Right-of-Way Being Secured for New Farm-Market Road

Satisfactory progress is being made on securing right-of-way deeds for the new Haskell-Rochester farm to market highway.

A sufficient number of deeds has been signed to insure the project being included in the March contract letting by the State Highway Commission.

However, condemnation proceedings will be necessary in several instances where property owners cannot agree to grant the necessary right of way.

In this connection, six condemnation suits had been filed with the County Judge Tuesday for settlement.

In all, approximately 60 right-of-way deeds will be required on the 13.4 mile stretch of road, and it is expected that most of the deeds can be secured without condemnation proceedings.

The new F-M road will extend from the northwest city limits of Haskell to an intersection with the Rochester-Weinert farm to market road.

Lions See Film, Hear Talk on Little League

Members of the Lions Club were entertained with a film on Little League Baseball at their regular meeting Tuesday at noon in the banquet room of the Texas Cafe.

In addition to being entertained, Lions gained a better appreciation of the worthwhile activities of Little League in providing wholesome recreation for youngsters 9 to 12 years old.

Ferrel Coston, active worker in the Kid League of Haskell's Youth Development Program last summer, talked on the Little League program, and stressed its value in teaching youngsters sportsmanship, building character and keeping boys occupied.

The film was furnished through courtesy of the U. S. Rubber Co. and was shown by Billy Snow, Elementary School Principal.

Bill Holden was program chairman for the day. Guest at the meeting and luncheon was Bill Sanders, traveling representative of a Dallas manufacturing concern.

Work of Removing Third Story of Jail Completed; Interior to be Refinished

Work of removing walls and top story of the old county jail building was completed Saturday by Felix Miller, local contractor.

The contractor also removed all steel work and cells from the second floor of the building, preparatory to converting that section into usable space for office or other purposes.

All of the steel removed from the jail, with the exception of angle iron and I beams, will be sold if an acceptable offer is received, county officials said.

A considerable quantity of the brick removed from the third floor walls and ornate top structure has been reclaimed and will be used at Scott Memorial Park.

Cost of the entire remodeling project on the jail building is not expected to exceed $2,500.

Red Cross Chapter Officers Named; Drive Set March 1

New officers of the Haskell County chapter of the American Red Cross have been elected, and plans have been made for the annual Red Cross fund drive, it was announced following a meeting of the executive board of the chapter Wednesday.

Rex Felker, manager of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce, has been elected Chapter Chairman, succeeding Wix Currie, who served in that capacity during the past year.

Other officers are: Willard Warren, vice chairman; Alfred Turnbow, secretary and treasurer; Bill Lawson, Home Service chairman; Ray Lusk, disaster chairman; Kendall Henderson, Fund chairman; Lon Pate public relations; Ray Lusk, first aid director.

Kendall Henderson, Fund Chairman, announces that the county-wide fund drive will get underway Tuesday, March 1, with a quota of $5,197 as the goal.

This is a smaller quota than last year, and is based on a budget adopted for the fiscal year from July, 1955 through June, 1956.

Henderson said that organizations plans for the fund campaign would be completed this week. A list of volunteer workers and community chairmen will be announced next week, Henderson said.

Budget on which the drive for $5,197 is based includes $1,035 as local chapter expense for the fiscal year, of which $960.00 is for salary of the local Chapter workers and $75 for audit, postage, and office supplies.

Other services to Haskell County are anticipated as follows: Home Service, cash loans, $300.00; Grants (no reimbursements expected) $1,232.00; Telephone and Telegraph, $600.00; Nursing Service, $100.00; First Aid and Water Safety, $100.00; Membership Enrollment $75.00; Portion for National, $1,755.00.

The Little League would be a part of the Youth Development Program, but would be independently sponsored, and would be conducted under national rules.

Supt. C. D. Allen presided and explained the purpose of the meeting. A film "This is Little League" was shown to acquaint the audience with the project and its aims.

It was explained that a minimum of four sponsored teams would be required for affiliation with the national organization. After discussion by the group, a four-member committee composed of Charles Swinson, Ferrel Coston, Brooks Middleton and Jay Weaver was appointed to contact prospective sponsors. The panel will report at a meeting to be held March 4.

If the Little League is inaugurated, its program will be integrated with the community Youth Program, but will be supported by individual sponsors, it was explained. Boys 9 to 12 years old will be eligible to play on Little League teams. In addition "minor" league teams will be formed for younger lads.

It is expected that definite action on the Little League proposal will be taken at the March 4 meeting, sponsors said today.

