Christian Church Revival and Daily Vocation Bible School to Start Sunday

A Sacred Reading Program Featured On First Night

Mr. Bedford Smith, minister of the First Christian Church of Olney, former T. C. U. student, and minister for the past ten years, will conduct the revival for the Christian church beginning Sunday, July 16th. Miss Tillie Smith, A. B. and A. M., accredited Dean and teacher of Leadership Training classes, schools and conferences, will conduct a daily Vocation Bible School in connection with the revival and assist the evangelist who is her brother. Miss Smith is an experienced director of Vocation Schools for other churches as well as the Christian Church, having conducted a school for the Maternal Memorial Presbyterian church in Albany and the First Methodist church of Cisco all with complete satisfaction to the churches.

Miss Smith will open the revival Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock with a talk on "God's Minute", and Sunday night will feature a Sacred Reading program. You will miss a great deal if you fail to come to these evening services. While a teacher of public speaking at Athens, Texas, Miss Smith went on the Chautauque circuit for the American Red Cross. She has been a professional singer and child impersonator with the power to hold her audience spell bound, to cause them to weep and laugh in the same program. Don't miss the Sacred Reading program at Sunday evening.

The evangelist will be in Knox City to conduct the daily 10:00 to 11:00 morning service starting Monday at the theatre building or church. On Monday evening he will speak on "The Seven Seals of World War". The Tuesday evening message will be "The World War 1914-1918" and on Wednesday, "The World War 1918-1924". You will be surprised to know that John in his Revelation tells us the length of the battle line across France to be 200 miles, that one third of the ships would be destroyed by the World War and that the war would last 150 years.

On Thursday evening the minister will speak on the "New Heaven and New Earth" or the "City Paved With Gold".

The Daily Vocation Bible School for the children of the town from 4 to 15 years of age will meet from 8:00 to 10:00 beginning Monday and continuing through Friday of the next two weeks. The children will be required from time to time in the evening services. Miss Mary Reeder will play for the revival. She and other local talent will assist in the Vocation Bible School.

Mr. Smith is a very forceful young preacher, but has plenty of church experience in the ministry. He has been the minister of churches in Birmingham, Uvalde, Fort Worth and Albany before coming to Olney nearly two years ago. During his Fort Worth Revival Back Page

Mrs. G. V. Furgerson

After an illness of a number of months Mrs. G. V. Furgerson Wednesday evening passed into her eternal reward. For the past few weeks it has seemed each day that her death was inevitable, however, when the time did arrive it came not with out sorrow, with bereavement to the children in the Furgerson home.

Mrs. Furgerson was born in DeCaleb County Alabama on March 13, 1879. She died in Knox county, July 12, 1933. In 1889 she, Ester Ellen Clayton, was married to G. V. Furgerson. To this union ten children were born, all of whom survive.

In about the year 1916 Mrs. Furgerson with her family moved to Knox county. The family now resides on the farm about two miles east of the city. Arrangement are now being made for funeral services to be held in the First Baptist Church with the Church of Christ minister, Elder Wilburn Hill in charge, to be assisted by Reverend Stovall and Reverend Sharp. Interment will be made in the Odd Fellow Cemetery.

Mrs. Furgerson is survived by her husband, G. V. Furgerson, and ten children and five brothers. The children are as follows:

Sidney Furgerson of Comanche Texas, Mrs. O. T. McKelroy, Miss Winnie, Mrs. Q. C. Davis, Sam Furgerson, Mrs. Stella Thompson, Mrs. Essie Montandon, Thomas, J. B. and Miss Mary Furgerson all of this city.

It is with mutual grief that the Herald joins the town in extending sincere sympathy to the sorrowing family.

85 ATTEND BIRTHDAY PARTY

Guests numbering between 85 and 95 were in attendance at the party last Saturday night in the Lon Sibley home honoring the 18th birthday of Miss Dessie May Sibley. With this large number of guests present it was possible for a variety of games to be in progress at the same time, and the noise of merry making gave evidence of the fact that all had a most enjoyable time. Ice cream was served.

