

Harvest Is Resumed After Being Delayed By Rains

Planting of this section's crop was resumed Wednesday afternoon and Thursday following a delay of all week caused by repeated rains and cloudy weather. In some sections of the county, but most of the early this week still had excess moisture and a number of farmers delayed harrowings until mid-afternoon through Sunday caused damage to the matured corn crop. Although heavy rain was reported but loss from this factor was negligible.

Local buyers, Market & Egg Co., Clifton Grain & Elevator, are mounting receipts of some oats Thursday.

Sadler, Wichita Valley agent, reported Thursday that 6 cars of grain had shipped out during the past week, totaling 15 cars.

Several other cars were loaded today, he said.

Wheat is running country above pre-harvest estimates with buyers reporting 7 to 27 bushels per acre.

It will likely run 10-12 for the county, they betheorically all the grain is No. 1, buyers reported.

One hundred and seventeen students from every town in Haskell County have enrolled in the county-wide Learn-to-Swim program that will begin Monday morning, June 12 and continue through June 24 at Rice Springs Park swimming pool. Seventy-two of the enrolled number are beginners.

Class instruction will include the fundamentals of swimming for beginners while advanced students will perfect their swimming habits and take courses in life saving. This instruction is open to everyone from six years of age up.

There will be one chief instructor and nine assistants to teach students how to swim. Theron Cahill is Water Safety chairman, Goodson Sellers will head the first aid department and Ray Lusk will be in charge of accident prevention.

Haskell Group To Attend Water Board Hearing

Mayor Courtney Hunt will head a delegation from this city which will be joined by representatives from several neighboring towns, that will go to Austin Monday to attend a hearing before the State Board of Water Engineers on an application filed by Stamford for a permit to take 9 million gallons of water per day from Paint Creek for municipal and industrial uses.

Haskell and other interested cities in the Paint Creek watershed will oppose the appropriation of waters of the stream for the benefit of a single municipality or for re-sale to other communities or for industrial use, Mayor Hunt said.

The State Board will be asked to consider an equitable allotment of waters from Paint Creek to all cities and communities in the stream watershed, under an adequate supply of municipal water to all towns in this immediate area.

As Haskell's representative at the hearing, Mayor Hunt will be acting as trustee for some 25 towns in this area, whose representatives delegated the city of Haskell as trustee when a project was instituted last year for the development of a municipal water source in this section.

An increasing number of civil cases are listed on the Throckmorton docket for hearing during the coming term, while only a few criminal cases are listed, court officials said.

During the current week, Judge Chapman has alternated between Aspermont and Haskell for court hearings on the 39th district docket. Monday he was on the Aspermont bench for hearing of a civil case involving litigation in the settlement of an estate which included 206 acres of land. Tuesday Judge Chapman presided here for hearing a non-jury civil case. Scheduled for hearing Friday is a divorce case on the civil docket.

Oil Activity In Haskell Area Continues At Steady Rate

Bids Due June 20 on Rule-Jud Farm to Market Road

The State Highway Department has called for bids for construction of approximately 10 miles of Farm-to-Market road in Haskell county, extending from Rule to the Jud community in the northwest corner of Haskell county.

Bids will be received until June 20, on which date the contract for the road building project will probably be awarded. Actual mileage on the contemplated job is listed at 9,808 miles.

The proposed road connecting Rule and Jud has been under consideration for some time, and work of securing right-of-way for the all-weather highway has only recently been completed. The proposed road will serve a fertile farming section, where improved highways have been badly needed for years. There has also been considerable oil development activity in that area, since discovery of the Bogard pool last year.

John R. Eidson, Jr., of Hamlin will be resident engineer on the project. He said Thursday that engineers had staked grade and drainage levels along the right-of-way of the proposed F-M road. Landowners along the right-of-way were asked to cooperate in seeing that the markers are not disturbed or removed, Eidson said.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roberts and children of Austin spent several days here this week visiting in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Free.

