Pfc. A. E. Wilfong Missing In Action In Korea

A Haskell soldier, Pfc. Arville F. Wilfong has been reported missing in action in Korea since Feb. 12, 1951, according to a message received from the War Department late Friday by his father, M. C. Wilfong, of Haskell. No further particulars were contained in the message, and the father was advised that he would be notified promptly when further information was available.

Pfc. Wilfong, 26, was recalled to active Army duty in October, 1950. He went overseas shortly afterwards, arriving at Yokohama, Japan, December 1. From there he went immediately to the combat zone in Korea, where he was assigned to the U. S. 35th Division. He was inducted in the Army in January, 1949, and served one year in the service, being discharged in January last year and placed in Army reserve status and subsequently recalled.

Specialist Gives Hint for Stretching Family Food Dollar

Here's a suggestion from Jimmy Nell Harris, associate extension foods and nutrition specialist of Texas A. & M. College, that may help homemakers get more food value into meals at a low cost.

She suggests using dry or powdered milk for cooking. She points out that non-fat dry milk solids are made from fresh milk—the liquids are removed by evaporation. If you need a liquid, there are two methods commonly used for changing the dry powder into liquid skim milk.

Use a mixing bowl and pour in to it enough water to make up the required amount of skim milk. Sprinkle the dry skim milk powder on top of the water, and beat with a rotary egg beater until the milk solids have dissolved. The mixture can also be placed in a glass jar with a tight fitting lid and—a few hard shakes will dissolve the powder.

There has been some activity among local cattlemen this week. R. W. Herren bought a bunch of stock cattle at $20, Lee Pierson bought from D. R. Couch 100 stock cattle at $18.00. J. L. Baldwin bought a small bunch at $20 and W. T. Hudson bought about 400 of various parties, the price paid not announced.

We would like to see our Commercial Club, at its next meeting, April 2, take up the question of providing a proper water supply for fire protection. As matters stand, a fire starting anywhere on the square would be almost certain to destroy half the business part of town while we stood looking helplessly on. We should not wait for such a disaster to force us to take necessary precautions.

Miss Montgomery arrived last week on a visit to her sister, Mrs. L. T. Litsey, and will remain here several weeks.