Fire Department To Install 2-Way Radio Unit

A two-way radio unit will be installed in one of the pumper trucks of the Haskell Fire Department, as the equipment can be secured.

Purchase of the unit, costing several hundred dollars, was authorized by members of the department at their regular meeting Monday night. All of the expense will be paid out of department funds, without cost to the city, firemen decided.

"The city has always cooperated in every request we have made," Chief Ray Lusk explained. "And since we are fortunate in having funds of our own available, firemen voted unanimously to purchase the unit without cost to the city, in order to improve the efficiency of the department."

The unit will be the same type used in the Sheriff's office and City Police Station. It will permit instant communication between the fire department apparatus and the City Hall. In addition to the one-week Summer Camp at either Camp Letah or El Tezoro, the local Council will sponsor a Day Camp to be held at Rice Springs Park.

Report on the recent Camp Fire finance drive indicated that the campaign was generously supported and approximately $700 was received.

Texas' First Statue Of Washington To Be Unveiled

Come February 22 and Texas will have paid tribute to George Washington that it has never paid before.

Thanks to a group of patriotic and determined women, the Texas Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, there will be unveiled on the University of Texas campus a statue—the first ever to be erected in Texas—of the Father of Our Country.

The unveiling and dedication will take place two days earlier on Sunday, Feb. 20, and so by the time Washington's birthday anniversary rolls around Texas will have joined the ranks of those states which have erected statues of Washington.

The bronze statue, depicting Washington at the time he was made commander-in-chief of the American Army of the Revolution on July 3, 1775, is the work of the famed sculptor Pompeo Coppini of San Antonio who contributed his services, Coppini will be honored at the dedicatory ceremonies.

Erection of the statue is the fruition of a dream of the late Mrs. Thomas S. Maxey of Austin which began 31 years ago. In 1930 the university requested the DAR to place the proposed statue on the campus. On the 200th anniversary of Washington's birthday a Texas granite boulder with a bronze tablet was placed on the future site of the statue.

Since then the determined efforts of members of the DAR have brought about the realization of the statue. Texas is reportedly the only state in the union which does not have one.

Mrs. Loretta Grim Thomas of Houston, regent of the Texas Society, DAR, heads the committee in charge of the project.

All Texans are invited to the unveiling and dedication, she announced.

Rains Improve Crop Outlook

Crop prospects for 1955 grew considerably brighter as from one to six inches of rain fell in much of southeast Texas last week, the U. S. Department of Agriculture said.

Most of the rain soaked drought areas and partially replenished sub-soil moisture. In other areas only spotty showers or no rain at all were registered.

Flax and small grain prospects in South Texas and in the Lov, Rolling Plains improved with the additional rain, but the wheat outlook in the High Plains worsened for lack of effective moisture.

Planting of early spring vegetables will begin without delay as commercial vegetable growers in the non-irrigated Coastal Bend were helped by the rains.

Supplemental feeding must continue over much of the state until new feed comes on. But in the eastern portion an end of high feed bills may be in sight because of the rains.

California Creek Soil Conservation District News

Now is the time for farmers and ranchers in the California Creek Soil Conservation District to make definite plans for planting guar and blue panic grass. Guar, a drought resistant, sun loving legume, has shown that it is very adaptable to the soils and climate of this district. Besides being a soil improving crop and adding approximately 30 pounds of nitrogen per acre, it is also a cash crop. The seed of the guar plant are in demand by a processing firm at Kenedy, Texas.

Visit your neighbor who has planted guar and observe his results. Some of the farmers in the district who have planted guar are Joe Culberson, Hamlin; Hiram Olson, H. B. Hitarius, B. O. Youngquist, Avoca; Weldon Walker, Jim McCulloch, Norris Russell, Stamford; Larry Adamson Webb Beuchamp, Anson; and Bruno Kupatt, Sagerton.

Planting time for guar is June through July. Seed are planted at the rate of 6 to 8 pounds per acre, in rows. Plant with same setting and depth as maize.

Blue panic grass has been planted in this area for the past 10 years. It has proven itself as a good grass by being able to hold its own against dry weather and inadequate moisture. Last year on the B. O. Youngquist farm blue panic grass planted side by side with Sudan grass stayed green and produced grazing even though the Sudan grass had dried up and become dormant due to the hot dry weather. Ask Mr. Youngquist how he likes it.

Blue panic grass, unlike Sudan, is planted only once and comes up every year from the roots. It should only be planted on cultivated land as one or two blowings are needed to keep it from becoming sod bound. Over 1000 acres were planted last year. Planting instructions can be obtained from any of the farmers listed below or from your district supervisors or soil conservation technicians.