The Sibley family live in the Hill-to community west of the city.

Travis Dean and the Misses Wilma Lowrey and Mozelle Cochran arrived home last Friday from their trip to Missouri. Dean also visited the English family in Gentry Arkansas but failed to go into Tennessee. Instead he returned home and went to Tech for the remainder of the summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Jamison and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ashcroft left Sunday on a vacation tour to include Eagle Nest Lake, Red River City, Santa Fe and other points of interest in New Mexico. They expect to return about the 21st.

Jenkins of this city; a boy on July 4th to Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Heath of this city and a girl on July 11 to Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Segg of Rochester.

HAYNIE BURIED AT TRUSCOTT

A Haynie, 67 year old farmer of Truscott, was buried there last Saturday at ten o'clock. He was an "old timer" of the Truscott country and known by a number of the Knox City people.

Funeral arrangements were made by Warren of this city.

In Crowell Jail for Forgery

A one L. M. Jones alias L. M. Woods alias L. M. Williams is in the Crowell Jail this week for forgery, his subject being check writing.

Several Knox City merchants honored Moore's checks only to have to cover them at the bank and hold the paper. When the forger got to Paducah his name was Woods but his handwriting was the same as well as his features. He went from Paducah to Crowell where a member of the Fox Brothers caught him in his business of theft. He was identified as the Moore who gave checks in Knox City. Those who went to Crowell for this identifying were W. Clonts, E. F. Branton, A. Y. Barnard and S. L. Favor.

S. L. Favor states the real name of the man is Williams and that Knox County has ask for him as soon as Crowell completes its trial against him.

MISS BOYLES HONORED WITH SWIM PARTY

Saturday night July 8th Miss Irene Holland honored Miss Faye Boyles (sister and guest of Mrs. C. H. Keck from Wichita Falls) with a picnic and swimming party at Benjamin park. Some sixteen young folks gathered at the Holland home from where they were transported by truck to the designated location. Following the swim the group went boat riding then engaged in a watermelon and cantelope feast. Near the midnight hour a group of tired boys and girls descended from the Holland truck and made for their own homes. They were Misses Faye Boyles, Mozell Cochran, Rowena Wall, Wilma Lowrey, Jocelle Russell, Wynell Rogers, Katharine McCarty and Irene Holland, R. V. Herring, Edmund Smith, Bill White, Joe Watson, Carl Holland, Dennis White, Ira Russel and Clyde Ingraham, also Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Holland and Price.

H. L. Daniel sustained a gash two inches in length and a depth of one half inch in his left fore arm Sunday afternoon when the wing of his windshield fell from its frame onto his arm. He is on the job at Beneficials market this week however.

NOTICE

W. E. CLONTS REMODELING HOME

Mr. W. E. Clonts is remodeling his home this week. The work not only calls for improvements on the present rooms but also for the addition of two new rooms. Earl Clements is contractor on the job and Woolridge is furnishing the material.

Other Improvements Being Made

Mr. J. H. McGee is having quite a bit of work done on his house in the east section of the city. It was recently vacated by the Freeman family. Mr. McGee is having each room sheetrocked and all the interior and exterior painted.

Mr. McGee also owns the building of the XL Seervic Station. This week he has made some interesting improvements for Mr. McGraw.

Mr. McGee converted the back room of the station into a nice room, making a doorway between it and the office then placing a window in the west wall. This makes the room cool and most convenient.

THE COMMUNITY GARDENS

Mayor Smith states this week that the community gardens are doing pretty good and that Mr. Heath, who is keeper of the gardens and is on the grounds most all the time, says peas and squash are now bearing. While the quantity of peas is limited yet for a few days, still there are peas on the vines and any one wanting them may have some.

It has been suggested by Mr. Smith that those wanting vegetables from the community gardens that they see Mr. Heath. Often the mother of the family will send children to the patch for peas etc and the children (not knowing how to pick peas) destroy the vines. If you see Mr. Heath, he will assist in the gathering of the peas which insures protection of the vines.

