

Huge Crowd Hears Jerry Sadler at Rally Staged in Football Stadium Tuesday

Rousing Welcome For Jack and John Kimbrough Sadler Aides

A crowd estimated at between four and five thousand persons flocked to Haskell Tuesday night to attend an old-time rally arranged by local supporters of Jerry Sadler for Governor, and to give a rousing welcome to two native sons who have made football history—Jack and John Kimbrough—who are aiding Sadler in his campaign this year.

The affair was held in the High School football stadium, where the crowds filled bleacher seats and overflowed a large part of the grass-covered playing field. Free refreshments of ice cream and lemonade were served the throng, giving the affair the friendly atmosphere of an old-fashioned picnic gathering. This spirit prevailed throughout the evening, sparked by lively musical entertainment furnished by Sadler's Swingsters.

Sadler, only gubernatorial candidate to include Haskell in a speaking itinerary during the current campaign, was given an attentive reception. Harley Sadler, well-known West Texas showman who is accompanying his kinsman on his speaking schedule, acted as master of ceremonies. He first introduced Jack and John Kimbrough as "Two young men of whom Haskell can justly be proud and of whom West Texas and all the nation are doubly proud", praising the youths for their clean lives and sportsmanship. Replying briefly to the introduction to their "home town" the inseparable Kimbrough brothers both expressed their high regard for Jerry Sadler and recommended him to their hometowns. John, All-American fullback of 1939 expressed the sentiment of himself and Jack by saying: "We've been making about seven rallies a day, and enjoying

"For fifty years we cotton farmers have been talking about an organization like the National Cotton Council to defend our markets and find new ones through judicious advertising, intelligent research, and organized opposition to restrictive legislation. At last we have it, and in two years, equipped with modern weapons, it has accomplished more than any of us thought was possible in so short a time.

"Domestic consumption has been brought back virtually to the all-time high, with every indication that a new record can be set in 1941. Plans are ready for a vigorous attack on the acute problem of foreign trade. Council scientists are on the trail of new ones. A united cotton industry has gone to war."

Wilbourne B. Collie

For Re-Election
State Senator

Let's Re-elect Wilbourne because:

1. He has been faithful to your trust.
2. As your State Senator he holds powerful positions, including Chairmanship of three Committees, membership on twelve, and would next January become Dean of the Senate.
3. No member ever had a better record of attendance upon the sessions and committees.
4. He is for defense of our Country and an improved Texas National Guard.
5. He has stood and will continue to stand for equal and uniform $15 monthly payment to the aged from the state and for sufficient revenue to pay those eligible to receive it.
6. He has co-operated with the Governor and other state officials to make their administrations a success.
7. He has made an outstanding record for this district in the affairs of state.

Let's Keep Him There In Times Like These

Courtney Hunt

For Representative
Second Term

"I DID MY DUTY"

Whether popular or unpopular I don't believe thinking people want to condemn a man for being honest, and voting his honest convictions.

"I KEPT FAITH"

Under the greatest pressure ever put on a Texas Legislature. I was not a "YES MAN" to be dictated to by the lobbyists and retained representatives for the special interests.

Stand By the Man That Stood By You

A VOTE FOR COURTNEY HUNT

Is a vote of approval of my efforts for honest Representative State Government. A VOTE for COURTNEY HUNT is a vote against a SALES TAX, and a vote for OLD AGE ASSISTANCE, the Teachers, the Crippled Children and the Blind. A vote for Courtney Hunt is a vote of disapproval of the lobbyists, and retained Representatives running Texas for their special benefit.

A vote against Courtney Hunt is a vote to put a sales tax on the bread and meat, the clothing and shoes of the poverty of Texas. A vote against Courtney Hunt is a vote against the Old People, the Teachers, the Crippled and Blind. A vote against Courtney Hunt is a vote of your approval of the lobbyists for the Special Interests running Texas for their benefit.

