

TERRY COUNTY BANKER CHAIRMAN OF PRESIDENT BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

DR. S. B. McALISTER

Denton, Texas—Dr. S. B. McAlister professor of government at the North Texas State Teachers College has been granted a leave of absence effective Jan. 24 to fill a temporary appointment in the State Department of Education in Austin. President W. J. McConnell has announced.

Dr. McAlister will serve as first assistant superintendent to Dr. L. A. Woods, state superintendent of public instruction, and as such will have charge of legal questions which come before the State Department.

The author of "The Government and Law of the Texas Public School System" and co-author of "Citizenship in Our Democracy," Dr. McAlister is considered one of the best authorities on school law in Texas. For eleven years a member of the department of government at North Texas, Dr. McAlister has served as special lecturer on civic education for the department of education, Commonwealth of Massachusetts and in 1937 as research technician for the National Resources Committee in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Favor and daughters, Betty Ann and Bobby Jo and Miss Katherine Condon, of Benjamin, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Favor

Mrs. S. L. Favor left this morning Thursday, for a visit in Abilene with her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Culwell and family.

CONOCO CREDITS

NEWSPAPER ADS

Giving due credit for the best year in its history to the heavy use of newspaper advertising, the Continental Oil Company today announced that its 1938 advertising appropriations for newspaper space will be increased by 17 percent over 1937 expenditures.

Continental during the coming year will allot to the weekly press about 66 percent of all that is to be spent on consumer media and will place advertising in approximately 1250 newspapers. The new advertising will continue to deal with Conoco Bronze Gasoline and Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil and the action of this lubricant, due to the presence of a product of the research laboratories, in forming an abnormally tough film that stays on metal surfaces even while the motor is idle, instead of draining off.

The new campaign, which has been carefully checked for reader response in selected test areas at Colorado Springs, Colo and in Richmond, Va., will also stress the position of local Conoco dealers as "mileage merchants" who are independent of the company and must deal with the customer on the basis of their own ability and standing in the community they serve.

Dallas, Jan. 19—Jesse H. Jones Chairman for the President's Birthday Celebrations has appointed J. O. Gillham of Terry County as his local chairman.

All major Texas counties have now been organized for the purpose of raising funds for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis through entertainments to be given Saturday, January 29.

The money raised through benefit entertainments will be devoted to scientifically fighting infantile paralysis and caring for sufferers and cripples left in the wake of this dread disease.

For the first time in history the entire nation, with every state, county and city united is making a concerted and uniform campaign against poliomyelitis.

Entertainments to be given in each Texas county and city Saturday, January 29 may be in the form of President's Birthday Balls, bridge parties, singing songs, theatrical benefits or forms of amusement, but every penny received will go to aid some suffering child and to safeguard healthy children from infantile paralysis.

George Waverly Briggs of Dallas, vice chairman of the state campaign, predicts that Texas as usual will do more than its allotted part to aid this humanitarian cause.

"The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, in addition to carrying on organized research for preventive methods, will function just like the Red Cross in aiding communities in Texas afflicted with infantile Paralysis," Mr. Briggs says. "Relief and treatment will be given sufferers. By uniting our efforts we gain additional efficiency."

GUTHRIE TO SPONSOR PRESIDENTS BALL

The citizens of Guthrie and King County wish to extend an invitation to all those who do not attend a Birthday Ball elsewhere, to come to Guthrie Saturday, January 29. There will be dancing for young and old at the School Auditorium from nine until one. There will be plenty of good music and novel entertainment. The admission is only one dollar. This affair has been made an annual event in Guthrie since the beginning of the Roosevelt Administration. Thirty percent of the proceeds will be used for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, while the remainder will go into the State fund. If you have not bought a ticket, do so at once and attend an entertainment for a worthy cause.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER

The Herald is authorized to announce E. L. (Lee) Park as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner from Precinct No. 1, subject to the action of the Democratic primary election.

Mr. Park is well known to the people of this section of Knox County. He has resided here for more than thirty years. He is well qualified for the office of County Commissioner and asks the voters to give him due consideration before they select their next County Commissioner.

SUFFERS SEVERE BURNS WHEN CAR OVERTURNS

Adron Rutledge of this city is suffering from serious injuries received Wednesday afternoon, when the car in which he was riding overturned on the Benjamin highway. The car, belonging to Mrs. A. Rutledge of Munday was completely demolished by fire soon after the accident. Mr. Rutledge was extracted by Charlie Cromwell, a grocery salesman and carried to his home here where he is reported to be in a very serious condition.

$90 Cash Prizes are Offered Entrants In Calf Show

The Munday Chamber of Commerce secured the 1938 Knox County Calf Show for this city in a meeting last Thursday with business men of Knox City in a meeting called by W. W. Rice, county agent, of Benjamin. Date for the affair, which will see 30 well-fed and well-groomed calves on display, has been set for Saturday February 12. T. G. Bengel announced Monday of this week following a meeting of committeemen named to promote the show.

Agent Rice acted to add more color and activity to the all-day affair by stating that the county 4-H cotton show will be held in conjunction with the calf show. It has been estimated that around 60 boys will have cotton samples to be judged for the approximately $100 cash prizes offered for participants in the cotton project sponsored by the ginners of the county. Prizes for calves.

At the meeting of the committeemen Monday here, $80.00 was set aside by the Munday Chamber of Commerce to be awarded boys entering calves and a purple ribbon will be pinned on the grand champion of the show.

Another prize feature to be given to the best groomed calf in the calf show is a halter to be given by Jack Idol, manager of the League Ranch.

The prize money will be split into 30 awards, assuring a cash prize for every contestant, it was pointed out. The calves will be divided into junior and senior divisions for competition, with the division point being determined on a weight basis.

First place will draw $7.50 in each division, second $5.00, third $3.50, fourth $3.00, fifth $2.50 and the remaining 10 places $2.00 each.

Ralph Howe, county agent of Crobyton, Texas and member of the International Judging team of Texas A. & M. College has been secured to judge the show for the fourth straight year, Rice announced. A native of Baylor county, Howe is considered one of the outstanding livestock judges of this section.

The chamber of commerce will fetter all the 4-H boys of the county that attend the show with a barbecue dinner, Bengel stated. Place for the affair will not be announced until a later date and plans are being worked out for the biggest calf show in history of the county.

