

STREAMS in Desert Places

By Ozelle Stephens

Christmas is a blessed and hallowed season, filled with joy all through life from childhood to old age. Joys may change but there still remains the deep abiding heartfelt praise of the wonderful Christ-child who brought us Christmas.

If He had not come we would have no hope, no heaven and no friend who would not fail us. We would still be in the bitter darkness of despair that knows no end.

"This Christmas, come, adore Him, He is your Christ, who came that you might live in peace. While you are giving gifts to others, give yourself to Him. The gladdest day of all the world was when Christ was given. Listen to the voice of the Angel—He has words that thrill the heart of every hearer. "Fear not, for I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. 'For unto you is born this day in the City of David a Saviour which is Christ the Lord.' And this shall be a sign unto you: Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger."

Christ brought light to dispel darkness; he brought joy to replace sorrow; He brought blessed peacefulness for the unrest; He brought God's righteousness to replace all uncleanness.

The soft, flowing rivers of life stream into you when you believe the message in the Word which says, "For unto us a Child is born, unto us a son is given, and the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace."

It's a Christmas tradition...

Just like the familiar toy-filled stocking, it's a traditional holiday event to telephone distant friends and loved ones. There's something extra warm and personal about a Christmas phone call—a thoughtfulness and sincerity no card or gift can match. Why not make this tradition a part of your Christmas?

To avoid delay, place your Christmas calls a day or more before Christmas day—and, if you can, give the operator the out-of-town number you are calling. Then be sure and have a very merry Christmas!
