History Of The Class of '40

The seniors were a hardy group of people who inhabited Haskell High School during a reign of four years. They excelled their fellow classmates in many things chief among which may be mentioned their egotism.

Little is known of the seniors before they were found living in Haskell High School. Research studies and excavations would indicate that these seniors migrated from the plains of the North and South Wards. It is thought by some that a glacier left them stranded without food and that they wandered into the fertile valleys of Haskell High School in search of the intellectual food that myths had said might be growing there.

The government of the seniors seemed to be a modified form of tribal organization with a big chief called a President presiding over them. Rock pictures left, and carvings on class room sats, lead to the conclusion that during the first part of the reign of this roving band that their leader might have been called Eulis Wilnot Hayes Jr.

While in Freshman Valley the seniors had a theatre party which, unfortunately was raided by some barbarous tribes farther up the mountains. On a beautiful day in April these seniors declared a holiday and traveled to the distant shores of a great river called Scott's Crossing. It was on this memorable day in April that the seniors first heard Mr. Mason laugh.

It seems that after a year in the valleys the seniors moved up the mountains, presumably to find forage for their minds; and set up a government on Sophomore Range. Here the freshman chief was supplanted by Wanda Elice Duane who led this great and powerful tribe to new heights of conquest. On Sophomore Range the seniors went on a hayride, and hiked to a place near where the Barnett home now stands. It seems that the horses were very frail so the seniors carried the horses instead of the horses carrying them. The results of this remarkable escapade were broken backs and tummy aches.

In the third stage of their civilization it is believed that the seniors took up river navigation, and spent most of their time in houseboats plying up and down Junior River. The most brilliant navigator of all was Mary Lou Johnson and the tribe elevated her to the exalted position of most high river rat. Under her leadership the group suddenly found out from ancient writings on clay that their ancestors came from the hills of Kentucky and West Virginia. To celebrate this great event the seniors replenished their larders enough to stage the famous Hill-billy banquet. This banquet, it is said was the most lavish of all feasts ever given, although many noses retreated into Huh! Aw, surely you know what I'm doing. Why I spent most of my time walking a tight rope. You know I'm married to Bill Rope, and since he stays tight most of the time, I have to walk him a lot.

Zeldan? That's right, you did used to be a little sweet on him, didn't you? Oh, he's helping Bradley and Walter Winchell with their "lullaby Shopping". He does the shopping part.

Say, by the way, did you hear about Hassell? All his hair came out in the same spot in the shape of a heart and he spends all his time trying to get Robert Ripley to recognize him for his "Believe It Or Not."

The play cast? Oh, Jeans married now and has a household of little Brians and Terrys running around.

Roy is a rich playboy in Hollywood and its been rumored around town that he's going steady with Shirley Temple.

Connie is still going around in circles since she hasn't decided who she wants to circulate with yet.

Wayne's still "wagging his tail behind him", but now it happens at 3 o'clock in the morning while he's dogging his wife.

Margaret's still a maid at the McIntyre's. I knew she would get in trouble stealing Terry's boy friends. She married one the other day.

Helen said that she said that I said that she said that you said that he said that they said that Leatrice is still looking up "szzyg" in the encyclopedia. But you, incidentally, still doesn't have a date for Sunday night.

Margie Busby and Anita Coburn have gone into the dairy business. They milk four goats and send the milk to Honolulu, where it is put in artificial coconuts.

Bernard and Norman are now famous comedians in radio, who have great fun giving each other hot-foots and knocking themselves out with their own jokes. Such as: Who was that lady you were with last night?—That was no lady, that was my wife. HAH! HAH!

Betty June's selling peanuts at her son's circus and doubling for the strong man on the side.

Do you know what Wanda is doing? She's opened a home for all love sick high school students and she was so successful with Haskell High that Josephine Parish thought she'd try it.

Joe Thomason is a writer of our latest song hits. His latest is "I've Got Those Hey Babe What Cho' Doin' Tonight Gee What A Beautiful Grapefruit Rebecca Aain't Cha' Comin' Out With Little Orphan Annie Blues."

Paul? No, he isn't a professor like he was in the play; he's a street cleaner in Venice. In case you don't know, there are no streets in Venice.

That winds up the cast, but there are plenty others—if I can keep up with all of them.