You should vote for a man for what he stands for, and for his ability to accomplish. A promising YES MAN cannot get the JOB DONE, with the powerful lobbyists constantly present, threatening him with defeat if he votes against their interests.

I BEG THAT YOU INVESTIGATE what I did for OLD AGE Assistance, the crippled and the blind. Get your feet on the ground and think for yourself, lay down your prejudices and don't vote against your own best interests. It is democratic to give a faithful servant a second term, it is the Golden Rule to treat the other party as you would be treated.

Brief Message To The Voters From A. H. King

Citizens of Haskell County:

You wouldn't read a long statement. You may read a short one.

I had the honor to represent you when our country entered the World War. I resigned and served over seas as a Red Cross representative. After the War I served again in the Legislature. I was the author of the law providing that tuition to high schools be paid by the State for country boys and girls. This enabled thousands of them to get a high school education who otherwise would have had no opportunity.

I was the author of the law putting the Highway Department under the control of the Legislature as to salaries and expenses for administration.

As chairman of the committee on penitentiaries I was largely instrumental in preventing removal of the system to the vicinity of Austin. The removal would have cost the State near ten million dollars.

The next session of the Legislature will likely be the most important one that has been held in many years. I have been exposed to some business experience and have been a student of Government for a long time, and I believe I could render you a worthwhile service as your Representative.

You don't want your next Legislature to pull off any jitterbug jamborees, sit-down strikes or deadlocks. Action in accordance with the will of the majority is what is now demanded by the people of Texas.

The State must meet its just obligations promptly and fully and all amendments voted by the people should be made effective as intended by the people.

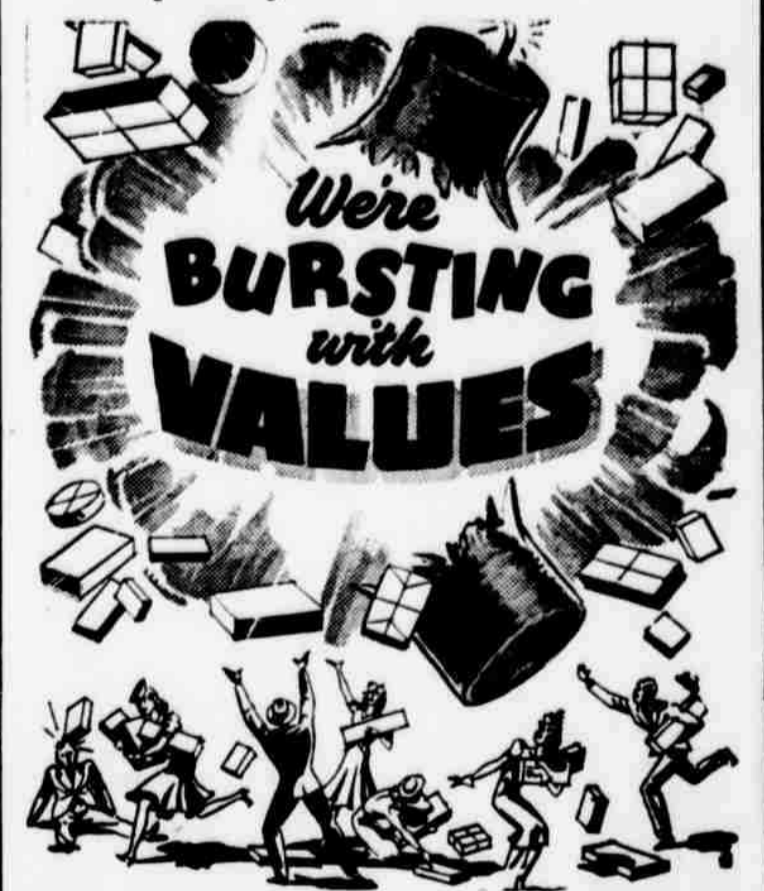

Several candidates for governor are now before you, each offering a program. You will select one of these and elect him by a majority, and in so doing you will endorse his program and adopt it as your own. Then the members of the Legislature, being only your hired hands, should obey your orders. In this way the things you want done will be done.

