Scarcity of Pickers Slows Cotton Harvest In County

Town Building Is Matter of Cooperation, WTCC Manager Tells Lions Club Tuesday

Fred H. Husbands of Abilene, general manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, was guest speaker at the regular weekly meeting of the Haskell Lions Club Tuesday. Mr. Husbands discussed the various phases of town and community development and urged the support of all business men in the aims and projects of their local chamber of commerce.

"Towns and communities just don't happen to grow but they are the direct result of the cooperation of the citizenship and coordinated work toward a common goal," he stated. "The future of West Texas is unlimited if we work to conserve the water which is so vital to industry," he declared. "A good example of this conservation is the new lake on Paint Creek which your neighboring towns of Stamford, Hamlin, Avoca and Lueders are going to dedicate tomorrow. Haskell is fortunate to have this lake and the WTU power plant in the county and in the future years it will mean much to the business men of the town."

He emphasized the role played by the chamber of commerce in creating good public relations with the farmers who are the backbone of the industry of most of the towns of this size in West Texas. "The chamber of commerce should be the leader in all of these enterprises and you should have good active committees to carry out the projects," he told Lions.

He said that special events were important in attracting people to town who are not coming here, thereby creating the desire to trade in Haskell.

"Your most active rival in business is not necessarily the man next door or across the street but it might be a merchant thirty miles away. The good roads of today have created more rivalry between towns in a business way than that which existed locally a few years ago when the people of a given area had to trade in one town or community," he declared.

Dr. T. W. Williams, director of the Scouting committee, urged all Lion members to attend the picnic for Troop 36 on next Monday night, and called a meeting of his committee for the purpose of arranging the trip to Abilene for the district meet on Tuesday night.

President Willard Warren presided for the meeting.

With scarcity of pickers as a bottleneck in harvesting of this year's cotton crop, gathering of the staple is getting underway in virtually all sections of the county as result of the hot weather of the past few weeks.

Up to Thursday morning, Haskell's four gins had processed 311 bales from the new crop. All ginners reported the shortage of farm labor as acute with only a few pickers coming in this week.

Dry, hot weather is causing cotton to open fast, and some of the larger cotton producers have 50 to 100 bales open in the field and ready for pickers, they report.

September weather, with the temperature climbing above the 100 degree mark on many days during the month, has resulted in a downward revision of the estimated production from late August figures.

Estimates of the county's cotton production now range generally around 60,000 bales, compared to the more optimistic forecast of 90,000 bales in late August.

Some farmers in the area northwest of Haskell estimate that production from the best fields will run as high as a bale per acre. Cotton in the tight land areas of the county, and the late planted fields have suffered most from the recent heat wave, they report.

Trial of Statutory Case Results In Hung Jury

A hung jury resulted in the trial of the State of Texas vs. Alvin Carter, Haskell man charged with statutory rape, and the jury hearing the testimony in the case was discharged by District Judge Ben Charlie Chapman at 9:10 Tuesday night after they had reported to the court they were unable to arrive at a verdict after seven hours deliberation. The jury stood 8-4 for acquittal, it was disclosed after the body had been discharged.

Trial of the case was started Monday morning. Selection of the 12-man jury was completed at 4 p. m., and testimony of witnesses was concluded at noon Tuesday.

Principal witness for the State was a 13 year old Rochester girl, who told on the witness stand of the alleged attack. Other State witnesses included a Haskell physician, county officers, and companions who had been with the principals a part of the time on the evening of the alleged attack.

County officers also were called to the witness stand by defense counsel, and the defendant testified in his own behalf in telling jurors of happenings on the night the incident was alleged.

Prosecution was conducted by District Attorney Royce Adkins, with Dale Condon, local attorney, serving as defense counsel under appointment of the court.

Jury hearing the case was composed of J. E. Walling, Jr., foreman; C. G. Gerry, John Thomas, V. P. Terrell, W. P. Curd, E. E. Trimmier, T. H. Weinert, Melvin Norman, Alton Middleton, Carl Bailey, W. E. Woodson, Albert Hannax.

Martin Arend, one of Haskell County's good farmers living in the Vontress community, was in town Wednesday and said cotton on his farm was not as good as it promised at one time. Army worms have seriously damaged the crop of young squares, blooms and bolls which came on the cotton after the August rains.

