Final Plans for Rule Armistice Celebration Completed This Week

Outstanding Program Will Be Feature of 3-Day Celebration

Final plans for the annual three-day Armistice Celebration in Rule Nov. 10-12 were drafted at a meeting recently of the central committee that will direct the various phases of the celebration, which has gained outstanding recognition over West Texas since the program was inaugurated several years ago. The program this year will begin Sunday Nov. 10 and continue through Tuesday, November 12, biggest day of the event, however, is expected on Armistice Day, November 11th, when War veterans and their families and all Americans join in a mass observance of the end of the World War. Feature of the Rule celebration on this day will be a mammoth fireworks display in the High school stadium Monday evening. Other Monday attractions will be the Morning Parade, a Pet Parade with prizes for outstanding entries, an Old Fiddlers Contest and Square Dance. Carnival attractions and midway shows will be provided by the Texas Longhorn Carnival, which is playing a week's engagement in Rule Nov. 11-16. The three-day Armistice celebration will also be a homecoming for all ex-service men of Haskell county, and they will be honored guests at a dinner at the noon hour on Armistice Day, Nov. 11.

ELECTION VERDICT OF COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD IS UPHELD
Board Has Ruled Grouping of Districts Was Not Authorized
In a ruling this week District Judge Dennis P. Ratliff upheld the action of the Haskell County Board of School Trustees in denying an order grouping five common school districts with the Sargent Independent School District. After canvassing returns of an election held in the six school districts several months ago, the County Board ruled that the proposed grouping had failed to receive a majority vote in each of the six districts to authorize the grouping. Contesting the action of the County Board, school trustees of the Sargent district filed a plea for writ of mandamus, styled R. O. Gibson et al vs. the County Board of Trustees, seeking to have the original order set aside and authorizing the grouping. Hearing of the case was had before Judge Ratliff last week, and at the conclusion of the hearing he announced the ruling which will be issued this week.

DISASTER SERVICE PROGRAM FOR BOY SCOUTS ENDORSED

All Troops in County Will Organize Facilities For Relief

The National Mobilization Plan for the Boy Scouts of America was wholeheartedly adopted by Haskell district Scouters at a meeting Monday night in the Weinert school building. With the National Guard units leaving in November there is a grave need in each community for some organized group to render assistance in case of a tornado, hurricane, flood or other disaster. Local Boy Scout units will be organized so that they can assist the American Red Cross should such an event occur. Each troop will specialize in some field of service. Those chosen are: Troop 48—Paint Creek, will prepare to set up a field kitchen to feed workers and refugees. Troop 34—Haskell, will inventory all possible sources of tents, tarpaulins, wagon sheets, vacant bedrooms, etc., that might house persons suffering from a disaster. Troop 56—Haskell, will specialize in communications, training Scouts in signaling, telegraphy and other means of communication. Troop 52—Weinert, will list all available transportation facilities that can be used in an emergency. Troop 35—Haskell will equip themselves with elaborate first aid equipment and will list doctors, nurses, hospitals, etc. that can be contacted on short notice. Each troop will not collect all of this material but will take an inventory and make a complete duplicate list, one copy to be retained by the troop and the other to be collected by the mobilization officer in November at a date to be announced later. Every Haskell county troop should meet with all committee men and every leader and scout present to make arrangements for the mobilization and to accept and pass on a program of objectives to be met by Jan. 1, 1941. All Scoutmasters should return these mobilization blanks to Mr. Alfred Pierson as soon as completed. Following mobilization each troop will have roll call and an inventory of all equipment, badges, uniforms and other needed materials will be made.

Dance Will Be Given Saturday at Herman Hall

With a new orchestra booked for the event, a dance will be given at the Sons of Herman Hall east of Haskell Saturday evening, Nov. 2. A new dance band, "The Old Glory Playmates" will furnish music for the dance, which begins at 8 p. m. Sponsors announce that the dances will be held regularly on the first and third Saturday night in each month during the coming winter, and the public is invited to attend all of the affairs.

KIRKPATRICK CASE IS CONTINUED TO JANUARY TERM

Absence of Witness Is The Basis for Granting Continuance

Trial of the case of The State vs. J. D. Kirkpatrick, charged with assault and intent to murder in a Grand Jury indictment in connection with a shooting affray on the night of August 24, and which was set down for hearing Monday, final week of the current 39th district court term, was continued until the January term of court on motion of defense attorneys, and Petit Jurors summoned for the week were dismissed Monday at noon. Plea for continuance was based on the absence of a material defense witness, Buddie Cousins of this city, who was out of town and could not be reached with a court summons to appear on the trial date. More than sixty witnesses had been summoned to testify in the case, a court official said. In granting the continuance, trial was re-set for January 20, 1941, next session of 39th district court.

Basis of the Grand Jury indictment against Kirkpatrick, a veteran West Texas and New Mexico peace officer, was the outcome of a shooting on the evening of August 24 when Clarence Lewellen, young Haskell laborer, was wounded by pistol shots allegedly fired by Kirkpatrick after the two men had talked briefly on a crowded downtown street on the night of the second primary election. Kirkpatrick at the time held a commission as a deputy Constable.

Local Store Gets Large Consignment of Work Clothes

A shipment of Wichita Brand work clothes, consisting of more than 350 dozen items—or 4,200 separate articles of clothing—was received this week by Perkins-Timberlake Company of this city, and Guy Collins, store manager, believes this is the largest consignment ever bought by a Haskell store in a single order. Wholesale cost of the order was more than $3,000, he declared. Commenting on this large shipment of work clothes, Mr. Collins said the purchase was made before the advance in wholesale prices to protect customers of the store by maintaining retail prices at past levels. "The policy of Perkins-Timberlake Company has always been to buy in large quantities in advance of rising markets," Mr. Collins said, "and this policy enables our store to pass these savings on to our customers." Wichita brand work clothes has been a featured line of the store for many years.

