Voters To Ballot on $260,000 Revenue Bond Issue Friday

Qualified voters who reside within the city limits of Haskell will ballot Friday on a combined $260,000 Revenue Bond Issue. If authorized, proceeds from the bond issue will be used for needed repairs, improvements and extensions of the City Waterworks and Sewer System.

The bonds will be retired solely from revenue of the waterworks and sewer system, and can never become a tax lien on property, city officials pointed out.

Although the total issue on which voters will ballot amounts to $260,000, the additional indebtedness created by the proposal carries, will be only $200,000, it was explained. Of the combined total, $60,000 will be used for retiring outstanding bonds. $125,000 will be used for enlargements and repairs to the waterworks system, and $75,000 will be for repairs and improvements to the sewer system.

It is estimated that only $100,000 will be required for needed repairs and expansions at the present time, with a similar amount reserved for future expansion when needed.

Imperative need for expansion of the waterworks system exists due to the population growth and new homes built during recent years, proponents of the bond issue pointed out. Present facilities are being taxed to capacity, city officials declare, in meeting needs of present consumers.

Another pressing need is for enlargement and repairs to the sewer disposal system, which is totally inadequate for the city at the present time. This improvement is imperative in the interest of community sanitation, city officials and health officers point out.

Voting on the proposed bond issue will be at the City Hall, during the hours prescribed by law.

Piano Instruction Available To Pupils In Haskell Schools

Miss Doris Chapman, a student at North Texas State College in Denton, has been secured by S. H. Vaughter, superintendent of Haskell public schools, to teach piano lessons in Haskell on a full-time basis.

The piano course is a public service and is not a part of the public school curriculum, Supt. Vaughter explained. However, the high school band room of the activity building will be used as a studio and lessons will be taught in co-ordination with the school's semester schedule.

Schedule for instruction will be organized when interested parents furnish the necessary information which includes:

1. The age of the child.
2. The number of years the child has studied piano.
3. Classification of the student.
4. The number of lessons desired.

This information should be given the high school or superintendent's office as soon as possible so the arrangement of a schedule can be begun.

Miss Chapman, who began her music career at the age of 6, studied under Dr. Walter Gilewicz, an outstanding professor of piano at Mary Hardin Baylor College in Belton. Currently, she has studied under Dr. Silvio Sciolti at NTSC.

Deer Tag Tests To Be Resumed For This Season

Further studies to determine the best deer tag for Texas big game hunters will be made this fall, according to the executive secretary of the Game, Fish & Oyster Commission.

The tag system was adopted by the Legislature as a conservation measure since it is designed to restrict each hunter to two antlered deer in one season. Enforcement of this bag limit was difficult under the old law.

The 1949 Act stipulated that deer, when shot, must be tagged with a number and data showing the successful hunter's name, date and place the game was bagged, all corresponding with the name and data on the hunter's license.

Tags, presumably metal, were prescribed by the new law, but such self-destruction tags were found inadequate to contain the required data. Last fall two small detachable stubs were connected by a perforated link to the main license. Holes in the ends of the stubs were intended to facilitate tying on the tag.

Hunters complained that the paper markers came off in transit, particularly if they got wet, and that the eyes in the tag pulled out. Meanwhile the game department studied systems used elsewhere. States using the metal tags reported difficulty in inseparably connecting the gadgets with the paper licenses, and that license distributors had difficulty locating the metal markers with numbers corresponding to the main license.

The executive secretary said the new paper stubs are to be used without eyes for string. He suggested the 1950 hunters may find a minimum of trouble by placing the tags around the deer horns at the base and sealing them on with Scotch tape. Thus, when the game warden checks the hunter's bag, he will unroll the tag, inspect it and then seal it back on with the original tape.

Dan Holub of Seymour has returned home after working last week at the Perkins-Timberlake store in this city.

Social Security Man Will Be In Haskell On August 23rd

Ralph T. Fisher, manager of the Abilene office of the Social Security Administration, will be at the Chamber of Commerce in Haskell at 11 a. m. on Thursday, August 23. Persons wishing assistance with retirement claims or death claims under the Social Security Act, or needing information about their social security accounts, should call at that time for necessary help and information.

Numerous inquiries are being received from self-employed persons as to their status under the 1950 amendments to the Social Security Act. "Self-employed persons, with certain exceptions, have been covered by the law since January 1, 1951," Fisher said, explaining that while earnings from most commercial establishments are covered, earnings from self-employment as a farmer, doctor, dentist, lawyer, optometrist, veterinarian, architect, funeral director, and a few other professions are still excepted from old age and survivors insurance protection. Fisher explained that self-employed do not report themselves on the same quarterly social security tax returns they file for their employees but will make a social security report once each year as a part of their income tax return.