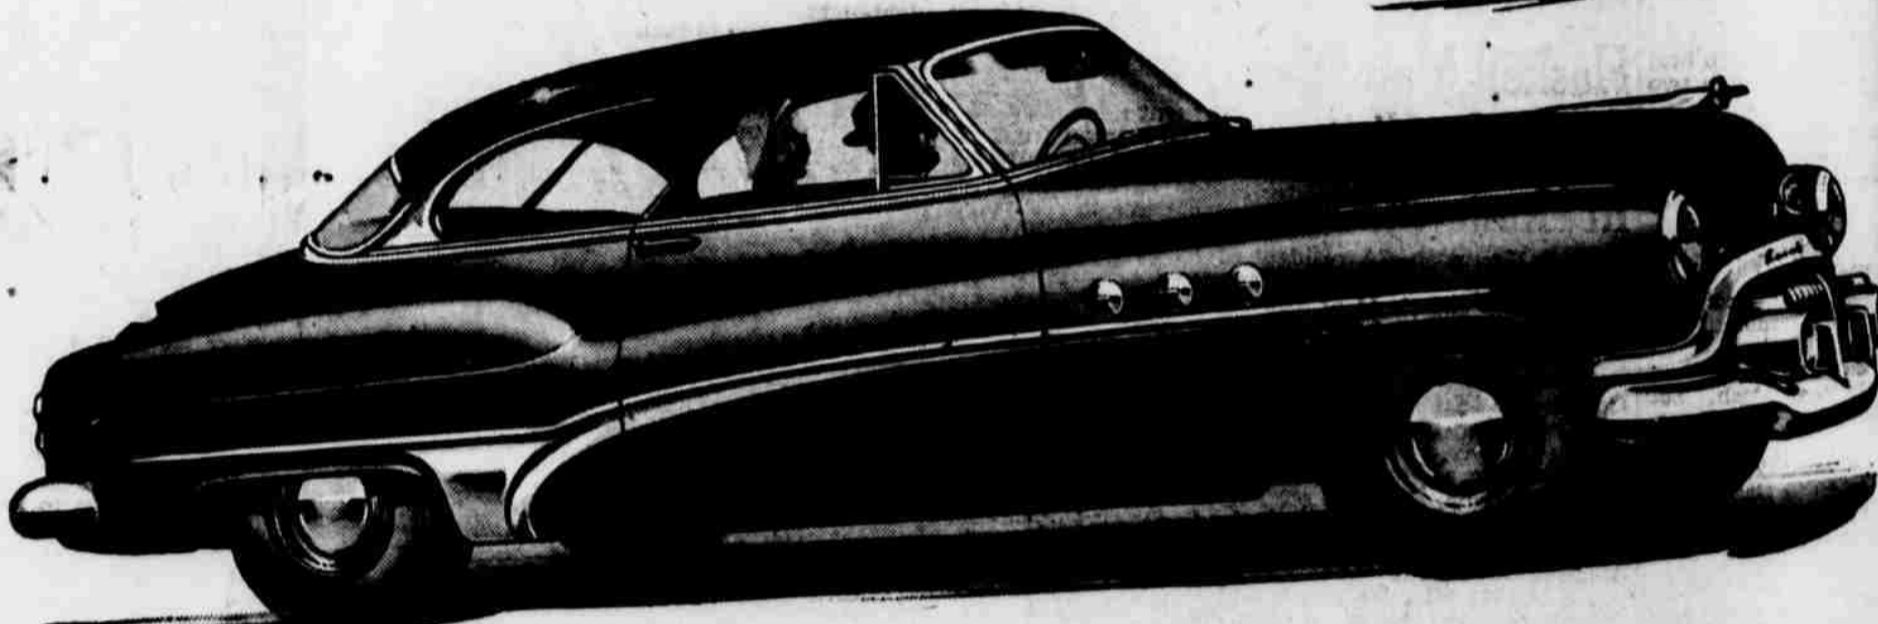

Road Supt. W. J. Sowell has a force at work opening a drainage ditch along one of the streets on the east side of town, running north and south. It will be of great benefit to the northeast part of town in carrying off water from heavy rains.

A postoffice has been established in the Wildhorse neighborhood near the schoolhouse. It is named Finkerton and will receive and forward mail three times a week. The service began this week with Mrs. Hall as postmaster.

J. A. Bailey has purchased the Jim Keller residence in the north part of town, for $1,000.

Look what the Smart Money's buying

Now that the 1951 offerings of the motorcar industry have had a chance to strut their stuff, we ask you—can there be any doubt which is the really smart buy?
If you want a "new look"—Buick has it. That sturdy push-bar forefront says "1951" to all who see it—and provides unsurpassed front-end protection to boot.

If you want power that you can live with through many moons to come—Buick has that too. Years of expert engineering have made Buick's thrill-packed Fireball engine just about as dependable as a power plant can be.

If you want features that combine present pleasure with long-time durability, consider this:

Buick's level-going ride stems from coil springs on all four wheels which are virtually break-proof and never need servicing.

Buick's Dynaflo Drive* takes the strain out of every mile of driving—and pays off by eliminating any need for friction clutch repairs and replacements, by reducing engine and transmission upkeep, and lengthening life of tires.

If you want room and comfort and handling that make any trip a breeze—there's no simpler way to find them than to take over a '51 Buick SPECIAL, SUPER or ROADMASTER—relax and enjoy yourself.

And if you want all this at a minimum outlay of dollars—one look at Buick prices will settle this point.

So the smartest thing you can do is get in touch with your Buick dealer. How about doing that right now?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

- NO OTHER CAR PROVIDES ALL THIS:
- DYNAFLOW DRIVE—saves strain on driver and car
 - FIREBALL POWER—high-compression, valve-in-head engine gets more good from every drop of fuel

 - WHITE-GLOW INSTRUMENTS—greater clarity at night
 - TORQUE-TUBE DRIVE—spadec ride, improved driving control
 - 4-WHEEL COIL SPRINGING—cushions ride, saves servicing costs
 - DUAL VENTILATION—outside air fed separately to right or left of front compartment
 - SELF-ENERGIZING BRAKES—hydraulic—multiply pedal-pressure five times at brake drum

Shivers Calls For Hard Fight On Inflation

Inflation is everybody's business, Gov. Allan Shivers declared Tuesday in an address before the Dallas convention of the Texas & Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association in Dallas.

"Inflation is adding something every day to your Federal, state and local tax bill," the Governor pointed out. "Inflation makes it more expensive to build roads, to run schools and universities, to buy office supplies, to safeguard the public health and safety, to make even the most modest provisions for civil defense—in short to carry on every phase of your state and local government."

"To all of you who have saved up some money for old age, or have put your money and your faith in retirement policies or annuities, inflation has a particular personal application."

"We are all in this thing together. When the little man suffers, eventually all suffer."

The American economy cannot stand another big dose of inflation on top of that already experienced since 1939 Gov. Shivers said. Fortunately, he added, something can be done about inflation. Everybody can do something, he said, explaining:

"The laboring man can help by increasing his individual production."

"The banker can help by going back to conservative credit practices."

"The cattleman and the farmer can help by making more food available."

"Just any citizen can help by doing without the things he doesn't really need."

"The businessman can help by playing the game fair and square, both with the government and with his customers."

"The Federal Reserve Bank can help a great deal by asserting its authority and its duty to protect the dollar from excessive and progressive devaluation."

"We can all help by demanding, and practicing, economy in government."

"We can all help by being willing to sacrifice a little for the good of all."

The Governor warned that Stalin's great hope is that the United States will undergo an internal economic collapse as a result of runaway inflation.

Good Farming Practices Equivalent of Larger Farm In Terms of Production

The use of a combination of good farming practices is one of the answers to increasing the productive output of a farm. In reality, says M. K. Thornton, extension agricultural chemist of Texas A. & M. College, increasing the per acre output amounts to the same thing as increasing the size of the farm. The big difference, he adds, is that the expansion is made vertically instead of horizontally, vertically expanded farm is much smaller and generally the net profit on a greater per acre than on a horizontally expanded farm.

He makes the following suggestions for vertically expanding farm production. Use a balanced cropping system that fits the farm. Avoid the excessive use of row crops. They are more expensive to produce for more labor and usually more farm machinery is needed. The cropping and livestock programs for the farm unit should be balanced. The cropping system should include the planting in the farm of some deep-rooted legumes. The acreage devoted to such legumes should be sufficient to furnish high quality forage for the farm's livestock and needed mineral nutrients should be used to insure the successful production of the legume crops.