Now he has further identified himself with our town and its interests by purchasing the livery stable of A. D. English, including the horses, vehicles and fixtures.

The Haskell gin had turned out 280 males of cotton from this year's crop up to Friday night.

J. L. Mitchell of the northwest part of town brought in Thursday a handsome pair of matched iron gray horses which he had sold Mr. Baldwin for livery use.

A. H. Bryant was in from the Sandhills country Tuesday. He said they would gather about 20 bushels of corn to the acre and that all the farmers had plenty of feed stuff. He said cotton in his section would make from a fourth to a half bale per acre.

Arthur Cummings was the victim of a rather serious accident last Saturday morning. While running his horse trying to get some south of town his horse stepped into a prairie dog hole and fell, throwing Arthur to the ground and breaking his collar bone. He remounted and started home but had to stop at Mr. Maloney's when he was almost overcome by faintness. Dr. Neathery was called and fixed him up and he is getting along all right.

Optometrist Lists Seven Rules For Viewing Television

The following article was made available through Dr. E. O. McClellan and The American Optometric Association. Following these suggestions for pleasure and visual comfort in viewing television:

1. Make sure that your set is properly installed, with particular attention to the antenna, for clear, possible reception.

2. In tuning, adjust tone setting before turning the picture up to desired brilliance. Strike a comfortable balance between steadiness of image and brilliance. Either an unsteady image or too much light will result in visual discomfort.

3. Avoid both intense darkness and bright light in the room in which television is viewed. If the room is totally dark there will be too much contrast between the bright screen and its surroundings. If there are bright lights they will distract you from the screen. Mild, indirect light is preferable.

4. Sun glasses should not be worn for television because they adapt vision to unnatural conditions.

5. Avoid excessively long periods of close concentration on the television screen.

6. Do not sit or stand too close to the screen. Usually a distance of six to twelve feet from the typical home set will be tiring.

7. In case of discomfort your vision examined by a specialist and follow his advice. Many older persons who bifocal glasses may find a segment suited to television viewing. They may be able to use special lenses prescribed by a specialist. Most vision problems are prevented or corrected.

WHIRLPOOL is a tried and tested machine that has always been good. Many Whirlpool Automatics sold just after the war are still running service free.

As the world's largest manufacturer of Washers and Dryers and more than 50 years of Whirlpool experience it is easy to understand why Whirlpool Automatic Washers are "MOST WANTED BY MOST WOMEN."

A Pound of Truth Is Worth A Ton of Promises—

So ask any of your neighbors who own a Whirlpool. Ask her if it cleans clothes and if she has to keep a Service Man fiddling with it to keep it running. This would be a good way to select the Best Washer. Ask the owner of a three or four year old Whirlpool. They all look good when sparkling new and some may stun you with their dazzling beauty, but remember Whirlpool is still the winner of the Fashion Academy Gold Medal Award—and is still "MOST WANTED BY MOST WOMEN."

Miss Wanda Driggers and Melvin H. Vojkufka Wed In Weinert Sept. 27

In a double ring ceremony read in the Weinert Foursquare church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Miss Wanda Driggers became the bride of Melvin H. Vojkufka. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Driggers of Weinert and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vojkufka.

from the neck to the waist. Her fingertip veil was topped with flowers. She wore white ballerina shoes and carried a white Bible on which were white carnations. Something old was her mother's white Bible, something new was the bride's dress and accessories, something borrowed was pearl earrings and something blue, the traditional blue garter. The bride wore a penny in her shoe.

The maid of honor's dress was of blue taffeta fashioned identically to that of the bride, except being street length. Her accessories were white, and she carried a bouquet of pink gladioli.

Officiating for the impressive ceremony was the Rev. Floyd V. Bailey, pastor of the Weinert church. The vows were exchanged beneath an archway of greenery centered with wedding bells, and roses scattered through the greenery. Other decorations included a miniature bride and bridegroom beneath a tiny archway which formed a centerpiece on the piano.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, E. M. Owens, and Miss Lula Faye Free of Haskell was maid of honor.

Mrs. Gene Perry played traditional wedding music and piano accompaniment for Miss Joella Weinert who sang Always, Because, and The Lord's Prayer.

The bride's dress was white taffeta with a fitted bodice, net yoke and waltz length gathered skirt, with white covered buttons

For her wedding trip, the bride chose a dress of navy blue velveteen with navy and light blue accessories.

