Washington Letter

By Congressman Ed Gossett

Washington, April 13—As this letter is written Washington is still stunned by the untimely death of President Roosevelt. Little else is being discussed in the halls of Congress and around the White House. For many months the President's health has been a subject of speculation in Washington, and many predicted he would not survive his fourth term in office. However, no one was prepared for a report of his sudden death, and a pall of sorrow has settled like a dark cloud over the nation.

A few days ago a famous doctor told me he became alarmed about the President's health on hearing his Bremerton Navy Yard talk. The doctor said that in medical science there are certain words which, if not enunciated correctly, indicate a lack of muscular coordination, and mental fatigue. He heard the President miff one or two of these key words. Several Congressmen, including myself, were greatly worried as we listened to the President's last speech in the House, when he reported on the historic Yalta conference. It was obvious he was not his old self, and spoke with great effort.

The first great convulsion I attended in the House of Representatives was the celebration of the 150th anniversary of the convening of the first congress. On that occasion in the hall of the House of Representatives there gathered the entire Congress, Representatives and Senators, all members of the Supreme Court, all members of the President's Cabinet, all ranking diplomats, the commanding officers of the Army and Navy, and the President. Some one remarked to me that a well placed bomb would certainly wipe out the entire federal government. My reply was that in our great democracy such a catastrophe would be taken in stride and after a few months it would have little effect upon the lives and destinies of the American people.

No one ever had greater responsibilities than did President Roosevelt. He was unquestionably the most important single individual in our country and in the world. However, we can and will carry on. His passing at this time will certainly assure for him a prominent and undying spot in history. The vast majority of the people of America, of all political parties and creeds, are determined to carry on in the winning of the war and in the writing of a permanent peace, in keeping with the President's dreams and ideals.

The passing of President Roosevelt will well catapult a notable Texan into a place of world leadership. As chairman of the important Foreign Relations Committee of the Senate, Tom Connally of Texas now has an opportunity which has perhaps been given to few men in world history. The many significant international conferences now being held, and the Senate's power over treaties of peace, make him probably the most important single official in the country at this particular time. I know he has the prayers of us all that his untiring efforts will eventually be crowned by complete success.

Among prominent Texans visibly affected by the President's death is his good friend, Speaker Sam Rayburn of Bonham, Texas. Many politically wise folks in Washington are saying that but for political opposition in Texas, Mr. Rayburn would now be President of the United States.

Now and for weeks to come we will hear a great deal of President Harry Truman. His background and personality will be probed for indications of his character and leadership. He is the son of a Confederate soldier. He was an officer of World War I, a man who has grown up in the log cabin tradition of American democracy and politics. Inconspicuous, hard working vice presidents have usually given this country sound and constructive administrations. It is generally felt that Mr. Truman will make a good President.

Some profane man once said, "Providence looks after drunks, sailors, and the United States of America." Personally I have always believed in the lines, "There is a Divinity that shapes our ends, rough-hew them how we will." In the present crisis and in the days immediately ahead surely a Divine Providence will guide our destinies.

Study Club Wins District Gardening Activity Contest

Mrs. E. F. Branton, president of the Knox City Study Club, has been notified that the local club's report on "Gardening" had won first prize in a contest sponsored by the First District Federation of Women's Clubs.

A prize of five dollars accompanied a letter from Mrs. Thomas Davis, president of the district Federation. The district comprises several counties west of Fort Worth. Mrs. Davis said in her letter to Mrs. Branton: "It is with the greatest pleasure that I transfer to you the prize of five dollars won by your club for the best report of 'Gardens.' Mrs. Meredith, as you know, offered this prize, and sent your report and the enclosed check to the recent meeting in Fort Worth. Since you did not have a representative present I brought the check and report home with me. Mrs. Meredith's report was read at the convention, and so was your report, as the winning report."

With the club women of the community ever mindful of the fact that the creation and preservation of food is an essential element in winning the war, and wholesome living, the Garden Committee has been one of the most active groups of the Knox City Study Club.

The garden committee chairman has acted as garden counselor, giving helpful reports, made suggestions on gardening, and issued bulletins from the Extension Department.

The club has sponsored for two consecutive years the community canning centers which canned last year over 2,000 cans of fruits and vegetables.

A community Thanksgiving banquet, at which only home grown foods were served, was held last fall. This reminded the people how many foods were being produced locally.

The club donated during the year, shrubs for the McCloskey General Hospital, and shrubs for the Knox County Hospital landscape.

