FSA CLIENTS MAKES FARM PAYMENT AND PLANS FOR FUTURE

Balanced Farm Program Enables Borrower to Envision Future

Through strict adherence to the farm management plan outlined by the Farm Security Administration, V. R. Anderson former tenant farmer who purchased his own farm this year by virtue of a loan from the Farm Security Administration, last week was able to meet his first payment on the FSA loan with money to spare. In addition, Mr. Anderson paid all his taxes for the current year and insurance premiums on his farm buildings for the coming year.

The loan payment was not due until December 31, 1939, and was made in full approximately two months before the due date, but was made by Mr. Anderson in order to reduce the loan rate on his farm loan and to take advantage of discount payments of 1939 state and county taxes which offered a reduction for prompt payment. Repayments on the FSA loan, taxes and insurance for the current year entailed an outlay of approximately $425.00 and this was provided from the current year's farm proceeds of one-fourth of the cotton yield and one-fourth of the Government subsidy payments on Anderson's 160-acre farm purchased under terms of a Farm Security Administration loan.

In addition to the cash return from this year's crops, Anderson retains three-fourths interest in the remaining cotton crop of the farm, together with a heavy yield from maize and other feed crops planted on the farm. He expects to harvest at least 15 tons of maize and will store two thousand bundles of feed from this year's crop, he estimated.

Ed Harris, 56-year-old colored farm laborer employed on the Ike Harrell farm northwest of Haskell, was found dead in the field of an adjoining farm Monday night, the victim of a sudden heart attack.

Harris had picked cotton on the A. S. Bristow farm all day Monday and during the day had complained of illness to fellow workers. Shortly after sundown Harris had started across the field to the Harrell farm, and when he failed to arrive there his son, R. L. Harris and other farmworkers started a search. Body of the aged negro was found about 10 o'clock by the searchers, and he apparently had been dead for several hours.

Haskell officers were notified, and an inquest was conducted by Justice of the Peace B. T. Cliff, Sheriff Olen Dotson and a Haskell physician. Verdict of death from heart failure was returned at the inquest.

Traffic Zones In School Areas Are Marked This Week

Traffic markers in the form of life-like figures of school children were placed this week on highway 30 in the vicinity of the North and South Ward schools by City Marshal Sebourn Britton, warning drivers of their approach into the school zones.

The markers were provided by the City in connection with a campaign to promote traffic safety for school children in zones near the schools.

Traffic markers and school patrol instituted at the beginning of the current term by City Marshal Britton have been credited with a "no-accident" record to date, and it is the aim of traffic-enforcement officers and school officials to keep this record intact during the school year, they said in asking co-operation of the public in observance of the new traffic signs.

After scoring their lone marker, the Indians threatened seriously on several occasions were held by the Pipers, whose running aerial attacks netted paying results. By virtue of their win over Haskell, Hamlin moved up to third place in 10-A rating.

HASKELL STORES TO REMAIN OPEN ARMISTICE DAY

Local Banks and Offices In Courthouse, City Hall Will Be Closed

Haskell business houses will not observe the customary closing for Armistice Day, a survey made by the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday indicated due to the anniversary date coming on Saturday this year. Closing of retail stores would inconvenience a majority of rural patrons of local establishments, it was pointed out.

However, both local banks will be closed for the entire day, as will all offices in the courthouse and the city hall, officials announced.

The postoffice will also observe a full day's holiday on November 11th, Postmaster J. M. Diggs said Thursday.

With no celebration for the day planned in Haskell, this city is expected to furnish a large attendance of visitors at the Armistice Day celebration in Rule, annual event sponsored by the American Legion Post and businessmen of Rule.

COUNCIL CONSIDERS POSSIBILITIES FOR REDUCED GAS RATES

Gas Company Officials Meet With City Officials Thursday

In a move to ascertain whether possibility exists for securing a reduction in the present rate charged users of natural gas in Haskell, members of the City Council in regular meeting last Thursday night, discussed the proposed rate change with officials of the Community Gas Company. This company, a subsidiary of the Lone Star Gas Company, serves Haskell and a number of other West Texas cities with natural gas.

