Stenholm Tells Banquet Guests That 'Winning Is Important'

"What concerns me most in this great country today is the idea that winning is not important anymore," Charles Stenholm of Stamford, who described himself as a farmer, electric coop official, and 'parttime amateur politician,' told Lions Club members, their wives, and other guests at the annual Ladies Night last Thursday night in Masonic Hall.

Stenholm, a member of the Democratic executive committee for the 30th Senatorial District, was introduced to banquet guests by W.R. (Bill) Baker.

The speaker reminded his audience that there is no way that this country can survive with the cost of production higher than the selling price of wheat. The same principle applies when there is too much corn or too many hogs, he said. "Personally, I'm sick and tired of listening to farmers gripe and complain when they are not willing to do anything about it. What has caused this loss of interest?" Stenholm wondered. He pointed out an instance when the president of the American Bakers Association made the remark over national television several years ago when wheat was bringing $6.00 a bushel. "If the price of wheat remains high, consumers will be paying $1 a loaf for bread." He quickly pointed out that he envied Paul Revere because then, the enemy wore Red Coats. Now, he explained, that far too many make ridiculous statements when they get to hurting and this is true of farmers, also. He related that some business practices will work and some won't, and that individuals need to protect themselves. "Politicians should be held responsible, as only the politicians can change matters, but only the people can change the politicians."

Stenholm said that many persons who try and fail, don't have the courage to try and try again. "But if a person believes strongly enough, he or she will do something about a problem." His closing advice was to 'hang in there, and if you do not like what you're doing, change jobs, as it's important to enjoy your work.' Prior to the catered meal by Guy Cook, Lion James Patterson gave the invocation. Lion President John McGaughey recognized guests and also presented special awards to Angelia Reid, Lions Club sweetheart, and Mrs.

RECEIVING SERVICE AWARDS Thursday night at the annual Lions Ladies' Night banquet were, from left, Bruce B. Campbell Jr., 20 years, and Alton Fitzgerald, 25 years. Lion B.B. Campbell Sr. who was not present, was recognized earlier in the year for 35 years of service to the Lions Club.

Ruby Robinson, Jessie Teague, Oleta Fitzgerald, and Lios Cybert for the weekly luncheons prepared and served the Lions every Wednesday.

Lion McGaughey explained to guests that B.B. Campbell Sr. was recognized earlier this year for his 35 years of service to the Knox City Lions Club. Lion secretary David Lorenz then presented service awards to Alton Fitzgerald for 25 years, and Bruce B. Campbell Jr. for 20 years. John Crowover has 20 years and C.F. Williams 30 years.

Crowover and Williams were not present to receive their awards.

Receiving perfect attendance pins were Otto Lawson, John A. Smith, Tom Kent, L.W. Graham, and Alton Fitzgerald. Those with perfect attendance records who were not present were Z.I. Smith and David Counts.

Jack McGann, Lion Deputy District Governor of Vernon, who was accompanied by his wife, installed W.R. Shiflett as president for the 1977-78

KC Doctors, Hospital 'Movin' On'

Highlighting the front page of The Abilene Reporter-News Sunday morning was a story by Nell Bills, a staff writer, concerning Knox City's two doctors and the Knox County Hospital.

Some of the information contained in the article dealt with facts The Knox County News had planned to bring to the attention of our readers for some time, so we felt that this would be an ideal time to run it.

The Abilene story began: Just a year ago Knox City, population about 1,600 (1,800 would be more accurate) had no doctor and Knox County Hospital had been closed for a month. Today, there are two doctors in town, and the hospital, with new and improved equipment and added facilities, is operating full-time.

Dr. W.F. Thompson, who opened his practice in Knox City last August, has a clinic across the street from the hospital, and Dr. R.G. Howell recently completed a new clinic a few blocks away.

The hospital closed May 28 last year after Dr. Howell closed his practice here due to the tremendous load of patients.

The Howells never moved away from Knox City, and now with another doctor to share the work, it appears both doctors will be able to handle their caseloads.

"I think having two doctors in town is the answer," Dr. Thompson said. "It's too much for one, that's for sure!"

They each take off every other weekend and one afternoon a week, knowing the other will be on hand for any emergency that should arise, and they cover for one another when one has to be out of town.

"I never really felt comfortable to leave town, knowing that something might happen," Dr. Thompson said. "That's the way it is when you're responsible for a whole town. Now I can go and relax, and it's the same way for Bob."

Dr. Thompson, who came here from Springfield, Missouri, said he had planned to practice medicine in a small town from the time he entered college, but "just got hung up in Springfield."

"We were there for nine years, and for three years we had been looking for a place," he said. "We had specific criteria. We wanted to live in the Southwest; we wanted a small town where we could have some acreage, and we didn't want to live right in town. We found it all right here."

The doctor said he placed an ad in a medical magazine and that there were about 200 places from which to choose. "I think we made the best choice. There's no way you can beat these people. It's a nice area and they've got to be the nicest people in the world."

It was with a corporate sign of relief that the townspeople welcomed Dr. Thompson when his office opened that hot August day. As one woman put it, "It's scary not to have a doctor you can get to in a few minutes in case of emergency."