It has been a pleasure to represent local nurseries, and thereby keep the bond purchases of the club up, from commissions on sales.

Varied programs on different phases of gardening have been given. A most interesting one yet is a flower arrangement.

Knox City Independent School District elected Walter Thomas and W. H. Lankford. Les Jamison and W. E. Robinson were elected at Gore. Truscott Independent elected E. J. Jones and Elmo Todd.

School To Offer Aeronautics Course

A plan has been carried through to obtain two complete pursuit planes for use in an aeronautical engineering course to be offered in Knox City High School next year.

One plane will be taken apart for use in laboratory work and the other left intact to study.

This material will probably not be delivered until the middle or latter part of the summer.

One or more rooms in the basement of the old school building will be used as a laboratory for the course.

Large Crowd Enjoys League Barbecue

Over a hundred guests attended the annual League Tenant's Barbecue held on the League Ranch, Thursday, April 12.

An excellent, well-prepared barbecue dinner was served at 1:00 o'clock, delayed shortly by a sudden rainstorm that soon cleared away.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis, Jr., owners of the ranch, and Mr. Davis' sister, welcomed the guests. Jack Idol, manager of the League interests, served as spokesman for the gathering. Mr. Idol expressed appreciation for the large crowd on hand to share in the day's celebration.

Peter Loran of Rhinecland, one of the first men in the county to settle here when the League was first started, made a short talk, recalling many happy incidents of the early days. Mr. Loran is always a welcome guest and can tell many interesting incidents.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis made short talks. The crowd was dismissed about 2:30, with praise coming from everyone for the enjoyable occasion.

District Schoolmen Meet In Wichita

By invitation from Hardin Junior College in Wichita Falls and Dist. Deputy L. R. Burkett, over 60 school men from this district met in Wichita Falls Saturday afternoon, April 14. The purpose of the meeting was to explain to the school men about surplus materials that are available for use by the schools from the Army Air Corps.

Many materials used for instruction in the Army are now, or will be available to schools who will use them. This material should assist the schools to improve instruction.

It was interesting to note that the Army Air Corps taught so much by the laboratory method, and now we can obtain the materials that they used. In vocational courses and physics, this would prove a great help to any school.

Those attending from Knox County were: T. E. Holcomb, Carroll Graves, A. N. Boyd, W. C. Cunningham, and County Supt. M. D. McGaughey.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Cusimano of San Jose, California, are here getting acquainted with their new grandson, Matthew Henry, four months old son of Lt. and Mrs. Joe Cusimano.

Mayor Installed

Roy Baker was installed as Mayor of Knox City at a meeting of the City Council last week. Baker succeeded C. C. Hoge, Mayor of the past ten years.

Softball Addicts To Have Meeting Here

Calling all softball and baseball players! Be at the City Hall Friday night and help to organize and elect a manager for a softball team or teams for Knox City.

Spring is in the air and would-be ball players are eyeing the vacant lot and flexing up the throwing arms. Ringleaders of the sport are calling a meeting to be held Friday night at the City Hall in an effort to make some sort of organization for the game locally. Several nearby towns are organizing a league and it is possible Knox City may enter a team for play.

A game has been scheduled for Sunday, here, against an aggregation from Hutto.

All players and fans are urged to come down Friday and put in their paddle.

Baptist Banquet Has Record Attendance

Ninety-one hungry Baptists met in the basement of the First Baptist Church here Tuesday night to observe the annual Spring Adult Banquet.

A fine program featuring an inspirational address by Dr. W. R. Whitley of Haskell, was heard. Several musical numbers and an impromptu comedy act were offered.

Guests were high in praise of the affair.

Mrs. Alton Leach and Mrs. Sonny Hughes left Tuesday to spend several days in Dallas.

Canning Sugar Will Be Available Despite Wartime Shortage

The home canning program this year has been designed to get the fairest and best distribution of our war-short sugar supplies—to make sure that those who actually do home canning get the sugar they need.

Today sugar supplies are feeling the pinch of a long war. The stocks are abnormally low. Military needs are high. Ships which might otherwise be bringing sugar into the United States are hauling supplies to the battlefronts. Manpower for the refineries is scarce. Production cannot be measurably increased to provide more sugar for 1945.

Consumers will apply to their local member of the Sugar Panel either by mail or in person.

Spare stamp No. 13 from Book Four for each member of the family unit for which application is made MUST be attached to the application. However, not more than eight persons in any one family may receive canning sugar. There is a limit of one hundred sixty (160) pounds per family unit.