Officials of the gas company meeting with the City Council included Division Superintendent Bird of Abilene, District Supt. Bill Brammer of Stamford, and R. O. Pearson, local representative of the company. Officials of the company, in support of the present rate charge in Haskell, quoted figures on the company investment in Haskell and the average annual customer-charge, which last year returned less than one per cent net profit on the company's investment in Haskell.

Following the discussion between city officials and representatives of the gas company, no definite action was taken with the matter being left open until the next council meeting.

Other business transacted during the Council session included setting of a special rate for municipal water and sewer service for the Haskell county council, and for the NYA resident project in Haskell. Aldermen also approved payment of $17.50 dues for 6-month membership in the Texas League of Municipalities.

LEADERS APPOINTED TO DIRECT RED CROSS ROLL CALL CAMPAIGN

Forgery Charge Is Filed Against Cisco Resident

Passing of two forged checks to Haskell merchants Wednesday resulted in the arrest of James Thompson of Cisco, and officers are seeking Thompson's companion, who eluded Stamford officers after the two had been picked up in that city. Charges of forgery have been preferred against the Cisco man, Sheriff Olen Dotson said Thursday.

The officers said that a check for $12.60, drawn on a local bank and bearing a fictitious signature had been given by Thompson to Brazelton Lumber Company here, and a similar check for $11.40 to the Clover Farm Store. In both instances only small purchases were made, the officer said. Employees of both establishments identified Thompson in connection with the forgery complaint officers said.

SIX-MAN FOOTBALL GAME IS SCHEDULED FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Mattson and Benjamin Play Second Game of Season On Indian Field

With widespread interest in six-man football throughout West Texas this year, local fans have expressed a frequent desire for the Mattson football team to arrange one of their games on Indian Field here, and in order to meet this demand, Mattson school officials this week announced that the Mustangs game with the Benjamin squad would be played on the Haskell field today.

Starting time for the game has been set for 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Both Benjamin and Mattson school officials and fans expect this to be one of the best six-man games of the season. The Mustangs have won all their games this season, and are strong favorites for the conference title. Credited with a hard-fought win over Benjamin in the first game of the season, when they defeated the inexperienced Benjamin squad, the Mustangs will face an improved team in the encounter here today, fans believe. Outcome of the game will more than likely determine whether the Mattson squad will remain undefeated in their bid for the conference title in the Brazos Valley League.

Annual Drive for Members To Be Started Nov. 11th; Ends Nov. 30th

Plans for the greatest Red Cross membership appeal in twenty years were completed this week with the appointment of Roll Call chairmen to direct the drive in all towns and communities of the county. Frank Turner, chairman of the county chapter, and Wallace Sanders, Roll Call chairman announced Wednesday.

The nation-wide campaign for membership will be conducted from Nov. 11 to Nov. 30, and these dates have been designated by official proclamation by President Roosevelt and the governors of all states.

A goal of at least six hundred fifty members has been set by the Haskell county chapter, local Red Cross officials said. Tentative goals for each town in the county has been set as follows: Haskell, 350; O'Brien, 50; Rochester, 60; Rule, 100; Sagerton, 25; Weinert, 60.

Community chairmen who will direct the Roll Call campaign in the various towns will be: Haskell, Wm. P. Ratliff; O'Brien, S. N. Reed; Rochester, Supt. S. H. Vaughter; Rule, F. E. Gauntt; Sagerton, N. E. Martin; Weinert, Mrs. Pearl Monke and Miss Beatrice Weinert.

Home Demonstration Clubs of the county have also volunteered to assist in the Roll Call, and heading the membership campaign in their respective communities will be:

Mattson, Mrs. Otis Matthews; New Mid, Mrs. Ed Hester; Foster, Mrs. E. M. Server; Center Point, Mrs. W. E. Johnson; Hutto, Mrs. Ben Oliver; Josselt, Mrs. Buck Calloway; Blue Bonnet, Mrs. Ollie McCain.

