Harley Sadler, well known to Texans as owner of the Harley Sadler traveling stock company, and more recently as a member of the 52nd Legislature from Abilene, will address members and guests of the Haskell Lions Club Tuesday, March 25.

The important role played by cotton products in the defense program was depicted in a film shown members of the Lions Club at their meeting Tuesday in the Texas Cafe.

During the brief business session, Willard Warren was named chairman of a committee to place several Lions Club signs on highways at the city's outskirts. He selected as his helpers Lions Wm. J. Kemp, Royce Adkins, A. M. Turner and Rex Felker.

Wallace Stack was in charge of the program and brought the film entitled "King Cotton Keeps 'Em Flying" produced by the National Cotton Council and the Air Training Command. Pictured were the many uses of cotton in the preparation of foods, margarine and cooking oils, for parachute harness, electrical wiring insulation, life rafts, wheel and propeller covers, etc.

Visitor at Tuesday's meeting was A. H. Wair of Graham, former Haskell resident and Lions Club member.

Four Haskell men who recently accepted positions with the West Texas Utilities Company have been assigned to the company's plants at San Angelo and Quanah for approximately one year of work training in plant operation and maintenance.

Thieves Take Car As Owner Attends Church Services

Theft of a 1940 Ford belonging to Trav Solomon, Jr., of this city was reported to city and county officers Tuesday night after the owner discovered the car missing from in front of the Assembly of God Church about three blocks south of the square. Thieves made off with the car while Mr. and Mrs. Solomon were attending a revival in progress at the church. A description of the car was sent to neighboring towns, but no trace of the stolen vehicle had been reported Wednesday afternoon.

It was the second time hard luck had tagged automobiles belonging to members of the Solomon family within the space of a few hours. Around 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, a 1942 Ford V-8 belonging to T. L. Solomon, Sr., suffered fire damage when ignition wires short-circuited while the car was parked in the alley on the west side of the square. Firemen were called to extinguish the blaze, with damage being confined to the car motor.

Probably the same persons who took the younger Solomon's car are believed to have tampered with a late model Olds automobile belonging to H. K. Henry of this city Tuesday night. Gas was drained from the car and the culprits had tampered with the locked vehicle in an evident attempt to steal the car.

With only nine days remaining for issuance of the new 1952 automobile license plates, less than one-half of the motor vehicles being operated in Haskell County have been registered for the current year, Tax Assessor-Collector R. A. Coburn reported Wednesday night.

At 5 p. m. Wednesday, Coburn's office had registered 1,608 passenger cars, 151 commercial trucks, and 379 farm trucks, he reported. Based on last year's registration figures, approximately 4,650 motor vehicles are subject to registration in Haskell County this year.

Highway Mishap Here Is Fatal To Clarksville, Ark., Farmer

Plans of an elderly Arkansas couple for an extended visit in California had a tragic ending here Saturday, when James H. Bassett, 75, was fatally injured and his wife, Mrs. Jennie C. Bassett, about 65, received a fracture of her right shoulder and minor injuries in an automobile accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Bassett were en route from Clarksville, Ark., to El Monte, Calif., for an extended visit and possibly to make their home there in the future. They were making the trip in a 1949 Chevrolet pickup, loaded with some of their household goods and personal effects.

The fatal accident occurred around 4 p. m. Saturday on State Highway 24, about four and one-half miles east of Haskell. Traveling west, a blowout of the left rear tire of the vehicle caused the machine to go out of control and the car swerved from the highway and overturned.

Passing motorists summoned an ambulance from Holden funeral home, and rendered all aid possible to the injured couple. Rushed to the Haskell County Hospital, Mr. Bassett died at 5:25 p. m. without regaining consciousness. He suffered head and internal injuries, hospital attendants said.

Mrs. Bassett suffered a fractured shoulder, bruises, and severe shock. News of her husband's death was withheld until Sunday on advice of physicians. She remained under care of physicians until Thursday, when she left for Clarksville accompanied by her son's wife, Mrs. Fred Bassett who came Sunday night to be with her.

Body of Mr. Bassett was removed to Holden Funeral Home until Monday morning, when a funeral coach from Clarksville, Ark., came to return the remains to that city where funeral services were scheduled Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bassett at one time lived in El Monte, Calif., and had operated a cafe in that city for several years. Returning to their former home in Arkansas, Mr. Bassett had engaged in farming there until his retirement a few years ago.