Committeemen in charge are T. G. Bengel, president of the city organization; W. E. Barly, W. R. Moore, C. R. Elliott, Pitzer Baker, Henry Arledge of Knox City, Jack Idol, former man of the League Ranch and W. W. Rice, county agent.

WALDRIP-HARGROVES

Mrs. Gladys Hargroves of Throckmorton became the bride of Ansel Waldrip of Knox City Saturday afternoon in Albany, Texas. The marriage took place at the Baptist Parsonage at 5 o'clock with the Rev. W. M. Joslin, pastor of the First Baptist Church, reading the Service.

The bride wore a frock of Copper-tone crepe with Saddle tan accessories. Following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Waldrip made a short trip to Abilene.

Mrs. Waldrip is well known in Knox City, having been employed here until several months ago, by the Haskell Telephone Company. Mr. Waldrip is also well known here, and has been in business here for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldrip will make their home in an apartment at the home of Mrs. A. J. Gore.

J. B. Jones of Benjamin was a Knox City visitor Wednesday.

Miss Myrtle Evans is visiting relatives in Abilene this week.

YEGGMEN SUCCEEDED IN LOOTING TWO BUSINESS HOUSES IN HASKELL

Burglars looting the safes of two Haskell stores Sunday night, made away with an estimated $700 in cash and checks.

The small safe from Perkins-Timberlake store was hauled away when burglars were unable to open it after the knob had been knocked off, and the safe in the Texas theatre was battered through the bottom and contents removed.

Entrance was made in the dry goods store by prying the lock from the front door, and when the burglars failed to open the vault after the knob had been knocked off, the safe was apparently carried to the front door and loaded into a car or truck. It had not been found Monday night.

A tear gas device over the combination knob of the theatre safe failed to halt the burglars, who turned the safe its side and apparently with a small hammer battered through the bottom. Loss which was estimated at $400, was partially covered by insurance, stated Server Leon, theatre owner. Entrance to the building was also made by prying the lock from the front door.

Burglary of the Perkins-Timberlake store was first reported to the sheriff's department Monday morning, followed shortly by the discovery that the theatre safe had also been entered.

Sheriff Giles Kemp said he believed at least three persons were involved in the burglaries.

This, perhaps the heaviest theft loss in Haskell in several years, is the second burglary during many months. Recently two dope addicts stole a quantity of morphine from a local drug store, but were arrested the following day.

An attempt was made to burglarize the safe of the theatre about a year ago, but was frustrated by a tear gas bomb device on the safe.—Haskell Free Press.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

From the Knox City Journal Files of January 26, 1923.

E. O. Jamison, president of the First National Bank, is still on the sick list. Other members of the force at the bank are also sick this week.

MRS. CECIL LEWIS HONORED

Mrs. Cecil Lewis, who will leave soon to make her home in Seymour, was the honoree Wednesday afternoon for a lovely gift party given by members of the Floy Hawkins Circle of the Baptist Church. Guests met at the home of Mrs. Lewis at three o'clock for the social hour. Many lovely and useful gifts were presented Mrs. Lewis by all those present and by Mrs. O. W. Caussey also. Delicious refreshments were served to Mesdames J. V. Jones, J. W. Hamm, A. B. Reese, A. M. Whittis, Arthur Hallmark, J. G. Dutton, J. T. May, E. O. Jamison, W. D. Green and Miss Willie Jones.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER

The Herald is authorized to announce O. L. Patterson as a candidate for re-election to the office of County Commissioner Precinct No. 2 subject to the action of the democratic voters at the approaching primary.

Mr. Patterson has served Knox County well in this office and is asking for re-election on the record he has made. He expects to make an active campaign of his precinct and meet as many of the voters as possible. He has no opposition at the present time and it is rumored that he will not have an opponent in the coming election.

MRS. CLYDE GOODRICH HONORED AT PARTY

Mrs. Clyde Goodrich was the honoree last Friday afternoon for a lovely gift tea in the home of Mrs. J. W. Smith. The hostess for this delightful occasion were: Mesdames J. W. Smith, Verna Harwell, Thomas Ferguson, Joe Watkins, Stella Thompson and Misses Bernice Champion, Velma Whitehead, Leta Turner, Lurline Whitmore and Oletha Simmons. Guests called between the hours of four to six. Many out of town guests, called. Mrs. Goodrich, a recent bride, is the former Miss Billye Burnett of Benjamin.

Tea was piled by Miss Champion from a table beautifully laid in lace and silver, centered with pink and white Snapdragons. Miss Champion was assisted in serving guests by Mrs. A. M. Armstrong.

A musical program was given by Mrs. Mabel Pycatt, Mrs. E. Q. Warren and Misses Mary Lou Graham, Marion Clonts, Ellena Payne, and Billye Besa Benedict.

A beautiful corsage of Gladiolus was presented the honoree by the hostess.

The Christian Womens Association of Knox City will meet Monday January 31, at three o'clock, in the Baptist Church. This meeting is important and all ladies of the town are urged to be present. Problems which every lady in town should be interested in will be discussed.

Mrs. Henry Arledge is visiting her mother in Winter, this week.

Terrell Warns Housewives of Dangers From Gas

Warning to users of natural gas went out last week from Railroad Commissioner Chairman C. V. Terrell as he reminded users that the fact that malodorants have been placed in gas mains does not mean that gas is no longer dangerous. Pure gas has no odor, so after the tragic New London explosion last spring, the Legislature ordered malodorants placed in all gas mains. This has been done, Terrell said, but it does not reduce the explosive danger of the gas.

To householders, Terrell offered the following suggestions:

STAY AWAKE

Never go to sleep with a gas stove burning. You might die of asphyxiation if a gust of air or temporary halt in the flow kills the flames. If the gas is turned low, a "pull" on the line by other persons turning on their stoves may put it out.

Always strike the match first instead of turning on the gas and then striking the match.

Never hunt for a leak with a match. Call the gas company or use soap suds like the experts.

When returning home after a trip to the house before striking a match because there may be a gas leak in the house.

Regulate the flame at the wall sock rather than at the valve on the appliance because there may be a leak in the house.

SINCLAIR AGENCY HERE
SOLD TO CECIL LEWIS

(Baylor County Banner.)
Seymour—Robt. L. Taylor, who has been the Seymour agent for the Sinclair Refining Co. the past six years has sold the agency to Cecil Lewis of Knox City, the change to be effective immediately.

Mr. Taylor will move this week to Wise county, near Dedatur, where he has extensive farming interests. It is with much regret that Seymour loses Mr. Taylor and his fine family, but the best of good wishes follow them as they depart.