Attending the wedding were guests from Weatherford, Pampa, Fort Worth, Mansfield, Munday, Haskell and Knox City.

Mr. Vojkufka is serving in the U. S. Army and is stationed at Camp Chaffee, Ark. Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Weinert high school. The bride has been working in the County Clerk's office in Haskell for the past 10 months.

TEACHER OF THE WEEK

JAMES E. JOHNSON

The Teacher of the Week features James E. Johnson, principal of the Haskell Junior High School. Mr. Johnson is a native of western Kentucky, and he served four years in the U. S. Navy during World War II. He received his B. S. degree from Murray State College, Murray, Kentucky, and his Master's degree in Public School Administration from North Texas State College, Denton, Texas. All of Mr. Johnson's school experience has been in the junior high school field. He came to Haskell from Samburg, Texas, where he was employed in the Social Studies Department of the Edinburg Junior High School, one of the larger junior high schools in the state.

Mr. Johnson is a member of the Texas State Teacher's Association and the National and Texas Association of Secondary Schools Principals. He was Scoutmaster for his church in Edinburg; Mr. Johnson is a member of the First Baptist Church. His one hobby is fishing.

Mr. Johnson's studies and interest are in the junior high school. This important school is less than three years old in Haskell. The junior high school proposes to span the gap between the elementary and senior high school. It is the aim of the junior high school to provide a curriculum which will afford early adolescence experiences and assist them in emotional, physical, and intellectual adjustments and attainments in order that they may be better able to meet present and future problems bravely and resourcefully. This can only come about when there is close cooperation between the school and the homes. This cooperation requires a mutual understanding and appreciation for the problems and efforts of both school and the home.

Visit, and come to know your Junior High School.

Enthusiastic Group Attends District P-TA Civil Defense Workshop Here

A very enthusiastic group representing the towns in the 13th District P-TA began registering in the Elementary School at 9 a. m. Saturday morning, Sept. 26, for the Civil Defense Workshop sponsored here by that organization.

Coffee was served the guests by the social and hospitality committee from both local P-TA groups. Miss Doris Chapman accompanied by Mrs. Lynn Pace, Jr., at the piano led the group in a song followed by the invocation given by Supt. C. D. Allen of Haskell Public Schools.

Mrs. Lon Merrell of Throckmorton then led the group in giving the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

With Mrs. C. D. Beard of Vernon, 13th District President, presiding, hearty welcomes to our schools and community were given by Billie Snow, principal of Elementary School, C. D. Allen, Supt. of schools and Rex Felker, chamber of Commerce manager.

Mrs. O. C. Belke of Wichita Falls gave an interesting inspirational on the phrase "God Bless You."

Mrs. R. E. McKiski of Wichita Falls gave a short discussion on what is Civil Defense. The group learned that Civil Defense is the organization of the community into trained groups not only for protection against atomic or man made disaster, but local disasters such as floods, fires, tornadoes. Mobilization, Organization and Direction is Civil Defense, she stated.

Miss Mattie Treadwell from the Federal Defense Office in Dallas was introduced by Mrs. McKiski. She gave a very interesting lecture on "Who is Responsible for Civil Defense." It was made clear that every member of each community has something to do if his duty is carried out. It is for old and young and good planning and complete organization is necessary to obtain good results. Every community should be on the alert for disaster comes without warning. Our neighboring town of Knox City was cited as one example. Everyone is responsible for carrying out the plans of Civil Defense. The Mayor, City Council, the Schools, the Home and all organizations of the town should work together to assure this unity.

After this interesting discussion, Mrs. Beard introduced Phillip 60 and those attending were divided into small groups of six members. Each group was given a problem to solve in Civil Defense. At the end of a six minute conference, a reporter from each group read their question and how it was solved. Some interesting discussions followed. Many questions were asked by the group and Miss Treadwell responded in a very informative manner.

Lunch was served in the school cafeteria. The menu consisted of chicken, dressing, peas, baked potatoes, congealed salad, peach cobbler, and iced tea. Everyone enjoyed the food and appreciation for preparing such a bounteous meal was expressed by Mrs. R. W. Herren who also recognized everyone who had a part in making the Workshop a success.

