Appeals Verdict

Clarence (Puny) Abston, whose appeal from a death sentence imposed for murder was submitted by brief and oral argument by attorneys before the State Court of Criminal Appeals at Austin Wednesday.

Appeal of Clarence (Puny) Abston, 34, from a death sentence imposed by a District Court here on May 21 this year, was heard by the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin yesterday.

T. R. Odell, Haskell attorney who with Johnny Banks was appointed defense lawyer during Abston's trial in District Court here, appeared before the appeals court in Austin Wednesday to submit the appeal from the death penalty assessed by the jury.

District Attorney H. F. Grindstaff, County Attorney B. C. Chapman and W. W. Hair, Abilene attorney and member of the firm of Stinson, Hair & Brooks, were also in Austin to submit arguments to the higher court upholding the verdict.

Decision of the appeals court is not expected to be rendered for several weeks.

Abston was convicted of murder in connection with the death of Miss Rebecca Coursey, aged O'Brien woman who died on May 14, one week after she had been found unconscious and brutally beaten in her home.

Abston and C. Matura, 65-year old Bohemian, also of O'Brien, were indicted for murder and in the trial of Abston, Matura was the principal witness against him, testifying that Abston was the instigator of the attack on Miss Coursey—the Bohemian telling that he beat the aged woman at the suggestion of Abston.

Matura was tried several weeks later at Aspermont, and likewise was given the death penalty by a Stonewall county jury.

Both Matura and Abston have been confined in the Tarrant county jail at Fort Worth pending outcome of their appeals.

County Turkey Raisers Market Most of Flocks

Buyers Estimate That 60 Per Cent of 1936 Crop Will Go To Market

Despite this year's prevailing low price, turkey raisers of this section are marketing the larger portion of their flocks, a check of the local produce houses revealed Wednesday.

Approximately thirty thousand pounds of turkeys were sold in Haskell on the Thanksgiving market, it is estimated, and an additional forty thousand pounds will go through the local houses on the Christmas market, which opened last Saturday and is expected to close next Saturday or Monday.

No. 1 turkeys are bringing 11c per pound on the local market, with No. 2 birds listed at around 6c per pound. Dealers estimate that turkey growers will hold around 40 per cent of this year's crop, mostly No. 2 turkeys, because of the low price.

Dealers report most of their purchases average between 12 and 14 pounds per turkey, one dealer stating that a flock of 68 birds weighed a total of 984 pounds—an average of 14 1-2 pounds per turkey.

P. T. Company Will Pay Bonus To Employees

A welcome Christmas bonus for employees was announced Monday by the Perkins-Timberlake company. This substantial benefit will be given store employees in Wichita Falls, Vernon, Electra, Bowie, Haskell and Decatur, Texas, and Frederick and Ardmore, Okla.

Persons in the employ of the company one year or more will receive a week's pay, and those with the company as long as six months will receive a half week's salary. The payments will be made before Christmas to enable workers to use money for holiday shopping.

The bonuses are strictly employee benefits and are not to be confused with the store's Christmas gifts to its employees, officials said.

The bonus was announced in the following letter to all employees, signed by Frank P. Timberlake vice president of the company:

"As we come to the close of 1936, it is indeed gratifying to note a volume of business for Perkins-Timberlake company, in excess of any year since 1929.

SARAH ANN'S COOKING CLASS

Let's anticipate that last minute strain that comes at Christmas; we all love the rush and confusion but it limits the time to do all the things we want to do. Plan for the cookie jar today and fill it in plenty of time for Christmas.

Fruit Nuggets

Cream 1 cup of shortening, add 2 cups of sugar and cream together. Beat 2 eggs and add. Sift together 3 cups cake flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon cloves, 2 teaspoons of cinnamon and 1-2 teaspoon of nutmeg, and add alternately with 3-4 cup milk. Chop 1-2 cup of candied pineapple, 1 cup raisins, 1 cup candied cherries and 1 cup of walnuts or pecans and mix well. Drop by spoonfuls either on a greased baking tin or in tiny paper baking cups. Bake in an oven 325 degrees.

Christmas Bars

1 cup corn flakes, 1-4 cup candied cherries, chopped finely, 1 egg white, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-4 cup sugar, 1-4 cup nuts, chopped, 2 tablespoons shredded coconut, 1-4 teaspoon orange flavoring. Add the salt to the egg white and beat until stiff but not dry. Continue beating and add the sugar gradually. Fold in the corn flakes mixed with the cherries, nuts and coconut. Add the flavoring and stir until all the ingredients are thoroughly blended. Divide the mixture into twelve portions and shape into bars with wet fingers. Place on a greased cookie sheet and bake in an oven 375 degrees for 10 minutes.

Rocks

2 lbs. pitted dates, cut up, 1-2 cups nuts, chopped, 1 cup butter, 1-2 cups sugar, 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon soda dissolved in 2 tablespoons water, 1 teaspoon allspice, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon nutmeg, 3 cups flour. Cream butter and sugar, add eggs, beat well. Dredge dates with some of the flour. Add four, spices, nuts and dates. Beat well. Add soda which has been dissolved in water. Drop my spoonfuls on a greased cooking sheet. Bake in oven 350 degrees until done.

