Cotton Loan Program Builds Floor Under Prices, County PMA Official Explains

Haskell county farmers can help strengthen the market for cotton by wide use of the 1951 Commodity Credit Corporation cotton loan, John W. Brock, chairman of the County PMA Committee, declared today.

By placing cotton in the loan program, farmers can spread the marketing of this year's big crop over a longer period of time to prevent market gluts. Preventing market gluts will strengthen the market prices.

"Cotton farmers must realize, however," Mr. Brock said, "that a floor under the market will not build itself. It must be built by farmers themselves placing cotton in the loan program. Marketing the crop over a longer period will prevent flooding the market. Each farmer must make his own decision, but he should consider loan advantages carefully."

The chairman explained that mills and exporters cannot use the whole year's needs for cotton during the short period when the bulk of the crop is harvested. He said cotton farmers know that marketing must be financed, stored and merchandised later.

If a lot of cotton is placed in the loan the market would be strengthened by feeding cotton onto the market as it is needed, while at the same time cash through the loan program is provided for the payment of current obligations.

"We have had a lot of experience with the cotton loan. During the past 15 years or more, prices have been supported by cotton loan participation to the benefit of the cotton grower. In 1948, when over 1-3 of the crop was put under loan, farmers repaid the loan on 28 bales out of every 100 placed in the loan. That cotton was sold on the market by the growers at a price higher than the loan value. About $17.50 a bale was distributed back to the growers by the Commodity Credit Corporation on cotton which remained under the loan from the 1949 crop.

"Again the 1949 farmers participated by placing more than 1-5 of the crop into the loan. Advancing market prices made it profitable for producers to repay nearly all the loans that year and sell the cotton above the loan value. Producers were thus able to take advantage of a rising market.

Commissioners Adopt Budget For '52; Tax Rate Unchanged

Commissioners Court, in their regular meeting this week, adopted the 1952 budget for Haskell County, and set the 1952 tax levy at $1.20 on each $100 of assessed valuation, the same rate levied for the current year.

The 1952 budget and tax rate is based on total estimated assessed valuation of $18,000,000 on taxable property in Haskell County, an increase of $900,000 over the total valuation for 1951.

The total amount of county taxes levied for the 1952 budget is $156,000. Of this amount it is estimated that 85 per cent, or $132,600 will be collected during the 1952 tax year, and approximately $23,400 taxes will probably be delinquent on July 1, 1952. Delinquent county taxes due on July 1, 1951 amounted to $36,184.10, and of this amount it is estimated that $3,000 will be collected during the current year.

Total available resources listed in the 1952 budget amount to $456,011.01, and approved budgeted expenditures are estimated at $207,107.16.

The 1952 tax rate of $1.20, by funds, is set out in the budget as follows: Jury fund, 15c; road and bridge fund, 2c; general fund, 25c; courthouse and jail fund, 15c; county wide road bond interest and sinking fund, 25c; courthouse improvement warrants, interest and sinking fund, 7c; road and bridge bonds, interest and sinking fund, 10c; hospital bonds, interest and sinking funds, 8c; a special 15c road district levy in each of the county's four precincts brings the total rate to $1.20.

Dove Hunters Are Reminded of Stiff Trespassing Law

Hunters looking forward to next Saturday and the opening of the hunting season on doves should keep in mind that the state's trespassing laws have stiff provisions concerning unauthorized hunting and fishing.

Several farmers and landowners who last year ended up with some trampled crops and crippled or injured livestock, have indicated they would invoke provisions of the law if necessary to keep reckless hunters off their property.

The trespassing law provides that a hunter must have the written permission of the property owner to trespass on land to hunt or fish, and if he ignores this and the landowner files a complaint the hunter is subject to a $200 fine and forfeiture of his hunting license for one year.

A second conviction of trespassing carries a fine of not less than $500 or more than $1,000 and a loss of license for two years; while a third conviction brings a stiff penalty of not less than 30 days or more than one year in jail plus the $500 to $1,000 fine and a forfeiture of license for three years.

District Game Warden H. B. Iverson has indicated that there will be no ifs, ands, or buts about the enforcement of the law.

The would-be hunter apparently has one choice—to get permission to trespass or end up with some pretty costly birds.

Drivers Responsibility Law Will Enforce Liability for Damage Caused by Accident

Texas motorists will be required to be able to pay for damages they cause in accidents in which their cars might be involved, under a new drivers financial responsibility law which goes into effect next New Year's Day.

