Record Crowd At Closing Service of Baptist Revival

The summer revival at the First Baptist Church which has been conducted under the direction of Dr. Jimmie Morgan of Fort Worth and Mack R. Douglas of Nashville, Tenn., closed Sunday night with a record attendance estimated at 1,000 people present for the final service.

The revival was termed one of the most successful held by the church in recent years.

There were a total of 134 decisions made for Christ during the two weeks meeting. Forty men and women joined the church by letter or statement, 33 by baptism, while 7 came for Mission Work and one young man, Roy Don Rhodes, surrendered to preach. The remainder of the total were rededications.

The above group brought to 220 the total additions to the church since the beginning of Rev. M. D. Rexrode's pastorate in the local church in February of this year.

As a mark of appreciation for the work of their pastor, members of the congregation presented Rev. Rexrode and family with a 12-foot Crosley deep freeze at the close of services Friday night. The presentation had been arranged as a complete surprise for the popular minister. Also honoring the pastor, Friday night had been designated as "Rexrode Night" at the revival.

Series of Meetings Planned To Discuss Problems of Average Family Farms

Importance of the average family-size farm in the economic structure of the county, State and nation was the theme for a meeting of agriculture and civic leaders, businessmen and representatives of farm agencies held in the district court room here Monday afternoon.

The Haskell meeting was the first in a series of similar gatherings that will be held in the county during the next two weeks. These meetings have been scheduled at Rochester August 17, at Rule August 21, and at Haskell August 24. Other community meetings also will be scheduled.

The series of meetings, sponsored by the USDA, has been arranged by the Haskell County Agricultural Mobilization Committee as a means of gaining a better knowledge of farm needs of the farm family and how farm agencies can best serve these needs. Suggestions from farmers and their families for changes or improvements in USDA's program and policies developed at these meetings will be incorporated in the nation's future farm program, it was explained.

John W. Brock, Haskell County PMA chairman, presided for Monday's meeting. Others present included R. R. Overton and G. B. Pool of the county PMA office, Odis J. Curry of the Soil Conservation Service, W. A. Montgomery, county REA representative, County Agent F. W. Martin, W. B. Beeson, District FIA supervisor, Virgil Hudson, Production Credit Association representative, W. H. McCandless of the Haskell National Farm Loan Association, Kenneth Roberts, Vocational Agriculture teacher, H. W. Smith, Albert Thane, and others.

In explaining purpose of the Haskell meeting and similar gatherings scheduled, Chairman Brock said: "The Department of Agriculture thinks the family farm is so vital to the economy, prosperity and military defense of the Nation that it is reviewing all of its programs and activities to make sure that they are serving the farm family well—and to find out how they can serve it better."

"We need the help and suggestions of everyone interested in agriculture. We desire, with the help of farmers and interested people of all groups, to direct programs and policies of farm agencies toward a more effective sound and practical benefit to the family farm," Brock declared.

He urged farmers and business men to attend the meetings in Rule, Rochester and Haskell, and other community gatherings that may be scheduled, in order that a cross-section view of all people concerned can be secured.

After the series of county meetings, a representative group of farm leaders and businessmen will compile suggestions made concerning the services of the USDA and farm agencies, and this group report will be sent to the Department for study, Brock explained.

Restraining Order Closes Two Dance Halls In Rule

Temporary restraining orders were issued by District Judge Ben Charles Chapman in 39th District Court Saturday against the operation of two alleged "private dance halls" which law enforcement officers said had been operated in Rule on Saturday nights recently.

Issuance of the restraining orders was based on the filing of an application for a permanent court injunction against the operation of the alleged "dance halls." The application was filed by District Attorney John H. Banks, County Attorney Royce Adkins, and Sheriff R. M. (Bob) Cousins.

Hearing on the application for permanent injunctions against the two alleged dance establishments has been set for Monday, August 13 in District Court before Judge Chapman.

Named in the two restraining orders were Crede Caddell as the owner or proprietor of "Caddell's Place," and Bruno Rodriguez and Rafael Garza, termed in the petition as owners and proprietors of another alleged dance hall in Rule.

In the two applications filed by the Sheriff and prosecuting attorneys, they allege that operation of the dance halls constitute "maintaining a common nuisance." At the hearing set for Monday, the District and County Attorneys will seek to have the temporary restraining order made a permanent injunction closing the two "dance halls" for one year.

The Court's restraining orders were served on the defendants Saturday by members of the Sheriff's department. Danes originally scheduled Saturday night at the two places were not held, Deputy Sheriff Harry Daboch reported.