No more than five pounds per person can be issued for jams, jellies, etc. For fruits, sugar will be issued on the basis of one pound for each four quarts of canned fruit.

Twenty pounds is the maximum amount. Most issuances must be much less than the maximum—the average per person for the whole country for all canning and preserving must not go over 10 pounds.

Applications may be made the 20th of April to your local canning sugar panel member. Coupons will be mailed from Knox County War Price and Rationing Board within 15 days.

The following compose the canning sugar panel:

Mrs. Wilma Whitford, Knox City; Mrs. Glenn Fearster, Vera; Mrs. Arthur Horne, Gilliland; Mrs. F. G. Daniel, Gore; Mrs. A. S. Tarpley, Truscott; Mrs. J. L. Galoway, Benjamin; Harvey Lee, Monday.

Memorial Service Honors Roosevelt

Memorial services honoring the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt were held at the Baptist Church Saturday afternoon from 2:30 to 4:00 p. m.

Mayor Roy Baker issued a proclamation Saturday morning declaring Saturday a day of mourning and respect. In line with the rest of the nation Pastors of all local churches arranged a program and business houses closed for the hour 3:00 to 4:00 p. m.

A sudden rain storm held down attendance at the memorial service but quite a large crowd was on hand to pay a solemn tribute to the President. A suitable program was heard.

Pack Infant Dies At Family Home

Herman Stanley Pack, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pack, died at the family home near Union Grove, Friday, April 13. The child was one month and two days old.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon in the O'Brien Baptist Church with Rev. C. C. Beatty officiating. Interment was made in the Rochester cemetery under the direction of E. Hob Smith.

Surviving are the parents and two brothers, Donald Joe, 6, and Douglas Arthur, 3. J. A. Pack is the son of Mrs. M. E. Pack.

COMMUNITY PLOWING

Friends gathered at the farm of Mrs. Ida Wilson and her son, Bill Wilson, Wednesday, April 18, to do the plowing. Mr. Wilson has been ill for the past weeks and was unable to do his work. The neighbors, equipped with 15 tractors, completed the plowing in less than one day.

HSE BAND PLAYS HERE

The Hardin-Simmons band from Abilene gave a concert in the Grammar school auditorium last Thursday morning.

The program was composed of a march, several novelty numbers by the band, and vocals, accompanied by the piano.

Mrs. M. A. Draper and Mrs. K. R. Thomas and small son of Waco are here visiting friends.

General Contractor For Housing Project Will Be Here Saturday Morning

Weds Here Soon

Ross and Peggy

A romance that began last February in Morristown, New Jersey, will have a happy climax here on April 29, when Miss Charlotte E. Husband of Brooklyn, N. Y., becomes the bride of Ross Griffith, well-known Knox City newspaper operator.

Miss Husband will arrive in Abilene April 27 from Brooklyn, Rev. Tom Keenan, pastor of the First Baptist Church will perform the ceremony here in the presence of a few close friends of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Griffith plan to have a new home as soon as the local housing project is getting underway.

Last February Ross went to Morristown to acquire a Seeing Eye dog. That's when it all started. Miss Husband happened to be there, too, for the same purpose. They met, and as the poets say, it was "love at first sight." And just to keep it one large happy family, Gipsy, Miss Husband's Seeing Eye dog, and Peggy, Ross' dog, were from the same kennel at the training institution and already had formed a mutual, gossipy, friendship. Peggy and Gipsy escaped unharmed from Cupid's darts that flew thick and fast at the beginning of the affair. The dogs will meet again when their masters are married here.

Miss Husband admits that "it was Ross' nice, deep, soft voice that won me." Ross says he could just tell she was the girl for me. So, although both are blind, love will find a way.

The Brooklyn Eagle, issue of Sunday, Feb. 25, carried the following story about Charlotte and Ross:

"In two months blind Charlotte Husband, 26, who doesn't remember what it's like to have normal vision, will be on her way to Texas with her new Seeing Eye dog, Gipsy, and a springtime wedding with the man she learned to love in a hurry."

"Charlotte, whose romance is like something out of a story book, admits that in getting her man during the four-week training period at the Seeing Eye in Morristown, N. J., she was a "fast worker." But she "had to be" for as soon as the man with the nice, deep soft voice became accustomed to his own Seeing Eye dog, he was heading back to the Lone Star State.