Some of the important provisions of the new law were explained by Dawson Duncan of The Dallas Morning News staff in a recent article, from which the following excerpts are taken:

The new law tells all who drive on Texas highways and streets: Pay up for damages you cause in your first accident and prove you can pay for future ones. If you can't, then you and your auto can't operate any more in Texas.

Every person who drives a motor vehicle on Texas highways is subject to it. This year Texas will probably have more than 4,000,000 registered cars and trucks, plus hundreds of thousands of out-of-state visitors.

For a vast majority of the drivers—those who are not in accidents—there will be no direct action to be taken because of the new law.

Except, perhaps, to check up on that casualty insurance policy. It is not a compulsory law. But insurance is the easiest and safest way for a driver to be sure he may keep on driving after an accident.

Drivers who do not have a long string of traffic violations on their record can get policies to protect them for an average of around $27.

That will insure them against having to pay up to $5,000 for death or injury to one person or $10,000 for two or more, and $5,000 in property damage. That is all the new law requires.

For drivers involved in a predicted quarter of a million accidents next year, however, there will be more to do.

Take the case of a driver involved in accident but who is insured—

After the accident he must find out if any one was injured or damage to one's property, including his own, amounted to $100.

If either happened, then he will have to make a special report to the Department of Public Safety within ten days after the accident.

This report must be filed with the Department of Public Safety, and not with just any peace officer.

If the driver has insurance, then he can more or less check his worries over to the insurance company—if he has not violated some major traffic law.

But if he does not have insurance, his worries begin.

Funeral for John Marlin McFadin, 27, Kent County commissioner and brother of Mrs. Troy E. Ash and J. P. McFadin of Haskell, and who died of polio Saturday in Abilene, was held Sunday afternoon at the Clairmont Church.

The Rev. Bill Crafton, Baptist preacher of Clairmont, officiated for the service, and burial was in the Clairmont Cemetery.

Mr. McFadin, who was the youngest county commissioner in Texas, died at Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene at 9:40 a. m. Saturday. He had become ill the previous Sunday and entered the hospital Tuesday of last week. He had been in an iron lung since his arrival at the hospital.

He was born Sept. 21, 1923, at Throckmorton. He lived there until 1940 when he moved to Kent County.

He served as a staff sergeant with the 87th Division during World War II and was in the European theater for one year. He was in the Army three years.

His twin brother, Marvin Dakan McFadin, was killed in action in France, July 23, 1944, at the age of 20, while serving with the Army.

Mr. McFadin was a member of the Baptist Church and of the Fisher County VFW post 5072.

Pre-School Physical Examination For Children Advised

"Children are not really ready to enter school until they have had a complete physical examination," Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer reminds parents.

"All boys and girls enrolling in the kindergarten or first grade classes of Texas schools should be taken to their physicians, or to a public health clinic, for an immediate physical check-up if they have not had such an examination in recent months.

"It is important to act as promptly as possible. This is recommended in order to allow time for medical treatments or corrections that may be necessary before school opens. No youngster should be permitted to begin a school career with less than the best possible physical equipment.

"As most parents know, vaccination against smallpox is necessary. Those who received this immunization in infancy should be vaccinated again in order to assure a high degree of immunity and those who have never received this protection should be vaccinated without delay.

"Diphtheria immunization is also an important safeguard for all boys and girls about to enter school. Those who have never been immunized against this disease should receive toxoid shots now. Children who were inoculated against diphtheria when they were babies should have a 'booster dose' in order to maintain their immunity at a sufficient high level.

"Other immunizations that the individual physician may recommend are also desirable as further health protection. Whooping cough, typhoid fever and tetanus are among the diseases against which the doctor may advise safeguards."

U of T Publication "Handbook of Texas" Available Next Year

Do you know where your town and county got their names, and the dates of their establishment?

If not, you will have reference available next year which will provide that information. A two-volume "Handbook of Texas" has been completed at the University of Texas and is scheduled for publication next year by the Texas State Historical Association.

Dr. H. Bailey Carroll, director of the association, estimates the handbook will include 2,000,000 words concerning all phases of Texas history. More than 1,000 contributors wrote articles for the publication, which has been in preparation 10 years.

Here are some samples of the information contained:

Hunting Prospects Uncertain for Dove Season Opening

Uncertainty shrouded prospects as Texans prepared to open the northern zone mourning dove season at noon Sept. 1.

The executive secretary said the record breaking drought was the principal factor in casting so much doubt about the general mourning dove situation.

"We are never certain about mourning doves especially," said the executive director. "The shooting generally is spotted during the first phase of the shooting."

"For one thing, doves may be abundant in one area for the first day or two and then more or less disappear in the flush areas only to reappear elsewhere where the opening hunt had been poor." He said there was more than usual interest in the early hunting reports because of the known fact that the drought has cut down dove production somewhat in Texas.