Officials of the county chapter expressed the belief that the goal of 650 members would be readily attained, and in stressing the need for cooperation of the public the Roll Call chairman quoted the following parts:

"The Red Cross has abandoned membership quotas this year in view of added responsibilities being placed on the organization here and abroad," he said. "Prior to the outbreak of hostilities in Europe, it was determined that an increased national membership of 1,000,000 would enable the Red Cross to meet the growing demands for domestic operations."

"Today, however we are faced with a year of uncertainty—a year of great potentialities in human suffering. The Red Cross is confronted with new tasks of humanitarian preparedness. To keep the Red Cross ready implies being ready for disasters, ready to meet the inroads of accidental death on the highway, in our homes and on our beaches. We must keep our threats of epidemic or other national emergencies. The Red Cross must be ready to help the victims of the war which already has caused great human suffering in Europe."

The body of the veteran railroad man was taken to Anson, where an inquest was conducted by Jones county officers.

The motor coach was pushed into Hawley by a local freight, and from there was continued on the regular schedule by a relief engineer.

Mrs. Virgil Lewis and children of Hawley were week end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Paxton.

JEAN CONNER. Another member of the Senior class and a favorite student is Jean Conner. Her yellow hair can be seen flashing by everytime you happen to glance. She is everybody's friend and is always willing to help. Among her other talents we find that Jean is an accomplished singer. In her freshman year, she was a soloist in the choral club. The same year, she won second place as a soloist in a contest at Hardin-Simmons University. Also in her freshman year, she was P. T. A. representative for that class. Jean can also play the piano very well. While in the sophomore class, she went to County Meet in tennis. And while a member of the Home Economics department she won first place on the dress she made. Now in her senior year we find she is an A student and again the P. T. A. representative, but this time for the senior class. She is also president of the Spanish Club, president of the Junior Harmony Club, secretary of the Gypsy Rambler Club and the assistant editor of the Warwhoop. During all of her high school life she has been in the G. R. Club four years, Choral Club two years, Home Ec. Club three years, and the Pep Squad two years. After finishing high school she plans to go to Texas Tech to study to be a dietitian. Jean Conner, may all your wishes come true and all your hopes be realized. Before the last World War, the United States supplied 65 percent of all cotton consumed in the world. Today the American cotton farmer supplies about 42 percent.

TOUCH-DOWN TACTICS

This is the second in a series of six outstanding diagram plays by leading college coaches from Grantland Rice's new Cities Service Football Guide.

ALTHOUGH there are a lot of the so-called razzle-dazzle plays being used these days, we find that one of the good old reverses to the weak side of the line frequently will gain as much ground as any other play, and, after all, that is what wins most games. I believe that if the high school player will secure a good, well-founded foundation of the fundamentals of the game, he will greatly enhance his chances of making the college teams. The fundamentals can best be mastered in the execution of power and the less difficult deceptive plays, like the one outlined here. The ball is passed to the No. 2 back who fakes giving it to the No. 1 back, but gives it to the No. 3 back who goes around left end while the No. 2 back blocks out the opposing left tackle, who has come through the opening shown in the line. The principal blocking assignments are shown in the diagram. Much depends on the right guard's ability to block the opposing right end who will be on top of the play.

The Bulldog Growl

EDITORIAL

Everyone likes to watch a football game, and when Weinert plays they should be interested. They like to see a college football game but I wonder if they ever took time to think that before the boys played on the high school team back home. The squad can play better and feels better if there is an enormous and enthusiastic crowd of supporters watching and cheering them on. If the citizens of Weinert will be loyal and go to Rule Saturday to see Weinert play and cheer the boys for their good plays, but not criticize them for their mistakes. We will surely win a victory.

HALLOWEEN CARNIVAL IS SUCCESS

The Halloween Carnival was a great success Tuesday night. Everything was sold before the people were ready to leave. Almost everyone's attention was turned toward the cake walk booth. Harlan Weinert seemed to have most of the luck. He came out with three cakes. You could hear "screams" coming from "The House of Horrors." This was arranged by the seniors and Mr. Perrin. One thing that brought the most screams was the hot seat. A fortune telling booth was visited by everyone that wanted to know of his future. There were also other booths that furnished entertainment. Everyone received his share of confetti and noises in his ears. Rena Tankersley, senior queen, was crowned queen of high school. Herman Josselot was crowned as king.