Thornton says if these suggestions most farms can be increased from 25 to 40 percent without too much difficulty. The greater per acre yields will result in more net income, the maintenance of soil fertility, soil and water conservation and all add up to better rural living and more prosperous rural communities.

Newly commissioned medical officers of the Navy now receive a 24-week basic course in Naval medicine.

Wesleyan Service Guild Observes Ceremony Based on "Last Supper"

By Nancy Pence Painter The Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist Church held its regular meeting, Monday evening at 7 o'clock at the First Methodist Church. A business meeting was held before the Lenten dinner was served in one of the dining rooms.

At the business meeting, the president Mrs. S. H. Vaughter presided. She had the minutes read of the previous meeting as well as the treasurer's report. She then asked for the nominating committee's report. Mrs. Cecil Gregory gave the report of the committee, which was the recommendation that the current officers be retained in office. The Guild then voted on it and it stood approved.

At the close of the business meeting Mrs. John H. Banks assumed charge, she being Spiritual Life Leader. The Guild had decided at the previous meeting of having a Supper in memory of the Last Supper Jesus had with his disciples.

Before giving details of the ceremony to be followed at the dinner and after, she introduced the four guests, Mrs. Vaughter, Mrs. Ethel Irby, Mrs. Nancy Painter and Rev. Truitt Craft.

The group adjourned into the dining room and after being seated the pastor, Rev. Craft portrayed the meditation of Jesus. After the reading of the first scriptural reading by the pastor, Mrs. Middleton read from Isaiah the preparation of the Passover. The pastor gave the "Thanks of God" from the Psalms.

After the thanksgiving the meal was eaten in silence. At the close of the meal the pastor read from the book of St. Mark. He continued to read from St. John.

Judas Iscariot's actions were rendered by Mrs. Banks. After Mrs. Banks had read the actions of Judas, the pastor resumed reading from St. Mark. At the completion of the reading the pastor administered the Holy Communion to the people. Closing with following benediction,

Demonstration On Finishes Given Jud HD Club

The Willing Workers H. D. Club of Jud met in the home of Mrs. John Powell for their regular meeting on Thursday March 8, at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. S. E. Lewis led the club song as the opening number. Eleven very interesting subjects were given for assigned roll call.

During the business session the club voted to adopt the Rochester 4-H Girls Club for this year.

Mrs. H. B. Yarbrough is to be the Civil Defense Chairman from this club to cooperate with other club chairmen in learning more about civil defense through a training school which is to be given in the county soon.

The Club voted to buy an Easter outfit for our adopted girl at Girlstown, Whiteface, Texas.

For a timely topic, Mrs. Jimmy Adams used "Advice on Selection of Household Linens". Mrs. Adams stated, "When you buy linens, you get what you pay for". You can find wonderful bargains at white sales. A terry towel with a firm close weave gives longer wear and greater absorbency, advise experts.

"A medium weight muslin sheet may prove the most practical. Percale sheets offer smoothness, comfort and luxury. They're lighter yet sturdier. Percale sheets have four-inch hems and muslin sheets three-inch hems."

Mrs. H. B. Yarbrough gave the slick trick. She stated, "Instead of marring the beauty of your new spring hat by using a hatpin, sew a small comb, teeth upward, inside the hat in the band at the front. The comb will keep the hat just as securely in place."

The program was turned over to Mrs. Howard Sloan 4-H leader who presented two of her girls in a demonstration of finishes (hems). The girls, fifth grade Rochester pupils, were Ann Davis and Billie Dean Loper. They gave a step by step demonstration how they would put a hem in a skirt including measuring the length from the floor, pressing, getting the width, sewing and whipping the hem down with a lockstitch. This was a very interesting demonstration.

Sunshine Sewing Club Meets With Mrs. Whatley

Mrs. Elizabeth Whatley was in charge of a meeting of the Sunshine Sewing Club Thursday evening, March 8th at 7:30.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Lucille Toliver, and the group joined in singing "Watch for the Night is Coming", followed with prayer by Mrs. Claude Ashley. A new member, Mrs. Jessie McFarland, was welcomed into the club.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, after which the secretary, Mrs. E. Smith called the membership roll and dues were paid. A motion for payment of all current bills was approved.

Also adopted was a motion by Mrs. Whatley that all members save the tops from Meadowlake margarine packages with the proceeds when they are redeemed to go into the Club treasury.

Following the business session Mrs. Ashley directed a recreation period, which included group singing of Tennessee Waltz, and games. Much merriment was provided when members peered into the future and wrote letters dated March 8, 1961, which were read to the group.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames Lucille McCurley, Lula Smith, Wilma Brown, Jessie McFarland, Ora McMillin, Clara Parks, Mary Fouts, Oese Cass, Georgia Fouts, Alice Johnson, Hazel Tyler, and the hostess, Mrs. Elizabeth Whatley.

Next meeting of the club will be Tuesday, March 20th with Mrs. Claude Ashley as hostess.

Danny R. Langford Party Honoree On Second Birthday

Games were played and gifts were shown and admired by all. Ten guests were present. Mrs. G. T. Garrett assisted as co-hostess.

Mrs. Earl Daniels Hosts Meeting of Liberty HD Club

Six members were present for the regular meeting of the Liberty Home Demonstration Club, held Friday, March 9 in the home of Mrs. Earl Daniels.

A demonstration by Paint Creek 4-H Club girls on finishing hems had been planned, but they were unable to be present. Instead, Mrs. J. R. Davis showed members how to put in hems with a lock stitch.