They came to Haskell County in November, 1907 and have lived here continuously. They settled near the community of Vontress, now known as Mattson. For nine years they made their home in Haskell, moving back to their farm home in 1928.

A farmer and stockman all of his adult life, Chapman is actively engaged now in the operation of his 2,200 acre farm and ranch devoting most of his time to cattle raising.

Chapman recalls that in 1907 there were only one farm in this entire section of Haskell County, the rest being open range and grass lands. He has seen that section develop into one of the important farming sections of this country.

Ranching is still an important industry in this area.

A chief hobby of Chapman is hunting, and for 20 years he has made at least one trip to central and southwest Texas with Haskell friends on annual deer hunts.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman are the parents of six children. Four of them were present for the occasion. Open house was held for friends who called at the family home from 5 to 7 in the afternoon.

An only daughter, Mrs. Jake Atchison, presided over the refreshment table and guest book.

Prospects Brighten as Thirty-five Report for Two-a-day Grid Drills

Texas University and in workouts it has shown favorable approval to high school football.

With the line slightly spread out for cross-blocking positions of the linemen, Eldon Amonett and Walter Holley have been using their power and weight to drive through the defense line. Amonett has been showing up in workouts as expected and will probably be the power runner of the squad along with Holley, Kenneth Davis and Wayne Harris.

So far, Amonett has proved to be tops at circling the ends, both the direct snap-back and on the pitchout. The 135 pound quarterback, Keith Wheatley, is expected to do most of the passing this year and will be relieved at times by Amonett.

The Indian forward wall will probably average out 160 pounds which will greatly assist the 155 pound backfield that will put the Wing T-formation into action.

The end posts, the biggest problem of Coach Smith, is still not definitely filled. Ralph Offil is showing up to be one of the best blocking ends on the squad while Clinton Baccus is looking good as a pass receiver.

Frank Clarkson, 117 pounder,

at the present time, is proving to be one of the best prospects for possible that Clarkson may work at offensive end and divide his time at wingback and then switch to a defensive halfback. Another good prospect in this department is Don Payne who may turn out to be one of the defensive ends.

Haskell Black Indians Cop Series From Haskell White Leghorns, 8-5

Haskell's Black Indians dropped the curtain on the originally planned three-game series Tuesday night as they came from behind in the seventh inning to whip the White Leghorns in the second game, 8-5, at Fair Park Stadium last Tuesday night.

Since the Black Indians have won two games, the third tilt will not be played.

A home run by first baseman Wallace Stark, with the bases empty, in the fifth frame put the White Leghorns three runs in front of the Indians, but the Indians scored once in the sixth and came back in the seventh with a deadly blow that sent six runs across the home plate. With the three aboard, third baseman Billy Davis hit a line drive into deep left field for a triple and scored three tallies.

In the ninth inning the Leg-

Quarterback Club To Meet Tuesday Night at 8 p. m.

The Haskell Quarterback Club received their long awaited projection machine last Saturday and it will be put into use at the club meeting Tuesday night at 8 p. m. in the high school activity building. At that meeting will be shown a film which was sent to the club through the courtesy of the University of Texas Athletic Department.

President Thomas B. Roberson said the new machine was a Bell and Howe projector and would stop at any place on the film, move forward, backward, etc., and would be perfect for use by the coach.

The Quarterback Club has been trying to secure this type of a projector for the past year. It will be used by the club and by the coaches.

The president said that plans would be discussed to generate plenty of spirit for the Stamford game, as well as to increase the membership.

All interested Haskell Indian fans are invited to attend the second meeting of the Quarterback Club Tuesday night.

Weeks Hurls One-hitter to Win Tri-County League Pennant, 8-1

Stamford's ace moundsman, Roy Weeks, pitched the Stamford VFW All-Stars to the Tri-County League softball championship here last Thursday night when he hurled a one-hitter to defeat Weinert in the final game of the Shaughnessy playoffs, 8-1, at Fair Park Stadium.

The two teams had played four games in the final playoffs and each team had captured two victories. Haskell was picked as the neutral diamond for the final game that was the finale to the 1951 softball season.

Approximately 450 partisan softball fans witnessed the second hit game of the Shaughnessy series last Thursday night. Weeks tossed his first one-hitter of the playoffs in the third game with Weinert on the Weinert diamond and won it 7-0.

First baseman Kyle Carver was the only Weinert batsman who was able to connect with the fast-ball pitching of veteran Weeks. In the second frame, Carver clipped Weeks for a three-bagger that went deep into left centerfield. Carver was allowed to score on an error by left fielder Delbert Fevre who could not at first pick up the ball to make a throw to the infield.