Meeting Scheduled March 27th To Discuss Rainmaking Deal

An important meeting of interest to all Haskell County farmers and landowners has been scheduled for Thursday evening, March 27 at 7:30 p. m. in the district court room of the courthouse.

Purpose of the meeting is to discuss the possibility of Haskell County landowners joining the 11-county West Texas Weather Improvement Association in its project to increase rainfall.

Local arrangements for the meeting are being handled by the Haskell County Farm Bureau as a service to farmers and landowners. R. C. Couch, Jr., president of the organization, said. He explained that the Farm Bureau is not sponsoring nor endorsing the plan in any manner other than to provide farmers a n d businessmen an opportunity to acquaint themselves fully with the proposition. "Any decision or action taken at this meeting will be strictly on a voluntary basis," he declared.

Some of the officers and directors of the West Texas Weather Improvement District will be present at the Haskell meeting to explain details of the district's plans. Also, L. E. Cox, a representative of the Water Development Corporation of Denver, Colo., will explain the "cloud seeding" operations designed to increase rainfall. Awards Hiked On Three Levels In 1952 4-H Program

Here's good news for every 4-H Club boy and girl in this State. Announcement has been made by the National Committee on boys and girls club work that county and sectional awards have been doubled, and eight college scholarships have been added on the national level in the 1952 4-H Achievement program as follows:

Gold-filled medals of honor to winners in participating counties have been increased from two to four, and sectional awards of educational trips to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago next November now number 16 instead of eight, as was the case last year. Also, $300 college scholarships will be presented to 12 national winners, instead of two $300 and two $150 college scholarships to the highest rating and second place winners, as heretofore. All awards are provided by the new donor, the Ford Motor Company.

Cooperation of Sportsmen In Organized Groups Helpful In Wildlife Conservation

Texans, young and old who like their hunting and fishing, can make contributions that will improve the wildlife of the state.

Since wildlife cannot always be controlled on the land where it is produced, R. E. Callender, specialist in wildlife conservation for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, points out that it is often desirable for neighboring landowners to pool their lands and operate their combined holdings as a unit. A program of protection, habitat improvement—providing food and cover—together with a regulated harvest during the open seasons can be more easily carried out by an organized group, says Callender.

Large cooperative areas where suitable habitats are found make a program of restocking possible. Deer and wild turkeys have been returned to many areas of the state through restocking programs, and many of these areas now offer some of the state's best hunting. The specialist cites as an example in southern Robertson County. Deer from this restocked area have populated considerable sections of adjoining counties until this central Texas area has become a hunter's paradise.

In the case of bobwhite quail, Callender says they are well distributed over the entire state but in many areas the population is

Several Varieties Of Shrubs Able To Withstand Drouth

Although most of Texas has remained dry for the past 2 years, some shrubs including evergreens continue to be grown in all areas. Sadie Hatfield, homestead improvement specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, explains that some native shrubs like chamiza and creosote bush can be expected to live with as little as ten to twelve inches of rainfall during the year. Many more can be grown in areas of 15 to 18 inches rainfall.

For Southwest Texas, the agri-to, sometimes called algerita, is suitable. It is a hardy evergreen barberry. Bird-of-paradise, known by its yellow and red flowers with long stamens, thrives in this area. Purple dalea, Apache plume, Texas persimmon or black persimmon, rock bush or thornless catclaw, Chinese and Burford varieties of holly, and many kinds of privets grow successfully in the southwest. Wild lippia, nandina, evergreen sumac, desert paupon and many kinds of yuccas are others requiring little water.

Adapted to the Lower Rio Grande Valley are the wild olive or cordia, poinsettia, lantana, ceniza, dwarf and large pomgranate, native tecoma or golden shower, bush morning glory and vitex, sometimes called pepper tree or lavender tree. Guayacan or soap bush is a valuable native evergreen.

For the Panhandle and Plains area, Miss Hatfield lists amorphia or dwarf indigo, anisacanth or cigarette bush, bridal wreath or spirea Vanhoutti, Scotch and Spanish broom, feather dalea, desert willow or flowering willow. In this area the crape myrtle is used as a perennial flower—that is, it is killed to the ground during severe cold but comes back and blooms the next summer.

