Indians Defeat Stamford Bulldogs, 55-53, in Two Overtimes Tuesday

The Haskell Indians defeated the high-flying Stamford Bulldogs, 55-53, in two overtimes Tuesday night in the HHS gym to tumble the Bulldogs out of the undefeated ranks in District 4-AA.

A field goal early in the second overtime period by Robert Starr was the difference in the ball game, although some classy ball handling by Starr and David Duncan played an important part in the victory with an effective stall game after Stamford had taken a shot and missed.

Walter Hood kept Stamford in ball game, going in for a lay-up shot that tied the score at 53-53 at the end of the first overtime period.

Haskell jumped into a 12-10 first quarter lead in the thriller and held a 23-20 halftime advantage. By the end of the third period Stamford had forged out front, 36-33, and the score was tied, 47-47 at the end of regulation time when neither team could hit in the clutches.

Starr paced the winners with 18 points while teammate John Clifton garnered 13. Dallas Christian was high for Stamford with 20, followed by Charley Stenholm with 10.

Haskell also captured the B game, 45-43. David Burson was high for the winners with 12 while Warren Hules had 14 for the losers.

Season's Coldest Weather Brings Light Moisture

A prolonged seige of the season's coldest weather which hit this area Saturday night brought almost one-third inch of moisture in the form of sleet, ice, and cold misting rain.

Total moisture received from Sunday through Tuesday night was measured at .32 inch by Sam F. Herren, local observer for the government.

Sleet and drizzling rain which coated streets and highways with ice Saturday made travel hazardous and resulted in numerous minor traffic accidents, none serious.

Lowest temperature reading during the weekend wintry blast was 19 degrees, Herren reported. Slightly warmer weather, with light misting rain prevailed Wednesday and Thursday.

John Mounts of Throckmorton sold 50 turkeys here Tuesday to Wyley Snow. The lot brought $47.35.

J. A. Howard of the south side sold two bales of cotton here Wednesday. This brought his crop to 14 bales ginned and sold, and he says he has six more.

J. C. Holt is building a good residence on his farm three miles north of town.

Our cotton buyers and merchants are providing good markets for farm products. In fact, you can sell anything from a coon skin to a bale of cotton in Haskell.

Lois Touchstone has purchased the bakery formerly operated by Mr. Jacks, and will continue the business in the same location.

W. L. Cox of the south side was doing some trading in Haskell Wednesday. He is well pleased with farming operations, having been here five years and has made five good crops.

Physician of Rule Recalls His First Visit to Haskell

Editor, The Free Press.

My first impression of the town of Haskell in 1905 was a town of mesquite and windmills.
 As I recall there were only two stone store buildings, one on the southwest corner of the square in which Dr. Terrell ran a drug store, and the other one where the Oates Drug Store is now.

There were two livery stables,
 a hotel on the street running east from the square, and one on the southeast corner.

Mrs. Wright also ran a rooming house, and served meals, with fine food and immaculate white linens on the beds.

There were two doctors, Dr.
 Neathery who drove a dun pony to a single buggy, and Dr. Gilbert, who drove two ponies to an open buggy. When the weather was rainy, which did happen in Haskell County occasionally, he wore a yellow slicker. He usually put his ponies out in a run. Their practice extended over the county and across the Double Mountain Fork of the Brazos into Stonewall County.

Haskell County was sparsely settled at that time and a man sometimes had to double in his duties as a citizen. H. G. (Gill) Bennett who was an early settler, told this one. He said he witnessed a murder in this city.
 The Grand Jury that found the bill, and sat on the jury that tried the man!

The debate that went on among the real estate men at that time was the relative worth of sand, or tight land, as farming land.
 As the railroads came Haskell County was soon to build up and take her place among the better counties of the state.

 three in the 100-meter freestyle swim at the 1956 Olympics.

Paint Creek . . . Community News

MRS. GENE OVERTON

Dub Sim's calf didn't win the open class, and we are so sorry. However, he will show him in the Wichita Falls Livestock show and the Houston Fat Stock Show. He didn't take Jerry, but Tom to Fort Worth. Both are beautiful animals and maybe they'll win in some of the other shows. The boy whose calf won the grand champion ribbon at Ft. Worth Monday was from Martin County, and Paint Creek's own Jerry Hanson is his county agent, so we can feel that the championship is still in the family. This is Jerry's first year as county agent, because he was only the assistant to the county agent at Abilene before he went to the Army. We are glad for him and know his mother and daddy are so proud. Jerry was a 4-H boy himself, and here he is helping the Martin County 4-H boys and girls.