The former city doctor said he misses "the action of a large hospital," but that there are many more things he enjoys in Knox City.

"I've spent more time with my family in the past several months than I had in five years," Dr. Thompson said.

In Springfield, Dr. Thompson found himself "smothered with boards and committees, executive meetings, medicine meetings, staff meetings, medical record meetings," in addition to his practice.

When he got to Knox City, Dr. Thompson said, he was determined he would not let the practice handle him. One thing, he said, was to let the capable staff at the hospital help determine whether an "emergency was actually an emergency," and that has worked out, he said.

In an interview by the News office Tuesday of this week, Dr. Thompson asked that the News help put a stop to rumors that he is leaving Knox City. He assured us that "as long as things continue to work out as well as they are now, I have no intention of going anywhere."

Dr. Howell reported that he, too, is enjoying having Dr. Thompson here to share the responsibility, and that his family members are happier living in Knox City than See DOCTORS Pg. 7

Anniversary This Weekend

Mini Mall Is Now Three Years Old

Three years ago, Knox City's Mini Mall opened its doors and business has been 'booming' ever since, according to owners Dessie Egenbacher and Romain Stubbs, sisters whose brother Bobby Day of Lubbock promoted and developed the new concept of housing several shops under one large roof.

Four businesses operate in the Mini Mall including The Lady Bug Shoppe owned by Mrs. Egenbacher; The Art Stall and Frame Shop owned by Mrs. Stubbs, who has the American Handicrafts franchise; The Styling Stall open on Fridays with operators Shirley Hudgins and Karen Byrd; and Pa-Pa's Place, an old-fashioned ice cream parlor formerly owned by Ken Crowover and purchased this year by Mrs. Egenbacher and Mrs. Stubbs.

Since the opening of The Lady Bug Shoppe, new lines of merchandise are continually being added, and now include infant wear, some items for men, costume jewelry, purses, sunshades, cosmetics, hosiery, and just this week, shoes for the fashionable miss. All types of sportswear and casual wear are available as well as dresses, formal dresses, and lingerie.

Mrs. Stubbs and her husband Jack, who customizes and designs any type of frame, have a wide selection of art supplies, macrame, hobby crafts, and also sponsor classes in oils, tile painting, decoupage, and macrame at various times. Almost anytime of the year, some type class is underway at The Art Stall.

This weekend, the Mini

Mall, in observing its third anniversary, is inviting everyone to come in and take advantage of fantastic savings. Also, everyone is invited to register for door prizes. A drawing will be held Saturday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock.

The Lady Bug Shoppe will also have an anniversary sale this weekend with savings of one-third to one-half on spring and summer merchandise.

In addition to the other activities, a Starving Artists Sale is being planned, too, according to Mrs. Stubbs.

LL Contest 'Close'

This year in Knox City Little League the contest for first place team has been the closest in recent baseball seasons.

Three of the four teams, the Red Sox, Cardinals and Tigers have been battling for first place with evenly matched line-ups. During the last six games, the lead has changed hands several times with only a game and a half spread from first to third place.

With only one regular game to go and make-up games next week, the outcome is still in question.

Tonight's game is the last regular game of the season; Red Sox meet the Tigers at 6:00 p.m. and Cardinals take on the Dodgers at 8:00 p.m. After the second game, the All-Star team will be announced. All-Stars are selected by the four team managers and coaches from the 11 and 12 year old players.

Next week there will be make-up games on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, Tuesday, July 5, at 6:00 p.m. the Tigers play the Cardinals finishing a game that was called for rain May 5. The Tigers had finished their inning at bat with three runs in. The same evening the Red Sox play the Dodgers. Then on Thursday evening, the Red Sox and Cardinal will complete their tie game of May 12 (if breaking the tie will affect team standings in any way). Their game was called 7 - 7 after five full innings because of the band concert the same night.

Pictures of each team and the boys' names will appear in next week's News.

Some of the adults who made the season possible are as follows:

President of Little League, Doug Meinzer and vice president, Danny Reece.

Umpires Jerry Ray, Ramon Garcia, and Hershell Tankersley, who came every night and get an extra thanks since they don't even have boys playing.

Concession stand chairman was Bobbie Meinzer with Melanie Whitley on top of the building keeping score. Betty Albus and Barbara Pratt helped with the scores.

Team managers who gave innumerable hours are, for the Cardinals, Bob Acree and Howard Scheets; for the Dodgers, Randy Coale and Kelly Robinson; Billy Bob Reynolds and Don Whitley, Red Sox; and Roland Marion and W.R. Shiflett for the Tigers.

The All-Star game will be July 18, Monday evening at 7:30 in Seymour when the Knox City All-Stars meet Munday. The winner and the winner of the Seymour-Crowell game will play at 7:30 on Tuesday, July 19, for the championship.

Vinitas Returning To Saudia Arabia

Mr. and Mrs. John Vinita and daughter Tammy Lynn left Wichita Falls Wednesday morning by plane en route to Dallas and New York for their return trip home.

