Benjamin Receives Bicentennial Flag

min Bedford lent his name to this county seat and this center of cattlemen's activity, religious activity, and educational activity.

In early days it was the tracks of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient Railway that served this part of the United States and more recently it has been the trackage of the Santa Fe which helps to relocate your products. In 1969, Jack Barker proved that you people are dead serious about your youth as he demonstrated for the United States that you have good educational process in this place. Barker won the Regional Science Fair at Midwestern University and performed with great distinction at the International Science and Engineering Fair in Fort Worth. Presently this young man works in electronics research (secret missile research) for Texas Instruments in Dallas.

"All of these things, my good friends, just simply say that the attitude of this place is good. It is quite clear that many of the things that man does begins with proper attitude. Your leadership has determined that this place should be a Bicentennial Community in America and in just a moment, certainly, this very thing will be done. I bring the congratulations and best wishes of the Bicentennial Offices in Washington, in Austin, and in Arlington. J.R. Bisbee's committee has performed well.

Quota Exceeded In Bloodmobile Visit

Most persons are still concerned about others and this certainly was evident in Knox City last Wednesday afternoon when the Bloodmobile made its semi-annual visit. The largest turnout ever was recorded when 96 persons offered blood and eighty-seven pints were collected, exceeding the goal by five pints.

CSTE Needs Coordinator

As will be noted in an appearing in this week's edition, Brazos West Development Corporation is seeking a coordinator for its Conserted Services in Training and Education for the counties of Haskell, Knox, Jones, and Stonehall.

Applications will be taken for two weeks and any interested person is asked to contact J.B. Tabor, Knox City, Texas, telephone 817 658-3241 between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Mondays through Fridays.

In a meeting last week, Tabor was chosen to serve as chairman of C.S.T.E. with Charles Stenholm of Stamford as vice chairman, and R.C. Couch Jr. of Haskell as secretary.

The group met last Thursday with officials from Austin and new guidelines and priorities were set up. Prospecting for new industry within the four-county area will begin and brochures for the four counties are in the planning stage. These will be given to chambers of commerce and city offices for their use in promoting the area, Tabor said.

Mrs. Jan Watson, chairman, said the response was tremendous and expressed her thanks to everyone who donated and helped in any way.

Special donors included seven gallon donor, R.P. Barnard, and one gallon donors, Barbara Barnard, Kathleen Melton, Jessie Roberts, Aliene Groves, and W.C. Orr.

Professional volunteers included Mable Chaney, Charlotte Horne, Hazel Tankersley, Ruth McElroy, Maureen Reeder, Wretha Fitzgerald, and Emma Watkins.

Canteen volunteers were Kay Johnston, Peggy Grindstaff, Lillian Hester, Tami Grindstaff, Cindy Elliston, and Diana Leach.

Volunteer workers were Jane Arledge, Shari Shelton, Sarah McGaughey, Marion Perdue, Faye Reed, Mavis Lowrey, Melinda Hewitt, Barbara Howell, Margie Clonts, Jamie Clonts, Laura Clonts, and Joyce Crownover.

Assisting with the loading and unloading duties were Jim Anderson, Joe M. Clonts, and Mark Clonts.

Mrs. Watson stated that enough blood was donated to replace what Lynn Holmes had needed and that Doak Graham contacted the youth to donate blood.

Equitable Means Of Taxation Are Sought For Rural Schools

More than 400 individuals representing every county in the 30th Senatorial District gathered in the Munday School Cafeteria Friday night for an organizational meeting of citizens to represent rural schools and rural ad valorem property taxpayers in future sessions of the Texas legislature.

A steering committee with eighty-nine representatives will formally organize at 10 a.m. September 3, at Munday.

The controversy surrounded Texas House Bill 1126, which cleared the legislature in the last days of the 64th legislative session, making a major structural change in the ad valorem tax for public school financing. The result was a change from 80 per cent state and 20 per cent local to 60 per cent state and 40 per cent local, effective the upcoming school year.

W.R. Baker, Knox City School superintendent, explained that under the new state law, property taxpayers of Texas will be required to raise an additional $400 million plus to finance their local school district's share of the Foundation Program during the next two years.

Speaker of the House Bill Clayton said Texas ad valorem property tax may be on the way out and unless an equitable way to assess the tax can be found, some other method will have to be devised to raise money for the state's schools.

Clayton also said that within two weeks he will name an interim committee to study school finance. The panel will be comprised of members from several committees already dealing with the issue.