John Carlos Montgomery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Montgomery, marched in Governor Daniel's inaugural parade with the honor guard, the Ross Volunteers from Texas A&M. They wear the most beautiful white uniforms. R.V.'s are chosen according to their military manner, and their grades and their attitude on the campus, so it is such an honor to be chosen one. Carlos is a senior at A&M this year.

James High of the High Flock at Stamford gave an interesting demonstration at the meeting of the Future Homemakers meeting in the luncheon room last Thursday afternoon. It was a demonstration of arrangements using dried leaves and flowers and weeds. Most of his material was treated leaves and foliage to be obtained at a floral shop, but some of it was just dried yucca and sunflowers and wheat and stuff that we all have borrow ditches full of. If it never does rain enough again for us to have flowers, maybe we can learn to be content with the dried arrangements we can make of weeds. Several mothers and other invited guests enjoyed the meeting, and a refreshment plate of punch or coffee and cookies was served by the 1st year homemaking girls.

At the meeting of the Future Homemakers of America at the Paint Creek lunch room last Thursday, Nelva Walton was given the Future Homemaker of the Year award by the sponsor, Mrs. Erad Rowland. With this award goes a pin designed and made by Tiffany's in New York, and entitles Nelva to compete with other winners for the district title, and then the state title. Nelva is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Walton.

Mrs. Jess J. Mickler, who underwent surgery last week is much improved and will probably be able to come home next week. Her daughter Sudy, who attends Texas Tech has been home this week with her parents between semesters. Phil Williams of Lubbock has been their guest over the weekend, and after spending a few days in Dallas with his grandmother he will take Sudy back to school Wednesday.

Mrs. Ben Isbell and Mrs. Gene Overton were Abilene visitors last Wednesday. Wayne Dilbeck spent several days last week end visiting in San Diego, Calif. He visited a friend M. T. Mollis and his family at Odessa, also.

Eatle Gilleland was painfully burned when he was connecting the butane to their new place at Tulla as they were moving. He was burned about the face, hands and arms. We haven't heard whether he had to be in the hospital or not. We were so sorry about the accident.

The Arthur Watsons have a new black and white Chevrolet, and everybody is so glad for them. Mable said it was a novelty just to have a car that all the doors would close. The Pat Morrisons have a new green and white Chevrolet since Christmas, too. And the school has a new green and white Ford for the Drivers Education class.

Allen Overton burned his right hand quite badly as he was tarring his garage roof not long ago. His thumb was the most badly burned, but the back of his hand and every finger was burned, too. The bandages are off now and it is healing real well.

The Scouters, including committee men, executives and scoutmasters of the Northern District, Chisholm Trail Council had their monthly meeting at the home of district chairman, Gene Overton Monday night. After a chili supper they had a two hour planning and discussion meeting. Attending were Rae Eastland, Johnny Grissom, George Kinney, I. A. Russell and Kenneth Lafferty of Stamford; Joe B. Cloud and Connor Horton of Rule; A. M. Turner, Douglas Brown and Dr. R. K. McCall from Haskell; and Mack Earles, Ira Coleman and Louie Kuenstler of Paint Creek.

Tuesday afternoon the ladies of the Methodist Church entertained at the church with a pink and blue party honoring Mrs. Ray Overton, Jr. Guests were registered in a baby book from a table with tiny stools and a miniature flower arrangement. The program consisted of an original poem by Mrs. Arthur Montgomery which the hostesses had the grandmother-to-be, Mrs. Ray Overton, Sr., read. Some clever games were directed by Mrs. Allen Isbell, and a song by great-aunt-to-be Mabel. Mrs. Howard Montgomery and Mrs. H. B. Montgomery presided at the refreshment table where a plate of angel squares and pink punch were served. After Margaret opened all the lovely gifts it was decided it will be the best dressed baby at the Haskell gym. Guests other than Paint Creekers and the other grandmother, Mrs. George Free, were Margaret's aunts, Mrs. Maud Derr and Mrs. Ross Hemphill from Haskell.