I favor raising the truck load limit to 18,000 pounds so that a trucker will have a chance to make a living without being forced to violate the law on every trip.

I favor substantial cooperation by the State with the National Government in placing homeless farmers on farms. If elected I promise I will not forget who sent me down there.

Respectfully submitted,
A. H. KING.

Maydelle Barnett Becomes Bride of San Angelo Man In Ceremony Wednesday

In a garden setting Wednesday evening at eight o'clock, Maydelle Barnett of this city became the bride of Doyle Riggs of San Angelo. Green and white were chosen colors for the ceremony performed on the lawn of Mrs. Kate Perdue's home. The Rev. H. R. Whitley, pastor of the Baptist church officiated for the single ring ceremony.

A trellis of greenery formed the background for the arch covered with white flowers beneath which the marriage vows were taken. Tall baskets of white gladioluses flanked the altar that was outlined with white candles in tall candelabra. White candles also marked the aisle leading to the altar.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Don Barnett. She was wearing a white starched chiffon dress with lace insets over white satin. Her full length veil of silk net was draped gracefully from a crown of rhinestones and seeded pearls. She carried a bouquet of white gladioluses with a white prayer book. Long streamers of white satin ribbon were tied with tiny gladiolus buds.

Proceeding the ceremony Jean Conner sang Because. She was accompanied by violin music played by Nadine Havis of Houston and Josephine Parrish. Violin duet of Lehengrin's wedding march was used in the ceremony read with violin accompaniment.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. —Hebrews 11:1

Growth of Hospitals

In 1875, when this nation was already nearly a century old, it had only 149 hospitals, containing 35,000 beds. In the 65 years which have elapsed since that time these facilities have increased to more than 6,200 registered hospitals with a total of 1,195,026 beds, and with a capital investment estimated at nearly four billion dollars.

These figures are from a review by the Hospital Research Institute of Chicago, which states that at present a hospital is accessible by automobile to the most remote parts of the country. The review adds:

"Annual reports of many typical hospitals show a persistent operating deficit, which endowments and donations by loyal citizens lower, but do not entirely wipe out.

"Health education and a deep appreciation of the splendid work of our hospitals has stirred civic pride in many localities. To maintain a community hospital, public spirited citizens realize that their help is needed throughout the year. They also know by the number of lives saved and those reclaimed from ill health, that their aid in providing such useful institutions is a sound investment in community welfare.

Library of Congress

Within a short time it is likely that the Library of Congress in Washington will become the greatest in the world, if it is not so already. In the number of printed books it is surpassed by the public library in Leningrad, Russia, but it has many more treasures in the way of maps, charts, music and pictures of every description.

The Library of Congress was established in 1800, but was destroyed when the British burned the capitol in 1814. It was started again by the purchase by Congress of ex-President Thomas Jefferson's private library of 6,780 volumes for $23,950.

Additions were made from time to time, but another fire in 1851 destroyed about 35,000 volumes. This loss was again replenished through purchase and donations until the library now has more than 4,477,000 volumes, more than a million maps, charts and views, more than a million pieces of music, and half a million photographs, prints, engravings and lithographs.

The growth of the library has been greatly hastened by the operation of the law which requires copies of all copyrighted books and other materials to be deposited there.

Priceless treasures in the way of rare books and manuscripts gathered from all parts of the world are included in the collection, housed in the largest and most magnificent library building in the world with a floor space of more than 14 acres. In it are kept the originals of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States, with thousands of other historical documents.

