A contract for 1,231 miles of construction on State Highway 283 in Knox and Foard County has been awarded to a San Angelo firm, it was announced in Austin this week by the State Highway Commission.

H. T. Cunningham, Resident

Mrs. Benedict, County Pioneer, Dies Here Sunday

Another chapter of Life on the Knox Prairie ended Sunday at 5:30 p. m. when Mrs. W. H. Benedict, 88, died at her home here after being critically ill the past three months.

Funeral services were held at 3 p. m. Monday, Sept. 29, ten years to the day since the death of her husband. Conducting the service was Rev. John Waddell, minister of the church. Burial was in Knox City Cemetery under the direction of Pinkard-Smith Funeral Home.

Mrs. Benedict came to Knox County as a bride. She was born Allie Bennett in Arkansas Aug. 17, 1870, and in 1890 married her childhood sweetheart, William H. Benedict, in Arkansas after her husband had come to "the wide open spaces" from Arkansas in 1886. He had first settled near Benjamin but later bought a section of land near Old Goree, where the newly-weds made their first home.

They purchased their first Knox Prairie land in 1905. Later when Knox City was organized they bought business lots and erected buildings. Mr. Benedict and his brother, C. A., who had come with him to Texas in 1886, built the first general store and gin at Goree, and Mr. Benedict served as Goree's first postmaster.

The couple reared a family of six children. One daughter, Mrs. Grace Reed, died in 1937; a son, Earl, died in March 1952 and another son, Horace, died in January 1956.

Surviving children are a son, Grady Benedict of Knox City; and two daughters, Mrs. Mabel Pycatt of Knox City and Mrs. Everett Kelly of Austin. Grandchildren are Mrs. Eddie Carr and Mrs. Buddy Angle of Knox City, Nancy and Bobby Kelly of Austin, and Paul Edward Benedict of California. Also surviving are two brothers, T. A. Bennett of Ingleswood, Calif., and J. M. Bennett of Brownfield.

Active pallbearers were Eddie Shaver, Vaughn Gruben, E. R. Carpenter, Bobby Burnett, Alton Fitzgerald, Fuller Shannon, Russell Boyd and Joe Reeder Jr.

O'Brien, Paint Creek Battle to 32-32 Tie

The Paint Creek Pirates scored an upset when they battled the O'Brien Bulldogs to a thrilling 32-32 tie in a District 3 Six-Man football game last Thursday night.

The entire fourth quarter was played in a rainstorm which sent spectators scurrying for cover. O'Brien scored 12 points in the final period to tie the game.

Danny Walsworth scored four of O'Brien's touchdowns on runs of 45, 15, 10 and 5 yards and passed to John Tom Johnston for the other. O'Brien scored a safety in the second quarter.

Other district action last week saw Weinert stun Vera 52-0 and Goree beat Mattson 46-18. Benjamin's game was cancelled.

O'Brien will be host to Vera tonight (Thursday) in the only district game to be played this week. Paint Creek has a practice game with Lueders, Mattson will play McCaulley, and Weinert will be host to Ira at Weinert's homecoming game Saturday night.

The Vera Band and O'Brien pep squad will perform at half-time of the Vera-O'Brien game. The Vera band is directed by Rev. Guy McLain, pastor of the O'Brien and Benjamin Methodist churches.

In a grade school game Monday night Weinert beat O'Brien, 12-8.

1,000 in Sunday School Goal of Knox Churches

This Sunday is the time! The churches of Knox City are striving for a combined total of 1,000 in their Church Schools on Sunday, Oct. 5. The drive was sparked by the Ministerial Alliance and other ministers and church leaders, and attendance

Scoreboard

Attendance in Knox City Church Schools the past two Sundays was as follows:	21st	28th
Baptist	217	226
Methodist	117	100
Gospel Mission	11	7
Assembly of God	27	26
Foursquare	79	77
Church of Christ	135	133

Lions Club Staging Membership and Attendance Drive

The Knox City Lions Club netted about $100 from its pancake supper last Friday night, the club was told Wednesday by President Otto Lawson.

Almost 300 people were served at the supper, Lawson said.

The club voted Wed. to give $35 to the Quarterback Club, for use in filming a Greyhound football game. The Quarterback Club is filming every game, president John Waddell said, at a cost of about $35 per game. The film is used by the coaches as a training aid.

Truman White and W. P. White were named team captains for the Lions' annual membership and attendance contest during October. The contest began with Wednesday's meeting.

in Sunday Schools has shown some increase over the past few weeks.

In last week's "scoreboard" submitted by the Ministerial Alliance the Assembly of God report was omitted, and the total attendance Sunday, Sept. 21 was 696 instead of 669 as given. Last Sunday's attendance was 667, a considerable drop from the previous Sunday but still higher than the average.