The social security office, 308 Post Office Bldg., Abilene, Texas, has a free booklet which explains the coverage of the self-employed and also contains a full list of the professions that are still excepted from coverage as self-employment and will mail this booklet to anyone, upon request.

Pfc. Mickler was home on leave from July 29th until August 5, while the aircraft carrier on which he is stationed was in dock at San Francisco, after duty in Far Eastern waters.

More than sixty guests enjoyed the evening's gathering and joined in welcoming the young Marine home for his brief visit. Iced watermelon was served during the evening.

Fishing and Hunting License Available Soon

Fishing and hunting licenses for the fiscal year beginning September 1 will be in the hands of Texas agents the last week in August, according to the chief clerk of the Game Fish & Oyster Commission at Austin. He said 1,550 persons in practically every community in Texas will help distribute the licenses. Approximately 315,000 individual resident sport fishing licenses will have been issued to Texans for the current fiscal year ending August 31. The chief clerk visions a small increase in the sale of both hunting and fishing licenses for the next year. All of the 36 licenses issued by the Game, Fish & Oyster Commission must be renewed for the new fiscal year, advised the chief clerk.

The fees range from 50 cents for a duplicate individual license, replacing the original, to $200 for a wholesale fish and oyster dealer permit. One important change to sportsmen is the new combined $2.15 resident hunting license. The resident license for sports fishing in fresh water costs $1.65. It must be used by all persons over 17 years of age when beyond their home counties or adjoining counties. Licenses must be possessed even then if artificial bait is used in the home county or artificial bait or live bait are used in adjoining counties.

Just OPS Regulations Remain Effective Under New Defense Production Act

The Office of Price Stabilization is now operating under the new Defense Production Act, which is an amendment of the Defense Production Act of 1950. It is pointed out by Ellis H. Boyd, director of the Fort Worth District OPS office. Under the amended law most of the regulations issued by OPS before July 11, 1951 remain effective. Major changes of wide affect are the elimination of the two price rollbacks on retail and wholesale beef prices, originally scheduled for this summer and the fall, and elimination of the distribution quota system on cattle, sheep, and hogs. The OPS retains the right of licensing livestock slaughterers. The district director said that the amended law reads that it is the intent of the Congress to provide authority necessary to promote national defense, to prevent inflation and to preserve the value of the national currency, to assure that defense appropriations are not dissipated by excessive costs and prices, and to stabilize the cost of living for workers and other consumers, and the cost of production for farmers and businessmen.

Motley Farmers Try Spraying Method of Mesquite Control

Motley County ranchers sprayed over 14,000 acres of range land with ester of 2,4,5-T for mesquite control this year.

County Agent J. R. Emmons says, although it is too early to determine results of the spraying, that all reports indicate that good results will be obtained.

Spraying mesquite by airplane with ester of 2,4,5-T costs approximately $3.50 per acre. The total cost to ranchers of Motley county was $49,650.

Statements made by ranchers regarding the spraying included: "Just killing the weeds was worth the cost of spraying." "I can see my cattle now; at the present price of cattle, one calf that might be lost from screw worms would pay for spraying 10 acres." "Even if the mesquites do resprout, I think it was worth the money." Emmons says between 35,000 and 45,000 acres are expected to be sprayed in Motley county next year—if weather and other conditions are favorable.

116,713 Texas farm boys and girls were enrolled last year in 4-H demonstrational work in agriculture and home economics.

"The fight against the economic destruction of inflation must continue," the district director declared. "By paying no more than ceiling prices by careful buying, everyone of us can do his part to stop the inflation that is threatened by increased defense production and lower civilian supplies in coming months." Enforcement investigators of OPS have started a nation-wide survey to determine how well retailers of apparel, furniture, housewares, radios and televisions, and similar lines are complying with Ceiling Price Regulation 7. It was announced by the Fort Worth District OPS office, OPS National Director of Enforcement, Edward P. Morgan, is in charge of the investigation.

OPS has found that there is a wide variance in the degree of compliance with the price ceiling regulations," Ellis H. Boyd, district director, said. Retail dealers were to have filed price charts by May 31.

The Department of Justice has instructed U. S. attorneys throughout the country to institute suits to compel filing of the charts in all cases where dealers fail to heed warning letters within the grace period set by OPS the district director said.

They Like it a Million!

Last week Buick set a proud record.

The millionth Dynaflo Drive® was delivered to a happy owner.