Some of the many farmers and ranchers having blue panic plantings are Hiram Olson, E. W. Carlson, B. O. Youngquist, Avoca; Eddie Kainer, B. Kupatt, V. B. Rowland, M. D. Thompson, Sagerton; and J. D. Maberry and Willis Maberry of Hamlin.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS From Your State Capitol

By VERN SANFORD Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, Texas—Investigation of veterans' land sales is spreading.

Twenty new witnesses were called in for testimony by the House investigating committee the past week. All were former employees of the General Land Office.

More will testify this week—the third week of interrogation by the House committee.

Two additional months of investigation will be undertaken by the Senate committee by order of the upper house. Investigation by the Senate committee has been going on since late in December.

A parade of witnesses will continue for several days. Latest suit brought by the attorney general boosts the total recovery sought by the state to $1,113,800. Named among the defendants are J. Paul Little and H. R. Stallings of Crystal City.

Atty. Gen. John Ben Sheppard said the land was purportedly owned by A. B. Abbott, "a fictitious person—an assumed name used by the defendant J. Paul Little."

Sheppard has charged that Veterans Land Board files were rifled and records removed, after the investigation started before Christmas.

Regulating Labor Unions A determined effort is being made to draft more stringent labor laws. It stems from the Port Arthur strikes.

Labor unions on the other hand are actively engaged expressing their opposition.

A Senate committee delayed action on Sen. George Parkhouse's bill. It prohibits picketing by non-employees and strikes by other than the majority group of employees.

In the House, the labor committee heard a bill written by the State Federation of Labor. According to Rep. Maury Mave-rick, Jr., co-sponsor, it would have prevented the multiple-strike situation in Port Arthur.

Under the Maverick-Berlin bill, the state labor commissioner would be required to call an election to determine whether the union represented a majority of the employees. A strike or picketing until that was determined would be prohibited. Also, if the union lost an election, it would be prohibited from picketing.

This bill also creates a full-time Industrial Commission to review disputes and invoke public opinion. But it would have no enforcement powers to settle labor fustles.

Nobody opposed the bill. It was sent to a sub-committee for a week's study.

Roy Harrington, secretary of the Texas Council of the CIO, said his group reluctantly accepted the bill. "We are convinced," he said, "we are going to be hit over the head with a stick at this session. We're trying to pick out the smallest stick, the one that will hurt the least."

Some industrial leaders call the union's bill a little Wagner Act. They say it forces arbitration by a state commission, collective bargaining, and production of books and records.

Crime and Comics Rep. Joe R. Pool has introduced a bill to outlaw crime, horror and sex comic books.

Another to prohibit all sorts of lewd and scandalous publications has been presented by Rep. Grainier McIlhenny.

A House committee heard 16 witnesses, 14 in favor of the two bills. Authors passed out samples of the publications. Committee members got so busy examining the exhibits they missed much of the four hour testimony.

Insurance Bills

A bill by the Association of Texas Fire and Casualty Companies won the approval of a Senate committee. It is designed to correct abuses in the casualty field.

Sen. C. C. Martin is sponsor. The bill would raise minimum capital and surplus requirements for companies engaged in fire, casualty and marine insurance to $500,000; and raise the minimums for casualty companies to $150,000 capital and $150,000 surplus.

Also approved by the committee was Sen. Searcy Bracewell's "tough" bill to raise the minimum capital and surplus for legal reserve life companies to $375,000.

Lower Bus Taxes

The Legislature's tax program took a short backward roll down hill . . . as the House voted to cut the $250,000 a year from present registration fees of motor buses.

Rep. Douglas E. Bergman's amendment to increase auto license fees by one-third was modified to exempt commercial vehicles, then reported favorably to the House.

After six weeks of legislating the lawmakers have shown little inclination to increase taxes.

Cigarette Smuggling

Cigarette smuggling cost Texas $1,200,000 in badly needed revenue last year. So says J. G. Pope of the cigarette committee and amusement tax division of the state comptroller's office.

An all-out enforcement campaign has been ordered to stop the flow of bootleg cigarettes. They are coming in from Missouri and Colorado where there is no state tax.

New Appointees

Gov. Allan Shivers has named three new members to six year terms on the University of Texas Board of Regents.

Designated were Mrs. Charles K. Devall, wife of the publisher of the Kilgore News-Herald; Dr. J. Lee Johnson III, Fort Worth lumberman; and Dr. Merton Minter, San Antonio physician.

VISITS PARENTS

Miss Estalyn Edwards of NTSC at Denton, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Edwards of Weinert over the week end.