Mrs. Irene Ballard and Mrs. Lillian Brown attended the Reading Workshop at Austin Friday and Saturday and both said it was a most informative and interesting meeting. One good speaker on the program had as her subject the parents part as a partner in teaching reading. One teacher who had toured Europe and observed the teaching program said it was a usual sight to see a teacher with 60 or 70 pupils and no teaching supplies at all, just a black board on which she could illustrate what she was teaching. A teacher from Cuba said her country didn't realize the need of more teaching supplies, books, work books, etc. Here in America we take our schools and the learning advantages our children have, too much for granted some times.

There have been several oil men visiting the Paint Creek farmers since the new Paridue well started down. We surely enjoy meeting oil men, because we meet such interesting lease money through them sometimes.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shaw Jr. and little daughter Manda Gay, of Midland and Mrs. Shaw's brother, Jimmy Reed, spent last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shaw Sr., Sue and Mike.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hughes and Jerry visited their son, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hughes and baby daughter Kelly Lynn, of Winters last week.

Mrs. Morris Haynes spent several days last week in Oklahoma with her mother, Mrs. Keys, and her sister, Emma Keys.

Hildred Patterson is drilling water wells at Rule. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, H. W. and Billy spent last week in Colorado City with his brother Dennis Patterson.

Mrs. A. M. Daniels of Abilene was a recent visitor in the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Griffith.

Word was received Tuesday afternoon of the death in San Angelo of Mrs. Selma Darst. She was a half-sister of Mrs. Roy Overton, Louie, Paul and John Kuenstler. The funeral was Wednesday afternoon and the three Kuenstler families and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Overton attended.

There was no school at Paint Creek Monday because of the ice and sleet on the roads. I wish this weather would stop this mauling around, and really give us a good soaking rain.

Accompanied by Giles Boone, Red Cross field representative, they were here in the interest of securing a county chairman for the local Red Cross Fund campaign.

You have never seen, felt, owned anything like it!

You watch it sweeping by, this low-drag Swept-Wing Dodge, and you know in an instant that nothing you have ever seen before can compare with it.

"Can this be real?" you ask yourself. "Can a car be so long and low and daring? So brilliantly styled?"

And what you see is matched only by what you'll feel when you actually put this beauty in motion.

The feel of the 310 hp. V-8 as you eat the road. The feel of Push-Button Torque-Flite that packs a silk-smooth 1-2 punch. The feel of Torsion-Aire Ride and Total Contact Brakes that give you a new mastery every driving situation.

And just imagine owning this Swept-Wing Dodge. The pride and pleasure you'll experience every time you take the wheel is something that simply can't be measured in dollars and cents.

So stop in at your Dodge dealer's and ask for the keys to a Swept-Wing Dodge. A few minutes behind the wheel will convince you: You have never seen, felt, owned anything like it!

It unleashes a hurricane of power. It breaks through the vibration barrier. It is swept-wing mastery of motion.

Haskell Members Give Program for Delta Kappa Gamma

Haskell members provided the program for members of Beta Chi chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma honorary society for women educators, when they met Saturday afternoon in the Homemaking Department of Munday high school in Munday. The chapter's members in Munday were hosts.

Mrs. Faye Woodson was leader of the symposium that discussed important work of the United Nations organizations. On the speaker's table had been placed, as a background, flags of the various member nations and other regalia interesting to study. To set the mood for the afternoon's study, Miss Madalin Hunt showed colored slides of the UN building, taken while she was in New York recently. Mrs. Norman Nanny opened the discussion with "What It Does and How It Works." Mrs. Wallace Cox gave an account of "Struggles of Equality of Peoples of All Nations." The concluding thoughts "Challenges on the Paths of Freedom" were given by Mrs. H. T. Wilkinson. The entire group sang America as a fitting close to a most thought-provoking lesson.

In the absence of the chapter's president, Mrs. Luther Burkett, Haskell, Mrs. E. R. Carpenter, second vice president from Knox City, presided for the business session. Reports were heard from Miss Hunt, chairman of the legislation; Mrs. Irene Ballard, Fellowship of Foreign Women; Mrs. Tom Russell, Research; Mrs. Philip Colehour, Service-World and Community; and Mrs. John P. Ward, Publications.

The group decided to join other chapters in saving discarded hose to be sent to Japanese women. Requests were also made for a contribution to a scholarship fund for Korean students and for magazines to be sent to foreign countries.