Chicks Take Hectic 14-9 Win Friday Over Rochester

In the season's opening baseball game at Fair Park Field Friday night, the Haskell Chicks took a lopsided 14-9 win over the Rochester Steers in what started out as an evenly matched, head-to-head game and ended in a 3 hour and 20 minute marathon of hits, walks, errors and base stealing.

Until the fourth frame, the Chicks held the advantage in a 2-1 score. Then the Steers stampeded and raced in six scores in rapid succession. Billy Davis on the mound for the Chicks, was relieved by Buck Shelley, and the Chicks were able to hold the Steers to two runs during the remainder of the contest, while accumulating an even dozen scores seemingly at will during the 6th and 7th frames. The Steers sent a procession of pitchers into the box to stem the Chicks' running spree in the final three stanzas.

Tonight, the Chicks play O'Brien there, and Sunday afternoon will play Rule at Rule, Manager Cox said.

Singing School At Curry Chapel To Close Friday

A two-day singing school which has been in progress at the Curry Chapel Baptist Church will close Friday night, June 9th, and an evening's program of singing is being planned at that time.

First day registration at Texas Technological College's session sent 2,394 students into classes but total registration will not be completed for several days.

More than 2,800 students registered during the first summer term in 1949, and present figures indicate that there will be a slight decline this year.

Boating Tragedies Stir Safety Note

An unusual number of 1950 boating fatalities has prompted safety experts to appeal to fishermen and other aquatic devotees for greater caution.

The executive secretary of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission said reports to Austin headquarters indicated that only greater safeguards will avert even more tragedies.

The high rate of water fatalities apparently is caused by a record surge of new boat operators to Texas waters. Several individual accidents have cost more than one life. One of the worst to date was the drowning of four persons when a boat overturned recently in Lake Worth.

The executive secretary said reports from fieldmen indicated the high loss of life is primarily due to overloading and to unfamiliarity with new motors now available for the first time in unlimited variety and quantity.

He explained that too many people are fooled by so-called generous seating space in a small boat and that the average 12-foot or 14-foot boat has a full load when it has three adults aboard. Life preservers should be standard equipment. They may come in the form of a buoyant cushion or life jacket. A paddle is indispensable.

Emphasis was made that persons thrown into the water by an overturned boat should stay with the boat and resist the inevitable impulse to try to swim to shore.

The motor age, which has made oars unfashionable, has increased hazards. Some boaters put more power at the stern than their boat is built to handle, causing threats of assorted disasters, including swamping the craft.

The executive secretary said boats should be buoyant enough at all times to lift easily to oncoming waves instead of plunging into them. Watercraft should never be loaded where they lose their coming top-heavy, stable or hard to steady loading courts disaster as overloading. Often lessness operated endangers swimmers. quently are turned, started away from the regard to the safety in the water. Crew boarding and surf-ed to the general

Home Freezing of Vegetables Gains In Favor

Home freezers are fast becoming a part of the food preservation equipment in rural as well as city homes. This method of food preservation is enabling the homemaker to do a better job of providing the family with fresh vegetables the year-round. A good supply of vegetables is needed for balancing the diet according to Mrs. Vee J. Howle, county home demonstration agent. Home freezing or using a freezer-locker box to store surplus vegetables for later use is one sure way to have them when they are needed.

Mrs. Howle says there are several factors that will have a bearing on the quality of the frozen vegetables and these should be kept in mind when vegetables are being prepared for freezing. Speed is important and there should be no delays from the time the vegetables are gathered until processed and stored.

She points out that vegetables begin to lose food value and flavor as soon as they are gathered. During the summer months, she says it is best to gather the vegetables early in the morning, but be sure they have reached their peak in flavor and texture, for freezing does not improve their quality.

It is necessary to scald vegetables in boiling water, before freezing, to prevent loss of quality and to preserve the vitamin content. Freezing alone does not stop the enzyme action in vegetables and if they are not scalded, this action will cause undesirable odors to develop along with the

Each vegetable, she says, requires a different scalding time and she suggests that you get a copy of B-175, Frozen Foods at the county home demonstration agent's office. This bulletin is new and instructions are given in detail on how each vegetable should be handled from the time it leaves the garden until it is ready for storage.