Catalytic cracking has made possible the recovery of nearly 100 per cent more gasoline as well as higher gasoline quality from each barrel of crude oil.

Carothers, Harper, To Attend Federal Land Bank Meeting

R. O. Carothers and Joe S. Harper of Haskell will represent the National Farm Loan Association of Haskell at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Federal Land Bank in Houston. The meeting will be held in Houston February 23-24, according to Harper, who is secretary-treasurer of the Haskell County Association.

The purpose of the meeting is to give representatives from all of the national farm loan associations in Texas a first hand report on the business and financial condition of the Federal Land Bank of Houston from the bank's executive officers, and to give the association a part in planning its loan service to farmers and ranchers.

The Federal Land Bank's $8,252,920 of capital stock is owned cooperatively by the national farm loan associations in direct proportion to the amount of stock each member has in his local NFLA. Stockholders attending the meeting will represent members who have 32,652 loans amounting to $135,900,000.

Buford Cox Named Texas Beef Council Chairman

Fort Worth—Buford Cox has been named Haskell County Chairman for the Texas Beef Council, according to Roy Parks, president.

Mr. Cox will work closely with District Chairman John Biggs to coordinate the Council's promotional and membership activities here.

"The state was divided into 26 districts last November to expedite the Council's program," Mr. Parks explained. Haskell County is in District 3, which also includes Archer, Baylor, Childress, Clay, Cottle, Foard, Hardeman, Jack, King, Knox, Stonewall, Throckmorton, Wichita, Wilbarger, and Young.

Olson, chairman of the board of supervisors of the California Creek Soil Conservation District, has just returned from a national meeting of the National Association of Soil Conservation District Supervisors held in San Diego, Calif. There were 1300 supervisors from over the United States in attendance.

After a five day meeting when national soil and water problems were discussed, the supervisors were treated to a show put on by Bob Hope.

New Bargains In War Surplus Due This Year

If you're a bargain hunter get ready for an exciting year, say the editors of "Changing Times," the Kiplinger Magazine. Every kind of goods—from love seats to electrically heated boots—plus a lot of items you never dreamed of, will sooner or later come up for surplus sale. These goods are not World War II surplus either.

What is being sold today consists of material that is obsolete, outmoded or that needs overhaul or repair. Although worn out from the military point of view, it's usable by a businessman or individual. Hence you often can buy a surplus auto that runs, a typewriter that writes or a stove that cooks.

The three basic ways the government sells surplus are by auction, sealed bid and by spot bid, or site, sales. The sealed-bid sales are better for the individual's purposes. And they take place frequently at most military bases around the country. The surplus-disposal officer at each base maintains a list of those individuals or businesses that are interested in buying the various kinds of items. If you're looking for a truck, a boat or office furniture, write or call him and he'll tell you how to get your name put on the appropriate list. You'll be notified by an invitation to bid the next time an item you desire is up for sale.

There's one cardinal rule in buying surplus though—inspect the item yourself. The government gives no guarantee.

To find out the various places near you where surplus is sold, send 15 cents to the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, 25, D. C., and ask for a copy of "How to Buy Surplus Personal Property."

Cover Protects Air Conditioner

A new cover for window air conditioning units will give valuable protection throughout the winter months.

The cotton canvas cover can be made to fit any size window units. Most awning dealers can make up these water-repellent covers in various colors if given the make and tonnage of the air conditioning unit. Many of the covers close with draw-strings to make them secure.

The use of the canvas cover saves homeowners the expense of taking down the air conditioning unit to protect it from winter weather and of replacing it for summer use.

This book tells Mary Todd's story for the first time inside of her own heart, the stormy romance before she and Abraham Lincoln eventually reached an understanding. Her struggle over the years because of her husband's inbred melancholy and seeming failure. In achieving their lifetime ambition as president and first lady, Lincoln set about the grim task of holding the Union together, while Mary watched her own people of the South make her a target of bitter personal and political attacks. "Love Is Eternal" tells in full, exciting, humorous, joyous and sometimes tragic truth about Mary and Abraham Lincoln. Theirs was one of the most tumultuous marriages ever lived in America. "Love Is Eternal" was the inscription Abraham Lincoln had engraved in the wedding ring he gave Mary Todd.

Fifty-four members and guests attended the tea.

Cowboy "Hall of Fame" To Become Reality

The Cowboy Hall of Fame became a reality recently at the organizational meeting of the trustees in Denver, which adopted papers of incorporation, by-laws, elected officers, and set up machinery to decide on a permanent location for the project at the next meeting of the trustees March 15.

