Revival Meeting Continues

The two revival meetings in progress here for this and the past week will both continue through Sunday. That in progress at the First Christian church is being well attended by members of all the various churches of the town as well as by people who profess no christianity. Brother Smith has identified himself as a real Bible student, one capable of explaining the scripture and in an understandable way.

A Bible class has been conducted each evening this week prior to the preaching service. In this respect the adults of the city have not shown themselves as being eager for information like the childhood of the city has. The attendance in the Bible class has been good, increasing during the week; however, it has been nothing in comparison with the number of children in the Daily Vacation Bible School.

The Herald stated last week that the attendance in the Vacation Bible School was around 50. This is erroneous, the attendance has been around 80. Miss Tillie Smith, sister of the Evangelist, has done excellent work in the Bible school. It is the good fortune of the parents of Knox City that Miss Smith has been with us during this and the past week.

Following the service Sunday night Brother Smith baptized two young ladies. They were Misses Mildred Stevenson and Mary Hope Newsum. This Revival will continue through Sunday. Everyone is cordially welcome to all services.

Nazarene Service Continue

Revival services at the Nazarene church are continuing through Sunday. These services have also been well attended and the membership of the church and the evangelist welcome anyone who wishes to attend the services.

O'BRIEN REVIVAL IN PROGRESS

Brother Pike of Rochester, assisted by Brother Sharp of Knox City began a Revival meeting at O'Brien last Friday evening. The services are being well attended.

Reports come to the Herald office this week that the Revival meeting which closed last week in Rule in the Methodist church resulted in 194 conversions. Brother Cochran, general evangelist of the Methodist Church South, held the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Weaver of Wellington were here Tuesday to see his sister Mrs. C. B. Stovall. The Weaver family were in route to Goltwaite to visit other relatives. Mrs. Stovall and Miss Clois joined them to return to Knox City the latter part of the week.

It is with a depth of feeling that we express our appreciation to our many friends in the death and burial of our husband and father. May God's richest blessings be yours.

THE BASE BALL COLLECTION
 Knox City has a pretty good ball team. The boys play a clean game and play hard to win. No one receives a salary for his playing, each plays for the entertainment therein and for the entertainment to the public. This gives the public wholesome amusement that it would not have were it not for the fact that Knox City does have a good bunch of clean sorts.
 There is never a charge for seeing a ball game in Knox City. However, occasionally a committee is asked to pass the hat that a free willing offering may be collected for the purpose of buying balls. Considering the fact that all the players give freely of their time and talent in furnishing the public the amusement of the games, it is only fair that the public show at least appreciation enough to buy the balls needed for the games. It is for necessary ball equipment that the free will offering is taken.
 And do you know? There are men, families or whoever you choose to list them, who will drive down to the ball park in a nice car and spend the entire afternoon and find it impossible to slip in a dime. Don't mistake us, we know that it is perfectly all right for any and all men and fam-lies to do this, that is, see the game without seeing free will offering but when it passes; however, we are also of the opinion that any man or family who is farming or employed any way and can drive a car and come in to see the game, we believe that he can dig up a dime for the benefit of "ball playing".

If you don't think the game is worth a dime after driving in to see it, then just come on and enjoy it at the expense of some one else.

Everyone is welcome to all games, in fact the boys are glad to have you there. Are you glad to get to go there?

Boquets for the Living

One of the sweetest expressions of appreciation that has ever been our good fortune to receive was one that came to our address last week.

It certainly seems fitting that if we have a bouquet to give that we do give it while our victor is yet able to appreciate our mindfulness. Words of approval spoken or given by our fellowmen is next to that approval given by our creator and is the manna that sustains the physical body to continue in the way.

We deem it our privilege not to reveal the situation that called forth this bit of approval and appreciation; however it is with pride that we state the same came from the pen of Mrs. Roy Lanter. Thank you Mrs. Lanter, very much.

Mrs. H. B. Sweeney

We are glad to have G. T. Hardberger send the Herald to Mr. and Mrs. Darnell in New Mexico. He subscribed for one year for the Darnell family. (As a matter of fact, we are of the opinion that Hardberger is trying to get out of a bit of letter writing, knowing of course that the Herald carries all the news all the time.)

A LETTER FROM RUSSIA

The following letter from Russia appeared in the Sublette Monitor last week, giving some idea of the Reds. It was written to the father of Anna Malovach, of Haskell county, who interpreted the letter and put it into English for the History class of the Sublette High School.