WEINERT TO PLAY RULE NOVEMBER 11

After a week's vacation the high flying Bulldogs of Weinert will tackle the Rule Bobcats at Rule Armistice Day. Although the Bobcat's record is not as impressive as the Bulldog's, they have been playing tougher opposition than the Weinert team. The Rule eleven will be clamoring for their first win of the season and Weinert will be striving to continue their winning streak, which is now five straight games after a loss to Munday in the opener of the season. Weinert has piled up a score of 245 points, for an average of 40 points each game while the opposition has scored 24 points, for an average of 4 points for each game. Only one injury, that being to a regular tackle is on Weinert's ailing list. Probable starting lineup for Weinert: Marsh le; R. Lowe, lt; D. Lowe, lg; D. Sanders, c; R. S. Sanders, rg; Kreegar, rt; Earp, re; Johnson, lh; Owens, fb; Josselot qb; Ammons rh.

F. F. A. HAS FIG ROAST

The F. F. A. boys had a pig roast Tuesday night for the Home Economics girls at Boone's pasture. Everyone reached there safely but not quite soundly. Games were played by everyone and the roasting of the pig was a very interesting process. I wonder if Mr. Sullivan likes roasted pig? Well, ask him if you didn't see him go after it.

WINTER EGG SLUMP CAN BE AVOIDED, AUTHORITY SAYS

Proper Lighting and Feeding Plan Will Keep Production Up in Cold Weather

The coming of cold weather brings with it the inevitable problem of keeping egg production up as the mercury goes down. That is largely a problem of getting enough feed into the birds, according to C. S. Johnson, Manager of the Poultry Department of Purina Mills.

"Egg production often goes down during a severe cold snap because birds don't eat as much feed as they should," Johnson says. "It takes more feed to maintain heat and energy in the bird's body during cold weather and still produce the same number of eggs. That's why hens must be kept eating if they're going to keep on laying."

Hens Need Longer Days "Short days and long nights call for special lighting and feeding in order to get increased feed consumption. Hens in heavy production need a 13 to 14-hour day to eat enough feed to maintain their egg output," says Johnson. "At the Purina Experimental Farm we have found that morning lights are more satisfactory than both morning and evening lights or all-night lights."

F. F. A. NEWS

The Paint Creek F. F. A. chapter went on a possum hunt Tuesday night Nov. 7th on Paint Creek. Over thirty boys attended. The hunt was a successful one—skunks and possums were plentiful. The boys toasted marshmallows after all were tired of hunting. The boys all look forward to doing some real trapping when the season opens.

LUEDERS DEFEATS PAINT CREEK FRIDAY

Friday afternoon November 4th the Paint Creek Pirates were defeated by Lueders 40-12. Although Paint Creek lost, many spectators remarked that the boys played an excellent game in passing. The Pirates will play their next game with Rochester.

To get more eggs increase feed consumption by scattering Layena Checkers over laying mash.

"Having provided adequate lighting and sufficient eating time for the birds the next move is to step up their incentive to eat. For this we recommend Layena checkers, morning and evening on top of the regular mash feed. Layena checkers are laying mash pressed into grain-like pellets that are easy to feed.

Keep Mash Hoppers Filled "The correct procedure is to keep the hoppers filled with mash all day, then mornings and evenings stir the mash well and scatter on top of it Layena checkers. This activity at the hoppers, caused by the mash stirring and checker feeding process attracts the hens and makes them eat more feed.

"Birds in heavy production should also have a feeding of Layena checkers at noon."

The number of eggs a hen lays is largely determined by the feed she gets. When she gets grain alone she lays only a few eggs. But when that grain is helped out by a carefully blended, balanced laying mash or when a complete all-mash laying ration that's fortified with the necessary vitamins and minerals is fed, she lays many eggs.