Mrs. Iva Palmer, former member from Haskell, was welcomed as a special guest. Mrs. Palmer, now a member of Alpha Chi, is connected with Burnett Public Schools. Mrs. Aubra Lee Thornton, the chapter's newest member, was also recognized.

Featuring a clever motif "January in June," the host group had placed on a reflector on the speaker's table a ceramic "lady" holding an arrangement of plush pink sweet peas and leaves.

Their refreshment table was covered with a cloth of net edged with glittering metallic braid and laid over pink linen cover. A small net umbrella upturned to show a myriad of small spring flowers. Flanking the crystal punch bowl was a "bride's" bouquet of frenched carnations in bluish pink from which cascaded ribbons in a slightly darker shade featuring lover's knots. Crystal and silver appointments were used. Iced punch, cookies and ribbon sandwiches were served.

Twenty-eight members and one guest attended from Weinert, Haskell, Knox City and Munday. Attending from Haskell were Mesdames Scott W. Greene, W. O. Holden, Norman Nanny, H. T. Wilkinson, Faye Woodson, Wallace Cox, and Miss Madalin Hunt. Attending from Weinert were Mesdames Ramon Liles, Fred Monke and C. T. Jones.

NEWS OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Slavic Composers Program Topic of Harmony Club

The Harmony Club met in the Homemaking Cottage Jan. 24 for a program on Slavic Composers, with Miss Beryl Boone as director.

Mrs. C. J. Robinson gave an interesting paper on the Life of Chopin and His Music, relating his loyalty to his country of Poland. He was of Polish and French ancestry, born near Warsaw in 1809 and died in 1849. He appeared in public at the age of 9, and at 19 he was already a finished pianist. In 1831 he went to Paris and liked the city so well that for the rest of his life Paris was his headquarters.

Chopin is inseparable from his music, which constitutes one of the most interesting psychological portraits in existence. Only in his music does he seem to live fully. He wrote scarcely anything but piano music. The generation that knew Chopin has passed away, but his music is more widely appreciated than ever before.

Mrs. O. E. Patterson rendered Chopin's Military Polonaise March, imparting Chopin's loyalty to military Poland.

Miss Boone gave a sketch of the Life of Anton Dvorak, a Bohemian composer of much feeling for his country. He was born in Bohemia in 1858 and died in 1904. In 1892 he became director of the National Conservatory of Music in New York.

Dvorak composed the well known symphony "From the New World," including the largo which shows his longing for his country and people. He became so absorbed with his study of folk music of the American Negro that he incorporated their themes in his symphony.

On Dec. 15, 1893, at Carnegie Hall his works were so moving that tears rolled down the cheeks of the audience. Never before or since has a great crowd been so profoundly moved by absolute music.

Mrs. J. F. Cadenhead, Sr., played one of Dvorak's best known compositions, "Humoresque," which showed the brighter side of his life in his compositions. The club sang as a chorus the great Latvian folk song, "My God and I."

The new officers elected for 1937-38 are: President—Mrs. Arthur C. Foster, Jr. First Vice President—Mrs. M. E. Helber. Recording Secretary—Mrs. C. J. Robinson. Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Tommie B. Hawkins. Treasurer—Mrs. Mart Clifton.

Hostesses were Mesdames Floyd Cook and Tannye Squyres, who served delicious hot punch and coffee cake to the following members: Mesdames O. E. Patterson, R. L. Harrison, C. J. Robinson, Tommie Hawkins, Virgil Meadors, Mart Clifton, M. E. Helber, J. F. Cadenhead, G. F. Mullino, Miss Beryl Boone.

MR. AND MRS. THOS. EUGENE LONG

Jo Iva Johnson and Thomas Eugene Long Repeat Vows in Double Ring Ceremony

Wedding vows were repeated by Jo Iva Johnson and Thomas Eugene Long in a double ring ceremony at 5 p. m. Sunday in the Haskell Church of Christ. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Johnson of Haskell and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Long of Kermit, Texas.

Officiating for the ceremony was Minister Hartell Johnson, brother of the bride and pastor of the church. Decorations at the church were baskets of white gladiolas and an arch covered with greenery.