Dear Brother:
 I work at Korson and lunch at the co-operative restaurant. I am allowed 1 2-4 pounds of bread per day, some soup and sometimes water with potatoes in it but rarely. A plate of soup consists of about two tablespoons.

I live (as we say) half in horror but some live still worse. We have no fruit whatever. Drought has killed everything, famine is expected. The potatoes grow to be no larger than the size of a sparrow egg. Our land is divided thus: every person is allowed 7 parts, one of these parts is used for a winter crop, another for spring crop, and the rest (5 parts) lie idle. We work with tractors but when they break no repairs can be obtained for them. We have very few horses left and those that are left are for meat. We have no cats and no one knows what is to be expected.

Although I do work in co-operation but I pay $1 out of every $10 and so therefore have the privilege to buy from them. My wife is not able to work because she has two little children to care for so she cannot buy anything and I have to buy everything for her. She is allowed one-fourth pound of bread per day. My daughter works so she is given 1-2 pound per day for her work and when she doesn't work she starves. Harvest that can be gathered in one and one-half weeks is drawn out to last about 30 days.

Monday when I went to work at Korson I left my family without food. When I returned a week later they were still living. From my weeks wage I was able to purchase 40 pounds of rye flour, but if the government would find this out they would send both the man who sold the flour to me and myself to Siberia. It cost me $20, all my weeks wage.

Those who work in co-operation are given neither clothes nor money I have a pair of old boots and also my wife, but the children have none. In summer we go barefooted. There is very much vodka whiskey here. It is $3.50 per quart. If you can and it won't be a hardship for you, please send me 20 pounds of flour. I am still living but that is all I don't know what to expect of the future. We have no horses and cows in the village, no animals of any kind.

Boots cost $50 to $100 per pair. In the past it used to be body, soul and passport but now it is body soul and look for work, groceries, for trade etc. and everyone must pay his share into co-operation of $9 annually and a $10 tax annually.

Chickens cost $10 each and if you have more than two the government will take them.

Everything but horses have been burned. People are very scarce of clothing. Many go nearly naked during the summer, and I don't know what will be done in winter.

Money cannot buy paper and envelopes—Alexander
 —The Jacksonian, Cimarron, Kan.

WHO IS THE SANTA CLAUS?

A lot of people have come to look upon Uncle Sam as a financial Santa Claus.

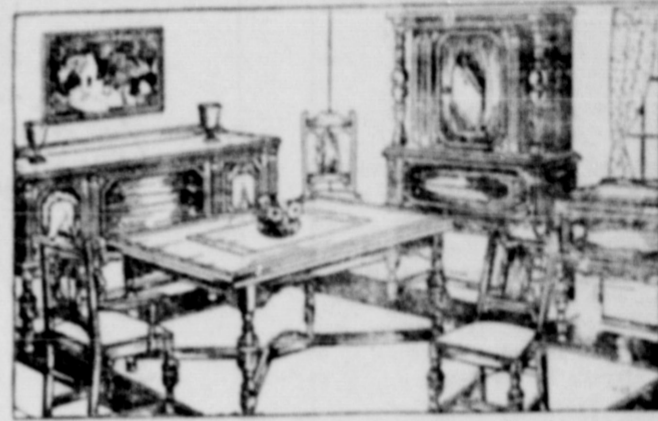

They forget that every dollar that he gives to his children has to first be taken away from those children in the form of taxes. It is just beginning to percolate into the people's minds that the $2,300,000,000 public works program is going to have to be taken from them, the taxpayers.

Every community is clamoring for a share of this fund and although the government gives 30 per cent of sums allotted to projects which it approves, the remaining 70 per cent must be returned by additional tax levies in every political sub-division obtaining a loan. The 30 per cent is given outright must be dug up by all the people for the favored section to which it is given. The public-works program, which has been passed as an emergency measure in time of stress, must of necessity increase the burden of the taxpayers, unless way and means are found to cut government costs in some manner, sufficiently to off-set this new expense.

It is well for the people to begin to understand that each citizen is a separate Santa Claus, who pays for every "gift" presented to him by his government.

ations," he continues. The only consolidation the Administration has announced is that of the agricultural credit agencies in the Farm Credit Administration. As a permanent solution this arrangement is too closely bound up with politics.