Other shrubs listed by the specialist for Northwest Texas are the common lilac and Chinese lilac, fontanesia or fortune's fontanesia, New Mexican forestiera or elbow bush, Maacki honeysuckle, vitex, althea, lemonade sumac or three leaf sumac, kashgar salt cedar, pfitzer juniper and nandina.

Miss Hatfield explains that all of these shrubs will grow better and be healthier plants if they have plenty of water. Clean cultivation allows them to thrive on 15 to 18 inches of rain per year. Most of them, however, will live in dry areas or on well-drained hills of West and Southwest Texas. When given good drainage they will grow in Central Texas and even beyond, too, she adds.

Although Uncle Sam contributes to construction of certain highways in Texas all maintenance expense must be paid by Texas dollars.

Cotton Varieties For Texas Given In New Bulletin

Cotton varieties for the different areas of Texas are given in a new bulletin, "Performance of Cotton Varieties in Texas, 1948-50."

This bulletin, published jointly by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, gives information obtained in the first three years of a state-wide cotton variety evaluation program. Other bulletins will be issued at the end of each succeeding 3-year testing period.

Experiment station agronomists divided the state into three regions for systematic testing. And the Extension Service designated 10 production areas to provide a practical basis for variety recommendations.

D. T. Killough, agronomist in charge of the cotton variety testing program, points out that varieties recommended for a given region or area often do not include all varieties in the highest yielding group.

Varieties are recommended on basis of yield of lint cotton per acre, adaption to harvesting methods, fiber properties, disease resistance and maturity.

Source of seed of the varieties tested also are given in this bulletin, along with a list of the available publications on cotton production practices. Copies are available at county agents offices.

down to seed stock levels. He urges landowners and hunters to save these stocks and to begin a program that will improve their chances for multiplying. This can be done by improving the supply of food and cover in the area, he says. He suggests that waste land, nooks and corners be allowed to grow up with native plants. Strips of grain, he continues, may be sown around the margin of fields and left unharvested for the quail. Plowed or disced strips or contours in pasture lands will often increase the growth of dove and other weeds that provide food for game birds. He points out that this is also a good soil and water conservation practice and will increase the production from grazing lands. Since quail are ground nesting birds, they are subjected to many natural hazards—floods at nesting time, short food supplies and scanty cover during drouths and they also suffer from predators.

It is Callender's opinion that every one can have a part in conserving and more wisely using the wildlife resources of our state. He urges homeowners to lay out the welcome mat for the insect eating song birds by providing good homes for these feathered friends. Planting ornamental shrubs which produce food, providing water and supplemental feed will help keep desirable birds around the house the year-round, says Callender.

Last, but not least, he adds, the income from wildlife resources including hunting leases, fishing permits and the sale of furs amounts to many millions of dollars annually to say nothing of other benefits. The wildlife of Texas, he says, deserves better treatment and urges that it be added to the list for improvement in 1952.

It Makes Your Dollars Feel Important too

THE Buick pictured here can match price tags with a lot of cars smaller in size and horsepower and win.

But that only gives you a hint as to what a whale of a buy it is.

Like costlier Buicks, it has the wide-open view of a one-piece windshield.

Like costlier Buicks, it has the gleaming distinction of sweep-spear styling.

Like costlier Buicks, it has smart new fabrics and door trim.

Like all other Buicks, it has the extra safety of new, long-lasting Wide-Band brakes.

Like all other Buicks, it has the sure-footed, road-hugging, even-keeled steadiness of the Million Dollar Ride—a combination of 15 engineering features including a husky X-braced frame, end-way and side-roll stabilizers, Hi-Poised engine mountings, Permi-Firm steering and soft coil springs for every wheel.

And like all other Buicks, it has a power-packed Fireball 8 Engine—a high-compression valve-in-head that gets extra wallop, extra mileage from every gallon of gasoline.

So we think that you'll feel mighty important bossing around this smart-stepping smoothie.

And when you check the price we're asking against the field—we think your dollars are going to feel mighty important in buying power too.

Hadn't you better look into this soon?