Who? Marie Wobley? Yes, she got into the movies; (The admission is only 25c at your local theatre, so why don't you try it?)

Do you remember that night at the Western Party when T. R. and Fred swallowed the butcher knives? Well, they "coughed" them up the other day.

Bud and Doyle? Boy, I'll say they're famous. They're harmonizing themselves through the New World's Fair at McConnell.

T. C. Griffin owns a large hog concern somewhere in the U. S. where he can practice his calling to his heart's content. Sometimes he calls the missus that way and she promptly crowns him with a rolling pin.

Dale Harris and Edwin Jeter took a physical development course by mail and they are now giving Tarzan a little competition somewhere in Africa.

Chester Via, who was awarded a star for being the typical cowboy in the Senior class, stuck to the business. He's still deals with cowboys; he's a bull fighter.

Isabella's teaching German in H. H. S.—Confidentially do you think it will mix with all that French up there?

Have you seen "Gone With The Wind" in movieville yet? Eulis Hoover is starred as Rhett Butler; Ethel Reta as Scarlett; Dorothy Lee Rose as Melanie; Harrison Head is Ashley Wilkes; Jane Holt is prissy; and Frances Carruth is mammy.

Velton Moore is a corn-husker. But don't get me right. The corn he shucks comes out of bottles. Aw, shucks!

Ruthie Mae Scheets? Oh, one day she took a powder and she is now six feet tall, weighs 450, and is acting as a bearded lady in the circus.

You know Clifford Rhoades and Syble always did look so cute together. I was so glad to hear that they are a tap-dancing team in Chinatown town.

And that sweet little Mary Lou

Josselt—our married senior who remained loyal to the end—wasn't it terrible about her "accident"? What! You haven't heard? Why, about 2 years ago she made some biscuits and when Marion started to eat one, she said, "Darling, these biscuits are as hard as rock." She didn't believe him, but when the one she threw at him knocked him out completely, he was thoroughly convinced. Confidentially, he is still a little groggy.

Delna Reeves and Lavar Ward are still running "Ye Olde Pawn Shoppe." Their only stock at present is about 35 senior rings, class of '40, which were pawned to pay for caps, gowns and diplomas. Our class always was pretty financially embarrassed, individually, wasn't it?

Flossie Hester is a jugler now. The last time I saw her she had a full bowl full of water against the ceiling with a broom and she couldn't figure out how to get it down.

And Ray Ulmer is a lady killer deluxe. It has been said that those he doesn't kill he cripples pretty badly.

Say, Garland Wood really has a swell job lined up. He's making a haven for homeless butterflies.

You know the 3 L's—Lois, Louvenia, and Lela? Guess what they're doing now? They've just built a dance hall for Haskell High School, the "How'm I Doing Kid." I don't believe it.

Audrey Hise, Stella Mae Ulmer, Mary Lou Watts and the five senior girls who married make up the ex-senior duet that sings over Sweetwater on Saturdays.

Our sponsor? Oh, Mrs. Wimblish is running a "sweet milk tavern" like she always wanted to.

Well, Nettie, I just don't have a thing to talk about. I never hear anything—Oh my goodness, I forgot to ask you what you're doing.

What! Nettie say that again! Well! I'll be! (Hangs up receiver and turns to audience). She's the census taker and already knew all this.

Who's Who Among The Seniors

GERALDINE LEATRICE WHEELER

Known by most students as "Heavy" Leatrice is our brilliant classmate whose scholarship is her most outstanding characteristic. Besides her intelligence, she has also been very popular throughout her four years in high school.

Leatrice was treasurer of the Freshman class and has been a member of the Gypsy Ramblers and Home Economics club for five years. Being talented in music she was a member of the band two years.

If every student had such a record of dependability, perfect attendance, sportsmanship and love for Haskell High School as Leatrice, he would graduate with the beautiful memories of a wonderful past—never to be forgotten.

CHESTER VIA

One of our most loyal Indians is Chester Via, whose school spirit ranks high in his personality. His sportsmanship at all times and his jolly outlook of life will be remembered for many years to come by the other seniors as well as the underclassmen.

Perhaps the members of Mrs. Wimblish's Texas History class will remember him most for his ability to "get the teacher off of the subject"—not intentionally, but by accident.

