Bible Course Proves Interesting

This new course that was added to the curriculum this year meets only twice a week, which gives teresting study. Every six weeks Davis. She likes Haskell and our a different one of the local preachteacher was Mr. Haynes, who any other school she has attendwas then pastor of the First Methodist Church, then we had Church, and Mr. Malphurs, pastor of the Church of Christ.

During the first semester we studied the Old Testament of the Undivided and Divided Kingdom. The Bible is the most wonderful book, widely read and the best seller because of its interesting stories and beautiful poetry. It is appealing to read these stories and have them interpreted in a way that makes them as enjoyable as some romantic fiction. We have studied the lives of some of the most outstanding characters in the Bible as: David, Solomon, Jonah, Nebuchadnezzar, Daniel. We have learned that Jezebel was the meanest woman that ever lived. Next semester the course takes up the New Testament, which will be under Mr. Whatley this six weeks.

In class, it is always Jeffie Maud Toliver who knows all the answers, so let us see what her opinion of the Bible Course is: "I think more should be interested in it, and take it." Juanita Cofield says, "I enjoy studying the Bible and I'm learning lots that I didn't know about Change Schools think it is one of the most beneficial classes the school could have," quoted by Mary Lou Josselet.

Now we will let Ross Lowe speak for himself: "I have enjoyed the course, and I feel that it worth any student's time.

Since the withdrawal of several students from school, there are only ten taking Bible now, but we feel sure more will want to take it next year when it is scheduled with regular courses The small number this year is probably due to the fact that all schedules were arranged last fall when the course was opened, and few were free to take it at the time offered.

"I know this course will mean more to me than the half credit will get for taking it," says

WEINERT WINS OWN

Winning their thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth games, the Weinert Bulldogs won first place honors in their own tournament.

They played Sunset and Bomarton to win the right to meet Rochester, who had done the unexpected by beating Leuders and Munday. In a thriller that had the crowd roaring from start to finish the Weinert lads emerged the victor 12-15. At the half the score was deadlocked 7-7. The first few minutes after the half Rochester took the lead 12-7. In a desperate last quarter rally led by Owens and Johnson the Bulldogs forged ahead to win by a score of 15-12. O'Brien won third place by beating out Sunset.

Johnson of Weinert was picked as the outstanding player of the tournament.