The meeting was resumed at 1:00 p. m. at which time Miss Treadwell showed some interesting films on various phases of Civil Defense. Mr. Snow and Supt. Allen assisted her with the presentation. The films were very instructive. The meeting adjourned and everyone went away much better informed and determined to do something about Civil Defense in his home community.

One Week In 52 Not Enough To Prevent Fires

This week of October 4-10 has been proclaimed by President Eisenhower as Fire Prevention Week in the United States. In his official proclamation he urges all citizens to initiate a year round campaign in their homes and communities against the needless waste of life and property caused by destructive fires.

E. C. Martin, state agricultural leader for the Texas Extension Service, points out that farm fires last year caused a loss of about $133,000,000 worth of farm property and 3,000 farm people died as a result of fires. Moreover, he adds, approximately 95 per cent of these fires were the result of carelessness and neglect. This, Martin says, is a staggering price to pay for something which could be prevented.

Eight primary hazards account for a vast majority of farm fires and Martin lists them as carelessness with matches and smoking; dirty and defective heating equipment; the improper storage and use of gasoline and kerosene; overloaded electrical circuits and operating or attempting to operate improperly installed and defective electrical equipment; defective inflammable roofs; spontaneous combustion or hay; failure to keep trash and rubbish cleaned up and the lack of or improper installation of lighting.

Martin suggests making a careful check of the home and other buildings on the farm for accident and fire hazards and if any are found, he recommends prompt removal or correction. This is a case, he adds, where an ounce of prevention is worth much more than a pound of cure.

Because farms are usually far from organized fire protection, each family should make fire prevention a number one family project. But for safety sake, he says, fire extinguishers, ladders, hose and plenty of water, under pressure if possible, should always be available around farm buildings. And last but not least, he urges rural communities to organize for fire fighting.

Wounded Veteran Of Korean War Visitor Here

M-Sgt. and Mrs. W. C. Busby spent a few days last week in the home of his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Baucus of Haskell.

M-Sgt. Busby is a veteran of the Korean War, having served in the combat zone from November 1951 until August, 1952, and again in the early part of this year. He was returned to the States on furlough in November, 1952. On his return to Korea this year, M-Sgt. Busby was again sent to the combat zone and was wounded April 20, 1953. After being sent to a hospital in Japan for treatment he was later transferred by plane to Letterman General Hospital at San Francisco, where he had a spinal operation. He is recovering nicely and will report at Fort Sill, Okla., in October for re-assignment.

M-Sgt. and Mrs. Busby were accompanied to Haskell by his mother, Mrs. I. A. Lee, Sr., of Amarillo.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the neighbors, friends, the pastor, Holden's Funeral Home, the choir and organist, Dr. Williams and to everyone for their many acts of kindness and words of sympathy. Also for the many beautiful floral offerings that we have received in our recent bereavement. May God's richest blessings be on each and everyone in our prayer. — The August Rueffer Family. 40p

at half the fine car price

Duplicating America's costliest cars, feature after feature, Ford is worth more when you buy it . . . worth more when you sell it!

A FEW MINUTES on the telephone calling the dealers who sell America's finest cars will reveal there are at least eleven models among four makes with price tags over $4,000!

Now the interesting thing is that in feature after feature the Ford car duplicates each of these fine cars, and for less than half the fine car price!

Look under the hood of the most expensive cars and what do you find?

V-8 Engine! Well, the Ford car has a V-8, too. In fact, it has had a V-8 since 1932, and since that time Ford has built more V-8's — by millions — than all other manufacturers combined. And there's no other builder in Ford's price range that's seen fit to offer one yet!

But the engine, as fine as it is, is only one of many things that make a fine car fine.

Automatic shifting, for example. All the fine cars offer it in one form or another because it's one of the things that make a fine car fine. But if you've never driven a Ford with Fordomatic you've missed one of the finer things of life. This amazing transmission not only does away with clutching and shifting forever — it gives you exactly the amount of power you want, when you want it — automatically.

Fine car power steering, too. The big, heavy costly cars offer it for the same reason they offer power brakes. It's a man-sized job for a 120 pound woman to handle a car weighing two tons or more without it — especially when parking. Our "Master-Guide" has two distinct benefits.

First, it gives a hydraulic power assist right down at the wheels and just enough to take out the work. You don't relinquish one particle of control — rather your control is more complete and far easier.