The family plans to visit a week in Manchester, England with Mrs. Vinita's family before they depart for London and then back to Dhahran, Saudia Arabia where he is employed by an oil company.

The Vinitas have been in the States since May 25.

Foursquare To Host Breakfast

The Foursquare Church will be the host for this month's Men's Breakfast set for Saturday morning at seven o'clock

KC Participating In Munday 'Fun Fling'

Knox City team members will join others from Haskell, Weinert, Munday, Benjamin, Goree, Seymour, and TV III's News Team for four Friday nights during July for "Fun Fling", patterned after the popular TV show, "Almost Anything Goes."

The event is being sponsored by the Munday Chamber of Commerce at Munday's football stadium. Knox City Chamber of Commerce is planning to 'rope off' a section of seats at the stadium for KC boosters with KC colors and officials are encouraging fans to attend and support the home team in its efforts.

Beginning at 8:00 o'clock each Friday night, scheduled dates are July 8, 15, 22, and 29.

The winner will be declared by the highest accumulation of points and the winning team will receive a town trophy.

Knox City team members Sonia Carter, Patti Lain, Roland Marion, Randy Coale, Jim Hammonds, Sequoyah Reynolds, and Derrrell Parker will be practicing on various nights at City Park and invite anyone who would like to watch to 'come on down.'

David Counts will serve as coach for the local team.

4-H's Do Well At District Show

By Tommy Antley

Knox County was well represented at the District III 4-H Horse Show held last weekend in Vernon.

In the Invitational Roping events, Jerry McCown was Champion Breakaway Roper, placed fifth in the Judged Tie-Down and was third overall high point roper. Randall Redder placed fifth in Breakaway and sixth in Judged Tie-down. Knox County tied for Champion County in the Invitational Roping.

In the regular horse show events, there were several members who placed very well against some of the top horses in the state, as District III is by far the largest District Horse Show in Texas. Brett Boone placed sixth in reining, third in polebending, and seventh in Grade Mare halter, and 13th overall high point horseman. Kristi Boone placed second in barrel race, tenth in Grade Gelding halter, and 18th overall high point horseman. Tammy Carver placed eighth in Grade Gelding halter and Stacy Carver placed seventh in Grade Gelding halter and 11th in reining. Lynda Brooke Hudson placed ninth in Registered Mare halter.

Brett Boone, Kristi Boone, and Jerry McCown will attend the State 4-H Show July 28-30 in the Astro-Arena at the Astrodome in Houston. Brett and Kristi will be competing against the top twenty horsemen from the fourteen Extension Districts from across Texas. Jerry will be competing in the Invitational Roping which is open to any 4-H member in Texas.

Sunday Singing To Be At Foursquare

The monthly First Sunday Singing will be this Sunday, July 3, at the Foursquare Church. Time for this event is from two until four o'clock in the afternoon.

Persons of all faiths are invited to attend and enjoy this time of Christian fun and fellowship.

Merchants To Close July 4

July 4 falls on Monday this year, and many merchants will close in observance of Independence Day. This holiday is one agreed on by the Knox City Chamber of Commerce membership. Mrs. Doris Crowover, secretary-manager said.

All federal and state offices will join the merchants for the holiday, and The Knox County News will take one of its few holidays and also close Monday. The News staff is asking that if you know ahead of time of visitors who will be in your home or if you are planning a weekend trip to call on Thursday or Friday of this week and advise us of the details.

Your usual cooperation will be greatly appreciated.

O'Brien Happenings

By CHARLENE BROTHERS

Another week has passed, the weather is still hot, and I have lost another pound and still about to burn up from the heat. This has been a typical summer for most of the farmers over here as far as finding hands to work, especially pipe moving. We have to change horses in the middle of the stream, only in this case it is boys in the middle of the maize field. The first two did not need to work, I guess, so the two we have now are really appreciated and we want them to know. I will not call any names, they will know who they are.

To all the dog owners in the City of O'Brien you only have until July 10 to get your pets vaccinated and put a collar and the tags on them. Come 5:00 a.m., maybe not quite so early, on July 11, they will be picked up and penned for 10 days, then if they are not claimed and at the owner's expense vaccinated, they will be done away with. And as no one wants to hurt anyone's pet, everyone should be sure and get them fixed up with a collar and tags. As has been stated before there are a few dogs around here that are mean, or they seem to be, and they are going to bite some small child and then someone is going to be mad.

We are still trying to get a clean-up group going around town, not having much luck. Everyone seems too busy doing other things. If we could get rid of some of the old car bodies, weeds and other trash around we would have a pretty good place to live. I know for sure that some of us would probably have less trouble with our allergies, and this would help a lot. Anyone interested in helping get something started, contact Kathy Cameron or me and we will start the ball to rolling. I'm not too sure how to start but we can discuss it and see what we can come up with.

HERE AND THERE
Mr. and Mrs. Don Johnston and family of Lubbock visited with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Johnston during the weekend. Marilyn's niece came with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Humberto Gutierrez and family spent the weekend in Azle with Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brothers, Jeremy and Tommy.