Proof of this is the average of the figures sent to Purina Mills last year by the owners of over a half-million hens fed Purina laying mashers. These hens averaged 185 eggs per year, which is more than double the national 82-egg average estimated for the country as a whole by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

A Story-Teller Dies

Millions of fiction lovers whose tastes run to tales of the old West were saddened a few days ago by the sudden death from heart disease of Zane Grey, one of the most popular and prolific novelists of his generation. Grey was 64 years old, and began his literary career 35 years ago, after about six years in the practice of dentistry. His earlier novels were not very successful and it is said that only two persons—a brother and Lina Elise Roth, whom he married—gave him any encouragement to continue writing. His most spectacularly successful novel, "Riders of the Purple Sage," was produced in 1912, eight years after his first book was accounted a dismal failure. He wrote in all about 50 novels, which made him a handsome fortune. Grey was often infuriated by people who would write him, thinking his first name, Zane, was that of a woman. It is a family name, his mother having been Alice Josephine Zane, whose pioneer ancestor founded Zanesville, Ohio, where the author was born. Several years ago Grey became an enthusiastic deep sea fisherman, and indulged in the sport from his palatial yacht, on which he spent much time. Several of his later books dealt with the sea and fishing. While he could hardly be classed as a great literary figure, Grey was an author whose books had a wide popular appeal, and the world is poorer because of his passing.

Finland Threatened

Following the bringing of the Baltic states of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania under virtual domination, Russia is now making demands for certain territorial and other concessions from Finland which may threaten that little country's independence. Finland seems willing to grant some of Russia's demands without resorting to arms for defense, although her small army is being prepared to fight if Stalin insists on taking too much. The United States and other American republics, as well as Norway, Sweden and Denmark, have interceded with Russia in Finland's behalf, but whether their pleas will have any effect remains to be seen. Armed resistance to Russia would, of course, be hopeless. Before the World War, Finland was an autonomous grand duchy of the Russian Empire, but gained her independence after the downfall of the Czar in 1917, aided to some extent by Germany.

40 Years Ago—Nov. 11, 1899
T. G. Carney left for Fisher county yesterday on another cattle deal.
T. J. Lemmon is off to Henrietta in charge of the Cobb cattle.
By appointment of Judge Jones Mr. W. K. Perry takes the place of Mr. T. E. Ballard, resigned as commissioner of Precinct 3.
L. W. Roberts came in yesterday with a carload of good cattle for which he traded horses in Arkansas.
Mesars. J. F. Jones, Lee Pierson and Henry Johnson left Wednesday for Merick to bring up 300 head of cattle purchased by them a few weeks ago.
Roscoe Ritter left Wednesday for Granger, where he will teach school.
Since the cattle quarantine was raised Inspector Weatherly has been kept quite busy inspecting cattle that were waiting to come over the line.
Miss Eliza Robison of Coleman, who taught the Wild Horse school last term, arrived yesterday and will take charge of the same school next Monday.
R. M. Grantman came in today with a nice bunch of stock cattle from Coleman county, belonging to himself and Tom McReynolds, which they will put on their place in this county.
The Gulf & Brazos Valley railroad has been completed from Peck City to Mineral Wells. Recently at Abilene a prominent citizen of Mineral Wells told us that it was the general impression there that the extension of the above road through Mineral Wells would force the extension of the Mineral Wells & Northwestern railroad from that point out in this direction.
Rev. R. I. Dale, a Presbyterian evangelist, formerly of Temple, came in Wednesday and will preach a series of sermons at the Presbyterian church.

Former Red Leader Exposes Workings of Party in U. S.

SOVHET Russia was our fatherland; its Red Army was our army, its red flag our flag. Patriots of Soviet Russia, we would not hesitate to commit any act of violence or treason against the country in which we lived, if ordered to do so by the party."
Words by Ben Gitlow, former secretary and leader of the Communist party in the United States, who exposes the secret workings of the party in this country in an article, "I Confess," in the December Communist. Gitlow gives names, dates, places. He should know; he helped launch the party here in 1922.

Ben Gitlow
"I feel I must warn the American people," says Gitlow, "against the Communist juggernaut which, if it ever attained the power it is plotting to secure in the United States, would establish a Russian despotism which would enslave us as it has enslaved the Russian people."