Mustangs Take Opener 25 to 6 From Benjamin

The Mattson Mustangs won their first conference tilt on Thursday, October 24, from the Benjamin team on the Munday field by a score of 25 to 6. Mattson got off to a slow start and were able to cross the Knox County team's goal line once during the first half, but during the second half were able to run over three additional touchdowns and make one conversion to bring the score up to 25 points. Benjamin made its lone marker late in the fourth quarter. The officials were Cook and Wilson from Knox City. Mrs. W. A. Kimbrough, Misses Mary Couch, Eva Belle Pippen and Ethel Irby attended the A&M-Baylor University football game in Waco Saturday. R. C. Couch accompanied them to Mineral Wells for the week end.

Order Numbers for All Registrants Drawn In National Draft Lottery

Write-In Candidate

W. N. (Bill) Corry of Lamar county has been drafted by the Roosevelt Democrats of Texas to oppose Wilkie-boosting J. E. McDonald for Commissioner of Agriculture.

W. N. Corry Is Drafted Against J. E. McDonald

Drafted by a statewide mass meeting of Texas democrats to run as a "Roosevelt democrat" write-in candidate to oppose the reelection of Agriculture Commissioner J. E. McDonald, who despite his nomination as a democrat, last week endorsed the candidacy of Wendell Wilkie, W. N. (Bill) Corry of Tarrant county, is putting on a whirlwind campaign. He has the endorsement of Texas county judges and leading farm and ranch organizations and democratic leaders throughout the state. The Waco meeting in a resolution declared McDonald had forfeited any right to democratic support and named Corry as the "instrument of Texas democracy to remove 'Wilkie-erat' from Texas politics. Corry was runner-up against McDonald in the July primary and refused to be a candidate until drafted by the Waco meeting.

Cook Barber Shop Will Be Moved To North Side Square

Roy and Floyd Cook, proprietors of the Cook Bros. barber shop announced Thursday that the shop would be moved this week-end to the Eastland building on the north side of the square formerly occupied by the Haskell bakery. The barber shop has been located in the Oates building in the rear of Oates Drug Store for several years, and Messrs. Cook believe the new location on the square will be more convenient for the patrons. They expect to complete moving of all equipment and fixtures in time to open for business as usual on Monday morning. Wayne Dunn and Jack Morris were in San Angelo this week.

Eight Schools In County Are Now Operating Lunch Room Projects

Eight schools are now serving hot lunches in Haskell County. These schools are Haskell, Mattson, Sayles, Rule, Rochester, New Mid, O'Brien, and Hutto. More than 500 children are served daily. Haskell served lunches to 55 children first on October 9. On Thursday 132 children were served besides the 6 teachers and 10 workers. Haskell's lunch room is located first door east of Farmers and Merchants Bank. One hundred thirty children can be seated at one time. Mrs. Kate Perdue, the business manager reports that over one hundred dollars has been paid in for lunches for the eleven days that lunches have been served. Rochester opened on September 23 and served 153 lunches that day. Now they are serving from 225 to 250 daily. New Mid, Sayles and Hutto, all two teacher schools, opened with 100 percent of the children eating. At present the enrollment in the above schools is from 18

L. L. Phemister, Haskell Farmer, Draws Order No. 1

In the national draft lottery held in Washington Tuesday, the first number drawn—No. 158—was the serial number of L. L. Phemister, 23-year-old Haskell farmer, who becomes this county's first potential draftee under the Selective Service Act. Second number drawn, 192, was that of B. L. Hunt, 28, Rule farmer; and the third number 105 was the serial number of T. M. Campbell, 27-year-old Weinert gin employee. Successive order numbers for all other registrants in Haskell county, as determined in the national lottery, will fix the order in which men will be subject to call for military training. First, however, questionnaires will be sent to registrants in order in which their serial numbers were drawn and from these questionnaires the local Draft Board will classify all registrants. Mailing of questionnaires, at the rate of not more than fifty a day, will be started after the local Draft Board receives a "Master List" or order numbers for Haskell county registrants. This list had not been received Thursday morning members of the Board said. The first 100 Haskell county registrants, listed in the order drawn in the national lottery are listed below, and remaining order numbers for all registrants will appear in subsequent issues.

Walton's Studio In This City To Close This Week

Walton's Studio, which has been operated in this city by O. R. Walton for a number of years, will close this week and Mr. Walton will go to Breckenridge to take over a large studio formerly operated in that city by his brother, who is moving to Brownwood. Closing of the Haskell studio was made imperative in order to continue operation of the larger establishment in Breckenridge, Mr. Walton said. In expressing regret in leaving Haskell, Mr. Walton also expressed his appreciation for the patronage accorded the local studio since its establishment here many years ago. The studio will remain open during the balance of this week, patrons were advised.

GRAND JURY MAKES FINAL REPORT FOR TERM LAST FRIDAY

Felony Bill Charges Rule Man With Statutory Offense

In their final one-day session for the current court term, Grand Jurors impanelled for the September court term in Haskell county met Friday, and in making their final report before adjournment reported one felony indictment in which a Rule farmer was charged with a statutory offense Friday's true bill was the eleventh felony indictment voted by the body. In their report made to District Judge Dennis P. Ratliff, the Grand Jurors reported the body had been in session for six days during the current court term, and had returned 11 felony indictments after questioning and examining 171 witnesses. Grand Jurors made one recommendation—that new chairs be provided in the Grand Jury room.

The single indictment returned Friday resulted from Grand Jury investigation of a complaint on a statutory offense and resulted in the indictment of Wilton G. Kinman, 20-year-old laborer of Rule, who was charged with assault and intent to commit rape. Complaining witness was a 29-year-old married woman and the mother of three children. The attack and attempted assault occurred on Oct. 21 while the plaintiff and defendant were picking bolls court officials said. Failure of a witness subpoenaed to appear before the Haskell county Grand Jury resulted in the assessment of a fine of $100 and decree for attachment against Garland Hancock of Hondo, Medina county, Texas. The witness had been properly summoned but did not appear, court officials declared in issuing warrant for his attachment and presentation in the Haskell court.