We have had several people in the hospital lately. Rob Johnston is home after spending several days at Knox County Hospital, also Mildred Draper is home. Mrs. Clyde Jones is still in the hospital, but expects to be able to come home before too long is everything goes okay.

You will notice we have not had a lot of visiting going on this past week. Guess everyone is saving their time for the long weekend coming up.

If you are on the road during the 4th, be careful and be sure and watch the driver behind the car in front of you. This might save some accidents. Enjoy yourselves and come home safely.

If any of you farmers who have been getting water from the gin here at O'Brien and have not paid for it, the City would really appreciate receiving a check or cash. We need all the help we can get from this, and also why should the people here in town have to pay for the water they use and some you have not sent a check you can do so by sending it to Kathy Cameron, City Secretary, or I will take it here at the gin office. It is $4.00 for the first 1,000 gallons then 75 cents per 1,000 gallons thereafter.

Last July Fourth Deadly Weekend

The Fourth of July holiday period was the deadliest three day weekend of last year. Fifty-five traffic related deaths were recorded in Texas. Statistics also show July to be the heaviest traveled month of 1976.

Mindful of the long weekend and increased travel, Governor Dolph Briscoe asked Texans to rally to face the problem of traffic accidents. Briscoe said, "Texans pride themselves on their sense of individual responsibility. If they are properly informed of a problem, it is my conviction they will respond positively and quickly. The fatality rate on our streets and highways during the Fourth of July holiday must be considered a critical problem facing all Texans. Any real solution depends on each of us taking full responsibility for his own behavior behind the wheel," said the Governor.

DPS Predicting Many July 4 Deaths

Wilson E. Speir, Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, reported today that the DPS Statistical Services estimates a large number of persons will die in traffic accidents during the upcoming Fourth of July holiday. Speir said, "Deaths so far during 1977 are running higher than expected due to the excessive use of alcohol and speed."

"Operation Motorcade" is designed to focus attention on the added danger of death in holiday travel. Traffic fatalities will be counted by the DPS throughout the Fourth of July period. These totals will be announced three times daily in order to keep safety uppermost in the minds of the drivers.

Major C.W. Bell, DPS Region 5 Commander of Lubbock, said, "Most traffic accidents are made more tragic by the fact that they could have been avoided. Too often the best driver lets his attention wander, and the result is a fatal accident."

The Texas Department of Public Safety's Region 5 will have all available uniformed officers on patrol during the Fourth of July holiday. There will be an increase in surveillance over the heavy holiday traffic, with special emphasis on apprehension of the drinking drivers and speeders.

The most important effort in reducing traffic accidents must come from the individual driver, and the joys of a long and happy life are the rewards for safe holiday motoring," concluded Major Bell.

Dear Sir:

I feel we should let you and the members of your community know of the kindness we received from a resident of your town. Our car became overheated en route from Wichita Falls to our home in Seymour at a point about twenty-five miles east of Seymour.

A car from Knox City bearing two women and five children passed us standing by our disabled car, went on for about a quarter of a mile, stopped, returned and gave us and our poodle a ride to our home. The lady said, "I tried to pass you but the Lord wouldn't let me. I'm a Christian and I just couldn't leave you out there on the road."

We didn't get her name but wish to express our appreciation to her and the community whose citizens still extend a helping hand.

Sweetwater TSTI Sets Construction Accidents Investigated

SWEETWATER -- Governor Dolph Briscoe's signature on the appropriations bill has cleared the way for the Rolling Plains Campus of Texas State Technical Institute (TSTI) to embark upon a $1.9 million construction program during the next biennium.

Funds will become available September 1, and the first spade of earth is expected to be turned before Christmas.

The project will provide space for new training programs as well as existing ones. In fact, the first building to go up will house one of the new programs -- diesel mechanics.

To accommodate the new construction, the campus will expand from its present 30-acre site. This is in line with the campus master plan, which visualizes continuing growth into the 1990's.

The concept behind the new construction is to group programs in "clusters," said D.A. Pevehouse, Rolling Plains Campus general manager.

As an example, the diesel mechanics building will become a part of the transportation cluster which will also include the existing Automotive Mechanics and Auto Body Repairman programs.

Thus, one program within a cluster is able to use training aids and facilities of other programs in the same cluster, cutting down expenses while achieving training goals.

In addition to the diesel mechanics building, the project also will include facilities in the industrial cluster, the construction cluster, the agriculture cluster, the technical related studies cluster and expansion of the existing Automotive Mechanics building.

According to plans, the new diesel mechanics program would offer students three options: heavy equipment, heavy truck, and farm machinery. All students would receive two or three quarters of basic training in diesel engines. Those wishing to specialize then would choose one of the three options. Those not wishing to select an option would have received sufficient training to make them employable individualized (self-paced).

The new Automotive Mechanics laboratory will alleviate the problem of lack of space in one of the campus's high-enrollment programs, Pevehouse said. The existing building dates from 1972; because of its size, the campus must limit enrollment. The new laboratory will permit more training stations in a safer training environment, Pevehouse said.

Programs grouped under "construction" and "industrial" categories will be placed in those new buildings. The new agriculture project will permit the campus to expand its Livestock and Ranch Operations program.