Membership Drive For Country Club Progressing

The drive for membership in the Haskell Country Club is nearing the half way mark this week as approximately 75 have either bought or pledged to buy stock in the proposed $40,000 project, Bill Wilson, temporary secretary, announced today.

Wilson said that good progress is being made in the sale of stock and it is hoped that the entire amount will be sold by the end of this month.

Several members of the membership committee visited the Graham Country Club last week and Wilson reported that the club house there was a $7,000 structure and one of the nicest he had seen in this area. The organizers of the Haskell Country Club have appropriated almost twice that much for the construction of the club house here, Wilson continued.

No work has been done on the Country Club site, which is to be located four and one-half miles west of Haskell and near the old golf course, since the water well was dug in the latter part of July. Wilson said that construction on the club house and the golf course would begin immediately after the entire amount of stock had been sold.

In a meeting of the membership committee last Monday night, they planned facilities for women at the club house. The club house will be at the disposal of the ladies for meetings of the various organizations. Other recreational facilities will be provided for the ladies, Wilson said.

Also, arrangements have been made for a professional golfer to be the pro at the Haskell Country Club. He will instruct both ladies and men in the fundamentals of golf.

Decision to cancel the 1951 Central West Texas Fair which had been scheduled this year for the week of Oct. 1-6, was announced Wednesday afternoon following a meeting of fair officials and directors and business men and civic leaders, held in the Chamber of Commerce office.

The decision to cancel this year's exposition came after a lengthy discussion and consideration of several factors, which a majority of those present felt would prevent staging this year's Fair on a par with those in previous years.

A principal factor was the fact that the planned expansion program for the 1951 Fair, which included a new grandstand and several other buildings, could not be carried out due to Government restrictions on new construction for entertainment and amusement purposes.

This expansion program had been planned following last year's successful Fair which gave pointed emphasis to the need for additional facilities in the Blue print. The program had been blueprinted, while Fair officials hoped that the necessary materials could be secured.

Another factor considered was the fact that semi-drought conditions during the farming season would result in curtailed exhibits, particularly in small grain, field crops, and livestock, in this year's show.

Before taking definite action toward cancelling the 1951 show, Fair officials during the past week contacted 40 representative farmers and stockmen. A majority of these men concurred in the opinion that it would be inadvisable to stage the 1951 Fair under existing conditions and without enlarging the Fair plant.

A report on last year's operation of the Fair indicated that a total budget of $14,024 was required, and a similar budget would have been necessary to put on a creditable exposition this year, it was explained at the meeting.

First Maize From 1951 Crop Brought In Today

First load of Haskell county maize from the 1951 crop was brought in Wednesday by Buddy Lewis, farmer living west of Rule.

Mr. Lewis placed the mlo in the warehouse of Market Poultry & Egg Co. here under the Government loan, A. T. Ballard, manager of the firm, said.

The maize was graded No. 1 Milo, and weighed 56 pounds to the bushel, with moisture content of 10.26 per cent.

The load was the first harvested from 40 acres Mr. Lewis has in maize on his farm. The yield is averaging 1,200 pounds to the acre, it was estimated.

Support Price On Cottonseed To Be $65.50 Per Ton

Price-support loans on 1951-crop cottonseed will be available at $65.50 per ton for base grade (100), according to Geo. B. Pool, member of the Haskell County Production and Marketing Administration Committee. In areas where a purchase program may be necessary, purchases will be made at $61.50 a ton.

Prices on the 1951 crop of cottonseed will be supported by means of loans, purchase agreements, and purchases of cottonseed and cottonseed products. The support reflects 90 per cent of the Jan. 15, 1951 parity price of $71 a ton for average quality seed.

Other provisions of the cottonseed support program will be developed and announced later, Pool said.

Provisions of New Check Law Cited By County Attorney

County Attorney Royce Adkins this week called attention to the fact that new laws in regard to drawing checks against bank deposits are on the state statute books.

Under provision of an amendment adopted by the Fifty-Second Legislature, all checks must carry the mailing address of the signer, he said.

Too, the amendment states that if a check is returned marked "insufficient funds" or "no account" and if the payee notifies the signer of that fact within 10 days and the check still goes unpaid, then it is assumed an attempt has been made to defraud by worthless check, making the offender liable to prosecution under provisions of existing "hot check" laws.

Ever buy a car from this angle?

SURE, a trim new Buick makes a mighty pretty picture when you see it in your driveway, or watch it wheel by.

But if you could get a mechanic's-eye view of this big, broad beauty as it sits on a lift, you'd see an impressive picture of rugged brawn that makes good-to-look-at Buicks give such a good account of themselves on the road.

You'd see the full-length torque-tube drive that firms the whole power relay system, and steadies your going like a giant hand beneath you.