Youth Gathers 4800 Pounds Boll Cotton In Five Day Period

Gathering the equivalent of almost two and one-half bales of boll cotton in five and one-half days was the feat accomplished recently by Hazel Sanders, 19-year-old son of C. R. Sanders of the Curry Chapel community. The youth pulled 4,800 pounds of bolls in a little more than five days, to set what is believed a record for one of his age. His best record for a single day was 1,082 pounds. Mrs. Kathryn Blauvelt of Olympia, Washington and Mrs. J. E. McMurrey of Aledo, Texas are visiting this week in the home of their sister, Mr. and Mrs. N. I. McCollum.

Business Holidays Will Be Observed Nov. 11th and 28th

Haskell stores and business establishments will observe Thanksgiving Day on the traditional fourth Thursday in November—the 28th—it was announced yesterday following a canvas made by the Chamber of Commerce to determine opinion of a majority of the businessmen. Local stores will be closed for the day and also will observe a holiday on Armistice Day, November 11th. This is in accordance with a calendar of business holidays which has been observed by Haskell merchants in previous years. The Haskell public schools will also observe the November 28th Thanksgiving date and will likewise observe a holiday on Armistice Day. Supt. C. B. Breedlove said Thursday. All offices in the courthouse will also be closed on both Armistice Day and November 28th. County Judge J. C. Davis, Jr., announced. No special programs for the two holidays has been arranged to date. On Armistice Day, however, Haskell people are expected to join with the neighboring city of Rule in staging the annual Armistice Day program in that city.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR T. F. TUCKER HELD HERE MONDAY

T. F. Tucker, retired railroad man of Wichita Falls and member of an early-day Haskell family, died at his home in Wichita Falls Sunday morning at 3:50 o'clock. Mr. Tucker, 59, was retired by illness about a year ago from long service with the Fort Worth & Denver City railway. He had been a resident of Wichita Falls 22 years. Mr. Tucker was the son of Mike Tucker, one of the first settlers here in the early 80's, and who will be remembered by many old-timers. Funeral services for Mr. Tucker were conducted Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the home of a cousin, Miss Louise Brooks in this city. Dr. O. L. Shelton, pastor of the First Christian Church in Wichita Falls, officiated and the Hines mortuary of Wichita Falls had charge of funeral arrangements, assisted by Holden funeral home of this city. Pallbearers were George W. Lawler, Charles H. Smoot, L. P. Wilson, C. D. Hastings, George Perkins and William Delaney, all of Wichita Falls. Mr. Tucker was a member of Wichita Falls lodge No. 635, A. F. & A. M.; Wichita Falls chapter 202; Wichita Falls council 140; Wichita Falls Commandery 59, Knights Templar; Maskat Shrine temple and its Arabic patrol; and Scottish Rite Dallas Consistory No. 2. Masonic burial rites were conducted at the grave by Charles H. Smoot. Survivors are his wife, of Wichita Falls; and six cousins, Miss Brooks, Mrs. Henry Atkinson and Mrs. Alvah Crandall of Haskell, Mrs. Addie Happle of Big Spring; Mrs. Millie Jones of Peecos; and Mrs. Maggie Cox of San Diego, Calif.

Department Heads C.W.T. Fair Will Be Guests At Dinner

Department superintendents of the 1940 Central West Texas Fair and their assistants will be guests of the Fair Association at a dinner Monday evening, Nov. 4th in the Tonkawa Coffee Shop. Walter Murchison, president and Homer Neal, secretary, will be the only officials of the Association in attendance. Principal purpose of the dinner is to afford the department heads an opportunity to give informal reports on the various departments, suggest changes and additions to improve the showing and handling of exhibits and entries at subsequent expositions. Principal credit for the substantial success of the recent 1940 CWT Fair was attributed to the work of department heads and their assistants by Fair Association directors at a meeting this week when they agreed unanimously for staging the affair Monday evening. Following Monday evening's affair, recommendations and plans suggested by the department heads will be presented to directors of the Fair Association at a breakfast to be held in the near future, when plans for the 1941 Fair will be tentatively outlined.

County Ginning Total at 18,033 Bales Oct. 18th

A total of 18,033 bales of cotton had been ginned in Haskell county prior to Oct. 18, according to the report of W. P. Trice, special agent for the department of commerce. The report was made public Monday. Ginning totals from the 1940 crop show a decided increase over the figures for 1939, when 11,492 bales had been ginned prior to Oct. 18, Mr. Trice reported.

Both Haskell banks will observe a legal holiday on Tuesday, Nov. 5th, date of the General Election, and the institutions will be closed for the entire day. Farmers and businessmen are asked to keep the closing date in mind to avoid any inconvenience in business transactions. Sgt. Mattson, O'Brien Six-Man Teams In Game Slated Today

The Mattson Mustangs, strong contender for District 19 six-man football honors, entertains the O'Brien team on the Mattson field Friday afternoon, November 1st. This should be one of the best games to be played this year, as O'Brien is always strong competition in anybody's athletic affairs. The dope favors the Mustangs, but could be upset by the fact that O'Brien is playing its first football this season and is reputed to be one of the fastest improving squads in the entire conference. The game will be called at 2:30.

Indians Scrimmage With Bobcats

Several times lately our football team has scrimmaged with Rule, first on Indian field, and then at Rule. Being fellow-sufferers in losing most of the conference tilts they have engaged in, they are both trying to strengthen their teams so as to make both teams more accustomed to other plays. The Indians appreciate the Bobcats' neighborliness and help, and hope to help them in turn.

Band Elects Officers

The band met on Monday to elect its officers. The following were elected:

President—Roy Pittman.
 Vice-President—Wayne Dunn.
 Secretary and Treasurer—Billie Jo Ivey.
 Reporter—Jack Morris.
 Business was called before the house and then the meeting was adjourned.