Mrs. Bill Middlebrook of Colorado City was the bride's matron of honor, and Jimmy Long of Kermit was best man. Christy Kay Johnson of Chickasha, Okla., niece of the bride, was ring bearer.

Guy Pentico of Wink, Texas, and Loraine Johnson, brother of the bride, were candlelighters and ushers.

Wedding music preceding the ceremony was a solo, "O Promise Me" by Corone Corley, and "I Love You Truly" by a mixed chorus.

My New Year's Resolution "A Greater Happiness for Myself"

First, a correction of last week: "Josh Lee tells how happiness abounds in house, of sod, if the souls within live close to God."

Professor Frederick Starr, University of Chicago says: "The man who renders useful service is the happy man." "Hard work is the joy of life."

"One has said: I have fallen into the hands of thieves." "What then? They have left me the Sun and the Moon, fire, water, a loving wife, adoring children, friends, a cheerful spirit, a clear conscience. A man indeed, must be much in love with sorrow and peevishness to turn away from all these good things and sit down on his own little handful of thorns."

From Clarence Darrow, 72 years, one of the most able criminal lawyers of modern times, comes this road marker that we may well observe. Quoting from "IS LIFE WORTH LIVING?": Mr. Darrow says: "I believe that I have as little cause to complain as any person. I have lived a life that is approximately as good as nothing. Not quite, but somewhere near, and I will not be much better off when I am dead. But some." This expression of dependency is the wall of the "Man who has said in his heart, there is no God."

Admiral Richard E. Byrd, encamped in the shadow of the South Pole, his shack sitting on 800 feet of ice and completely covered in the snow, he sat in outer darkness, alone, completely isolated from any physical contact with the rest of the world. He suffered carbon monoxide poison. His vision was affected. He could not read. Quoting him, "soon my gloomy thoughts began to take charge of me. I found that somehow I must control them. Gradually with great effort I did. But these mental adventures were not enough. So I explored as best I could the uncharted areas of my mind. It was then that I found that a man himself determines or makes his own world. Which is the reflection of his inner self wherein dwells the universal spirit of good. It then seemed to me that if a man could bring about the domination of his spiritual self over his material, he could dry up the springs of fear, he could then be 'Captain of his own ship' and invulnerable to any fate. And so a man's problems in the last analysis is man himself. In complete isolation, for seven months I pondered these matters. The rescue party came. I returned to civilization, leaving the little shack at the Pole, but the spiritual discoveries have never left me." Let's sing "His eye is on the sparrow" with Adm. Richard Byrd.

More happiness to you, J. M. CRAWFORD

Graduates Urged To Investigate Teaching Career

Superintendent Jessie Vick of the Haskell School District today urged college graduates in this area to give serious consideration to opportunities available to them in the teaching profession. Supt. Vick explained that the need for teachers is especially critical in some areas of the State and that more than 2,000 persons have had to be assigned to teaching positions this year on the basis of emergency teaching permits.

"I especially want to call your attention to the state-wide teacher education courses now being presented over television," Supt. Vick said. "A person with a college degree can enroll in the Let's Teach television series and begin his preparation for teaching. Even though a teaching vacancy may not be available to you at the present time, credit for the Let's Teach series will enable you to qualify for an emergency teaching permit which will be valid from one to three years in any school district in Texas which has been unable to find enough fully-qualified teachers."

The state-wide Teachers Recruitment and Education by Television project is sponsored by the Texas Agency through the cooperation of local school and college officials, television stations, and with the assistance of a grant from the Fund for the Achievement of Education (Food Foundation).

Any person desiring complete information about the Let's Teach teacher recruitment series may inquire at the office of his local school superintendent.

Firemen Pick New Site for Storm Warning Siren

The fire alarm and storm warning siren which has been located in the Lindsey Addition in Northwest Haskell for the past two years, will be moved to a new location, members of the Fire Department, decided Monday night.

Operation of the warning unit has never been entirely satisfactory since it was installed at its present site, and it could never be depended upon when needed.

It will be moved to the extreme north part of town and installed at the Shook municipal water well. The alarm circuit will be arranged so that it can be sounded instantly when needed without the necessity of relaying a call over the telephone.

The siren will be used as a storm warning signal, supplementing the larger unit located at the City Hall fire station. It can also be used as a second fire alarm, if needed.