Attendance is still far short, however, of the goal of 1,000 for this Sunday.

Church leaders point out that in a community of 2,500 or more people, most of whom are affiliated with some church, it should not be difficult to reach 1,000 in Sunday Schools and Bible Schools.

As reminders of the attendance drive, arrangements have been made for local grocers to put a handbill in each sack of groceries this week end.

"This is a community project," one minister said. "It does not belong to any one preacher or any one church—people of every church are interested."

"Knox City has a fine community spirit, and how fine it would be for us to transfer some enthusiasm to the churches this Sunday and let it be known far and wide that Knox City attempted something noble and did it."

The Ministerial Alliance and other churches that are not affiliated with the alliance urge everyone and every family to attend some Sunday School this Sunday. "Whether one is a member of any church or not, Knox City citizens will surely rally to the challenge, 1,000 in Sunday School on October 5."

Jewel Day, who moved to town from Haskell recently, has proved to be that.

Notices were mailed out as you probably know Jewell was the first to pay taxes, both city and county. Then, seeing he had such a start, he hustled over to the county and was the first Knox City citizen to pay his poll tax!

crisp, cool weather is a reason that this is Fall, the season all enjoy most for one or another.

It's also a fine season for the men and swindlers, so be on the lookout for an increase in the number of magazine salesmen, termite exterminators, and others out for a easy buck.

Homer T. Melton redistributed leaflets at the merchants how to avoid being swindled by check—something that happens to some local merchants every fall.

There are other ways of getting you from your money, remember that every housewife who has a salesman of photos or some must have a license or some from the city.

Officers recently arrested two men who swindled three aged Knox County citizens by claiming to be from a company, finding "leaks" making "repairs".

Just one of thousands of repair gyps and the two won't be missed from the city of gyp artists.

Especially during the fall it is to distrust strangers, the best protection is to do business with someone you know.

Knox City Band Band in Contests Iowa Park

Knox City School Band membership in sweepstakes at Iowa Park last Thursday won two firsts and two second prizes.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Texas — Teacher pay raises, an issue that has packed legislative galleries in past years, will probably return next session.

Base pay raises of almost $600 a year will be recommended to the Legislature by the Hale-Aikin Committee. This group of 24 lawmakers and private citizens has spent almost two years in a massive study of ways to improve Texas public school programs.

Its recommendations, now being readied for final presentation would, for the most part, involve extra spending running into the millions. Cost of moving up the floor on teacher salaries is estimated at $70,000,000 a year.

Advocates say better salaries are necessary to attract and hold enough good teachers. But even within the committee there were objections.

Rep. L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi, co-chairman, voted against the raise recommendation. He said this, plus other proposals would mean "about a quarter of a billion dollar tax bill."

Other committee members said they felt the problem was not a shortage of teachers, but unequal distribution. While small districts may have trouble filling faculties, they said, some cities have a surplus.

Many legislators, elected on "economy in government" platforms, can be expected to echo Hale's sentiments. Since a huge state deficit is foreseen without raising the cost of anything, the squeeze could be especially acute.

Teachers, always a potent force because of their number, might be substantially reinforced by the current concern to "catch up with the Russians" in education. A head-on clash between these groups and the economy forces might well provide the flashiest fireworks of the next session.

NO THANKS — Another Hale-Aikin Committee suggestion: Texas should quit accepting federal money for the school lunch program and vocational education.

Federal funds now received are estimated at $9,000,000 a year. Committee said local districts and parents should pay for these services.

It did recommend, however, that federal aid be continued to districts where military installations bring in a large non-tax-paying attendance.

Other committee recommendations:

1. State should quit levying property tax, leave this source to local districts.
2. Permanent School Fund should be kept as an endowment, not spent for current needs.
3. Counties, not state, should bear the cost of maintaining county school superintendents' offices.

H-D Notes . . .

Miss S. C. Kinsey, County Home Demonstration Agent

Do you usually end up with an aching back on cleaning days? If so you may be interested in a study by Rhode Island Experiment Station. Several types of cleaning equipment were used by tall, average height and short home makers for various regular cleaning jobs to find the easiest and best methods.

Vacuum cleaners under low furniture proved one of the more difficult jobs. The study showed that it is much easier to kneel so that you can see and reach the area to be cleaned and use the stronger leg muscles instead of the back muscles for lifting.

Arrangement of furniture counts, too, in easy cleaning. About four feet of space is needed in front of any item of furniture that stands close to the floor in order to run the vacuum tool underneath conveniently. Exactly how much space is needed depends somewhat on the type of cleaner and the clearance under the furniture. That is another point to be considered when buying furniture. The choice would be furniture built to the floor or with considerable clearance above it.