A better scheme would be to create a finance corporation under Federal charter to take over either the agricultural finance activities of the Government or all its lending agencies.

The Government's financing and banking activities should be kept severally apart from subsidy and other schemes for raising the price of farm products. One is business the other is major political policy. The advantages of the corporation over bureau control for the business functions are real and significant.

HISTORY CAN REPEAT ITSELF

In 1860 the Federal government cost the average citizen $2.08 per year.

In 1921 the cost of government for all units was $107.37 per capita.

In 1912 the total cost of government was $2,500,000,000, and in 1921 it was $14,000,000,000.

In 1925—a year of inflated prosperity—the total tax of the American people amounted to 16 per cent of our income.

In 1921—a year of black depression—it amounted to 28 per cent.

The current year may be the most expensive in our history, with the exception of the war period.

How much of the increase in the cost of government, federal, state and local, can be left to waste, is problematical but there is no question that it runs into the hundreds of millions, for there are scores of bureaus, commissions and inflated governmental payrolls, many of which simply duplicate the work of others.

We have permitted the government to go into various tax-exempt business ventures in competition with the livelihoods of private citizens who are forced to pay the taxes to maintain the competition.

More and more money is going into tax-exempt government bonds instead of taxable labor employing investments. The result is increased unemployment and distress.

History shows many examples of taxing a people until they repudiate tax obligations. Unless all units of government retrench, it is not impossible to force such a tax crisis on our own country.

EXPRESSION OF APPRECIATION

We have been in a great campaign in the Revival at the Christian church with people of all churches co-operating except those in other revivals. We could not have expected more, nor could we have expected a more courteous treatment than we have been accorded. Everyone in the town has been kind to us.

The Methodist church voted officially to co-operate in the Daily Vacation Bible School now being held in their Church Building in connection with the Revival. Members of the Baptist church also were on the faculty. The school will have a big closing exercise on Monday evening after the revival closes Sunday.

Henry Ford Dearborn, Mich. IN ANSWER TO A LADY'S LETTER A lady writes to say that she does not understand why an 8-cylinder car does not cost more to run than a car with fewer cylinders. She refers to my statement that our Ford V-8 develops more power on a gallon of gas than any car we have made. The use of 8-cylinders does not mean the addition of two or four extra fuel consumers. It is not, for example, a 4-cylinder engine multiplied by two. Our 8-cylinder engine takes the fuel supply of an ordinary 4-cylinder engine and divides it eight ways. And why? By reducing four larger explosions into eight smaller ones, we get engine smoothness and quietness. Eight-cylinders indicate the way the gas is used, not the amount. It is just the difference between going upstairs in four long jumps or in eight ordinary steps. Two things use up gas—bad engine design and useless car weight. Besides having an engine that gets a high percentage of power out of the fuel, the Ford V-8 has a light, strong body and chassis so that no power is wasted in moving excess weight. The only extravagance about the new Ford V-8 engine is in the building of it. The extravagance is ours—the economy is yours. The whole question of car economy needs clearing up. An economical car gives economy all round. Price, operation, upkeep, all play their part. If what you save on gas you lose elsewhere, that is not economy. As to upkeep, our dealers say that in recent years the improved quality of Ford cars has cut down their repair business 50 per cent. As to price with quality,—judge for yourself. As to economy, here is the record of a stock car three weeks out of shop in Oklahoma: On a run of 10,054 miles at the rate of 1,000 miles a day—the Ford V-8 gave 18.8 miles per gallon of gas. Not a drop of water was added to the radiator. The oil was changed once in 1,000 miles. That should answer a lot of questions. July 24th, 1933 Henry Ford

WARNING FROM O. B. MARTIN DIRECTOR COLLEGE STATION

Warning cotton farmers against plunging their cotton acres retired in the acreage reduction campaign into new and unusual summer and fall crops. O. B. Martin, director of the Texas Extension Service outlines a general four-fold plan for re-vamping farm systems to fit the new situation acreage reduction has forced upon Texas. Texas safest, surest and most profitable uses for the land have been demonstrated over and over again in almost every community in Texas, he says. "The Extension Service offers nothing startling and magical as a general guide to farmers at this time, but the same plan that has brought success to many farmers in the past and which is now a logical necessity."