The new agent, Mr. Lewis has been Conoco agent in Knox City for the past year, coming there from Kentucky. Those who have met him declare that he is a hard worker and a fine man in general, just the kind that Seymour is glad to have here.

Mr. Lewis, his wife and 13-year-old son will move here immediately. He plans no changes in the personnel of his organization.

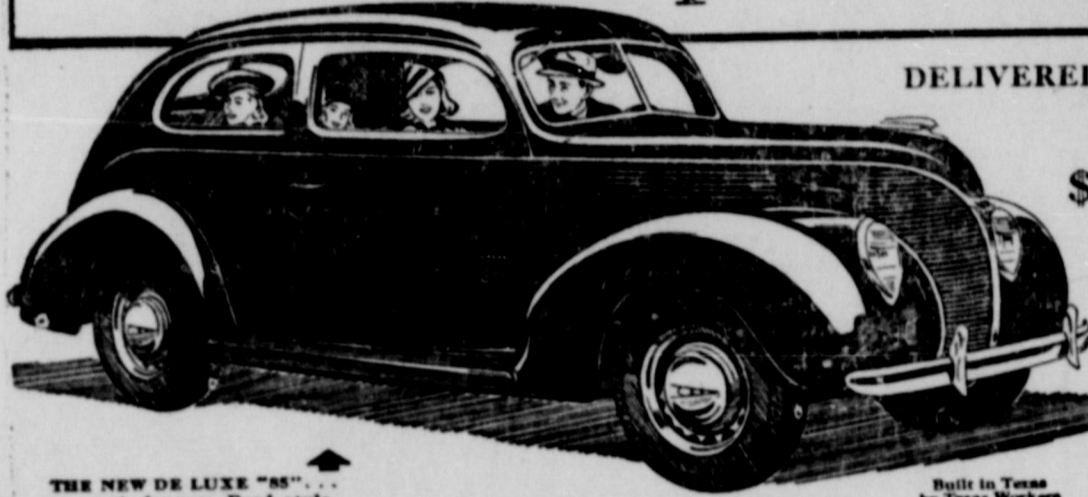

Mr. Taylor has sold his home here to Mrs. Jennie Hughes of Hobbs, N. M., and it will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Harrison.

League, Rev. and Mrs. Cogswell have taken an active part in community affairs, and their leaving will prove a distinct loss to Nocona.

At Knox City Rev. Cogswell will devote his entire time to preaching. He will be pastor of the Central Christian church there, and will also be pastor for the churches at Benjamin and Truscott. Miss Mary Cogswell, their 19-year-old daughter, is now a senior at T. C. U. The Seymour friends of the Cogswells are glad to have them get back closer home.

HASKELL MAN KILLED IN AUTOMOBILE CRASH

Haskell, Jan. 21—J. L. Howard Jr., 28, was instantly killed early tonight and his brother, Hollis Howard, 25 and A. O. Treadwell, 19, were seriously injured in an automobile-truck crash here.

The truck driver, Francis Blake, was injured when the Haskell youths crashed into his truck as he made a left turn off the highway.

Both machines were badly wrecked.

Body of the older Howard brother was being held at the Holden Funeral home here. His brother and Treadwell were taken to a Stamford hospital.

Hollis Howard suffered a deep cut above his left eye and leg lacerations. Treadwell received facial lacerations. Doctors said it was possible that both had skull fractures. An x-ray examination will be made Saturday.

Howard is survived by his widow, several brothers and sisters and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Howard who recently moved to Arkansas.

Circumstances surrounding the wreck were being investigated by Sheriff Giles Kemp and County Attorney Walter Murchison of Haskell.

FERGUSON-MOORE

Miss Dot Moore and Iraj Ferguson were united in marriage Friday, January 14, at the Methodist parsonage here. Rev. U. S. Sherrill, pastor of the Methodist Church, read the impressive ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. J. C. Goodson. She has lived near Knox City for many years and is well known here, having been employed by the Black and White Grocery until recently. Mr. Ferguson is the son of Sid Ferguson of Stephenville, Texas, and has also lived here several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson will make their home near Knox City.

Mrs. S. L. White was hostess Friday evening for a delicious Turkey dinner honoring Mr. White on his birthday. Those seated for the dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Whitis, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. TENNYSON TO SEEK SENATORIAL SEAT

CHARLES H. TENNYSON

Wichita Falls, Texas, January 23.—Representative Charles H. Tennyson of Wichita Falls announced that he would be a candidate for State Senator from the 23rd senatorial district. He is a teacher of history and government in the senior high school and is serving his third term in the House where he is chairman of the important committee on education.

Born and reared on a Texas farm Tennyson has been active on measures to help the livestock and agriculture interests of Texas as well as the oil industry and education and has sponsored several measures to regulate utilities. He was author of a bill in the last regular session of the legislature which renewed the conservation laws of Texas and finally succeeded in the same session in securing the passage of a bill to lower the rate of return allowed utilities in Texas. It was in the Senate where this measure had in other sessions either been killed or altered in such a fashion as to eliminate its effectiveness.

In making his announcement Tennyson said: "I deeply appreciate the support given me in the past by the citizenship of this district, and in seeking promotion to the senate, I do so on the basis of my record during the three terms I have served in the House of Representatives. It is my purpose to issue a more detailed statement at a later time."—Charles Tennyson.

Future for Cedars

Woman's beauty in a few years may be somewhat dependent on the cedar trees of Texas. Cosmetics, perfumes, soaps, medicines, paints, varnishes, waxes, etc. are among the products that can be made from cedar oil, according to recent discoveries. The possibility of large-scale manufacture of these products makes the fact that Texas has probably the largest supply of uncut cedar timber in the world assume a new significance.

TEXAS TECH NEWS

Lubbock, Texas, Jan. 24.—Possibility that a skeleton, discovered in a sedimentary deposit near Portales, N. M., might be that of Folsom man exists says Dr. W. C. Holden, director of archeological research at Texas Technological College, who headed an expedition of scientists to aid in the identification last week.

Position of the skeleton and strata in which it lay had been disturbed by treasure seekers before the Tech party reached the Folsom excavations pit. Study of soil conditions surrounding the Fossil thus being made impossible, the skeleton will be sent to Peabody museum of Harvard university, where physical characteristics will be studied.

The Portales valley region is rich in Folsom remains. Dr. E. B. Howard of the university of Pennsylvania has uncovered fossilized elephants, bison and horses in connection with Folsom like projectile points.