Christmas Wreaths

Beat 1-2 cup butter to a cream, gradually beat in 1 cup sugar, add the grated rind and juice of 1-2 lemons, the beaten yolks of 2 eggs and the white of 1 egg beaten dry; enough flour to make a stiff dough. Roll into a thin sheet and cut with a doughnut cutter. Beat

WTU Celebrates 25th Anniversary

The West Texas Utilities Company, at Abilene soon after declaring preferred stock dividends totaling over $109,000, announced it will observe its Silver Anniversary this week, choosing the Christmas season for the event.

This pioneer utility organization had its origin 25 years ago—1911—at Abilene. It has since expanded to include 160 communities in 49 counties, stretching across Central West Texas from Kimble County on the south to Dallam County in the Panhandle. General offices are in Abilene; District offices are located in McCamey, San Angelo, Ballinger, Cisco, Stamford, Quanah, Childress and Dalhart, as well as in Abilene.

It has provided Haskell with electric power for many years. Publication of an anniversary souvenir in the form of a newspaper magazine section was one of the main features planned by the company to celebrate the birthday. Over 50,000 copies were sent out to customers and stockholders in the 45,000 square-mile territory.

President Price Campbell announced that intensified efforts will be made during the forthcoming year to multiply the uses of electricity, and spread the benefits to more users, declaring that "the greater the benefits, the greater the consumption, and in turn the lower the steps in unit costs of electric service thereby all four interested parties profit (1) this "Land of Opportunity" the white of 1 egg and brush over the cakes; sit in a baking pan, sprinkle with chopped blanched pistachio nuts and add here and there small round candies. Bake in a moderate oven.

Almond Cakes

Cream 1-2 cup of shortening and gradually add 1-2 cup sugar, then 5 well beaten egg yolks and 3 whites, 1-2 pound of flour, pinch each of cinnamon and ground ginger, 3 ground cloves and 10 ounces of sweet almonds. Mix well and place and little heaps on a greased cookie sheet and bake to a golden brown in a quick oven.

Mince-meat Cookies

3-4 cup butter, 2 cups sugar, 2 eggs, 1 cup chopped nut meats, 1 package mince-meat, 1 teaspoon soda, 1-2 to 3 cups flour, 1 teaspoon cream of tartar. Cream butter and sugar, add well beaten eggs, mince-meat (which has been separated) and nuts. Sift flour with cream of tartar and soda. Add to the mixture. The dough will be very stiff. The amount of flour depends on size of eggs used. Shape in a roll and wrap in waxed paper and let stand in refrigerator overnight. Slice and bake in an oven 350 degrees until golden brown.

Nut Macaroons

Beat 2 egg whites very stiff. Add 1 cup brown sugar and 2 cups chopped nuts. Drop by spoonfuls on a greased cookie sheet. Bake 1 hour in an oven 300 degrees.

West Texas territory, (2) the customers, (3) the employees, and (4) the stockholders."

He reminded the quarter million people served by the company that "average rates have been lowered 70 percent during the last 15 years—never raised." The recent dividend, he said, was declared in the face of government interference and increased taxes, amounting the last three years to 1.7 times—near twice as much for government tax expenditures as has been paid to all shareholders—owners of the company. This preferred stock dividend was made possible by un-usual operating economies and intensive new business efforts of the organization. No earnings are yet possible for the common stockholders and none have been for five years.

While gross revenue remains 30 percent below 1929's peak figures due to rate reductions and sale of gas property, kilowatt-hour sales have reached a new all time peak during the last 12 months, he announced. Large increased industrial power usage together with some increased domestic service usage was credited with the hike. This dividend, equivalent to preferred requirements of $1.50 a share, is the first full dividend basis since July 1933, partly paid then from reserves, and the stock is now $9.50 per share in arrears. Seventy percent of preferred stockholders are West Texans.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of expressing as best we can with mere words, the heartfelt appreciation we hold for each of our kind friends and neighbors for their sympathy and kindness during our bereavement in the loss of our husband, father, and brother. Especially do we appreciate the beautiful floral tributes. We shall never forget your kindness, and pray that an all-wise Father send you the same true friends when sorrow enters your home.—Mrs. R. P. Glenn and children; T. L. Glenn, Mrs. J. H. Cunningham, Mrs. Fannie Cunningham.

Attend Abilene Meeting

Mrs. Ethel Grindstaff, Miss Oma B. Haynes, Miss Margaret Tidwell and Miss Maggie Cole were in Abilene Wednesday night to attend a group meeting of West Texas beauty operators, held in the Hilton Hotel.

Mrs. Nannie McDaniel Cooper left Monday evening for Streetman, Texas, where she will supervise shipping of furniture and household effects to this city. Mrs. Cooper recently purchased the Clyde Grissom home and will make her future home in this city.