Fridays, Mondays Moving Days

Since we are obliged to use Sunday School classrooms for daily classes, a certain amount of moving must be done each week-end. To make the necessary changes, the school has two high school N. Y. A. boys to adjust the classrooms every Friday afternoon and leave them in order for Sunday School. Take, for instance, the typing room. There are twenty typewriters that must be moved and locked up over the week-end, and the tables upon which the typewriters rest are all stacked in a corner of the room. Each of these tables has a specific place in the classroom, and each typewriter has its respective place on the tables. And, incidentally, each typing student occupies one certain permanent seat. So you can see that perfect order is maintained in this way. With all typing equipment moved it then is necessary to move the piano in and restore the arrangement of the Sunday School department.

Naturally, these rooms must be again prepared for school, so on Monday morning these boys do it all over again, only in reverse order; meaning, of course, that everything they moved the previous Friday has to be returned to its former place. The reader will notice that this describes one particular classroom. To some extent, every Sunday School room which is used by the school has to be re-arranged in similar formality.

Aggies To Elect Sweetheart

The Aggies are using a new method of selecting their sweetheart. Each class has selected a girl as a representative. The first year class chose Billie Jack Spear, the second year class, Betty Jo Hester, and the third year class, Frances Chapman.

In the auditorium is a box bearing each girl's name. The students and members of the faculty are asked to place any amount of money on the girl they want for a sweetheart, each penny counting one vote. The votes will be counted Friday at eleven o'clock and the girl having the most votes will be presented before the student body in the assembly period. One remarkable feature of this contest is that all the girls chosen by the different Aggie classes are classified as Juniors.

Band Wants More Members

The members of the school band are at work trying to get more members. Last year there were forty-five in the band, but this year the number has decreased to about twenty-seven.

The band was very unfortunate in the loss of their uniforms last summer. This was one of the reasons that the Haskell High School band did not take part in the parade this year. Their failure to march in the parade this year is the first in a great many years.

The members of the band have hopes of making a better band this year than they've ever had in spite of the hard knocks.

Senior Boys Out-number Girls

An unusual feature of the Senior class of 1940-41 is that there are more boys than girls in the class. With twenty-seven boys and twenty-four girls, there is an enrollment of fifty-one members.

Of the fifty-one members, one boy, Carl Lane, will finish his required number of credits at mid-term.

There are only four boys of the Senior class that are on the football squad. They are Otis Henshaw, Jack Daniels, Henry Post and Carl Lane. Due to the fact that an unusually large number of the senior boys work after school it is impossible for them to be on the squad.

Another unusual feature of the class of 1940-41 is that the class membership includes a brother and sister who are twins. This is the first time in many years, if ever, that brother-and-sister twins have been seniors together in Haskell High School. They are Henry and Martha Post.

The class also includes a brother and sister who are not twins, Joe and Alta Fae Larned and the Brock brothers, Lonnie and Ventriss.

Can We Take Defeat?

Some of the people of Haskell back our football games very well as long as we are winning, but when we start losing they stop supporting our team. While we are winning they always say "we" are winning, but when we are losing, they say "you" are losing. They don't like to say "we" are losing. We are proud of our student body, because even though we have lost four out of six of the games we have played, they cheer the team as much as when we won the district championship.

Progress Reported For "B" Team

The "B" football team scrimmaged with the Rule "B" team Saturday morning. They had already played a game with Paint Creek and Rule. Mr. Dean reports that the team is progressing nicely and that there is a good deal of promising material in it for future teams. He is coach of the "B" team and assistant coach of the high school team.

Mr. Dean graduated from Anson High School and then went to Howard Payne in Brownwood, when he was the all-state quarterback in the original championship team. In his sophomore and junior year in Howard Payne, he was the president of his class. The students selected him as president of the student body in his senior year.

Coming here from Putman, where he taught two years, Mr. Dean is beginning his second year here.

During the summer he took a correspondence course from Howard Payne.

Pick-Ups

The Parent Teachers Association and the school have obtained for the benefit of the students a sixteen mm. projector and several films.

There are six men teachers and all of them with the exception of Mr. Moore had to register for military training.

Except Mr. McCollum all the men teachers of Haskell High School are married.

"Snort" Patterson has twenty-four quarters to his credit. This means he has played every quarter of every game.

J. M. Gay, the H. H. S. magnate won $24 in premiums at the fair. Beverly King, local artist, won first place on a picture in the water color division at the fair.

Bobbie Morris, a High School Junior who is moving to Odessa, will be taking the better part of one of Haskell's quarterbacks—his heart. She is a member of the Warwhoop staff and they greatly regret her leaving.

Carrol Bledsoe, a new member of the Warwhoop staff has been added to report on the F. F. A.'s activities.

The Haskell High School has recently been presented with a large Webster's dictionary. In addition to the large one there is a small one for every class room. The school is very proud of these and look forward to placing them in the new school building.

U. S. Is Haven for These Students

No more eager newspaper readers can be found on the Texas State College for Women campus than these six students from foreign countries who find the daily papers a much better medium for keeping up with war-torn homelands than the slow and censored mails.

Silvia Marquez, looking on from the rear, is from Puerto Rico, wants to be a court interpreter. Conchita Genoves fled Valencia, Spain, in January 1939 with her mother and brothers while her father was still a political prisoner.

Sonja Aiken, front row left, hasn't been home to Venezuela since the summer of 1939. Claude Hegar of Brussels, Belgium, came to Connecticut to spend a holiday, thinks it safer to stay here. Maria Luisa Garzon's parents are still in Madrid, Spain; letters from them are always censored. Marthe Thomas, French girl from Algiers, had her education in French and German universities interrupted by war. All are glad to be in the United States.

State Representative Gives Views On the Four Proposed Amendments

State Representative Courtney Hunt of this city in the following article gives his views on the four Constitutional Amendments to be voted on in the general election Tuesday, Nov. 5th. In the opinion of the Haskell legislator, three of the proposed amendments are deserving of support, but he warns against HJR No. 45, the so-called "Red River county bill" which if adopted would exempt a single county from provisions of the Constitution relating to definite limits of tax rates.