The WEEKLY CONSTITUTIONAL

by MAX BERNIS

The President and the Court

How does the President's power of veto compare with the Supreme Court's power to find a law unconstitutional?

Our Constitution gives the President the political and legislative power to veto a bill passed by Congress. This enables him to object to any legislation that he deems unwise, inexpedient or otherwise objectionable.

The Constitutional Convention discussed whether the Supreme Court should have advisory or joint jurisdiction with the President in this power, but rejected the idea. Such power would have associated the judges with the President in dealing extra-judicially on questions of policy. They would have had to consider not only whether laws were constitutional but also whether they were just, wise, safe or expedient. This would have made the Court a legislative and political body as well as simply a judicial body as it now is.

Our Constitution gives the Court no such power but does give it the judicial power to pass upon cases brought before it by litigants. If, when a case is brought into Court, it finds that an act conflicts with our Constitution which is defined as "the supreme law," the Court so states.

Throughout its history the Court has limited itself to this judicial duty. It has refrained from exercising any legislative or political power and has rejected attempts of the Congress and the Executive to impose such powers upon it.

Under our Constitution the President has the legislative and political power to veto an act of Congress. But the Supreme Court may not do so. Its power is exclusively judicial. It passes only upon cases brought before it.

Continental Oil Co. Launches Housing Plan

CONFIRMING President Roosevelt's position that there is an acute housing shortage, even in the most remote sections of the country, Continental Oil Company, according to an announcement by the Company, has started to meet the situation as it exists in several oil producing areas and at its refineries in the Southwest by erecting a number of single family houses for occupancy by its working forces. Some sixty houses of four and five rooms have already been completed, with forty-three now under construction. Continental, already well known in the oil industry for its "good housekeeping" practices at its refineries and field pumping stations, is equipping each unit with a modern kitchen and tiled bath room and is landscaping the surrounding grounds. Most houses will also be provided with garages.

BROTHER, YOU'RE NOT THE ONLY ONE

The following letter supposed to have been written one of numerous tax collecting departments by a man who was being fined 1 per cent per day for being delinquent, and on top of that threatened with having his property taken away from him, has so much truth in it that it is worth passing along to the suffering brethren:

"Dear Sheriff:

"In reply to your demand for a check I wish to inform you that the present condition of my bank account makes it almost impossible. My lamentable financial status is due to Federal laws, State laws, County laws, Corporation laws, Liquor laws, mother-in-law, sister-in-law and out-laws.

Through these laws I am compelled to pay a business tax, amusement tax, school tax, gas tax, income tax, food tax, furniture tax and excise tax. Even my brains are taxed. I am required to get a business tax, a car license, truck license, liquor license, not to mention a marriage license, dog license and hunting and fishing licenses.

"I am also required to contribute to every society and organization which the genius of man is capable of bringing to life; to women's relief, the unemployed relief, and the gold-diggers' relief. Firemen's balls and Policemen's balls. Also to every hospital and charitable institute in the city including the Red Cross and the double-cross.

"For my own safety I am required to carry life insurance, liability insurance, property insurance, accident insurance, business insurance, earthquake insurance, tornado insurance, old age insurance and fire insurance.

"My business is so governed that it is no easy matter for me to find out who owns it. I am inspected, expected, suspected, disrespected, rejected, dejected, examined, informed, required, summoned, fined, commanded and compelled until I provide an inexhaustible supply of money for every known need, desire or hope of the human race.

"Simply because I refuse to donate to something or other, I am boycotted, talked about, lied about, held up, held down and robbed until I am almost ruined.

"However, my uncle Henry died last January and left an estate of $50,000, and I being his only heir, have just been advised that after the government and state have taken out the inheritance taxes and his property has been sold so as to get cash for the government and state and attorney's fees, I am to receive $38,222 to which I am adding $1.49 taken from my baby's bank, thus being able to inclose herewith a post dated check to cover what you claim I owe Faithfully yours I. B. Paine.—Exchange.

Nothing annoys the average business or professional man more than being approached by someone soliciting ads for a church, school or lodge program. He knows to begin with that it isn't good advertising and he also knows that in 99 cases out of 100 it won't do him a penny's worth of good. But he also knows that back of the solicitation is a sort of threat that if you don't come across our organization will forget you when it comes to buying what you have to sell. The merchant knows this type of publicity is not advertising, but a form of charity, and while there is no law or local ordinance to prevent such solicitation there should be for the protection of the business and professional men upon whom such expenditures prove a constant and a heavy drain. Simply because their hands are tied and they dare not say "No" is no reason why such a procedure should be tolerated and the sooner the organization engaged in it realize that the better it will be for legitimate forms of advertising—and also for legitimate forms of charity.—Big Springs News.

COURTESY

Courtesy is a little word that has a big meaning. Custom, religion and government interfere with many lives, but courtesy is something that can be carried on; although many times it is not. How can a person overlook courtesy? Yet it is done over and over again every day by some thoughtless person. Not only does a discourteous person make all who are around him unhappy, but he really hurts himself. Don't you think if you make a person happy you will find happiness a lot easier for yourself than if you are hateful, stubborn and thoughtless of others?

How did courtesy originate? When we think of courts, we think first of men of chivalry. They were courteous men; and they not only thought of others first, but they were intent on doing deeds of kindness.

There is nothing more pleasing to the eye than to see a person who is courteous to his elders and to his brother and sisters. Many times one does not really know what his family means to him until it is too late and he regretfully thinks what little acts of kindness here and there could have been done; but they were not. Not only should we think of our family but of animals, companions, neighbors and our teachers and classmates at school. The greater part of this is spent at home and school. If we can show courtesy at those two places we are going to show it in public places.

So why can't we make life's path a little easier by "giving in" and trying to be courteous enough to do a few deeds of kindness every day.—Dorothy Garrett.

