Auto Drivers Need License April First

No Charge for Non-Profit Vehicles But Must Have Card

Motorists soon will be stepping forward to apply for the drivers' license each person must hold after April 1, before he can drive an automobile on the streets or highways of the State.

Application forms to be filed by license seekers are expected to be received this month by the county tax assessor and collector, who will act as agent for the State's Department of Public Safety. Issuance of the license is expected to begin about February 15.

The new law, designed as a traffic safety measure, prohibits any person from driving a motor vehicle on the highways of the State after April 1 without either an operator's or a chauffeur's license. Operators are defined as the ordinary automobile driver, chauffeurs as those whose principal employment is driving an automobile or who drive motor vehicles for hire.

No license will be issued to persons under 14 years old without authorization of the county judge, and minors under 18 must have the consent of parent or guardian before license will be issued to them.

Licenses will not be issued to habitual drunkards, drug addicts, feeble minded or insane persons, those physically or mentally unable to exercise reasonable control of a motor vehicle, or anyone unable to understand highway warnings and direction signs in the English language. Persons denied a license may appeal to the county courts.

Eligible persons who make application will be issued an operator's license without charge. Chauffeurs will receive both an operator's and a chauffeur's license, and a badge if he is operating a motor vehicle for hire. The annual fee for a chauffeur's license is $3.

To be valid, the license certificate must bear the signature of the recipient. An operator's license will be valid for three years, a chauffeur's for one year.

Operators must be ready to display their license at the request of any peace officer. But the law provides production of a valid license in court will be a defense against a charge of driving without one.

The penalty for driving without a license is a fine of not more than $200 for each separate offense. For driving while the license is suspended, a person is liable to imprisonment in the county jail for two days to six months and a fine of not more than $500.

Licenses automatically will be suspended when a driver is convicted of negligent homicide resulting from an automobile accident, driving while intoxicated, hit-and-run driving, two separate convictions of aggravated assault by means of an automobile, any felony in connection with the motor vehicle laws of the State, or three convictions within one year's time of violating the laws of the road.

The suspension for the first offense is six months. For the second and succeeding offenses the suspension is for one year.

It will be a misdemeanor punishable by a maximum fine of $200 for a person to possess or display a fictitious or canceled license, to use a false name in applying for a license, or to permit the use of his license by someone else.

Duplicates or lost or destroyed licenses will be issued upon payment of 25 cents.

Exempted from obtaining license are operators of road or farm machinery, non-resident drivers who hold valid licenses issued by other States, or drivers who hold license from the Texas Railroad Commission.

The law requires police and other law enforcement officers, hospital attendants and ambulance operators to report automobile accidents to the department of public safety. The basis of these reports will be the basis of the department's investigation. Only two persons will be permitted to be present at the scene of an accident.

Ed Gossett Announces for Congress Post

Ed Gossett, a candidate for Congress from the 11th district, announced his candidacy for Congress from the 11th district, subject to the action of the Democratic caucus. Concerning his candidacy, Mr. Gossett makes the following statement:

In offering myself as a candidate for Congress I do so with a feeling that no man can wholly and adequately measure up to the needs of the high office. I can only pledge my best efforts to do so. While you owe nothing to me, you owe much to your community and your country. Therefore, your patronage and your support will be sought on the basis of merit alone. The peace, security and progress of this country is of grave concern to every citizen. Honored and efficient government is of more importance today than ever before. For these reasons, public servants should be employed with even greater care than private ones. The only basis upon which a public servant should be selected is his ability to best serve the public. To my mind the most important qualifications of the good public servant are: Honesty, ability, and eagerness to work. His usefulness is measured by the extent to which he possesses these three characteristics. His actions should be determined in each case by that democratic yardstick of the greatest good for the greatest number. Because of these things, the voters should make a careful study of the man who seeks public office. They should know his background, his training, his temperament, his ambitions and his ideals. They should know how he thinks, feels and acts, and what he can and probably can do for them. It will be my purpose to thoroughly acquaint the voters of this district with these matters. I want to know and be known by them. I want to succeed or fail by an honest, accurate appraisal of my own and ability to serve the people of this congressional district and the country as a whole.

