"Sunset" Is Name of New School Consolidation

A new consolidated school district number 27 of the former districts of Gillespie, League, Prairie and Jungman, will be known as Sunset Consolidated.

This was determined at the commissioners' Court at Benjamin on Monday, at which time the trustees were appointed by R. C. Partridge, M. G. Peevey, C. G. Yost, E. F. Jungman, Art Jungman and J. B. Moore. The appointment of the trustees was made by the County Board of Education.

The new school building will be located within a mile of the location of the Gillespie school. It will be known as Sunset, eliminating all of the forms by which the consolidated are known, the name being on the filling station near the new school building.

Electors will be called at date for the purpose of voting for the erection of a building to house the consolidated schools, which will have an enrollment of more than four hundred. It is likely that bonds in the amount of $35,000 will be issued for the new building.

SENIOR DINNER PARTY

Edmund C. C. Hoge and J. A. Williams entertained in the home of the former with a dinner party Tuesday evening May 20, for the Senior Class. The house was attractively decorated with pink and orchid flowers, the color scheme of pink and orchid being carried out in the menu also.

After the guests had assembled on the lawn, Miss Syda Edwards played music, and the guests entered and found their places at the tables. A march, consisting of music and words, was presented to the sponsor, hostess, senior athletes and a prophecy in the form of a dream was rendered during the evening. The seniors and their sponsor Mrs. E. R. Miller, with a lovely set of salad and names followed.

Besides the members of the class, the following were present: Misses Clara Clarke, Mable Clonts, Syda Edwards, and Hazel Potter, J. A. Williams, C. C. Hoge, and Miss Lola Foss of Santa Anna, a former member of the class. Miss Foss had read a poem which she had written, "To the Seniors of Knox City".

Everybody reported having an enjoyable evening.

SENIOR RECITAL GOOD

The Senior Recital in Piano and Expression given Monday night by Misses Mrs. E. Q. Warren and Mr. Tom Bohn was very good. Those recited in piano were Misses Pauline Benton, Caydene Hoge, Loredanion, and Alice Reese. Miss Lola Foss was also presented in piano. These girls were assisted by Mrs. O. J. Emory, Mrs. Gordon, and Miss Daphne Humphrey.

In addition to the piano and reading, the senior chorus gave numbers which were very good.

Miss Roberts Editor of the Haskell Press was in Knox City Monday while here he paid the Herald friendly visit.

The program was well attended and deserving of the large crowd.

TO GIVE COMMUNITY PLAY

On Thursday night of next week, May 29th there will be a community play, "Little Miss Jack" given at the Union Grove school house. A number of the older school girls are taking part in the play while the remainder of the characters are people of the community. Mrs. E. F. Branton is directing the play and announced Tuesday that there would not be an admittance fee.

The play is free and a good crowd is expected to be present.

PREACHING, SINGING, DINNER ON GROUND

Next Sunday the people of the Church of Christ of Knox City will have a day of preaching, singing and dinner on the ground.

The Reverend Harrison of Munday will be present next Sunday and preach at the evening hour. There will be a sing-song held after which dinner will be spread by the entire crowd.

Brother Harrison and a male quartet of Munday were in attendance at the Church of Christ here last Sunday. Although the morning service was dismissed for the Baccalaureate Sermon at the Baptist church, Brother Harrison preached at the evening hour. The attendance was good.

Hospital Notes

Beautifying

Among the interesting notes at the hospital this week is the fact that the grounds about the place are being beautified. Observation showed that grass already placed in the immediate front of the building is growing nicely now and is pretty. Mrs. Baker stated Tuesday that it is hoped the new grass plants will live and soon cover the ground as beautifully as the present squares.

Another thing of attraction is the new fish pond in front to the left of the building. Mrs. Baker stated here, too, that she and the entire personnel of the hospital wish to thank Mr. Benedict and any one else who contributed in any manner to getting this tank and in getting it correctly set. The exterior of the tank will be painted green and the interior white.

Those who are in the hospital this week are Mr. Homer Anderson of Rochester, Miss Wyona Dunn also of Rochester, Mr. Carl Holden of Goree and Mrs. B. E. Hancock of Rochester.