Attending the first meeting from Texas was Trustee A. M. G. Swenson of Stamford, Texas' other trustee is J. Ebbetts Haley of Canyon. Swenson was named the vice chairman of the organization and appointed to the executive committee. Haley was appointed chairman of the historical committee.

The project will be known officially as the Cowboy Hall of Fame and Museum and will be organized along lines similar to the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N. Y. It will pay tribute to rodeo cowboys, stockmen, cowboys and ranchers who helped build the west and keep it alive through rodeo.

For several months the memorial was referred to informally by some as the Rodeo Hall of Fame. The Cowboy name was decided on to widen the scope of the project to include famous western ranchers and cattlemen who have contributed to the development of the west but who may not have been connected with rodeo.

A location committee was formed to narrow the field of possible sites down to five from which the trustees will pick the permanent location. To be fair to all cities and towns seeking the project and to prevent too long a delay on the decision, it was decided no location would be considered that had not applied to the committee by letter postmarked not later than February 28.

Area Soldier is Member of Honor Guard in Korea

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, commanding general of the U. S. Army Forces, Far East and Eighth Army, presented the award to the unit, which provides security for the general and his command post.

Cpl. Whitaker, who attended Midwestern University in civilian life, entered the Army in February 1954 and arrived overseas last August.

an equal amount to it. And remember, these social security deductions apply only to the first $4,200.00 you pay any household employee in 1955. For 1954, the limit was $3,600.00.

Question: What is the next step?

Answer: You should obtain a supply of Forms 942 from your District Director of Internal Revenue and send one in at the end of each quarter with your remittance of the tax withheld plus your share of the tax.

Getting Your 1954 Income Tax Forms Question: When do we get the forms and instructions for filing this year's income tax returns?

Answer: Every taxpayer who filed a return last year should have received by mail before December 31, 1954 tax forms and instructions. If you have not received your forms and instructions, you may get them from your local office of the Internal Revenue Service or at your local post office.

Do not wait until April 15 to think about filing your 1954 return. The instruction pamphlet furnished with each return is presented in a clear, concise, and readable manner and covers the various types of income that are either taxable or nontaxable, the exemptions that may be claimed, and the expenses that are allowable as deductions.

Read the instructions very carefully. This will not only simplify the preparation of the return, but will also enable you to take advantage of all changes in the new laws that may save you a substantial amount of money. A short study of these instructions will be both interesting and profitable.

Shepperd Suggests Laws to Effect 'Open-Door' Policy in Public Affairs

Below are excerpts from a talk by Attorney General John Ben Shepperd at a recent meeting of the Texas Press Association. You can learn much from this talk about what can be done for a better government in Texas.

For eleven months in Duval County your Attorney General's Office battled the toughest, smartest legal athletes Parr could muster with his millions, and in so doing we've had to dig down to the very roots of county government as an institution under Texas law. We've discovered a number of basic deficiencies in Texas statutes, and for almost every one of them we found a corresponding abuse or violation in Duval County.

I want to point out a few of those deficiencies and to recommend legislation which I believe can prevent a future Duval County. I also want to reiterate a contention I made long before the Duval investigations were started—namely, that some of the most-needed changes in Texas laws are those being sponsored by the Texas Press Association, which were also sponsored two years ago.

One of the prime causes of Duval County-ism is the inability to indict wrongdoers when they organize themselves within a county. George Parr, who controlled elections and therefore controlled judges, was able for decades to place his own friends and cronies on grand juries. It was impossible to indict anyone in Duval County for theft of funds or malfeasances in office or for hiding public records.

Texas ought to have a statute providing for indictment outside the county of anyone accused of misusing or embezzling public funds, or of destroying, defacing, altering or hiding public records. Venue would lie in the county itself, or in any adjoining county, or in Travis County. This wouldn't be anything new; we already have such a provision in rape cases. If Texas had had the law I propose, corruption in Duval County could have been stopped years ago, and several innocent men who are now dead would still be alive.

A major obstacle confronting us in Duval County in our efforts to put a tourniquet on the bleeding of the public treasury was the inability of Duval citizens under Texas laws to remove officeholders who refuse to reveal public records, or who stand on the Fifth Amendment and refuse to answer questions about their conduct of office.

Such refusals should be statutory grounds for removal. Public records are not private property, and he who hides them is stealing what belongs to others. As for the Fifth Amendment, a public official of course has the right to use it as a private citizen; but its use is inconsistent with the honor and trust of public office. Duval County officials continued in office for months after being indicted on ten or twenty counts of theft and misappropriation. They had all that time to destroy more records and cover up more misdeeds.