KEEPING TAB ON THE EAGLES By Buddy Bumpas

Eagles Win Their Second Tournament of The Season

The Eagles visited the Indian Reservation at Haskell last Tuesday night. The Eagles looked like Indians the first quarter, because they did a war dance with the ball every time they got it. At the end of the first period the Indians were leading by ten points. But the Sunset Lads came back with a fighting spirit and took the game with scores of 34 to 21. Wednesday night Sunset defeated Benjamin at Sunset with scores of 42 to 21. Last week-end Sunset entered a tournament at Rule. Their first game was with Benjamin at 6:00 o'clock Friday evening. The Eagles played a punk game by fumbling and dribbling the ball. But they finally came out of the game with a one point lead, the scores being 20 to 29. Then Friday night at ten o'clock Sunset played Haskell. The Eagles were still soft at themselves for playing such a game against Benjamin; so they started whipping the old ball through the hoop. At the half they were leading with a score of 31 to 4. The Eagles slowed down the last half and Coach Kimbrough substituted freely. The scores were 30 and 12 at the end of the game. Swenson was next to come under the Eagles' battlements and they are one of the toughest teams that Sunset has played this season. The Eagles got off to a slow start and let Swenson get a seven point lead on them; but they finally settled down and played as they should. The game ended with the Eagles leading by a score of 33 to 23. The Eagles changed into Bobcats Saturday night when they played Mattson. Both teams had black, so the Sunset Boys played in the Rule suits. Although both teams played under difficulties of a wet court, the Eagles won easily with scores of 45 to 23.

Medals were given to the members of an all-tournament team, which was selected by the coaches of the tournament. A medal was also given to the most valuable player and best sport of the tournament. Herbert Partridge, Sunset center was selected as the most valuable player; and Orville Strickland was placed on the all tournament team. Both boys worked hard for the honors that they received. The other members of the team, also, did some nice playing during the tournament; and their school is really proud of them.

The team missed Floyd Frost, who was sick and could not be with them at Rule; but he will be ready to go at the Weinert Tournament this week-end.

game that they played in the Weinert tournament, Thursday night, with Midway. They did good playing out just could not keep Edwards from Midway from making the goals. She made 23 points during the game. This was high point forward. Cheek from Sunset, came next with 14 points. The game ended with the scores of 27 to 37 in Midway's favor.

Friday night the girls were supposed to play Irby; but that team forfeited the game to Sunset. For amusement Friday night, Weinert and Sunset played. Weinert won this game. But it was not a tournament game.

Saturday afternoon, the Eagles played Midway. That game was really a fight from the start to the finish. At the end of the game, four of the Sunset players had three personal fouls but none fouled off. The Sunset team won with the score 31 to 25.

This game put the girls in finals for consolation. They played Mattson Saturday night. It seemed that the Mattson forwards had a streak of good luck and the ball would make the basket from any angle thrown. Mattson won with the scores of 42 to 31.

HOME ECONOMICS REPORT

Child Care Is Studied

For the past week the Sunset Home Economics class has been studying the care and training of children.

Reports were given in class on the following subjects:

- "How to Form Good Habits of Sleep."
- "Rooms Suitable for Children."
- "Children Practicing Health Rules."
- "Discipline of the Child."
- "Selecting Playthings and Books."
- "Youngsters Parties and Games"
- "Pets for children."
- "Food and Food Habits of Children."
- "Habits of Small Children."

The class thinks that it profited very much by these reports and most of the girls feel as if they could rear a child without any trouble now, but the mothers of the children when the mothers of the children when they are observing might not agree.

The girls have been observing children in the homes. They say that since they have become interested that they can just see their little brothers and sisters grow. The girls that do not have brothers and sisters in the home, have been visiting grammar school and observing the small children down there. They all think it is very interesting and they hope to learn more of the child's care next semester.—Reporter, Dorothy Gammill.

SENIOR REPORT

After quite a fit of expectancy and in some cases a little dread, the Seniors are reaching for the half way mark, the mid-term exams. They hope that none of them will fail to reach far enough.

The Senior Class has a mild average as a whole, but somewhat lower than the senior class of last year. Anyhow they have nothing to be ashamed of, because none of them have failed thus far.

The senior class is expecting to do its part in the approaching county meet. They say if anyone beats them, well! Whoever beats them will know they have done something. Besides the literary events, the seniors expect to be well represented in track events.

The Seniors are glad to have Floyd Frost back in school after several days illness. They began to fear the Foyd would not get back in time for his term reports and exams.

Le Roy Henderson.

SENIORS ANNUALS

SELLING WELL

The selling of the annuals is coming along nicely. Thirty-five annuals have been ordered and hope to see several more before the date is up. Remember, March 1, 1938 is the "dead-line," so if you want one of these books, let one of the salesmen know at once.

The four salesmen for the annuals are:

- Dorothy Gammill-Senior
- Mamie Tankersley-Junior
- La Verne Bumpas-Sophomore
- Jean Griffith-Freshman

If you want an annual, get in touch with one of these salesmen right away. Price: $1.50 Buy Now!

SOPHOMORE JINGLES

Well as mid-term exams are knocking at the door, the Sophomores are really getting down to business and working before they say, "come in." The Home Economics girls are really proud of their half year's work. Among the recently proud accomplishment is the serving of the buffet luncheon. Some of the girls are taking this as their home project.

The boys who take shop have made different things this last six weeks but they are all very attractive.

All of the Sophomores are working to be the class to have the highest mid-term average in school. So come on all you Sophs, don't balk!

RENEWED INTEREST IN KNOX CITY HIGH SCHOOL

Monday, January 24, in Knox City High School found a refreshed, energetic group taking a new hold on their school work. Few changes have been made but school will continue in the same easy manner as it did before that dead week hit with the length and force of a hurricane.

This is like the calm after the storm but we think the exams were not quite as bad as some teachers would have us believe.

Everyone looks forward with renewed interest to the coming interscholastic League Meet. We realize that this will take much work and time but we think we are ready, willing, and capable.

We are going to try and make this League Meet the most enjoyable and hospitable ever held. With the help of each individual we can.

There seems to be quite a bit of competition going on in a few of the classes. Those scholarship medals figure in this somewhere or I'm mixing my guess. All those who will try hard enough there will be a reward so let us all do our best—Dorothy Shaver.

FRESHMAN STANDARD DICTIONARY

Athletics—A sport composed of several parts, the most prominent of which are a black eye and a "busted" lip.

Cram—A certain process pupils go through in fortifying themselves against the onslaught of exams.

Education—A household necessity and a world-wide need.

Editorial Staff—A bunch of boneheads putting out the school paper on the other student knowledge.

Flunk—A daring deed committed by some bold pupil.

Falschoods—Baby lies.

Freshmen—Mothers' delight, and civilization's chief detrement.

Faculty—A group of ancient sophisticators who delight in preventing the graduation of pupils.

Girl—A piece of humanity whose chief aim is to make boys foolish, and who is successful, generally.

