Young Farmer of Weinert Section Is Suicide Victim Monday Evening

W. R. (Bill) Bettis, 33, Ends Life At Home Near Weinert

W. R. (Bill) Bettis, 33, prominent farmer and landowner of the Weinert section, was found dead at his farm home four miles northwest of Weinert Monday afternoon about 3 o'clock.

Justice of the Peace S. L. Coggins of Weinert returned an inquest verdict of "death from gunshot wounds self-inflicted." Couniy Attorney Walter Murchison and nembers of the sheriff's department assisted in the inquest. Shortly after he and Mrs. Bettis had returned from Haskell, she went into the kitchen to prepare an afternoon meal and heard a shot. She rushed to the living room to find her husband on the floor with a bullet wound in his right temple and a pistol lying beside him. He died instantly.

Mrs. Bettis summoned a neighbor, Clifford Williamson, physician from Weinert.

Bettis was seriously hurt in an automobile accident last spring. Although he wore his neck in a cast for several months, relatives believed he had recovered. They could ascribe no motive for the

PRISONER WHO FLED HOSPITAL

Alleged Forger Has Brief Freedom Following Escape

Alton Posey, 28-year-old resident of Portales, N. M., who is under Grand Jury indictment for forgery, early Wednesday morning fled from the Haskell county hosthe Senior class of Paint Creek pital where he had been confined under guard following a recent operation, but was apprehended shortly after noon the same day by Sheriff Dotson and deputies Isbell and Thompson, on a country road near the Vernon schoolhouse twelve miles southwest of Haskell. The escaped prisoner offered no resistance. He told officers he had walked the entire distances from Haskell, and was weak from hunger and exhaustion.

Posey crawled out of a window in his hospital room around 3:00 o'clock Wednesday morning, when his guard, E. B. McDonald, had left the room to get a cup of coffee in the hospital kitchen. The fleeing prisoner was barefooted and clad only in a nightshirt. Of-ficers learned that Posey appeared at the farmhouse of Bob Teague, about four and one-half miles from town shrotly before dawn and begged Mr. Teague to give him clothing and shoes, telling the farmer he had been robbed and stripped of his clothes by hi-jackers. Securing a shirt and trousers, Posey was given a pair

Peacock 7 to 0 In 11-B Opener

In their first scheduled home to 0 Friday afternoon in the opening conference game of District

Raymond Ammons, fullback, scored the game's only touchdown in the second quarter in an off tackle run of 20 yards, after the Bulldogs had advanced from their own 35 to Peacock's 20 yard line on successive downs. After his jaunt to the pay stripe, Ammons added the extra point on a plunge Peacock line.

Coach Davidson's charges kept the visitors on the defensive throughout the four periods, chalking up a total of 203 yards from scrimmage to 94 for Peacock, and invading the visitors 20-yard line on five occasions. Weinert completed three of eight passes for a gain of 36 yards, while Peacock completed two of eight attempts for a 21-yard gain. First downs favored Weinert 8 to 1. The visitors were never able to seriously threaten the Weinert goal.

In addition to the scoring perormance of Ammons, other outtanding players in the Bulldog lineup were Ray and Drey Lowe, guards, Kreger, left tackle, and Sparkman at right end.

Starting line-ups: Peacock-Eaton and Smith, ends; Mercer and Myers, tackles; Reese and Patterson, guards; Lawrence center. Turner, Kidd, Rigby and Henderson, backs.

Weinert-Ralph Ammons and Sparkman, ends; Kreger and Zahn, tackles; R. Lowe and D. Lowe, guards; Melton, center; Sanders, Tolliver, Jenkins and R. Ammons,

AAA Program for 1940 Will Close On November 30

In all Texas counties except a few in the extreme southern portion of the state, the 1940 AAA program closes November 30.

Farmers and ranchmen participating in the AAA program must complete soil-building and range building practices by these dates if they expect to receive credit on this year's program, George Slaughter, chairman of the state AAA committee, explained.