She says when vegetables are properly scalded, packaged, processed and stored at about 0F., they will retain their quality for one year. The vegetables that cannot be successfully frozen are tomatoes and salad greens, such as lettuce, parsley, endive, cabbage, celery and onions.

Cotton's excellent resistance to alkalies and its greater strength when wet are the secret of its ability to withstand repeated washings.

All cotton blouses are washable. Most of them can be laundered in the washing machine unless they have very fine lace that might be snagged or torn. When the blouses are completely dry, sprinkle and let stand several hours before ironing.

Miss Geneva Drinnon and Lavoid Robertson Exchange Vows In Church Ceremony

Sunday afternoon, June 4th at 4 o'clock Margie Geneva Drinnon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Drinnon, became the bride of Lavoid O. Robertson, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Robertson of Haskell.

The ceremony was read in the Curry Chapel Baptist Church by the Rev. John Seav, pastor. The arch was banked with white carnation and ambrosia fern and on each side with baskets of white gladioluses tied with white satin tapers. Blue satin bows marked pews.

Bobbie Ann Herren played "Claire de Lune" preceding the ceremony and "Traumeri" during the ceremony and the traditional wedding music. She also played the accompaniment for Mrs. Allen Overton who sang "Because" and "Always."

The bride, who was given in marriage by the elder brother, Robert Drinnon, Jr. wore a dress of white imported shadow organ-dy over taffeta, fitted bodice, low sweetheart neckline and gathered ballerina length skirt. The white nylon illusion fingertip veil fastened to crown of white organ-dy was caught at either side with a Baby Vanda Orchid. She wore white imported organ-dy mitts. For something borrowed she wore a necklace of blue sapphire, studded with a pearl of her sister's, Mrs. Bill Reeves, which she wore on her wedding date, a gift of her mother's. A tiny blue satin bow was attached to her taffeta slip and a penny was tucked in her shoe. For going away she wore a pink wafel pique dress with white accessories, her corsage was the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Lucille Tolliver, cousin of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a pink nylon net over taffeta fitted bodice, high neckline, ballerina length skirt with a picture hat of white, only ornament was a rhinestone necklace, gift of the bride and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations. Simple Compound Developed To Make Laundering Easier

Laundering cottons soon may be an easier task. The Institute of Textile Technology at Charlottesville, Va., has announced the development of a simple, inexpensive compound for laundry rinse water, which is said to make cotton clothing more soil-resistant and easier to wash.

The treatment also is reported to reduce the amount of soap required for laundering cottons. The new process consists of adding a small amount of a compound known as "CMC" to the final rinse water each time cotton goods are washed. Adding about three level tablespoons of CMC per gallon of rinse water gives cotton improved soil resistance without changing the feel of the fabric, according to the textile scientists. CMC is now available in wholesale quantities, but the compound has not yet reached the market in small packages for home use. The substance already has a variety of industrial applications, including use in the finishing of cotton textiles.

When CMC is applied as a rinse and dried, it appears to coat cotton fibers with a smooth film. The film keeps dirt from coming in close contact with the fabric. Thus the material is not as easily soiled and dirt is removed more easily the next time the fabric is laundered.

Game Commission Warden School Grads Assigned

Assignment of 17 warden school graduates to the field staff was announced Saturday by the executive secretary of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission.

The young men comprise the fifth class graduated from the school which is conducted jointly at College Station by the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College and the Game Department. The men began work June 1.

Addition of the 17 men brought the warden force to a total of 168, largest in the state's history. About 40 of these men are used for patrol work and other duties in connection with salt water assignments on the Gulf Coast.

Thus, the remaining 128 have to patrol Texas' 254 counties, with an average of two counties for each warden. The executive secretary explained that the warden force is not detailed on a straight geographical basis, adding:

"In some sections a warden can patrol two or more counties more efficiently than one man can patrol half a county in another section. It depends on the terrain, the actual or potential capacity for game as well as the population. Ever-increasing demands on the warden force are primarily because the number of hunters has doubled since the war and because of the increased interest in conservation as expressed by both organizations and individuals."