History—a conglomeration of facts, fiction, and folly.

Juniors—A class composed of "has been" Sophs and "should be Seniors" who possess foundas self-satisfaction and "strut" to mother.

Putting one by the teachers—Looking wise when you don't know anything and gazing out of the window when you do.

Quiz—The downfall of ambitious Sophomores.

"Sunset"—A glowing illusion that fades away like the faint remembrance of a math problem or a basketball team.

A Fish's Brain—One of those technical machines that only works by force.

Waste Basket—A place to exterminate all notes and chewing gum.

Seniors—That high-brow bunch dignified look.

NEW ADDITION TO THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

Monday morning a new Sophomore enrolled in the Knox City High School. He is Vernon Benson from Benjamin. He states that his favorite sport is football and should prove a great asset if a football squad be organized. He is tall with dark hair and brown eyes. Everyone is glad to welcome Vernon to our midst and hope he will be happy in our midst.

BASKETBALL GIRLS AT WEINERT TOURNAMENT

The Basketball girls went to Weinert Thursday night to play Weinert in their invitation Tournament. They played at 8:30. The game ended with the scores 31 and 27 in Weinert's favor.

After losing that game the girls went into the Consolation bracket. They played Mattson Saturday afternoon at 2:00. This game was said to be the most interesting of all games of the tournament. It was a close try!

battle from start to finish. Our girls played a fast hard fought game and the final whistle blew with the score a tie, 27-27. Upon the decision of the coaches and the referee an extra three minutes were played, Mattson scored in the final minute of play and the score was brought up to 29-27 in Mattson's favor. The girls were very disappointed but they knew how to take it.

This coming week-end the Greyhounds play in the O'Brien Invitation Tournament. Here's wishing them much success.

MRS. WARREN PRESENTS MUSIC PUPILS

Monday afternoon at 1:15 Mrs. E. Q. Warren presented her music pupils on the weekly assembly program.

The first number was a delightful presentation of scenes taken from the current Walt Disney version of "Snow White."

Following this came a group of girls in a routine of esthetics.

A number of readings were presented and the musical portion of the program consisted of numbers by Billy Dean Davis and his saxophone, a violin ensemble, made up of Marjorie Sue Kay of Rochester, Anita Wampler, Nella Shaver, Billy Dean Davis, and Annalu Warren, Margaret Dutton and Virginia Warren sang "A Gold Mine in the Sky" and Ken Frizzell entertained with his accordion.

An additional feature which proved to be interesting and enjoyable to all was the surprise performance of Mr. Faulkner from Lubbock. Mr. Faulkner is a blind musician and educator. He gave several numbers on the piano and will present a program Tuesday showing the great work that is being accomplished in the schools for the Blind throughout the country. Mr. Faulkner especially complimented Billy Dean Davis on his musical ability and said that Knox City was quite fortunate in having so many talented boys and girls.

We wish to note the number of visitors that were present at this assembly program and want to invite them back at all times possible.

GREY HOUND BARKS

Dorothy, if you were driving down the streets of Munday, and someone hollered—"Get over Dorothy!"—What would you do?

Sallye, was it the rain that kept you away from home this week-end?

Johnnie Mae who is this George from Hamlin? Nice going!

Are those "Rule-bound" letters very important, Juanita?

Why is it that Dorothy and Anna V. are so worried about Mattson?

It seems that Melvin and Zena and L. N. and Anita had a very enjoyable afternoon Sunday.

Bertha Maye have you lost all interest in Truscott or are you too busy writing letters to Rochester?

"Miles cannot separate true love"—quote, Pau Edward.

We always knew you could pick 'em, Dorothy you have an eye for athletic ability.

Dorothy Ruby it seems that you were having a good time Sunday night.

Geneva, do you suppose your mail man ever gets tired delivering letters from out of the state—Arizona, for instance.

Marion, if you got your reports, what would happen? we all wonder.

A COUPLA' DITHERS FROM A COUPLA' CLASSES

We Wonder Why:
Anita had a cold last week. That was exam week.

Jack was so nice to everyone last Monday.

Sam Woodward stopped going to Haskell every Thursday night. Or did he?

I even wrote this.

That Wynette Farmer has a lot to learn about two-timing and cod-living tablets. "What a gal!"

That since a certain person went to Arizona Geneva has been slipping in Plane Geometry. (Could it be worse of the tournament. It was a close try?)

That Maurice Stapp never goes with the same girl more than twice. Why Doris Apple was so thrilled about a certain "Hunter" not going to Ft. Worth over the week-end.

Mary Frances looks forward to Sunday afternoons so much lately.

Rowena's heart starts doing double time every time she hears the name Sunset.

Anna V. Carr had rather find the lost Stamford Class ring than anything else in the world.

That the sound of a motor cycle means so much to Marie Darr.

That Glenn Huntsman prefers blondes, the ones that stay home on Sunday nights.

VOLLEY BALL NEWS

Volley ball practice seems to have been suspended because of exam week and basket ball. There have been so many basket ball games that the volley ball period has been given to the basket ball girls and boys. Volley ball season does not get in full swing until in February, however so we are sure that we will have plenty of time to make a grand team after basket ball season is over.

BOYS AT WEINERT TOURNAMENT

Next week-end, Thursday 27, Fri. 28, and Saturday 29 the Knox City Boys Basketball team will take part in the Weinert Invitation Tournament. Everyone is urged to attend the tournament and back the Greyhounds. They play Monday at 6:30 Friday night.

BAND NEWS

Mr. Dodgen, band instructor, stated that for the first time in its history the band is out of debt. In addition to this good news it was also learned that a new pair of cymbals have been purchased and the contest music decided on and purchased. The band is certainly making progress and everyone is proud of it and the work that it has done and is planning to do.

NEW LIBRARIANS

Mr. Berry of Knox City and Mrs. Gibbins of Munday, Texas have been installed as librarians in the Knox City High School Library.

ANN MABE LOST TO K. C. H. S.

The Senior Class regrets losing Ann Mabe one of its members. Ann was not only a very active member of the Senior Class, but she was also Reporter of that class. Ann has moved to Crowell, and the Senior wish her much happiness in her "old home town."

Ruth McGee has been selected as the new Senior Reporter upon the departure of Ann Mabe. Ruth is an active and faithful member of her class, and she is very capable of her duty as Senior Class Reporter.

PERSONALS

Wynette Farmer spent the week-end in Munday with Mary Moore.