"Quiet" programs (mathematics, technical communications, drafting and technical office training, for example) could be housed in the new technical related studies cluster, Pevehouse said.

The new construction has been assigned a high priority, the general manager said.

"We need the facilities as soon as we can get them," he said. "Some of the existing facilities here on the campus were put here by the Air Force for 90-day use in the late 50s or early 60s, and we are still using them. We've utilized all the facilities as much as possible, (but) we're just outgrowing them. This September, we may have problems finding space for all students because the labs will only take care of so many people."

All new construction will be of a permanent nature.

The Rolling Plains Technical Foundation holds an option to purchase 50 acres of land on which will be situated new building visualized in the campus master plan. This land is adjacent to the present campus on the south.

The feasibility of new programs is being studied constantly, Pevehouse said. Among new programs now under consideration are optometric assistant, printing, electronics and air conditioning and refrigeration technology.

Pevehouse said the new construction will mean an increase in Rolling Plains Campus enrollment. By the same token, continued growth in enrollment will mean that "our full-time programs will need more facilities in four years. Vocational-technical education is growing, there is no doubt about it."

Rolling Plains Campus enrollment has continued to increase from the time the campus was established in 1970.

Pevehouse thanked the House and Senate for approving the construction funds and Briscoe for his okay on the appropriations. The general manager paid special thanks to Senator Ray Farabee of Wichita Falls, Representative Elmer Martin of Colorado City and House Speaker Bill Clayton of Springlake.

Just because Texans produce more goods doesn't mean Texans have to produce more accidents.

Tops in cattle.
Tops in oil.
Tops in cotton.

Texans, in fact, are some of the most productive individuals in this country.

We produce more sheep and lambs than anyone. Texans have more goats. More grain. The most mineral production. We are the leading producer of helium. We produce the most crushed stone, the most salt, the most sulphur, the most watermelons.

We are second in the nation in the production of rice. We even rank third in portland cement production, fourth in wholesale and retail sales, and fourth in the value of our manufacturing.

Texans are busy and Texas is booming.

Crashes in the big boom.
And while Texans are spending long hours on the road to success, Texans are also spending long hours on the road.

This big, booming state has more total street, highway and Interstate mileage than any other state in the nation.

Some eight million Texas drivers are driving nine million motor vehicles over ninety billion miles a year.

Sadly, too many of these Texans don't finish their journeys.

In 1976, for example, while most Texans were busy making Texas productive, 3,230 of us didn't make it at all.

That's how many Texans lost their lives on Texas highways.

That's one person killed every 2 1/2 hours.
That's 3.5 deaths for every 100 million vehicle miles traveled.

That's a shame.

It's a shame that, although Texas traffic fatalities are at the lowest level in our history, Texas is still above the national average.

It's a shame that Texans aren't taking greater pride in their own worth and their own lives.

It's a shame that Texans aren't more careful.

Please. Be proud. Be careful. Help us keep the roads to success safe.

For your sake.

anywhere else. Glen Rumley, hospital administrator, said he feels both doctors have a good practice now and that it is working out well for both of them.

"This is just a good two-doctor situation," Rumley said.

The hospital's average patient load was about 40 per cent of capacity with one doctor, Rumley said. "Now, with two doctors, we average about 53 per cent."

The hospital had been closed for 67 days when it re-opened last August. Rumley, who has been administrator of the hospital for eight years, said the hospital was "just about to go under" when Dr. Thompson came. "He got here just in the nick of time."

The hospital was heavily in debt by the time the new doctor arrived because the staff was being retained in the hope the hospital would re-open soon, Rumley said. Now, it is debt-free.

"We have been able to update and improve on the hospital equipment, and the services that we're offering are more than we've ever had before," Rumley said.

New equipment has been added to the laboratory department and the hospital has a new inhalation therapy department with a full-time respiratory therapist on staff.

Rumley said that last September the surgical department was re-opened after being closed for a number of years because there was no full surgical staff.

With 51 employees, the hospital has the largest payroll of any business in Knox City, Rumley said. The hospital employed 37 when there was only one doctor.

Fireworks Cause Blindness

Last summer in Texas nine youngsters were blinded by fireworks, reported from a survey conducted by the Texas Society for the Prevention of Blindness. Eighty-nine responding ophthalmologists also treated 34 persons for eye injuries, with bottle rockets causing the greatest number of eye loss and damage cases.

Fireworks, even the small ones, are still a needless menace to Americans. Even sparklers, usually purchased for small children, burn at 1,650 degrees Fahrenheit, leaving a steel core hot enough to sear flesh or set clothing afire. A five year old San Antonio girl was treated for severe eye damage from just that cause in 1976, the society reported.

Ironically, the greatest number of accidents were reported in the major cities of Texas, where it is illegal to have fireworks within the city limits.

The Federal Consumer Products Safety Commission stated fireworks caused approximately 4,750 hospital recorded injuries last year; more than half the victims were under 15 years. The Commission is presently working on a control law which will ban all but the smallest fireworks in Texas.