The executive secretary pointed out that "police state methods" have no part in the routine of the Texas warden force and that the men stand trained and instructed to emphasize education and public relations as the most effective means of restoring wildlife and in establishing sound law enforcement.

The men who have been paired with warden veterans are: Stark V. Whitehorn, Abilene, stationed at Canadian; Billy M. Sprott, with Mr. and Mrs. Barney Ross and family Wednesday night and Thursday of last week. The Wests are former residents of Sagerton.

Killeen, stationed at Stinnett; Carl Putnam, Austin, stationed at Carrizo Springs; William H. Pratt, Rosser, stationed at Dallas; James E. Pond, Crystal City, stationed at Eagle Pass; Newton F. Pennington, stationed at Fort Lavaca; Harold W. Martin, Fort Worth, stationed at Beaumont; Max C. VISITING IN HOME OF PARENTS

Edgar Welsh, who was principal and teacher in the Berry Flat School in Borden County during the 1949-50 term, is here for a few days visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Welsh. His wife, who also taught in the Borden County school, who has been ill for several weeks, is convalescing at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hicks at Leander, Texas.

In the spring, many hillsides get the wanderlust. Coaxed by driving rains, billions of soil particles run off to muddy creeks—leave the farm forever!

Fortunately, you can fight this mass migration of topsoil, fertilizer, and organic matter by working your ground on the contour. Of course, contour farming may not in itself curb erosion completely. It works hand in glove with terracing, strip cropping, crop rotation, vegetative gully control, and seasonal cover crops, however, to "hog-tie" uneasy hillsides.

You can adapt your land to contour farming with regular tractor equipment, even to such specialized soil-saving jobs as gully filling and terracing. Working together with your local agricultural experts you can hold your hillsides and hoist your profits by farming on the contour.

One of the secrets of producing high quality hay is getting rid of the moisture in the hay as fast as possible and at the same time retain in the hay a bright green color. Elm trees produce wood that is hard, heavy and tough and can be used for many things on the farm. Most elms can be grown from seed. Using the home freezer locker

4-H Club Round-Up, Annual Extension Conference Slated At College Station

The campus of Texas A. & M. College will be a bee hive of activity next week. 4-H club members from every section of the state will move in Sunday afternoon the 11th to be on hand for the 4-H annual judging and team demonstration contests on Monday. The 4-H Round-up will be held June 13-14 and it will be followed by the annual conference on June 15-16, for all agricultural extension personnel.

Attending from Haskell will be County Agent F. W. Martin, assistant Byron Swaim, Mrs. Vee J. Howie, county home demonstration agent, and representatives of 4-H Girls Clubs and Boys Clubs of the county. These will include Miss Bettie Sue Johnson of O'Brien, winner of the County 4-H Girls Dress Revue; Mrs. Howard Sloan, adult sponsor; Miss Marlene Crawford, representing Haskell county Girls 4-H Clubs. Haskell County's 4-H Club Boys grass judging team, which won second place at Lubbock recently, will represent District 3 at the Round-Up. Members of the team are Durwood Wheatley, Pete Prater, Don Smith, and Larry Wheeler. District 3 will also be represented by the Haskell County 4-H Boys livestock judging team, first place winners at Lubbock. The team is composed of Billy Middlebrook, Sid Woodson, Jerry Terrell, and Don Carlos Montgomey.

The 4-H Round-Up will get underway Monday night with a get acquainted program—a jeans and calico round-up. For the second year Billy Triggs, minister of music, First Methodist Church, Wichita Falls, will direct the group singing—always a favorite part of the program for the 4-H delegates.

Director G. G. Gibson, Texas Agricultural Extension Service will welcome the 4-H boys and girls to Texas A. & M. and in rapid-fire order will come the introduction of the Officials of the college and the A. & M. System. During the afternoon, visits will be made to different departments of the college for special shows. The evening program will be highlighted by the annual 4-H leaders banquet and the State 4-H Dress Revue.