To this end, I shall endeavor to have a platform wherein I will express myself upon all important issues of the day. I will therefore conduct a clean and aggressive campaign to acquaint you with my social, economic and political convictions and beliefs. These things you should know of every man who seeks public office. While as District Attorney Ed Gossett became well known to the people in this judicial district, the following facts concerning his personal history may be of interest. He was born January 27, 1905, in a small town in Louisiana. He states that he was and is and is alarmed by his arrival and that nothing now exists to mark the spot. He is the eldest of a family of nine children. He was reared on farms in Clay and Garza Counties, Texas. At the age of 16 years, ambition and circumstance compelled Gossett to fly the family roof and start making his own way. He went by way of the Kansas oil fields to Sutherland, Nebraska, where he worked in a clothing store and finished high school. He entered the University of Texas in 1919, taught school in 1921-22, taking a bachelor of arts degree from the University in 1924. Thereafter he entered the law school of the University of Texas, graduating in law in 1927. While in the Main University they are justified in wanting.

Ups
The government last week announced a procedure which left unresolved the question of whether or not to refund any of the dollars previously collected. The high cost of the cotton control act, which a case presently pending in the Supreme Court is expected to be considered.

The two major broadcasting companies refused their radio facilities this week to the Republican national committee for political purposes. One of them having pulled from the air until the party convention next summer. Making public relations to Henry Fletcher, chairman of the Republican party, the Columbia Broadcasting Company, banned permanently the transmission of political news and temporarily ruled it out of its political broadcasting convention.

Governor James V. Alfred has delayed the week January 13-15 as made in Texas week. He is expected to be a campaign so that Texas may profit from the efforts of its citizens in boosting the products of the Lone Star State. The movement was especially timely because of the state's Centennial celebration this year. Texas would aid it materially by using the supply of Texas cotton, more wool houses and mills would aid in the consumption of the wool and molar supply in southwestern Texas. What Texas needs is 42 weeks each year of the encouragement of domestic Texas produced products by using the raw materials and developing them into a finished product.

Hereditarily is something that a father passes on to his son be it to be like a trait.

Postmaster General Forney has approved plans for the 1935 Centennial stamp to be issued next March 25. It will be the size of the special delivery stamp, showing a view of the Alamo and San Jacinto, with the Lone Star in the center. The stamp does not open until May 1. The stamp will be put on sale on May 21.

The average man lives 31 years longer now than he did in 1800. He has to in order to get his taxes paid.

One of the very few pictures of Jan Lindbergh, young son of Charles Lindbergh, was in the January 6 edition of Time; the weekly magazine Photographers. It has been told, fought desperately to gain access to the second Lindbergh child. The view is from the back seat of an automobile.

Roumanian police have broken up a gang of women bandits who terrorized the north provinces of Roumania for so many months dressed like men and wearing black masks. The feminine desperadoes carried out a series of sensational highway robberies. The women specialized in shop lifting and cat-burglaries. The leader of the gang, Agata, entered the shops followed by her accomplices and while she was talking to the salesman and moderately flirting with him so as to attract his attention the other women helped themselves to the goods.

We have learned of an interesting and somewhat surprising case in the case of our neighbor, Tony Spence, alias from Italy, succeeded in his name on the relief rolls. The family received $40 a month from the United States government. Tony sent his mother in Italy the relief money and father and other relatives lived on the money.

TRIBUTES TO WEEKLIES

Some of the late Will Rogers philosophic and humorous paragraphs will go down in literary history as masterpieces. Perhaps one of the finest of these is his tribute to the "home town paper," one of his last writings.

