Haskell Gains Moral Victory

Although the Haskell Indians were defeated by the Stamford Bulldogs 19-0, the Indians still won a moral victory through their good playing in their last conference game of the season. Stamford made more first downs than the Indians, but Haskell made more thrilling runs throughout the game. Last Friday night, the boys played their best game of the season, even if they were defeated. The football boys deeply appreciate everything that the fans have done for them during the season.

Football Boys to Receive Awards

The members of the Football squad have elected three boys as the outstanding boys of the season. The boys have been watched during the whole season and on Monday, November 22, the team met together and elected the three to be given the awards. Awards will be given to: Gerald Welch — Most Valuable to the Team; Claude Helweg — Best Sport; John Barnett — Kept Training Rules Best. This expresses the ideas of the team as a whole and these are their selections.

Let's Make Cents

The dictionary defines "sense" as: to understand things; good judgment. While "cents" is the number of pennies that it takes to make a dollar. Our cents as well as our sense are needed in the war effort. If we use our cents to aid our fighting men and allies, we are using our sense too. You ask: "How can we use our cents if we don't have any to use?" Well, for the next few weeks we will publish ways to make cents. Remember, every penny counts! If you are quite an expert camera man why not concentrate on taking special pictures? For instance excel in taking baby pictures, or pet pictures, or family groups. Did you ever go to a real estate agent and ask if you might make pictures of the houses he rents? Or go to a laundry or a cleaner and suggest taking pictures of the help doing the work behind the scenes? To be used enlarged for a window display? Try it. After you have sold several, it is a good idea to carry an album of those pictures as a sample when trying to get orders. H.H.S. made cents this week, buying $43.00 in war bonds and stamps. North Ward made cents in the form of $90.60. Is there a squander bug in your pocketbook? Put Samps and Bonds at the top of your budget, and starve him out. Let's Make Cents!

SPARS Celebrate First Anniversary

Members of the Women's Auxiliary Reserve in the Coast Guard learn the knots on a coast guard schooner in Boston harbor. They recently celebrated the first anniversary of their organization which is known as "SPARS." This name is a condensation from the coast guard motto "Semper Paratus," meaning "Always Prepared."

Badoglio Tells His Plans to U. S. Newsmen

Pietro Badoglio, Italian premier, is pictured with American reporters during a recent interview in which he revealed his plans for the immediate future of Italy. He said he would resign as head of the government as soon as Rome is set free. He also announced that he would appoint a temporary government of undersecretaries.

 We're mighty glad to have one of our old students back with us. J. W. Mullins is back in HHS after having lived in Rule for a while.
 Say! Didn't Janice look "sharp" at that Pep Rally Tuesday night? And what was she talking to Coach so much about, before the rally?
 Students, get hep to that new Senior boy enrolled in dear ole HHS. His name is Virgil Pickering and he hails from Weimert. By the way, Wanda Jean, isn't it lucky that you work in the same store with HIM! What fun.
 The Warwhoop Staff wishes to express its sincere sympathy for Royce, our fellow-classmate, and his mother, Mrs. Adkins, in their loss of their father and husband.

"Pan Americanos Meet"

The Pan Americanos met Nov. 19, to give their monthly program. Horace Crawford called the meeting to order, and minutes were read by Mildred Chapman. Since there was no old business, Doris Holmesly suggested we have a club party. A committee was appointed, consisting of Jack Thornon, Margaret Sholl, Sarah Beih and our president. The date was set as the Thursday after Thanksgiving and the place Horace Crawford's home. Margaret Sholl took charge of the program and it was given on Mexico: Geography and Climate—Horace; Farm Land — Margaret Parks, Mineral Wealth—Margaret Morris, History — Hartsell Johnson, Mexico's New President—Jerry Gannaway and the concluding part "Pan American Cross Roads Score" by Sarah.
Guess Who?
 Whoozit. Can you guess who the big Senior who is the soul of hilarity is, wherever you hear his laugh, you can make no mistake as to who it is. He played football for HHS one year and lettered. Do you know who it is?
 Guess who. She's a vivid red-head with a marvelous disposition. Although very quiet, you always know when she's around, by her desire to do the right thing by everybody. Oh! By the way, she's a junior. Who is it?
 Who is it? A popular member of the Sophomore Class, he has quite a way with the girls. He is a blonde and about 5 ft. 7 inches tall. He's an active member of the FFA and other school activities. Whoozit?
 Can you guess? A member of our Warwhoop staff, this little blonde is very capable and willing to do what is asked of her. She has a vivacious personality and is a favorite with the freshmen. Who is it?
 Answers to last week's Guess Who: Mary Jo Zelisko, Olen King, Doris Holmesly and Giles Kemp.