Free Movie Show To Be Given By Helweg Implement

Tour of the Holy Lands is featured in one of two films to be shown here in color on a program being arranged by O. J. Helweg & Son Implement Co., local Minneapolis-Moline farm implement dealer. The program will be held on Thursday, March 27 in the Rita Theatre.

The film featuring the tour of the Holy Lands is entitled "Crossroads of the Cross" and shows not only places that are associated with the life of Christ but also what is taking place in surrounding countries as well. This colorful film reveals modern developments, especially agriculture, in the country that was the birthplace of many creeds.

The other film in color to be featured on the same program is entitled "The Good Earth for a Better Life." This film stresses the importance of mineral elements in the soil and the need of conserving them. It points out how essential these are to increasing production of crops of better quality. It shows the part agricultural colleges, county agents, and farm youth organizations are playing in the program of conserving the fertility of the soil.

Special invitations were mailed out by the local dealer to farmers in this area inviting them to bring the family and friends to the program arranged especially for those interested in farming.

backboards plus assistance of Jack King allowed to secure a victory in the Weibert track meet.

McGuire chimed in with constant assistance to hit 13 and 12 points, respectively.

The Rascals took an 8 point lead on the All-Stars at the end of the first quarter, but they slacked off in the second, allowing the Weibert quintet to tie the score, 26-26, at halftime.

It was in the third session when the most exciting moments of the game fell, keeping the scatter fans in a thrilled fantasy. There was never in the score. Medford and King accounted for the Rascals' 16 points during that period. Weibert could not get hold of the lead, only being able to tie the Rascal total at intervals.

About midway in the fourth quarter the Rascals got a six point lead on the All-Stars and went ahead to annex their 9-point margin.

Indian Jr. Thinclads Begin Training For District Meet April 5

Haskell's Junior tracksters have been working out daily with the high school team and are training for the district meet April 5. No other meets are planned for the junior thinclads.

The team is composed of boys who are 15 or under before September and the school classification has no bearing on what track team they run with.

The 1952 junior team consists of Don Dendy, Bobby Stone, Russell Drinnon, Warren Harris, John Duncan and Jerry Wheatley.

the wind and sand had kept the Indians from turning in any outstanding and reliable times. He said, "We don't know what to expect of this year's team and probably won't have a chance to find out what the boys can really do until we run in Saturday's meet."

Last week the team was given a "face-lifting" and three members of the junior team moved up into the high school bracket because "they have been showing up good and have outrun some of our most promising performers," Coach Smith said. Truett Craft, Donald Dickey and Wayne Harris will give their assistance to the high school group at the Bluebonnet Relays. The junior tracksters are boys that are 15 years of age or under before September 1. Their school classification does not determine the junior team.

Most of the Indian point hopes lie in their only two lettermen, Eldon Amonett and Frank Clarkson. Amonett is one of the district's top hurdlers and is the only Indian timber-topper in the state meet last year.

There are now only 19 coming out for the Indian track team. Including the fifteen making the Brownwood trip are Red Pitman, sprinter; Dale Dixon, miler; Kenneth Scoggins, weights; and Max Johnson, hurdler.

The Indian entries are:
High hurdles — Amonett.
Low hurdles — Amonett and Clarkson.
100-yard dash — Dickey and Walter Holley.
220-yard dash — Amonett and Wayne Harris.
440-yard dash — Manuel Mullins and Charles Flanary.
440-relay team — Clarkson, Holley, Harris and Dickey.
880-yard run — Jimmy White and Borden Worsham.
Mile run — Lynn Coleson and Clinton Baccus.
Mile relay team — Craft, Mullins, Flanary and Clarkson.
Shot put — Tommy Robison.
Discus throw — White and Holley.
Pole vault — White and Clarkson.
High jump — Mabry Brock and Wayne Bradford.
Broad jump — Bradford and Clarkson.

Medford is expected to pace the Rascal offense with his scoring methods, while King, Foster, Ponder, and Everett will handle the majority of the defensive maneuvers. Medford and King are the top scorers for the Rascals, both have a 15-point per game average.

25-Pound Buffalo Caught From Lake Throckmorton by Two Local Fishermen

Who's fish is it? It was Jess Kreger's line, but Oris Gibson pulled 'em out!