Power to you, Chester, and may your life be brightened in the future as much as you have brightened ours in the past.

RUTHIE MAE SCHEETS

Which Senior is always willing to take part in all school activities? Which one is always ready to laugh and have a big time when anyone gives the word? Who does all the Seniors hold a soft spot in their hearts for? The answer to all of these questions is Ruthie Mae Scheets. As well as being one of our tallest girls, she has one of the biggest hearts in high school.

Every inch of her height is filled with school spirit and loyalty which causes her to be loved and admired by all.

RAY ULMER

Ray is a senior who keeps a steady pace in his studies and meets every situation with the same kind of steadiness. Little brother to Stella Mae, he has kept in the same classes with her, but at the same time hasn't let her boss him.

Ray has black curly hair that is the envy of a number of his fellow students. He has a characteristic slow drawl in his speech that is an indication of the evenness of his nature.

STELLA MAE ULMER
 Stella Mae came to Haskell High School as a freshman, being one of the first to ride the bus in from the Plainview community. She has ridden twenty eight miles a day every day of her high school attendance.

Stella is a perfect sport and knows how to give as well as take when it comes to bantering. She is loyal to our school and always ready to support its activities, having been a member of the pep squad and the Future Home-maker's Club.

Senior Class Will

Our Requests
 The class of '40 of Haskell High School, being of sound and disposing mind, does hereby bequeath the following personal property in the manner stated.

To our teachers we leave the imposing mass of unusual and unverified information which may be found in our accumulated papers. If they wish to write an encyclopedia using this information, they may do so without paying royalties to our heirs.

To Clyde Ellis Dean's subdued manner as a result of the bully disposition of his hefty wife, we leave all of our spunk to help the poor hen-pecked man out.

To Perry Shipley Mason, our history teacher, we return unanswered the many different and difficult questions which he has propounded to us during the years that have passed. We believe that the same questions can be used over and over, for surely they will never be answered. If we couldn't answer them, who can?

To the grouchiest man on the campus, Mr. Neal, we leave our sunny dispositions to cheer him up.

Mrs. Wimblish and Mr. Ramsey as senior sponsors, will their criminal attitude toward high school students to the Junior sponsors, Mr. McCollum and Miss Vick.

To the rest of the faculty, the seniors will our names which will be found carved on the various fixtures throughout the building which are to be left untouched to serve as notices of our immortal fame. Let those who succeed us gaze upon them with reverence and respect.

If any scattered pieces of paper discarded by this class are found on the floor, they are to become the cherished property of Mr. Pearsay, who is to gather them up with reverent care.

Any harsh words or unkind expressions which we may have spoken to anyone during our stay here are to be buried with us so that their sting will be for us and not for those whom we have injured.

The echoes of our merry voices we leave to wander aimlessly along the halls forever. May they be an inspiration to underclassmen to achieve something approaching our great deeds.

We leave our dearest regards for all our friends and schoolmates, but our fond memories we take with us beyond the vale.

To this, the last testament and will of the graduating class of 1940 of Haskell High School, we, the members of that famous class, do hereby collectively set our hand on this the 8th day of May of the year of our Lord, 1940.

(Signed) The Haskell High School Senior Class of 1940

W. M. S. Has Interesting Program Monday Afternoon

On May 6th the women of the W. M. S. met at the church and enjoyed a most splendid program directed by Mrs. E. Martin.

With Mrs. Patterson at the piano the meeting was opened by all joining in singing of "Take Time To Be Holy" after which a responsive reading led by the director was heard. Mrs. Martin gave some splendid introductory remarks after which the program was opened by Mrs. Irby who read a beautiful poem.

Miss Baulch Cass of the young women's circle was next and told most interestingly of the life of Miss Isabella Thoburn, who was a pioneer in India and served in the Methodist Episcopal Church.

This concluded the program after which Mrs. O. E. Patterson conducted a short business session. At this time we were urged to attend a school of instruction to be held in Knox City on Tuesday May 14th.

Also a letter was read from Miss Daisy Baskins of Seymour who is district superintendent of the spiritual life division, urging that each society meet at some hour on May 15, for an hour of prayer and meditation. This auxiliary will meet at 8 A. M. on this day.