Second, being hydraulic, "Master-Guide" power steering absorbs those fatiguing steering wheel tremors caused by ruts and roads in bad repair. And you don't pay a fine car price for "Master-Guide."

But there is another fine car feature — the Ford ride. Books have been written on the subject of riding quality in an automobile, but the payoff comes on the pavement — or lack of it! Many people associate a comfortable ride with excess weight, but it's not weight alone that makes for comfort. If it were, those big five-ton trucks which you see every day would be the most comfortable vehicles on the road.

Without being technical we can tell you that what's been done with the suspension and springing system gives the Ford a softer ride, a smoother ride than many cars which tip the scales at better than an added half ton.

What about room? Here's an interesting point. If you've felt that only a costly car offered enough room, you just ought to sit down in a Ford even if you're out-size and six feet four! The so-called big car is bigger on the outside, but unless you buy a limousine with those little jump seats, it's not one passenger bigger inside.

Visibility is another fine car Ford feature. We say Ford cars offer "full-circle" visibility because they all have huge, curved one-piece windshields and a huge rear window to match . . . plus side windows that mean every passenger gets room with a view!

How beautiful is a Ford? A great English poet, John Keats, once wrote "Beauty is Truth, Truth Beauty" — well, he could have been writing about our car for its beauty comes from honest, clean lines in every dimension. In fact, we think most people agree — even our competitors — that the appearance of a Ford Car leaves very little to be desired. It is "at home" wherever it goes and it goes everywhere.

But what about Ford quality? Does it too match the fine car? Is the sheet metal of the body panels as thick? Is the finish as good? How about the trim and things like that? Well, as far as we can determine, the sheet metal is identical in thickness in practically all instances. As to finish — we believe Ford's baked-on enamel has no equal in any car. Ford upholstery fabrics and trim are less costly, but they're less delicate, too, and if anything, more durable.

How then is it possible to give you this fine car at half the fine car price?

Part of the answer lies in Ford manufacturing skills and knowledge as evidenced by the V-8 engine. Part of it comes from the ever increasing numbers of cars Ford produces and the economies they make possible. And, part of it comes from Ford's willingness to give greater values than might be expected in cars selling in Ford's price range. And that's the Ford idea.

FORD

Worth more when you buy it! . . . Worth more when you sell it!

and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Diers and children all went to Wilson Sunday to attend a homecoming celebration for Delvin Hahn, who returned from Korea recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Kainer visited their son, Jerry who is a freshman at Texas Lutheran College in Seguin, recently.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kupatt in the Haskell Hospital Sunday, Sept. 20. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Kupatt and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kainer.

Mrs. Norvell Lehrmann was honored with a pink and blue shower in the basement of St. Paul's Lutheran Church Thursday afternoon, Sept. 24. Pink and blue were used in the decorations on the refreshment table. Mrs. Clarence Lehrmann registered the guests and they were greeted by Mrs. David Letz. Mrs. Clarence Teichelmann and Mrs. Eugene Teichelmann presided at the refreshment table.

Hostesses were members of the Christian Couples Club. They were Mmes. David Letz, Herbert Yahlenkamp, Clarence Teichelmann, Carl Lunn, Eugene Teichelmann, Ernest Lewack George Moore, Clement Richards, Delbert Leevre, Clarence Lehrmann and Melvin Thane.

Leslie Cobb of Midland visited in the John Clark home Sunday.

Starting to build? Then insure today.

Anybody who starts to build anything should get "builders risk" insurance the day he starts.

It protects you against loss of a partially built building by fire or lightning. A workman's torch, a loiterer's cigarette, a brush fire or a bolt of lightning may wipe you out before you even get started.

And, though you have a bona fide contractor who has provided for payment of employees' compensation, you should also have liability insurance to protect you against accidents to members of the public.

Plans Made For Organizing Seven New Scout Troops In Haskell, Area Towns

Plans for organizing seven additional Scout Troops, an equal number of Cub Packs and one Explorer Post in Haskell and Jones Counties were made at a meeting of Scouters held Thursday evening, Sept. 24 in St. John's Methodist Church in Stamford.

Sixty Scouters from Haskell, Stamford, Albany, Avoca, Anson, Hamlin and Lueders were in attendance. Dr. R. K. McCall of this city, District Commissioner, presided for the evening's program.

