauty of our highways and roadside parks!" the State Highway Department, through Jac L. Gubbels, landscape architect, today announced a vigorous two-month campaign against the wanton picking of berries, flowers and colored leaves from shrubs and trees along the road-sides of Texas.

"With the nip of fall in the air, many of our berries, particularly the beauty berry, familiarly known as the "French mulberry", and even some of the edible berries, already are turning red," he said. "Together with the fast-coloring leaves, these are among the principal items of beautification on our highways at this time of the year."

"We earnestly hope the children especially in our rural communities, will lead the parade in our campaign against these depredations of thoughtless highway users, not because it is the law, but because public sentiment is behind us. If the traveler feels a particular urge to pick colored leaves and berries, he should go far away from the right-of-way."

Mr. Gubbels suggested that edible berries known to have been picked from roadsides should not be bought when offered for sale.

The offering of the Zion Methodist Episcopal Church in Cambridge, Md., was stolen while worship was being held in the sanctuary.

MIGRATORY FAMILIES

The replacement of human labor by machinery is doing something to Texas that is going to have to be remedied, and at an early date. Land owners now find it possible to work hundreds of acres of land with one tractor, which no longer makes it necessary for them to have tenant families on their farms. The same status exists elsewhere and as a result, these families are set adrift—homeless, with no job and forced to go from place to place where seasonal crops will offer temporary labor.

So large a number of Texas and Oklahoma families have migrated to California that the state is building sanitary camps, with organized labor, where families may remain at a cost of ten cents a day, and if they cannot pay the dime, they may work it out. The Federal Government is financing the camps through the Farm Security Administration. The camps are being built chiefly for Oklahomans and Texans because these states rank respectively first and third in the number of those crossing into California. The last available census on migrants entering California by automobile in need of manual employment during the 12-month period ending June, 1936, included 13,984 Oklahomans and 6,685 Texans. These are not hobo laborers, but dispossessed families.

Families are flocking to California because of the crops that require a huge army at harvest time. Twenty acres of hops require 500 men to harvest it. Thirty men can do the regular labor in a 2,000-acre peach farm, but it takes 200 to 250 additional at pruning time, 100 more at thinning time and 1,000 more at picking time. This is the flame that draws the dispossessed families to California, but the state is becoming over-run and many of the families are being thrown back on their home state.

Texas is experiencing this situation now. Hundreds of footloose laborers have been available in South Texas the last few months because it is the cotton picking season and more laborers are needed there at that season. The situation is likely to become prevalent over the entire state where machinery is used on a large scale, resulting in the moral and physical health of the community being touched to the point that it will become necessary to set up sanitary camps as California is doing. To say the least, the state is rapidly facing the time when it will be forced to do something more than talk about the hordes of migratory families who are flooding the highways.

PREPARING FOR PEACE

The keel of the U. S. navy's newest battleship—the first to be built since the Washington naval treaty of 1922—is to be laid down two months ahead of time, and work on this naval giant will be under way before another fortnight has passed. The ship will cost $60,000,000 and will carry nine 16 inch guns; it will be named the North Carolina and it will be ready in 1941.

Considering the woefully unsettled states of the world, it is hard to avoid a feeling of thinking that our fleet is being strengthened by this addition, costly as it is. And if the cost is hard to forget, we might remember that the North Carolina will serve her purpose even if she never fires a shot at any enemy in her entire career.

There is still something to be said for the theory that adequate preparedness can help to keep a nation out of war. If, by the mere fact of her existence, the North Carolina helps make other nations wary of starting trouble with the United States, she will be worth every cent she costs.

RADIO BEDTIME STORIES

George H. Payne, member of the Federal Communications Commission, declares that radio programs are overdue for reform in the matter of the fare they offer children. He objects particularly to the blood-curdling tales of gangsters, detectives and straight-shooters.

"I have had many communications condemning them," says Mr. Payne. "I had a man in here the other day who said, 'My child had a nightmare thinking he was being kidnaped and tortured after he had listened to one of those programs.'"

Most parents probably agree with Mr. Payne wholeheartedly. After all, one does not need to be an expert psychologist to realize that nerve-racking, fear-creating thrillers can be an over-stimulating emotional diet for a youngster.