That's a new peak in popularity for modern drives which take you from a standing start to any cruising speed desired with a smooth, unfaltering swoop of power.

"The biggest advance since the self-starter" is what the motor-wise press called this Buick development back in 1948—and now a million owners can tell you how right that proved to be.

Here, they found, was a basically different way of delivering power.

It was the first drive to get completely away from any gears which function in a series of fixed stages—the first to apply supercharging principles that did new tricks with spinning oil.

And how folks loved it!

They loved the freedom from strain in traffic. And the new "sweetness" of ride which every passenger could enjoy.

They loved the command it gives them of every traffic situation—and the relaxation it contributes to a long day's drive.

They loved its extra safety in slippery going, and the improved control in mud and snow.

As they had a chance to pile up experience, they loved the unexpected savings of rear tire wear and reduced strain on all driving parts, from engine to differential.

And finally—they loved what it does for the value of a Buick, as reflected in the extra dollars that Dynaflo® adds to the resale price of a car.

Have you sampled this driving sensation?

There's no time like the present for discovering the thrills that more than a million Buick owners already know.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on ROADMASTER, optional on extra cost on other Series.

U. S. Officials Turning Attention To Laws Prohibiting Use of Child Labor

FORT WORTH, August 14. — Now that the opening of school is just around the corner, officials of the U. S. Department of Labor here are planning to do all they can to see that illegal employment does not interfere with youthful education.

They point out that in enacting the Federal Fair Labor Standard Act Congress made it unlawful to employ children under 16 years of age in agriculture during school hours if the farm products go into interstate or foreign commerce.

F. D. Riley, supervisor of the Wage-Hour and Public Contracts Divisions of the Labor Department here, says that the law applies to local residents as well as to migratory alien children—but not to farmer's own children working on their parents' farm.

By "school hours" is meant those hours when school is in session for the district where the child under 16 is currently living, he explained. The penalty for violation of the law is a maximum fine of $10,000 or as much as 6 months imprisonment, or both.

Farmers themselves are responsible, he said, if they employ underage children during school hours. That includes children hired either as individuals or as part of a family group directed by labor contractors, processors, or others. "When school is in session, all children belong in school and not in the field—we are going to do our best to see that they are not illegally employed and so kept out of school," he said. If a local school is closed for several days during the peak harvest season, it would not be considered as being in session at that time. Furthermore, he said, the Federal law sets no minimum age for employment of children in agriculture before or after school hours on any school day, or at any time on school holidays, or during school vacations.

But when the school bell rings on a regular day, children of school age are expected to be in school, he said.

H-SU Education Workshop To Be Held at Munday

Dr. J. B. Adair, professor of education at Hardin-Simmons University will be in Munday Friday to organize a workshop for teachers and graduate students of the area.

The organizational meeting will be held at Munday High School at 4 p. m., Dr. Adair said.

The workshop will be conducted August 20-31. Three hours graduate credit in elementary or secondary education will be given for the course.

Dr. Adair, a member of the Hardin-Simmons faculty for the past year, received his doctor's degree from the University of Texas in June. At one time he served as superintendent of a boys' school in Nigeria, Africa.

Funeral Rites Held In Rule Monday For Victim of Oil Field Accident

Funeral rites were held Monday afternoon at Rule for Louis Bryan, 34, of Stamford, who was crushed to death early Sunday in an oil field accident near Hamlin.

The funeral was held at the First Baptist Church of Rule with the pastor, the Rev. Houston Walker officiating. Burial was in the Rule Cemetery under the direction of Kinney & Son funeral home of Stamford.

Bryan was on a drilling rig when the rig was "pulled in." He had his safety belt attached and could not escape. All other workers on the rig escaped uninjured.

Bryan was working for the Wright, Clark and Senkel Drilling Co. of Graham on the SMS Flat Top No. 1 well near Flat Top Mountain in Jones county.

Bryan was born Aug. 8, 1917, in Stonewall County and had lived in this area most of his life. He served in the Navy during World War II.

Two sons and a daughter by a former marriage survive him in California.

He was married a second time three months ago to Mrs. Patricia Tipton of Brownfield, in a ceremony performed in Haskell.

Other survivors include a step-daughter; three brothers, James D., Ray and O. P. of Rule; three sisters, Mrs. James Holcomb and Mrs. Troy Wilson of Rule, and Mrs. Gordon Danover of Lubbock; and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Bryan of Rule.

Season Near For Seeding Winter Cover Crops

Fall seeding of winter cover crops is just around the corner. Farmers and ranchers should start locating seed and fertilizer now to be assured of a supply when planting time rolls around.