You'd see big sturdy wheels with really wide rims that provide surer footing, give better car control, make tires last longer.

You'd see all four wheels cushioned by stout coil springs that are completely service-free, practically breakproof—and a principal reason for the ever-level Buick ride.

But mainly, you'd see the massive foundation that backbones every Buick—the deep, wide, X-member frame that's rugged as a rock, and a brute for strength.

So when you look at the beauty of a Buick—the big mileage power of its valve-in-head Fireball Engine—and the moneysaving ability of its Dynaflow Drive*—don't overlook the tough stamina that goes with it all.

And don't overlook the fact that a new '51 Buick, with all its left, costs less per pound than any other car of comparable size, structure and weight.

Better come see us first chance you get—and find out what a smart buy this is—from every angle.

NO OTHER CAR PROVIDES ALL THIS:

- DYNAFLOW DRIVE*
- FIREBALL ENGINE
- PUSH-BAR FOREFRONT*
- WHITE-GLOW INSTRUMENTS
- 4-WHEEL COIL SPRING
- TORQUE-TUBE DRIVE

- DREAMLINE STYLING

You'll Like This Roomy, Low-Cost House

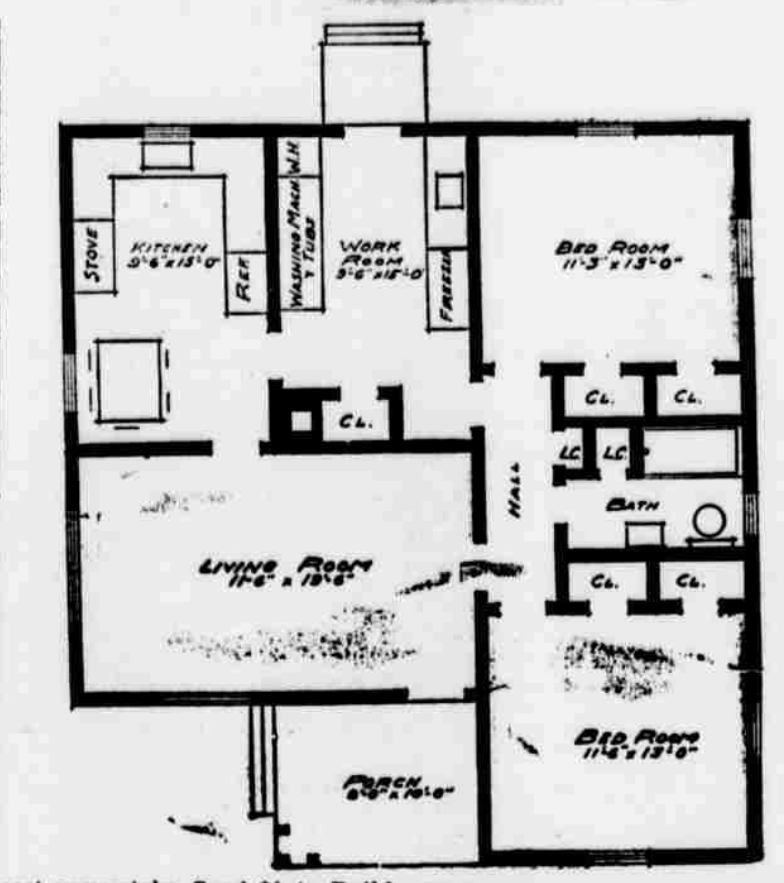

House Plan No. 4810 offers you a new home with lots of space for comfortable living, yet the space is provided in a small, low-cost house. Considerable care has been taken to obtain plenty of usable wall space in the bedrooms and living room. This will make the rooms appear larger than they really are, because the furniture can be easily and attractively arranged.

The plan provides wall storage cabinets in the workroom over the sink, freezer, washing machine and tubs. This will eliminate the necessity of keeping anything except food items in the kitchen cabinets, yet at the same time 15 feet of counter space is such that you will not have to move more than 6 feet from one work area to another. The window by the table in the kitchen was provided to make the eating spot more cheerful and give extra light and ventilation to the kitchen. This window can be the small size shown or a full-length window as desired.

The plans provide a chimney for use with stoves for heating; however, a fireplace could be added by putting it in the end of the living room where the two windows are at present, and by placing the one large window in the front wall, leaving two for light.

George A. Logan Resigns Post With Westex C of C

ABILENE, Aug. 9.—George A. Logan has resigned as manager of the agriculture and livestock department of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, effective September 1, Fred H. Husbands, executive vice president and general manager, announced today.