The Texas Society makes a special appeal to parents to see to it that children are not permitted the use of any form of fireworks, and to see that their children are kept away from anyone who is using them. Remember that fireworks are not toys for children.

Celebrate the Fourth of July, by all means, but without fireworks. Attend a public display, sit at a distance and enjoy the thrill of our nation's 201st birthday celebration.

Farm and Ranch News

By TOMMY ANTILLEY

It is rapidly approaching the time to begin control measures for overwintered boll weevils. The best time to control boll weevils is just as the cotton reaches the 1/3 grown square stage when first squares are 1/4 inch in diameter. Weevils cannot deposit eggs that will develop into adult weevils until squares are 1/3 grown or larger. Inspection for overwintered weevils should begin as the cotton reaches the fifth true leaf stage. By controlling overwintered boll weevils, the population can be reduced during the remainder of the growing season or until mid-August when migrating weevils begin to move from field to field.

A second insecticidal application will be needed if overwintered weevils have reinfested the field. This application should follow the first by three to five days. Older cotton is more likely to be reinfested and require a second application than fields that were planted in mid to late May.

Cotton that was planted during the last two weeks of May should be reaching the 1/3 grown square stage during the last week of June or the first week in July. The first 1/3 grown square will be present about 40-45 days after seedlings emerge.

A good example of early season control was demonstrated in Fisher County this past year. A producer applied insecticidal control for overwintered weevils on July 12 when his cotton was in the first 1/3 grown square stage. This field produced 412 pounds of lint per acre. Another producer 1/4 mile away did not treat his cotton of the same variety planted the same day and yielded only 192 pounds lint per acre. By this example you can see the yield and monetary difference received by controlling weevils early.

By now, most producers have heard of the Restricted Use Pesticide Law that will go into effect October 1977.

Under this law, the EPA will issue a Restricted Use Pesticide List containing chemicals they feel could be dangerous to producers, crops, animals, or environment if not used properly. After October, private pesticide applicators, which producers are classified as, will not be able to purchase these chemicals unless they have been certified under one of three methods. The first included a three and one-half hour slide-tape presentation conducted by the County Extension Agent, which explains the new law, gives safety and procedural information concerning pesticide use, mixing, calibration and application. The second method gives the identical material shown in slide-tape presentation, but is printed in two booklets which producer must read and complete questionnaire. These booklets can be obtained at the County Extension Office. The final method is what is known as "Emergency, One Time, One Use" situation under which a non-certified producer can buy a restricted use pesticide after receiving information as to its use, restrictions, etc. This method can be used only one time under emergency situations.

Several pesticide certification meetings will be conducted in Knox County during July or August pending scheduling of specialists and Texas Department of Agriculture personnel. Notification of meeting times and places will appear in circular letter to all producers and news articles in local papers.

Pesticide Tests Set In Haskell Today

AUSTIN -- The Texas Department of Agriculture (TDA) will offer testing for area commercial pesticide applicators beginning at 8:30 a.m., June 30, in Haskell.

"The pesticide tests will be conducted following training sessions being offered June 28-29 by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service," Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown explained. Both the training sessions and testing will be conducted at the Haskell National Bank's Community Center.

Testing, coordinated by TDA entomologists, will be provided for four categories: 1. general, 2. fruit, nut, and vegetable, 3. weed and brush control, and 4. field crop pest control. Applicators wishing to take the tests may sign up during the training session and pay their fees at that time. While there is no charge for the general test, a $10 fee will be assessed for each other category.

Individuals who pass the tests will then be eligible to make application for licensing as a commercial or non-commercial applicator of restricted-use pesticides.

Two messages were preached that night. One message was from Psalms 145:15, 16 "Looking to Jesus," and one by Elder Ward "The Devil Says It Cost Too Much to Go to Heaven," from Matthew 19:16, 22.

Missionary Lawery also attended the convention on Wednesday night along with a few of the members from the Rule Church.

On Thursday night we attended a service at Solomon Temple Baptist Church in Stamford and on Friday night a part of us attended an installation service in Haskell at the Independent Baptist Church. Elder Bennett preached from St. Matthew 14:1, 12, "Tell Jesus."

Susshine Band was held on Saturday evening. Sunday School had a good attendance with Ass't. Supt. Manuel in charge.

In the morning service Pastor Bennett preached from Revelation 22: 14, 15, and Luke 13:22, 27. A great message.

The Union Joint Meeting was held at the Knox City Church Sunday evening. Missionary Patterson, a visiting missionary from Los Angeles, California, taught and ministered and the Lord greatly blessed the service.

KC Students Tour Nature Trail

By Arche Lieb - SCS

Summertime is here and school is out. Young people are scattered all over and doing whatever they do in the summertime, good or bad. Young people have a great influence on our environment during this time of the year and will have more as they grow older. Our kids in Knox County, I think, have an advantage over kids living in the city in that they live closer to our land. They can see and experience the importance of protecting our soil, water, plants and animals, and other natural resources.

During the last week of school a large group of students from our area were conducted on a tour through the Wichita Brazos Soil and Water Conservation District's Nature Trail west of Knox City. The nature trail and outdoor classroom was constructed by the conservation district in cooperation with the Soil Conservation Service and Bush and Burnett ranch. The nature trail preserves a

"And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God." Ephesians 6:17.