Annual Queen Race Is Begun

Who's "gonna" be Annual Queen? That's a question nobody can answer, but guessing who it will be is a favorite pastime of the students of H.H.S. One of these days the great reckoning will come when the pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters will be counted and then we'll all be in on this deep dark mystery. Do you know who's running? Well, it's time you found out something about 'em. From that class renowned for dignity — the Seniors, we have Doris Lowe. Doris has long been a favorite with "ye" student's and is now representing the Senior Class. A brunette with fascinating green eyes, and a super personality, she is all the Seniors could ask for. Yea Seniors! Next we have the class sometimes referred to as the "Juvvny Juniors" (but never the less a good class) comes Deen Bartlett. Deen has been Annual Queen for the last two years and who knows but what Deen will be Annual Queen again. A vivacious blonde, blue eyed at that, has quite a knack for getting things done. Deen is first choice of the Juniors. Yea Juniors!
 The next step down are the Sophomores, better known as "Slippy Sophs". Their candidate is Mildred Chapman. Although only a Sophomore she will be strong backed by her class. Another blonde with blue eyes, and a way with the boys, Mildred is the favorite of the Sophomores. Yea Sophomores!
 Last, but not least we have the Freshman and everybody knows who we're talking about if you just say Fish. Catherine Davis is the candidate from this class and a very good one, too. A brunette with brown eyes and such a sweet disposition, Catherine is just what the Freshman want. Yea Freshman!

Bonfire

BLAZES and SHOUTS that colored the sky and resounded to the outskirts of Haskell and maybe Stamford (we hope), were part of the most exciting pep rally of the 1943 season. Besides the pep evidence by the student body in response to yells called by the yell leaders, Cora Faye and Janice, and the pep talks by Principal Scott, Coach Roberson, and the Pep Squad sponsor, Mrs. Byrd, several business and professional men were there who added their words of hope, faith, and love of and for the boys. The love was proved when the Lions Club, through their president, Mr. Willie Lane, invited the football boys to a banquet that is to be given in the near future—WIN OR LOSE.
 Others called on were — Rev. Kenneth Copeland, Judge Ben Charlie Chapman, Businessman R. C. Lowe, and District Attorney Fred Stockdale.

Glimpses of the Favorites

The petite girl who, by her quiet manner, gentle voice, and hair-do reminds us of a Gibson girl of the gay nineties, is none other than the Senior choice for Annual Queen, Doris Lowe. Besides singing, she can play a mean type writer—many of the Warwhoop's articles are typed by her nimble fingers. She is secretary of the Gypsy Ramblers and an able member of the Civics Club and Annual staff. She belonged to the Pep Squad three years. Her main interest in football, we think, is captured by a certain Mr. Bischoffshausen. Her weaknesses are jewelry and Skylark perfume. She's no newcomer to HHS. She was born here and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Lowe.

FFA News

Mr. Morton, our Agriculture teacher, went to Trent Tuesday on FFA business. The Monday Chapter of the FFA invited our chapter to send a delegate to their meeting last Tuesday, so Lloyd Kennedy, who goes to Munday quite often anyway, went to their meeting.

Freshman Have Class Meeting

A report was given by the Treasurer, Eriven Frierson. Several talks were given by Raynell Godfrey, Wayburn Oates, Wilma John Coffield and Floyd Tankersly. Plans were made for an assembly program. Raynell Godfrey thanked the class for the sympathy and that was sent when her grandfather passed away. Class singing closed the program.