In the business session, it was voted for every member to bring a guest and also to make some article to be sold at the meeting on May 11th with Mrs. J. B. Marr. Numbers were drawn for the Club's surprise package, with Mrs. Jack Daniels holding the lucky number. As a money-raising stunt, each woman's waist was measured, with a penny collected for each inch, and a total of $1.91 was realized for the treasury. Then the hostess opened and displayed her gifts.

A refreshment plate was served to Mesdames Jack Daniels, J. R. Davis, J. B. Marr, Joe Ragsdale, R. L. Leclair, and the hostess, Mrs. Earl Daniels.

Next regular meeting of the Club will be Friday, March 23 with Mrs. H. Russell.

Larger Acreage of Hybrid Corn in Texas Foreseen

Expanded acreage of hybrid corn in Texas is justified by the convincingly proved ability of adapted Texas corn hybrids to outyield the best varieties of open pollinated corn.

Corn yields can be increased from 20 to 30 percent, and in some cases as much as 50 percent, by planting adapted corn hybrids. This has been shown by tests conducted on Texas Agricultural Experiment Stations and by many farm demonstrations.

On 3,847 demonstrations conducted by 4-H club boys and adults in 1950, average corn yields were increased nearly 11 bushels per acre, says E. A. Miller, agronomist for the Texas A. & M. Extension Service. He says that most of this increase was due to the use of corn hybrids.

Miller says the acreage planted to corn hybrids in Texas is too small, being only 57 percent of the total corn acreage.

The newer hybrids, including Texas Yellow Hybrids No. 20, 24, 26, and 28, have demonstrated their ability to outyield the older hybrids, and tests show they are widely adapted. In the Gulf Coast Prairie, except in the river bottoms, Texas White Hybrids No. 9W and 11W have outyielded the yellow hybrids.

Miller recommends that farmers plant hybrid corn this year and suggests that they consult their local county agent for the best hybrids to plant in their areas.

Better Planning Will Help Farmer Boost Production

To combat the high costs of living and production and to reduce chances of financial loss, Texas farmers should produce at the highest possible levels in 1951, says C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist of Texas A&M College. Indications are that domestic and foreign demands for raw materials may set all-time records, and this in turn assures farmers of a strong market for their products, he adds.

He points out that our land, labor and machinery resources are about the same as during World War II but adds that farmers do have more "know-how," higher yielding varieties of crops, more effective insecticides and machinery for doing many of the jobs on the farm. The manner in which these advantages and resources are used, says Bates, will greatly affect farm profits in 1951.

Here are his suggestions for getting maximum production and profits in 1951. First plan for the maximum acreage of high-value crops, that is, the maximum acreage that is in keeping with good farm management practices.

He doesn't recommend plowing high yielding pastures and returning this acreage to other crops unless it is a part of the rotation system on the farm.

He says use the best seed obtainable for cheap seed may prove to be most expensive. Good planting seed should be free of weed seed and other seed mixtures and should have a high germination test. High yields are generally produced only from good stands.

The correct methods of seed bed preparation and chemically treating all planting seed help to insure good stands.

He recommends the liberal use of fertilizers in the sections of the state where they are adapted. Soil tests, research findings and the results from fertilizer use demonstrations should be used as the basis for determining the kinds and amounts of fertilizers to be applied, Bates says.

A planned program for controlling insects and diseases should be followed on the farm, and crops should be harvested and marketed when their quality is at the highest stage.

Bates suggests that farmers make a study of their routine operations such as feeding the farm's livestock, the milking job on the dairy farm or the man yother chores that must be performed daily. Study them, he says, for the purpose of eliminating needless steps and improving the efficiency of the operation. Often as much as one-fifth less time is required to do a job when labor-saving methods are used.

In summary, Bates says, plan well, plant wisely, and seek the "shot-cuts" for bigger farm profits in 1951. More and efficient farm production will also aid in the fight against inflation.

Bank Has New FDIC Guaranty Certificate

A. C. Pierson, president of the Haskell National Bank, today announced receipt from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, Washington, D. C., of a new certificate of membership giving effect to the recent increase in insurance coverage to $10,000. The Haskell National Bank has been a member of FDIC since 1933.

Mr. Pierson pointed out that this insurance does not cost depositors of the bank a single penny. The surplus of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation which now exceeds $1,300,000,000, in addition to all deposit insurance losses and operating expenses of the Corporation has been paid in by the 13,650 insured banks of the Nation in the form of annual assessments based on their total deposits.

HERE'S WHY
YOU GET GREATER
CAPACITY, CLEANER SEPARATION
WITH A
MASSEY-HARRIS CLIPPER

Straight-thru separation in the Massey-Harris Clipper controls grain from cutter-bar to tank. Grain and straw move in a straight line... up the table, thru the cylinder, over the straw rack in a thin, even flow. Straw rack and shoe action are counter-balanced... there's less vibration, more agitation, longer life. Efficient beaters control the straw to the cylinder and straw rack. There's no bunching or crowding. The result is greater capacity... less waste... more and cleaner grain.

Stop in and see the Massey-Harris Clipper next time you're in town. Compare it with other combines and you'll know why the Clipper is first in farmer preference.

J. H. Darnell, 87, Former Resident, Dies In Abilene

J. H. Darnell of Abilene, former Haskell resident and brother of George Darnell of this city, died at his home in Abilene Sunday at 5 p. m. He was 87, and had been in ill health for several years. Death was attributed to a heart attack.