Pack 41, sponsored by the Reynolds P-TA of Stamford presented two special Indian dances, the Snake Dance and the Buffalo Hunt Dance, under the leadership of Mrs. George Rollins, Mrs. Mary Blackburn and Mrs. Stanley McKeever. Dr. Ike Hudson helped the Cub Scouts in making their near authentic Indian costumes. The Indian Dancers were Ward Hinds, Frederick Hudson, Dewayne Elliott, Bill Rollins, Victor Blackburn and Keith McKeever.

Commissioner; Richard Drum, Anson Cubmaster; Ira Hester, Haskell Cubmaster; John Rice, Stamford Cubmaster.

Harold Bonner, district Explorer Commissioner, led the Scouters program planning session. Other instructors for the evening were Cecil Corley, Haskell Scout leader, Harold Eades, Hamlin Scoutmaster, Jim Ferguson, Haskell Scoutmaster, and Tommy Beene, Anson Scoutmaster.

Texas Gets Draft Quota of 1,210 Men In November

A November state draft quota of 1,210 men has been received at state Selective Service headquarters at Austin, Lt. Col. Morris C. Schwartz, deputy state draft director, said.

The quota is the Texas share of a national call for 23,000 men. The October quota, announced about a month ago, is 1,208. The September quota for Texas, now being filled, is 1,232.

Col. Schwartz said that, under present plans, local board quotas to fill the November call will be placed in the mail on or about October 1.

Ninety-five out of the state's 137 local boards will receive calls to have men physically examined in November. Remainder of the boards are considered to have ample supply of older men examined and acceptable to fill calls, Col. Schwartz said.

Instructions were received from national Selective Service headquarters with the November quota that, where possible, only men 29 years old or older would be inducted in November. Boards are authorized, however, to fill calls with men under 20, if necessary.

Currently, the number of men under 20 years old being inducted continues to drop, Col. Schwartz pointed out.

In August, 19 out of every 100 were under 20; in July, the figure was 23 out of every 100; and in June, 32 out of every 100, statistics at state Selective Service headquarters show.

Gates Receipts Of Haskell - Anson Game $1,464

Total gate receipts from the Haskell-Anson football game, played in Indian Stadium Friday night amounted to $1,464.00, plus the sum of $182.00 from the sale of 730 reserve seats, financial report of the game shows.

Paid attendance at the game was 1,470, a slight increase over the previous week's game with Hamlin.

After deduction of $108.00 covering cost of officials, net receipts of $1,356.00 were divided equally between the two schools, each receiving $678.00.

In addition Haskell received all proceeds from sale of reserve seats, with the game netting a total of $680.00 for the high school athletic fund.

Excluding those assassinated, four U. S. presidents died in office.

They're all talking "best deal in town" BUT WHO'S GOT IT?

Are you really sure that the car dealer gives you "the best deal in town"? Gives you the best BUY in town? You well know, the best BUYS are based on value.
The value lasts longer than any other quality—and, in automobiles, means longer motoring pleasure, more safety, lower upkeep, and a longer trade-in allowance later on.
The Buy of the Year!
The new Packard CLIPPER has made the name as long as "the buy of the Year" way back last winter, the "insiders"—men of recognized automotive experience and instinct—tagged the CLIPPER as the car of the year in the medium-price field. A real, old-time PACKARD value.
You know very well that you never bought an automobile right off the printed page. You bought it ONLY after a demonstration when features either come to life or amount to nothing.
So we urge you: before you take that "best deal in town" ... take a demonstration in the new Packard CLIPPER and value-check the features with which we challenge all other cars!

Drive the new Packard CLIPPER then you'll know why you needn't pay more—why you can't be content with less!

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS From Your State Capitol

AUSTIN, Texas. — Questions about education, higher and lower, are being studied by a lot of people over Texas.

A statewide committee on public school teacher's pay met here, reached no definite conclusions, and agreed that further study will be made by a subcommittee.

Some of the issues before the committee will be: whether a salary increase can be granted to teachers out of the present resources; whether local tax income for schools has kept up with the rising cost of education; whether a special session of the Legislature should be called before the courts decide on a natural gas tax.

Another group, the Commission on Higher Education, is studying the colleges and universities to see how they can give the most training for the available money, without overlapping and duplication of work in the various state schools.