The most desirable time for planting vetch is September 15 to October 15. This gets the seed in the ground in time to take advantage of September and October rains and to give vetch a good start before cold weather sets in.

Vetch has been grown successfully on both sandy and tight soils. Sandy land plantings have usually been most successful when seeded at the rate of 10 pounds of vetch to 20 pounds of rye. Either sowing or planting with a drill has been found to be more successful than in rows. On tight land planting vetch by itself in rows at the rate of 10-15 lbs. per acre has given the best results. Be sure to inoculate vetch seed with a suitable inoculant to give the best results.

Vetch is fibrous rooted legume that is widely used for soil improvement, protection, grazing, hay and seed production. Year before last in California Creek Soil Conservation District, vetch was turned under green two months before cotton planting time and increased cotton yields by 1-3.

If you are unable to secure vetch at your local feed store contact your local county agent, PMA representative, vocational agriculture teacher or soil conservation technician and secure the addresses of suitable seed sources.

The spacious Bill Richey home, with its modern beauty and easy hospitality, was the setting Friday August 10 when members of the Monday Book Club and their husbands gathered for a No-Host Dinner to celebrate the club's 3rd anniversary. Mixer games, providing dinner partners and share the work duties, began a solid evening's entertainment. Following the dinner, which featured barbecued chicken, square dancing was enjoyed by those present: Mr. and Mrs. Theron Cahill, Mr. and Mrs. Terry M. Duggs, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. Will Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. Hill Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Richey, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wheatley, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Williams and Mrs. Carrie Williams.

Mrs. Richey was hostess at the initial meeting of the Monday Book Club in August, three years ago. This unique organization, with a limited membership of twelve sustains a revolving library whereby each member reads twenty-four books during the year, retaining two of these for her own personal library. Books, selected by popular request of the members, are about equally divided between fiction and non-fiction. Current literature is favored, but selections are not confined to the so-called "Best Seller" lists.

At the bi-monthly meetings, members exchange books and discuss what they have read. Meeting places and hostess duties are provided by each member in turn.

Plans are under consideration for expanding the interests and activities of the club, but for now, the Monday Book Club is out for education and fellowship via the road of literature.

Members of Dorcas Class Meet With Mrs. Jim Alvis

The Dorcas Class met Monday night, August 13, at 8 p. m. on the lawn at Mrs. Jim Alvis' home. Mrs. Walter Gresham presided for the business meeting, which was opened by prayer by Mrs. Jimmy Thompson.

W-Leghorns, B-Indians Open 3-Game Series Wednesday

Managers Tom Roberson and Walter Grissom have been sending their recently organized White Leghorn baseball team through light drills this week in preparation for a three-game series with the Haskell Black Indians next week.
 The series, Manager Grissom said, will begin next Wednesday night at 8:30 p. m. in Fair Park Stadium. The contests will be continued on Thursday and Friday nights following the first tilt.
 During the past season games have been delayed for various reasons and did not begin at the time they were scheduled, Grissom stated. "If I have only two men suited out, we will gather a team from the stands and the game will start promptly at 8:30 o'clock."
 Managers Grissom and Roberson organized the White Leghorn baseball club last week especially for the three game series with the Black Indians. Grissom said he did not have a complete lineup yet, but he had contacted several local ball players who are extremely interested in the baseball series.
 Two pitchers have been located to twirl from the hill for the White Leghorns. Lyman Carter and Bill McGuire will be the two probable twirlers in Wednesday night's campaign, though Grissom has not named a definite starter for the mound position. Tommy Robinson will care for the duties behind the plate for the White Leghorns.
 Manager Lusk Jenkins, pilot of the Black Indians, said his team was preparing and looking forward to the exhibition series with the White Leghorns. He said he would have his full team ready for the fray, except for left fielder, Woodrow Wilson, who will be out of the lineup because of a fractured left arm.