How you use the cleaner on the floor counts, too. Many women try to push the cleaner as ers at a water conference sponsored by Texas A&M College. Gov. Price Daniel praised the recently adopted statewide water program and urged against sliding back into apathy as a result of recent drought-breaking rains.

Revision in the rate structure for city water users was proposed as one means of conservation. Lubbock hydrologist W. L. Broadhurst said that increasing the rate instead of decreasing it as more water is used would cut down household waste.

HIGHWAY WORK AT PEAK — Two-thirds the way through 1958 the State Highway Department already has placed as much highway construction work under contract as in the entire record-setting year of 1957.

Total for this year reached $224,000,000 this month. Low bids opened in a two-day tabulation for this month's proposed projects amounted to $28,669,432. Department spending on Texas roads in the next three years is expected to reach one billion dollars, Highway Commissioner Chairman Marshall Formby said.

as Securities Board reviewed its first year as a separate state agency and declared the "investment climate" had improved under tougher regulation.

Securities Board was set up by the last Legislature by combining functions formerly handled partly by the Secretary of State's office, partly by the Insurance Department.

Texas' investment climate "was very poor" when the new law went into effect, said Board Chairman Maurice Bullock. Score for the "tightening-up" years: (1) a drop of 37 per cent in the number of licensed securities dealers, (2) investigation under way in 215 cases of possible securities law violation and (3) 75 cases referred to district attorneys over the state.

Bullock said the Board's aim was to weed out the wild promotion schemes so as to restore confidence in Texas securities, but not to be so zealous as to discourage legitimate offerings.

LOCAL PARKS URGED: Several parks now under the administration of the State Parks Board should logically be in the hands of local communities, according to State Auditor C. H. Cavness.

Cavness' audit report on the Parks Board noted that Gonzales State Park had been turned over to the city of Gonzales. Others used on a community basis also could be community operated, he said.

Cavness also noted the addition of six new parks to the state system.

COLLEGE BUILDING ADVANCED — Twelve state colleges have sold $12,375,948 in building bonds—after adjusting to "buyers market" difficulties.

Representatives of the schools, meeting in Austin, first offered $17,500,000 worth of bonds on a 10-year payback basis, but got no offers. Several of the schools already had let contracts for construction, feeling sure bonds would sell.

Bonds were then re-offered on an 8-year basis and partially sold. Remaining bonds may be offered later.

WATER NEEDS FORECAST—Demand for Texas surface water is expected to triple in the next 50 years. Prediction is by Harry Burleigh, area engineer for the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation.

Where will it all come from? Burleigh says enough water is now being wasted to meet that demand. Problem of saving it is up to engineers to solve. Needed is a simple, low-cost means of capturing run-off water now flowing into the Gulf of Mexico and delivering it to points where it is needed.

Study Club Has Opening Dinner

Mrs. Henry L. White and Mrs. Carl Shelton were hostesses for the opening dinner of the 1946 Study Club at Roddy's Tuesday night.

The dinner was served buffet style from a table laid with a white cloth and centered with an arrangement of bronze mums. The floral arrangement was flanked by green candles in hurricane holders. Candles provided light at the quartet tables. The menu was chicken salad on toasted hamburger bun halves, new potatoes, creamed English peas, pickles, radishes, onions, celery, cherry cobbler, and coffee.

Mrs. Ben Knight gave the invocation.

Following dinner, the president, Mrs. Paul Hoge, introduced each member. As she read the roll, each member stood. Thirteen new members were welcomed. They were Mrs. Jack Arledge, Mrs. R. P. Barnard, Jr., Mrs. Ted Darland, Mrs. Curtis Hines, Mrs. Henry Jean Jones, Mrs. Gene Kissinger, Mrs. Buster Lowrey, Mrs. Charles Reed, Mrs. Don Reeves, Mrs. Donald Tankersley, Mrs. Bobby Tankersley, Miss Mary LaGrange, and Mrs. Don Railsback.

Yearbooks were discussed and distributed by Mrs. Neil Perdue, first vice-president and program chairman.

The hostesses conducted a "hat swap". The hats, brought by the guests when they arrived, were numbered and placed on the piano. Each guest drew a number to determine which was hers to model and keep.

Other officers are:

Mrs. Billy Gene Johnston, second vice-president; Mrs. Joe Murray Clonts, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. M. E. Bradberry, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Clyde Williams, reporter; Mrs. Jim Ross, historian; and Mrs. George Wall, parliamentarian.

Club members will be guests of the Knox City Study Club at their annual Federation Day program next Thursday, Oct. 9.