The chairman urged that farmers and ranchmen cooperating with the program try to com-plete as much conservation work as possible before the deadline in order to earn the bulk of the maximum amount available for that purpose under the program The maximum amount for each To September 15 farm is determined on a basis of the acreage of non-depleting cropland, non-crop open pastureland, vegetable allotment, and commer-cial orchards on the farm. To receive these payments, the pro-ducer is required to carry out ap-proved soil-building practices. For ranches a similar allowance is set up, based on the number of animal units in the grazing capacity and the acreage of rangeland.

Innouncing the big

In some years, some cars take a big jump ahead. The Ford does that for 1941.

It has jumped ahead in size. It's the biggest Ford we've ever built, inside and out. It's wider. It has a longer wheelbase. Its seating room is wider by as much as 7 inches. It has new wide doors and semi-concealed running boards.

You'll notice also a new beauty, achieved by a skilful blending of mass with longer flowing lines. Larger windshield and windows give better vision all around.

One of its biggest advantages is the new soft ride. New, slower-action springs give a slow, gentle, gliding movement. A newly designed stabilizer helps absorb road shocks, and maintains balance on sharp curves and in cross winds.

More rapid acceleration to match its familiar speed and power makes this new Ford an even livelier car to drive.

These are only a few of this new car's outstanding features. It represents all the rich experience gained in building more than 28 million motor cars.

Any Ford dealer can give you many good reasons for making this your 1941 car.

Brownies Have Candle Light Service At Meeting

At their last meeting, each Brownie on arriving took up her handwork where she had left off the period. The next part of their meeting was spent in the gym a game of imitation and guessing around a table that was decorated with leaves and mushrooms representing a fairy pool. The only light was that from the five caniles on the table.

Mrs. Dick Frierson Brownie story and at the close Mrs. Bob Herren called each Brownie to the pool and as she turned her around, she repeated this charm, "Twist me and turn gerald and Mrs. C. Cooner. me and show me the elf: I looked into the pool and saw-? myself." Their leader then pinned the Brownie pin on each little girl.

Twenty-six pins were presented. Three new members were recognized and two of them presented with pins. Knowing that one of the little girls had worked very hard for her mother but knew she was too young to be a Brownie Mrs. Frierson called Betty Jo Herren to the front and referring to her as the Brownie Junior, presented her with a pin. Betty Jo was both surprised and delighted.

Mrs. Frierson also received a surprise when Mrs. Herren presented her with a pin-a gift from all the Brownies for her untiring efforts during the summer.

After issuing the Scouts their new Scout sacks they sang their songs and were dismissed.

More Than 9,000 Mattresses Made In 17 Counties

As many as 9,675 low income farm families in Northwest Texas are going to sleep better this winter as a result of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's plan for providing surplus cotton and ticking for mattress making.

Of the 9,675 applications for nattress materials, 9,612 were filed by white families and 63 by Negro families, according to re-ports released by Mrs. Isla Mae Chapman, district agent for the A. and M. College Extension Service, who supervises home demonstration activities in 17 counties of this area known as Extension District 3. Under the program, the Extension Service is charged with training rural leadership for supervision of the community mattress making centers, while the surplus cotton and ticking are provided by the Surplus Marketsupervisers do not received pay eligibility is determined by courge AAA committees.

There are 129 community cei row ters in the district where mattresses are being made. Some are in schools, gins, vacant buildings and fair grounds. Since the program was inaugurated in the district this spring 4,187 mattresses have already been made and members of 8,206 families have worked in the centers.

In counties where there are no home demonstration agents, agricultural agents are charged with the responsibility for arranging the program's operation and actual training of the community chairman in the principles of mattress making is done by Chapman.

A Cotton Christmas

As a feature of its program for promoting a more extensive use of cotton, the National Cotton Council will put forth more intensive efforts this year in behalf of the Cotton Christmas idea, in which it is expected that not less than 20,000 retail etores will participate.

The plan is designed to encourage greater sales of cotton goods of all kinds during the Christmas shopping season, as was done for the first time last year with much success, with about 10,000 stores

Merchants making purchases for winter sales are assured of the active support of the Council according to President Oscra Johnston, and a wide variety of promotional material will be supplied by its headquarters in Memphis.

Such material furnished last year included newspaper advertising mats and publicity stories, theatre trailers featuring the Cotton Christmas theme, announcements for radio stations, and retail store posters, banners and window cards. Plans for this year's project are being laid along the same basic lines as last year, but this year a wider variety of material will be made available.