Education Chief Tuberculosis Foe

Tuberculosis continues to be one of the major causes of death in Texas. Public health authorities agree that the death rate will not diminish satisfactorily until the average person appreciates that tuberculosis is preventable, that it is not inherited directly, that it is acquired by direct transmission of the tuberculosis germ from the sick to the healthy; and above all, that he must be concerned immediately if any symptom appears.

"In combatting tuberculosis," said Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer, "education of the public is of prime importance—education as to the treacherous character of the disease and its methods of transmission, how to prevent the disease and how to treat it when contracted, to the end both that recovery may be as rapid as possible and that spread of the disease to other members of the family and to neighbors may be avoided."

"Children pick up tuberculosis as readily as they do measles or scarlet fever or any other contagious disease, but tuberculosis differs from some in not showing up as quickly as other germ diseases. As a rule the characteristic symptoms of other diseases develop in a few days after a person has been exposed, while it takes a much longer time for the symptoms of tuberculosis to be recognized."

"The periodic health examination by a competent physician plays an important role in the fight to stamp out tuberculosis. These check-ups should include examination of high school and college students by the tuberculin test and X-ray and prompt examination of all persons who have symptoms of tuberculosis."

"Removal of the contact case, protection of the infant and the young, and prompt professional advice when symptoms suggestive of tuberculosis arise, will do much to reduce the tuberculosis death rate. These measures, however, are largely outside the province of health officials, and the problem is quite definitely a personal one."

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Harrison of this city celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Harrison of this city celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary at their home Sunday, surrounded by their two sons and families and a host of other relatives and friends. A sumptuous turkey dinner was served at noon to more than twenty-five guests.

A beautiful wedding cake, prepared by Mrs. Leo Southern of Seymour, carried out the color scheme of gold and white and bearing fifty golden candles occupied the center of the tables, which was laid with silver and china.

The honorees were the recipients of many lovely and useful gifts throughout the day, as well as congratulations and best wishes from numerous neighbors and friends who called during the afternoon.

Married December 8, 1886, the event was commemorated Sunday, moving fifty golden candles out of town relatives could attend and also because of the fact that their wedding ceremony was solemnized on Sunday.

During the day, many interesting events of the past were recalled by Mr. and Mrs. Harrison. Mr. Harrison now 79 was born in Surrey county, North Carolina. During the Civil War he saw his father only twice during a period of four years, and during the conflict his mother, with her children, fled to Tennessee. After the conflict, his father, a sergeant in the Confederate Army, decided to migrate to Kentucky and thence to Texas in 1884, settling in Denton county.

Mrs. Harrison, nee Emma McElroy, a native Texan, was born and reared in Denton county, where she first met her future husband. The couple, fifty years after their marriage, recall that they were both slightly "flustered" during the ceremony, which was performed at the home of Mr. Harrison's parents, with Rev. Jimmie McQuirter, a Baptist minister, officiating.

The young couple settled on a farm in the Willow Spring community, Denton county, where they made their home until coming to West Texas. They were blessed with two sons, R. L. and Leonard F. Harrison, both of whom were present for Sunday's anniversary.

Farm life had its "ups and downs" the couple reminisced, but all in all brought them many pleasures, they frequently reminded questioners.

Mrs. Harrison told of one mishap, shortly after her marriage, in which she and her mother were both injured. She and Mrs. McElroy, driving a horse and buggy were returning to their home after going to a neighboring store when the horse became frightened and ran away, throwing both women from the buggy. Mrs. Harrison sustained a fracture of her left leg, and her mother a broken arm. Luckily a neighbor was passing and carried the two women to their home a quarter of a mile away.

Vividly recalled by Mr. and Mrs. Harrison was the terrific windstorm which struck Denton county during the famed Galveston flood of 1900. An exceptional good cotton season had prevailed.

Snell, is a genius. His Uncle Titus says so, and wait until you see him. And folks, your Marvin Branch will play the part of Lizzette Lullerite, who comes to town for your first pair of shoes and shows Trixie some of her dancing and singing stuff.

The third act is successfully handled by Walter Murchison as the dearly-beloved Colonel Rowe, bringing to you his own original amateur hour, featuring Haskell local talent.

The musical reliefs of the show are brought out by a mighty peppy bunch of High School girls, who will dance and sing their way into your hearts with "Sing, Its Good For You", "Swing Mr. Palmer", "Hezekiah and Me", "It's No Fun", "A Thousand Dollars For You", and the beautiful "Imagination Waltz". The costumes are all new and many of the songs were especially written for "Coast to Coast".

Tickets for reserved seats, at no extra cost, will go on sale at the Ben Franklin Store Monday, December 14th at 10 o'clock, and you are urged to get your advance tickets early. This truly promises to be the best show ever staged here.

Miss Dickey is working on the details of a popular Baby Contest which will be held in connection with the production. Watch for poster details and be prepared to vote for your favorite next Saturday.

Books Reviewed By The Magazine Club

The members of the Magazine Club have been fortunate in hearing two recent books reviewed: one by Mrs. B. C. Chapman and the other under the direction of Mrs. J. U. Fields.

