EVERY COTTON GROWER IS EXPECTED TO VOTE IN '41 QUOTA REFERENDUM

Every cotton producer who believes in democracy should go to the polls December 7 and voice his opinion of cotton marketing

For the cotton marketing quota referendum is part of the demo-cratic process, V. F. Bunkley, chairman of the Haskell county ACA committee, pointed out to-

Last year in the referendum, who were eligible to vote parti-cipated in the election, 80 percent of them favoring quotas. The majority favoring quotas in Texas was 82 percent and in the nation 91.2 percent, the committee chair-man declared.

"Voting in the referendum just as important as voting in any other election," Bunkley said. "The outcome of the marketing quota referendum will affect every cotton farmer in the county, so every cotton farmer should vote." Polling places in Haskell county will be located at the following

Haskell hospital late Sunday suffering from a bullet wound in his right shoulder and neck which was inflicted accidentally was opened Oct. 18, two women by the discharge of a 22-coliber rifle in the hands of a companion, Leonard Padilla. The accident occurred at Casiano's camp on the Holt farm several miles northeast of Haskell.

Padilla and two other Mexican youths had gone hunting Sunday afternoon and returned to their camp late in the day, where Casiano was painting his automobile. Padilla, believing the small rifle unloaded, jokingly remarked to Casiano that he believed he would shoot him, and pressed the trigger. The bullet struck Casiano in the right shoulder and ranged through the back of his neck, inflicting a near-fatal wound Physicians stated that the injured man would likely survive, but that in part of his spine. Hospital attendants reported the victim's condition unchanged Thursday.

Sheriff Olen Dotson investigat_ ed the affair and after questioning Casiano and the three youths, he declared that proper manten-ance of roads already built was ed the accident purely accidental and that no charges would be filed. Casiano, a native of Taylor, Texas, only last week lost his bride of a few weeks when the young woman succumbed to an attack of pneumonia.

O. P. HOWARD IS

Well-Known Farmer Dies In Local Hospital From Injuries

Oscar Pearl Howard, wellknown farmer and resident of Haskell county for more than 30 years, died in the Haskell hospital Thursday morning November 28 shortly after 9 o'clock from injuries received when he fell from moving automobile on the highway two miles west of Throckmorton late Tuesday afternoon Mr. Howard was 57 years old Circumstances surrounding the accident were substantially as follows: Mr. Howard had accompanied a neighbor, C. W. Patterson, to Throckmorton Tuesday to secure a mattress which they had loaded on top of the car. A short distance out of Throckmorton, Mr. Howard rolled down the glass in the front door of the car to reach out and examine the fastening of the mattress. Starting to roll up the glass, he apparently pulled the door latch and when the door flew open he fell from the car to the pavement before Mr. Patterson could stop the machine. An amulance summoned from Throckmorton brought the injured man to the hospital here, where examination revealled he had suffered a fracture of the skull in the fall from the moving car.

Mr. Howard was a native of Texas, born Oct. 11, 1883 in Comanche county, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Howard. A few years after his marriage, Mr. Howard moved his family to this county in 1909 and until this year urday, December 14th, on the proposed district proposal to create the district under provisions of the State Soil old Howard community southeast part of Throckmorton county. CHURCH OF CHRIST J. G. Malphurs, Minister

One of the greatest mysteries in the book of Revelation is the mark, or the number, of the beast of the thirteenth chapter. It likely has received more anxious study from various scholars than any other part of this symbolical book By our Lord putting the name of man in symbolic language, rather than in actual spelling with letters. He doubtlessly saved the church from some persecution. Since the message of Revelation is addressed to the church and for the servants of Lord (Ch. 1:1-3), it is up to them to make a study of the symbols and to interpret Lord expected at least a few of number of the beast, and to inform D. British Women In War

About three million British women from Queen Elizabeth to the humblest slum dwellers, are now mobilized in various war-time organizations. These include about one woman in every four between the ages of 18 and 50.

Most of these women are engaged in war work not unusual for their sex, being employed as clerks. typists, telephone operators, cooks, nurses, and the like, but a large number do duty in connection with the miltiary services and wear distinctive uniforms

Queen Elizabeth is commandant-in-chief of the service women and conducts meetings for bandage_rolling at Buckingham Palace Pauline Gower, daughter of a member of Parliament, who has had more than 2,000 hours in the air, heads the air transport auxiliary of women, who fly planes from the factory to the bases. The Duchess of Gloucester and the Duchess of Kent, sisters-in-law of the King, are in service, the former as a commandant of air women and the latter as a Woman's Royal Naval Reserve commandant and nurse Diana Churchill, the prime minister's daughter, is also in the Naval Reserve.

There are about 15,000 women ambulance and truck drivers, 120,000 serving as air-raid wardens. 13.000 in the auxiliary fire service, and 25,000 in the auxiliary air force, to mention only a few of the women's organizations performing war-time duties

French women in Britian have an auxiliary of their own, of which Mme. Renee Mathieu, former tennis champion, is commander

A Double Fake

Among the many freaks and fakes exhibited by the great showman, P. T. Barnum, who declared that "people like to be humbugged" and cashed in on the idea, was the "Cardiff Grant," represented to be a petrified man, ten and a half feet

The "giant" was a fraud being a crude statue of a man, carved out of gypsum in Iowa, and buri-ed by a practical joker in the bed of a creek near Cardiff, a hamlet near Syracuse, N. Y. The jaker then had the statue "discovered" and spread the news of the find far and wide. That was in Octo-

Later it was exhibited around the country as "petrified man," and a good many scientific men were inclined to believe it be genuine until a Yale professor made an examination and exposed the

While the "giant" was in popular favor and drawing large crowds, Barnum tried to buy it to add to his collection of circus sideshow attractions. When the owner named a price thought too high, Barnum proceeded to have a giant of his own made This imitation of a fake—a sort of double fake—was successfully exhibited by Barnum as the Cardiff Giant, in America and abroad for several

The original "giant" received some fresh publicity some time ago owing to the fact that the Chamber of Commerce of Syracuse wanted to have it brought back to that city from Iowa, where it has been resting in obscurity for several decades So great was the sensation originally created by the giant hoax that the statue has come to have certain historical value.