This effort to increase the consumption of cotton is most commendable, as the American cotton surplus presents one of the nation's most serious

British Crises

That Great Britain now faces the greatest crisis in its history is admitted by the British themselves, but that nation has been through many dark days in the past when its leaders could see only disaster ahead. Some of their expressions follow:

William Pitt when prime minister said shortly after the American Revolution: 'There is scarcely anything around us but ruin and despair." William Wilberforce, another British statesman said in the early 1800's: "I dare not marry; the future is so dark and uncertain." e is so dark and uncertain." chers has accepted a place with Lord Charles Grey, who was later prime min- the Lueders High School as superister, said in 1819: "Everything is tending to a con-

The Duke of Wellington, shortly before his death in 1852, declared: "I thank God I will be spared from seeing the consummation of ruin that gathering around."

Lord Shaftesbury said in 1848: "Nothing can save the British Empire from shipwreck." But in spite of all these forebodings, Britain survived. In her present desperate struggle there has been a remarkable lack of the pessimism which gripped earlier statemen. Her leaders today have faith that Britain will somehow still survive.

The Newest Rubber

In recent years American laboratories have made strides in developing synthetic rubber, the newest type of which was announced only last week, being the fourth now perfected for commercial production. This latest type is called "butyl" rubber, and was developed after 10 years of research by a group of chemists at the Esso laboratories in Elizabeth. N. J. It is said to possess almost incredible properbeing superior to natural rubber for many Butyl is made of oil refinery gas, is white as snow, and is both odorless and tasteless. It stretches better but bounces less than natural rubber, and it becomes stronger with age. In laboratory tests a piece of natural rubber placed in nitric acid dis-solved in five minutes, while a similar piece of butyl was not affected by the acid.

The new rubber is especially desirable for tires as its strength is increased when it gets hot; it does not wear down as fast as real rubber; it holds air in inner tubes 15 to 20 times as long, and sharp crop very short in that part of the Herald, published at Byers, Texas. objects in the road do not cut it as easily.

Several other superior qualities of butyl also were described by Dr. P. K. Frolich, director of the chemical division of the laboratory in his report to the American Chemical Society. The value of such a product to the nation in case our supply of natural rubber should be cut off can not be over-

"Where Friend Meets Friend"

WE CAN THANK ... and stripes

HOOL BELLS are ringing for American boys and girls.

In many other lands today youngsters aren't so lucky. Sirens are screaming in their ears, sending them scurrying into underground shelters. . We can thank our lucky stars and stripes for escape from such terrors. Our flag is a symbol of freedom in a country despised by oppressors who think Americans are far too rich.

We are rich. Gloriously rich. Not in money but in a wealth of the kind of things we can use and enjoy. For instance, with only 7% of the world's population, we have half of the world's railroads; half of the world's coffee is served on our tables; we consume twothirds of the world's oil. We own more automobiles, radios, telephones than all the rest of the world put together. And, more important, we have the freedom to enjoy these things as we please.

Electric service is another good example. Electric service brings us light, music, refrigeration, easy washing, cool ironing, good coffee . . . for only a few cents a day.

Not only does electric service give us more of the good things of life but it brings them to us at a steadily lowered cost. Because of your increased demand for electricity, and our economical operation, electric rates during the past twelve or fifteen years have been cut about in half. And you can automatically reduce the average rate you pay still further; the more electricity you use each month, the lower your average rate will be.

The employees of your electric company are proud to be members of an industry that has always been among the leaders in giving the public more and better service for its money. And we are grateful to you for your help in making our efforts succeed.

Harley Sadler and New Stage Show To Be Here On Oct. 7th

Elsewhere in this issue you will find an ad heralding the coming of America's oldest and leading stage shows. For something like 25 years this popular company has been playing here each season, and this year according to Mr. Sadler, the people of Haskell county have a real treat in store for them in the way of a stage

Harley has selected for his opening play a domestic comedy drama entitled "The Lovable Old Grouch," a brand new play that the Sadler company has never presented before.

The doors will open at 7:15. The vaudeville program starts at 8:10 Popular prices will prevail. The Sadler show will be sponsored here by the Haskell volunteer fire department.