Mrs. H. K. Thornton directed the program Friday, November 27, and told some of the incidents in the life of Trygve Gubbransen. Mrs. B. C. Chapman gave a review of "Beyond the Woods"—a story of the hardy people of Norway, their love of nature, and their struggle for a better understanding of life.

On Friday, December 4, Mrs. J. U. Fields directed the program and gave an introduction to the book, "In The Steps of the Master" by H. V. Morton. Mrs. W. H. Cox, Mrs. S. Hassen, and Mrs. Matt Graham described the many places that Mr. Morton visited in his travels through the Holy Land.

T. E. L. Class of the First Baptist Church

The T. E. L. Class of the First Baptist Church met December 8 in the home of Mrs. J. W. Martin in a short business and social meeting with 30 members and guests present. The Christmas spirit was carried out in the decorations and throughout the program. A beautiful lighted Christmas tree centered the room.

Opening songs were "Joy To The Morn'g" and "Silent Night". Mrs. K. D. Simmons conducted the business session after which Mrs. Newsome had charge of the social hour. Mrs. R. C. Couch gave a very interesting devotional, reading a part of the Second Chapter of Luke.

A playlet was given by Jane Richey and Jeanette Henshaw. Reading by Bobby Henshaw.

Mrs. Whiteker told us a beautiful Christmas story.

Song, "Little Town of Bethlehem."

Each one having brought a gift for the Christmas tree, the thrill of distributing and admiring these were enjoyed after which Mrs. L. B. Watson's group served delicious refreshments.

IT'S AN ILL WIND

A queer quirk of the motor traffic problem is the fact that the fewest accidents take place at times when conditions on the highway are worst. An advance taste of winter weather—snow, sleet, and cold—swept over part of the middle west recently, and immediately traffic accident figures dropped almost out of sight. The roads were icy, visibility was bad, it was perilously easy to put a car into a skid—but for several days no one was killed and hardly any serious accidents were recorded. The explanation is clear. When streets and roads are slippery, motorists drive carefully. They are willing to spend an extra five minutes on the highway for the sake of safety. It is only when the path is clear and the road offers no danger that they hurry, take chances—and kill each other.

MORE ORCHIDS TO CCC

One of the valuable byproducts of the CCC program seems to have been a great gain in the campaign to conserve wild life resources of America. Director Robert Fechner reports that the CCC work actually has helped the conservation program to such an extent that certain species of migratory birds, supposedly doomed to extinction, now are expected to survive and increase in numbers. The CCC, for instance, has helped the U. S. Biological Service to expand and develop a nation wide system of wild life refuges. It has helped other government services to set aside wilderness areas for game. It has aided in federal wild life censuses, has improved fishing conditions, has fed animals and birds in cold weather and by its reforestation activities, has provided a vast amount of much-needed cover for wild life. Just one more reason for writing the CCC down as one of the very best of the New Deal experiments!

JOBLESSNESS REMEDY

If we want to see a boom such as we have never seen before, we have only to set our industrial plant to work to make up the production deficiencies of the seven years of depression. This is on the word of the canny Dr. Harold G. Moulton, president of the Brookings Institution. Dr. Moulton told the Executive Club in Chicago the other day to make up for the deficiency in durably goods about upwards of 3,000,000 additional workers would be kept busy for at least five years. Nearly 3,000,000 more would be required for a similar period to make up the deficiency in non-durable goods. Dr. Moulton has a way of knowing what he is talking about. It begins to look, too, as if we were in the kind of business upswing in which these deficiencies in production would be made up. Adding those two facts, we can look ahead confidently to a period in which the unemployment problem will be reduced to minor proportions—if, indeed, it is not wiped out.

CURRENT COMMENT

SERVING TEXAS SOIL

Semi-Weekly Farm News (Dallas)
Active co-operation by Texas farmers in combating soil erosion in this State was reported recently in Austin by Dr. Hugh H. Bennett, chief of the United States Soil Conservation Service. Federal erosion control already has been effected on 200,000 acres in Texas, with highly beneficial results; and work is nearing completion on 600,000 additional acres in regions of the State most susceptible to erosion.

This is a creditable showing, especially when it is realized that individual farmers in all parts of the State have come to understand better the urgent need for soil conservation and have begun to practice on their own farms the erosion-control methods demonstrated in Federal projects. Terracing, strip-cropping, contour plowing and other methods are being used to prevent valuable topsoil from being washed off from farms.

These methods help to conserve water as well as soil, and they are important as flood-prevention measures. The underground water level is being raised, and flood peaks and the silting of stream channels and reservoirs are being reduced. These matters are especially important in sections in which the annual rainfall is unevenly distributed.

Texas is adopting soil conservation methods none too soon. Most of the land here has thinner topsoil than that of the Middle West, and continuous cotton growing has robbed the land of much of its original fertility. Constant combating of erosion is essential, if the State's most valuable resource is to be maintained at its full value.

Twenty Years Ago—1916
The High School teachers attended the State Teachers Association at Fort Worth. Some of them also attended the inauguration of the new president of the University of Texas at Austin.

F. M. Branch and W. C. Jones of Coleman county were in the city Wednesday prospecting with a view of purchasing homes in Haskell county. They were favorably impressed with this section.