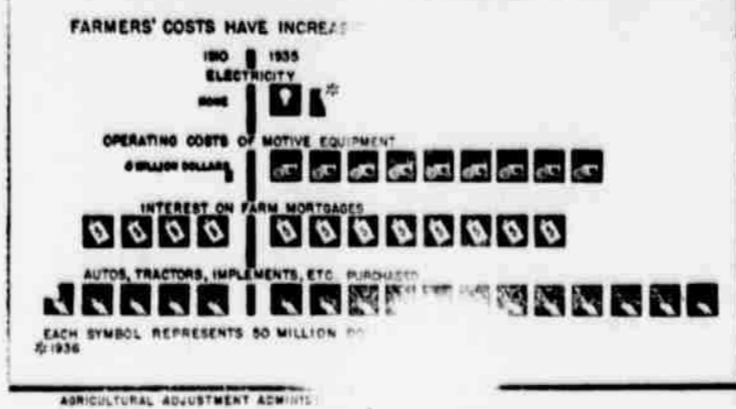

The Library of Congress is open to the public every day in the year except Fourth of July and Christmas, and is visited by many thousands annually.

A story illustrating the dislike of Efreem Zimbalist, noted violinist, for social functions is being told. Asked to play for a fashionable musicale, he placed his fee at $5,000, but when the hostess told him he would not be expected to mingle with the guests he reduced it to $1,000.

Entirely disinterested motives caused Alderman Borrell of Havana to introduce and fight through to adoption an ordinance prohibiting unnecessary noises. Excessive horn tooting, bell ringing and whistle blowing never bothered him personally, because he is deaf.

Herbert Rosenthal of Council Bluffs, Ia., arrested for speeding in a truck, was sentenced to write "Delivery boys drive dangerously" 3,000 times.

Why America Has A Farm Problem

One factor that has contributed to America's farm problem is the increased cost of farming.

In 1935, farmers received only a little more than half the share of the national income they did in 1910, but their costs were several times greater.

Thus where in 1910 the operating costs of motive equipment totaled 4 million dollars, in 1935 the cost amounted to 440 million dollars.

Interest on farm mortgages totaled 199 million dollars in 1910 and 400 million dollars in 1935.

In 1910 autos, tractors, and other machinery cost farmers 222 million dollars; in 1935 this cost was 593 million dollars.

There were no expenses for electricity in 1910; in 1935 this item cost farmers 68 million dollars.

Several of these items have combined to make the work of the farmers go further and have thus contributed to the agricultural surpluses.

Collie Addresses Voters In Radio Talk From Abilene

State Senator Wilbourne B. Collie has made the following address over the Abilene radio station in his campaign for re-election to the Senate:

"Fellow Citizens: "The few, brief words that I am about to say will no doubt seem unexciting in comparison to the tidings of war, which all of us have been following for days and weeks over the radio and through the press.

"Nevertheless, the time is approaching when the primary election will be held—Saturday, July 27th—and in such times as these that now confront Texas and our nation, it is more than ever important that we give thought to preserving our American form of government, because the United States stands almost alone in the world today insofar as being a nation where the people rule and where every man has the right to express his thoughts and to worship God in accordance with the dictates of his own conscience.

"Twice, the citizens of the 24th Senatorial District, have honored me with the office of State Senator, and I come before you as a candidate for re-election.

"If you again see fit to bestow this office upon me, I pledge the utmost cooperation in a program of national preparedness and defense. This is a subject of vital importance to Texas because we have the longest coast line of any State in the Union and because we have the longest international border of any State, and if an ambitious dictator should decide to launch an attack upon the United States, he might see fit to strike through Texas first. Our great oil fields, furnishing 40 per cent of all the petroleum now being produced in the United States; our sulphur and our other great resources would make Texas a rich prize. We must be prepared to protect our soil.

"Let me emphasize that I am for defense. I am not in favor of sending our boys to die on a foreign battlefield. But what I want to see is a navy second to none, a well-trained army as a nucleus of our land defense, and a swarm of thousands of airplanes so that an enemy will think long before he decides to try to invade our country. In such an event, the people of Texas—with the glorious traditions of the Alamo and San Jacinto and of the Argonne Forest as inspirations—will do their share to keep Old Glory floating above a free soil and a brave people.

"I pledge my utmost co-operation against the enemies of America and American freedom, both from without and from within. We must prevent any "fifth column" from betraying our land and our liberty.