That was the 25-pound buffalo that the two local fishermen claim to have snagged at Throckmorton Lake last Saturday. Kreger was running some other lines when Gibson happened to notice the bobbling cork on Kreger's rod and reel. When Gibson jerked the line he ran into a mess 'o trouble, but after a time he managed to land the large buffalo.

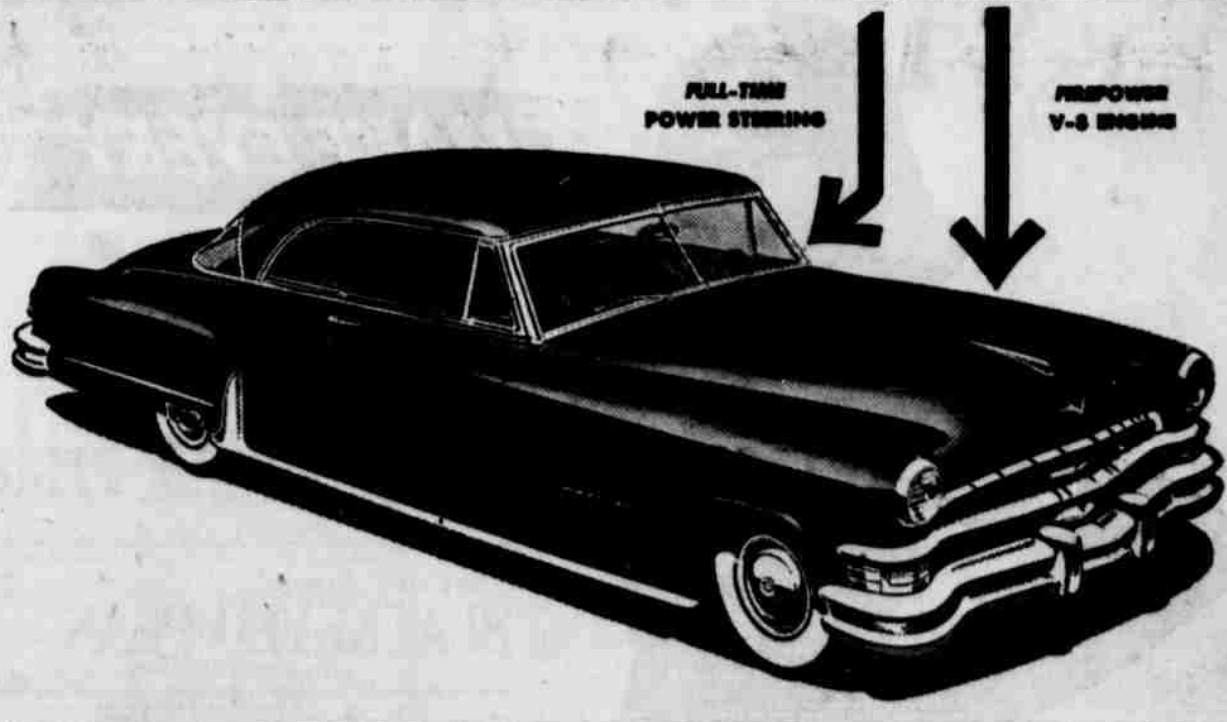

However, there was no argument over whose fish it was as both men can boast of an extremely good catch for the trip. The buffalo puts up a head-staggering struggle when caught on a line and, because of the way they feed, it is one of the hardest fishes to catch.

WHAT ARE TODAY'S FACTS ABOUT NEW CAR ENGINES AND POWER STEERING?

LAST YEAR Chrysler introduced its new FirePower V-8 engine, and America's first passenger-car full-time power steering. Both new ideas "took hold" in a big way.

Today, others are announcing "new engines" and "power steering" . . . but with some basic differences worth keeping in mind if you're buying a new car.

Chrysler uses hydraulic power, always in effect, to do two things. First, it does 4/5 the steering work as you turn the wheel. Second, we've cut the amount of wheel turn needed by over 1/3.

First: about "new engines." The fact is, a really new engine design happens only once in a great while. It did happen in the FirePower V-8. Its 180 h.p. was only incidental to its basic new design. Its key idea is a hemispherical combustion chamber, which makes even non-premium gasoline develop more usable power than other designs can get from premium fuel.

Parking or cruising, you get more and easier control than ever before. In sand, snow, or ruts, the hydraulic power is always there to keep the front wheels from "steering back" at you. You get the same amount and feel of control all the time . . . full-time ease and full-time safety.