We met on May 13 in a Christian Social Relations program, Mrs. Hugh Smith, superintendent of this work directed a most interesting program. The meeting opened with Mrs. Patterson at the piano and joined by Mrs. Bob Harrison singing "Standing In The Need of Prayer". The entire group joined in the singing of the chorus. The director next led in a responsive reading.

Mrs. Bob Harrison gave a splendid story of the life of Mrs. Luke Johnson, who has long been one of the leaders in the women's work of the Methodist Church.

The next few minutes were spent in a very interesting and informative discussion of several things that we feel to be very vital to our work. We are being urged to put "first things first."

T. E. L. Class Social Is Held On Tuesday

The first Tuesday in each month is always looked forward to with pleasure by the T. E. L. class and we don't even let rain keep us away if it is possible to get there. Our good president, Mrs. J. A. Couch opened her beautiful home to us Tuesday, May 7th with a good crowd present.

Opening song, In The Garden. Prayer by Mrs. Gilstrap. After a short business period the social hour was turned over to group captain 3, Mrs. Gilliam, who brought us a very interesting program.

As it was a Mother's Day program Mrs. Brooks brought in her impressive way a wonderful devotional comparing motherhood to the mighty ship as she is anchored at the harbor, all beautiful and white and ready to carry out her life's mission. As she sail out into the deep sea carrying her burden of the many dangers which lie ahead, dangers of which her brave captain must be prepared for, he is watching his beloved ship as a mother watches her child, ever ready to guide him over the dangerous places as he travels life's way. What is more beautiful to look upon than a young mother as she looks for the first time into the face of the sweet helpless little life and realizes that she has brought a new life into the world to guide, protect and direct. He is the most priceless of all God's gifts to womanhood, a little life to rear for the Master's glory. And as the ship is guided by a very small rudder and as the captain is ever watchful so is the mother as she guides the little feet, hands and mind preparing them for the time when they will have to launch out on the deep sea of life. As the captain loves his ship the mother loves and guides her child and as she sits with him upon her knees and teaches him of the "Great Captain" who is ever watchful for the pitfalls of life, ever ready to guide and direct until they have reached the last harbor—Heaven.

Next on the program was a song from each group dedicated to the most honored or outstanding member of their group.

Group No. 1 honored our teacher Mrs. Whitaker with the song, "You Are A Wonderful Mother" sung by Jean Conner, with Mrs. Marion Josselt at the piano. Group No. 2, "Higher Ground" sang by Mrs. Whitaker and Mrs. Angie Herren, honoring Mrs. K. D. Simmons with Mrs. Jim Fouts at the piano. Group No. 3 honored our beloved Mother Crawford with the song, "Help Somebody Today" sung by Mrs. Littlefield, with Mrs. Reynolds at the piano. Group No. 4 honored Mrs. J. B. Bailey with the song "Further On" sung by Mrs. Angie Herren with Mrs. Jim Fouts at the piano.

Delightful homemade ice cream and cake were served to: Mmes. Carlton Couch, John Couch, Brooks, Littlefield, Diggs, Jim Fouts, Walling, Price, Gilstrap, Jim Bailey, Whitaker, Gilliam, K. D. Simmons, Angie Herren, J. Everett, Reynolds, Roberts, Merchant, Paxton, Mobley, Cate.

Mrs. K. D. Simmons Hostess For Mission Study Monday

The Helen Bagby Circle of the Baptist W. M. U. met in the home of Mrs. K. D. Simmons on Monday evening May 13th for a Mission Study from Royal Service. All joined in singing, Let The Lower Lights Be Burning, with Miss Ida Crawford at the piano. Mrs. Paxton then offered a beautiful prayer for our youth of today that being our subject for the month. We then had a brief business session in which we elected Mrs. Jim Bailey as Personal Service chairman.

Miss Crawford then directed our Mission Study and Mrs. Taylor gave the devotional, The Challenge to Youth from Proverbs and Luke. The book of Proverbs means Heavenly wisdom, the knowledge of God better than silver, gold or rubies. It is the law of truth and kindness. The personal trust in God as guide, as teacher, as a loving Father and the outcome of such behavior is a long and happy life, prosperous, peaceful and truly a guide for mothers in rearing their children.