"On the other hand, we must not go to an extreme and persecute anyone or hurt any loyal citizen through idle gossip. The good, common sense and the inherent spirit of fair play and good sportsmanship of the people of Texas and of the United States can be counted on. I am sure, at all times.

"I invite you to consider my record. I have voted consistently in the interest of this Senatorial District and have tried, at all times, to reflect your views because you are the rulers and I am your representative in the State Senate. My record shows that I am the friend of the old age pensions and the Social Security program; that I have worked and voted in behalf of our schools, of better roads, and to foster the oil industry, which is to be found in many of our counties, and to benefit the stock-raiser and the farmer.

"I do not say that I haven't made mistakes, but I have always been there, trying and doing my best.

"Now as never before it seems that the need is for steadiness and experience in such an office as State Senator. This is not a time for experimentation, for trying out some new man, in my judgment. If your present Senator has demonstrated by actual achievement that he represents the people and their welfare, would you want to dispense with his services for this district in the affairs of state?

"Your kindness to me in the past is deeply appreciated, and I hope you will cast your vote for me on July 27."

Insurance on 1941 Wheat Crop Is Now Available Thru AAA

Producers may now make application for wheat crop insurance on their 1941 crop, according to J. E. Thomson, Secretary, Haskell County A. C. A. Federal crop insurance is protection offered to wheat growers under the Federal Crop Insurance Program. The program provides the means by which wheat growers may insure 75 per cent of their average yield against unavoidable hazards such as drought, flood, hail, frost, fire, winter-kill, tornado, storm, insects, plant diseases and any other natural cause of loss not specifically mentioned. M. M. Cobb of Luciers, Texas made the first application for wheat crop insurance for 1941. He has an allotment of 55.3 acres of wheat which he insured for $54.54 and which guarantees him a production of 442 bushels, whether the wheat makes or not. Since the rate of premium is based on the market price the day you make application for insurance, it seems that now is the time to take out insurance since the market is low. The final date for insuring your wheat crop is August 31, 1940.

Regulations Governing Traffic During Fires Will Be Enforced

Warning that traffic regulations governing conduct of motorists or spectators during an alarm of fire would be strictly enforced in the future was issued this week by the City Council, following complaints of heavy traffic congestion at a recent fire.

The warning was embodied in the following statement, signed by Mayor Leflar and all members of the Council:

"Due to the traffic congestion and confusion at recent fires, the City Council and Mayor deem it advisable to republish the regulations concerning the proper conduct of spectators.

"There is a penalty from $5.00 to $25.00 for running over the fire hose.

"No person is allowed within 300 feet of a fire engine or apparatus, without the express permission of the Chief of the Fire Department, either in going to or returning from a fire or at the fire itself.

"When any vehicle of the fire department approaches in answering an alarm, all persons operating a vehicle of any nature shall pull to the right curb and stop until the fire apparatus or vehicle has passed and shall remain stopped until said fire apparatus is 300 feet in advance and at no time shall the operator of any vehicle follow closer than 300 feet.

"The penalty for the violation of any of these provisions is not less than $5.00 nor more than $100.00.

"This is the last warning before the ordinances will be rigidly enforced. The Fire Chief took the license numbers of 65 vehicles at the last fire but these people will be excused this time because the City Council and the Mayor believe that the traffic violation was unintentional, but from henceforth all traffic violators will be punished regardless."

Statement From Bruce Clift To Prec. 1 Voters

TO THE CITIZENS OF JUSTICE PRECINCT ONE:

Because of my lack of the means of transportation and of finances, as well as the illness of my wife, it has been impossible for me to make a house to house canvass of my precinct or to see all the voters.

I have tried as best I could, under the circumstances, to do this and I sincerely hope that all of you whom I have missed will not hold that against me but take my announcement and this open letter as a personal solicitation of your vote and your influence.