Another brick wall we have had to face is the inability of a county or district attorney in many cases to sue for the recovery of funds due the county without the authorization of the commissioners' court, in cases where the court itself is suspected of misappropriation. We ought to have a statute granting this authority. Millions in stolen funds are unrecoverable in Duval County; but even under present statutes I believe half a million dollars belonging to the state and county can be regained.

I consider it a very serious defect that under present law a special audit of county records can be ordered only by a district judge on the request of a grand jury, or by the county commissioners' court. This statute is the primary reason why Duval County had no audit for more than 40 years, although citizens repeatedly petitioned, requested and demanded it at the risk of their own lives. Until 1954, the only attempt to audit anyone could remember was in 1915, when the Supreme Court ordered one to be held. They burned down the courthouse after it had been going on for one day.

Texas should have a statutory provision for a special audit to be ordered by the District Judge on the petition of at least 30 per cent of the voters of the county.

Texas Ban On Mixed Bouts Ended by Court

Texas' 22-year-old ban on professional boxing and wrestling matches between whites and Negroes has ended.

The state supreme court refused to review a lower court decision favoring I. H. (Sporty) Harvey, a San Antonio Negro fighter who claimed that his right to earn a living was injured by the prohibition on mixed matches.

The ban was contained in a law passed in 1933, which ended a long period during which all professional boxing was outlawed.

M. E. Morgan, state labor commissioner and supervisor over boxing and wrestling, said that he would do nothing to stop mixed matches in view of the court's decision. He said no appeal to the United States Supreme Court is planned.

and doing no work. They didn't know the fantastic extent of the rake-off system. They only knew they had the highest tax rate in the state and the biggest debt of any county in their bracket. Texas law did not protect them from secrecy. A newspaperman named Bill Mason tried to start the flow of public information, and you know what happened to him.

At the meeting of the Texas Press Association last year I discussed the Mandatory Publication Act in detail, told why it does not work, and suggested appropriate revisions which would fix the responsibility for causing publications to be made. I am happy that you are sponsoring House Bill No. 148 to make these revisions, to provide for the removal of any officer violating the act, and to allow suit for its enforcement to be brought by a private citizen.

We are also badly in need of a statute requiring the publication of the annual financial statements of all offices, boards, agencies and commissions on all levels of government. House Bill No. 13, sponsored by the TPA, makes that requirement for all school, road, soil conservation and other districts not now covered by law, and I am for it. It also contains a provision for stopping the payment of State funds to a school district for failure to publish the required statement.

We learned from looking into Duval County affairs that a city could be just as bad as a county under Texas "loophole law." The TPA's proposed bill (HB No. 29) requiring the publication of the full text of city ordinances that are now required to be published only by title or digest, should be adopted as a statute. If the full significance and effect of an ordinance could be conveyed in a title or digest, it would be enacted in that form. A digest, by its very nature, is only a half-truth, and the public is entitled to the whole truth, unless we want citizens to go on half-supporting public issues and casting a half-hearted ballot. Passage of eleven Constitutional amendments last November proved that the people do not vote against progress when they know all the facts.

The TPA is sponsoring again this year a bill to require the county commissioners court to publish the record of its proceedings; House Bill No. 12. It might be argued that a citizen who wants to know the nature of those proceedings—or for that matter, a citizen who wants the full text of a city ordinance—could go to the meetings of the court or get a copy of the enactment. But governmental information should be more readily accessible. Government is a ball game in which everybody is interested, but not to the extent that they can spend a great deal of time peeping through the few knot-holes provided to the citizens for that purpose. This ball game ought to be so well covered in the newspaper that every citizen's living room couch is a grandstand seat.

House Bill No. 18, sponsored by the TPA, would allow newspapers to be paid out of the general fund for publishing citations in delinquent tax suits, instead of having to wait for the proceeds of sale to be cleared. This is a bill that I consider necessary to correct a very unbusiness-like injustice to the newspapers. Few, if any, small newspapers can sell their space on credit if they hope to stay in business, and the government ought to be the first to recognize it. If it were not for the willing assumption of civic responsibility by newspapers, the getting and publishing of public information would collapse. It did collapse in Duval County.

Free and ready access to public information is vital to our form of government. For that reason Texas ought to have an anti-secrecy bill that would prohibit closed and secret meetings of governmental bodies and boards from the State Capitol to the precinct. Any meeting required under the law should be open under the law. Texas laws already provide for the few instances in which proceedings or records should be kept confidential, so the statute needed is one which would make it clear that all others are to be public, and which provides a penalty for any violation by a public official.