A strong lobby, Baker stated, is an essential part of government and said as much as $100,000 might be needed See TAXATION Pg. 5

Baker, along with Douglas Myers, superintendent of Munday schools, dragged out the cold, hard facts for the group. They cited escalating costs in every area and observed that school districts will be paying for more under the new state law.

Truscott Jamboree To Include Bicentennial Recognition Saturday

Truscott is getting ready for another big country music program Saturday night, August 2, under the sponsorship of the Truscott Community Center Association.

The musical program will begin at 7 p.m., then at 8 p.m. a brief patriotic program will be presented in honor of Truscott's being named a Bi-Centennial city. After that the music will continue until midnight.

The community's scrapbook which helped win second place in the district Community Improvement contest will be on display Saturday night.

Several hundred are expected at this third first Saturday musical of the summer. The country and western music programs began last year and are held May through August. Visiting is featured as much as the music and the friendly family atmosphere is reminiscent of a country town Saturday night in the 1930's. This has given rise to the use of the "Country Town Saturday Night" tag in advertising the Truscott jamboree.

The August program drew the biggest crowd of the year in 1974 and Truscott residents are hoping for an even bigger crowd this year. Benches and folding chairs are provided for early arrivals, but last year many regular visitors began to bring lawn chairs to be sure of a seat. The musical program is provided by local and area musicians and singers and is entirely free. Profits from the concession stand are used to help pay the mortgage for re-modeling the old drug store into a community center and to maintain the center which is used for recreational purposes almost daily by Truscott and Gilliland youth, residents, and their guests. A hot water heater and football table are the most recently purchased additions for the center. Earlier in the summer an area rug was donated for the recreation room by an unknown donor.

Area Accident Fatal to One

Two men were injured Saturday night in a head-on automobile crash three miles north of Weinert.

The crash occurred between 6:45 and 7:00 p.m. on highway U.S. 277.

Don W. Brookman, 46, of Wichita Falls and H.L. Guess, 20, of Weinert were rushed to the Knox County Hospital and later transferred to Wichita General Hospital in Wichita Falls where Brookman died later and Guess remains in critical condition.

Brookman was driving a pickup and apparently was moving south when the collision occurred, an officer on the scene said. A late model car driven by the youth was moving north toward Munday, he said.

KC Area Receives Rare July Rains

The rains, which began falling here Saturday, July 19, and continued intermittently until Saturday night, July 26, are most unusual for our area this time of year but were most welcome.

The moisture halted most irrigation wells, and other farm activities are beginning to resume.

According to Stanton Brown, manager of the League Ranch located midway between Knox City and Benjamin, they have received two to five inches of rain. Lee Smith, who resides west of town has received 4.3 inches.

Other area amounts range from two to seven inches with water over the road in many places on the farm-to-market road to Haskell.

North of our area near Vernon up to 15 inches were recorded last weekend with road blocks on several highways.

The rains also kept temperatures down to a pleasant range until the past few days when it began to warm up to July weather again.

Student Trainees Visit P.M.C.

Visitors at the Plant Materials Center near Knox City last week included a group of Soil Conservation Service student trainees. The students, who are employed for the summer at SCS offices throughout Texas, were on a one week tour of the state to become familiar with conservation problems facing the SCS in Texas.

Scheduled stops were made at several locations to take a look at some of the practices being applied to solve these problems.

Upon completion of their summer employment, the trainees will return to their respective colleges and universities to continue their education.

The group was accompanied by John W. Arnn, State Resource Conservationist and Harlen C. Johnston, Personnel Management Specialist, both of Temple.

Nancy's Notes

BY NANCY FUHRKEN
Ass't County Agent

HOME CANNING JAR LIDS NEED CORRECT SEAL

Using the two piece home canning jar lids and rings can be tricky.

It's important to follow manufacturers' instructions for tightening since some brands differ in method.

To use these kinds of closures, the compound on the lid is usually softened by letting the lids sit for a few minutes in hot water. This helps soften the compound to assure a good seal.

Then the lid is placed on the jar with the sealing compound against the glass. When the band is screwed tight, but not with undue force, the lid has enough 'give' to let air escape or 'vent' during processing. This makes a vacuum form.

The screw band shouldn't be tightened further after processing.

Consumers should test the seal 12-24 hours after canning, or when the jars have cooled completely. If the lid stays down when pressed and doesn't move up and down, the jar is sealed.

Bands can then be removed for use in other processing.