Weinert has two telephone systems, known as the Farmers Union and the Southwestern. Mrs. I. H. Beene is the operator for the Farmers Union and Mrs. W. L. Watts is operator for the Southwestern. Services of both companies are satisfactory.

E. L. Hendrix was seriously injured in a runaway east of Weinert last week, when the team he was driving turned a corner, throwing him headlong from the wagon. His shoulder was hurt and he received other injuries about the body.

The Weinert cotton yard, in charge of Chas. Barton, public weigher, has some 600 bales of cotton on hand. Mr. Barton has weighed 2297 bales to date, with probably 300 more yet to come in. Last year's crop all told was 2260.

W. E. Johnson, farmer of the Gauntt community, sold a turkey here this week for the neat sum of $6.35.

Automobiles were registered during the month of November 1916, by the following persons: O. Neathery, Haskell, Chevrolet; R. C. Whitmore, Haskell, Overland; John Shee, O'Brien, Studebaker; L. A. Mr. Tom Tucker, formerly a citizen of Haskell, arrived here on Thursday from Arizona, where he has been for a year or so. We learn he will go to Peecos, where his mother now resides.

Sunday School HENRY-LESSON RADCLIFFE

Golden Text: "Fear not; I am the first and the last, and the living one." Rev. 1:17, 18.

(Lesson Text: Revelation 1:4-18)

Our lesson today is from the Book of Revelations, the apocalyptic writing of the New Testament. Like Daniel, it is a peculiar style of prophecy, familiar to the Jewish world but alien to the English spirit and imagination.

Revelations is a book of unusual grandeur and power, although to grasp its beauty and poetry one must seek to kittle in his own heart the attitude of the author when he writes which is of course difficult and unusual. It was written in the Greek language, but the ideas and thoughts are Jewish.

The authorship of this extraordinary book is the subject of a difference of opinion. The traditional viewpoint is that it was written by John, the apostle beloved by Jesus. The last view is upon the occasion of Paul's visit to Jerusalem after his first missionary tour.

Tradition says that subsequently he went to Ephesus and became the Bishop of that church and those in the surrounding province of Asia, the western section of what is now the great continent of Asia. While banished from Ephesus under the persecution of the Romans, John was exiled on the island of Patmos, about twenty-five miles southwest of Ephesus. Here he had his visions and received the message which he transmitted.

On the other hand there are scholars who disagree and ascribe the book to another Christian leader by the same name, John. Their main argument is that the style of Revelations is entirely unlike that of the Fourth Gospel. Their adversaries replied that there are some similarities between the two books and that the differences can be discounted because of the diversity of themes and the high spiritual experiences which preceded the authorship of the last book. However, regardless of the exact identity of the author, the book has been accepted by Christians always as an authentic production of the First Century of our present era.

The book is enigmatical and is full of symbols and images, of which we do not have a satisfactory key for the proper explanation and understanding. Various efforts to apply them have resulted in confusion and error, and it is not recommended that one reading it expect to fully comprehend all of the references and meanings of the involved visions and omens. The book deals with the difficulty so often confronted of reconciling the suffering of the righteous on earth with the proper faith in God and expectation of a glorious and happy future. It brings a message of a saving deliverance and the final triumph of righteousness, encouraging patience, endurance and faith in times of distress and trial.

The author frankly represents that the source of his revelation is God himself, transmitted by Jesus through the person of an angel, and that the final receivers are the servants of God who do his will and testify for Christ on earth. He pictures the second coming of the Son of Man in glory and prominence, quite different from the humble surroundings of his first visit as a babe in the Bethlehem stable. Hearing the sound of the divine voice, the writer turned and saw a vision of the divine parsonage who instructed him to write what he saw and send it to the seven churches—seven being a symbolic number for the whole.

The seven churches mentioned were in Asia and are named in the order that one would reach them on a geographical circuit going north from Ephesus. The peculiar situation of the kingdom in each of these churches is discussed and a particular message sent to each. The book concludes with a vision of the new heaven and new earth, where the earthly and unjust condition of things is replaced by a perfect era, with no tears or pain or death, in which the blessed live joyously and reign forever.

Senior Snapshots

Dorothy Mae Carr, a transfer from Rochester, is one of our outstanding seniors. When grades are considered she ranks above the average. She enters whole heartedly into all our school activities. Also she is employed as office help which keeps her rather busy. In fact Dorothy Mae is an all around student and we wish we had more like her.

Warwhoop Staff Receives Copy of "Bulldog News"

The Warwhoop staff has been receiving "The Bulldog News" from Stamford High School. This paper is printed every two weeks on the school printing press. We enjoy their articles and derive some very good ideas from it. Miss Caldwell, who sponsors "The Bulldog News" was a fellow student of journalism with Miss Vick last summer in the university. It is through her courtesy that we receive this paper.

We have heard that Melba C. has been receiving one from a certain Stamford boy, but it has not been seen at school so far—however other students would enjoy it if she would pass it around.