Returns from Visit In Baltimore, Md., With Son, Family

Mrs. Frank Spencer recently returned home after a six week visit in the home of her son and family, Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Spencer, Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. Spencer reports that her son and family are still beaming over the arrival of a son, born Dec. 25.

While in Baltimore, she watched her son perform a delicate heart operation, daldulotomy. Dr. Spencer is a surgeon at John Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore.

The operation affected the pulmonary artery of a 15 year old boy. The technique used was that of wrapping the patient in iced blankets until he could tolerate the stopping of the blood from 5 to 10 minutes. The entire operation takes several hours, but the work inside the heart itself, must be finished within ten minutes. The chest of the patient was opened on both sides. After two weeks in the hospital the boy was released and is recovering satisfactorily.

Mrs. Spencer stated: "One Sunday we went to Mount Vernon to see the home of George and Martha Washington, which is pretty and interesting. Washington's mansion occupies a beautiful site overlooking the Potomac River." On one corner of the estate is the tomb where George and Martha Washington are buried. Mrs. Spencer said, "The servant's quarters, kitchen, smokehouse and wine cellar, and stables are all very interesting."

Mrs. Spencer reported seeing several top motion pictures while in Baltimore. "I saw the Ten Commandments, Around the World in 80 Days, Fantasia and Giant," she said.

Currently, Dr. Spencer is doing considerable laboratory research work toward perfecting a plastic valve for use in heart surgery, the surgeon's mother reported.

LP Gas Cuts Farm Costs at Woodard Farm Sales

Friday,
February

Lower maintenance and operating costs are features of the Ford tractors which are factory-equipped with liquid petroleum (LP) gas engines. All 11 tractor models produced by the Ford Motor Company's Tractor and Implement Division now are available with the LP option in addition to gasoline models. These operated tractors are on display at the local Ford farm implement dealership. The new system, using propane or butane gas fuel, is of the liquid-withdrawal type. The hooded controls are located directly in front of the operator and can be reached from the seat.

Two important farm machinery developments are being announced by Ford Motor Company, according to H. V. Woodard at Woodard Farm Sales. For the first time in Ford's 40 year history of tractor production, liquid petroleum gas engines are being made available as a factory-installed option in all Ford tractor models, and three new optional front wheel arrangements for row crop tractors are also being introduced, Mr. Woodard said.

Citing an announcement by Irving A. Duffy, Ford vice president and general manager of its Tractor and Implement Division, Mr. Woodard said that the demand for LP gas tractors has been very rapid and extensive. The low maintenance and operating costs of these units are the main reasons for their increasing popularity, he said.

Feb. 15 Deadline For Farm Income Tax Reports

February 15, 1957 is the income tax report deadline for Texas farm and ranch families who did not file an estimate and payment before Jan. 15, 1957, warns C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist.

Farmers and ranchers should not overlook the fact that certain livestock sales made under the drought conditions needs not be reported in taxable income provided the animals are to be replaced within one year, says Bates. An extension of this 15-month provision may be obtained from the district director of Internal Revenue if drought conditions continue, he adds.

Bates says all operators with a "net farm profit" of $400 or more must file a return and pay a 1% social security tax whether any income tax is due or not. Operators with less than $400 net profit, but over $500 gross farm income may use two-thirds of their gross income for determining self-employment tax up to $1200, says the specialist.

Landlords are covered for self-employment benefits this year provided they "materially participate in the farm's operations," Bates points out. He says "material participation" may be determined either on the basis of annual physical work or through management decisions affecting farm and ranch production.

The Farmers 1956 Guide Bulletin provides information on tax credits and other deductions allowed farm operators. It is free from your county agent or the Internal Revenue staff. Also, suggests Bates, ask your county agent about a farm record book designed for income tax and social security purposes which is available for a small charge from the Exchange Store, College Station, Texas.

For '57 and the years ahead— FORD TRUCKS COST LESS

LESS TO OWN... LESS TO RUN... LAST LONGER TOO!

Golden Esso Extra

has the highest octane rating of any gasoline.

Modern cars, especially the 1957 models, have engines with very high compression ratios (9 to 1, and higher!).

These engines require a gasoline that's better than the best of "premium" gasolines, better than the "supers."

The one gasoline—the only one—that permits every high compression engine to deliver its full power output is Humble's Golden Esso Extra.

It is the world's finest automotive fuel... with the highest octane rating of any gasoline.