As is known the gardens are located on the city park and two groups of vacant lots owned by T. P. Frizzell. These lots are south of the Frizzell home and west of the O. L. Jamison home. The okra patch is looking fine despite the severe weather.

Brother Stovall left Tuesday for Leuda where he is attending the Baptist Encampment. Brother Stovall states that he will return in sufficient time to be in the services at the Baptist church Sunday. All services will begin at the usual hour and every member is urged to be on time for Sunday School.

Mrs. Miller Herring and children, Edmond Smith, Mrs. A. B. Stevens and Mrs. Burris are all visiting relatives in Fort Worth and Cleburne this week.

Second the Motion

The following is taken from the American Bankers Magazine.

"No business man in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean you should have a whole page ad in each issue of the paper, but your name and business should be mentioned, if you do not use more than a two line space. A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town by looking at the paper. This is the best possible town advertiser. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the town. The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to town, but refuses to advertise his own is not a valuable addition to any town. The life of a town depends on the live, wide-awake and liberal advertising business man."

METHODIST MAKE CHANGE IN WORSHIP HOUR

One of the most drastic changes made in the routine of the city life of Knox City in defense of the hot weather was that Sunday in the hour of worship at the Methodist church. Being effective immediately the church membership will hold its regular Sunday School program beginning at 8:30 each Sunday morning with the preaching services beginning at 9:15 and closing at 10.

This plain of procedure was presented by the pastor, discussed by the membership, voted on by the membership and found to be desirable. The new hour of worship will make it possible for a number of our older people who are greatly affected by the heat, to attend the services. It also makes it possible for every citizen in and around the city, to attend the Methodist services, to which every one is always welcomed.

White Quannah Parker from Oklahoma will be with us and preach next Thursday night. Come to hear him.

Our study for next Sunday is the second chapter of the Acts of the Apostles. Be sure and read this chapter.

We will not have services Sunday night as we expect to worship with the Christian Church. Their meeting is beginning and I hope that every person that can will attend the services.

SUCUMBS TO HEAT

Mr. George Martin age 56, of Rule Texas died Tuesday from a heat attack. He was plowing in his field when he collapsed. He was carried home by working companions and died shortly. Services were held Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Charley Massey of Munday suffered a heat stroke Tuesday. Mr. Massey is lineman for this telephone exchange as well as that in Munday, Rule and Rochester.

Mrs. Joe Averitt and Mrs. S. L. White accompanied Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Carr of Rochester to Leuda Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Carr are attending the Baptist Encampment this week.

KNOX CITY SHOULD BE REPRESENTED AT CENTURY OF PROGRESS

Knox City has an opportunity through the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to have direct representation at a Century of Progress exhibit, a miniature exhibit, and its name on a large relief map of West Texas all at a very nominal cost.

Roy Smith, local WTCC director, has received from Spencer A. Wells, vice-president of the regional chamber, the details of the offer to the affiliated towns, and has been urged to get Knox City's subscription to the plan at once.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce has secured space in the Texas exhibit for a West Texas display provided a sufficient number of cities cooperate in the plan which calls for the regional chamber putting up half the cost of the exhibit and literature.

Wells points out that towns affiliated with the regional chamber are the only towns that will be given direct representation in the Texas exhibit and that this is available at a ridiculously low price. He is urging directors to secure immediately the necessary funds either from the local chamber of commerce, or from direct solicitation and send them in so that the West Texas exhibit may be ready to go when the Texas exhibit opens on July 25. The West Texas exhibit will be ready July 20.

For forty dollars, an affiliated town will get a fourth page write-up in the on hundred fifty thousand West Texas booklets to be distributed at the fair, and will have its name prominently shown on the thirteen foot square relief map of West Texas as which will form the main part of the West Texas display. For an additional sum, the towns may have individual folders distributed at the exhibit. For a hundred dollars additional, the towns may have individual miniature exhibits on display. Towns may purchase more than quarter page space in the West Texas folder at proportionately higher rates. All subscribing towns will receive a copy of West Texas poster stamp for their local use.