From the very beginning, Gitlow reveals, Moscow supplied the money with which to build and expand the Communist network. Millions have been poured into it; some years the appropriation ran as high as $250,000. Gitlow lists a few typical grants: $100,000 for fomenting strikes; $35,000 to run the Daily Worker; $35,000 for work in Latin America; $50,000 for organization of seamen, $10,000 for the Young Communist League.
Financial resources in this country are also tapped, says Gitlow. Of the $1,000,000 raised by the Friends of Soviet Russia, an "innocent" organization created by the Communist party to collect funds for the starving in Russia, ninety percent of this sum went into the coffers of the party.
Gitlow himself carried back money from Moscow, $10,000, to support the 1928 election campaign here. Thirty-five thousand in all was contributed by Russia; for the 1924 election the sum was $50,000. Gitlow handled that money; he was the party's vice-presidential candidate.
Recent testimony before the Dies Committee revealed that William Browder, brother of chief Earl Browder, is the keeper of the funds today. In two New York banks Browder had deposits in his own name totaling over $1,300,000. It was established before the Committee.

When Germany was defeated by the Allies in 1918, German troops were withdrawn from Finland. The population of Finland is about 3,700,000, and it embraces 134,537 square miles of territory, equal to the combined area of New England, New York and New Jersey. Lying between the 60th and 70th parallels, north latitude, it is a very cold country and forestry occupy about 65 per cent of the population.
The Finns are a hardy, industrious and honorable people, peace-loving but courageous. As the only nation to fulfill its war debt obligations to the United States, Finland has won the admiration of this country. All Americans hope she may not be the victim of Russian aggression.

Hunting By Airplane

What sounds like a tall story of hunting coyotes with an airplane comes from Idaho, but it is told convincingly by a writer in the Farm Journal, so we pass it along.
In the Twin Falls district of southern Idaho, farmers have long suffered losses from coyotes, which kill their sheep, and sometimes even attack cattle. Other methods of combatting this menace having proved unsatisfactory, shooting the coyotes from an airplane was tried with success.
Sheepmen hired Lamorne Stevens and Grant Kilbourne to engage in this up-to-date mode of extermination, with a small airplane and sawed-off shotgun as equipment. Stevens pilots the plane, flying low at slow speed, while Kilbourne liquidates the coyotes with charges of buckshot.
When possible the plane is landed near each dead animal, which is then skinned, the pelts bringing from $5 to $10 each. Working over several counties, the aerial hunters killed more than 600 coyotes during the last two winters.
In addition to the practical benefits of this coyote war from the air, it must be great sport for any one who cares for that sort of thing.

Versatile Mr. Revere

Paul Revere is known to fame chiefly because of his historic ride from Boston to arouse the "minute men" on the night of April 18, 1775, before an engagement with the British at Lexington and Concord. But, aside from this notable exploit, he was an uncommonly active and versatile citizen.
He had taken part in the Boston Tea Party, and became a lieutenant-colonel during the Revolution after serving in the Crown Point expedition of 1756 during the French and Indian War.
In civil life he displayed a variety of talents which a recent biographer thinks entitles him to be known as America's first "jack of all trades." He was a goldsmith, a copper roller, a dentist, an engraver, a powder manufacturer, a maker of picture frames, a hardware merchant, and deplorable as it may seem a seller of hard liquor.
Documents recently made public by his great-grandson include bills of lading showing that Paul Revere sold a consignment of rum at 60 cents a gallon, also gin at a proportionately low figure. This same great-grandson now heads a copper business founded by his distinguished ancestor, which still bears the name of Revere, in Boston.
But Revere's chief pride seems to have been in his dental skill, and he once sent a circular to prospective clients, which would be considered highly unethical today, in which among other things he said, referring to human teeth: "He fixes them in such a manner that they are not only an ornament but of real use in speaking and eating."
Longfellow immortalized Paul Revere's ride, but he didn't tell the whole story.
Joseph Baskley of Indiana escaped jail when he gave Judge Mark Rockwell 25 bushels of potatoes on his alimony account.
The third set of twins in two years was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. William Jennings Bryan Merryman of Phoenix, Ariz.