LETTERS FROM HOME

A reversal of the time-honored exhortation to college boys to be sure and "write home to mother" is contained in an address recently made by a dramatic critic before the New York Historical Association. This gentleman turned the tables and urged mothers to take time out "between cigaret puffs and cocktail sips" and write to their collegiate sons.

That the average mother is so busy with cigarets and cocktails that she neglects her correspondence is probably something of an overstatement. But that the old-fashioned practice of writing long letters and writing them often, is falling into disuse among adults as well as among youths is probably quite true.

Haskell County History

As Revealed by the Files of the Free Press 20, 30 and 40 years ago.

30 Years Ago

On Saturday afternoon the beautiful little bungalow of Mrs. D. W. Pitefork was thrown open to her many friends, the honoree being her sister, Mrs. Beene of Fort Worth.

Elder J. H. Sheperd left Thursday for Abilene to hold a meeting.

Mr. T. P. Johnson of Johnson county arrived here yesterday on a prospecting visit.

Constable T. J. Lemmon made an official visit to Carney Thursday.

Mr. Bruce W. Bryant, one of the limbs of the Haskell bar, returned Wednesday night from a business trip to Whitecourt.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Egger were up from Stamford and spent a day or two in Haskell this week.

Mr. J. T. Miller has sold his dairy business to Mr. P. D. Solomon and moved out to his farm southwest of town.

Owing to the impression which seems to prevail with a good many people to the effect that they cannot buy goods on a cash basis or settle accounts with merchants because they cannot withdraw money from the banks during the existing financial condition, the business men of Haskell have prepared a statement to the public. Only a small amount of money can be withdrawn from the banks daily, but the arrangements made by the business men and the banks is such that any depositor can give checks to the full amount of his deposit if he desires, in payment for goods purchased or in settlement of accounts due, and these checks will be accepted by the business men and the banks.

Mr. M. A. Clifton of the north side was in town Thursday looking tall and talking loud.

Capt. Dodson sold about 40 head of cattle the first of the week to a party from Hemphill county, for a pretty good price, we heard.

Real fresh oysters from the Gulf are a rarity way out here, but they will be here Tuesday night, and you shouldn't fail to sample them.

The lifting of the quarantine on the 16th loosed quite a stream of cattle. They have been coming in droves of all sizes, some for this county and some going farther west.

About five o'clock yesterday morning Mr. C. D. Long discovered the roof of his kitchen to be on fire and by the firing of guns and ringing of the nearest church bell soon brought several neighbors to his assistance, not, however, before there was a considerable blaze and the situation had begun to look serious; but by quick and energetic work the fire was soon brought under subjection and extinguished.

Mrs. Gregg is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Newt Millhollan at this place.

Mr. J. A. Price sold on Tuesday to Mr. H. C. Dillahanty a lot of cattle to the amount of $4700.

Beware Coughs from common colds That Hang On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold, or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with any remedy less potent than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble and aids nature to soothe and heal the inflamed mucous membranes and to loosen and expel the mucus-laden phlegm. Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, try Creomulsion. Your druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not thoroughly satisfied with the benefits obtained from the very first bottle. Creomulsion is one word—not two, and it has no hyphen in it. Ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

Executive Gives Program To Aid Cotton Farmer

By A. D. Jackson, Chief, Division of Publications

Mr. Albert English arrived Wednesday evening from Woodward, and will spend some time at home.

hunting on Clear-Fork Tuesday.

Considerable increases in the yields of cotton can be secured by better placement of fertilizers both in the sandy lands of East Texas where fertilizers have been fairly profitable and in the heavy black soils of Central Texas where, due to their heavy texture and high lime content and the lower rainfall, fertilizers as ordinarily applied have not given sufficient increase to justify their extensive use.

Experiments by H. P. Smith, Chief, Division of Agricultural Engineering, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, in cooperation with U. S. D. A., have shown that in all cases the best yields were obtained where the fertilizer was placed about two inches to the side and three inches below the seed.