Mrs. Victor Pyeatt has sufficiently recovered to return to her home. She returned Monday afternoon. Mr. J. T. Watson has also returned to his home. He is doing nicely. Mrs. W. L. Hollis returned home Sunday.

Little Miss Frances Lyle of Winters Texas was in the hospital Monday for a minor operation.

Little Bobby Jean Brothers will probably return to his home Thursday. Bobby Jean is only three years old and has been seriously ill; however, he has been an excellent little patient.

Curtis Crawford of Gilliland is in the Hospital and Mrs. Dan Weaver of Munday was in Tuesday morning for treatment.

A JAPANESE RECEPTION

Tuesday night the piano and expression pupils of Mrs. E. Q. Warren and Mrs. Tom Bohn were presented in recital, "A Japanese Reception" in the school auditorium. This recital included the grammar grade pupils. 23 girls were presented. The program was very unique. The stage was decorated with Japanese lanterns and flowers which made a very pretty setting. The Little Japanese hostesses wore the customary big flowered gowns or wrappers while each nation represented likewise dressed to betray his nationality. The hit of the program was little Miss Dorothy Shaver and her partner Marion Clonts. This couple were negroes, Dorothy being the gentleman. She did an excellent job and received a big applause.

The program was well attended and deserving of the large crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Lyle of Winters, Texas is here visiting friends. Their daughter, Francis, has had her tonsils and adenoids removed Monday. She has been in the home of Mrs. M. A. Reeder.

Local Teams Play Hot Games

Rochester Fire Boys Get Beat

FATS AND LEANS GO AROUND

Some very interesting ball games are being staged this year by the local Fire boys and Legion boys. On Monday May 12th the two teams played a fast game of 19 to 8 favoring the Fire Boys. On the following Monday (May 16th of this week) the same two teams played again. This time the score was a tie, 9 to 9.

On Friday afternoon of last week the local fire boys played the Rochester Fire boys with a score of 19 to 6 favoring the home team.

These games were very interesting and afforded much fun for all in attendance; however, the best game yet was staged between the "FATS and the LEANS" on Wednesday of this week.

The best game of the year was the one played Wednesday by the Fats and the Leans of the town. Both were all star teams, the Fats seemed slightly better as the score resulted in 17 to 9 favoring the Fats.

The Fats manager, Sam Clonts, lasted through one half of an evening and the Leans manager, Ray Wiles, managed not to play at all.

The leading pitcher of the game, Victor Pyeatt, was the star of the Leans. The Fats run in only 14 scores in the first half.

Dennie Davis, the Fats catcher, was excellent. He scarcely needs a mitt. Shorty Youngblood was the star batter for the Leans; too, he was also the star flier; he made only one error (only one ball came his way).

Miller Herring saved the day for the Fats with his high fly catching. He was also first baseman.

Those who failed to see this game missed a great treat.

STOVALL DELIVERS TRUSCOTT BACCALAUREATE SERMON

Reverend C. B. Stovall was called to Truscott last Sunday to deliver the Baccalaureate address to the Seniors of Truscott. The sermon was held in the spacious and beautiful auditorium of the new high school building. This auditorium is one of the most modern and up-to-date in West Texas. It would be a credit to any town or community. Brother Stovall delivered a sermon appropriate to the occasion and was enthusiastically received by the Truscott people and highly entertained during his sojourn there. Mr. Cowden the Superintendent of Truscott and Brother Stovall were classmates in Simmons University. Mr. Cowden's mother and Brother Stovall served together on the school board in Abilene.

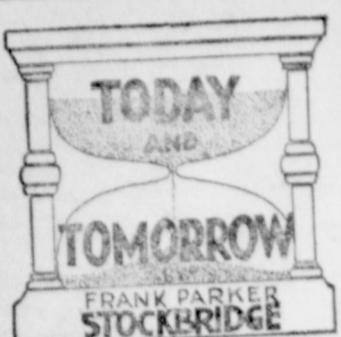

After the sermon a four course luncheon was served in the Coffee Shop of the Truscott Hotel. The Seniors and Brother Stovall were the honor guests of the occasion.