Accidents Investigated

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated three accidents on rural highways in Knox County during the month of June, 1975, according to Sergeant J.W. Garger, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in no persons killed and no persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first six months of 1975 shows a total of 30 accidents resulting in no persons killed and eight persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region for June, 1975, shows a total of 572 accidents resulting in 25 persons killed and 355 persons injured as compared to June, 1974 with 466 accidents resulting in 19 persons killed and 261 persons injured. This was 106 more accidents, six more killed, and 94 more injured in 1975 at the same period of time.

The 25 traffic deaths for the month of June, 1975, occurred in the following counties: one each in Clay, Floyd, Garza, Wichita, Young, Armstrong, Childress, Collingsworth, Donley, Hardeman, Randall, and Roberts; Two each in Carson, Cochran, and Lamb; and seven in Lubbock.

"He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good, and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?" (Micha 6:8)

To do this you must first let God be Lord of your life. You must love the Lord thy God with all your heart, your mind, your soul and your body. When you do this you are protected by the power of God, a wall of fire is around you. Nothing can harm you as long as you have continued, unbroken fellowship with thy God. He will fill you with his great, powerful love and understanding. You can lie down in safety and sleep the sweet sleep of his peace, even in the midst of trials, loneliness. You will have the peace of God in your soul that passeth the understanding of man. He loves you with his everlasting, compassionate love, because he made you to be a prince with God, or a princess whichever. For His power can make you what you ought to be. Wilcox-Sklower Vows Exchanged

Linda Wilcox became the bride of Max Sklower Saturday evening, July 5, at the home of the bridegroom in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

The setting for the wedding was in the flower garden near the pool which contained floating flowers. Vows were exchanged under an arch covered with fresh flowers. Dr. Wilfred Sawyer performed the double-ring ceremony.

"It was a good omen when, in August of 1884, lumber was hauled from my town to this site to build 12 houses to be nurtured into homes for your pioneering families. It was a good omen when County Judge Sam Clonts and Mayor Vernon McCannies were elected according to the due processes of the law, for with them and their leadership came a bit of progressive forward motion enabling this action presently taking place to take place. It is good that you have such fine teachers and such fine school administrators—Superintendent Kenneth Roberts and Principal S.L. About Your Social Security

The social security status of persons employed by individuals to sit with the elderly or ill at home or in the hospital or nursing home is a question frequently asked social security representatives. This can be very important to the person hired because coverage under social security is affected.

The general rule is that such employment is covered under social security. In the case of a registered nurse or licensed vocational nurse, this work may be considered self employment, and the social security tax is paid by the worker with their tax return at the end of the year. However, most sitters are not RNs or LVNs. They are frequently referred to as practical nurses. These workers are employees of the person who hires them, and the social security tax must be withheld and reported quarterly by the employer. Failure to do so may lead to penalty and additional costs to the employer.

Further information may be obtained by contacting a social security representative.

KC Couple Attends Canadian Trailer Rally

BRANDON, Manitoba—Joe and Ada Maye Averitt of Knox City were among the record-breaking 4,209 travel trailer families attending the 18th International Rally of the Wally Byam Caravan Club here June 28 through July 4.

Following the rally, the Averitts took some side trips through the northern states on their way home. Mr. Averitt is a retired banking executive.

The Wally Byam Caravan Club's 18th International Rally was the largest such social event ever held in the Western Hemisphere and the largest gathering of single make (Airstream) trailers held throughout the world.

Trailerists attending the rally represented local units of the WBCCI scattered throughout the hemisphere. There was a trailer from every state in the Union, including Alaska, every province of Canada, and parts of Mexico. This was the first such rally held in Canada.

The presence of 4,209 travel trailer families at this year's rally was an important reassurance to members of the Wally Byam Caravan Club. A persistence of gasoline uncertainty in the United States, plus the rising cost of such fuel internationally led some to think that the WBCCI's get-togethers would lose some of their glamour.

Leader of this year's travel trailer rally in Canada was W. Bruce MacLean of Toronto. He will be succeeded this year by Max Connert of Newton, Mississippi. Next year's WBCCI International Rally will return to the United States, this time to Louisville, Kentucky.

This year's trailer rally was in every way a grand event, the product of virtually a whole year of advance planning and preparation by the club's officers. Under their direction more than a hundred committees of volunteer workers in the Caravan Club helped construct a kind of "instant city" of 4,209 "homes."

Most of these homes formed straight, even lines and criss-crossing avenues and streets in the Keystone Centre, a large open park in Brandon. But long before the late comers arrived, the trailerers were distributed among smaller parks throughout the entire city. For the Caravanners, members of the WBCCI, and most of the city this was an unusual, but fun event.