Brickbats and Boquets

Aches and pains to all those who throw waste paper on the floor, instead of the wastebasket. Nuts to freshmen and anyone else who sits idly looking around the study hall and wasting their time. Sour grapes to noise makers in the study hall, and who move their feet, whistle and talk when others are trying to study.

An armful of posies to all football players who played their last game for Haskell High when they met Stamford Thanksgiving and for giving their best at all times. Loud cheers to the football coaches for their untiring efforts this past season. Gobs of bouquets to all the pep squad who helped cheer the Indians during football season.

Personals

Mr. Richey was back at H. H. S. at noon one day last week. Coach just can't stay away from school. We were very glad to hear that Van J. Stone's condition is improving. He has been critical with pneumonia. Marvin Gholson, an H. S. graduate spent the week-end at Haskell. Marvin is working in Dallas for the Magnolia Oil Co.

Surprise, Not "April Fool"

Mr. Bowers seems to be a very unusual teacher and especially concerning surprises. For example: Thursday morning he walked into Math IV class. The uproar which always takes place between classes suddenly became quiet as Mr. Bowers returned to the blackboard where he wrote the following: "Six Weeks Exam." A came from all parts and frowns appeared on faces, even those of "A's."

Mr. Bowers smiled, returned to the board and wrote: "Surprise! There will be no

Seniors Receive Rings

Have you heard the news? The senior rings came last Wednesday and are they beautiful? Just ask some senior or anyone else as far as that's concerned and the answer will be, "They are the prettiest that Haskell High has ever had." Anyway the seniors of '37 couldn't study until their sponsor, Miss Davis, presented them to each student. The rest of the day was spent showing the rings to lower classmen and everyone who happened along. Some senior remarks were, "Oh! Have you seen our rings?" "Guess what we got this morning?" "Aren't they pretty?" "Mine fits perfectly." A few seniors were seen with their hands over their face so that everyone could see the ring—that's pride, but the Seniors of '37 are proud of their rings and want everyone to know it.

Since football season is over the seniors intend to show more class pep and have a few social events. Here's hoping that it's possible.

Fifteen Football Lettermen To Be Given Sweaters

Members of the football squad who earned a letter this year were measured for sweaters last Wednesday. There are fifteen who lettered this year, ten being linemen and five backfield men. Four of these are freshmen, three are sophomores, five are juniors and three are seniors. From this it seems that we should have a good team next year because eleven of this fifteen will be back again.

Those who lettered and will receive sweaters this year are: Albert Barnett, Eugene Rogers, Lon McMillin, Zeldon Thomson, and Marion Josselet in the backfield; Sam Henshaw, Eulis Hays, Claud Jenkins, Lloyd McMillin, J. C. Scott, Jimmy Crawford, Jack Simmons, Duffer Crawford, James R. Akins and Robert Thompson in the line.

Choral Club Makes Debut in New Uniforms

The Choral Club of Haskell High School made its debut Thursday night at the Student Appreciation program given by the High School Parent-Teachers Association. This occasion marked the first time the girls had worn their new black and gold uniforms and they presented a striking appearance to the admiring audience. The dresses are simple and smartly made of gold broadcloth with black ascot ties and the letters H. H. S. monogrammed on the gold material.

The members of the club rendered two selections, "Old Folks At Home" and "Garden Lullaby." They were accompanied by Mrs. Bert Welsh. Mrs. Marvin Post gave a tribute to the club, following their numbers on the program and the girls appreciated her words of encouragement.

Madge Leon was not in school last week because of a tonsil operation but is now in school again.

Frances Corruth is a new member of the freshmen class.

Mittie Patton doesn't have a hair any more. Her mother, Mrs. McClintock is making her hair again.

Annie Rose Chapman doesn't have her hair anymore. Mittie Ruth Davis is back in school again.

Flossie Hester and Floyd are twins.

Sophomores Win Again

When the parents were counted at the Parent-Teachers meeting at Thursday night, the sophomores had the most present again. This is the second time the sophomores have carried off the honors. hat do the sophomores do to get their parents to the meetings? Maybe they work at it a little harder than the freshmen, juniors and seniors. At any rate the sophomores had about twice as many parents present as any other class.

Newsies News

Did you notice Delmon run when he saw that car of Stamford girls at school Thursday? He was in the opposite direction.

C. T. has a habit of renaming people. The latest name for Mary is Nadine.

Some freshmen and sophomore boys were seen in Stamford Sunday in Paul K's car. Boys, is it true you can't get a date in Haskell.

Remarks I never expected to hear: Wayne Laird, "I don't want teachers to give me anymore tips but they might give me a tip-off next time."

We wonder if Woodrow and T. finally got a date with Frances and Melba, respectively, Thursday night.

Around The Study Hall

Musical Note: Marjorie Ratliff, spending the night with Martell Clifton, burst into, "No, No a Thousand Times No," in her sleep.

Love Note—A peach of a love note was found by Mr. Wimbish. You freshmen had better watch out.

In the mail this morning: Dear "Around The Study Hall": I need your advice on a very serious matter.

Three girls, Geraldine Conner, Mary Eleanor Diggs and Dorothy Larson all tell me that they love me and say that they will do anything in the world for me. How can I test their love and find out which one really loves me.