SUPERIOR SUPPER ON CHUCK WAGON

By invitation from Mr. Tom Pleckett, the members of the senior class with Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. W. E. Benedict had supper on the chuck wagon Wednesday night on the 6664 ranch. They reported having huge appetites for the red beans, fried beans, tomatoes, onions, etc. and that the mafalda carried many thrills for the entire class.

POSTMASTER INSPECTS ROUTES

Tuesday and Wednesday postmaster Clarke visited the two local routes, route one with W. W. Hyde and route 2 with G. F. Stubbs, and states that he found both in A 1 condition.

MURDER

One person out of every ten thousand is murdered every year in the United States. That does not mean that your chance of not being murdered is only ten thousand to one. For the ordinary peaceful citizen the chance is nearer a million to one that he will die at the hands of a murderer. Most of the murderer's victims are themselves potential murderers. In probably half of the killings it is a question of which criminal got the drop on the other.

I lived several years in Chicago, many years in New York. My work as a newspaper man took me into the most dangerous parts of both cities at all hours of the night. I never felt the need of carrying a weapon and I never saw of anybody not a crook, who was sober, unarmed, and not displaying signs of wealth to tempt a footpad or a burglar, being murdered except by some crazy man, which might have happened anywhere.

PROPHETS

The voice of the prophet is still heard in the land, but it is the voice of the scientific research worker discovering new processes which will revolutionize some industry, and of the trade commissioner reporting these new developments to manufacturers.

A short time ago one of the Government's trade commissioners reported from Berlin that German chemists had found a new and cheap way to make methanol, usually called wood alcohol. The Department of Commerce broadcast that news to every producer of methanol in America. Only one paid any attention; he sent a man to Germany to find out more about it. The others sat tight until a few months later a shipload of the new German methanol arrived in New York, to be sold at less than the American cost of production. Then the manufacturers demanded to know why they had not been told. They simply had not listened.

All of the old plants for making methanol had to be scrapped and new ones constructed to make it by the new process, and the man who had listened to the prophets was the first American in the field with cheap methanol.

MOON

The hottest object anywhere near the Earth is the Moon. Also it is the coldest. Observers using the 100-inch telescope on Mount Wilson have been measuring the moon's temperature for a year. They report that the parts of the moon on which the sun shines are hotter than boiling water, and the side away from the sun is at least 254 degrees below zero.

The reason for this is that moon is a dry, dead mass of cooled-off lava, or melted rock. It has no water, no vegetation, no life, nothing to make clouds to temper the rays of the sun. If it were not for water vapor in the earth's atmosphere we could not live on it. The blanket of vapor keeps the heat from the sun from burning us up in the daytime, prevents that heat from escaping at night.

One way astronomers can tell whether other planets than ours are probably inhabited or not is by studying their atmospheres through their great telescopes. The only one on which it seems possible for life as we know it to exist is Mars. When the new 200-inch telescope is finished we shall probably get some evidence as to the population of Mars.

SPERRY

Elmer Sperry, inventor, has just retired from "sousses at 72. He probably will keep on inventing. He built the first electric lighting station in the world, using arc lights, before Edison invented the incandescent bulb. He invented the modern electric coal-mining machinery. He made the first electric automobile. He invented a process for extracting chlorine and alkali from common salt which forms the basis of one of the great electric power industries at Niagara Falls. He discovered a way of reclaiming tin from old tin cans, founding a business which buys tin scraps from the can factories, removes the tin and sells it to silk manufacturers to weight their goods and melts up the iron plates into window-sash weights. He invented and built the most powerful searchlights in the world, giving off more candle-power per square inch of surface than the sun itself, and now used by every Army and Navy in the world.