Griper's Club Organized

The Original Griper's Club was organized during the game between Haskell and Archer City. The officers are: President—Claude Helweg; Secretary—Pat Speer; Reporter—Tommy Harrell; Mascot—Raymond Mobley. Our mascot is gripping because Stamford wanted to play us Friday night instead of Thanksgiving. Until we meet again, gripe all you can.
Sing Song Held in Assembly
 Tuesday morning the student body took part in an assembly directed by the Reverend Kenneth Copeland. Several songs, both old and new were sung, and also some rounds were sung. Mr. Copeland, a favorite with the student body pulled some very clever jokes on the faculty. Mrs. Cox accompanied the students on all numbers and this greatly added to the entertainment. The students say: "Give us more Assemblies like this one!"

An Ideal Date

If I could pick out good characteristics from all boys I might have what is called an ideal date. First of all, he doesn't have to be handsome, but I do like them nice looking. He must have good manners and know how to use them. He must be able to carry on a good conversation without being an encyclopedia with legs. He must be nice, but not one who pets all the time. I don't care if he smokes, but I don't care for a boy who drinks—Well, can't I dream?

Juniors To Give Play

In the Junior Class Meeting, November 17, 1943, it was decided that the best method to make money for the Junior-Senior banquet was to give a play. A committee was selected to choose a three-act comedy for the class. So, with the consent of our superintendent, the Juniors will star practicing for their play shortly after the holidays.

T.O.Q.'s Have Meeting

Wednesday Nov. 16, the T.O.Q.'s had their third meeting of this year. The club was called to order by the President, Jerry Johnson. He then turned the meeting over to Jane Richey who led the club in a History quiz. Louise Spencer directed a math quiz. We then had a sing-song and the meeting was adjourned.

We Give Thanks For Our Harvest

The following is a copy of program planned for Wednesday, Thanksgiving. Prayer—Earl Pearsey. Thanksgiving Song—Mrs. Iard's Class. Our Home. Home Sweet Home—Quartet. Our Religion. Scrip ure—Dr. Shell. God of Our Fathers—Quartet. GOD BLESS AMERICA—Student Body. Prayer—Mr. Breedlove.
Smoke from The Council Fires

 Some folks idea of a "state government" seems to be one where will always be plenty of whether any one works or not.—S.C.F.—
 We are indebted to Gen. Sands for this bit of council: "Not in the clamor of the crowd street."
 Not in the shout's and plaudits in the throng. But in OURSELVES are triumph and defeat.—S.C.F.—
 Really, the fellow who acts in a nut, shouldn't blame the rest us for taking a crack at him and then.—S.C.F.—

Final Field Stunt Presented

Indian Field was the scene of much activity and color between the halves of the Stamford-Haskell game, Friday night. The Stamford band was first on the field and went through an intricate maneuver. The band was followed by the Stamford pep squad clad in their blue and white uniforms. The girls formed a car wheel and out of this formation went into an S. The Haskell pep squad, dressed in gaily colored Indian blankets, was next on the field. The squad made the letter H followed by the letter I. From the formation, they left the field, doing their Indian war dance. This was the last stunt in which the Senior Yell Leaders, Janice Pace and Cora Faye Hayes, will participate.

Try Us On Your Cream This Week

Did you know that a hen is simply an egg-making machine? It takes a certain amount of feed to keep a hen alive. Any amount of feed taken over that amount goes for the purpose of producing eggs, provided the feed you use is compounded of the right ingredients of minerals and vitamins. Cackelo and Pepelo Poultry Feeds are scientifically compounded for this purpose. If you are not using it, try Cackelo—"Cackelo Makes Them Lay".

We Have a Good Stock of Hog Feed, Pig Feed, Ground Chops, Ground Wheat, Ground Maize Heads, Bran, Meal and Hull Cow Feed, etc.

The Thanksgiving board can have an air of gay opulence in spite of ration tickets if we follow the suggestion of Horace Head, stylist of Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association who designed this centerpiece for a small dinner in the Colonial dining room of Good Housekeeping Institute. Sources of Power Predicted For Automobiles of the Future

Mass.—Hair tonic, jam, potatoes and other things which Prof. F. G. Fales, of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, reported in a paper read here under an accelerated campaign to find running automobiles.