Chellie Sue Bragg of Rochester, was a visitor at the assembly program given by Mrs. Warren's music classes.

Marjorie Sue Kay of Rochester, appeared on the assembly program Monday.

To The Public

I am leaving Knox City, and Arthur Thomas, will have charge of the Knox City Shoe Shop.

ALLRED RENEWS ATTACKS ON TWO STATE OFFICERS

James V. Allred has always been interested in public land matters. When he ran for Governor in 1934, one of the main planks in his platform was that he had recovered more lands as Attorney General than any of his successors.

Then late in 1937 he began a series of attacks on the activities of Land Commissioner William H. McDonald resulting in the cancellation of a lease on the bed of the Big Wichita River in Wichita County, land which lies in the heart of the giant KMA field.

Allred then renewed his fight to claim long, slender Padre Island for the State of Texas. Last spring he vetoed a bill for the purchase of the island, asserting that the island might already belong to the State. He asked Attorney General Bill McCraw and Land Commissioner McDonald for a report on the state's claim to the island. McDonald in November reported that he believed the state owned all the land. Mr. McCraw has not yet reported. But on December 2, Allred requested McCraw to file suit to claim the island for the State.

RENEWS ATTACKS

Last week public land matters again came to the front as Allred renewed his sharp attacks on McDonald and McCraw.

In press conference he announced that he had nine auditors and several investigators at work in McDonald's office, checking records and files. The full information developed he said, would be turned over to the Senate investigation committee which will begin a probe of Land Office matters on Wednesday, January 26.

Allred then made public a letter he had written to Attorney General McCraw, who is now in New York working on the E. H. R. Green inheritance tax case.

In the letter he sharply renewed his demand that suit to recover Padre Island for the State be filed immediately.

Allred said he had information that private claimants had executed mineral leases to the land.

REPORT DELAYED

The high point of Allred's letter to McCraw was the revelation that the General Land Office prepared a report on the Padre Island situation on May 27, 1937, placed a copy in the office files, but never delivered the report to Governor Allred.

Allred being "tipped off" that the report was prepared, in November had the State Auditor search the Padre Island files and get the report for him. This was six months after he had requested the report, and six months after it had been prepared by the Land Office.

The report was addressed to Allred although it was not delivered until November.

Allred's letter to McCraw came as the result of a letter from McCraw to McDonald, stating that the Padre suit could not be filed until the island was surveyed.

NO SURVEY NECESSARY

"Frankly, Mr. Attorney General," Allred wrote, "I cannot understand why it is necessary to have another expensive survey made of this island for the purpose of filing this suit. Indeed, you could file it and have the court order a survey to be made as has been done in other cases."

"The point is that I requested a report from you on May 25 of last year. I received none. Several months later, the State Auditor discovered in the office of the Land Commissioner a report purported to have been made to me on May 27, two days after I had requested you and the Land Commissioner to make me a report. The Land Commissioner had not sent this report to me; but the copy was in his files. So that, so far as the world knew, he had sent it to me."

He pointed out that McCraw had said, on Dec. 3, that the suit would be instituted and "diligently prosecuted," and concluded "I respectfully renew my request to you to institute and diligently prosecute the state's claim."

Allred's demand brought a sharp rejoinder from the Attorney General.

A letter signed by Scott Gaines, acting Attorney General, advised Allred that the Attorney General's office felt that the success or failure of a suit would be the responsibility of the Attorney General's office "and we should be the judge" of evidence necessary to its prosecution.

Gaines replied in the absence of Attorney General William McCraw, in New York in connection with the E. H. R. Green inheritance tax case.

Reiterating that a survey was prerequisite to filing the suit, Gaines, at a press conference said "if the Governor is so interested in getting the suit filed he'll get a deficiency appropriation to pay the cost of the survey."

In his letter, Gaines took exception to the Governor's charge that the Governor had requested a "report" on ownership of the island last May. REPORT NOT REQUESTED

"Referring to your letter, you will notice that you did not in any respect whatever request a report. The only request you made was that we make a thorough examination and take such steps as are necessary to segregate the state's interest. An investigation immediately began. There is no duty on the part of the Attorney General to make reports to you."

Gaines commented that the statute under which the Governor requested filing of the suit "it was not believed that the provisions of said article of the statutes applied to Padre Island." However, the Attorney General agreed to cooperate in filing the suit.

"We deemed it necessary to have a survey made of the land in order that the suit be filed. We do not agree with you that the court could appoint a surveyor."

WE WILL JUDGE

"We also call attention to the fact that if the state has title, its claim is not barred by any statute of limitation, and regardless of the acts or conduct of any person in possession of the land the State's rights will not be affected. Therefore, we feel that we will be prosecuting the suit diligently as soon as we receive such information as we deem necessary to file the suit. As the success or failure of the suit will be the responsibility of this department, we feel that we should be the judge of the procedure to be followed."

10 States Compete As N. Carolina Student Wins Crop Judging Prize

President Kenneth S. Templeton of the Chicago Board of Trade (right) presents individual crop judging prize to Van S. Watson, Jr., University of North Carolina, as his teammates and the University of Nebraska and Oklahoma A. & M. teams look on.

CHICAGO—With a total score of 1395, five points higher than his closest rival, Van S. Watson, Jr., senior student at the University of North Carolina, is the individual collegiate crop judging champion of 1937.

His honors included a diamond-set gold medal, presented by Kenneth S. Templeton, president of the Chicago Board of Trade, which for the fourth consecutive year sponsored the event in the interest of improved crop yield and better returns to agricultural America.

Other Board of Trade awards in the contests directed by the International Crop Improvement Association, included $100 scholarships to crop judging teams of the University of Nebraska, University of North Carolina, Oklahoma A. & M., and the University of Minnesota, which finished in the order named. Teams from eleven colleges, a greater number than ever before in the Board of Trade crop judging competition, participated this year. Besides those named, contestants included teams from Iowa State, Kansas State, Michigan State, Texas A. & M., Pennsylvania State, Virginia Tech., and Texas Tech.

Weekly News Letter From Lubbock Texas Tech College

Lubbock, Texas, Jan. 23—Junior Livestock judges from Texas Tech College won the American Hampshire association trophy for sheep judging, at the Western National Livestock judging show in Denver last week.