My recommendations are not based on Duval County alone. To pass state laws because of what happened in one county would be a case of the tail wagging the dog. If I didn't believe in the necessity of these measures for the prevention of further abuses in the future, I wouldn't suggest them. None of the bills ask any additional powers for the Attorney General.

Supply and Demand Points to Lower Hog Prices in '55

Hog raising will not be so profitable in 1955 as last year. Larger marketing caused by increased hog numbers will lower prices this spring and summer, says John G. McHaney, extension farm economist. Later in the year, slaughter should slow and prices rise again, leveling off just below those of last fall.

After declining two years, hog production was expanded 13 per cent last year. The economist says an additional 5 per cent increase in the '55 spring pig crop is in prospect.

Generally, prices for hogs will be about "average" in relation to the price of corn. Producers should realize average profits where feed is plentiful and not too highly priced, McHaney explains.

Plentiful Foods List For March Has Many Items

All items on the USDA's March plentiful foods list are in good supply in the Southwest, reports Mae Belle Smith, consumer education specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Stock of canned sweet corn and canned snap beans as well as rice are so large that USDA is featuring them during the windy month.

Other plentifuls include such meats as heavy turkeys, beef, pork, frozen haddock and halibut, shrimp and canned tuna.

Also, such high protein content foods as eggs, milk, cheese and other dairy products are in abundant supply.

Only three fruits made the official March list—raisins, fresh and processed oranges and grapefruit.

Pinto beans, lard, vegetable fats and oils round out the USDA's monthly listing for March.

State May Spend $1 Billion in 1960

Texas state government will spend one billion dollars a year by 1960 if the trends of the last ten years continue.

The Institute of Public Affairs of the University of Texas says that the figure will reach $863 million a year by 1957.

Urging a searching look at the entire tax structure of the State, the Institute said that Texas must accept the fact that it will be virtually impossible to reduce or hold the line on present spending.

The basic reason for the growth in state costs, said the Institute, is an increasing population which puts an increased demand on the state till. Texas has more students, more pensioners, more convicts, and many more miles of highways to be built.

Total state spending has tripled in the last ten years. For the fiscal year ending August 31, 1954, total state costs were $706.1 million, while state income available for expenditure was $717 million.

"Will the present revenue structure keep pace and provide the additional moneys for (increased) costs?" asks the Institute. Three possibilities are feasible, it said: reduce the quantity and quality of state service; improve administrative, personnel, and fiscal procedures; or increase spending to fit demands within "reasonable" limits.

The Institute predicts that there will be a deficit in the General Fund before tax collections of the spring are made. Beginning September 1, 1955, "a similar deficit, but more severe in proportions," will occur in the Fund.

Mrs. J. A. Hertel was welcomed as a new member of the Sagerton Home Demonstration Club at their meeting in the home of Mrs. C. E. Stegemoller Tuesday, Feb. 3. After the business meeting Miss Wirtges, county H. D. agent, discussed bank accounts and how to use one properly.

Mrs. Counts led the recreation after which refreshments were served to Miss J. A. Hertel, A. C. Knippling, Glen Quade, Will Stegemoller, F. A. Stegemoller, Delbert LeFevre, D. W. Counts, Miss Wirtges and Mrs. Lawrence, a guest from Aspermont, and the hostess.

Mrs. B. Hess entertained the Stitches and Chatter Club in her home Wednesday afternoon Feb. 9. All their members were present except Mrs. John Clark, who is still a patient at the Stamford hospital recovering from a car accident she was in several weeks ago.

Rev. Vernon Mayfield, pastor of the Sagerton Methodist Church, announced Sunday that Wednesday night prayer services will be held every other Wednesday night beginning Wednesday, Feb. 23 here at the Methodist Church.

Funeral services were held here Sunday afternoon for E. L. Bell at the Sagerton Methodist Church with the Rev. Appling of the First Methodist Church in Stamford in charge, assisted by Rev. Mayfield. Mr. Bell passed away Saturday morning at the Aspermont Hospital. He had been ill for several months after he fell and broke his hip and was a patient at the Stamford Hospital for several months.

The Bells had lived in Sagerton since 1925 and had many friends here. He is survived by Travis Bell of Old Glory, Mrs. Ray Stockwell of Hollywood, Calif., Mrs. Lena Mae Sheld of Stamford, and Buddy Bell of Fort Worth.