Logan said his future plans will be announced in a few days. Logan joined the WTCC staff January 1. He had been agriculture and livestock director of the Waco Chamber of Commerce for five years. There he worked under Husbands, who was general manager of the Waco chamber.

Husbands expressed regret that Logan is leaving the WTCC staff. "My very best wishes for continued success will go with him," he stated.

Logan declared that his contact with people throughout the 132-county WTCC territory had convinced him that "the vision of West Texas leaders and their support of the regional chamber are the only limitations upon the service the organization can give to West Texas."

"Everywhere I have gone in the past few months farmers, ranchers and business men have expressed amazement at progress made by the WTCC since Mr. Husbands became its executive vice president and general manager last December," Logan declared.

Weinert Soldier Commended As Member of Infantry Division Which Smashed Attacks of Chinese Communists

Sergeant First Class Billy H. Therwanger, who returned home in June after 10 months service with the Second Infantry Division of the U. S. Army in Korea recently received a letter of commendation for his combat service from Major General Clark L. Ruffner, commander of the 2nd U. S. Division.

The letter cites some of the almost impossible obstacles which were overcome by the fighting 2nd Division, especially during the period when Chinese Communist forces threatened to push the Allied forces into the sea.

After returning to the States from Korea, Sgt. Therwanger spent a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Therwanger of Weinert. Then he reported to an assignment at Fort Sill, Okla., where he is currently stationed.

The letter from the General follows: "Last summer, when you were boarding ship in the ports of the West Coast, the forces of the Eighth US Army and of the Republic of Korea were fighting a desperate rearguard action against the Communist Forces who had launched their treacherous attack a few weeks before. When you arrived at Pusan, it appeared that only a miracle could prevent an early evacuation from the Korean peninsula. You played a part in the accomplishment of that miracle. You, and those with you, fought at Pohangdong in early August, and played a part in the magnificent defense along the Pong-ni River on the line between Yongson and Myonpung. Your holding action during those crucial days in early September stopped and turned the Communist tide.

"Later in the same month, you smashed across the river and drove the remnants of six enemy divisions before you. You were there when the 2nd Division took Chogye, Hyopchon, Kochang, Anui, and made the 73 mile dash to Chonju on the 28th of September.

"You had it easy in October, a couple of mop-up missions between Chonju and Suwon which resulted in the capture of over 2,000 enemy soldiers, a little fighting—and quite a few rumors about an early return stateside. That is, until near the end of the month when you picked up your gear and headed for the area north of the parallel.

"On October 20th, you began movement to various cities of North Korea. You have belonged to one of the units occupying Haeju, Sariwon, Chinnampo, or the capital city of North Korea, Pyongyang. Or you might have driven a truck between Seoul and Pyongyang as part of the "Red Ball Express" established to furnish logistic support to the advancing 1 Corps.

"During November, you moved into line again, part of the United Nations Force that was to drive to the Yalu River and complete the destruction of the North Korean Forces. It would have been all over by Christmas—but the Chinese decided that they would take a hand.

"The last week in November was one which you who were there will never forget. It was in those days that the 2nd Infantry Division covered the withdrawal of the Eighth Army, drove through the enveloping Chinese Forces, and then returned to an assembly area near Yonddungpo to regroup and re-equip and enter the lines again to stop this new enemy horde.

"Your next assignment, the defense of Wonju in the bitter cold of January, prepared you for your next, magnificent defense along the line between Wonju and Chipyong-ni when, in the five days between the 12th and 17th of February, you were one of those who in a concerted effort smashed the attacks of 12 Chinese Divisions. Still later you took part in the successful attack, which still continues, to drive the Chinese north over some of the most difficult terrain in the world. Early in April you again crossed the 38th parallel.

"It is with gratitude for what you've done, and an appreciation for the combat wisdom and esprit de corps which you were instrumental in building in this fighting 2nd Division that I say for your comrades Bon Voyage and—Thanks a million."

Price of Natural Gas Boosted To Industrial Users

Industrial customers of the Lone Star Gas Company in September will begin paying an additional nine-tenths of one cent for each thousand cubic feet of natural gas used.

The increased cost for gas service will affect more than 3,000 industrial and manufacturing plants and other large consumers throughout the Lone Star system in Texas.

M. L. Bird, operating manager for the company's general division of distribution, has sent letters to industrial customers in this area advising of the additional cost and pointing out that the rate hike became necessary after a gathering tax was imposed on the gas industry by the Texas Legislature at its 1951 session.

Accident Prevention In Home By A & M Specialist

It is not the safety of the home that is the problem. It is the care that is exercised at all times by the homemaker when she is cooking.