In the past I have tried to serve you as best I could in my office of Justice of the Peace. I have made every effort to be fair and just in all the cases tried before me and to treat every person with the same consideration that I would desire for myself. I can only promise to continue to do this if you see fit to re-elect me.

I have passed the age where I can continue to practice my old trade or go out and secure another job for myself. This office is the sole means that I have to make a living for myself and my wife and your kindness in returning me to it will be gratefully appreciated even as have been your past favors.

Thanking all of you again and again earnestly soliciting your vote and your influence in behalf of my candidacy for re-election as Justice of the Peace, I am

Respectfully,
BRUCE CLIFT.

Message to Voters In Prec. One From Sterling Edwards

TO THE VOTERS OF PREC. 1:

With only a short time remaining before the first primary is held, I take this method of reminding those of you whom I have not seen personally, that your consideration and support in my behalf as a candidate for the office of Constable of Precinct 1 is earnestly solicited and will be greatly appreciated.

During the remaining days of the campaign I shall endeavor to see all the voters in the Precinct but this will be well-nigh impossible—so if I fail to see YOU please consider this a personal solicitation for your vote and influence.

If elected as your Constable, I promise you that the affairs of the office will be handled honestly and impartially, without favor and without prejudice, but with due respect to our laws and in keeping with the principles of good citizenship.

I have been a resident of Haskell for more than 30 years and am proud to claim the friendship and acquaintance of a large majority of the people of Haskell. And to those whom I do not have the privilege of knowing personally, I welcome and would appreciate your investigation of my record as a citizen, in soliciting your support of my candidacy.

Contour farming and high-speed highways have put curves into fence building. A straight fence dividing a pasture and a field farmed on the contour wastes either a great deal of pasture or farm land. The mechanics of building fences on the contour is explained in a new publication, "Farm Fences", Farmers' Bulletin No. 1832, which may be secured from county agricultural agents or by writing either the U. OPEN-AIR VESPER SERVICES AT METHODIST CHURCH

The congregation of the First Methodist Church has decided that during the hot summer months it will hold open-air services on the beautiful lawn between its church and parsonage. The Pastor calls these services "Open-air Sundown Vespers". He says they consist of prayers, old-time songs sung the old-fashioned way, and a brief address on vitally important religious subjects. It is his purpose, he says, to have some of the addresses made by leading laymen.

He urges all Methodists to attend with their families and their friends; and extends a hearty invitation to the public. The plan is to have all men who will to come without their coats so as to be comfortable. The air is made exceedingly pleasant by reason of a shade from the parsonage and a draft between the church and the parsonage. An ample supply of comfortable chairs are available for all who come. Dr. French says that, until further notice, these services will begin promptly at 7:30 and will last not over one hour, closing promptly at 8:30. All are cordially invited to come to enjoy the fine fellowship and take part in these Vesper Worship Services.

them, but it is a real pleasure to come to my home town here and see all you folks. But it gives me a funny feeling—all you football players know that feeling." He praised Jerry Sadler as "a clean man, who will not make a promise that he does not keep."

In presenting his candidacy for Governor, Sadler, dynamic outspoken foe of a sales tax in any form, advocated a tax on oil, gas and sulphur products of the State to meet social security and other obligations of similar nature authorized by a vote of the people. He said in part:

"The forces that have been trying to fasten a super-sales tax on your bread and clothing are now in heading retreat; they can't stand the white light of truth that I have tured on their neat conspiracy; their lines are broken and they are going with the wind."

"The present incumbent can feel the cold hand of defeat and repudiation on his shoulder and he is running away from the battle," Sadler shouted. "Like all men facing defeat he believes that safety lies in running away or hiding from the masses. That is why the Governor is afraid to face you in this campaign and that is why he will not come before you face to face and give you an account of his dismal record of failure as your Governor."

"All that we have to do is to follow his retreating ranks, enlist under the Sadler banner and Texas will soon put an end to this holiday in progress that has plagued us for the last two years that the present Governor has been in office."