Indians Open With Stamford; Drills Begin August 27

The Haskell Indians will begin the 1951 season in an entirely new district this year and will open the season with a non-Conference tilt with Stamford September 7.
 In the changing of Districts last year, Stamford, Anson, and Hamlin moved to Class AA while Haskell, Albany, Munday and Throckmorton remained in Class A. District 6A, which Haskell is now in, picked up Roby, Roscoe and Merkel as members of this district.
 The first game of the season will be played Sept. 6 on the Indian gridiron when the Haskell B team meets the Stamford B team.
 With only three starters from the 1950 team returning, the Indians will have rough sledding. They will be faced by Albany which is considered one of the most powerful Class A teams in the state. Roscoe is the other powerhouse in this district.
 Royce Smith, taking over the duties as head coach for his first year, said workouts would begin Monday, August 27, at 6:30 a. m. and drills will be held that morning.
 Coach Smith said he wanted the boys to begin conditioning themselves and be ready and in shape by the 27th. The football camp could not be held this year because of an Interscholastic League ruling and one week is not enough time to get a man in condition, the head mentor stated.
 "In spring training the boys had the best attitude, the best spirit, and worked harder than they have in the past two years. We must continue that attitude to win some ball games this year," Coach Smith stated.
 Returning starters from the 1950 eleven are James Fowler, guard; Charlie Cox, tackle; and Eldon Amonett, fullback. Some of the returning reserves that will be taking over starting spots will be Keith Wheatley, Walter Holliey, Tommy Robison, Thomas Holland, Ralph Offield, Don Dandy, Kenneth Davis, Willard Mullins, Clinton Baccus, Bruce Reynolds, Frank Clarkson, and Dean Stocks. Buddy Collins and Wayne Harris are good prospective freshmen who may be listed on the starting line-up next fall.

Thomas Scores in All-Star Tilt

The East All-Star six-man football squad scored in the second and fourth quarters Saturday night to down the West squad 16-8 at the sixth annual game, played in San Marcos.
 The game was the climax of the three day Texas Six-Man Football Association meeting in this city.
 In the fourth quarter the West's Clyde Thomas of Paint Creek went through the middle for ten yards and a touchdown. Wilson of Yancy converted.

SPORTS

Black Indians Play Host To Sooner Nine Sun.

The Haskell Black Indians, ever, only one of the games was a scheduled league contest which the Indians lost, 6-4. The other campaign was captured by the Red Sox, 9-7.
 Sharp said that this was to be one of the most desperate games the Indians will have this year and he continued, "The Black Indians will be out to stop the Red Sox this time."
 The Indians will be looking for their fifteenth triumph of the season with Billy Davis scheduled to be on the mound. Davis has a 9-1 record for the season. The last three games he has been posted at third base.
 Jenkins designated Davis for the mound duties, but said that another hurler might start the game since it would tear up his defensive infield to take Davis from the third sack.
 The Black Indians will field their regular nine against the Red Sox, but they will be without the services of leftfielder Woodrow Wilson. Wilson received a fractured left arm when he was hit by a pitched ball in the game with Childress two weeks ago. Wilson will be replaced by Eddie Billio of Stamford.

Greenbelt Bowl All-Star Game Gets Underway at 8 p. m. Friday

The second annual Greenbelt Bowl game will get underway at 8 p. m., August 17th, officially opening the 1951 football season in Northwest Texas.
 The annual East-West all-star contest will be played in Childress High School Stadium which will hold a capacity crowd of 5500 fans.
 The teams, coached by Ki Aldrich, former TCU great, and Jack Mitchell, All-American from Oklahoma University, have been working out since last Monday in preparation for the senior bowl event. Aldrich tutors the East and Mitchell coaches the West.
 Playing with the East will be former Haskell Indian grid star Billy Davis who is expected to see plenty of action with the heavy Eastern squad who boasts of four all-state gridsters. With Davis, who was second team all-state, there is Edward Beach, back from Wichita Falls; Donald Clinkscales, back from Arlington Heights (Ft. Worth); and Ed End Bernet of Highland Park (Dallas).
 Also, from this district, are Scotty Ponder of Munday and Keith Witherspoon of Albany, backs, and Billy Don Womack, center, from Anson.
 Tickets for the game, are $1 for bleacher seats; $1.50 for reserved seats; and $2.49 for box seats. They may be purchased at the box office at the Childress Stadium.