Many accidents also occur on stairways and steps. The National Safety Council reports that most home accidents, 24 per cent, result from falls. Faulty steps should be repaired and all steps and stairs should be well lighted. Scatter rugs should never be placed at the bottom nor the top landings of the stairway and loose or frayed runners on the stair steps are always dangerous.

The stairway treads should all be of the same width and risers the same height, says Mrs. Clayton, and the treads should not be polished. It's always dangerous to climb or descend stairs or steps when both arms are loaded and it's doubly so when the stairs and steps are cluttered.

Mrs. Clayton believes that a great number of home accidents can be prevented and at the same time fire hazards can be removed from the home if homemakers will dispose of worn appliances, make repairs to equipment when needed and follow an orderly program of practicing safety every day in the year.

Stamford Calls For Bids On Proposed Water Reservoir

The City Council of Stamford has called for bids for dam and pipeline construction on a proposed reservoir and lake on Paint Creek 12 miles southeast of Haskell. The Council announced bids would be opened Friday, August 11, at 2 p. m.

Action in calling for bids followed the announcement last week of the sale of a $1,500,000 bond issue voted by Stamford taxpayers last March to finance the proposed reservoir, pipeline and filtration plant.

The lake is to impound 60,000 acre feet of water, and as much as 10,000 acre feet per year will be taken from it, Stamford city officials said.

Stamford Mayor, Clyde Westfall reported at the council meeting that all land for the new lake had not yet been purchased, but that enough had been acquired to start work on the dam. Purchase of land on Scott's Ranch, owned by the Scott Estate, represented more than half of the proposed lake property. It was explained.

Stamford city officials anticipate an early start on the proposed dam and pipeline project, for which plans and specifications are now being prepared by Freese & Nichols, Fort Worth water engineers.

It is proposed that the 16-inch pipeline will run 15 miles from the proposed lake to a filtration plant to be built a mile north of Stamford. Contractors for the pipe line project are to furnish necessary pipe. It is to be of cement and cast iron construction.

Members of the Bluebonnet Club met August 2nd in the home of Mrs. R. V. Hagle for a luncheon and club meeting. Luncheon was served at 1:00 o'clock by the hostess. After a brief business meeting, Miss Wirges gave the demonstration on making toll cookies. The group then worked on aluminum trays. The following members were present for the all-day occasion: Mesdames Holcomb, Williams, Mason, Wendeborn, Knippling, Astin, Thompson, Cornelius, Overby, Denison, Martin, Hagle and visitors were Mrs. E. C. Bland, Louise Lassiter, Clydia Sue Williams.

Haskell and Knox HD Club Women Camp at Lueders

It was camp time at Lueders for the Home Demonstration Club members of Knox and Haskell counties, Thursday and Friday, July 19-20. One hundred women and two agents enjoyed the two days filled with games, songs, china painting, craft, skills, vesper service and good food.

Mrs. W. J. May, from the Veterans Wives Club of Haskell County was chairman this year. She did a fine job planning an interesting program with the help of Mrs. Clyde Bland, vice chairman from Center Point Club, and Miss Thelma Wirges county home demonstration agent.

The Center Point Club served as the registration committee. They registered 91 members representing 12 of the 13 clubs in Haskell county.

Mrs. R. V. Hagle from the Bluebonnet club served as recreation leader. Games were given her from each club in the county.

Each cabin was named a ranch to carry out the ranch theme for the camp. These names were placed on each camp cabin by the Willing Workers Club.

Since there were thirty women present for the first time, the "Ladies Club" really had a job. They initiated each one.

A stunt was presented by each club from both counties. This is always the big event of the year. This year's winners were: Veterans Wives, Haskell; Bluebonnet, Liberty and Sagerton.

The Sagerton Club presented a very impressive vesper service on the bank of the Brazos River last before everyone retired to their cabin.

The camp was closed with the annual business meeting. Knox county officers were elected since they will be the hostess county for 1937.

Season On Doves Cut From 45 Days As Conservation Move

whitewing dove season, Sept. 16 and 18.

The executive secretary said field reports indicate sufficient birds to provide a good harvest without endangering the brood stock, under the current regulations.

"Texas still will have a pretty generous dove hunting season," he said. "I'm confident Texas sportsmen will understand that the game that is not killed this fall will survive to assure their favorite sport in future seasons."

The daily limit for mourning doves is 10. The possession limit is also 10.

Hunters bagging whitewings during the special season must count their morning doves in their bag. Thus, if they shoot three mourning doves they may take only seven whitewings.

Two Area Youths To Play In 6-Man All-Star Game Sat.

Clyde Thomas of Paint Creek and Bobby Therwanger of Weinert will combine with the West contingent in the annual six-man all-star tilt that brings the Texas Six-Man Coaches Association School to a close in San Marcos next Saturday night.