Protect the value of your automobile investment—use the gasoline that gives you added value from full performance. Fill up at the golden pump under your neighbor's Humble sign.

If you answer YES to ANY ONE of these questions, you should try Golden Esso Extra—world's finest gasoline.

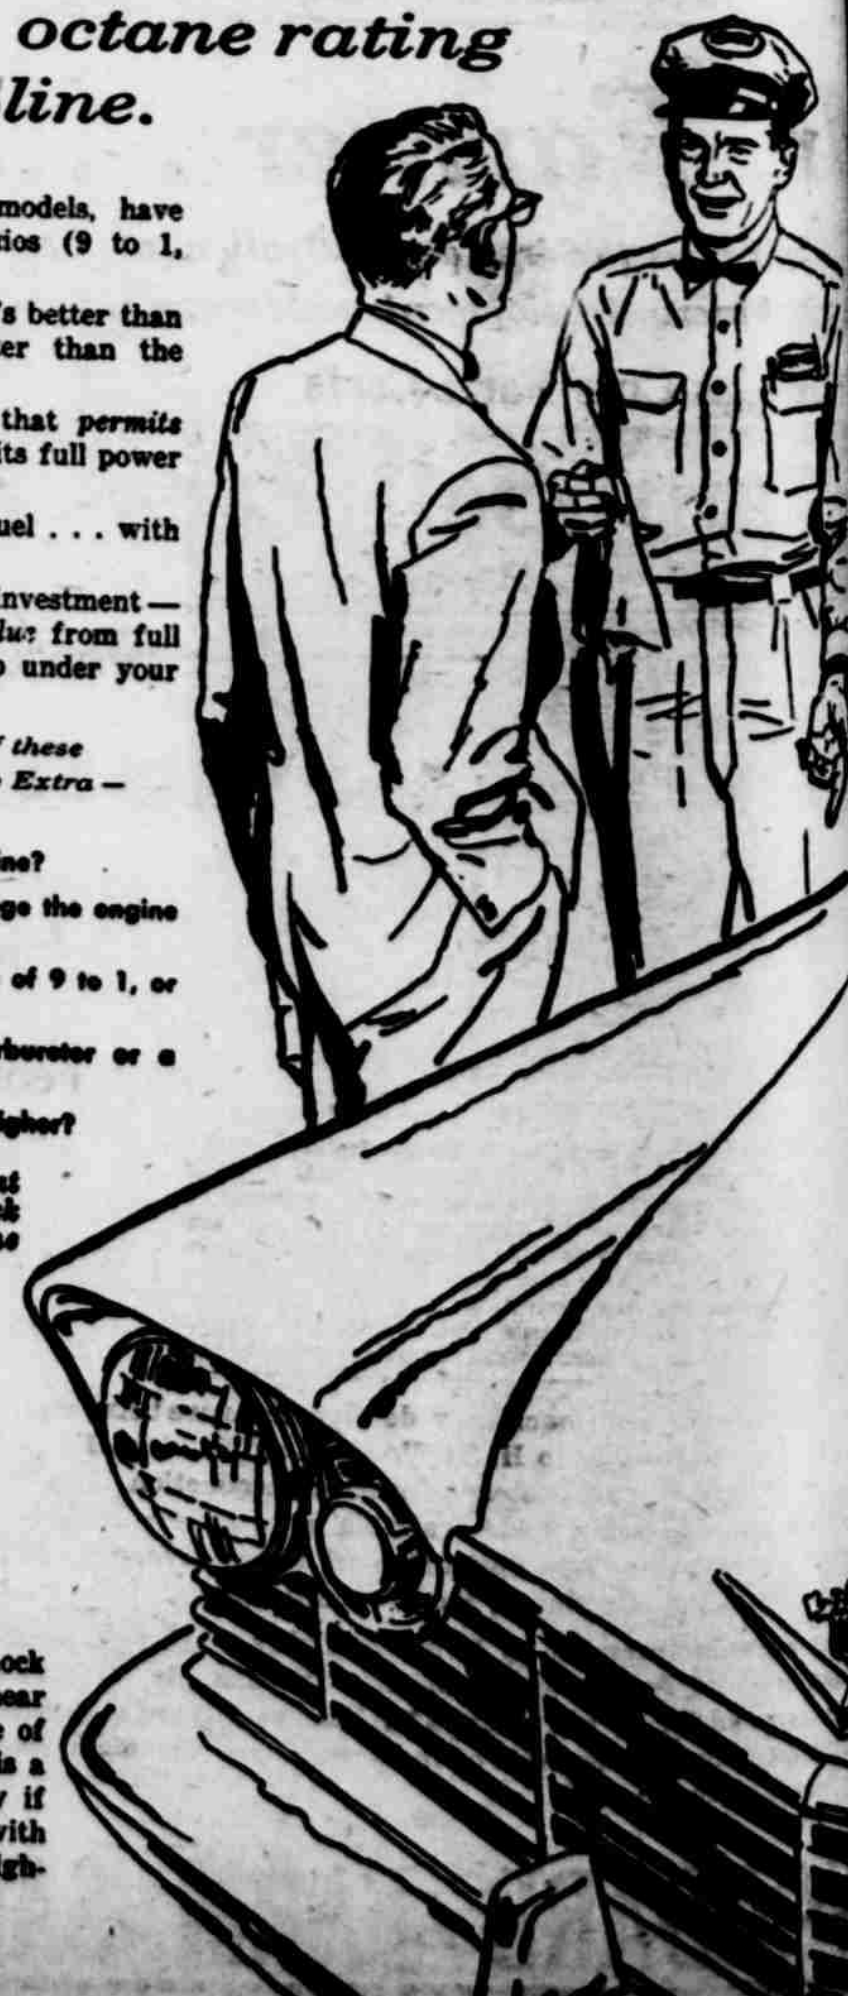

- Does your car knock on "premium" gasoline?
- Is your car air-conditioned? (On an average the engine pulls a 3-ton air conditioner.)
- Does the engine have a compression ratio of 9 to 1, or higher?
- Does your car have more than one carburetor or a "Power-Pack"?
- Is the engine rated at 200 horsepower or higher?

(These points become even more important as you add miles to a new car. Anti-knock requirements increase when you pass the break-in period.)

Don't let a "knock you can't hear" rob your car of power!

Engineers call it "trace knock," a knock so faint that only a trained technician can hear it. But like all knocks, it robs your engine of power, forecasts engine damage. If yours is a modern car in any price class—especially if it's a 1957 model—prevent "trace knock" with Golden Esso Extra, the gasoline with the highest octane rating ever.

Co-Captains Named For Fire Dept. Racing Teams

At the regular meeting of the fire department Monday night, Alton Middleton and Floyd (Satch) Lusk were appointed co-captains of the department's racing team. The group of eight or nine firemen composing the three teams will represent Haskell in contests held at district meetings and conventions.

Next convention at which Haskell teams will compete will be at Baird in April, the regular spring meeting of the Midwest Texas Firemen's Association. Lusk and Middleton announced that teams would begin a practice schedule March 1.