Stamford's Weeks Hurls 1-Hitter For 7-0 Shutout Over Weinert

With the one-hit pitching of Roy Weeks and a barrage of Stamford hits, the Stamford VFW softballers shut out Weinert, 7-0 Wednesday night in the third game of the scheduled five-game series of the Shaughnessy play-offs.
 Weinert took the first game of the series while Stamford grabbed the last two and now hold a one-game lead over Weinert. The next game of the series will be contested at Stamford Friday night.
 The only hit given up by Weeks came in the fifth inning when Kyle Carver, secondbaseman, hit a slow grounder to shortstop and beat it out to the first sack.
 Bud Adams was on the hill four frames for Weinert and was relieved in the top of the fifth by lefthander Otis Carver. Together they surrendered nine hits and allowed Stamford five earned runs.
Second Game
 In the second game of the series, last Monday night, Stamford captured their first victory over Weinert, 9-3, the first time they had beaten Weinert during the season.
 Stamford took an early lead over Weinert when Ervin Overton, centerfielder, poked a three-run circuit clout over the fence of Wendeborn Field in the first inning.
 Pitcher E. W. Mickler allowed only four hits to the Weinert batsmen, while Bud Adams, Weinert hurler, gave up 11 bingles to the Stamford nine. Third baseman Alfon Dunning and shortstop Idell Montgomery caught Mickler for two hits each.
 Weinert's three tallies came in the top of the fourth after Leroy Hix had walked. Dunning clouted a double to score Hix, then Montgomery slashed out a triple to knock in Dunning. Montgomery scored on an error by third baseman Charlie Clark.
 Overton and firstbaseman Tommy Alexander lead Stamford at the plate. They each collected three hits in four trips to the batters box.

All-Stars Close Season With Loss To Weinert, 10-3

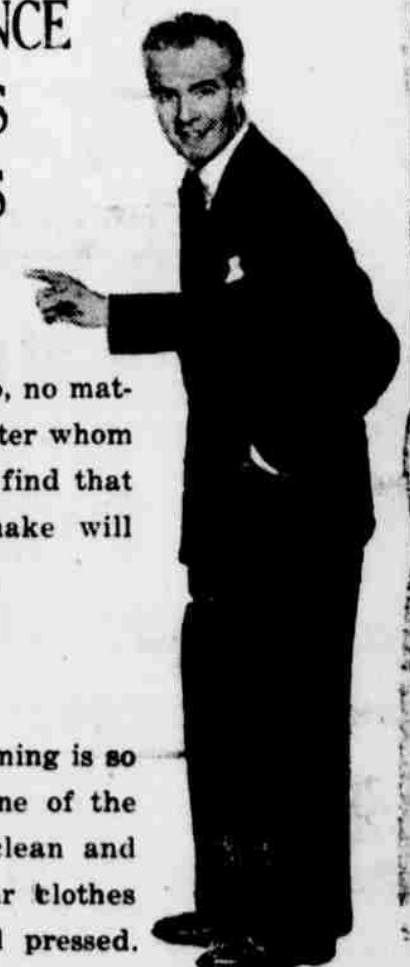

The Haskell All-Stars suffered a 10-3 defeat at the hands of Weinert last Thursday night as they brought a close to a successful softball season.
 In last Thursday night's game, errors held the upper hand on the All-Stars and allowed Weinert to score most of the runs. They were allowed only one earned run.
 In the top of the second inning, Weinert scored 6 runs before pitcher E. L. Basing was able to take them out. They returned in the third and score one twice in the sixth, and again in the seventh. Haskell's three tallies came in the half of the sixth and two of the mwere earned.
 Basing gave up six hits, struck out 9 Weinert batsmen and allowed 5 to reach first base via walks. Otis Carver, hurling for Weinert was credited with six strikeouts, surrendered two bingles and walked one man.

"Terraces Make A Difference" Declares Roy Wiseman, Who Has Built 72,000 Feet Protecting All Cropland On His Farm

Terraces do make a difference. Instead of going out after a rain to see how much soil has been washed away, the farmer whose land is protected with terraces can rest assured that the topsoil will still be in place.

As Roy Wiseman, whose farm is located 5 miles west of Haskell, expresses it "The terraces that protect my soil and hold back the water from rain give me a sense of security that I never had before they were built."

Wiseman has been cooperating in the Agricultural Conservation Program since 1940.

With the help of the program, he has constructed 72,000 feet of terraces, says Joe Harper, Secretary of the Haskell County PMA Committee. He constructed the first terraces on his farm back in 1939. He now has all of his cropland protected in this way.

The County PMA Secretary points out that terracing is but one example of the practices available to Haskell farmers under the Agricultural Conservation Program Practices emphasized in 1951 and specifications are available at the county PMA office in Haskell.

Recent Changes In OPS Regulations Are Explained

A Fort Worth OPS representative who conducted a price clinic here August 9 for local merchants has announced two recent developments in the price stabilization program.

Price Specialist Herman Golden said the OPS had cancelled the livestock quota provisions of the meat control program, but that licenses were still required for slaughtering.

"The new Defense Production Act leaves untouched provisions requiring slaughterers to register to engage in business, to stamp animal carcasses with their registration number, and to keep records of their operations," said Golden.

Golden also stated that the OPS had issued a ceiling price regulation setting dollar and cent ceiling prices for scrap tires, tire parts, and scrap tubes. The new regulation now in effect CFR 59, applies to wholesale scrap rubber dealers, to consumers, and to export and import sales, he said.