Only Chrysler engineering has so far mastered this design. Several cars do have some power increase, in terms of previous designs. The important fact is that FirePower is not a "warmed-over" engine, but brand new in performance, construction, and efficiency.

Actually, the differences, both in engine performance and in steering safety and ease are impossible to put in words . . . but just as impossible not to feel the moment you get into a Chrysler and drive it! Why not see your Chrysler dealer and do that, soon?

CHRYSLER
THE FINEST CAR AMERICA HAS YET PRODUCED

In power steering, too, there are basic differences.

HOUSE PLAN No. 38

Three Bedroom Home Is Low In Cost, High In Comfort

How would you like to have an attractive home with three bedrooms and a separate dining room, in just 1,380 square feet of floor area and at a comparatively small cost? Impossible? Not at all—as you readily will see after studying Farm & Ranch House Plan No. 5138.

This house was designed especially for a farm family, with particular emphasis on the kitchen. The family can eat its meals there, in a space so ample that it seems almost like another room. The three windows afford plenty of light and air.

The location of the kitchen range is such that the fireplace chimney serves both living room and kitchen. There is a storage wall by the range which will provide plenty of self storage plus space for brooms, mops, and other such items. Also, there are 16 feet of counter top.

The comfortable-sized living room is planned for what its name implies. With the use of a modern sliding door unit it can be opened into the dining room when extra breathing space is needed. But each has the privacy and usefulness of a completely separate room.

The plan calls for a brick veneer finish, but the house will be equally attractive in other materials just so there is the change in texture which is indicated in the gables and entrance porch.

Simple lines plus few corners limited decoration plus stock door and window units equals economy in construction cost. It would be very difficult to draw up a plan that provides more comfort and convenience in 1,380 square feet of floor space.

You can obtain blueprints for this Haskell Free Press-Farm & Ranch House Plan No. 5138 and a handy list of materials by which you can figure your construction cost accurately. Send $1 to Building Editor, Farm & Ranch-Southern Agriculturist, Dept. L-98, Nashville, Tenn. Order by number—plan No. 5138. Blueprints are adequate for any farm carpenter or for any farmer handy with tools.

New Cotton Bag Wardrobes Ready For Distribution

With spring and warm weather ahead on the calendar, the National Cotton Council has announced that twenty-four hour smart, cool new wardrobes made from cotton bags are now available to women's clubs for colorful style shows.

Two types of dress sets are offered, one styled by McCall's and the other by Simplicity. Each wardrobe contains eighteen ensembles, including wearing apparel for children as well as for teenagers and adults.

Many new bag designs introduced by manufacturers for spring and summer sewing were included in the novel collections. Stripes, plaids, geometric designs, and floral patterns in a bright array of colors were used for outfits appropriate for every occasion from mornings at home to up town shopping.

The style show is now being offered to any interested group as a complete package, including garments, sewing booklets, program leaflets and commentary.

Complete information regarding bookings may be obtained by writing to the National Cotton Council, P. O. Box 18, Memphis, Tennessee.

Rain, Hail, Dust, On Weather Chart Here Monday

A sneak punch by the weather man late Monday brought this section a wind-whipped Spring shower, with scattered hail, and topped off with one of the worst dust and dirt storms in years.

Total moisture from the hard shower was registered at .35 inch by John Martin, Government observer. Other areas in the Haskell vicinity, particularly south and east, estimated heavier rainfall. No damage resulted from the hail, which was reported heavier between Haskell and Stamford, and in the Rule area.

The rain, whipped by gusts of wind, resulted in disrupting phone service, for more than 100 subscribers of the local exchange, when moisture penetrated a few phone cables, company employees said.

Mrs. Zada Smith Is Elected President Of Sewing Club

Mrs. Zada Smith was elected president of the Rainbow Sewing Club at their regular meeting last Tuesday. Mrs. W. E. Johnson was hostess to the organization.

Other officers named were Fay Prater, vice president; Winnie Copeland, secretary; treasurer; Mrs. Leonard Florence, vice secretary; Stella Clifton, reporter; Velma Tooley, pianist; Mrs. W. E. Johnson, parliamentarian; and Stella Stacy, recreation chairman. Committee chairmen are to be appointed by the president.