Featured on the Wednesday morning program will be reports from 1949 out-of-state 4-H trip winners. Lue Ruth Stevens, Dallas county; Beverly Runnels, Brazos county; Harry Lee Schneider, Guadalupe county and Carter Gene White, Garza county will report on the National 4-H club camp. Fred L. Sutton, Menard county, will report on the American Youth Foundation Camp, Danforth Award. Betty Bernsen, Nueces county and Alton Nelsen, Wharton county, the 1949 International Farm Youth Exchange delegate from Texas, will report of their trips to Sweden and Denmark. Barbara Dean, Johnson county will describe the activities of the 1949 National 4-H Club Congress.

This section of the program will be followed by an address by President M. T. Harrington, Texas A. & M. College. The afternoon will be devoted to the special departmental shows on the campus.

New Treatment Gives Light Fabric Sufficient Warmth

The final night program on Wednesday will feature 4-H talent and the presentation of the awards to the winners in the various contests. The talent show will be in the form of a pageant and will be held at Kyle Field.

A new process for treating fabrics to provide warmth without weight and bulkiness recently has been announced by one of the nation's largest textile firms.

The treatment involves impregnating the cloth with aluminum and other metallic powders, a company official explained. Cotton can be treated with the process, he said.

The process is based on the fact that as much as 85 per cent of the body's heat is lost by radiation in cold weather. The new fabric embodying metallic particles, reflects this heat back to the body. When the heat outside the body is greater it is reflected away. The porosity, however, is retained in the fabric and permits perspiration conduction. Therefore, the process also can be used for the manufacture of cool summer apparel.

ON CONSTRUCTION PROJECT IN WISCONSIN

Company officials report that a cloth treated by the warmth-giving method is 12 times as warm as a fabric that is 10 times as thick and heavy. The metallic treatment will bring a new concept in dress, its developers predict. It will no longer be necessary to bundle up in a heavy coat for cold weather protection, for a light top coat with a lining of the newly treated fabric will suffice for the most extreme cold, it is said. Company officials also point out draperies and curtains made of treated fabrics will save tons of household coal consumption by maintaining room temperature and preventing loss of heat through windows. Conversely, in summer the draperies will keep rooms cooler by preventing the entrance of sun heat.

I'm making a list of calamities that could happen to me

Gloomy, maybe, but SMART

It's better to be gloomy like this for an hour than sorry for a lifetime that you didn't have complete insurance protection against possible disasters.

List 'em now and do something about insurance — then forget your fears and BE HAPPY.

Might your car be stolen or burn up? Might you kill or injure somebody with it? Might your house or business burn or be blown away? Might your valuables be lost or stolen? Might an employee or tradesman sue you for injury on your premises? Might your dog bite a neighbor? Might you hit somebody with a golf ball? Might an employee embezzle from you?

Worry hard about these things for a while. Then let us protect you against 'em with America Fore policies.

Colored Camp Fire Girls of Three Towns Hold Day Camp In Stamford Monday

The Colored Camp Fire Girls from Haskell, Albany and Stamford were to have gone on a picnic at the Swede Picnic Grounds June 5-6, but due to the rains it was thought best to hold a Day Camp in Stamford, which they did.

Haskell and Stamford groups met together at the Youth Center in Stamford for the day. Colored girls were: Vernell Coats, Mary Frances Giddings, Margie Kingsbury, Connie Faye Baker, Lucindy Ford, Jessie Mae Butler, Sally Johnson, Audley McDonald, Grace Pearl Lewis, Wilma Dean Ray, Rosie Davis, Lorine Harris, Hazel Fisher, and Wilma Jo Sheppard. The Guardians from Stamford were Precious Calhoun and Dorothy Marsh; and from Haskell, Vernilla McDonald.