At its organization meeting, the commission chose Ruel Walker, El Paso attorney, chairman; A. R. Elverson of Amarillo, vice chairman, and Mrs. Chas. K. Devall of El Paso, secretary.

A group of Texas legislators and budget officials went to Daytona Beach, Fla., to attend the second annual Legislative Work Conference on Southern Regional Education.

Before the conference was the subject, how legislators can help to get the highest possible quality of education in the South per tax dollar spent.

On the Texas delegation were R. B. Baldwin of Austin, Senator Secretary Bracewell of Houston, Representative Jack Fisk of Houston, C. Reed Granberry of Austin, Frank D. Grayson of Austin, Rep. H. A. Hull of Fort Worth, Vernon A. McGee of Austin, Sen. C. C. Martin of Hillsboro, and Rep. Fred Niemann of Yoakum.

Immediate prospects for increased state revenues darkened when the Railroad Commission cut the state's oil production quota to 2,304,499 barrels per day, 237,735 barrels below the August figure.

A great part of the state's income is from taxes on oil—when production goes down that revenue is correspondingly diminished.

In the field of politics, the Texas Republicans opened up their campaign for recruits by putting on a weekly radio program.

Attorney General John Ben Shepperd says there is an organized gang which is operating in Texas and costing the state over $1 million a year by evading cigarette taxes.

But officials of the states and of the federal government are working together to catch the crooks and stop the racket, Shepperd declared.

He cited that wholesalers, retailers, and vending machine operators are among offenders who buy cigarettes outside of Texas and sell them without paying the 4-cent state tax.

District Judge D. B. Wood of Georgetown has until Dec. 1 to file with the State Supreme Court his report on ouster proceedings against District Judge C. Woodrow Laughlin of Alice.

Judge Wood was appointed by the court to take testimony in the Laughlin hearing, which lasted three weeks. Eleven lawyers in Judge Laughlin's Jim Wells-Duval County district brought the suit, which grew out of bitter political strife in the South Texas area.

During National Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 4-10, Texas housewives are urged to inspect their homes and remove hazards.

Norris W. Parker, manager of the Texas Insurance Advisory Association, said the state's deaths by fire could be reduced by half if proper precautions were taken.

Last year 542 Texans died in fires, and at least 350 of them were trapped in their homes. More than 150 of the victims were children.

Some precautions recommended by Parker every bedroom should have two means of exit; the house should be well ventilated at all times; children and old people should never be left alone in the home; open heaters should be protected by screen guards; gas lines and appliances should be inspected annually by an expert; gasoline should never be used except in a fuel kerosene should be stored outside the house in approved containers.

Another observance for the same period is National Employment of the Physically Handicapped week. Gov. Sayers signed a proclamation asking Texans to participate.

Constantly since the organization was formed, shortly after World War II, Texas has ranked near the top among states in placement of physically handicapped persons in gainful employment.

Texas high school students have been frequent winners in the annual essay contests conducted by the President's Committee on Employment of the Physically Handicapped.

A House Designed For A Big Family

Plenty of room is required for a big family and this house was designed to fit their needs. It has 4 bedrooms of comfortable size with ample storage space. If you do not need chimney (see dotted squares labeled "c") you can easily utilize these spaces for storage.

You will like the arrangement of the rooms. The front entrance hall has a large closet for wraps and anything you need to store there. The central hallway saves unnecessary travel through other rooms and simplifies housekeeping considerably.

The dining room can accommodate a large family, and quite a few guests; but if you prefer it may be converted into a very nice bedroom by cutting a door into the hall.

The living room, which has a wide opening into the dining room will comfortably hold large groups. A lot of window area makes it very cheerful to live in, and three walls are unbroken by doors, which makes furniture arrangement easy.

The conveniently arranged kitchen gives ample eating space for the family, plenty of counter-top and work area, and enough room so that several people can work there without stumbling over each other. If you want a chimney, we suggest you place it in the corner as shown on the floor plan.

A very helpful feature is the workroom, which contains a good sized pantry, a large closet, space for laundry equipment, home freezer, and a lavatory—for the menfolks after work.

The front porch may be screened in to provide summer living quarters without detracting from the appearance of the house in any way.

In case you do not want the garage, you still can have an attractive house without it.