Gasoline is being used as a substitute motor fuel, the two elements, gasoline and alcohol, quickly separate if the mixture becomes contaminated with water. Alcohol will deliver about the same horsepower as gasoline in the same engine, it was found, but it takes 1.2 gallons of alcohol to produce as much power as a gallon of gasoline.

Alcohol-gasoline blends were found to knock less readily than gasoline alone, hence the mixture can be used for high-compression engines. But alcohol blends were also found to cause more corrosion than gasoline. And the conclusion of the Board is that "gasoline substitutes will be several times more costly than gasoline while yielding fewer miles per gallon."

The Department of Agriculture is establishing a plant at Peoria, Ill., to test alcohol made from corn, potatoes, wheat and other carbohydrate crops as a gasoline alternate.

What you need to run your car on charcoal, coke, anthracite or other "ersatz" fuels is a sort of miniature factory to produce gas from solid fuels while the car is moving. If you bought one of these plants you would either attach it to the rear (maybe put it in the luggage carrier) or carry it behind on a trailer, as motorists do in Sweden. You would fill the hopper with an activated coke or small-screen anthracite or birchwood.

Advantage of Coke For short journeys coke is said to stay alight longest. If you lighted the fire Sunday night, the plant wouldn't need cleaning until the next Saturday. You would rake the fire before and after each journey. And every week you would declinker the grate, clean the pipe lines and cooler, and renew the filtering compound. You would take out a half-bucket of soot a week, and give a bit of muck. According to Professor Fales, the average American would rather walk.

Balloon gas is cleaner, but it has to be carried in a bag as big as the car. This fuel is none too powerful and has many objections. Bottle gas obtained from sewage is compressed and carried in metal cylinders. The three most commonly used are city gas, butane and methane gas. But few cities in this country have the sewage systems necessary to produce methane.

Bottled butane, as a by-product of oil refinery, is already used to limited extent in trucks in western United States. Any waste gas can be released through a system of valves into the automobile engine with few if any changes in present designs, Professor Fales stated. This makes it possible to shift quickly and simply from gasoline to gas, even while the car is in motion. Many Europeans start and run their engines for the first few miles on gasoline until the "fires" are burning for developing "gaseous" fuels.

Probably the best source of synthetic motor fuel in the United States is coal. Gasoline extracted from coal so closely approximates the characteristics of gasoline that it can be used alone without blendings. But Professor Fales pointed out that coal is going to be as hard to get as gasoline as the war continues.

Radio Invasion Weapon

MOBILE RADIO STATION LINKS LAND, SEA AND AIR INVADERS

The terrific power of American invasion forces is made possible by combining aerial, naval, and ground forces into a single assault. A radio weapon used for this purpose is the Hallcrafters mobile radio station, which is landed on the invasion coast and used for 3-way communication between ground forces on the beach, attack bombers in the air, and attack ships at sea.

The Hallcrafters mobile radio station, known to Signal Corps fighters as the SCR-299, is capable of receiving and transmitting battle orders over hundreds of miles. The telephone shown on the left can be operated at a distance of one mile from the station itself. A complete duplicate of the transmitter and receiver is carried in the form of spare parts in the cabinet bench on which the operator sits. Signal Corps Photos

NO INCREASE IN BUTTER... But available for civilian use will not increase during the next few months, although the Federal Government has discontinued all purchases of the commodity until April, according to information from OPA and WFA. Current production of butter averages about 16 pounds a year per person, or about half a pound less than in pre-war years.

BYRNES URGES "SAVE PAPER" Urging a greater drive to conserve and salvage paper, James F. Byrnes, Director War Mobilization, said—"The war needs for paper and paperboard are greater than our present ability to produce. The shipment of bombs and shells depends upon paper bands and containers. Rations, blood plasma, medicines, bullets—all find their way to the fighting fronts in paper containers."

GIVE WAR STAMPS "A stamp in every stocking"—That's what the Treasury Department wants for Christmas. To encourage the giving of war stamps, many ideas for utilizing them in gifts and decorations have been suggested.