Signed,
Shaking-Like-a-Leaf.

Dear Shaking-Like-a-Leaf:
Here is a simple trick that might work. On three different nights get a date with each of the three girls.

Call for your date one hour late. Make no excuse for being late and ask if there is anything to eat in the house. Then sit and sit and sit. When the girl finally says it is time to go to the show, you tell her that your car is at home and you will have to walk.

Let the girl pay for refreshments. This may be hard, but persistence works wonders. Blow smoke in her face and throw gum on the floor for her to step on. Tell her how many good times you have had with other girls and how pretty your best girl is.

Don't walk to the door with the girl and don't tell her goodnight, but say something that will irritate her beyond control. Walk happily home whistling, "Thank You for the Lovely Evening," or "I'll Be Glad When You're Dead."

If any of these young ladies ever look at you again, boy, you've got what it takes. If one of them ever manages to smile at you—that's the girl.

Good luck,
"Around The Study Hall"

CLAMMY CLOTHES

Experience teaches us that one sure way to "catch cold" is to venture out of doors wearing damp clothing. You may have an equally unhealthy condition right in your own home if you are troubled with "sweating walls."

All air contains some moisture. If the air contained no water vapor it would be exceedingly unhealthy. On the other hand, there is an erroneous impression that the higher the moisture content, the more healthful the atmosphere. It is especially unhealthy to permit the humidity or moisture content to reach the point of dampness. No doubt you have noticed the damp, clammy condition that exists in the room atmosphere when "sweat" collects on doors, walls and windows when heated rooms are tightly closed during the winter season. Under this unhealthy condition the clothing of those remaining in the room becomes partly saturated with water vapor. As the persons go from a heated room into a cold one, the water vapor condenses into moisture. The chilling effect is the same as going out into cold weather with damp, clammy clothing. The possibility of serious results to health is obvious.

"Sweating" walls are most commonly experienced in homes that use open flame types of individual room heaters exclusively but fail to provide adequate ventilation. The unvented open flame heater is practical and can be used with great satisfaction if applied properly. Excess moisture in the air of the home can be reduced to a minimum. Simply provide adequate ventilation in the room through a slightly opened window. Keep connecting doors open so that a natural circulation of pure, warmed air prevails from one room to another.

For your health's sake, and to obtain the greatest value from the fuel you use, heat your entire house during the short winter season and provide adequate ventilation.

. . . Lone Star Gas System

The common cold germ shows no favor. Invisible but dangerous, this Number One Enemy of Public Health skulks like a bandit of the night ready to rob you of good health.

OPPORTUNITY

Opportunity knocks only once; one should never disregard this one great thing. You never know how much happiness you miss if you let even the smallest of opportunities pass without recognition.

The habit of respecting opportunity should be practiced from the earliest age possible. For instance the formation of the habit of studying in the primary grades to become the A-1 student of the class is the first opportunity to make a success.

Every high school student should grasp all opportunities, with which he is confronted; for the opportunities he takes advantage of in high school will be the background of his later life. Thus, one should never let an opportunity to study and make as high grades as possible pass by.

When an opportunity is passed by it may be a change of life to build up to the very best, and that is what everyone is striving to do.

"CAMPUS TALK"

All of the ball teams report an enjoyable if not victorious trip to the Rural School Tournament at Rule. Saturday, especially, turned out to be a jolly "sunny" day.

We are sorry to hear that Morris Toliver is very ill with pneumonia.

The student body is eagerly looking forward to the Christmas holidays and all of their joys.

Six weeks exams are over and our grades are due. Some students are fearfully anticipating the reports from the results of the exams.

Robbie Jo Toliver and Dorothy Nell Lewellen spent Saturday night with E. B. Cowaway of Ballew.

We can't wait to see Miss Guess and John Alex as "newly-weds" in the faculty play, "Jimmy, Be Careful!"

"Hazel" is the chief topic of the seniors boys who went to the basketball tournament at Lueders.

It seems that Miss Perrin has all the symptoms of "Pneumonia"—so we think.

The Freshmen are planning a party for this week in the home of Bobbie Lewis Haynes.

Miss Lou Etta Stanford, an ex-graduate from Mattson, has been visiting this community from California where she has been employed by A. K. Greene in the "movie world."

Miss Elva Couch from New York City who has been employed as a stenographer for the New York Times is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Couch of this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Freeland returned home last Sunday from Oklahoma City where they have been visiting Mr. Freeland's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Freeland.

Miss Juanita Mapes, Abilene's head nurse of the Baptist sanitarium was called home to the bedside of a friend, Mrs. John M. McGuire who was in a car wreck recently.

Mrs. J. L. McGuire's daughter, Ruth is one of the contestants on the U. S. basketball team which is now competing against England at Washington, D. C.

They returned to Mattson late Friday night and entered in the rural school tournament which was held at Rule Friday and Saturday. The junior boys and girls and senior girls also entered in this tournament. All the teams played very exciting games and we returned home Saturday a very tired bunch.

The Senior boys and girls and junior boys are looking forward to playing ball at Sunset Friday night.