Mr. Darnell, a retired carpenter, was born July 22, 1863, in Tennessee and came to Texas when a young man. He was married in 1898 to Miss Lulu Hughes of Ellasville. They lived in Graham about two years, then moved to Oklahoma where they lived for a time. They moved to Jayton and lived there about 15 years and in Haskell for several years before moving to Abilene in 1922.

Surviving are his wife; three daughters, Mrs. Edna Cope of Abilene, Mrs. Nora Belle Fitch of Grapevine and Mrs. Floye Patterson of Abilene; two sons, Carl Darnell and James I. Darnell, both of Irving; six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren and one brother, George Darnell, of Haskell.

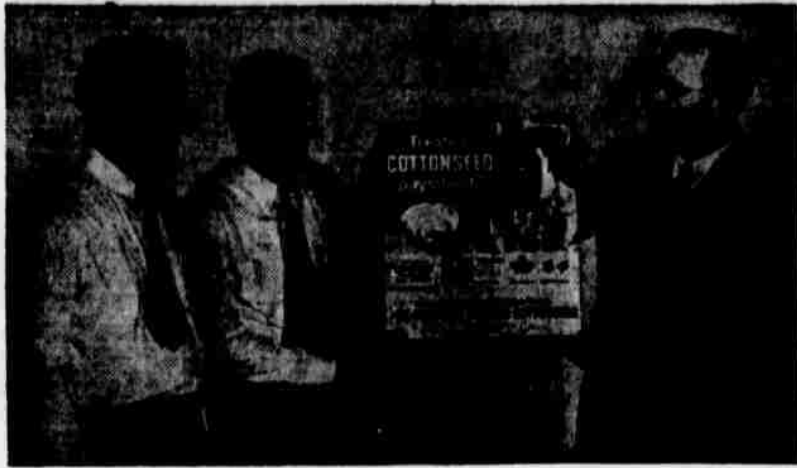

Funeral services for Mr. Darnell were held at 2 p. m. Monday in Abilene, and burial was in Cedar Hill Cemetery in that city. Attending the funeral from Haskell were Mr. and Mrs. John W. Darnell, Mr. and Mrs. Burl Darnell, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Banks, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed L. Meares of Menard, Texas. The brother, George Darnell, was unable to attend the rites.

ATTEND DISTRICT MEETING OF TEACHERS

Supt. L. W. Norman of Mattson Rural High School, and Mrs. Norman were among Haskell county teachers who attended the Oil-Field District meeting of the Texas State Teachers Association in Wichita Falls Saturday.

If you've ever been overseas you can testify that one can get as drunk on water as on liquor.

Cotton Leaders Fight Diseases

An educational program to fight diseases of cotton is being conducted in Haskell and across the cotton belt by agricultural leaders. The objective of the campaign is to reduce the huge annual losses which cotton farmers suffer because of seed rot, sheath-rot or damping-off, angular leaf spot and anthracnose boll rot.

Proper treatment with a seed disinfectant can reduce the effects of all these diseases and the importance of seed treatment is being emphasized by a poster and by educational releases on the subject from the Texas Extension Service. Because of the huge cotton production goal for 1951 and a below average supply of cotton seed, the treatment of seed is particularly important this year.

Texas leaders are shown above examining the poster for the campaign, which is being distributed for display in county agents' offices, cotton gins, seed stores and other farm headquarters. Left to right are: Dr. G. M. Watkins, head of the Department of Plant Pathology, Texas A. & M.; Fred C. Elliott, Cotton Specialist, Texas Extension Service; and J. D. Prewitt, Chairman of the Texas Cotton Production Committee and Associate Director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Redistricting Bill Places Haskell County In 23rd Senatorial District

In the new alignment of counties in the senatorial redistricting bill, which is now awaiting the governor's signature, Haskell county is included in the 23rd Senatorial District, instead of the former 24th district.

Under the redistricting arrangement, the 23rd District is made up of Haskell, Throckmorton, Archer, Baylor, Knox, King, Cottle, Foard, Hardeman, Wilbarger and Wichita counties.

The alignment of counties in District 24 under the new arrangement, are Howard, Mitchell, Nolan, Taylor, Martin, Scurry, Fisher, Jones, Shackelford, Stonewall, Kent, Garza, and Dickens counties.

This redistricting bill is the first since 1921. The realignment was made on the basis of poll tax count. The Senate and House agreed on an amendment which provides for a change over for the election of legislators in 1952.

Detroit may have put the nation on wheels; but Washington certainly put it on skids.

Home of Miss Betty Jo Clanton Scene of Party and Meeting of Dorcas Class

March 12th at 7:30 p. m. was the time and Betty Jo Clanton's home was the place for the Dorcas Class party and business meeting.

The president, Trudie Gresham, presided, and Betty Jo Clanton led in prayer. All present joined in singing the Class Song, "Somebody Needs Your Love."

Faye Woodson brought the devotional on St. Patrick, patron saint of Ireland. After giving some highlights of his life, she stressed the fact that it was his early Christian training that enabled him to increase the cause of Christ later on.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and corrected. Katherine Schwartz, Group Captain 2, gave a report, and the Fellowship Vice-President, Allene Wheatley, reported on cards and flowers sent during the month. Various committees gave reports.