Miss Crawford then told us about Youth In A Changing World. Often in their search for pleasure they drop into the pitfalls of sin and thousands are being lured to walk in the low way of sinful indulgence and war today is bidding for the young people of the world and for the sake of our young people we must stand for peace, work for peace and pray for peace. Mrs. Cates offered a beautiful prayer for our youth of today and Mrs. Gilstrap, our own efficient teacher on this subject gave us a beautiful story on "The World Gave God Bids for Youth" and we all enjoyed this talk so very much. She also gave a lovely prayer for our young people.

Mrs. Paxton then told about "Youth Steadfast for Missions." In our W. M. U. organizations young people are taught to pray for missions and also to give to missions. Certainly mothers have an important part in the promotion of young people's organizations. Mrs. Cates told about Missionary Education at Work and the Test of Every Day. Every day our young people meet temptations and they must choose either the right or wrong. What can we do to help them? Home, school and church working together for the welfare of youth will make them steadfast for Christ and for the extension of His kingdom to the ends of the earth.

Ten ladies were dismissed with prayer by Mrs. Couch.

Last Meeting of Senior-Junior Magazine Club For Year Is Held

Janie Lyle Martin was hostess for the meeting and Ethel Frierson, retiring president was director of the program. Roll call was answered with suggestions as to Why Federate. Reports on the year's work from various standing committees were read and filed. Some splendid and outstanding work has been done by each committee at some time during the year.

A report of the first district convention at Breckenridge was brought to the club by its delegate, Faye Woodson. She gave an interesting account of the happenings included in which were highlights from the main address Educating the Democracy which was delivered by Mrs. Grover C. The paper Creating a Program prepared by Helen Pearson and given in Junior High School at Breckenridge by Anita Herren received such favorable comment that it is to be published in the Federated News this month.

As a surprise, the year book committee had the books for another year finished and gave them to members at this final meeting.

The most important feature of the program of the evening was the installation of the new officers for 1940-41. Mrs. Matt Graham one of the club sponsors directed this installation in an impressive manner as she presented each with a corsage and charged each officer with the importance and responsibility of office.

The officers installed were: Faye Woodson, president; Helen Pearson, first vice president; Pat Day, second vice president; Wilda Pippen corresponding secretary; Wynelle Helium treasurer; Ethel Frierson board member and Elyse Eastland parliamentary; Jerry Lane reporter; Lucille Akins historian; Marie Womble counselor; Mrs. Matt Graham sponsor; Mrs. K. $20,000.00

This week we can announce that our Mortuary Funds have passed the $20,000.00 mark. The Mortuary Fund is the reserve fund from which nothing but death claims can be paid.

There are but two things to safe life insurance: the RATES you charge and the RISKS you take.

The low rates that you have paid have proved to be adequate. We have been careful to investigate all applications before issuing policies and have accepted only good risks; thus we have kept our death rate low.

Write us if you have no protection, or would like to increase your insurance. IDEAL SECURITY LIFE INSURANCE CO. W. H. Littlefield, Sec.-Treas. Box 306 Phone 3731 Anson, Texas J. M. Littlefield and S. W. Holland Agents

CHURCHES

CHURCH OF CHRIST J. G. Malphurs, Minister

As the after-effects of a disease settles on the weakest place of the human body so does sin attack the weakest places of our character.

Christians have been for nineteen hundred years expecting the return of her Lord to take his bride the church to heaven. Paul said to the Romans, "Now is salvation nearer to us than when we first believed." (Rom. 13:11).

Our evening sermon, 8:30, will be: "The Second Coming of Christ." What are the present signs of His coming? Does the terrible carnage in Europe have a bearing on His coming? Will the British Empire endure until Christ comes?

You are urged to hear both of these sermons.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

The highest reward for man's toil is not what he gets for it, but what he becomes by it. —Ruskin

The Storekeepers

Those of us who are past middle age can remember when the kindly neighbor whose job it was to sell us the necessities of life was known as the storekeeper. His name was quite appropriate. He bought a stock of goods, hung out a sign, sometimes, and waited for his neighbors and friends to drop in and buy.

Later on his son inherited the business, if it had not gone to the wall, adopted a slightly more aggressive attitude toward the securing of trade, and called himself a merchant. Here and there a venturesome soul began to really study business methods and actually plan for greater volume and a wider trade radius. Some became real business men and reaped rich rewards.