The OPS representative said the next Price Clinic for Haskell will be August 23 starting at 9:00 A. M. in the Chamber of Commerce office.

Cereal Demonstrator Makes Cookies For Jud H. D. Club

"Do you treat your family to home-made cookies often?" asked Mrs. H. B. Yarbrough of members of the Willing Workers HD Club. Yarbrough showed both bought and home-made cookies Thursday Aug. 9, when the club met. The cost of each kind was compared and figured out on a blackboard above the demonstration table.

Miss Thelma Wirges, HD agent, was present to take picture of the demonstration. Refreshments of ice cream and cookies were served Miss Wirges and Mrs. Burleson, Jetton, Mathis, Bill Peters, Lowell Peters, Powell, Wheeler and Yarbrough by the hostess, Mrs. S. E. Lewis. The next meeting will be September 13 with Miss Wirges present to give a pastry demonstration. Come and learn to be a good pie-maker.

Efficient Packing Eliminates Many Vacation Worries

Are you planning to "Pack up your troubles in your old kit bag" and take a vacation? Be wise, do not pack "troubles" by packing carelessly, advises Gladys Darden, Home management specialist for the Agricultural Extension Service of Texas A&M College. A few rules or hints can spare you wrinkles, stains and other troubles on your arrival.

First of all, travel light, suggests Miss Darden. You can do this if you are selective of what you take. Take clothes that will serve more than one purpose; accessories that will combine well with several costumes, stress crease-resistant fabrics, quick washing and drying blouses and lingerie. Think of needs—summer days are hot but resort night can be cool as air-conditioned modes of transportation.

Make a list before you start your actual packing, says Miss Darden.

Darden. High on the list should be cosmetics, plastic cases and unbreakable plastic bottles for them, clothes brush, shoe brush, needles and basic colored threads, your favorite soap or detergent for washing hose and lingerie. Add a travel iron, extra hangers, and tissue paper.

Here are a few tricks a seasoned traveler gets to know—stuff shoes and purses with tissue paper and crumple tissue in every dress fold. Fold a jacket with the lining outward, sleeves straight down—it will hang out in a short time. Fold skirt back over a roll of tissue paper. Put shoes, heavy or bulky articles on the bottom layer of your suit case. Pack articles in the order needed—as pajamas on the top for an overnight trip. Unpack as soon as possible after your arrival, concludes Miss Darden.

Senate Finance Committee, which has just concluded public hearings on the proposed law, to consider other types of taxation, to curtail needless Federal expenditures, and to close loopholes in the present tax structure rather than discriminate against the motorist who is already overburdened with heavy taxation.

Proposed Excise Tax Will Force Car Prices Up

If Congress enacts into law the proposed increase in excise taxes on new automobiles, passed by the House last month, the price of automobiles will rise about $50 Bill Wilson, local Area chairman for the National Automobile Dealers Association said today.

"The present discrimination is made far greater by the House bill which would raise manufacturers' excise taxes on new automobiles from 7 to 10 per cent. The bill lowers non-automotive tax levies," he pointed out.

"In order to raise treasury revenues by $412 million car and truck owners would be taxed an additional $502 million more annually than under current rates. Automobile dealers do not object to the reduction in manufacturers' excise on non-automotive products but dealers do object to increasing the obviously discriminatory excises which will be paid by car buyers and owners," he added.

Mr. Wilson estimated that taxes take from 24 to 28 cents of every automobile dollar and, in the case of gasoline, amount to about one-third of the retail price. If this dangerous trend is carried to excess, he emphasized, the purpose of automotive taxation will be defeated, production crippled, and the automobile returned to its truly status as a product only for the wealthy.

The National Automobile Dealers Association has urged the

Watermelon Feast Marks Close of Rebekah Contest

A watermelon feast was the climax for a contest held by members of Haskell Rebekah Lodge No. 43. The feast was held Monday night, August 13th with the losing side serving iced watermelons to the winners.

All members of the local lodge who want to have part in the drill team under the direction of Alice Johnson as team leader, are requested to be present next Monday night, August 20th.

M. S. Shook, One of County's Earliest Settlers, Observes 95th Birthday

M. S. Shook, one of this section's few remaining cattlemen who came to West Texas during the days of the free range, observed his 95th birthday Wednesday at his home here.

A native Texan, born in Titus County August 15, 1866, Mr. Shook has lived 72 years of his lifetime in Haskell County and this immediate section, possibly giving him the distinction of being the county's oldest residents both in point of years and length of residence here.