"Take away my ham, take away my egg, even chili," said Will, but leave me my newspaper. Even if it has such purely local news as 'Jim Jones came home last night unexpectedly, and blooded caused' or 'Jess Bushy head, our local M. D., is having one of the best years of his career, practically speaking—but they just won't pay him when they wait' the county seat was packed yesterday with prominent people from out of town, attempting to renew their notes and 'election ain't far off and everybody is up for office that can sign an application blank.'

news to you. But it is news to you especially when you know the people and they are your own folks. So no matter how punk you may think your local newspaper is getting, why just take it away from you and see how you feel. The old newspaper, I think is just about our biggest blessing. So let's all read and be merry, for tomorrow the paper may not have enough ads to come out."—Journal Democrat, De Pere, Wis.

Mrs. S. M. Conis and Mrs. W. V. Favor report a total of more than 800 rose bushes that were ordered the first of this week. Response given to the small articles in the last issue of the Herald kept both ladies busy all day Friday and Saturday.

The two ladies expect their order to be filled within a short time and when so filled they will be glad to have all who possibly can to call at the Clonts home and get their own bushes. Considering that no profit is in the rose bushes for any one, it has been a considerable bit of trouble and expense to both Mrs. Clonts and Mrs. Favor; and in view of this fact, they will be glad to have you assist by calling for your bushes.

Yards of Knox City homes should be much more attractive next Spring and summer than ever before. A large number of the 1,000 Crepe Myrtle plants were put out in Knox City and now 800-rose bushes will make more and prettier flowers.

By suggestion from Mrs. Clonts, many of the business houses are donating two rose bushes to be set in the park.

The Neal families of Rule, and the A. S. Logan family of this city enjoyed a reunion and dinner Sunday in Rule.

The Waldrip Hatchery was moved this week from its former location to the building recently occupied by Wall's Tailor Shop. It is now in the Herald office.

Preacher Osborn has been ill for some three or four weeks; however, he is much better now, being able to be out a little.

Mrs. G. W. Coats is improving from an illness of some two weeks.

BAPTIST BROTHERHOOD TO MEET FRIDAY EVENING

The Baptist Brotherhood of the local church wishes to invite all men from 18 years up to make their plans to be at the Baptist Church Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. There will be two out of town speakers and a number of men visiting from other churches of the association. For this reason we shall expect the men of our own church to lay every thing aside and attend the meeting.

Those men of the church who have not been attending the meetings of this Brotherhood are especially invited to be present Friday evening. You owe it to yourself, your pastor and your Lord. If the men of the church will attend the meetings of the Brotherhood, that will no doubt be the means of bringing about a new day in Church life. God has and always will want man to take the leading part in carrying on His work.

Song service for the Friday evening meeting will be led by Mr. C. E. Bird of O'Brien.

Oh, for men from duty not to swerve
Oh, for men a living God to serve,
For men to stand against all vice and sin

That does not seek to compromise
with men,
God give us men.

Give us men who for the love of God
Will dare to travel where our Father trod,
Men, tho' the world may criticize,
The truth with error will not compromise.

God give us men.

Give us men who do not think it loss
To sacrifice in honor for the Cross,
Who will not heed or follow other
creeds,
But honor God and follow where
He leads.

God, give us men.

The pastor has been down with a spell of flu, and has not been able to fill his place for the two past Sundays. This, of course, could not be helped. Having fully recovered, and hopes to be in his place NEXT SUNDAY, at both services, we are looking forward to a FULL HOUSE, and a gracious service. We have a big program for the year, and are expecting every member to cooperate in making this the greatest year in our history. Can we depend on each and every one to do his best? Each member can, at least, attend the services.

I am looking for YOU next Sunday morning. The Lord bless you, and make you a blessing to the church.

Yours for a great year.

TRIBUTE TO WEEKLIES

Some of the late Will Rogers philosophic and humorous paragraphs will go down in literary history as masterpieces. Perhaps one of the finest of these is his tribute to the "home town paper," one of his last writings.

"Take away my ham, take away my egg, even chili," said Will, but leave me my newspaper. Even if it has such purely local news as 'Jim Jones calls home last night unexpectedly, and his...'"