A silver offering was taken to buy a bottle warmer for the Nursery at the Hospital; also to help a worthy High School girl.

Delight Ash sang "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling", accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Troy Ash. Terry Bynum played an accordion number. Then Mrs. Ash played a medley of songs, which every one enjoyed. One game was played, resulting in four Quartettes having to render a number each.

Refreshments carrying out the St. Patrick motif were served to the following: Guests, Mrs. Troy Ash and Delight, Mrs. Thurmond Bynum and Terry, Members, Mrs. Henrietta Sego, Eula Mae Herren, Lorene Fouts, Vivian Roberson, Allene Wheatley, Katherine Schwartz, Faye Woodson, Lora Mae Mullins, Edna Burnett, Lois Henry, Trudie Gresham, Avis Pennington, Marjorie Waldrip, Elyse Eastland, Brucille Neillums, Ordrila Darden, Ethel Lou Shelton, and Betty Jo Clanton.

IN SEYMOUR MONDAY Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Curd and James were in Seymour Monday on business.

SEED TREATMENT helps turn thin stands . . .

into thriving yields

As a cotton planter, you can expect four-way benefits from one simple operation you can perform on your own farm, or have done for you. It consists of planting seed that has been treated with an organic mercury dust. Its results include:

- 1. Control of most of the seed rot or decay that reduces your stands before the seeds can sprout.
2. Control of seedling blight caused by bacteria in your soil or seeds that attack the tender seedlings.
3. Control of anthracnose or pink boll disease, another germ-caused ailment that results in smaller crops of poor-grade, spotty cotton.
4. Control of bacterial blight or angular leaf spot that kills your cotton plants or stunts their growth.

Experiment Station figures show yield increases of 5% to 40% as a result of seed treatment. This means up to $12 per acre added to your income. Cost of the chemical amounts to less than 10¢ per acre.

Those who recommend seed treatment stress the fact it should be correctly used - applied to the seed according to directions, and in the right amounts. The cotton planter has too much at stake, they say, to risk cutting corners on the use of less than recommended amounts, or skipping any steps of the fairly simple seed-treating process.

The treatment can be done by many ginners and delinters. Ask your County Agent about the value of seed treatment and where you can get this service in this vicinity.

Californian Is Reunited Here With Father After 39-Year Separation

Reunion of a 40-year-old California farmer with his father from whom he had been separated since infancy and of whom he had no recollection, came about last week when the son drove to Haskell after learning that his father was living here.

The father, G. M. Wilson, now nearing 70 years of age, has been a resident of Haskell county for the past 15 years and in recent years has made his home here after failing eyesight compelled his retirement from farming or other active work.

The son, Roy Wilson, a well-to-do farmer of Hanford, Calif., had been endeavoring for years to learn the whereabouts of his father if still living. His efforts had been unsuccessful until two weeks ago, when he learned through the Texas State Welfare Board that his father was a resident of Haskell. A telephone call from Hanford to Sheriff Bob Cousins verified the information, and the California man made immediate plans for his visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson and their two daughters, Patsy Lee and Betty Jean were accompanied by Mrs. Wilson's mother, Mrs. L. M. Richardson, also of Hanford, Calif. They had come by way of Tipton, Okla., where they were joined by Roy's twin sister Mrs. Maudie Raffeis, for the Haskell visit.

They arrived early Wednesday and immediately contacted their father. The elderly Haskell man, although he had not seen his children since they were in their infancy, and was further handicapped by failing eyesight, nevertheless was quick to note the familiarity of their voices and recognized his children. He had long since given up hope of seeing or locating them, he said.

"It was one of the happiest days in my life when I learned Dad was still alive and found out where he was living," Roy said after arriving here with his family and sister.

The entire group spent Wednesday evening together, and had reunion supper at the Texas Cafe where group pictures were made of the happy occasion and plans discussed for a longer get-together at an early date in the future.

The California man, who said he had left his farming operations "right in the middle of the irrigating season", left Thursday to return with his family to Hanford, but plans to return soon for a longer visit with his father.

In relating circumstances leading to the reunion, Roy Wilson explained that his parents had separated when he and his twin sister, now Mrs. Raffeis, were eleven months old. The mother and baby son soon afterwards moved to California, where they have lived until the present time.

Many Cases Of Heart Disease Can Be Treated

Too prevalent today is the belief that heart disease is the spell of doom and that one must cease all work and activity. Modern medical knowledge easily disproves this notion, and thousands of case histories bear witness to its falsity.

Heart disease, medical science now knows, is not a single ailment. Many troubles can afflict the heart—some less serious than others. While some restrictions are necessary, it is now generally true that patients with any form of heart trouble should be active within the limits of their capacity.

Not all persons with heart ailments can continue working at their same pace. Obviously there are those who require bed rest and often a very strict limitation of physical and mental activity. But there are many who can continue working, performing some type of useful or productive activity, without fear that their hearts will suddenly give out.

A person with a mild heart disorder can in most instances perform any kind of job for which his skills qualify him.

No individual with a heart condition, it should be cautioned, should determine for himself whether he is able to work or not and how much work he can do.

Just as there are many who become cardiac invalids because of fear, there are those at the opposite extreme who ignore proper medical advice and subject their hearts to unnecessary strain and abuse by overactivity. Only a competent physician is qualified to say what are the limits of an impaired heart.