All-star high school football and basketball players from throughout Texas have started practice for the annual events. The basketball game will be played Friday night.

Playing with fullback Thomas and halfback Therwanger will be James Raughton, offensive end and defensive center from Lueders; Robert White, back from Lubbock; and Alvin Pruske from Stockdale.

Monday, the East and West football teams under the tutelage of James Hardy, Coldspring, and David Slaughter of Knox City, respectively, began limbering up. The first day's activity was devoted primarily to conditioning and fundamentals.

Both Thomas and Therwanger were selected on the six-man all-star team last year.

Weinert Downs Stamford, 2-1, In First Tilt of Playoff Series

Catcher Bob Raynes blasted a home run over the head of Stamford's centerfielder, Andy Anderson, to capture the first win, 2-1, for Weinert as the Shaunessey playoff finale got underway in Weinert last Tuesday night.

Weinert gained the finals of the playoffs by defeating Haskell, 5-0, Friday night and Stamford took their berth in the finals after eliminating Knox City last Tuesday night, 4-0.

With the contest deadlocked at 1-1 and two men out of Stamford was looking toward an extra inning ball game. Then Raynes clouted the four-master to put the campaign on ice for Weinert.

Shortstop Idell Montgomery started the ball rolling for Weinert when he got a free trip around the bases on an error by Anderson early in the first inning. Montgomery slashed a long line drive into centerfield that went through Anderson and on to the fence allowing Montgomery to make the circuit and give Weinert a 1-0 lead.

Stamford came back to tie up the score, 1-1. Pitcher Bud Adams gave up a walk and surrendered a hit to allow the base runner to reach third. He then crossed home plate on a passed ball.

Weinert vs. Haskell

Weinert brought an abrupt ending to the originally planned three-game series by shutting out the Haskell All-Stars 5-0 in the second game here Friday night.

The erring All-Stars committed six miscues with three of them being costly by allowing three Weinert runs to cross the plate. The other two runs were earned.

The game was strictly defensive on part of both teams as pitcher, E. L. Basing, Haskell, struck out only two batters. Weinert's Bud Adams fanned three. The Weinert batsmen connected for seven hits off Basing, while he surrendered only one walk, the only one of the game. Adams gave up only three hits.

It was the top half of the sixth when Weinert put the lid on the game with a four-run rally. Willie Medford, centerfielder, singled in Leroy Hix to set the stage. Their first score came in the top of the third frame after Troyce Raynes made the first sack on second baseman Jack Chapman's error. Roy Raynes hit a high unpredictable fly ball that fell behind the shortstop and in too close for either the left or center fielder. It was good for a double and scored T. Raynes from first.

Weinert's Adams allowed only one Haskell runner to reach third base, but was never in serious trouble. With two away in the fifth frame, leftfielder Billy Davis got to first on third sacker Alfion Dunning's error. Davis slid safely into third base on D. C. Basing's double over second base.

Black Indians Win 14th; Defeat Childress, 5-3

The Haskell Black Indians surged to their fourteenth victory Sunday as they came from behind to defeat the Childress All-Stars, 5-3. They have lost only two games this season.

In the top half of the fifth inning, Childress marked their final tallies and took a two run lead over the Black Indians. In the bottom half of the sixth frame the Indians pulled to within one run of the All-Stars as second baseman L. C. Broadway crossed the plate.

It was the bottom half of the eighth before the Indians were able to tie up the contest. Third baseman Billy Davis slashed a single over second base. He advanced to second on a steal and then stole third. Jimmy White catcher, looped a long fly ball to center field that scored Davis and deadlocked the game, putting a new lease on a win for the Black Indians.

Broadway scored the winning run after a walk, a steal at second, and was then scored on a hit by first baseman Lonnie Hill. Hill crossed the plate with the first Indian run.

Pitcher William Dorsey went the distance for the Black Indians striking out seven, walked five, surrendering five hits, and allowing two earned runs.

Jimmy Williams stayed on the mound eight innings for Childress. He struck out eight, walked six and gave up five hits. Four Haskell runs were earned.

All-Stater Billy Davis Stars In Football, Baseball, Track

For the past three years the fear of Haskell's gridiron opponents, has been in Billy Davis, the versatile Indian halfback who will ring down the curtain on his high school athletic career August 17 when he combines with the East all-star squad in the second annual Greenbelt Bowl game in Childress.

Haskell mentors have found an almost perfect combination in the 162 pound, 5 foot, 8 inch frame of Davis. He's a fast, deceptive power ground gainer and a good passer. But that isn't all. Davis is also a quick-kicker and a punter.