...and his... of 'Jes Hushy head, our local M. D., is having one of the best years of his career, practically speaking—but they just won't pay him who they wait.' The county seat was packed yesterday with prominent people from out of town, attempting to renew their notes and 'election sin' far off and everybody is up for office that can sign an application blank.

news to you. But it is news to you especially when you know the people and they are your own folks. No matter how punk you may think your local newspaper is getting, why just take it away from you and see how you feel. The old newspaper, I think is just about our biggest blessing. Let's all read and be merry, for tomorrow the paper may not have enough ads to come out.—Journal Democrat, De Pere, Wis.

Mrs. S. M. Conis and Mrs. W. V. Favor report a total of more than 800 rose bushes that were ordered the first of this week. Response given to the small articles in the last issue of the Herald kept both ladies busy all day Friday and Saturday.

The two ladies expect their order to be filled within a short time as when so filled they will be glad to have all who possibly can to call at the Clonts home and get their own bushes. Considering that no profit is in the rose bushes for any one, it has been a considerable bit of trouble and expense to both Mrs. Clonts and Mrs. Favor; and in view of this fact, they will be glad to have you assist by calling for your bushes.

Yards of Knox City homes should be much more attractive next Spring and summer than ever before. A large number of the 1,000 Crepe Myrtle plants were put out in Knox City and now 800 rose bushes will make more and prettier flowers.

By suggestion from Mrs. Clonts, many of the business houses are donating two rose bushes to be set in the park.

The Neal families of Rule, and the A. S. Logan family of this city enjoyed a reunion and dinner Sunday in Rule.

The Waldrip Hatchery was moved this week from its former location to the building recently occupied by Wall's Tailor Shop. It is north of the Herald office.

Preacher Osborn has been ill for some three or four weeks; however, he is much better now, being able to be out a little.

Mrs. G. W. Coats is improving from an illness of some two weeks.

BAPTIST BROTHERHOOD TO MEET FRIDAY EVENING

The Baptist Brotherhood of the local church wishes to invite all men from 18 years up to make their plans to be at the Baptist Church Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. There will be two out of town speakers and a number of men visiting from other churches of the association. For this reason we shall expect the men of our own church to lay every thing aside and attend the meeting.

Those men of the church who have not been attending the meetings of this Brotherhood are especially invited to be present Friday evening. You owe it to yourself, your pastor and your Lord. If the men of the church will attend the meetings of the Brotherhood, that will no doubt be the means of bringing about a new day in Church life. God has and always will want men to take the leading part in carrying on His work.

Song service for the Friday evening meeting will be led by Mr. C. J. Bird of O'Brien.

Oh, for men from duty not to swerve
Oh, for men a living God to serve,
Fore men to stand against all vice and sin
That does not seek to compromise
with men,
God give us men.

Give us men who for the love of God
Will dare to travel where our Father
trod,
Men, tho the world may criticize,
The truth yith error will not compromise.
God give us men.

Give us lives that are not blurred
with sin,
That exercise a power with God
and men,
Who do not seek for silver and gold,
But seek to find and help some
sin sick soul,
God, give us men.

Give us men who do not think it lost
To sacrifice in honor for the Cross
Who will not heed or follow other
creeds,
But honor God and follow where
He leads,
God, give us men.

The pastor has been down with a cold of flu, and has not been able to fill his place for the two past Sundays. This, of course, could not be helped. Having fully recovered, and hopes to be in his place NEXT SUNDAY, at both services, we are looking forward to a FULL HOUSE, and a gracious service. We have a big program for the year, and are expecting every member to cooperate in making this the greatest year in our history. Can we depend on each and every one to do his best? Each member can, at least, attend the services.

I am looking for YOU next Sunday morning. The Lord bless you, and make you a blessing to the church.
Yours for a great year,
B. J. Osborn

The north bound buss through Knox City failed to complete its run Sunday afternoon and passengers stood by and watched while the machine burned.

The driver had passed Rochester and was making good toward Knox City when the buss caught on fire. He succeeded in getting all five of the passengers, their luggage and the mail from the car but could only stand helplessly by and watch the machine burn. Fire began in the motor.

While huddled about their luggage on the road, the passengers and bus driver were confronted with the broad grin of W. R. Terry of Rochester who nicked up the entire bunch and brought them to Knox City.