Mr. Hunt's views on the four proposed amendments follow:

"There will be four Constitutional Amendments to be voted on in the general election, November 5. How will you vote? Have you studied these amendments? The average voters gives little, if any, thought to Constitutional Amendments before voting. Some vote for them because the Legislature submits them, others are prone to vote against all Amendments, thereby giving the proponents of such amendments an opportunity with an organized unit vote, to put over many amendments that should never be voted.

 "This Amendment if carried will empower the Legislature to pass laws providing for appeal direct to the Supreme Court of this state from an order of any trial court granting or denying an interlocutory or permanent injunction on the grounds of Constitutionality or unconstitutionality of any statute of this state, or the validity or invalidity of any administrative order issued by any state agency under any statute of this state.

"I recommend that you vote for this amendment, because of the saving in time and expense of litigants; and it will have a tendency to put to an end the practice of powerful corporations in keeping important cases on appeal indefinitely.

 "This amendment in brief is to empower the Secretary of State to make appointments of Notaries Public of each County, while the Legislature is in recess.

"While the above amendment is not important, I would recommend that you vote for it as it would permit people wishing to qualify as Notary Publics, to be able to qualify at any time, whereas, now they can qualify only when the Legislature is in session.

H. J. R. No. 8
 "This amendment applies only to duration of appointive offices in municipalities, which is now governed by Constitution. This amendment may not seem important, but I recommend that you vote for it, because it will enable such offices to be filled on the merit system of ability, rather than political pull.

H. J. R. No. 45
 "DO NOT IGNORE THE DANGEROUS SIGNAL. You will notice on your ballot this amendment applies to Red River County only, and on first thought you might think we should help Red River County refund their bonded and warrant indebtedness, but if you will just stop and think you can see great danger in the adoption of this amendment; it would encourage other County officials of Texas to go to Austin button-holing the Legislature to submit a Constitutional amendment that they might also have their Constitutional limit removed, and put more taxes on the taxpayer of their County. It will be a sad day for Texas if this amendment should be adopted. It will pave the way for counties, cities, and districts to have the taxpayer pay for extravagance of former years. The time has come when the State, counties and cities should be forced to operate on a strict budget, so the taxpayer will know how their officials are spending their money.

 "Remember if a person owns a dog, old automobile, hog or a watch and renders it for taxes he can vote in a bond election, even though he seldom pays any taxes. The adoption of this amendment would set a dangerous precedent and it should be defeated.
 "The Constitution is to protect the public against unscrupulous law makers and public officials. It can be changed only by a vote of the people; each amendment should be studied thoroughly by the voter, before voting for or against any amendment. I have given you the above after studying each amendment.
 "Respectfully,
 COURTNEY HUNT"

Piano and accordion selections were rendered by Miss Barbara Leon of Rule and Mrs. Anita Herren. Hot spiced tea and cookies were served as refreshments.

All those present went to the theatre for a picturesque film shown through the courtesy of the Pan American Union. The Grace Line and the local theatre manager. WOMEN RALLY TO NATION'S DEFENSE IN RED CROSS VOLUNTEER SERVICES

Training Courses Fit Them for Duties Vital in Present Emergency

WITH the call to the colors of more than a million of the nation's young men, American women everywhere ask how they can volunteer their services to aid in the emergency. What part can women and girls play in national defense?

The American Red Cross, through its 3,700 chapters and their branches, provides the answer. More than a half million women already have enrolled to give their time in Red Cross volunteer services, according to Mrs. Dwight F. Davis of Washington, D. C., Chairman of Red Cross Volunteer Special Services. Through sewing and knitting a million garments for Europe's war victims, and making millions of surgical dressings for war wounded and sick, they have gained efficiency and experience which can be readily diverted to the work for home defenses should the need arise, Mrs. Davis said.

In order to prepare most efficiently for any emergency which may come, the Red Cross is extending its training courses through its chapters. Women motorists are trained for the Red Cross Motor Corps; girls who wish to volunteer for office work, train for the Staff Assistance Corps; other thousands join the Canteen Corps; women and girls who wish to learn to protect the health of their families, take Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick Courses; those who wish to learn how to aid the victim of an accident, enroll in the First Aid classes.

The Gray Lady Corps is composed of volunteers who require more specialized training and this is available only in those chapters near military hospitals. The Gray Ladies are the visitors in military and civilian hospitals giving those aids and comforts to sustain the morale of the sick. Nurse's Aides are trained to assist doctors and expert registered nurses in clinics and hospitals and this training is limited at present to regions where there are many hospitals.

The Red Cross "preparedness for humanity" program is supported by the memberships of the American public and every patriotic man and woman is urged to join his local Red Cross Chapter during the Roll Call, November 11 to 30.

Five Haskell County Girls Are Students At TSCW

DENTON—Five Haskell County girls are enrolled at Texas State College for Women. With an approximate enrollment of 2500, TSCW retains its position as the largest residential woman's college in the United States having students from 215 Texas counties, 39 states and 7 foreign countries.

Haskell County girls include four Haskell girls who are Misses Helen Mabel Baldwin, Jean Conner, Midge Ragan Leon, and E. Marvina Post. Miss Mildred Lu. Hills of Rule is also a student at the college.

The growth of TSCW in the short span of thirty-seven years to a place of prominence among the nation's colleges is attributed by authorities to the ability of the college to anticipate the needs of women in the world of today and to prepare them to best meet these needs. Unusual in its effective combination of practical and liberal arts courses, TSCW has during the past five years sent an average of 507 young women graduate each year into important positions throughout the nation and to many foreign countries.

Because of the extremely acute condition of international affairs, President L. H. Hubbard has announced that special emphasis is being placed this year on courses that will prepare young women to assume positions of responsibility in the event of a national emergency.