Stamford's first baseman, Tommy Alexander, marked an All-Star score every time he went to the plate. He got on base in four trips to the batter's box through two hits, a fielder's choice, and an error by the first baseman. Each time Alexander scored.

Third baseman Ray Overton, Jr., accounted for Alexander's score and was credited with four runs batted in as well as marking twice himself. Center fielder Ervin Overton collected two hits in four trips and was good for two runs batted in.

Also, Weeks and shortstop Louis Timberlake got two hits to account for the nine bingles given away. Timberlake's two singles came on perfect bunts that allowed him to reach first.

Adams struck out 4 and walked none and allowed only four runs to the Stamford nine. However, errors beat the Weinert club as they were credited with seven miscues. Weeks struck out seven Weinert batsmen and walked two. Weeks allowed only six Weinert softballers to reach base. One runner scored and only one other reached third, one got to second and the rest were stranded in first. In four of the seven innings, Weeks retired the Weinert batters in order. Four Stamford base runners were left on base.

White Leghorns Lose First Tilt To Experienced Black Indians

The Haskell Black Indians monopolized two innings to capture the first of a scheduled baseball three-game series, 6-3, from the Haskell White Leghorns in Fair Park Stadium last Monday night. The Black Indians scored three runs in the third and three in the sixth to wrap up their first victory.

The Leghorns started the game with intentions that showed a victory by scoring three runs in the initial inning, but they were unable to hold down the scoring of the more experienced Indians and were never able to score again.

However, the Leghorns connected for nine hits off the Black Indians ace hurler, Billy Davis, and in each of the final three frames they loaded the bases. But in each inning, Davis was able to retire the side without allowing a score.

Davis was the star of the night, striking out 21 Leghorn swatters. In the top of the ninth inning, Davis walked three consecutive men to load the bases, then he struck out the next three in succession to ice the game.

In the third inning, the Black Indians tied up the score after a single by Cleo Thomas, a double by Billy Olen, a Leghorn miscue, and a passed ball. It was the eighth inning before the Black Indians were able to cross the plate again. A single by C. R. Baker scored Olen from second base with the winning run, then Baker scored on an error as did Ben Lewis.

Lannon Carter, toeing the mound for the White Leghorns, surrendered only six hits to the Black Indians and he struck out 10 as he went the distance. Carter walked five Indian batters.

The Black Indians collected four of their runs through Leghorn miscues and were allowed only two earned runs. The Leghorns were also allowed only two earned runs.

Dove Season Opens Saturday at 12 Noon With 10 Bird Limit

Dove hunters in Haskell and vicinity will be out in the field Saturday, Sept. 1, to get their bag limit, but they won't be able to get out until Saturday afternoon since new regulations have barred morning dove hunting.

Bag limit on morning and white winged dove has been set at 10 each per day and not more than 10 in possession.

A good season is predicted by game wardens and the best crop is expected in Haskell, Stonewall and Jones Counties. Some of the best hunting will be around areas in which tanks are located since the rainfall this season has been low. However, recent rainfall in this area may cause several water pockets which draw birds from the tanks.

Hunters should be careful to obtain permission before entering closed land to hunt.

You never tried a fine car like This One

YOU'VE a right to set your sights higher when you buy a fine car.

You can rightly expect more room — more comfort — more performance — and a lordly smoothness in the way it carries you.

So we present these facts:

You'll find, in a ROADMASTER, more room than you'll find in any other passenger car in America.

You'll find the extra comfort of double-depth Foamtex cushions in ROADMASTER only.

You'll find that the ROADMASTER has a high-compression, valve-in-head power plant that is also Buick's own — a mighty Fireball

Engine endowed with more performance than most owners will ever need.

And you'll find that a ROADMASTER rolls with unsurpassed levelness and poise, thanks to coil springs on all four wheels — which is still another feature found on no other car in the fine-car field.

But the thrill that is yours, when you get this willing beauty out on the open road, is something that can't be summed up in any listing of features, one by one.

It's a "feel" which, we honestly believe, no other car can approach.

It's the sure way this dazzling performer holds the road — the way it responds to your slightest wish — the quick answer you get when you nudge the throttle — the extra security you feel in the velvet grip of the brakes — the complete freedom from tension you find in Dynaflo Drive — the sense of mastery that makes every mile a joy.

And, confidentially, there's one more important way in which ROADMASTER stands alone, and that is in the modest cost of its pounds and performance.

Better come in soon and check for yourself what a great car and a great buy this one really is.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.