Jesus said, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." Matthew 4:24.

This means that man shall live by every spoken Word that comes from God. It is the Word that God speaks to your soul in the quiet place of prayer waiting upon Him. This is how man lives: letting the Word live in the heart, wholly surrendered, being obedient to His Holy Will.

Keep your heart full of God's Love; loving others better than yourself, never speaking evil words against anyone. Never regard iniquity in your heart, for the Lord will not bear your prayer if you do. Psalms 6:18. Sin separates you from God and you can never have fellowship with Him. Let His Love continually flow into your being, living His life in you; helping you to live a victorious life. He will give you power to overcome all temptations, troubles and disappointments; and from out of His Word, His Peace will live in your soul now and forever more.

Stamp Adjustment Seen

AUSTIN--Households which were receiving rent or mortgage supplements from the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) between August 5, 1974 and October 8, 1975 may be entitled to increased food stamp benefits.

The State Department of Public Welfare announced June 16 that the housing supplements paid under provisions of the Housing Act of 1937 should not have been considered as income to food stamp households during this period of time.

All households which were denied, or received a reduced level of benefits because of the application of this policy may be entitled to retroactive benefits or refunds.

Further details on this matter may be obtained from any food stamp certification office.

Unified, Massive Farm Protest In The Making

LUBBOCK--Stating simply that "farmers are not going to be the whipping boy any longer," the Texas Farmers Union Friday officially positioned itself for serious protest action to begin in the next few months. Details of that action, possibly a strike or moratorium on supplies purchases as well as rallies and demonstrations, are being formulated at this time.

Official resolution came from the 9,000-member organization's executive board, which is asking first for floor rewrites of four-year general farm legislation now before Congress and expected to be finalized shortly after the Fourth of July recess. Second, if amendments are not made, they ask for a Presidential veto. Failing that, the organization promises some form of a strike or protest action.

Said one farmer, "Farmers across the entire state, raising every commodity, are mad! For years we have asked to be heard...and thought this Administration might listen. But the market is at rock-bottom and the policy makers in government want to keep it that way! We're going to tell these guys, by whatever method it takes, that they can't take advantage of us any longer! We're not going to keep on producing...we can't keep producing...if we don't get our fair share at the producer's price level."

The Farmers Union points its main opposition to the Farm Bill toward provisions which would provide low "floors" and precedent-setting "ceilings," also at low levels in order to keep prices at a world level of trade in addition to preventing food inflation. Farmers claim, however, that they cannot deal with income set at a cheap world level while their own costs for equipment, supplies and labor are at inflationary domestic levels.

Said one farmer, "They are taking the 'boom and bust' out of agriculture by taking out the 'boom.' The problem with that, though, is that it guarantees us a loss and there's no place on earth where we can get money borrowed to operate like that any longer."

Other Farmers Union states besides Texas are expected to take similar action soon, which means the movement could spread nationwide. "Once the other states get into their harvest seasons as Texas has been in wheat and now grain sorghum, they'll be hit in the face with this bankrupting market. You can bet they'll be with us!" "We're not trying to hurt the consumer with more inflation," said the farmer-spokesman. "Farmers are consumers, too, remember. But it's high time that the person in the supermarket realizes how little of that retail dollar goes back to the farmer. They've got to know that we're going broke fast and that those shelves are not going to stay full if we are forced to quit. They've got to see how over-processed their food is, and how everyone in-between writes their markup and operating profit while the producer is losing his shirt. "You can't expect us to sit out here in the country and go broke, waiting to return at the consumer's convenience. You can't turn agriculture on and off like a light switch. We're told to produce all this food and fiber, and then we're driven out of business with low prices which penalize us for our efficiency. We're not doing it any more!"

Observers say that individual protest actions will probably start at the county level within a few weeks after harvest, meanwhile, the state staff of Texas Farmers Union will be working to unify that action as will the National Farmers Union staff when and if any of the other 22 Farmers Union states join the action.

Wyman Meinzer Artist Of Month

Artist of the Month for July at the Citizens State Bank is Wyman P. Meinzer Jr. of Benjamin.

Actually, Meinzer's "art" work at the Bank is photography, a hobby he has pursued for several years. According to Wyman, he became interested in this subject in 1972, but not to the extent of becoming formally involved in the study of theory or technique. In 1974, however, he decided to place emphasis on nature photography as well as continue to expand his knowledge on other forms of this dynamic art.

Born November 4, 1950 in Knox City, Wyman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Pate Meinzer, who reside on the League Ranch. He has one older sister, Patti, and a younger brother, Rick.

All of his elementary and high school studies were conducted in Benjamin where he graduated in 1969. He enrolled at Texas Tech University in Lubbock in the fall of 1969 and his major interest was and continued throughout his college career to be wildlife management. Meinzer received his bachelor of science degree in this subject in May 1974.