Fertilizers placed on both sides give about the same results as when placed on one side, and fertilizer only one inch away from the seed was too close and injured the stand. Also fertilizer placed with the seed or mixed with soil in the seed furrow injured the stand and gave poor results. The experiments showed definitely that delayed germination of the seed causes reduction in yields and that planting the seed in loose soil causes delayed germination.

In all the experiments the cottonseed germinated better when planted directly on the firm soil at the plow sole when no loose soil was allowed to fall between the seed and the firm soil. This is accomplished by extending the seed spout of the planter to a point immediately behind the furrow opener and almost touching the bottom of the furrow.

Last year the sales of fertilizers in Texas was 84,938 tons which is much greater than any year since 1929. These fertilizers are used principally for cotton crops in East Texas. They cost $30.00 to $35.00 per ton on the average and yield from $50.00 to $75.00 per ton in added lint.

The effectiveness of fertilizer upon cotton decreases as the moisture supply decreases so that those sections of the state farther west, where there is lower rainfall, as a rule, do not get enough benefit from fertilizers to justify their use. There is much interest in developing a more profitable fertilizer practice even in the heavy rainfall belt where fertilizer has been fairly profitable. In addition to the limited moisture handicap the heavy, black, waxy soils of Central Texas contain an abundance of lime and usually do not respond so readily to applications of fertilizer as do sandy soils and applications of fertilizer on these soils have been disappointing. Accordingly, the recent experiments showing better response from fertilizers on these soils when it was placed about two inches to the side and about three inches below the level of the seed, where there is more moisture available than nearer the surface, have been hailed with much enthusiasm. This important finding may result in a wider and more successful use of fertilizer in the blackland.

Farmers have recognized that the fertilizer should be a little below the seed and that placing the fertilizer in the same furrow with the seed or even mixing it with the soil in which the seed is planted injures the stand and therefore the yield. Furthermore, experiments have shown that the proper time for the application of the ordinary complete fertilizer for cotton on most soils is at the time of planting. Accordingly, on account of lack of suitable equipment they have distributed the fertilizer in a furrow; bedded on this furrow; and then they have planted in the loose soil over the fertilizer. The practice gives very good action to the fertilizer, but due to the loose seed bed, results in most cases in very poor stands and a consequent reduction in yield to offset some of the benefits of the fertilizer.

The results of Mr. Smith's experiments are discussed in Bul. No. 548 which is just off the press and will be sent to those requesting it as long as they last.

WOODROW ADCOCK TRAVELS 500 MILES TO FILL PULPIT

The Rev. Woodrow Adcock, pastor of the Sagerton and O'Brien Methodist churches in Haskell County, is one of twenty-five young ministers in the School of Theology at Southern Methodist University who are serving as student pastors while enrolled in the seminary.

In the course of a regular school term these modern circuit riders who serve church from Amarillo to Huntsville travel a total distance that would reach six times around the world.

The Rev. Noel Bryant takes the long distance record, by riding more than seven hundred miles each week to serve as pastor of the Dodson circuit near Amarillo. The Rev. Mr. Adcock travels approximately five hundred miles each week in order to fill his pulpit each Sunday. The Rev. Kermit Hollingsworth goes in the other direction to serve the Lovelady Circuit near Huntsville.

The frontier Methodist circuit riders were noted for the amount of territory they could cover, but they will have to pass the laurels to their young successors who attend the same classes four days each week in Dallas and preach in pulpits five hundred miles apart on Sunday.

The Rev. Adcock is completing his first year in the Seminary. He is serving for the second time as pastor of the two Methodist churches in Haskell County. He is the son of J. W. Adcock.

George Friedrich Martich, rich manufacturer of Dresden and father of 14 children, eloped with his 13-year-old niece.