"Life in Knox City" where Charlotte will live after becoming Mrs. Ross Griffith, will be good for Gipsy, too, the young woman believes. A great affection has grown up already between the lively, friendly German shepherd dog and her owner, who during the training period in Morristown often found herself sprawling on the ground because of the snow and ice and Gipsy's fast pace. Now, there's more understanding between the two. Gipsy has slowed up a bit and Charlotte walks faster.

"Charlotte, who is five-feet four and one-half inches tall and weighs 100 pounds, has been blind since she was two years and 11 months old, when hemorrhages broke the retina of the eyes and destroyed her sight. But she's grown up confident, and well-mannered."

"Charlotte was graduated from Brooklyn College last June. She has studied German, Latin, Spanish, Italian, French and Greek and was elected to Eta Sigma Phi, national fraternity for scholarship in Latin. She is the daughter of a doctor."

Tom Keenan is in Dallas today accepting a sheath of papers from government agencies that have been signed and sealed by the highest official of every agency involved in the housing project here.

Mr. Keenan was notified by wire that the last official signature had been appended and the papers, which amount to authority to secure materials, labor or any other item necessary to build, were ready for delivery to him.

This means that, while official approval had been given in most places, the last hurdle has been cleared and the green light turned on. Red tape has delayed the delivery of sufficient authority to sign binding contracts with contractors, material sources and supply houses. Following receipt of the message that the last nod had been given, Mr. Keenan at once completed negotiations with a general contractor for the erection of the first ten units of the project.

Working agreements have been reached with the War Manpower Commission for using local labor and sub-contractors. Mr. Keenan stated Tuesday that only labor living within a radius of 15 miles of Knox City could be used on the project. This fits in with the intention of the Knox City Development Co. in keeping the job as local as possible.

"We have the plans and specifications in our hands," said Keenan early this week. "There will be some of each size house in the first unit built. Each exterior will be different in design, and most interiors will differ from the other houses. They are neat and comfortable throughout, and will be an asset to any town."

Albert L. Smith of Fort Worth will be general contractor for the project. Mr. Smith will be in Knox City Saturday morning to interview local parties interested in sub-contracting different phases of the work. He will be at the City Hall at 10 a. m.

"Presently we are interested in talking to sub-contractors only," Mr. Smith said in a message to the Herald. "Within a week we will be interested in securing all types of labor, skilled, semi-skilled and common. Anyone locally with the proper facilities to perform any of the items we have advertised elsewhere in this paper, will be interviewed. It must be borne in mind that it will require strict prosecution of the work on a rigid completion schedule," he added.

Mr. Smith stated he would like to sublet concrete, plumbing, electrical and roofing work, and also gravel or materials needed that could be produced locally.

A field office will be established in the near future, Mr. Smith said.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO WORK OUT V-E DAY PLAN

A committee of five was appointed today noon by Lion President Claud Reed and Mayor Roy Baker, to work out an agreeable plan for local V-E Day observances. The Lions Club voted to follow whatever plan was most agreeable as to closing hours for business houses and the possibilities of a community thanksgiving service.

The Lions spent an entire half-hour singing songs under the guidance of Mary Leone Hoge, guest of the club at luncheon. Miss Hoge accompanied the members on the piano. Several committee reports were heard.

Great men leave behind them a heritage of deeds and accomplishments that make the efforts of less notable men seem feeble. Being a great man, according to history's yardstick, is a heritage that man does not bestow upon his fellow man until the pages of time have been turned and turned again.

We believe Franklin Roosevelt has achieved a two-fold honor in that he was great in his own days here on earth, and the world has known and acclaimed him as such. His few enemies will not deny that greatness. His millions of friends accepted it as commonplace with the nature of the man.

History records a rather rocky road for those following in the footsteps of great leaders. The cloth has been cut and fashioned for a man of great caliber. The yardstick we use is mammoth in size.

But no man is born great in what history will record for him. Every great American has made his niche in the halls of fame by the accomplishments of his life's work.

Destiny has placed President Truman in a place of great responsibility and with the eyes of the world focused upon the post he now holds. Not only America but every God-fearing nation in the world will look to him for leadership in establishing world peace. He will need every resource at his hand to accomplish this end. The full support of his own nation will be the first great contribution.

We can turn any possible censure of his shortcomings into the confidence and faith he will need to insure our own nation of security in the years to come. We can add our bit to making an exception to the rule that history has laid down, and he, too, shall be a great man. We can do it, and we will do it. America has never taken a blow from the hand of fate without coming back for more and rising to greater and nobler heights.

ter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hus-band, Brooklyn, and has an older sister, Gertrude."