Columbia University is providing 10 scholarships for students who have had to flee Hungary.

There's A Fire! Where? Who Knows?

Fire caused minor damage to two nearby homes on Avenue A Wednesday and Thursday of last week and created no little confusion among the local firemen.

Firemen were called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Simms at 7:15 p. m. Wednesday when a faulty chimney flue caused a portion of the ceiling and roof of the house to catch fire.

Another call was received about 10 a. m. Thursday and firemen were advised that the Simms home was again aflame.

The fire trucks roared up to a very surprised Mr. Simms, busily engaged in repairing the roof of his home. "Why no," he said. "There must be a mistake. Some of the neighbors must have seen me working up here and called in."

While the disappointed volunteers wandered around looking lost, city fireman Floyd Lusk instructed Olen King to go on up the street and see if he could find a fire.

Sure enough, in a few minutes, King came a runnin' and awavin'. By George, he found a fire! The trucks roared off again, this time to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Clayton where they extinguished flames in a couch and curtain. Cause of the blaze was not determined.

The invitation was extended to the students by the Methodist Youth Fellowship, culminating a study of South East Asia. The two students traveled by bus from Abilene despite hazardous road conditions caused by ice and cold.

"Hey, Jeannie!" salutes the Camp Fire Girls on the episode airing Saturday night, Feb. 2, CBS-TV, Haskell Council of Camp Fire Girls invite the public to see the program on Channel 12, Sweetwater, at 8:30 p. m.