NO COUPON RATIONING OF COAL There will be no coupon rationing of coal during the coming winter, according to OPA. Deliveries are being curtailed so as to spread supplies as evenly as possible. The coal shortage is primarily in anthracite, the Solid Fuels Administration For War reports, and anthracite users are urged to supplement hard coal with bituminous coal. Copies of "Supplementing Anthracite with Other Fuels for Home Heating" (Information Circular 7260) may be obtained without charge by writing to the Division of Information, Solid Fuels Administration, Interior Department, Washington.

Human Frailty There are many things I will never be quite able to understand of course, but the one puzzling me now is a rather general impression that political appointees are, by nature, honest whereas business men just naturally have to be watched. Accepted for Air Crew Training The aviation cadet examining board at Amarillo Army Air Field, near Amarillo, Texas, has announced the acceptance of Pfc. Alonzo Wayne Dunn of this city for air crew training in the Army Air Forces.

RENEGOTIATION HAS BEEN DISCUSSED AT LENGTH THREE TIMES IN THIS COLUMN and the facts can't be reviewed in one paragraph but, in extreme brief: The law sets numerous political appointees re-figuring manufacturers' war contracts to be certain (by revising the contracts if necessary) that none of the contract holders makes too much profit.

As you have guessed already, I am opposed to the so-called "recapture" feature of this law. I think that part of it ought to be repealed. If I may indulge in a little irony, let me say it this way: I don't think the New Deal's highly trusted scrutators ought to be exposed to such temptations. Some naughty business man is almost certain to corrupt one of them. Money bends men's principles sometimes.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

Let us serve instead of rule, knock instead of push at the door of human hearts, and allow to each and every one the same rights and privileges that we claim for ourselves.—Mary Baker Eddy

Capitulation

Settlement of the coal mine strike with substantial pay increases to the miners has wiped out the last remnants of the imaginary anti-inflation line. Where the next attempt to anchor the upward spiral of living costs will take place, is anybody's guess.

But there are two points that stand out clearly. First, the situation has become far too serious to waste time cursing John L. Lewis and the mine workers. Unless the inflationary spark which their action has touched off can be extinguished promptly, the war effort will be imperiled. Second, the obvious fact that policies as usual won't work in a nation faced with a war cost of three or four hundred billion dollars.

Inflation control will hurt. But it will not hurt a fraction as much as inflation itself. This warning has been repeated until it has lost meaning. But the spectacle of the President of the United States standing helpless before the demands of the miners, is one of the manifestations of uncontrolled inflation. If that has no meaning to Americans, nothing ever will.

Crooked Thinking

It has been said a million times that the strikes in war industries of this nation were the result of labor leadership and did not represent the will of the individual workman. The coal miners have proved that theory doesn't hold water. And the railroad workers threaten to follow suit.

There is something wrong with the hinking of any man on the home front who enjoys all the blessings of personal liberty, and then strikes in wartime instead of saying on his job and backing up the men on the war front who risk their lives to preserve the liberty he enjoys.

Your Problem

A well-founded fear is growing concerning the future small business. Total war has tended to centralize industry. Somehow the trend must be corrected. But in correcting it, the belief should not be allowed to develop that there is something wrong in size alone. This is a big country. It will always need the productive effort of big industry just as it will need the productive effort of little industry.

If, when this war is over, the field of public ownership is extended to include basic industries employing large numbers of workers—and workers—the way will have been opened for the destruction of representative government. Any government that controls the jobs and resources of a people will not be content to play long the role of servant. Our basic industries at present are owned and operated by millions of private citizens under stringent public regulation.

When it comes to questions of property rights and rewards for achievement, all must receive the same treatment. It can be no other way. Of these things are restricted or taken from others, even the newsboy.

A Reasonable Request

Much thought is being given to the problem of providing employment for men returning from military service. So far as possible, old jobs are being kept available. But this does not apply to one group in the service whose jobs were the result of years of training and individual effort.

When a doctor goes to war his job cannot be reserved for him. His patients must go elsewhere. When he returns, he must find new patients, a slow, tedious task that will not be made any easier by the fact that tens of thousands of other doctors released from the armed forces will be doing the same thing.

However, the doctors are not kicking. All the average doctor asks is a chance to work in the way that he is best fitted by environment and training—the way of the individual doctor under the traditional American medical system. It is a reasonable request.