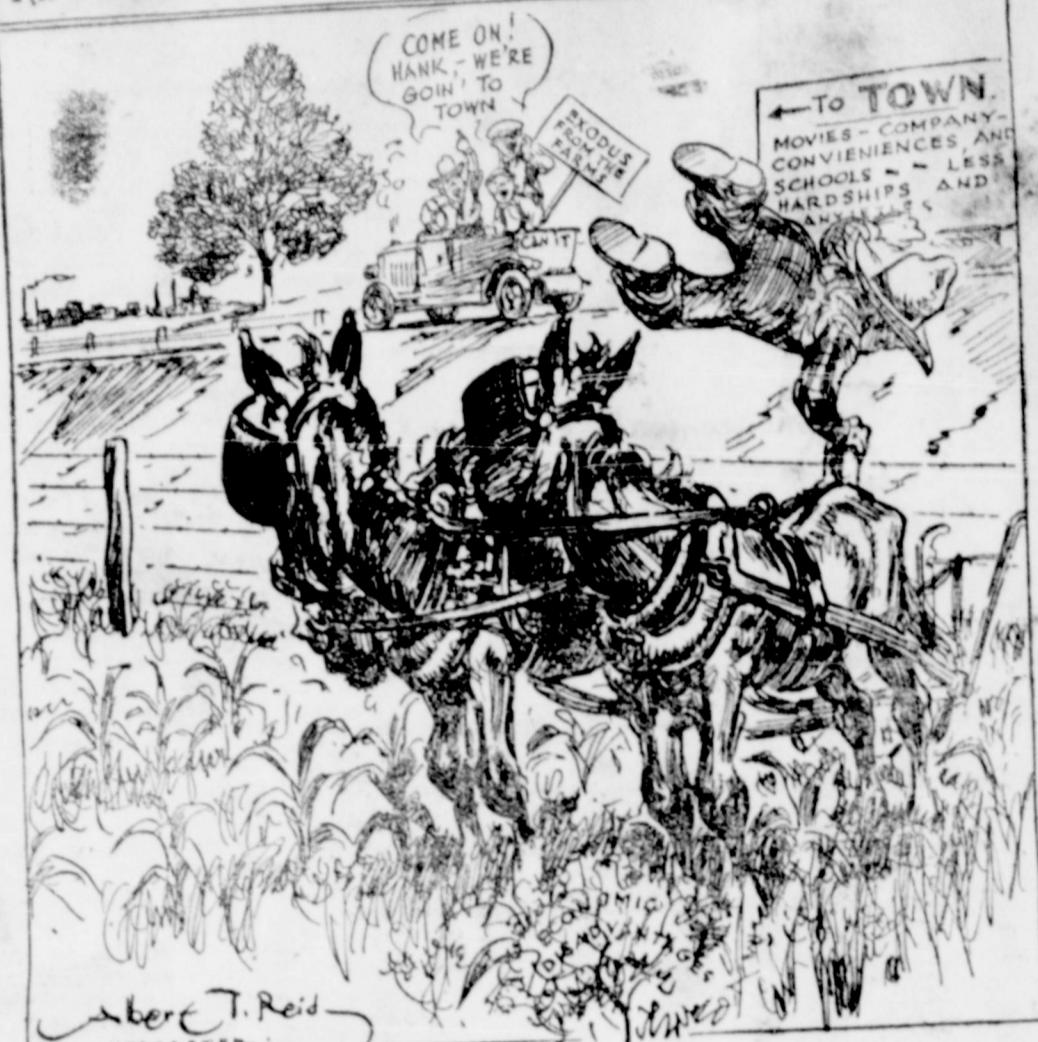

Sperry is best known as the inventor of "Metal Mike," the automatic steersman for ships, utilizing the mysterious principle of the gyroscope. He invented the gyroscopic compass, the gyroscopic stabilizer for ships and for airplanes. One of his recent inventions tells railroad men whether there are any hidden flaws in their rails. His latest is a light weight Diesel type engine for airplanes. Only Edison has produced more useful inventions than Elmer Sperry.

BIG ATTENDANCE AT BACCALAUREATE SERMON

The Baccalaureate Sermon to the Graduating class of the Knox City High school was delivered by the Reverend Stewart, presiding elder of the Stamford District of the Methodist Church, in the Baptist church Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. The church was crowded, and the sermon was excellent.