Davis gained his first grid honors in 1948 when he was selected on the all-district eleven. For the past two years he has been a unanimous choice by the District 9A coaches at the halfback position on the all-District team.

Also for the last two football seasons, Davis has been the leading scorer of the district, crossing the double stripe 18 times in 1949 and 19 in 1950.

Davis paced the Indians to the District 9A championship in 1949 by scoring 108 points through touchdowns alone. Last year he chalked up 99 points which included three extra point conversions.

It was not until the end of the 1950 season that Davis got his highest honor. He was named on the all-regional team and was chosen on the second team all-state schoolboy eleven by the Associated Press. And, last month, he was chosen as one of the all-stars of the state and received an invitation to play in the East-West all-star game.

Davis is not only a versatile gridiron star, but he is also a versatile athlete. Since 1947 he has been an outstanding trackman and was the anchorman on the Indian relay team which holds the District 9A record of 44.3. He spent some of his time on the hardwoods with the Indian basketball team.

During the summer, Davis participates in both softball and baseball. The versatile little ball player is one of the outstanding pitchers in the league and when he is not toting the mound, he is roving the outfield or he is posted at one of the infield positions.

This summer, Davis has been pitching baseball for the Haskell Black Indians. In the 10 games he was on the mound he won 9 and lost only 1. At the present time he is hitting .321 a very good average for a pitcher.

In the summer of 1948, he played softball with the Stamford junior team which won consolation in the state softball tournament at Corpus Christi. He played centerfield and, at times, shortstop. He was selected on the all-tournament team at the centerfield position. In that tournament he hit .333 and had a 1.000 fielding average.

Davis was playing with Abilene junior team in the summer of 1949 when they went to the National Softball Tournament at Texarkana. He pitched three games, two 3-hit tilts and a 2-hit campaign. He won two games 3-1 and 6-3 but lost the two-hitter, 2-1.

Davis began his football career in 1945 when he played with the Haskell junior team under the tutelage of J. L. Alderdice. He entered high school in 1947 and has played in every game since that time, starting 33 consecutive gridiron campaigns. During his four years of schoolboy football, Davis averaged 7 points per game.

His longest touchdown run came last fall against Class AA Big Spring when he scampered 85 yards down the sideline on a kickoff return.

Billy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Davis of Haskell.

Of the 24 pigskin stars playing with the East in the all-star game August 17, nine are from Class A schools. Four of these nine players were picked from District 9A.

Along with Davis will be Billy Don Womack, center, of Anson, and Backs Scotty Ponder of Munday, and Keith Witherspoon of Albany. The remaining Class A footballers represent Crowell, Seymour, Olney, and Bowie.

Two Local Girls In State Softball Meet With Stamford Team

The Stamford women's softball team entered the state tournament at Ballinger this week but were eliminated after the first two games. They lost the first contest, 7-2, to San Angelo and dropped the second tilt, 12-7, to the Brownwood nine Wednesday night.

Playing with Stamford were Miss Opal Dunning of Haskell and Mrs. Darlene Dunning of Weinert. Miss Dunning pitched the first five innings against San Angelo before she was relieved. She then was stationed on the first sack. Mrs. Dunning played third and shortstop.

Haskell Entries Ousted From Tri-County Golf Meet at Seymour Last Week

Floyd Cook was the only Haskell entry in the Tri-County Golf Tournament to stay in the Seymour meet until the final day of action. Cook went into the consolation bracket but was defeated by Frank Cockerell of Seymour 1-up on 19 holes.

Trav Everett went out on the third round while Scotch Coggins was eliminated in the second, and Willard Warren went down in the first round.

John Kimbrough won his first match but was eliminated after losing the next two. Raul English had to forfeit the second round after being called from the meet.

Joe Bob Golden, 18-year-old University of Texas sophomore, defeated L. P. Nolen of Seymour 7 and 6 to take the championship.

Robert Hill, Seymour, birdied the 20th hole to down Chad Wilson of Knox City, 1-up, in the consolation.

First flight winner Omar Cure, Gilliland, downed D. D. Moorhouse, Seymour, 2-up, and Charlie Reese of Knox City defeated Neimer Bird of Seymour, 1-up on 19 holes in the consolation.

Cloyce Talbott, Megargel, downed Benny Melton, Jr., Munday, 8 and 7 to win the second flight.

He will administer the American Petroleum Institute information program in this community for 1951-52 and is in charge of plans now in their formative stage for Oil Progress Week, October 14-20, according to an announcement from Abilene today by W. C. Barnes, OIIC West Central Texas area chairman.