Youth Looks To Peace

Seven million members of the American Junior Red Cross are today walking through the corridors of history. In a world beset with war they are doing what they can to help bring the conflict to an end, and to build toward a new life in the peace to come.

As the junior membership of the American Red Cross these boys and girls are the hope of the nation are playing a very real part in their assistance toward making life more livable for men in the service; in the alleviation of the suffering of children of other lands, and in achieving a better understanding of the need for world cooperation.

From November 1 to 15 these millions of young people will enroll in the American Junior Red Cross. They will, no doubt, be joined by thousands of others who will come to understand that enrollment for service in this youth organization is a prelude to active duty in time of war and in time of peace.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Lesson for November 28

TRUTHFULNESS AT ALL TIMES

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 20:16; 23:1, 7; Matthew 5:33-37; John 8:42-45.

GOLDEN TEXT—Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbor; for we are members one of another.—Ephesians 4:25.

God hates all kinds of dishonesty—a fact which is emphasized by the additional commandment regarding truthfulness which is before us in this lesson.

God is truth, that is, the very essence of His nature is truth. In Him is no darkness at all (I John 1:5). Lying or false witness therefore reveals a character opposite to God. Hence we are not surprised to find in our Bibles that Satan is a liar and the father of lies, and that liars are the children of the devil.

The Methodist Church here during the past year, but who has been assigned to the Pu'nam circuit for the coming year, left Thursday with his family for Albany, where they will make their home.

Public W. T. Jones reports having weighed 2,950 bales of cotton up on Friday afternoon. This represents the cotton sold in Haskell. A great deal has gone directly to the railroad without being handled here.

E. D. Dumas from Coleman has taken a position as lineman with the Haskell Telephone Company.

Misses Maud Isbell and S. L. Montgomery, teachers in the Haskell public schools, took the pupils in their departments out on Mule Creek Thursday afternoon red haw hunting and a rather mistletoe with which to decorate their rooms in the school building.

The Magazine Club of Haskell will hold its regular meeting this afternoon with Mrs. S. W. Scott. The program will include a review of current events.

Jeff Johnson, who sold his farm near Marcy last spring, is seeking a fortune in New Mexico, has returned to Marcy and bought the Will Hall place.

On Wednesday of this week Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Carney celebrated the eighteenth anniversary of their wedding with a dinner for few of their intimate friends.

Weekly Health Letter

By Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer

AUSTIN, Tex.—The first Thanksgiving Day in America was proclaimed for the purpose of expressing thanks for the colonists' sturdy health that had followed them to survive the hardships and exposure of the first rigorous year in America.

"We can certainly be thankful that our health level has remained high despite the sacrifices and deprivations of war," Dr. Cox said. "Our people have retained their health to a remarkable degree and even under war conditions Texas has continued to show a decline in maternal and infant deaths."

Dr. Cox stated that within the last fifty years, health Depts. have been established throughout the country for the purpose of preventing disease. While their activities have been hampered by the lack of sufficient funds, nevertheless a great improvement in the nation's general health has resulted.

Among the other benefits derived from the public health program is the fact that during this period the life span of the average person has been increased more than 15 years.

"The State of Texas has much to be thankful for in the steadily increasing interest and cooperation being shown in matters pertaining to sanitation and control of communicable diseases," said Dr. Cox. "Responsibility for the success and advancement of the public health program lies not with the health department primarily but with the people who support and encourage the community effort put forth and who apply in their own individual lives the knowledge which they have acquired."

BE THANKFUL FOR FOOD

"I think we should thank the Creator with particular humility for the possession (food) that makes our armies liberators, not looters said Marvin Jones, head of the War Food Administration, in a Thanksgiving Day statement.

The coming of Americans means a chance to live again, to work their land and enjoy its products. We will not take their food. We have our food. For that, and for all it means, we give thanks."

Sadly enough the constant lying of the world seems to have infected the minds and hearts of Christians. Instead of being cleansed from this worldly defilement they carry its awful tendencies into the church. Is it not too true that gossip (which is almost always lying), false witness, the tearing down of someone's good name, is all too common in the church?