The big relief map has been constructed by students in the engineering department of Texas Technological College, and it is the first of its kind ever made. It shows the exact topography of West Texas and Eastern New Mexico, the production of the various sections, and the location of affiliated towns. Over twelve hundred working hours were consumed in its construction. Following its display at Chicago it will become a permanent exhibit of the organization and be on display at the annual conventions and other places.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Rev. Chas. E. Dunn

Deborah Lesson for July 16th. Judges 4 and 5. Golden Text: Psalm 45:1.

We know little of the personal history of Deborah, the militant prophetess, who so skillfully delivered her people from the claws of a powerful enemy that she has been called the Joan of Arc of her age. And yet we have a clear idea of her personality, thanks to that rugged war ballad, chapter 5 of the book of Judges, the longest, most elaborate of all the odes in the Bible.

This great song of triumph, with its fierce passions, its barbaric code, its noble God of battles. We are then informed of the despair that gripped the land, indicated by such signs as unoccupied highways and deserted villages. Then came a great change. Deborah was summoned. "Up, O Deborah," was the call of the Lord. "Up, up, with your war-cries." And she responded magnificently, as Deborah's ballad demonstrates, with a splendid victory.

It is very likely that Deborah had written this marvelous epic. At any rate, it reveals her as a woman of powerful emotion and resourceful leadership.

Four lessons emerge from Deborah's thrilling song. First, patriotism and religion walk hand in hand. The God of Israel, in this instance, is not a God that they were fighting for.

Second, the saint rightfully expects loyal devotion from her people. Note verse 18: "But Zebulun—the clan risked life and death with Naphtali in the open field." And note the bitter scorn in verse 23, directed against Merax for her negligence.

Third, women have an important task to perform in the life of the nation. The heroes of this tremendous battle or women, Deborah and Jael.

Finally, the constitution of the universe is on the side of the right. The laws of nature and of morality favor the righteous and oppose the wicked. This truth is expressed in that famous phrase: "The stars in their course fought against Sisera." These laws start right for you and for me. If we are striking for goodness and truth, if we are for God, we can be certain of victory.

STATE HEALTH DEPARTMENT GIVES VACATION HINTS

Vacation days are here again, bringing a desire to get away from the daily grind and a longing for a change, of course. Pleasure, without regrets is a goal to strive for, and for this reason the Texas State Department of Health urges you to consider the following suggestions in planning your vacation.

First, pick a spot, where you if possible, where you can see new scenes, enjoy new activities, where you may not and dress as you please, and, above all, be care-free. Make up your mind to leave all your troubles behind. Second, make sure that the place selected is safe from a sanitary standpoint. Be sure that the water, milk and food is clean and pure. Third, before you leave home you should consider the advisability of being protected against typhoid fever. This protection can be secured through inoculation with typhoid vaccine. Fourth, when you start on your vacation, change your habits gradually. If you take little outdoor exercise during the year, make your change in diet try to set a record the first day, but increase your exercise gradually.

If your purse will not permit you to go to a summer resort this year, make up your mind that you will get a real vacation at home. Plan your days as you would were you miles away; sleep a little longer in the morning, read your newspaper in bed. Get out in the morning sunshine, do your exercising, preferably in the morning before the sun is too hot. Relax in the afternoon, get a good book, a quiet spot, and forget that you have anything more important to do than relax and read a book. Vary your activities daily. You can benefit just as much by this kind of vacation as you could if you went away.

Miss Faye Boyles returned to her home in Wichita Falls Wednesday after visiting her sister, Mrs. C. H. Cook.

Checking Up On Sports

By JACK ADAMS

Nearly 32,000 persons paid $125, 250.15 to see Primo Carnera defeat Jack Sharkey for the heavyweight championship of the world. Sharkey received $69,602.34 and Carnera $18,377.78. If the fight demonstrated anything it showed that a man weighing 260 pounds should not be put into the same ring with a man 59 pounds lighter. A giant like Carnera needs to be put in a class by himself.