CHURCH OF CHRIST
J. G. Malphurs, Minister

It is a mistake for the servants of God to think of the book of Revelation as that part of the Bible which is unnecessary. It is that part of God's word given especially to the saints to sustain their faith during distressful times of the church's history from the days of the Apostle John to coming of Christ. Without its messages, even though some of them is hard of interpretation, faith in an all-wise God would have weakened long ago. Only two other books of the Bible have more Beatitudes, being third to Matthew and Luke. No book in the Bible has so many soul-inspiring hymns based on its promises. In it is found abundant proof to the saints that the Lord will never forsake the righteous in distressful times, nor will the gates of hell prevail against the church.

We are having a splendid interest in studying Revelations Wednesday nights, but we select some special theme for Sunday nights. Next Sunday night at 7:30 our subject will be: "The Voice Eagle", crying out the three woes. (Rev. 8:13).

At the morning hour we shall begin a series of sermons on the twelfth chapter of Romans. Come and worship God with us.

HOME ECONOMICS

The members of the Home Economics classes prepared an exhibit for the Haskell Fair. We are very proud to say that it won first place. A prize of $7.50 was given.

All officers of the home economics classes are expecting to go to Vernon Saturday November 2 to attend the area 2 meeting. We are hoping it will be possible for the officers to attend this meeting.

FFA PLANS A MONTH'S ACTIVITIES

We were glad when the Fair was over, for we have planned a full month's activities. First we plan to have a father and son banquet, the first one we have ever tried and next we will entertain the future homemakers with a pig roast. In the midst of it all we are going to elect the sweetheart of the F. F. A. But we can't forget the leadership contest and the one act demonstration to be held at Haskell very soon. Last, but not least we must be preparing for the judging contest to be held at Stephenville.

WEINERT FUTURE FARMERS 'TOOK' THE FAIR

October 19th the Weinert Future Farmers put the finishing touch to their livestock and field crop exhibits and stepped back to let the onlookers inspect them.

There were nine boys who exhibited livestock and field crop projects. They were: Billy Joe Cooley, Clifford Thomas, Roderick Duff, J. D. Zahn, J. R. Merchant, Philip Cadenhead, Jim Perrin, Boyd Yandell, Burnard Cooley.

The Freshman class won the P. T. A. membership contest which closed October 4th. Approximately twenty-five parents and patrons joined the P. T. A. for the freshmen. The class will be awarded a party at the expense of the P. T. A. The party will probably be staged some time next week.

CURRENT CAMPUS COMMENT

The bootshops must have been doing a thriving business from the number of new boots that are being worn. One does not have to see them to know they are here. We wonder if there is anything in some of our books on personal behavior that boot-wearers should read.

We didn't know that a course in Civil Service was being offered or had been offered in the grammar grades, but we have noticed a student from that department assuming the role of mail carrier.

The new library books mean a greater variety of outside reading English students. Go to the library and check out a good book; that beats having to move to a front seat because of whispering in the study hall.

Elections—Then What?

There have been few elections that meant so much to the American people as that of Nov. 5, 1940, will mean.

The election of 1860 comes close, perhaps. That was the year the nation elected a Republican, Lincoln to lead them in a civil war that was to preserve the nation. Maybe the election of 1916 can compare—when Wilson, a Democrat, was re-elected, as the nation faced the probability of a war, in which it became involved a few months later.

Perhaps it is the egotism of each incumbent generation that regards the events of every current epoch as the important the world has ever known—each dilemma as the most critical civilization has ever faced. If such presumptions are false in a cosmic sense, they are very true in a practical way. When any powerful nation faces a choice in shaping its destiny, the welfare of posterity may depend on that selection.

There is a feeling among many persons that the present pre-election period is a truce in American foreign policy, precariously maintained by both sides. That after the ballots are counted and the winner certified, America's real course of action in the world scene will begin.

There is a suspicion that ultimately America will become involved in the war, no matter which side may triumph at the polls. Not because either party will deliberately seek such involvement but rather because the force of events is driving this country more deeply into a position which may become untenable without resort to arms.

Whether or not we enter that war depends not so much on the citizens of the United States or their government as it does on the conduct of the other nations already involved. If the cause are beyond our control, we can have no hand in shaping the effect.

War for America need not yet be considered a fait accompli. We must play our cards right way. There can be no mistakes, no fumbling.

That is the issue on election day. It would be a simple matter to plunge this nation into war after

Nov. 5. It will require the most delicate diplomacy, the greatest skill, the keenest desire for nonintervention to keep us out of it with no loss of prestige and surrender of rights.

The voters will have the right to choose which of the two candidates they feel will be more likely to save American democracy—and American peace.

Not Only The Young Men Are Drafted

The spectacle of 16,500,000 young men registering their names for national service is a stupendous sight.

We ought to think about it—those of us who register, and those who are not yet called.

What does it mean—this overpowering call upon the strength and abilities of young men?

To think rightly about it we have to go 'way back to what government means. Government (among free men) is a machinery for doing together what men cannot do for themselves. In the early days of civilization cannot do for themselves. In the early days of civilization, there was no government in the modern sense. A family, a tribe, gathered together to help one another live, and accepted the leadership of a chief. As human life became more complicated, more complicated forms of government grew up to meet the need of more people to live together, protect each other, help one another.

Today the world is organized on such a scale that only great groups can successfully live together. We call them nations. What is a nation? A nation is a large group of people bound together by geographical nearness, by common customs, language, interdependence in getting their livings. To help the group to make rules for living together, to help it to defend itself against outside interference, we establish governments. Free people do it of their own free will.

All benefit by the rules established. The complex individual life of today would be impossible without order and rules. Government establishes the one and enforces the other. But since all benefit from this order, all must share its burdens.

Today one of the great services that government renders to its people is to provide means to defend themselves jointly against any who would take away their rights.

By the free choice of our own representatives, we have decided that all must share this burden. So our young men set down their names and await the call for whatever service the people have decided to require of them.