The great lie within the church, and one of Satan's prize exhibits, is the falsehood of modern religious liberalism (so-called) which is essentially a denial of real New Testament Christianity. Jesus said (ev. 42) that if God is our Father we will accept Him as the Christ. The one who speaks sweet words about the example, the manhood, the leadership of the Master and who denies Him His place as God is clearly in mind here as a follower of the father of lies.

Note that in verses 45-47 Jesus challenges His enemies to convict Him of sin or of falsehood. No one has ever been able to meet that challenge.

The claims He made for Himself as the Son of God and the Saviour of the world are plain and unmistakable. If we deny them we either make Jesus a liar, or we lie ourselves, and it is obvious that the latter is the case.

WAR TIME

OPA does have the authority, under the second War Powers Act, to issue such suspension orders and dismissed the complaint filed by a gas dealer who had been suspended from dealing in gasoline for 90 days because of violations of the rationing regulations.

Lift Pork, Lard Restrictions

Restrictions on the number of pounds of pork and lard made from home-slaughtered hogs that can be sold or given by a farmer to people not living on his farm have been lifted from November 17 to February 17, 1944. The War Food Administration lifted the restrictions to help handle the slaughter and distribution of this year's record hog supply. Farmers are asked to find out from their market agency or processor whether their hogs can be handled before sending them to market.

RESTRICTS FARM EQUIPMENT SALES

To prevent others from getting scarce farm equipment needed by farmers, the War Production Board has issued a revision of the Farm Machinery Order, L-257, which prevents dealers from selling rationed farm equipment for non-farm use, except on a rated order of AA-4 or higher.

APPLE PRODUCTS TO COST MORE

Consumers will pay more for apple products because OPA has increased maximum prices for apples in sales to processors. The amount of the increase at the consumer level will vary with the product and the size of the package.

MAY CUT POINT VALUES

Storekeepers, distributors, and others in the food trade may cut point values of canned, frozen, and dried rationed foods that might spoil if held in stock too long, OPA announced recently. However, point values may be cut only if prices are cut at least 25 percent.

New Italian Leader?

Senator Benedetto Croce, an Italian philosopher who is revered by all anti-fascist elements in Italy, is pictured at his villa in Capri. He has been mentioned as a logical leader of an Italian republic.

Where our Food is going...

Your Government says that thirteen per cent of our total supply goes to our armed forces at home and abroad, ten per cent to our Allies and liberated peoples, and two per cent to our territories (Puerto Rico, Hawaii, Alaska, etc.).

The rest of the supply—the bulk—three-fourths of the total—stays home to feed the civilian population. This three-fourths, however, is about equivalent to the average amount of food produced in this country in the years 1935 to 1939. Not all of this supply is made up of "favorite" foods—but it is the type of food to give the citizen a healthful, balanced diet.

One-fifth of all Food produced is wasted

There's Plenty YOU can do to reduce this WASTE

Like all other managers' jobs, your job as general manager of the household is complicated by wartime conditions. The biggest part of your job is making the tremendous amount of food our farmers are producing go just as far as it will. So plan carefully your meals and shopping. Shop the first of the week and early in the day. Avoid careless handling of fresh foods, as this is a big cause of food waste. Department of Agriculture estimates that one fresh tomato out of every seven has to be discarded because of bruising by customers. If one-third of what is wasted can be saved it will add about eight per cent to our food supply.

CUT FOOD WASTE

1. Know the seven basic food groups and plan your meals from them.
2. Plan by the week so that two or more protein foods will not be included in the same meal.
3. Plan a vegetable plate or a nourishing soup as the main dish for several meals during the week. Use left-overs in soups and stews.
4. Use fresh foods in season. Cook most vegetables in a small amount of water; using only about one-half inch in a covered utensil.
5. Cut down your grocer's waste. Don't pluck fruits. Don't handle vegetables.
6. Serve smaller portions with the provision for seconds. Establish a rule for eating everything served.
7. Don't buy rationed foods for the sake of using stamps. Don't give away or trade stamps.

Lone Star's Home Economics Radio Programs, Tuesday, 8:45 A.M., WFAA, and Friday, 9:00 A.M., KRLD, offer specific information on how to buy, cook and process food for wartime meals.