EDWARDS GETS NEW SIGNS

The Edwards Self Service Grocery blossomed out last week in a series of brand new signs over the store. To begin with, the variety store sign on the south wall of the building was forced to give way to a huge Edwards Self Service Grocery sign that can be seen almost to O'Brien. A few feet back down the walk is another large green and white sign designating the front entrance of the store.

At the front of the building, on the top of each of the large plate glass windows, are large green and white signs.

Mr. Keck, manager of the store, did a nice piece of work in designing the arrangement of the signature for the signs. In addition to being well done, the signs are very attractive and it isn't likely that any one will get lost looking for the Edwards Grocery.

Among other business houses who have new signs this week are the Thompson Grocery, Hughes Radio Shop, Jamison-Clonts Furniture Company, May's Variety Store, White Mercantile Company, Press Clark the Tailor and the Leader.

Incidentally, the Leader is receiving new stock and daily arranging their store preparatory to opening here some time this month.

They are located in the Blount building.

Mrs. McLain of Amarillo is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McLain.

Lone Star Gas Ad Wins First Award For Third Year

For the third consecutive year, the Lone Star Gas System has won first prize in a national advertising copy contest among the major gas companies of the country. The winning ad, entitled "Natural Gas Is Your Lowest Priced Domestic Servant," was judged the best piece of copy among all advertising placed in newspapers by gas companies of the United States in the year 1932. Public Utilities Advertising Association, which conducts the contest, announced the award at its annual meeting held in Grand Rapids, Mich.

The prize ad appeared in this newspaper and more than 200 other Texas and Oklahoma papers in February and March last year. Copy was prepared by Willard C. Wiegand, assistant advertising manager of the Lone Star Gas System. Will C. Grant is manager of the advertising department. Western Newspaper Union set the type and made the stereotype plates and mats for the ad. Lone Star also won first prize last year in the same contest with an ad written by Mr. Wiegand and received first honor again in 1931.

The nation's best gas advertisement was a simple, direct statement of how much gas service a penny will buy. It stated that one cent's worth of natural gas service will cook a good dinner for three people, operate a bath room heater for two hours, heat enough water for two baths, operate a living room heater for 45 minutes, make 33 cups of coffee, heat enough water for 14 shaves or run a gas refrigerator for eight hours.

Things look different in COLD BLACK TYPE

"I hear," said the friend, "that you have just made $50,000 in the insurance business."

"Right—except for one or two slight particulars. It was real-estate—not insurance. It was $75,000, not $50,000. And I didn't make it I lost it!"

Has it ever appeared to you that something you've told an acquaintance come back after many days, so distorted that you hardly recognize it. The spoken word so changes and colors much that we say, that by the time it passes many lips only the skeleton of truth remains.

But how different it is with the printed word! That's why you can trust the advertisements. Had you thought of it that way? Because the manufacturer and merchant are compelled to be accurate in type, you know that quality of soap, ginger ale, clothing, butter or furniture you buy is as standardized as the calendar. It's all the manufacturer and retailer claim for it. IF HAS TO BE.

Read the advertisements. Read them carefully critically. Read them for profit! Read them knowing that the truth pays... you and the advertiser!

Today and Tomorrow

By Frank Parker Stockbridge

CHRONIC in human nature Nollie Gray died a few weeks ago. A chronic invalid, tricked out of her small inheritance as a young woman she had been the town pauper of West Stockbridge, Mass., for twenty years. Then a brother died and left her $35,000. The first thing Nollie did with the money was to pay back to the town all the money the taxpayers had contributed to her support.

Only one of Nellie's relations ever did anything for her when she was poor. He was a cousin who was almost as hard up as she was. But as soon as she got her inheritance relution flocked to her house from all directions. When she died seventeen different families claimed a share in her estate. They had left her to starve, but now they wanted her wealth.