Excessive Pruning Can Be Harmful To Rose Bushes, Horticulturist Says

Excessive pruning reduces the number of blooms and actually shortens the life of most roses. Heavy pruning takes off limbs which bear leaves and the leaves are the plant's food factory. The mere fact that roses are pruned does not mean that they are being worked for it; the more flowers it can produce says Sadie Hatfield, extension homestead improvement specialist of the Texas A. M. College. It's a proved fact, she says that roses that receive little or no pruning at the Tyler Experiment Station produced many more blooms per plant than those that were pruned heavily.

Miss Hatfield recommends that pruning be done primarily to give the rose plants the desired shape; to remove long and unattractive limbs or limbs that have grown into paths and to remove dead or diseased wood from the plants. She adds that roses are pruned continually for when the blooms are removed—pruning is done. Finching off the tender branches frequently will make the pruning job easier and will remove at least a part of the necessity for heavy pruning.

Severe pruning may produce larger blooms but fewer blooms and it can also cause severe losses from summer die back. Severe pruning may also cause the plants to form "water sprouts" instead of more blooms. Roses that are grown for cut flowers only points out Miss Hatfield should be planted in the service area for it may be necessary to frequently replace them.

She says it is true that some roses are so hardy that pruning seems to have little effect on them. The radiance roses are in this group. Weaker varieties, such as yellow and two-tone roses, may be weakened enough from heavy pruning to cause them to die or to cause the flowers to lose their rich coloring. It is best to shape the weak growing varieties without severe cutting and pinching the tender tips frequently is recommended. This practice will give the plants the desired shape and little wood will be lost.

The hardy climbing roses should be treated differently from bush roses, says Miss Hatfield. They should be pruned almost to the ground after they have bloomed in the spring. The less vigorous climbers should be pruned less severely; thin and cut back only enough to shape them. Miss Hatfield points out that since most roses are either grafted or budded, it is not a good idea to cut them back close to the ground. In cutting too close to the ground, the bud or grafted or budded part of the plant may be removed and thus the desired part of the rose, so far as flowers are concerned, will be destroyed. Most varieties used for root stock bloom only once per year, says Miss Hatfield and such plants are less desirable than the continuous blooming roses.

Specialist Gives Easier Ways To Clean Woodwork

The efficient and tidy home-maker knows that painted woodwork in the home has to be cleaned periodically. If the wrong type of cleaning agent is used, it may damage the paint. Mrs. Florence Low, specialist in home management with the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, offers a few pointers on the subject that should make the job easier.

Coarse scouring powder and strong alkaline soap remove or roughen the outer surfaces of the paint so that it soils quicker and is more difficult to clean. The specialist adds that strong alkali also weakens and discolors paint. She advises first trying out any new cleaning preparation on an inconspicuous part of the painted area and warns that directions on the container should be carefully followed.

Mrs. Low recommends a mild, neutral soap for washing paint. If scouring is necessary, finely powdered whiting will do the job. It is a very fine abrasive and is inexpensive and can be purchased at most paint, hardware, or drug stores.

The specialist points out that only a small area of painted surface should be washed at a time and that it should be rinsed carefully before going on to another area. Even mild soaps contain some alkali which will eventually injure the paint if left on it. Although the directions for many commercial paint cleaning preparations say that no rinsing is necessary, the specialist advocates rinsing to be on "the safe side."

Mrs. Low adds that some cleaners make the paint soft when it is wet and if severe rubbing follows, the surface will be damaged.

Home gardens are a good source of low priced food and the garden produce can be used to improve the nutritional value of the family's diet.

A mild, neutral soap should be used for cleaning painted woodwork in the home. If a scouring agent is needed, finely powdered whiting should be used.

KITCHEN MEMO BY JEAN CLARKE

COMES the day when you're particularly busy, toss this recipe together to make a Skillet Dinner. Saves dishwashing, time and energy. Melt 2 tbsps. fat in skillet, add 1 cup chopped onion, 1/2 lb. ground beef. Cook until brown, about 10 mins. Add 1 cup sliced carrots, 4 ozs. wed. noodles, 1 qt. water. Cover, simmer over low flame 45 mins. Add 2 tps. Worcestershire sauce, 1 tbsps. salt, 1/2 tsp. pepper. Mix lightly. Serve 4.

Timely check: The filter on your gas furnace is bound to clog with dust from the air. About twice a year remove the filter and replace it because a clogged filter cuts heating efficiency.

A clove of garlic in olive oil, mix in 1/2 tsp. paprika, let set for five minutes, then brush over thick steak. Slide into broiler 3" from flame. Out of this world for flavor and crusty finish!

If it's washday in your house and you need plenty of hot water, don't worry about the 15 gals. of hot water your man uses up for his morning shower because your automatic gas water heater immediately starts to replace hot water as it is used.

Gentle reminder: Toppid soapy water and a cloth wipe up spilled food in your gas refrigerator more easily than if you wait for the food to harden.

Buttercootch toast: Spread toast with butter or margarine, sprinkle with brown sugar. Keep under broiler about 4" from the flame until it bubbles.

Recent rains in most sections of the state have provided enough moisture to get the home garden going. The more hardy vegetables can be planted.

Recreation activities planned and carried out by family groups can help to relieve tension and perhaps divert many worries which probably aren't necessary anyway.

Confusing isn't it, but Chili is the hottest country in the world?

Announcement that the wage freeze has been relaxed to permit merit raises for the nation's workers certainly warranted big type. Imagine a government that has been encouraging non-production through shorter hours, and equal pay to all workers regardless of ability, finally recognizing MERIT.