It is as simple as that. But let no older man, and no woman forget that, though they are not yet called, they also share the responsibility. In their time, in proportion to their abilities and talents, they also are called by the same obligation that the young men now face. In this sense every man and woman in the country is also drafted.

Mind your own business, the Japs warn us, or you'll get back all your scrap metal. In the back, no doubt.

Science says white lightning is deadlier than other kinds, but so far there are no volunteers for blindfold tests.

Neglect of Accident Hazards Claims 32,000 Lives Annually in U. S. Homes

Falls and Burns Leading Causes, Red Cross Warns in Safety Appeal

Washington, D. C.—The American Home—traditionally the symbol of security and safety—rivals the highway as the scene of the nation's greatest number of accident fatalities.

In a statement issued here by the Home and Farm Accident Prevention Service of the American Red Cross, it was pointed out that accidents in the home, including falls, burns and other common mishaps, claimed 32,000 lives last year—only 600 less than the number of motor vehicle deaths. Farm accidents accounted for an additional 4,200 deaths.

Statistics showed that home deaths last year increased 500 over the preceding year and farm accidents increased 300. In addition to a mounting death toll, home and farm accidents last year caused upwards of 4,700,000 injuries which resulted in economic losses running into millions of dollars.

To reduce the number of rural and urban accidents in and about the home, the American Red Cross in 1935 inaugurated its accident prevention program as a parallel project with the First Aid and Life Saving Services. This year, 9,000,000 "check lists" describing accident hazards and urging their removal will be distributed throughout the country.

Approximately 2,000 Red Cross chapters have undertaken a program to acquaint householders in their vicinities with accident hazards in the home and on the farm. Chapters will be aided by the Junior Red Cross and the schools in distributing the "check lists."

The program will stress the vital need for removing accident hazards causing falls, as this type of accident resulted in more than half of last year's home accident fatalities. Burns and explosions caused the next heaviest loss of life.

Accident prevention is one of seven services conducted day-to-day by the American Red Cross in its tireless campaign against accidental death and suffering arising from disaster and other causes of emergency nature. These services are supported solely by members who join each year during Roll Call, November 11-30.

Each year 1,400 adults and children die from accidental poisoning. Label bottles clearly and keep them out of reach of children.

Accidents on the farm yearly injure 200,000 persons and machinery is the leading cause. Most deaths and injuries are due to carelessness.

Building For Defense

Building for the Navy

It takes time to build a good ship. There is no reason for getting in a sweat about it. No other nation can build them any faster. But the United States Navy began its expansion program back in 1933 and it has been possible to get pretty well along with our work by the present time.

The first requirement in building a ship is to have a shipyard and the first requirement of the shipyard is to be some place near the ocean. A shipyard is an extremely complex organization requiring a variety of highly specialized skills, covering practically every mechanical field known to man. Under our national defense program, we may have to have a few new shipyards, though shipyards already in the business are being expanded. Shipyards that handled only small ships before are preparing their ways and shops to handle bigger units for our present needs.

That can lay a ton of high explosive into an opposing Admiral's lap twenty miles away. SHIPBUILDING TIME CUT Meanwhile, we have learned a lot on how to speed up the process of ship building during the past few years. In the first place, we learned quite a bit from the one hundred and thirty new naval vessels that have been commissioned since March 1933, and the sixty-six others that are rapidly approaching completion. These vessels serve as prototypes for the other ships of the same class which are following. In other words, experience gained in current construction will aid materially in eliminating the bugs and speeding construction of new ships in the same design.

Great progress also has been made in expediting contracts for the new ships. In the first few weeks that the National Defense Advisory Commission was operating, contracts were cleared for almost one hundred new hulls. The letting of the contracts alone had sometimes taken months under procedure prevailing before this emergency.

The time it takes to build a ship has been materially cut. Recent contracts, for instance, call for the completion of cruisers within a much shorter time than the building period of more than forty months two years ago. Submarine building time has been cut sharply from a maximum of about thirty-six months. Under the policy of building a two-ocean navy we will have to about double the present size of our fleet, but it is planned to double that size in about half the time. Still, while this is going on, the Navy is building up men to take over the ship when it is completed. For a modern fighting ship needs up to 2,000 highly trained specialists to keep it right side up on top of the ocean and in any way the opposition. A ship without a trained crew is useless and vice versa. Therefore, while the ships are being built, the crews are being trained. Men and ships will be ready together.

Urges Local Governments To Aid Defense

How Haskell, Haskell County and the other 7,103 local governmental bodies in Texas can help to solve the nation's toughest problem—that of defense—was told recently by Mrs. Melville Muckleston, president, National Consumers Tax Commission, Chicago.

A sum "sufficient to purchase 176 pursuit planes of the most advanced design plus 584 fast, light tanks" would be saved each year if local governments in this state would adopt only two administrative improvements—centralized purchasing and the merit system—according to the head of the Commission, which has 113th study groups in Texas.

"Authorities estimate universal adoption of centralized purchasing would save 5 per cent, or $10-, 224,100 of the $204,482,000 spent annually by local governments in the state," Mrs. Muckleston, who is a former national president of the American Legion Auxiliary, declared. "An average saving of 5.6 per cent or $11,450,992 would be realized through personnel selection by merit. Pursuit ships cost $65,000 each and light armored tanks, $17,500.

"Other economies, such as institution of sound budgetary methods, consolidating governmental units, proper planning and abolition of obsolete and unnecessary offices would save additional millions. If local governments throughout the nation would eliminate inefficiency and waste by the adoption of these methods the total sum saved would more than offset the $994,400,000 to be raised annually through the National Defense Tax Act which went into effect July 1.

"Every loyal American favors the rearmament of our nation now regardless of cost. But while taxpayers are paying this bill they have a right to expect local governments to make every effort to save where essential services will not be sacrificed. "Citizens everywhere are performing a patriotic duty by urging efficient administrative methods on their local officials. I am proud that NCTC women are in the vanguard of this economy drive."

NCTC leader in Texas is Mrs. Volney W. Taylor, of Brownsville, a member of the national committee.