The probate court examined all the claims. There was no claim on behalf of the only relation who had ever done anything to befriend Nellie Gray. He said he didn't need it; he could get along. He wouldn't like anyone to think he'd been kind to his cousin in the hope of gain. But the court dealt out even-handed justice and this cousin got half of the estate to the disgust of the seventeen greedy ones.

In this imperfect world it is not often that I run across a human situation which so well bears out the belief that right and justice will always triumph in the end.

SUPERSTITION

In my boyhood I used to hear back country people say that it was dangerous to drink from an open stream or spring. They told weird tales of persons who had swallowed frogs' eggs which hatched in their insides. Sometimes it was lizard eggs. I remember reading many years ago a gruesome tale of a man who had thus accidentally swallowed an alligator egg, and was devoured from within by the reptile which hatched in his stomach.

I imagine that belief is as old as humanity. Folk ignorant of physiology attributed interray pains to some sort of an actual reptile in their vitals. But I had supposed that every body knew enough in these enlightened days to realize the impossibility of such happenings, until I saw a newspaper article from a seashore resort the other day.

According to this story a young woman walking on the beach picked up what she thought was a pearl. She put it in her mouth and accidentally swallowed it. And some time later, according to the account, she died in agony, devoured by an octopus which had hatched from the egg that she had mistaken for a pearl!

Apparently there are still people gullible enough to swallow such stories. Age-old beliefs do not vanish as speedily in the face of knowledge as I had imagined.

HUMOR

The funniest sayings are often not so intended. The best bit of uncouth humor which I have heard lately was told to me by a very able woman physician who specializes in mental cases in a New England city.

One of her patients attempted suicide by taking three boxes of rat poison. That was an overdose, and nature got rid of it so quickly that he recovered. But he had his own theory of why it failed to work.

"Of course, I see now what was the matter," the poor semi-lunatic told the doctor. "The directions on the box said to spread the rat poison on pieces of cheese, and I forgot the cheese!"

CHANCE

At a church lawn-party not long ago I heard the minister's daughter complain, half seriously, that young men shy off from girls who live in a parsonage.

"What chance has a minister's daughter?" she sighed, with one eye on the handsome young man who tends the soda-fountain in the village drugstore, who was devoting himself to a couple of chattering high school girls.

Her father, overhearing her, remarked:

"You make me think of a Methodist parsonage in England where there were two daughters. They may have felt much as you do, but those two girls gave the world two of today's most famous men. One of them became the mother of Rudyard Kipling, the greatest living poet, and her sister's son Stanley Baldwin became Prime Minister of England."

I saw the minister's daughter a little later, talking earnestly with a young college professor on vacation whom most of the village girls have branded as a "dud". I couldn't be sure, but I thought she was letting him hold her hand.

JOBS

The mark of a first-rate man is that he is not above taking a second rate job if there is a chance in it to prove his own first-rateness.

One young man I know lost his job in the hardest part of the depression. He tried anything else he could get to do, but all he could get was a chance to sell advertising on commission. He went at it as if it was the biggest job in the world, and within six months his commissions were running to as much as the high salary he had ever earned. Now he's the star man of his newspaper organization.

Second-rate men want first-rate jobs handed to them. First-rate men make their own first-rate jobs.

A. AND M. SHORT COURSE PLANS PRESENTED

There will be more of doing and less of listening at the A. and M. College Short Course for farm and ranch folks the week of July 24th than at any of the previous 25 "farmers" short courses held on the A. and M. Campus. There will be more action and less sitting still, more demonstrations and fewer lectures, more initiation into the tricks of many rural trades and not so much of theory, however practical that theory has been in the past. It will be, in short, an extension short course.

This describes in brief what visitors may expect when they gather at A. and M. July 24 to 29, and we are very anxious for as many men, women, boys and girls of Knox county as possible attend.