EVERY MAN WHO EVER LOVED HIS FAMILY—is invited to participate in this

$40,000 NATIONAL CONTEST

ON THE Electrical Standard of Living

HAVE YOU ever thought how little the Pilgrims actually had for which to give thanks? How infinitely more blessed are we of today! But it was those brave souls who, through love for home and family, made Thanksgiving Day a national institution—a day for reflection on our domestic bliss. And our blessings have increased year after year until 1937 finds many thousands of West Texans possessed of all-electric homes... enjoying the Electrical Standard of Living. It is a mode of life—comfort and ease—undreamed by the Pilgrims. Its adoption has been swift in West Texas, so swift that this Thanksgiving finds a larger percentage of West Texans living in electrical security than do average Americans. We live better because every man who ever loved his family has sought to provide the advantages of Electric Service.

On Tuesday... of the leading... daily said my... the submission of... was impractical... by the action... itself... shows that after... Senators had told... newspapers about... do if I submitted appropriations to them, they suddenly decided that I had done so and accordingly considered economy wide open to them. The Senate passed one bill affecting the state departments without a hearing and sent it over to the House. Then they admitted the bill would have to be worked over BUT they didn't do anything at all with reference to economizing on the education bill which they had voted out last spring with the biggest increase of all the appropriation bills. Furthermore the Senate did nothing on the judiciary bill which had substantially increased the salaries of all the judges.

These bills didn't even get out of committee and Senator Stone who had been one of the loudest of all in saying that he would economize, voted to put off any hearing on these bills, even in committee.

With only eight days left to work, the House of Representatives passed a resolution asking me to submit appropriations for economy; BUT even the author of the resolution said on the floor that his purpose was to "put the monkey" on the Governor's back. I knew that if I were to submit appropriations the Legislature couldn't revise them intelligently in so short a time when they had considered appropriations for four months before. I also knew that to get the subject on the calendar would block absolutely the chances of passing any tax bill to finance the old folks, the blind, the dependent children, and our part of the teachers' retirement system.

Of course, not even those who have been talking so loudly about economy claimed for a moment that they could finance by economy the aid to the blind, to dependent children, the old folks and the teachers. All they could hope to do even if they passed economy bills would be to reduce the deficit in the general fund out of which the general operation of the government is paid.

There has been so much talk about how much money the so-called "economists" could save by abolishing the liquor board that I want the people to have the facts.

In the first place, we wouldn't have any enforcement law. In the next place, the present administrator, Bert Ford, collected in his first ten months of service a million dollars more than was collected in the preceding ten months. Thus, he has collected enough additional money in ten months to more than pay the operation of his entire department for over a year and enforced the liquor law in addition.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS To the Sheriff or any Constable of Haskell County, Greeting:

Lee A. Cornelius, Administrator of the Estate of S. R. Cornelius, Deceased, having filed in our County Court his Final Account of the condition of the Estate of said S. R. Cornelius, Deceased numbered 1014 on the Probate Docket of Haskell County, together with an application to be discharged as such Administrator.

You Are Hereby Commanded That by publication of this Writ for ten days shall be made in a Newspaper printed in the County of Haskell you give due notice to all persons interested in the Account for Final Settlement of said Estate, to appear and contest the same if they see proper so to do, on Monday the 22 day of November A. D. 1937, at the Court House of said County, in Haskell, Texas, when said Account and Application will be acted upon by said Court.

Given Under My Hand and seal of said Court, at my office in the City of Haskell this 5th day of November A. D. 1937.

JASON W. SMITH, Clerk, County Court, Haskell County, Texas. By Janie Lyle Martin, Deputy. I Hereby Certify that the above and foregoing is a true and correct copy of the Original Writ now in my hands. GILES KEMP, Sheriff Haskell County, Texas. By Hettie Williams, Deputy.

5 Simple Rules of the "Heating Photo Contest"

- 1. All photos must include a view of the gas heating equipment used to heat the room or adjoining room in which the photo is taken. (See sample).
2. The house in which you reside must receive its gas service from one of the companies of Lone Star Gas System and all photos submitted in the TEN WEEK CONTEST must be taken in a home served gas by one of the companies of Lone Star Gas System.
3. Employees of any company of Lone Star Gas System and their immediate families and professional photographers or persons engaged in the business of making photographs for commercial purposes are not eligible to enter this Heating Photo Contest.
4. All photos submitted must have your name and address (including the town) PRINTED PLAINLY ON A SEPARATE PIECE OF PAPER AND PASTED TO THE BACK OF EACH PHOTO ENTERED IN THE CONTEST.
5. All photos submitted should be delivered to your local gas company office or mailed to LONE STAR GAS SYSTEM, ADVERTISING DEPARTMENT, 305 S. HARWOOD ST., DALLAS, TEXAS.