KONJOLA ENDED NEURITIS AND KIDNEY TROUBLE

Well Known Waco Photographer Enthusiastic About New Medicine "Proven Wonderful Remedy," He Says"

Mr. H. O. BRUBAKER

"I suffered for six years with neuritis, kidney trouble and constipation," said Mr. H. O. Brubaker, well known Waco photographer residing at 623½ Austin Avenue, Waco. "My ankles and my limbs above the knees were badly swollen and gave me considerable trouble. It becomes an effort for me to walk. My kidneys were out of order making night risings necessary and causing me to lose restful sleep. My eye-sight seemed to be failing on account of these conditions."

"Much to my surprise, I began to get immediate results after taking this medicine. The swelling left my ankles and limbs and I became stronger. I can now go about my work without stopping to rest. I have and will continue to recommend Konjola to all who suffer from such ailments as I had. Konjola has proven to me that it is a different and wonderful medicine, it certainly proved its merit in my case."

Konjola was not designed to afford mere temporary relief. Taken systematically, over a period of from six to eight weeks, this medicine will amaze sufferers by the results obtained.

Konjola is sold in Knox City at the Orient Drug Store, and by all the best druggist in all towns throughout this entire section.

HIGH SCHOOL RECITAL

Wednesday night a third recital in piano and expression, the high school recital, was given in the school auditorium. Although third in number the recital included several of the best numbers of all the programs. Miss Sydne Edwards was presented in piano and expression and in both pleased her audience.

Miss Constance Browning led the numbers in applause with her reading "A Confidence". This reading was excellent.

A third leading number of this recital was a Classical dance by little Miss Yvonne Jamison. Yvonne was fine. Mrs. E. Q. Warren instructed her and played the accompaniment Wednesday night.

Other numbers of the program were good and all made a well rounded recital.

The American Legion and the Auxiliary will give a Memorial Day Program on the streets of Knox City on Friday, May the 30th at ten o'clock. The public is invited to be in attendance. Mrs. Tom Bolin has charge of the program.

WHEN'S THE TIME TO MARRY

I once did my very best to prevent a marriage. It was immediately after the war. The young man came out of the army without a job. He owed me some money, which was incidental. I would gladly have loaned him more to get a start in business, but when he asked for a loan to finance his marriage, I refused.

"You're crazy to get married now," I said. "There are enough difficulties in keeping a marriage happy without adding worries about money. You have not yet demonstrated that you can make a success of one life, yet you propose blithely to undertake the responsibility of two. Wait awhile till you have more judgment and some savings. Then you can start right."

Thus I spoke out of my aged wisdom; and he looked at me pitifully, and borrowed the money elsewhere and was married at once.

Recently I visited his home. He has three children. He owns his home. He has a responsible position and money in the banks. All in all, it is as happy a family as one would want to know.

I have also visited in the home of a successful man of fifty. He did not rush into matrimony. Far from it. He accumulated money, and, carefully on his guard, he looked over the whole female sex for many years.

Thus insured with wealth and wisdom, he proceeded at the age of forty-seven to pick himself a foolish and empty headed little girl. Already the marriage shows signs of strain; it surely cannot last.

Earnest articles are written about the necessity for making marriage difficult. Young people should be compelled to wait, they say, until they have funds and experience.

It seems a sound argument, and yet such restrictions would have prevented the marriage of Thomas Lincoln and the birth of Abraham. They would have kept penniless Hawthorne from contracting one of the finest marriages of literary history. They would probably have postponed, if not prevented, most of the happiest unions that have taken place since the beginning of the world.

So having been a watcher of weddings for many years, I find myself impelled with the judgement of maturity and more confident of the youth.

For what a man's judgement any way, but the total of our disappointments and woes, ou lured tinges and ou fears?

Maturity has judgement which is the wisdom of age, but youth has instinct which is the wisdom of the ages.

The largest post office in the U.S. not on a railroad is in Texas, Canton, county seat of Van Zandt County carries that distinction with annual receipts of $7000, doubtlessly mail service from Edgewood ten miles away and five rural mail routes.