"In broadening the OIIC program in Texas this year," Mr. Barnes said, "we feel fortunate in enlisting John Kimbrough's leadership in the vital Haskell community."

Barnes explained that Texas has been divided geographically into 14 OIIC areas this year with almost 700 oil and gas men serving on 331 volunteer community committees throughout the state.

In commenting on his appointment as the new chairman, Kimbrough said his objective and the committee's was to help re-affirm the American people's confidence in the oil and gas industry of the nation, and to help them to better understand the industry's contribution to the nation's economy.

America's farms, are too small, too poorly equipped or too lacking in essential resources to supply the families who operate them an adequate income, says Vance. There is a real need to provide these farm families with better opportunities to improve their livelihood and to make a greater contribution to the Nation's agricultural output. Even the most productive and efficiently operated family farm could make improvements if proper guidance or aid were made available to the farm families who operate them.

The Department of Agriculture, points out Vance, is desirous of adapting future policies to the needs and recommendations of family farms. It is therefore, he adds, important that all interested persons attend one of the meetings or else send their suggestions to the local county Mobilization Committee.

A summary of the recommendations from each county will be sent to the State Committee and the county reports will then be consolidated into a state report which will be sent to Washington. The Farm Family Review Committee of the Department of Agriculture will in turn study the state reports and make final recommendation to the Secretary of Agriculture.

Vance says this is democracy in action. He adds if democracy is to be a continuing source of hope to rural people elsewhere in the world, democracy must then continue to advance in rural America. Progress in agriculture must be continued and he says no person is in a better position to make recommendations for this progress than the man or family who operates a farm.

"MALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

Small Business Committee investigating the news-situation that threatens the existence of approximately 100,000 independent newspapers.

But then, some big corporations were interested in both tin and rubber.

Part of the apathy in Washington on the newspaper situation is the feeling among many bureaucrats that the independent publisher is a pretty unreliable sort of a person.

He is so independent, he separates the facts from the propaganda, and facts are things that bureaucrats don't like published.

They feel operators of radio and television stations are much more reliable.

For example, right now, the nation's television stations are giving thousands upon thousands of dollars worth of time to running a propaganda film "The Marshall Plan in Action." It's called a public service feature.

It's probably the first time in history that a gun held to anyone's head has been called public service.

Radio and TV stations are at the mercy of the Federal Communications Commission.

Theoretically these stations are required to furnish equal time free to people who would like to point out that Marshall Plan is spending American tax dollars for such items as printing tourist guides for European travel and for a host of other activities.

But "public service" as interpreted by the bureaucrats, is a one way street.

That's why independent newspaper publishers are considered unreliable in Washington. They print the truth as they see it.

It is a safe bet that if newspaper publishers would consent to government licensing, ways and means would be found to provide them newsprint.

Former Rochester Man Wins Title Of State Champion Checker Player

D. C. Hulsey of Fort Worth, Texas resident of the Rochester checker tournament in May and has been the West Texas champion three different times, received $50 in cash and the first trophy ever given by the state association.

"The 55-year-old Civil Service employe launched his checker-playing career about 25 years ago but doesn't get much chance to practice because of lack of any organization of really good checker players in Fort Worth."

Hulsey formerly owned and operated a grocery store and service station in the Rochester section for about 18 years before moving to Fort Worth in 1942.

Increased Production of Farm Crops Is Among Major Goals of Agricultural Conservation Program

The Agricultural Conservation program has three major functions in helping farmers produce what is needed in the nation's defense effort, says Ray R. Overton, member of the Haskell County Production and Marketing Administration committee.

The first is to prevent a breakdown of the farm plant through erosion, leaching or deterioration. Such a breakdown not only reduces production to meet present needs but it means less from this land in the future.

ACP does this by assisting farmers in the construction of terraces, laying out contours as a pattern for farming operations, building of erosion control dams, sodding waterways, and installing structures to handle excess runoff without damage to the soil.

The second function is to aid in carrying out conservation practices which prevent erosion from getting started. This is done by building up resistance to erosion by strengthening the soil structure. Turning under a green manure crop to restore organic matter and humus to the soil as a means of strengthening the soil structure is an example.

The third and vitally important function today is helping farmers to carry out soil and water conservation practices to increase production from the farm plant. All ACP conservation work has this for its objective but some practices are more effective in accomplishing this end than others.

The use of sweet clover or some other good legume in rotation to restore nitrogen and vegetable matter to the soil, the conservation of moisture through contour farming, increasing livestock production through pasture renovation and improvements are examples.

Overton said that attention now is centered on those practices which will result in greater production to meet today's needs, with particular emphasis on practices which meet the needs of individual farms.