If you are planning to go, you should get in touch with Jewell Faulkner, County Home Demonstration Agent, Monday, immediately, so that the reservations may be made at an early date. All reservations will be made through this office. 27 reservations have already been made, but we are sure there are other persons, men, women, boys and girls who feel they cannot miss this meeting.

Itinerary of Jewell Faulkner for the 3rd week of July

Because of preparations being made prior to the Farmers Short Course, held July 24 to 29, no clubs will be met during the 3rd week of July. This time will be spent in the office and anyone wishing information concerning the short course, may receive it by calling at the county dem. agent office.

The train fare is $7.90 and the fare while there, for room and board is $5.00.

Washington Monument

WASHINGTON—rising 555 1/2 feet in the air, the Washington Monument is the most prominent feature of the Washington landscape, visible for miles in every direction. It is the highest work of masonry in the entire world. Width of the monument at the base is fifty-five feet and at the top, thirty-four feet.

Walls are fifteen feet thick at the base, tapering to eighteen inches at the top of the shaft. The monument is constructed of Maryland marble, interior walls of gneiss and granite. The visitor may ascend to the top either by a stair way of 900 steps or by elevator. The interior is well lighted enabling one to see the series of 179 memorial stones contributed from many sources as tributes to the first President. Included in these are stones from historic battle fields, from the ruins of ancient cities and from the tombs of world famous men. They represent forty States, sixteen cities, fifteen lodges of Free Masons, thirteen of Odd Fellows, and other social, fraternal and political organizations.

George Washington is said to have selected the site for the monument which was started from private subscriptions and finished by an appropriation by Congress. The cornerstone was laid in 1848. After several halts in construction work on it was completed in 1885 at a total outlay of $1,300,000. Thousands of visitors to Washington see the monument each year.

Lincoln Memorial

In Potomac Park directly west of the Washington Monument, which is in a direct line west of the Capitol, is the Lincoln Memorial, a classic structure of impressive proportions completed in 1922.

On a high terrace, surrounded by beautiful grounds, it forms one of the beauty spots of the national capital. The memorial is a classic Greek structure with a main hall sixty by seventy feet. In the colonnade surrounding the hall are thirty-six fluted columns, the largest of their kind in the world, one column for each of the states in the Union at the time of Lincoln's death. The capstones are said to be the largest single pieces of marble ever quarried.

In the central hall is a statue of Lincoln seated in a chair. The statue was carved from Georgia marble, and without the pedestal weighs 150 tons. On the north wall of the hall is carved Lincoln's second inaugural ad-

REVIVAL MEETING

Worth ministry the church grew from 79 to 195 members in two years. Since being in Olney he has divided his time, first with Archer City and Mission points, preaching five sermons each Sunday for a year, besides holding near-by revivals. During the first year this work resulted in the establishment of one new congregation at Megargel and added to his fields and those he visited while off the field. He now preaches for the Benjamin and Gorse churches two Sundays each month. At Olney two and at Megargel on Tuesday nights.

The evangelist is loved and appreciated by members of other churches. He is the president of the Olney Ministerial Association composed of every minister in town. He was also the president of the same kind of organization at Archer City before closing his ministry there. Brother Smith has supplied the church here early in the year on several occasions and has won its love and gratitude. He is known for his Bible sermons with a new dress and brings out great Bible truths that are new to so very many even Modern Electric Refrigeration Will Plug These Budget Leaks!

You're throwing away 20 per cent of your food bill — if your home lacks modern refrigeration equipment — through losses in wasted food... spoiled food... and small-quantity high-price buying! This substantial sum will make the payments on a modern, efficient, money-saving Electric Refrigerator!

Food experts agree that in the average home an Electric Refrigerator will have at least one-fifth on the cost of your food. Half of that sum will be saved through the elimination of spoilage and the safe preservation of valuable left-overs. The other half will be realized through quantity buying at "week-end bargains" offered by your grocer. These important savings are possible with a modern Electric Refrigerator, because the invaluable "Electrical Servant" provides the proper temperatures for safe and healthful refrigeration... automatically!