SAME PRESCRIPTION

HE WROTE

When Dr. Caldwell's medicine, back in 1870, laxative were not in use. People lived normal, wholesome food, and clean air. But even that drastic physics and purges of constipation which do not believe were good. The prescription for he used early in his practice he put in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's. It is a liquid vegetable for women, children and they need not bowel stimulant.

This prescription he is now the best laxative. It has no people who need it for headaches, biliousness, constipation, loss of appetite, or weak Dr. B. M. Montezuma's trial bottle.

No more shall the war-ers sever,
Or the wading rivers be red;
They banish our anger forever
When they laurel the graves of our dead—

Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the Judgement Day;

Love and tears for the Blue;

Tears and love for the gray.

THE BLUE AND THE GRAY

By Frances Miles Finch

By the flow of the inland river,
Whence the fleets of iron have fled
Where the blades of the grave-grass quiver

Asleep are the ranks of the dead;

Under the sod and the dew,

Waiting the Judgement Day,

Under the one, the Blue;

Under the other, the Gray.

From the silence of sorrowful hours
The desolate mourners go,
Lovingly laden with flowers,

Alike for the friend and the foe:

Under the sod and the dew,

Waiting the Judgement Day:

Under the roses, the Blue;

Under the lilies, the Gray.

So, with an equal splendor
The morning sun-rays fall,
With a touch impartially tender,
On the blossoms blooming for all:

Under the sod and the dew,

Waiting the Judgement Day:

Broidered with gold, the Blue;

Mellowed with gold, the Gray.

So, when the summer comes,
On fescue and field of grain,
With an equal murmur filleth
The cooling drip of the rain:

Under the sod and the dew,

Waiting the Judgement Day:

Wet with the rain, the Blue;

Wet with the rain, the Gray.

No more shall the war-ers sever,
Or the wading rivers be red;
They banish our anger forever
When they laurel the graves of our dead—

Under the sod and the dew,

Waiting the Judgement Day:

Love and tears for the Blue;

Tears and love for the gray.

Mrs. Z. M. Miller will leave Monday for her home in Greenville.

"I Improved By Argotane"

Wichita Sign Man Michel Benson says he had been in bad health for years.

"I have gained pounds in weight, and now feel just fine," said Michel Benson, well known proprietor of the Benson Sign Company, Wichita Falls, Texas, and residing at 1804 Ninth Street. Mr. Benson is one of the best known sign writers throughout this section of Texas.

"I cannot praise Argotane too much," continued Mr. Benson. "It has not only gotten me over my two years of suffering, but it has put me in good shape in every way, and I have never felt better in my life. Some of my friends say I am like a different person and I am thankful to Argotane for I believe it is just due any good thing its just due."

"No other medicine I took seemed to do me any good, but after taking Argotane as much as a week's use the gas in my stomach disappeared and I commenced to pick up health right off. Before taking Argotane the simplest food would digest in my stomach with gas and misery, which would last for several hours. The fact is, at times I did not feel like to go after my work at all."

"I think Argotane is a great system builder and I certainly appreciate what it has done for me, and I will certainly take great pleasure in telling anyone about it."

Genuine Argotane may be had in Knox City at the Orient Drug Store.

"Very Latests" Political Announcements

By MARY MARSHALL

Will pleated skirts be worn this summer? Is it a question that readers often ask, and it is a question that we ask ourselves when we take inventory of the clothes we have on hand.

The answer to the question is that pleated skirts will be worn, but there is a decided difference between the pleated skirts of last season and the season before and those of today. The side pleated skirt set on a deep yoke to be worn with long overblouses has little place in an up-to-date wardrobe because houses of the material are either worn tucked in or else they are so short as to extend only a little below a normal waistline.

The new pleated skirts are usually made with a smooth yoke and the pleating is wide and flaring. Sometimes the material of the skirt is set in fairly wide pleats which are stitched down to form a deep hip yoke and the doubling of the material beneath the wide pleats is cut out at the under side so as to eliminate unnecessary bulkiness.

Some of the new box pleats are pressed in such a way that they stand out in a ruly box-like manner.

On advantage of the wide box pleat over the narrow side pleat is that it may easily be re-pressed at home or by the tailor, without being sent to a professional pleater.