He also has the distinction of having been an eligible voter in every election that has been held in Haskell County, and is probably the only man now living who was here and had a part in the organization of the county in 1885.

Mr. Shook came to Haskell County in 1879 from Palo Pinto. This section was practically all free range at the time, with the few inhabitants living in the area near the Clear Fork of the Brazos in Throckmorton and Young Counties. Wagon camps of the few cattlemen running their stock in this section were the nearest approach to permanent settlers, Mr. Shook said.

Headquarters for most of the ranching operations in the late 70's were at Rice Springs, forerunner of the present town of Haskell, he recalled. The springs located southeast of the present town, also were headquarters for the buffalo hunting expeditions on their trips into this section the veteran cattleman recalled.

Roving bands of Tonkawa Indians were the only West Texas natives when the pioneer ranchmen came to this area, he said. The Indians were friendly to the early ranchers, but were indigent to the extreme, and supplemented their meager existence by what the wagon camps would give them in the way of food.

As a young man, Mr. Shook worked for a time on the old L. P. Ranch in Stonewall County. Deciding to enter the ranching business on his own, he purchased and leased land in the northwest part of Haskell County, near Kinawa Peak. Adding to his holdings during the coming years, he established the large Shook Ranch in that section which he continued to operate under his "Triangle" brand for more than half a century. Land prices in the 80's, Mr.

Pfc. W. J. Adams, Jr. Now Stationed In Alaska

Pfc. W. J. Adams, Jr. has written his parents here of his recent arrival in Alaska, where he will be stationed with a service company in an infantry recruit division of the Army. He will be located at Fort Richardson, near Anchorage.

The Haskell soldier wrote that the men in his outfit had been given permission to do quite a bit of fishing and hunting, and that game of all kinds was plentiful. "Imagine a dryland West Texan like myself landing a 25-pound salmon! I did it on my first fishing trip," he wrote.

Pfc. Adams was employed in the bookkeeping department of the Haskell National Bank before entering the service in November 1930. He received his training at Camp Carson, Colorado Springs, Colo., and was home on his last furlough in April.

In traveling to his new assignment, he will be by plane from Colorado Springs to Seattle, Wash., and by boat from that point to Alaska.

Humidity Has Lot To Do With Appearance, Tests Made By Cleaning Institute Show

When it comes to physical comfort how often have you heard, "It's not the heat! It's the humidity!" But have you ever realized that humidity has a lot to do with your appearance? Who hasn't had straggly hair on a rainy day? And humidity in the air affects the appearance of clothes too, declares Joe Thomson of the Service Cleaners.

Our clothing is made from a variety of fibers: wool, silk, nylon, orlon, dacron, rayon, acetate rayon, cotton, linen to mention a few. Each of these fibers has its own peculiarities when it comes to the amount of natural moisture it holds. Any fabric can take up more moisture on a day when the relative humidity is high. Consider wool. It's natural moisture content is much higher than cotton. It can absorb a lot of moisture without feeling damp. Because of this it requires less moisture to get a good press or finish on a woolen fabric as compared with cotton.

The National Institute of Cleaning and Dyeing has found that relative humidity plays an important part in the removal of soil from fabrics, Thomson points out. It's a very complicated factor we seldom consider. Perhaps the one time we are conscious of the part it plays is when we see our draperies or curtains literally shrink before our eyes just hanging at the window; or when they become limp or wrinkled just from the moisture in the atmosphere.

Relative humidity never remains constant. It may vary within a day—it varies from one sec-

Farmers! We Are Ready To Store Your Milo

Due to the indicated short crop of Milo, in our opinion producers will find it profitable to store their grain and be in position to take advantage of any advance in price

If placed in Government loan, you can get your money immediately at the Loan Rate and cash in on the future higher markets.

If you prefer to sell outright we will pay Top Market Price for any quantity of Milo.

On last year's crop we were able to pay farmers of this section approximately $160,000 above loan price on Milo stored in our bonded warehouses. Our facilities also enabled us to make delivery on all Milo stored with us well in advance of the deadline.

HOW TROUBLES CAN PILE UP! Illustration of a man with a stack of troubles.

An automobile, for example, can be a great source of trouble to its owner unless he has adequate insurance coverage. Some vitally important forms of protection for the motorist are Bodily Injury, Medical Payments, Property Damage and Personal Accident. Collision and fire and theft coverage is, of course, a must. And it is also wise to have a Comprehensive Personal Liability policy along with your automobile insurance. Are you fully protected? Let this agency advise you on your insurance problems.