Ross is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Griffith. He was born near Munday, November 18, 1906. He attended school at Union Grove and later entered a business col-lege at Abilene, studying book-keeping. His normally weak eyes finally failed him and now he can barely distinguish the light of day. He entered the newsstand business here on the last day of 1943.

Ross and Peggy are nervously counting the days until Charlotte and Gipsy arrive. Business at the newsstand goes on as usual but sometimes the conversation wan-ders off on a subject that causes Ross' face to light up with a grin.

Knox City Students On ACC Honor Roll

Martha Jane Jones and Gene-va Mills of Knox City have both made the honor rolls at Abilene Christian College.

Miss Jones, 1944 graduate of Abilene Christian high school, had her name placed on the honor roll for the fourth six weeks as a result of her making a grade of "Superior" in four subjects.

Martha is a freshman and ma-joring in chemistry.

Miss Mills won her place on the rolls with a grade of "Superior" in one subject. Miss Mills is also cast in a one-act play at the col-lege.

Rev. C. H. Williams, former pas-tor of the First Methodist Church here but now has a church at Booker, was in Knox City Tues-day visiting friends.

FRESHMAN NEWS

We are through with our six-weeks exams and will get our re-port cards Thursday.

Some of the Freshmen went on a picnic last Friday night and then went to the show; we had a nice time. The boys were disap-pointed because Hamlin didn't come though.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

The Sophomores are wondering how Paul and Richard developed the ability to be such poets!

The algebra grades look as if Mr. Holcomb's going to have a large algebra class next year.

Since nothing new has been hap-pening in the Sophomore class I'll sign off for this time.

JUNIOR NEWS

The Juniors have really started on their banquet. If we didn't have so much home work to do, we could do a lot more on our banquet. It seems that the teach-ers are just pouring more and more home work on us just be-cause we are having some out-side activities. Of course, they wouldn't do such a thing. But anyway, why don't you teachers take this as a hint and let us off light this coming week?

SENIOR NEWS

Last week was six weeks and all the Seniors are proud of the grades they made in bookkeeping. We wish to thank Mrs. Cape for giving us the good grades.

Every week brings us closer to the end of school and the end of our high school days. Every Sen-ior has enjoyed these years in high school and will remember them always.

SPORTS NEWS

The football boys are getting along swell. They have started working on the plays that they will use next year. There are enough boys coming out for three full teams. The only reason that there are no more is that we don't have enough equipment, but this is a large number in proportion to the number of boys in high school.

senators, congressmen, governors, or other statesmen gather to dic-tate peace terms to the aggressive nations there never can be peace until the return of the PRINCE of PEACE. There may come a false peace out of this coming meeting of the nations to talk over peace terms but in 1 Thes-salonians 5:3, we read, "For when they shall say Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them."

We may see a short season of peace before the wrath of God falls, but the wrath of an angry God is going to fall upon this world because of the sin and violence and murder that have been committed. We are looking to new leaders to take us through, and our hearts rejoice to know that one of the first requests of our new president as he took the office of government upon him was, "If you have ever prayed, pray for me." There will come a day when the government of na-tions will be placed upon other shoulders, because Isaiah 9:6 says, "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the govern-ment shall be upon his shoulders and his name shall be called won-derful; counsellor; the mighty God; the everlasting Father; the PRINCE of PEACE." The day is drawing near when we shall have a new governor, a new president, a new Lord, a new King—ones who will never die—the everlast-ing Father.

Our late president went to keep the appointment that all men must keep, Hebrews 9:27, "And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment." What will the judgment be? Je-sus said in John 14:27, "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you, not as the world giveth, give I unto you." And in John 16:33 he said, "In the world ye shall have tribulation, but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world."

During this last week we have seen a nation that was looking to a great leader to guide the destiny of a world at war suddenly plunged into mourning when that leader was called to give an account of himself to God.

God is no respecter of persons. Millions of homes have been saddened when news has come that a loved one has died on the battle front, but the sorrow and grief of this little community is no greater because a president died than the grief over the loss of one of our own mother's sons, who recently paid the supreme price for world peace. Voices were hushed when his name was mentioned, truly an American son died for liberty and justice just as our president died fighting to bring to this world a lasting and just peace.

Must that sacrifice be in vain? No matter how many presidents,