Mrs. F. A. Ulmer spent last week end with her mother Mrs. Pruitt who is ill at Tumerville. Mrs. D. T. Elmore Is Demonstrator For O'Brien Club

Mrs. D. T. Elmore, a member of the O'Brien Home Demonstration Club, is serving as meat demonstrator for the club. Mrs. Elmore plans to organize a recipe file as the major part of her work. She believes her work will be greatly simplified if the recipes are easily found.

Mrs. Elmore also plans to continue raising and freezing chickens and beef for her family.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to take this method of expressing our deepest appreciation to friends and neighbors, and to all others who helped in any way to lighten our burden during the illness and death of our loved one. We are grateful for the attentive services of the doctors, nurses, and hospital staff; for every word and message of sympathy; for the beautiful floral tributes and for all the food brought to our home. We also want to thank all of the blood donors. We shall always pray God's richest blessings on each of you.—Mrs. Edgar Kelso and Sammy, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Kelso, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Patton, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Shelley and Peggy.

The Sagerton P-TA will have its regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening Feb. 22, in the school auditorium. Mrs. Arlos Weaver, a teacher in the Haskell schools, will review the book "Claudia's Kinfolks." A short program will also be given by the pupils in Mrs. Hamby's and Mrs. Banks' rooms.

Club Woman Plans 'Business Center' For Her Home

Mrs. Clovis Norton has recently completed plans for her work as family economics demonstrator. Mrs. Norton is a member of the Josselyn Home Demonstration Club.

A business center for the home is the main object of her plans. Mrs. Norton is going to make a desk from a dresser that has been in her family since she was a child. She plans to remove the mirror, refinish the wood in 40 with other furniture in the room and reorganize the storage space. The small drawer space will be used for small equipment and supplies needed in any business center. A larger dresser drawer will be used for a family file. Adequate lighting and a comfortable chair will also be added to the business center.

Mrs. Norton realizes that the success of any business depends on how well its activities and details are planned, organized and carried out. Homemaking is the greatest business in the world, therefore, each home needs a convenient place where the family can carry on business activities.

A TRIBUTE TO WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

The birthday of the man who carved out of the United States is celebrated throughout the land... and in many foreign countries. We think affectionately of "The Father of Our Country" indeed that is what he was. Now, as our nation is passing through another period of rebirth and renewal to the principles of Freedom, it is well to remember that there are now as vital to America's well-being and progress as they were when our country was born. Let every American review the works of this truly great man!

Big Rabbit Drive Slated Tomorrow At Mattson

Rabbit population in the Mattson section is expected to decline almost to the vanishing point after a big "drive" planned in that area tomorrow.

Plans for the old-time rabbit drive have been under way for two weeks, with Henry Smith as chairman of the group planning the event.

In connection with the drive, a barbecue will be held, and all hunters and others taking part will be guests at this event. Tickets for the drive and barbecue have been on sale for two weeks.

Permission has been secured for use of more than enough land needed for the drive. Smith said. A well-organized program will be followed, and several rules governing the drive have been adopted. No rifles or pistols can be used, and no shotgun pellets larger than No. 4. No minors can take part in the drive unless with their parents.

Those in charge of the drive request that hunters assemble at Mattson school around 9 a. m. tomorrow, so that various groups can be organized.

J. V. Hudson to Resign PCA Post; Cobb Promoted

Resignation of J. V. Hudson as field representative, and promotion of R. C. (Cliff) Cobb to the position of assistant secretary-treasurer, were personnel changes announced this week by J. L. Hill, Jr., secretary-treasurer of the Stamford Production Credit Association.

The changes were approved at a meeting of the executive board Feb. 11.

Hudson, veteran field representative of the local office, is resigning March 1, 1955. He has served in this capacity since the beginning of the organization, which commenced business in April, 1934. He has seen the progress the association has made from its meager beginning to an institution that now serves over 300 farmers and stockmen in the Haskell area. He was instrumental in developing the plans for the Haskell office building that was built in 1950, which is a credit to the community and organization.

R. C. (Cliff) Cobb, who has been assistant field representative of the Haskell office, was promoted to the position of Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, effective March 1, 1955. He will continue temporarily in the Haskell office.

Cobb began his service with the association in May, 1939, in the central office at Stamford, with time out from June, 1942 to December, 1945, serving with the armed forces in Europe and from July, 1951 to December, 1952, with the armed forces in Korea and Japan. He expects to continue to live in Haskell until the end of the current school term, at which time he will move to Stamford.

Other officers of the association are: C. G. Burson, Sr., President; J. F. McCulloch, vice president; J. L. Hill, Jr., secretary-treasurer and J. R. Gleaton, assistant secretary-treasurer.