A Word To Scare Us

If one is over 30 years old, the chances are two to one that he has "periodontoclasia." word itself is a jaw-breaker, sufficiently formidable to frighten us, and the disease it represents is nothing to joke about. It is commonly known as pyorrhea, and next to tooth decay is the most prevalent dental disorder, according to the Dental Institute of America

Broadly speaking, pyorrhea consists of diseas. ed pockets about the teeth, the tissues supporting which became irritated for various reasons, causing lowered resistance to the invasion of germs. In time, the germs destroy more supporting tissue. the tooth is loosened and often lost. Pyorrhea literally means a flow of pus-

"Neglect and ignorance account for the startl. ing prevalence of this disease," says the Institute. for dental science has evolved a simple and higheffective method of treatment. Vast numbers of people are losing their teeth from sheer lack of

Statistics by some authorities show that the percentage of Americans having pyorrhea range about as follows: At 20 years, 10 per cent; at 30 years. 50 per cent; at 40 years, 80 per cent; at 50 years, 90 per cent or more. Records show that in nearly all advanced cases there is evidence of total neglect of professional dental attention over a considerable period of time

So whether we call it pyorrhea or use the more fearsome term, periodontoclasia, we should look out for this highly prevalent disease, and have it treated early, thus preserving health and possibly extending life

1941 COTTON MARKETING QUOTA REFERENDUM BALLOT Do you favor cotton marketing quotas for the 1941 crop

Cotton producers will have the opportunity on Saturday, December 7, to decide whether cotton marketing quotas, which have been in effect during the past three years, will apply to the 1941 crop. Every producer of cotton should go to his community polling place where he will be given a ballot, like the one shown above, on which to express his opinion. It is both a privilege and a duty of each producer to cast his ballot in the referendum. Whether the referendum is really representative of the farmers' thinking depends upon the number of producers who vote on December 7.

The next thing the manufacturers do is reach for the nearest catalog and start ordering machine tools. Naturally, they want the mchines delivered early that afternoon so that they can go to work turning the raw materials into defense materials. When hundreds of manufacturers all start doing the same thing, it is obvious the machine tool industry can't deliver. It takes sometimes months to build one of these tools which can turn out hundreds of perfect items an hour, when it

So far it is pretty simple. But the manufacturers of aircraft, and the manufacturers of tanks, and the manufacturers of guns, and the manufacturers of parts, all want their machines delivered for their separate orders. Then Commission has to meet with the Army and Navy and discuss priorities within the services as to which type of arms are needed first and in what quantities. The Commission in turn meets first with the manufacturers of planes, tanks and guns, and helps work out the schedules with them. Finally, the Commission meets with machine tool manufacturers and works out the schedules for producing machine tools for the manufacturers who will produce the actual arms-

If the costractor is concerne that he won't get his materials in time to make the delivery date, the Commission, the Army an Navy, will take action to see that he does.

A survey disclosed that there is no present need to invoke legal authority to enforce priorities on defense orders. The system will be voluntary and depends on com-plete voluntary cooperation of Government and industry. The Commission favors continuance of the voluntary system until it appears that more authoritative

Double-Barreled Defense Protects America

The machine of peace at top, a combine grain harvester, bears striking resemblance to the machine of war immediately below, an anti-aircraft gun manned by two of Uncle Sam's artillerymen. America depends upon both for national defense. Modern farming methods, along with the AAA farm program, have enabled farmers to build up an Ever-Normal Granary supply of food sufficient for any emergency. The nation has enough wheat on hand, for example, to make 500 loaves of bread for every person.

Indians Lose Final Game To Stamford 37-0

In the annual Thanksgiving Day ootball game between the Haskell Indians and Stamford Bull. dogs, played on Indian Field last Thursday afternoon, the locals went down 37 to 0 under the powerful onslaught of the visitors. It was the conference finale for both teams in District 10-A.

The Indians held the Bulldogs during the first quarter, with a single first down chalked up for both teams, but in the second period the heavier Bulldog squad launched their scoring spree in a downfield drive.

TAXES

People everywhere dislike pay taxes. People in the Mattson community are no exception. Yet the people here who pay one of the highest possible taxes and little complaint is heard from that payment. The tax in question is as to which company the class the "Mud Tax". It is perhaps true would order from. Rings were that the average taxpayer in this precinct is assessed not more than two thousand dollars valuation. If this is true, then a tax of 15 cents on the hundred dollar valuation, which would be sufficient to gravel at least the main roads would cost that person only $3.00 per year. Now the question is, what person in this community does not lose much more than that each year from being forced to pull over muddy roads or from failure to carry on his work because of the impossibility of traveling the Thanksgiving, Thursday, Novemroads during rainy weather? Economy and thrift are splendid virtues, but our ungraveled roads are activities; only short periods. false economy, and the "Mud Tax" is a very high one.