TEXAS OUT-O'-DOORS

AUSTIN, Texas—A Texas Game Department warden recently arrived upon the scene of one of the terrific battles nature's children sometimes engage in just in time to rescue one deer, but the other had not survived a struggle to death which, persons who have witnessed such battles declare are as thrilling as any plot ever conceived by an author.
The warden arrived on the flat on the Herbert Ranch in a Hill country to find a pair of seven and eight point bucks with their horns locked and signs of a terrific struggle having taken place. One buck was dead, but the warden worked with the other, the eight-pointer, got him loose and watched the deer limply stagger off into thick cover. Bucks fight frequently, but it is not so often that their horns become locked. However, if that occurs and no outside help is available, both deer are generally victims of the battle.
White-wing doves, considered much better sport than mourning doves, generally remain in Texas' Rio Grande Valley. Large numbers are found in several counties there, but this year, and the reason is not known by Game Department biologists, the birds have come much farther north than usual. Flights of several hundred each have been seen in Medina county and a good many sportsmen of that section have gotten their limits of white-wing without having to make the usual trek to the Valley. Infrequent reports of white wings nesting as far North as Medina county have also been received by the Game Department.

$50 fish, but was unable to collect because he did not have a fishing license. He remedied that situation with a $1.10 purchase, and believe it or not, returned to the lake to catch another fish which had been marked. However, the second catch was worth only $20 in prizes and the fisherman was "out" $30. Other sportsmen of that section are still trying to catch the remainder of the marked members of the finny tribe in Lake Abilene.
Motor cars take a terrific toll of deer, as is attested by a report to the Game Department's executive secretary by Warden at Fredericksburg, who stated that a personal check disclosed seventy-six deer found dead on the highways of one county. Red Cross Give Winter Clothing To Refugee Poles

Washington—Urgent appeals for warm clothing to meet the winter needs of Polish refugees in European nations has prompted the American Red Cross to set up the largest garment production program among its chapters since the outset of hostilities abroad.
Action of the Red Cross came following a series of cables from the American Red Cross delegation now in Europe ascertaining relief needs, it was explained at national headquarters of the organization here. Red Cross officials pointed out that chapters have been asked to produce a total of 220,000 articles of winter clothing by January 1. The program calls for 83,000 heavy dresses and 137,000 sweaters.
Announcement of the new chapter production program was simultaneous with announcement that shipments of drugs, blankets, warm underwear and garments given from chapter stores were now leaving New York periodically for Europe.
In an effort to provide vitally-needed medical care to wounded and sick Poles in German-occupied Poland, the American Red Cross purchased $25,000 of medicines in Italy and Switzerland to be used by the German Red Cross. Red Cross officials explained that the fund is to be handled by the German Red Cross in accordance with agreements made through the International Red Cross Committee in Geneva and the American delegation.

Shipments of the winter clothing will begin the early part of November and will continue as adequate cargo space develops it was explained.
Most of the clothing shipments are destined for the Polish refugees in Hungary and Roumania in accordance with the American delegation's survey made thus far. It was announced that distribution will be supervised by the International Committee at Geneva through the Red Cross societies of the nations harboring the refugees.
Requests also have been received from the Red Cross societies of England and France for certain articles of clothing.
The urgent needs of Polish refugees who have fled their native land were stressed upon receipt of word here that 108,500 Poles were being harbored in the four neighboring nations.
Ernest J. Swift and Wayne C. Taylor of the American delegation reporting on conditions they witnessed in Roumania and Hungary, cabled that food supplies for the refugees were ample, but their greatest need was for a change of clothing. Epidemics threatened among the interned soldiers and the civilians concentrated in camps because of the lack of clothing, they stated.
Swift and Taylor were to go to Berlin for conference with the German Red Cross and into German-occupied Poland to report on conditions, and later to the Baltic countries where the Poles took refuge, Red Cross officials said.

Funds Allotted for Water Facilities Program In 1940

For the fiscal year 1940, the Congress has appropriated $500,000 for carrying out the provisions of the water facilities program.

Trained personnel of the Soil Conservation Service will assist the cooperators in installing a complete coordinated program of soil and water conservation.

Loans up to $2,000 per individual farm may be made for a period of one to 20 years, at a rate of 3 percent interest.