Because Sadler favors a scientific program of increasing the taxes on oil, gas and sulphur which will to finance social security and is bitterly opposed to a sales tax. "The big oil, gas and sulphur companies are out to stop me,"

Sadler asserted. "Don't you know that if I were out on the highways and byways advocating a sales tax on every item of food and clothing that you buy, I could have the support of this same crowd that is now doing its utmost to chop me down? Common sense will tell you that they don't want to pay their share of the bill and they are not going to do it unless you and I make them do it!"

Holding up a package of cigarettes, Sadler exclaimed, "When I bought this package, I paid more money into the old age pension fund than all the oil companies in this State have ever paid. I paid more money into the old age pension fund than all the gas companies or the sulphur companies have ever paid."

He closed with the declaration, "The issue is the same as they were the day this campaign began—it is O'Daniel and a sales tax on Jerry Sadler and a fair just tax on oil, gas and sulphur."

Clifton—
tion of Shreveport, La.; Mart and Jenn Clifton of Haskell; Von B. Clifton of Abilene; Rod E. Clifton of Fort Worth; and four daughters: Mrs. Ida West of Hobbs, N. M.; Mrs. Edgar P. Allen of Seminole, Okla.; Mrs. George V. Wimbish of Haskell; and Mrs. Henry J. Johnson of Santa Cruz, N. M. Sixty-five grandchildren and great-grandchildren also survive. Other living near relatives are two daughters-in-law, Mrs. Florence Clifton of Abilene and Mrs. George W. Clifton of Knox City.

Funeral service for Mr. Clifton was held at the First Baptist Church in this city Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with the pastor, Rev. H. R. Whitley, officiating, assisted by J. G. Malphurs, minister of the Church of Christ, and R. E. Sherrill, Presbyterian elder and life-long friend of the deceased. A quartet composed of H. H. McDonald, Hallie Chapman, Pete Frierson and Joe Maples sang three special songs, "Some-thing We Will Understand," "The Unincluded Day," and "I Have Heard of a Land."

Interment was in Willow cemetery with arrangements in charge of Holden Funeral Home. Active pallbearers were Robert Fitzgerald, John Fouts, Charlie Redwine, Ben Charlie Chapman, R. C. Couch, Taylor Alvis, and Grady French of Abilene. Named as honorary pallbearers were scores of long-time and intimate friends of the deceased and his family.

Mr. Clifton first came to Haskell county in 1889, when Albany was the nearest railway point, and he walked the entire distance from Albany to Haskell. At that time there was only one dwelling, a stone ranchhouse on California Creek, between the two towns. The following year Mr. Clifton moved his family from Limestone county to Haskell, making the trip in a wagon drawn by oxen. When the original stone courthouse was built in Haskell, Mr. Clifton helped to haul native building material to town from the old rock quarry on California Creek.

In 1892 he moved his family to the northwest part of the county, first settlers in that vicinity, and later as more families moved there the small community was named Cliff in his honor. There he donated the land for the Cliff schoolhouse, hauled lumber from Abilene to build the structure and defrayed expenses of its construction.

After residing in the Cliff section for a number of years, Mr. Clifton moved back to Haskell and engaged in the feed and grocery business. He continued active in various business fields until failing health compelled his retirement.

THE RECORD—Facts That Concern You No. 20 of a series

and how is it used in making beer and ale?

BARLEY

Answer: Brewers' malt is barley that has had its starches modified. The barley is first permitted to "sprout" by the addition of moisture. At the right instant, the growth is checked by heat and the sprouts are removed.

What remains is malt... the essential base of all good beer and ale.

Every step in the brewing of good beer and ale has been taught by centuries of experience. Today, amazingly expert brewers—using only the purest ingredients—make beer and ale the mild, tasty, wholesome beverages that they are.

Now the brewing industry is taking action to keep the retailing of beer as wholesome as beer itself. A plan to eliminate abuses is already in effect in a number of states. It is being extended. Ask us for an interesting free booklet.