These girls were instructed by the Mahatito group of Stamford. These girls are orking on their Torch Bearers Rank, to instruct others is one of their requirements and they worked loyally and faithfully with the colored girls, teaching them the art of bed roll making. There were two kinds of this art, the regular bed roll and the flip-flop bed roll. The handcraft they worked on was to make their backs for scrap books, with marbolized paper. This turned out very colorful and interesting.

Lunch was served, followed with a short rest period. Next they went into learning songs, then they were taught games: first card games, pertaining to birds, butterflies, animals and flowers. Folk games came next which were entered into heartily. At this time a carload of girls arrived from Albany, so the girls returned to their folk games learning the girls who had been there all day better, and those just arrived, too.

The girls from Albany, sponsored by Mrs. Jessie L. Douglas, were Josephine Williams, Guardian; Bernice Houston, Mary Jackson, Mary Houston, Letha Thomas, Linda Stepieton.

The Trail was blazed to the Fire Station, where they had a journey through the station, and the Longhorn Studio took pictures of the girls, for the Exchange Club of Stamford, who is sponsoring the Stamford group.

The girls returned to their homes, expressing themselves as having a grand time. The group desires to thank the Mahatito group for their tireless efforts in teaching these girls, in work and play. They were Bettylou Johnson, Janis Hallman, Jo Ann Frizell, Gail Swenson, Sandy Rudin, Barbara Schoonmaker, Tillie Metz, who are working on their Torch Bearers aRnk.

Seniors Visit Air Force Base On Recent Trip

One of the biggest thrills of their recent Senior trip came when thirty-five Seniors from Haskell, accompanied by Sam H. Vaughtner, superintendent and W. P. McCollum, principal, visited Randolph Air Force Base in San Antonio for a guided tour of the base and its training facilities. The group was met by two representatives of the Public Information office who conducted a two and a half hour tour for the students. Points of interest included the Link Training section, a device used to simulate actual flight for training purposes. They were given rides in the Link by instructors as other students stood near by with head sets on and mike in hand and talked to students at the controls over the inter-communication system. Although not likely to become pilots, the girls seemed more thrilled about the operation than the boys as one of them remarked, "Let me have the head set and mike—I can talk and fly at the same time."

While at Randolph they also visited the Base Flight section where a Crew Chief of a twin engine C-47 aircraft took them through his ship and explained the various operations of the controls and complicated instruments. The tour ended out on the flight line where flying operations were witnessed as conducted between pilot instructors and the aviation cadets undergoing training.

Purpose of the Council will be to investigate not only alleged cases of discrimination but to look into economic conditions of the Latin American citizenry generally in an attempt to eliminate any discernible hazards to the Good Neighbor Policy which proved itself of inestimable value to the United States during World War II.

Mrs. Sallie J. Crow Dies Tuesday At Home of Daughter

Mrs. Sallie Jane Crow, 87, resident of Haskell since 1940, died at 3:15 a. m. Tuesday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Erma Watson, where she had made her home for the past ten years. Mrs. Crow had been in declining health since suffering a fractured hip in a fall early in April, and she had never fully recovered from her injury.

She was born August 20, 1862, at Oxford, Miss., the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ben F. Rankin. She married Thomas A. Crow of Coryell County, Texas, in 1881. Her husband preceded her in death a number of years ago. Mrs. Crow had been a member of the Methodist Church since young womanhood.

She is survived by two sons, A. B. Crow of Lovington, N. M., John Crow of Gatesville, Texas; three daughters, Mrs. S. B. Dossey of Lamesa, Mrs. D. B. Jones of Mound, Texas, and Mrs. Watson of Haskell; 28 grandchildren, 46 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

Funeral services for Mrs. Crow was held at the Jonesboro Methodist Church in Coryell County, Wednesday at 3 p. m., and interment was in the Turnerville Cemetery. Grandsons of the deceased served as pallbearers.

Ringworm Cases Numerous, Health Official Declares

It is a 50-50 bet that you have some sort of ringworm infection, declares Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. Check to see. Chances are it will be in your scalp hair, on your groin, or on your feet—either on the soles or between the toes. If you don't find it you are lucky, because while it isn't serious, its itching and persistence is very annoying.