"The first part of the next step ahead for Texas cotton farmers is using 25 acres of land, more or less, and with proper livestock and equipment making most of the family food and feed requirements at home. This is what saved us in the last three years and its continuation will make us money in the better years I think are ahead. The immediate need in Texas is for quick feed and pasture crops."

"The second part of the step ahead is closely linked with the first. Living at home these last few years naturally gave surpluses of farm and home manufacture for sale. It meant farm income and it will continue to give extra income. The home pot sort of belted over surpluses of ham and bacon and cheese and syrup and leather goods and the like, which could be sold."

"The third part of the step is to farm the remaining acres in cash and other crops for all they are worth. Good yields always pay better than poor ones and they will, I believe, the immediate future will see a premium paid for better use of land and more efficient farming."

"Finally, with home requirements taken care of, surplus acres offer the opportunity for feed production to sell through livestock. Texas has always needed a livestock balance to its cotton farming and the chance is now here to get it."

PANHANDLE TO HONOR MARVIN JONES IN AMARILLO WITH BARBECUE PARTY JULY 31

Men and women of the Panhandle will gather here Monday, July 31, to honor Congressman Marvin Jones. State legislators of the Panhandle also will be honored guests.

This complimentary ceremony will be a Panhandle-wide barbecue, sponsored by the News-Globe.

It will afford us an opportunity to pay publicly our respects to men who have rendered us such good service as lawmakers said Wilbur C. Hawk.

In making arrangements for the feast, Mr. Hawk has anticipated an unusually large attendance.

"Meetings of this kind are too large to be held in a hotel or banquet hall, so it has been decided to stage the big Panhandle party at the Tri-State Fair grounds," he said. Mayor Ross D. Rogers has been asked to invite the mayors of all cities in this congressional district.

Democratic chairman from all the counties in the congressional district will be extended invitations. All county officials of the Panhandle also will be urged to attend.

Every newspaper man in the district also will be invited.

"It will be open to all men and women, who fill out coupons and send for tickets," explained Mr. Hawk.

The coupons will be published beginning in Sunday's News-Globe.

Tickets will be 50 cents. They will be available at the News-Globe Monday.

The coupons will not be published more than four times, since it will be necessary to know in advance how many to expect.

We want a representative group from the whole Panhandle and The News-Globe sponsored party offers the chance for such a gathering," Mr. Hawk said. "We expect 1,000 or 1,500 and will be able to serve that many."

John Snider, barbecue maron of the Panhandle, has been engaged to prepare the "eats."

"It will be one of John's finest feasts, with all the trimmings and everybody knows what that means," commented Mr. Hawk.

The Panhandle-wide barbecue will be served in the automotive building at the fair grounds, beginning at 5:30 o'clock.

The Tri-State Fair gates will be closed and only those who have obtained tickets will be admitted.

Throughout the barbecue, from 6:30 o'clock until 8 o'clock, there will be entertainment—a regular program, Mr. Hawk described it. Several musical features will be presented, and orchestra music will continue through the serving.

Promptly at 8 o'clock, Congressman Jones will speak.

"Old Tack" of the Globe-News will be asked to introduce Congressman Jones, who will be the only speaker," said Mr. Hawk. "Our representative will be invited to speak upon any subject he chooses, and the entire program will be concluded by 9 o'clock."

"This party will begin and end with military-like precision," assured Mr. Hawk. "So those from a distance who want to come without staying up until the wee small hours of the morning need feel no hesitancy in making reservations. The meeting will be over by 9 o'clock."

Mayor Ross Rogers will introduce the other honored guests Senator Arthur Duggan of Littlefield, Representatives H. K. Stanfield, B. L. Rogers of Farnsworth, John Parryour of Wellington, A. B. Tarwater of Plainview and Bob Alexander of Childress.

"By closing the ceremony at 9 o'clock those who come from farthest points of the district will have time to motor home," said Mr. Hawk. "The address will be delivered from the arena in the livestock building."

There will be a reception committee of 100 men and women for the News-Globe sponsored party. Those who will serve on the committee will be announced soon.

"I believe this Panhandle-wide party to pay homage to Congressman Jones and the other legislators will be one of the largest ever held in Amarillo," Mr. Hawk predicted. "Marvin Jones holds a position of much influence in Washington and he always is on the alert in the best interests of the Panhandle. It's our opportunity to hand a few bouquets to the living. Let's all turn out and honor the men who look after our interests in Washington and Austin."