Primary activities of the WBCCI's 18th International started at 10:00 a.m., Saturday, June 28 with official Opening Day ceremonies. Masses of flags and flag bearers, a band, many dignitaries and some 4,000 families sitting in their chairs—all make this an impressive ceremony.

Officially, the Caravanners were welcomed to Canada by Edward Schreyer, premier of Manitoba, and Elwood Gorie, mayor of Brandon. The Canadians were joined internationally by Arthur A. Link, governor of the neighboring state North Dakota.

Following the opening ceremony, the Wally Byam Caravan Club settled down to its traditional good-times, their general out-lines having been perfected during the past 17 years.

Just a few of the activities included daily talent shows, exhibitions of arts and crafts, hobby displays, bridge and golf tournaments, evening dances of several kinds, many workshop sessions for the club's local officers, lecture programs and religious services.

One popular activity which took place each day was the systematic selection of a "Teen Queen," the daughter of grand-daughter of one of the WBCCI members who would represent the club this year.

This time the club picked Miss Barbara Stump, grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rexford Pfeifer of Midwest City, Oklahoma.

On July 4 the 18th International reached its regular climax via a spectacular parade of locally assembled floats, marching groups and equestrian sets. This year in Canada, the club emphasized the second most important occasion for Fourth of July ceremony: the birthday of Wally Byam. Byam was the founder of Airstream, the company that manufactured their trailers, and personally devised and led many of the trailer activities which have been so important in their lives.

SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE Bill Clayton, left, arrived at Knox City Municipal Airport last Friday afternoon en route to Munday where local officials joined with other county entities in hosting an organizational meeting of citizens to represent rural schools. On hand to meet the speaker was Representative W.S. (Bill) Heatly of Paducah, along with other local dignitaries.

to support an effective voice. Rep. W.S. (Bill) Heatly of Paducah who furnished the barbecue for the meeting, said, "We have won a battle for two years, but the war is yet to come."

State Senator Ray Farabee of Wichita Falls who fought for the crucial "save harmless" clause in the Senate, said school financing is the most important issue facing the state.

He said the problem can never be fully resolved because the state is so diverse.

Farabee added that the financing matter is too important to wait. "We can't afford to leave politics to those who go out and run for office. We have to organize to make better legislation."

The organizers' reasoning is that while only 27 per cent of the state's resources are in real property, about 85 per cent of the tax burden is on real property. More than 80 per cent of the state's real property is located in rural areas.

At the meeting were representatives and officials from 61 school districts including judges, superintendents, board members and county commissioners.

Reports of similar action at Junction and Brenham have been received.

Other state leaders taking a part Friday night were State Senator Kent Hense of Lubbock; Buck Douglas, executive director of the Texas Association of Counties; Judge Raymon Thompson, president of the Texas County Commissioners Association; and Judge Judson Balch of the 50th District, including Baylor, Cottle, King and Knox Counties.

Clayton; and Kenneth Wyatt, a curator of western art. Seven county agents will be recognized as winners of the Distinguished Service Award and one as winner of the National Achievement Award. Six outstanding agricultural leaders will each be honored as a "Man of the Year in Texas Agriculture."

Direct Deposit Program Available in Knox City

Persons who live in Texas and 22 other states west of the Mississippi River are getting a special opportunity to have their monthly social security and supplemental security income checks deposited directly in their checking or savings accounts, according to Carl R. Beisner of the Vernon social security office. The service is available in Knox City through the Citizens State Bank.

"The direct deposit program is entirely voluntary," Mr. Beisner said. "Persons who want their social security and supplemental security income checks to continue coming to their homes shouldn't do anything. Their checks will keep on coming as in the past."

"But those who want their checks mailed to a bank, savings bank, savings and loan association or similar institution or a Federal or State chartered credit union can arrange for it with a direct deposit authorization form," he said.

Direct deposit information is being mailed with checks that will be delivered in August to persons who get monthly social security or supplemental security income payments. The direct deposit authorization form—SF-1199—is available at financial organizations.

"Completion of the form does not permit withdrawals from your account by anyone other than persons you authorize," Mr. Beisner said.

Persons whose checks are already being mailed to a financial organization should also make direct deposit arrangements with the SF-1199 form. The direct deposit program will help prevent loss and theft of social security and supplemental security income checks and will eliminate standing in line to cash or deposit them, according to Mr. Beisner.

The direct deposit option is also being offered to persons getting social security and supplemental security income checks in Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Hawaii, Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming. "The program will be extended to other States in the next few months," Mr. Beisner said.