A fungus—the same one causes food to mold—causes ringworm. It's one of the world's most common ailments, with authorities estimating that half of the world's population is affected. It is more common this time of year than any other.

Animals get it too. As a matter of fact, cats, dogs, rabbits, mice, and fowls are frequently the source of infection in man. A child plays with an infected dog, the dog's hair brushes the child, and the child stands an excellent chance of ringworm infection.

The scales which are formed can cause new infections on the body, so an infected person has to be careful to keep it from spreading. Advanced cases exude a clear, runny fluid—it "weeps," as doctors say, and the fluid can cause breaking out on whatever part of the body it touches. Children are especially vulnerable to scalp ringworm. Epidemics are usually started in school or institutions.

Swimming pools, locker rooms, and gymnasiums are potent sources of infection. Everyone has heard of "athlete's foot." It is nothing more than a type of ringworm. So is the so-called "barber's itch."

Preventive measures call for avoiding persons and animals known to be infected. Swimming pools, gyms, locker rooms, and the like can do their part toward ringworm control by boiling towels, swimming suits and their other public facilities for 30 minutes. Foot baths are also worthwhile.

The best thing to do is to keep clean at all times. But if you happen to get ringworm, or if you have it now, it will be better for all concerned if you report to your family doctor immediately. He'll recommend medication designed to shorten the course and lessen the severity of the infection.

Amateur Rodeo To Be Held June 14-17 At Clairemont

Plans for Kent County's 4th Annual Amateur Rodeo, to be held at Clairemont June 14, 15, 16, and 17, are nearing completion, according to H. W. Davis, producer of the rodeo.

The following events will be featured in this rodeo to be held at the Davis grounds in Clairemont: Ribbon Roping, Old Men's Calf Roping, Junior Boy's Calf Roping which Mr. Davis specifies is open only to Kent County contestants), and Junior Bull Riding, exhibition Bull and Bronco Riding, Reining Horse contest (2 divisions, 2 year old and open), and Cowgirl Sponsors contest.

Any contestant may register with the secretary, E. V. Peek, from now on, or not later than 4 p. m. Wednesday, June 14, for Wednesday's and Thursday's events. Contestants for Friday's and Saturday's events will register by 4 p. m. Friday, June 16. Registration will be held at the Rodeo Headquarters office.

All contestants entering the Calf Roping and Ribbon Roping contests must enter both go-rounds by 4 p. m. on Wednesday, June 14.

This rodeo is known as the one rodeo where the contestants compete for all entrance fee money plus added cash and merchandise prizes. In the roping contests all entrance fees are added and divided 40, 30, 20 and 10 per cent. Therefore the more contestants who enter the various events, the greater the prize money.

As is the usual custom the Rodeo Dance will be held on the pavilion following each night's performance. A string band from Amarillo will provide the music for the dances.

Irish potatoes should mature before they are dug. Immature potatoes do not keep well. Potatoes should not be dug when they are covered with water blisters (small elevated white spots) on the skin. Delay harvesting until the blisters have disappeared.

For thrift with light, either daylight or electric, there is an advantage in light-colored walls, woodwork and furnishings. This is because the white or light color reflect light and dark colors absorb it.

'Home-Size' Portable Quick Freeze Unit Being Developed

Texas farmers, ranchers and urban garden owners may soon quick-freeze their own fruits and vegetables by one of the best commercial methods.

A compact, portable quick-freezer for homes and small lockers will be perfected this summer by the University of Texas Engineering Dean W. R. Woolrich.

The unit will have approximately the same proportions as a five-gallon ice cream freezer. Home quickfreezing of fruits and vegetables in two to 10 minutes will be a reality.

"It's true that small locker plants have been producing fruit and vegetables in standard quick-freezing units," Dean Woolrich said. "However, this type of unit doesn't preserve fruit flavor and has commercial job done in stores. The new 'home-size' quick-freezer has a machine in a vertical shape. It may be needed and used."