AUSTIN, Texas—Wildlife on farms in the wooded areas of East Texas is worth $140.81 in food for the farmer, his family and part of his stock, a survey, one of several to be made by the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster commission, discloses according to the executive secretary. In addition insectivorous birds do far more good in capturing insects which destroy crops.

Various other methods of turning natural resources into income were found in the survey. The evergreen spineless greebrier with red fruit from Wood county was used to fill a $1,000 contract for the decoration of buildings at the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show.

They thought they had also killed the smaller one, but were amazed when the three-footer crawled all the way into the large snake, turned around and emerged head first, unharmed.

They Cheated Nazi Bombs

These English refugee children escaped death twice at the hands of Nazis before reaching haven in New York, where they could have their tea and read in peace without scrambling for bomb shelters.

Those shown above, ranging in age from four to fifteen, are among the group quartered temporarily at the Seamen's Church Institute of New York by Marshall Field's U. S. Committee for the Care of European Children.

They are part of the last contingent of 106 child evacuees removed from Britain more than three weeks ago. While waiting to be claimed by foster parents, who will keep them for the duration of the war, they found the first peace

Red Cross To Link Army Men With Their Families Back Home

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Rapidly expanding the responsibility in connection with the mobilization of a 4,000,000-man army is giving the Military and Naval Welfare Service of the American Red Cross its busiest year since the World War.

Chairman Norman H. Davis reported increases of ten to forty per cent in the volume of work pertaining to Red Cross operations at Army, Navy and Marine Corps stations throughout the nation in recent months.

Describing Red Cross welfare work as a vital part of national defense, Mr. Davis said his organization had completed plans to expand its services in proportion to the growth of the military forces.

"Review of the Red Cross peace time program of the past 20 years," Mr. Davis stated in a report on activities, "has satisfied the U. S. War and Navy Departments that the work as conducted at present by the American Red Cross constitutes one of the most essential phases of national defense, since it bears directly upon that factor which underlies all aspects of military life—morale."

The report states that the past year has brought a forerunner of what may be in store for the Red Cross. "The widespread movement of troops incidental to the reorganization of the Army and of many dislocations among families and other dependents of the enlisted men affected," the report continues.

"Individual chapters have reported increases as high as 40 per cent in the number of welfare problems they have handled for members of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard and their families," the report states.

"While the increase for all chapters has averaged 11 per cent not since the World War have so many men been subject to sudden transfers to new stations or to assignments for training at distant points. This has called for many adjustments in family life, which for the enlisted man on his limited pay, is often a difficult matter."

The Red Cross maintains medical social service staffs in the general Army and Navy hospitals. "An advance has been noted in the number of requests from medical officers to Red Cross medical social service staffs for aid in determining and solving environmental, personal and family anxieties which retard medical treatment," the report states.

"About 20 per cent of the patients apply to the Red Cross for this specialized service."

Activities of Gray Ladies in federal hospitals and of Junior Red Cross members, have greatly increased according to the report.

Dietary Standard Adopted by Group Food Specialists

A Texas food standard designed to aid Texans in knowing what should be included in a good daily diet was tentatively accepted last week by representatives of all agencies and organizations in the state working in the field of nutrition. The group which passed on this brief dietary code was the Texas state-wide nutrition committee in session on the University of Texas campus at Austin.

Members of the sub-committee who assisted in drawing up the standard were appointed by the chairman, Mildred Horton, vice director and state home demonstration agent of the A. and M. College Extension Service. The sub-committee included Jennie Camp, extension specialist in home production planning, as chairman; Mattie Trickey, associate state director of the Farm Security Administration; Ruth Huey, director of homemaking education, State Board of Vocational Education; Elizabeth McGuire, consultant in community organization for the State Health Department; and Dr. Jessie Whitacre, chief division of rural home research Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

As soon as the standard is acceptable to all nutrition agencies, institutions, and organizations in the state, it will likely be made available to the public in large quantities in an effort to help people keep physically fit—their first job in national defense," Miss Horton pointed out.

The committee also will consider production of movies and distribution of radio scripts as part of their program for encouraging citizens to eat the right food. In addition, another sub-committee is considering suggestions for aiding low income groups in the state to have better diets on as little as 10 cents per person per day.

Next meeting of the committee was set for November 23 in Fort Worth.

Means of Combating Colds Are Outlined By Health Official

With open season for colds at hand, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer, suggests ways by which they can be avoided or reduced to a minimum. Here they are:

1. Keep yourself as fit as possible. Substitute the simpler and more nourishing foods for rich mixtures. Eggs, milk and other dairy products, fruits and green vegetables are rich in the vitamins that are a protection against colds. Add them to your diet. Drink several glasses of water daily.
2. Dress according to the weather. Keep comfortably warm. Have a sweater handy or a warm coat to slip on when the day turns cold suddenly. Light a fire or turn on the heat if your house is damp and chilly. If you are a housekeeper, get your warm bedclothes out—and use them.
3. Avoid sudden chilling. Change as quickly as possible to dry shoes and dry clothing if you are caught unprepared in a drenching rain.
4. Get some exercise in the open air every day—a brisk walk, if you can't do more than that. Hold your head up and breathe deeply as you walk. Keep your sleeping quarters and your working quarters well ventilated, and get plenty of sleep.
5. Colds are catching. Don't get where people are coughing or sneezing. Wash your hands before eating.
6. If your powers of resistance have been lowered and a cold "catches" you, don't fight it. You will save time and strength and get well more quickly if you go to bed, eat lightly, drink plenty of water and stay in bed until your physician says you may get up. Don't wait, either, until you are seriously ill to send for your doctor. Send for him promptly, and follow his advice.
7. Don't give your cold to others. Have your own towel and drinking glass. Don't broadcast your germs. Don't sneeze or cough in your neighbor's face. Keep yourself well supplied with paper handkerchiefs and destroy them after using. Postpone visits to friends until your cold is non-communicable.