Allen Heury, Sterling City, won second in individual honors. High man in sheep judging, he was awarded a silver loving cup as high individual in judging all fat stock. Melvin Boyd of Mertonson placed third in sheep judging and Robert Marshall of Fort Sumner, N. M., fifth. Other Tech team members were Winston McInnis, Memard, and Jim Wiman. Phasing of teams in the entire contest was: Wyoming, first; Kansas, second; Colorado, third; Utah, fourth; Tech, fifth; and New Mexico, sixth.

Lubbock, Texas, Jan. 23—President Bradford Knapp has been appointed secretary of the better ginning section of a State-Wide Cotton Committee of Texas, by General Chairman Burrell C. Jackson of Hillsboro. The sub-committee has as one of its aims establishment of a federal cotton ginning laboratory in Texas.

The state-wide committee, made up of more than 200 agricultural and business leaders, will promote new uses for a cotton research laboratory, cotton quality improvement, and better ginning, representing practically every agricultural and industrial interest of Texas.

Lubbock, Texas, Jan.—From New Mexico an old-fashioned blacksmith shop in its entirety will be brought and set up on the campus of Texas Technological College for the third welding conference to be held by the mechanical engineering department Feb. 3 and 4. The history and progress of welding from the old blacksmith shop to the present will be demonstrated during the conference.

Twelve of the largest industrial concerns will have exhibits and stage demonstrations during the two-day meet. Following is a partial list of demonstrations that will be given: electric welding of aluminum, welding oil well casings, bronze welding, pipe cutting and beveling machines and shape cutting machines.

Three hundred men interested in the various phases of welding are expected from Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma. There is no admission or registration fee for the course and all who are interested are invited to attend. Types of welding equipment never before shown on the South Plains will be demonstrated.

A number of awards are to be made at the close of the conference, including regulators, goggles, welding torches, welding gloves, helmets, head shields, electrode holders, welding flux and various other supplies.

Lubbock, Texas, Jan. 23—Dr. S. S. McKay, professor of history at Texas Technological College, has been asked by Scribner's to contribute articles on several subjects for a Dictionary of American History. The first volume to be published in the near future.

Subjects to be covered by Doctor McKay are: A history of American business clubs, Lions, Kiwanis, Rotary, etc.; the Coke-Davis controversy in Texas history; and the Carlsbad Caverns.

The Coke-Davis controversy involves the incident when Texas had two governors for a week acting simultaneously. This was in 1874. Doctor McKay contributed to Scribner's Dictionary of American Biography, 1928-38, published in 25 volumes. He contributed ten sketches, including biographies of three Texas governors

Lubbock, Texas, Jan. 23—Twenty-four tiny tots, from two and one-half to four and one-half years play, rest and eat in Texas Tech's new nursery school while their mothers go about their morning work assured the welfare of their children is receiving first consideration. Each child was given a physical examination before entering the school.

The new nursery school is located on Tech campus and serves as a laboratory for home economics students, taking child development and family relations.

Miss Sannie Callan, professor of child development and family relations, is in charge of the school. She is assisted by Mrs. Flora Lena Lovelace, graduate student, and Miss Gladys Pierce Junior.

A trained nurse examines the children upon their arrival at 9 o'clock each morning. They are allowed to play with a variety of toys provided by the school until 10 o'clock, when they are given fruit and made to rest until lunch. The parents call for their children after lunch and take them home with the understanding that the children be given an afternoon nap.

Although the nursery school is to be used mainly as a laboratory, the most important element is the development of self reliance, freedom in play and social contacts with children their own age.

Lubbock, Texas, January 23—"Fair Trade Practices" is the title of an article in the current number of New Mexico Business Review by Dr. Karl E. Ashburn, professor of economics at Texas Technological College.

ROMANCE AND SOAP

Exotic, moonlight seemed more in harmony with the Yucca, creamy desert flower of West Texas, than such a drab, every-day article as soap, but experiments have proved that soap can be made from the root of the plant. Even more aromatic but practical from the ranchman's standpoint is the fact that the leaves are good emergency cattle feed.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Whitford were called to Paducah last Thursday because of the death of Mrs. Whitford's cousin, Burnett Jones, who died suddenly.

FORD OFFERS TWO NEW CARS and keeps their PRICES LOW

Right—the Standard Tudor Sedan 60 or 85 horsepower
Below—the De Luxe Fordor Sedan 85 horsepower

THERE are two new Ford cars for 1938—the De Luxe and the Standard—differing in appearance, appointments and price—but built on the same dependable Ford chassis.

Both bring you the basic advantages of a V-type 8-cylinder power-plant—smooth performance and compact design. The De Luxe Ford has the 85-horsepower engine. The Standard Ford provides a choice of 85 or 60 horsepower.

Both new cars are economical to operate. The Standard, with thrifty "60" engine, costs less to run than any other Ford car ever built.

And both new cars are priced low. Low price, like economy, is a Ford tradition. Ford founded the low-price field 30 years ago and keeps Ford prices low.

The De Luxe Ford costs slightly more than the Standard Ford, but provides more style with extra room in the closed sedans. Both cars, in proportion to price, represent unusual values. Both are built to the same high standard of mechanical excellence. There's a dealer near you.

GETTING SPECIFIC

An example of getting law-making down to a fine point: In a certain Texas community the law provides not only that an election booth must be of a certain exact dimension, but that it must contain a shelf in which the voter can rest his elbow while writing. An armchair and smoking stand ought to be next in line.

Lubbock, Texas, January 23—To beautify the campus of Tech College campus and to make the Plains Region tree conscious is the double objective of a special Arbor Day program Feb. 22 at the college. From five to ten thousand young trees will be planted on the campus by faculty and students with nearly a thousand persons actively participating.

A half holiday has been declared for the afternoon, coffee and doughnuts will be served the workers, President Bradford Knapp, Chas. A. Guy, editor of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, Sen. G. H. Nelson, a tree enthusiast, and several others will be mounted and will ride across the broad acres of the Tech campus, directing the work and encouraging workers.

O. B. Howell, professor of horticulture and director of the campus beautification program, has made plans for the mammoth tree planting. The area to be planted has been divided into five main units with a trained foreman and workers assigned to each, and every detail has been blueprinted.

Tech nursery has in stock probably a million young trees and shrubs with about 50,000 large enough to transplant. Stock is being furnished from this nursery for public forestry projects and for campus use. Trees already planted at Tech have made phenomenal progress and the aim is to have the most beautiful campus in Texas. With little money to do this work Tech faculty and students are gladly volunteering their service. It is hoped that Arbor Day here will be an annual tradition.
