Rev. Oran D. Smith, Methodist minister, and Mrs. Smith presented a program of Christmas music at the Wednesday meeting of the Knox City Lions Club.

The varied program included group singing, and solos and duets by Rev. and Mrs. Smith. Mrs. Smith, who was at the piano for the singing, also rendered two accordion numbers.

Club members were reminded by president Otto Lawson that next Wednesday is the club's annual "toy day." Each member will bring a small toy to the meeting, and after the toys are "demonstrated" they will be turned over to the American Le gion for distribution along with the Legion's Christmas baskets. The club will not meet on