The contest is for a TEN WEEK Period from October 11, 1937 to December 18, 1937 (inclusive). All photos submitted will become the property of Lone Star Gas System to be used as desired by the company. Photos entered in the contest will not be returned and weekly prize winners will be advised by letter. At the close of the ten week contest a complete list of prize winners will be available for your inspection at your nearest gas company office.

John Brown has "a cold",

John Brown is usually a careful man. But John Brown, like many others who catch cold during winter months, ignores the dangers of sudden changes of temperature. Some rooms of his house are heated and others are not. Now John Brown has a cold!

And the little Browns are sniffing,

Like their Daddy, the little Brown girls have a cold. Although the room where they play is kept cozy and warm, frequently they go to unheated parts of the house. It doesn't take the cold germ long to strike when the girls go into the cold bedroom to bring additional toys.

And Mother Brown is taking chances...

Mrs. Brown hasn't a cold... yet. But Mother Brown is constantly taking chances with her health as she goes from the warm rooms into cold ones during her busy day. Wouldn't it be safer for the Brown family to HEAT THE ENTIRE HOUSE this winter?

Unemployed—

At the local post office or from the postman.

12. Is this census confined to American citizens?

No. All permanent residents of the United States are included.

13. Is the information given on the cards to be considered confidential?

Yes. This information will be used for unemployment statistics only.

14. Should every question on the census card be answered?

Yes. To obtain the most accurate information possible the President asks that each question be answered. However, failure to answer some of the questions will not prevent the card from being counted.

15. Who is an "Unemployed" person?

A person of either sex or any color who is not working, who is able to work, and wants work.

16. Who is a "Partly Unemployed" person?

A person of either sex or any color who is employed part time but is able to do more work and is looking for more work.

17. Are persons on emergency work projects included?

Yes. They should register as unemployed. A specific question is provided on the Report Card for all persons working on a W. P. A., N. Y. A., C. C. C., or other emergency work projects which is supported by public funds.

18. Should housewives fill out and return cards?

Housewives should not fill out cards unless they are able to do other work and are looking for work for pay.

19. Should farmers fill out and return cards?

Not if they devote full time to their own farms.

20. Should farm laborers fill out and return cards?

If they are unemployed or partly unemployed, able to work and want work.

Miss Maybelle Taylor left last week for El Paso where she will attend a State Baptist Convention.

Believe Pulp From Cotton Plant Can Replace Wood Pulp

President A. M. Goldstein of the Waco Chamber of Commerce leading exponent of the new-use-for-cotton movement in Texas, believes that pulp from the cotton plant can gradually replace wood pulp as the base material in making rayon.

He has been in correspondence with Dr. Frank K. Cameron, professor of chemistry at the University of North Carolina, who said that if cotton pulps are cleaned and cotton lint put on the market at a reasonable price, the demand would surely turn to cotton and increase income to the Southern farmer.

"A good supply of five cent and five and one-half cent cotton will be needed," Goldstein said, "for that is all the manufacturer can pay. But he can buy short staple cotton that costs less to grow."

"If cotton lint is dewaxed it will be more acceptable than wood pulp because cotton's cellulose content is higher, as chemical tests have proved." Goldstein is a member of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce committee seeking new uses for cotton and campaigning for a cotton laboratory in Texas.

Drivers License—

tion. Examiners of the Safety Department estimate that a complete test can be given in 12 minutes.

Truck, bus, and other commercial vehicle drivers will be issued licenses divided into three classes, A, B, and C, according to the type of vehicle to be operated. Passenger and school bus drivers are issued a permit bearing a special endorsement of the Department.

Col. Carmichael urged that drivers seeking their licenses verse themselves in safety regulation, rules of the highway and the mechanical operations of their vehicles in preparations for the tests.

WOODROW ADCOCK TO PREACH AT SAGERTON