Visitor Honored With "Coffee"

Mrs. E. Q. Warren honored her sister, Mrs. R. T. Pence, with a coffee at Roddy's Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Pence and her husband are guests in the Warren home this week. They live in Marshall, Mo.

Mark Twain's Story

READING SPIDER

During Mark Twain's days as a newspaperman, he was editor of a small Missouri newspaper. One day he got a letter from a subscriber, stating that he had found a spider in his newspaper and asked if this was an omen of good luck or bad luck.

Twain wrote: "Finding a spider in your newspaper is neither good luck nor bad. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant was not advertising so that he could go to that store, spin his web across the door and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."

You will find no spider webs across the doors of the merchants who advertise in your local newspaper.

Uncle Ben from Benjamin says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:
 It looks like it pays a feller to keep hisself good and ignorant these days. See by the papers this morning where a fellow held up a hotel lobby in New York, got $6 from the owner, $14 from the clerk, and $178 from the bellhop.
 And I noted on the bulletin board at the post office not long ago where the Government wanted a chemist and a street sweeper for the grounds at the Pentagon Building. The chemist gits $3700 a year and the sweeper gits $4500. It shore makes ignorance look mighty attractive. All the sweeper needs is a broom and a strong back, and all the chemist needs is to go to school for 20 years and pay the banker back when he gits a job.
 And I see by another paper where there's 200,000 school teachers in the country that average less than $300 a month, and in the same paper there is a ad wanting pipe-fitters for $900 a month, counting Sunday and overtime.
 And take the politicians, fer instant. It's downright sad to see a college president beg a bunch of politicians for money to educate their own children. And he has to beg 'em in words of one syllable so's they can understand what he's talking about. All a politician needs is four hats, no education. He needs one to throw in the ring, one to pull rabbits out of, one to talk through, and one to keep the peckerwoods from making holes in his wooden head.
 Education? I'm glad I ain't got none. I hope the Lord keeps me good and ignorant so's I'll have a chance to make me some money one of these days.
 I see by the papers where all them big columnists is taking a vacation. Winchell and some of them installs "guest" columnists in their place when they take off, but I can't find nobody to measure up to my fine literary style and profound thinking, so I reckon I won't git no vacation this year. I tried to git Ed Doolittle to "guest" it fer me fer a spell but Ed says the pay is too low fer him to strain his mind on the subject, and his daughter—who does most of Ed's brain work—ain't at home no how. Well, Mister Editor, I got to quit now and go git me some breakfast. My old lady has cured me of being cranky at breakfast—she don't fix me any.

 Yours truly,
 Uncle Ben

Streams In Desert Places

By Ozelle Stephens
 God is spirit and must be worshipped in spirit and truth. This is what Jesus told the woman at the well.
 God is love and before we can hear His words of love we must begin to express the love He has put into our hearts. To do this we must love God and our neighbor with all our hearts.
 We can not see God's love, His life, wisdom or spiritual substance but we can lay hold on these God principles with our spiritual hands, which is our faith. To do this successfully we must spend much time in secret with Jesus alone. We must relax and let go of our personal thoughts about things of the world and direct our attention toward the depths of our spiritual nature where we can find peace, harmony, good will, joy, wisdom, substance, life and love. These God principles will become as pools of waters on parched ground and springs in a thirsty land.

Pioneer Couple Honored on 61st Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Snody celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary in Benjamin, Sunday afternoon, September 21. Mrs. O. L. Howell, sister of Mrs. Snody and the daughter and sons hosted the occasion.

Mrs. Snody, born Harriet Elford, in Selma, Alabama, came to Texas as a child and first lived near St. Jo, later moving to Archer City. Her father moved his family to Knox County in 1892, where she met and married Walter Snody in 1897.

Walter Franklin Snody was born in Shelbyville, Tennessee, but spent his childhood in Tarrant County near Grapevine. He came to Knox County while in his late teens and settled at Vera, where the couple made their home for many years, during which time he was a ginner.

In the early 1920's the Snodys moved to Benjamin where Mr. Snody has served as county treasurer the last fourteen years. They are members of the First Baptist Church and have been active in church and civic affairs during the more than thirty-eight years they have lived in Benjamin. Vehicle Inspection Is Now Underway

September 1 marked the beginning of a new motor vehicle inspection period for more than four million vehicle owners in Texas according to the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Inspection stations throughout the state will open their doors for the inspection period that runs through April 15, 1959. There are more than 4300 stations in the state which have been authorized to check automobiles and trucks.

In announcing the opening date, Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, suggested that Texas residents have their trucks and automobiles inspected at the beginning of the period. This, he said, would save motorists considerable time and inconvenience annually accompanying long waiting lines at the inspection deadline.