Those eligible for the program includes owners who occupy and operate their farms; owners who do not occupy their lands, but whose land is operated by farm laborer, sharecropper, or tenant.

Application may be made at the local offices of the Soil Conservation Service in Stamford; the Farm Security Administration office in Haskell county; or at the office of the Haskell county agricultural agent, Bird said.

Round Trip R. R. Fares Are Reduced To 1.8c Per Mile

Another slash in 60-day round-trip coach fares on the Burlington Lines, effective December 15th has just been announced by F. D. Daggett, General Passenger Agent, FW&DC Railway, Fort Worth, through Mr. H. Dobbins, local representative.

The new reduction will lower the basis of those fares to 1.8c per mile, and under this new basis travelers can purchase tickets at an approximate cost of only $1.80 for a round-trip of 100 miles.

This will amount to quite a saving to travelers to this area, particularly to those who travel frequently, such as sales representatives and other business men, and will of course, also mean a reduction in travel expenses for the occasional train rider, the holiday visitor and the vacationist.

The reduction in fares which, Mr. Daggett said, applies to all railroads in the West and Southwest, was established primarily to encourage more holiday traffic in this area. It is hoped that public reaction to the offer will result in the lower rate being made permanent.

Mattson Takes Sixth Straight Win Over Vera

To maintain their undefeated record of the season, the Mattson Mustangs ran rough-shod over the Vera six-man squad 32-0 at Vera Friday afternoon for the sixth straight win for Mattson on their 1939 six-man football schedule in the Brazos Valley League.

Starters for Mattson were from the reserve squad, with the second-string players fully competent in preventing their opponents from scoring.

In the second frame, Coach Ross Jones sent in his regulars to start scoring for the Mustangs, and the squad quickly piled up a 14-0 lead over the Vera team in the form of two touchdowns scored on combined power and running thrusts of the Mustangs backfield trio, and two-point conversion by Robertson, Mustang quarterback.

Mustang reserves were sent back in the game in the third period, and scored the third touchdown of the game with an aerial attack with Guess on the receiving end.

Mattson regulars went back into the game in the final frame and added two trips to the pay zone, once when Newton paced 25 yards to the stripe, and again when Robertson carried the ball 20 yards to score the final counter. Attempts to convert after each touchdown failed, with the game ending 32-0 in the Mustangs favor.

Starting line-ups:
For Mattson—(Reserves) Steiwer and Harris, ends; Howard, center; Lewellen, Guess and Jacobs, backs.

For Vera—Trainham and Wood, ends; Patterson, center; Christian, Robertson and Frazier, backs.

Substitutes for Mattson—(Regulars) Mapes and Massey, ends; Chamberlain center; Newton, Robertson and Couch, backs.

Mrs. John A. Couch was called to Waco this past week because of illness of her grandson, Edward, Burleson. He is reported as improving.

CHURCH OF CHRIST
J. G. Malphurs, Minister

It is hard to keep empty formalities and hypocrisy out of religious worship. The worship of Christians must be "in spirit and truth," according to Christ. (Jno. 4:24). The worship of the Pharisees in the days of Jesus contained entirely too little truth and too much hypocrisy, for which Jesus rebuked them severely. It is our aim to eliminate tendencies, if there be any, toward hypocrisy in our worship as far as possible for it to be done. To help each Christian to be free from this hindrance to true worship we shall have as our subject at the eleven o'clock hour: "The Three Vehicles of Hypocrisy", which is another of a series on the Sermon on the Mount. We had a splendid audience to hear our last evening sermon, for which we are highly appreciative. This subject, "Drawing Nigh To God," should also be appreciated by a large audience of both the saved and unsaved. The hour is seven-fifteen.

Haskell . . . A Family Town
The Free Press
A Family Newspaper

Yes, The Free Press is Haskell county's family newspaper—as much a part of the family circle as Dad's slippers or pipe. Dad gets his editorials and news, Junior gets the magazine section . . . Mother's pet is the woman's page. But they all read—and USE—that essential news of what is being offered for sale in Haskell. They know and trust The Free Press because it has been part of the family circle for more than 50 years now. Let the family meet your product.