Emphasis in this field of study was predator behavior with highlights during this period being the publication of a paper, "Foodniche of Coyotes on the Rolling Plains of Texas" and a post graduate publication entitled "Blindness in a Coyote From the Rolling Plains of Texas." Author and co-author were Danny B. Pence and Meinzer, respectively.

Wyman resides in Benjamin and is engaged in the field of professional fur trapping as well as free-lance photography and ASCS crop adjuster.

Stamps Reunion Is Held

The second annual Stamps family reunion was held Saturday, June 25, in the home of Roy and Essie Day at 300 Avenue H in Knox City.

Decendants of Wiley and Candice Priest Stamps gathered to share old photographs and stories of life on the Texas prairies and plains.

This early pioneer family settled in Munday in 1895 after travelling from the Big Thicket in South Texas by covered wagon. Wiley's mother, Martha Rotan Stamps, lived with the family since her husband had been killed in the Civil War.

The Stamps were the parents of three boys, William Priest, who lived in Houston and Mineral Wells; James Horace, who farmed at Olton; and Jack Stamps, an artist, who lived in Houston. The girls in the family who married were Bertie Wilson, Ellie Phillips, and Bessie Tankersley, all of Munday. Today, Ellie and Bessie are the only survivors and reside in nursing homes in Munday and Big Spring, respectively.

Ellie's daughter, Lucille Armstrong of Possum Kingdom, has written a book dedicated to her mother about the early family history of this pioneer family. The book traces the history of relations to the Priests, Barnes, and Day families of the Woodville and Chester areas in the Big Thicket country.

Attending the second annual reunion were Essie May Day, Roy Day Jr. Romain, Jack and Shea Stubbs, Ozella and Tom Thomas, Dee Mary and Deann Stamps, Ricky, Debbie and Becky Stamps and John and Dessie Egenbacher, Knox City; Earl and Juanita Stamps, Dickens; Kenneth Day, Fieldton; Leonard and Joann Stamps, Littlefield; J.D. and Irene Stamps, and Odessa Mitchell, Olton; Rex, Joquette, Erik and Misty Rudd, Stanton; Lucille Armstrong, Possum Kingdom Lake; Eloise Fatheree, Fort Worth; Murray and Alma Phillips, Munday; Dorothy Lee Hansen, Napa, California; Benjamin Bozzell Hansen, the University of California at Berkeley.

Messages were received from Ellie Phillips, Munday; Lilly Davis, Possum Kingdom; and Larry Belcher, Pleasanton, California. Next year's third annual family reunion will be held on the last Sunday in June. For more information interested relatives and friends of the Stamps family may write to Lucille Armstrong, Star Route, Box 111, Graford, Texas.

Parents of the bridegroom were hosts for the rehearsal dinner at the Dyess Officers Club.

Following a wedding trip to Dallas, the couple will be at home at 2319 Eighth Street in Lubbock.

Your Social Security

SSI REPORTING RESPONSIBILITIES

Moving? Don't forget to contact Social Security so that your Supplemental Security Income checks will follow you.

You probably know that yearly reports to Social Security are required to determine your continuing eligibility for benefits. But did you know that many changes can affect your Supplemental Security Income benefits and need to be reported as quickly as possible?

James H. Harper, branch manager of the Vernon Social Security Office, states that in addition to reporting if you move, you will need to notify Social Security if you are admitted or discharged from a hospital nursing home, or public institution. A stay of more than 30 days in any of these facilities could affect your benefit payments.

PERFECT STEAKS

Outdoor cooking has become a popular way to cook with many families. With July 4 approaching this weekend, many families will be cooking out.

Getting good results when grilling outdoors involves several crucial do's and don'ts.

Several essential procedures which affect the finished product are recommended and discussed for a "Perfect Steak."

--Slash fat edges of a steak before cooking. This keeps it from curling during grilling.

--Turn meat only once. Broil until brown on one side, turn it and continue cooking on other side.

--Use tongs to turn steak. Jabbing with a fork causes a loss in juices--thus a loss in flavor, too.

--Salt steak only after grill-

FROM ANDREWS

Mrs. David Turner and Angie visited here this past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Kent.

They also attended a family reunion over the weekend at Lake Brownwood.

ing--as each side is completed. If applied before grilling, the seasoning draws flavorful juices to the surface and slows browning.

--Test for doneness. Use a sharp knife to cut a slit near the bone--if there is one. If it's red inside, the steak is rare; pink is medium; and brown well done.

--Shorter cooking times result in more tender meat. Broil a one-inch steak a total of 10-25 minutes, turning it about halfway through the cooking period.

--Slice meat across the grain. Carving in this manner gives uniform slices and easier-to-eat meat.

--Select steaks with marbling. These flecks add juiciness and flavor--and prevent the steak from drying out so much. A thin layer of fat around inside edges aids in retaining shape, cuts down on shrinkage and adds to the appearance.

--Thick steaks are preferred to small ones. For grilling purposes, one large thick steak is better than two thin ones.

--Steak should be at least six inches from charcoal briquets. Burn coals until they have uniform flame and white appearance before putting steaks on to broil.

--Add a few green hickory nuts, green twigs, or oak or hickory chips for a different, desirable flavor.

--Don't keep a good steak waiting.