Social security pays monthly retirement, disability, and survivors benefits to eligible workers and their families.

If you're from Texas, boast about the little things too.

Everyone knows that things in Texas are "bigger and better" than anywhere else. But has anyone ever heard a Texan boast about something smaller? We mean natural gas rates.

Right now in Lone Star's service area, our customers are paying one of the lowest general service rates for natural gas anywhere. And in these inflationary times, that's something to boast about.

Of course we're lucky to be living in the Southwest, where the majority of natural gas reserves are located. And that's one of the reasons for our dependable service and adequate supplies. So you wonder, "If natural gas is so accessible to us, why are gas rates going up?"

It's simply costing much more to obtain natural gas these days. Higher prices for deeper drilling. Higher prices for the transportation of gas. And stiffer competition for new supplies.

Natural gas is a premium fuel, but it hasn't always been priced at its real value. Lower prices in the past are one of the reasons that demand for natural gas has exceeded available supplies. Some years ago it became unprofitable to drill for natural gas, so many producers were forced to reduce their investments in exploration. But now that natural gas is almost priced competitively with other energy sources, exploration has begun to increase.

In order to assure our customers of an adequate supply to meet their needs, higher natural gas rates are inevitable. It's simply going to cost more than it has in the past. But it's worth it, because natural gas is one of the most efficient, non-polluting fuels available. And that's one of the big things in Texas we like to boast about.

Remember When You Were Young

JUNE 14, 1929 [excerpt]
Miss Marjorie Frizzell was married Saturday morning, June 8th to Roy Baker, of Rochester.

Master Toni Paul Frizzell, 3rd, dressed in a white satin suit carried the ring in a lily, preceding the bridegroom and his best man Bonner Baker.

Little Martha Jane Jones wearing green georgette dress and Lubeeth Perry in an orchid georgette were flower girls and carried wicker baskets of pink and white roses.

The bride was radiantly lovely in an original model of Pouit de Spere wearing long tightly fitting sleeves and bodice with a full skirt carrying the graceful Robe de Style uneven line, the gown draped over exquisite white bride's satin. The cap was a model of real Duchesse lace, the tulle veil was draped closely about the forehead, caught over the ears by a caboshon of orange blossoms.

After the ceremony while Mendelssohn's March was played the bride and groom led the way to the dining room followed by their party where breakfast was served.

Immediately after the breakfast an auto trip was made to Midland, where they took the train to El Paso, Juarez and other points west.

Mrs. Baker's traveling suit was a very chic ensemble of black Kashudums contracting with a blouse of canary crepe, the hip length jacket accented the smartness of costume and a black felt hat.

Tokyo Bay
September 3, 1945
Dear Mother,
The war is now officially over and I was really ready. This waiting around for something to happen doesn't go well with me. It was really a big affair. We had the high officials from all the Allied Nations on board the ship.
The signing didn't take very long. General MacArthur didn't mess around with the Japs at all. When they left the ship they all looked pretty low. Guess they went back to Tokyo and committed harikari. That's too good for them.

They had thousands of planes in the air at the time of the signing and it was really a pretty sight. Lots of them were B-29's and the Navy had their carrier planes up. I wish you could have seen it.
I am doing just fine.
Love,
Herman

Former Resident Is Named Awards Judge

The National Council of Teachers of English announced the appointment of Mrs. Wanda D. LeMoine, Midway High School, Waco, as a regional judge for the 1975 NCTE Achievement Awards in Writing Program.

Mrs. LeMoine, the former Wanda Carol Denton, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jobie Denton of Knox City.

Through this nationally recognized competition, now in its eighteenth year, approximately 800 high school seniors are cited for excellence in writing and are recommended to colleges and universities for admission and for financial aid, if needed. The NCTE also honors teachers and schools that have participated in the training of these young men and women. Seven thousand students have been nominated for NCTE Awards in 1975. Results of the contest are announced in October of each year.

Students are nominated for Achievement Awards in Writing by their high school English departments and are chosen for Awards by state judging committees. (Each nominee submits an impromptu theme and a sample of his or her best writing to be judged.) The regional judging committees are composed of both high school and college teachers of English who work under the direction of state coordinators.

The National Council of Teachers of English is a professional organization of individual and institutional members at all levels of instruction. Its goal is to increase the effectiveness of the teaching of English language and literature in the nation's schools and colleges. NCTE furnishes such training aids as books and recordings, and publishes several professional journals, among them "College English" and "English Journal."