After a business meeting Sallie Patterson led the group in the singing of several songs. Winnie Copeland gave a needlecraft report and Stella Clifton and Mrs. Johnson gave the thoughts for the day. Gifts were given from secret pals by some of the members.

The members drew scraps of cloth, not knowing whose scrap they picked. They then took the scrap of cloth and identified the person who owned the garment that matched the material.

Games were directed by Sallie Patterson and Stella Stacy and refreshments were served to the following:

Stell Clifton, Essie Bland, Zada Smith, Ethel Edwards, Mrs. Leonard Florence, Mrs. White, Velma Tooley, Fay Prater, Thelma Adams, Stella Stacy and several children. Visitors were Mesdames G. W. Cone and son Steven of Pampa, and Mrs. A. B. Corzine, former member of the club who recently moved to Hamilton.

Planning Lessens Chore of Daily Lunch Packing

Are you one of the thousands of wives who packs lunches for husbands, children and others? If you are, Gladys Darden, home manager, specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, suggests organizing a lunch-packing center as a means of saving time and making the job easier.

Miss Darden says select an area in the kitchen where it is most convenient to do lunch packing and to arrange the needed utensils, supplies and equipment in easy reach.

This kind of work could be a section in the wall cabinet above the work counter with a drawer underneath. A section near the refrigerator is an excellent location. The drawer should be partitioned for a small cutting board, spreaders, spoons, knives and measuring cups. Store on the shelves mixing bowls, cardboard cartons for salads and desserts, seasonings and canned lunch foods. Miss Darden says keep a tray handy to carry foods to and from the refrigerator unless the center is within easy reach. Keep paper bags handy and install a wax paper holder on the wall over the work area. Wax paper is needed for wrapping sandwiches and other foods.

Miss Darden recommends preparing sandwich spreads and other lunch foods in quantity and store in the refrigerator for future use. Time is saved by preparing and freezing such lunch foods as sandwiches, cakes and cookies. These thaw out by eating time.

If a lunch box is used, Miss Darden suggests that practice of washing out the box and the vacuum bottle every afternoon for overnight airing.

Flies Have Single Saving Grace: A Short Life

This is a story about flies, told by a man who despises them for the disease they spread.

"Flies are one of the few species of life which does absolutely no good on earth," State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox charges. "Other insects are annoying, but they earn their existence by pollinating plants or by feeding on less desirable forms of life. But not flies."

He says the black swarming insects have but one saving grace: their short lives. A fly reaching maturity in the spring won't live to annoy autumn picnickers. One reaching adulthood in the fall might make it through the winter, but by spring he'll be aged and feeble, too old to pester folks out to witness the wonders of the fresh new season.

But during his lifespan, Dr. Cox says, a fly is extremely prolific. If a single pair begins their family in April, and if all their progeny live, there would be countless millions by fall.

"That's no pipe dream," the doctor said. "It's based on the most accurate entomological evidence."

In case you ever wondered how far a fly can fly, Dr. Cox has the answer to that one, too. He says entomologists have found an energetic one can cover up to 15 miles in one day without the aid of wind currents. How did they find out?

They trapped one, fed him radioactive phosphorus and set him loose. Retrapped, experimenters used a Geiger counter to make the identification. He was 15 miles from the starting point.

There's only one answer to the fly problem in Texas, Dr. Cox believes. He says cleanliness, using chemical science as a tool, will keep them under control.

"And start now," he advises. "This weather is ideal for fly breeding."

He doesn't like flies at all.

Garage Destroyed By Fire Early Saturday

A frame garage building at the home of Mrs. L. D. Ratliff, 601 North Ave. F was destroyed by fire of undetermined origin which was discovered about 3 a. m. Saturday. The building was a total loss.

The small structure was almost completely enveloped in flames before being noticed, and blazing sparks threatened damage to roofs of nearby residences. Firemen brought the flames under control quickly with no damage resulting to other buildings.

Loss was estimated at several hundred dollars.

Now is the time to start the fertilization program for the farm fish pond. Such a program makes possible the production of fish by the acre and greatly improves the farm fish pond so far as fishing is concerned. A stocking program plus the fertilization program for farm ponds can solve the question of where to go fishing—right at home.