Security Representative To Be Here March 22

T. Fisher, manager of the office of the Social Security Administration, will be at the Chamber of Commerce in Abilene at 11:00 a. m. on Thursday, March 22.

Fisher cautioned that those persons who became eligible on September 1, 1950, because of the amendments of the Social Security Act should apply by March 31, 1951, in order to avoid losing payments. This is because retroactive payments can be made for not more than six months.

Persons who should apply now include workers over the age of 65 who have had at least a year and a half of work under Social Security, children or other dependent survivors of World War II Veterans, who are now given Social Security credits for military service; and workers over the age of 75 who can qualify even though they are still employed.

Persons who are not able to contact the representative should write the Social Security Administration, 308 Post Office Building, Abilene, Texas

Junior Class At Mattson To Give Play March 27th

The Junior Class of Mattson Rural High School will present a three act play entitled "Have A Heart", Tuesday March 27 at 8 p. m. in the Mattson school auditorium.

"Have A Heart" deals with the trials of one Ted Watson, portrayed by Johnny Wheatley. If one wife gives trouble, then consider the plight of poor Ted when he finds himself faced with three wives. His own sweet Peggy has left in a huff. Mr. Andrews, played by Roy Forehand, is coming for a home-cooked dinner. To please this prospective boss, Ted hires a bouncer, Glen Darden, for a butler; and a chorus girl, Frankie Jo Tanner, for a wife. A neighbor, Billie Bowen, a born flirt, decides to add her talents as wife—and the merry mix-up is underway. "Have A Heart" will send you away most thankful for your own, dear wife.

Members of the Junior class promise an enjoyable evening for all at 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for school children.

Additional Soil Conservation Plans Given Approval

The supervisors of the Wichita-Brazos Soil Conservation District held their monthly meeting recently. The following applications for conservation assistance were approved: G. B. Therwanger, W. E. Feddy, Alton Ward, Orval Manning, and E. E. Lowe. The following conservation plans were approved: Joe Brown, John Andrews, Virgil Sonnmaker, Tom Clark, and George Stienbach.

The supervisors decided to purchase 500 pounds more of King ranch bluestem seed to sell to cooperators. This is in addition to 1000 lbs. purchased in January. This seed is being used for the following purposes: to seed waterways for terrace outlets; to seed on good land for temporary pasture to replace sudan grass; and to seed on good land as a soil conservation crop to improve the structure and fertility level. If King Ranch bluestem is used as a soil conservation crop it is left on the land for about four or six years, then put back into cultivation in a much better condition. This grass is also being used as a hay crop.

Terrace lines have been run on the following cooperators places: August Rueffer, John Atterbury, Fish and Burnett farms, Togo Moorhouse Ranch, and The League-Ranch. A division line was run on the Roy Lebus Ranch west of Benjamin to increase the catch of a pond.

The construction of terraces is but a part of these cooperators' conservation plans. Technicians of Soil Conservation Service assisting the District ran the terrace lines for these farmers.

New rose plants should be set at the same depth they were growing in the nursery. They should not be planted in old rose beds nor where they must compete with shrubs and trees for plant food and moisture.

Planned Shopping Stretches Family Grocery Budget

With skyrocketing food prices facing the home maker each time she goes grocery shopping, saving menus and careful planning becoming more and more necessary. Frances Reasonover, assistant foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas A. & M. College

Extension Service, has a few tips for homemakers to remember when buying food.

First, she says, buy those foods which are in season and are plentiful. Right now plentiful foods include onions, apples, oranges, potatoes, celery, rutabagas, pork and frozen fish.

Next, she advocates using the Texas Food Standard as a guide and food plan. A copy of this may be secured from county Extension agents. If this standard is followed, the homemaker will know that she is receiving foods necessary for good nutrition. Miss Reasonover says that when families are poorly fed, usually the foods they omit are most often milk and milk products, green leafy vegetables, and citrus fruits.

Another point to remember, Miss Reasonover says, is that bargains are true economy only when the commodity is of good quality as well as low in price. For "cheaper nutrition" but still the correct food value, the specialist suggests buying low cost items such as chuck roast, rather than a standing rib roast; canned peas rather than frozen peas; lard versus vegetable shortening; margarine instead of butter; oatmeal in place of prepared cereals; molasses rather than maple syrup; and potatoes instead of potato chips or French fries.

Roses should be pruned primarily to give the plant the desired shape; to remove long and unattractive limbs and to remove dead or diseased wood. Severe pruning may produce larger blooms but there will be fewer and it can also cause severe losses from summer die back.

Specialist Advises Recreation For Family Group

Do you have worries? If so, they may be reduced if your leisure time and energy are used properly. Miss Lucille H. Moore, recreation specialist with the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, believes that recreation in family groups can relieve tension and perhaps divert many worries which really aren't necessary.

Miss Moore believes that careful planning of the family's recreation program will assure success. She recommends that each member study the interests and recreational needs of the family and then plan a time for individual and group activities. Adequate and comfortable space in the home and grounds should be provided for recreation purposes, she says. Miss Moore realizes that many families do not plan for the best use of their leisure time, but she believes that if every family member would participate in some form of play or recreation each week, that many of the individual and family worries would disappear. Accessible storage space should be planned for the recreation program. After the family has made a start in planning a recreation program, the assistance to developing a family unity recreational program, Miss Moore.