Later still, the department store and mail order house came into existence, followed by the chain stores.

In spite of these revolutionary developments however, thousands of independent merchants are making money today. They are doing it through adopting scientific methods of buying and selling, through the employment of systematic accounting, through a study of their customers' requirements, and through advertising.

But a great many spurn such new-fangled ideas, and stay in the rut in which their forefathers ran their course. They are headed for bankruptcy and don't know why. But to anyone with a fundamenmental knowledge of modern business practices the reason is plain. These failures are not business men, nor even merchants—they are only store-keepers.

Tributes To Cooks

There is no legion of honor title for ladies who give distinguished service in the kitchen, but any housewife who is discouraged by seeming lack of appreciation may find many literary records which should give her new inspiration.

One of the most sincere tributes to culinary achievement was made by Sir Thomas Lipton, the noted yachtsman, in his autobiography. Many years before he became a famous tea merchant, he worked on a Virginia plantation where the life was hard. In fact, the only pleasant memory was the good taste of the griddlecakes which his landlady fried every morning.

Forty years later, when Sir Thomas was internationally famous as a good sportsman, he traveled 2,000 miles to get another taste of her griddlecakes and gave a banquet in her honor.

Most famous men's memoirs make mention of their favorite home cooking. Napoleon had a statue erected to a pleasant woman whose cheese confection was particularly delicious, and Abraham Lincoln wrote longingly of the special fruit pie which an Illinois housewife made for him.

More men should follow Sir Thomas Lipton's example and express their appreciation of the queen cooks who serve them, especially the wives whose skill is too often taken for granted without a word of praise.

Discovery of a process for extracting gasoline from cotton seed has been reported. But if scientists could devise a way to extract the tax from gasoline it would be even more helpful to the long suffering motorist.

A 72-year-old carpenter of Windsor, Canada, did two chores in one visit to the government building a few days ago. He registered the birth of a newly-born son and applied for an old age pension at the same time.

Dr. Freeman of Yale reports after an exhaustive survey that the man who "takes it easy" while he works is likely to get the most done. This is encouraging to those who like to take things easy, and that applies, we imagine, to most of us.

According to a recent article, Robert Wadlow, the world's tallest man, has reached a height of eight feet, eight and a quarter inches, and weighs 491 pounds. Wadlow's parents and two brothers and two sisters are of normal size, while he weighed only eight and half pounds at birth. He is now 23 years old and is still growing.

"NYLON"

Beginning Wednesday Available in Two of America's Finest Hosiery Lines

VAN RAALTE PHOENIX

Nylon is the name of a new synthetic fiber invented and manufactured by du Pont, which is particularly adapted to hosiery use. Nylon is really made from coal, air and water... entirely different from any material used in the manufacture of fine stockings... Due to the small amount of nylon yarns now being produced, it was necessary to allow each hosiery mill only its pro rata part... consequently we are only able to offer a limited supply at this time.

7 MAIN REASONS WHY "I'd rather have a Ford"

1 GOING POWER — the kind of power that only the V-8 engine can give me—instant response, lightning acceleration, marvelous economy, fast, smooth, faithful performance. 6,000,000 Ford V-Eights — more than all other Eights combined—say this is the power plant for me!

2 STOPPING POWER The big hydraulic brakes of the Ford V-8 are far and away the biggest in the low-priced field—a safety factor I've got to have in the new car I buy.

3 SMOOTHNESS Not only in amazing power does the Ford V-8 engine excel, but in the smoothness that gives velvet quiet. Why should I do without the supreme luxury of 8-cylinder smoothness which no car of fewer cylinders can match?

4 COMPLETE ECONOMY The combination of low price, low cost of operation, high trade-in value and more extras at no extra cost, makes the Ford the great Economy buy for 1940.

5 POWER TO HOLD THE ROAD No car in any price field excels Ford in roadability—in keeping "all four feet on the ground" under all driving conditions. This means safety!

6 STAMINA In staying power, there's no car that can take the rough with the smooth like Ford. There are more Fords on the highway than any other make of car! This sturdy Ford is made to take it.

7 STYLE Ford set the current modern trend in beauty of lines. And Ford's unequalled paint job makes its beauty permanent.