SOUTH WARD PLAY WILL BE STAGED AT TEXAS THEATRE FRIDAY, 18TH

Owing to the fact that the Rita's stage is not wide enough to stage the play, "The Vallant," the South Ward school will produce this play Dec. 18th after the Texas has shown a picture and Sebo Britton and group have put on a vaudeville skit. The Red Shirts will play during intermissions.

This program will be given at two matinees, the first beginning at 11 o'clock and the second at 2:45 and the last show at seven o'clock at night.

The percent of the proceeds that will go to the South Ward school will be placed in a fund to start the building of sidewalks from the South Ward school to the Haskell square. This is a worthy project and the school has made arrangements to continue some form of entertainment after Christmas until the walks are a reality, for it is safeguarding the lives of the children. But next Friday the public will be given three shows in one. Prices for the matinees are, school children in the grades 5c; high school students and adults 15c in the afternoon only.

The night show will be the regular theatre prices.

Development of Farm Machinery Will Be Shown

McNeill & Smith, local implement dealers, will hold an all day open house in their store, and an afternoon program of entertainment and educational features, on Monday December 14 in the Rita Theatre to commemorate the John Deere Centennial.

"The Blacksmith's Gift", a historic epic of American agriculture 100 years ago, will be one of the outstanding features of the afternoon program.

This remarkable picture is an all-Hollywood production, featuring Monte Blue and Fuzzy Knight, in a dramatic story of the early settlement of the West. It relates the story of a grave problem—and tells how one man met that difficulty with a solution which changed the course of American history.

In addition to this feature production, three other pictures will be shown, including "From the Anvil", a sequel to "The Blacksmith's Gift", "Her Husband's Choice", and a short news reel showing new developments in agricultural methods.

Besides the entertainment features, the program of the day will include talks and demonstrations which will, in effect, be a short course in modern farming and McNeill & Smith extend a cordial invitation to every farmer in this area to be present for a day of pleasure and profit.

"We especially want every farmer boy who is interested in becoming a better farmer to be present." Mr. Smith said. "Much of the program will be of special interest to young people on the farm."

Crop Payment—

Purpose of the applications now being signed is to check the extent of compliance, upon which payments will be made.

These payments represent the guarantee made at the beginning of the year, when the compliance program was placed before the farmers, but may not represent the total payment to farmers, it is pointed out. If 80 per cent of the farmers of the nation have not complied with the soil conservation program, and do not make application for payment, an additional payment will be made at a later date to those farmers who have complied, as determined by

Theis' Store In This City Will Close Jan. 1st

Theis' Store, one of the leading dry goods establishments in Haskell, will close their doors January 1st, and the remaining stock will be moved to Menard, Texas, according to Anton Theis, proprietor. A close-out sale is now in progress at the store, and will continue for the remainder of December.

The store was opened in Haskell September 24, 1932, Mr. Theis coming here from Big Lake, Texas, where he was associated in business with his father.

During his four years in Haskell, Mr. Theis has been actively identified with church and civic affairs in the upbuilding of Haskell, and Mrs. Theis has likewise been an active worker in church and kindred organizations.

Mr. Theis is now serving his second year as a member of the City Council.

Weinert

(Last Week's Letter) Well, here we are again from the city of Weinert with the same cold spells as ever.

The Seventh Grade had a wonderful Thanksgiving play at the grade school building Tuesday afternoon. A large crowd attended and enjoyed the play.

The second edition of the Weinert high school paper, "The Echo" was issued Wednesday, Nov. 25. The editorial staff is: Editor, Anna Bell Hawes; Assistant Editor, Ruby Lee Williams; Sport Editor, Edward Harrah.

This is a very interesting as well as an amusing paper of which the high school is proud. It has the latest news, styles and gossip. The pupils and faculty and every home should have one. "Boost for it."

Weinert is really proud of their new gym as the neighboring schools and towns can meet and enjoy a good game most any old time. In the Mattson school vs. Weinert last Friday night, the gym was filled to see one of the most interesting games of the season. Mattson girls lost to Weinert girls 48-3 and Mattson boys lost to Weinert 25 to 22. The boys team kept scoring even until the last half quarter, when Weinert out classed them and won the victory.

Hurrah for the Weinert basketball team.

Grandad York is still no better at this writing. Mrs. J. N. Coet from Fletcher, Okla., spent last week-end with her brother, Mr. Will York.

Mrs. Homer Beach and two sons from Seymour, Texas are spending a few days with her dad, Mr. Will York, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Medley and boys returned home from Dallas last week, bringing Jimmy Lee home from the Baylor hospital where he was getting his arm fixed up.

Rev. Walter Copeland filled his regular appointment at the Baptist church Sunday. He will also preach here Sunday November 29, his fifth Sunday services. Everybody come.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ford spent Sunday and Monday at Dallas attending the Centennial.

Mr. Johnny Gilliland is on the sick list at this writing. We hope she soon recovers.

We are still having Sunday school each Sunday, but would surely appreciate a larger crowd. Now just try this and see if you don't feel better next week.
