The Knox City Greyhounds will play Bryson at Olney, Tex. tomorrow (Friday) night in their last practice game before the bi-district regional, former bi-district game. The date of the regional game has been set, pending outcome of the Weinert-O'Brien playoff series for the District 14-B championships. The game will probably be on Monday or Tuesday night of next week, Knox City coach Ted Darland said.

While marking time since end of district play the Greyhounds have played three tie games. Last Thursday they defeated Woodson with Don Johnson and George W. Taylor for scorers with 10 points.

Friday night the Knox City boys lost to Olney, Tex. Johnson was high scorer for the boys with 13 points and 13 rebounds.

At Sunday night the Greyhounds met the Highland Hornets, champions of district 13. Knox City led until the 23rd minute when Highland scored 46-60. In the 23rd minute Johnson scored 23 points and 23 rebounds. The game was a 38-48 field goal percentage for a 34-44 average. Johnson scored 23 points for an average of 40 percent.

Dennis Anderson scored a total of 24 points. His 95 field goals in 218 tries average 44 percent and he had a 47 percent average on free throws, making 14 good out of 74 attempts.

Third high scorer was Jim Anderson with 175, including 64 field goals out of 177 tries for 36 percent and 47 free throws out of 107 for 44 percent.

Joe Elledge, Greyhound captain, accounted for 162 points including 63 field goals out of 182 attempts, an average of 35 percent, and 36 of 68 free throws for 53 percent.

The best percentage on free throws was made by Laval Veralen, 26 out of 58 for 77 percent. Laval also made 46 field goals out of 142 attempts for an average of 32 percent, bringing his total scoring to 115 points.

Italy to Speak At Local Church

Texas for the ACC Lecture-ship February 22-27, Salvoni will later make an extended tour of the United States on behalf of the church's work in Italy.

Everyone in the area is cordially invited to attend the Friday night meeting, Savage said.

THE KNOX COUNTY HERALD

VOLUME 54

KNOX CITY, KNOX COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, FEB. 19, 1959

NUMBER 12

The face of part of the dam at Davis Lake, on the League-Davis Estate, is being smoothed by heavy graders. The other end of the dam is nearing completion, and a gap in the center will be left until last.

Completion of Davis Lake Dam Due in March

Jack Idol, manager of the League-Davis Estate in Knox County, said this week that work on the estate's huge irrigation lake project is proceeding on schedule, and the dam on Double Dutchman Creek is expected to be completed in March.

Simultaneously, several hundred acres of cropland are being leveled and readied for irrigation.

When completed, the dam will impound 4,500 acre feet of water, and will be the largest body of water in the county. Covering approximately 500 acres of land, it will be about six times as large as the 729 acre-foot Benjamin City Lake.

Dam site is about two miles east of Highway 283, midway between Benjamin and Knox City. When the lake is full of water it is expected to be backed up to the highway.

The reservoir will be called Davis Lake after the late Waters S. Davis Jr. of League City, Tex., who desired to have the dam constructed in being carried out by his sons and his sister, Mrs. D. S. Gauss of New Canaan, Conn.

Lyles & Davis of Childress contractors, have huge earth-moving equipment working on the dam. It was estimated that about 300,000 yards of dirt will be moved when the dam is completed. Workmen were busy this week constructing an outlet to let excess water out through the dam onto a concrete spillway.

Idol said about 1,000 acres of cropland adjacent to the lake will be put under irrigation.

All-Star Basketball Games Slated at O'Brien Thursday

The O'Brien Community Circle will sponsor all-star basketball games Thursday night, Feb. 26 at 8 o'clock, it was announced this week.

Admission will be 25 and 50 cents and proceeds will go toward completing the cellars on the O'Brien school grounds.

There will be a woman's game and a man's game. Women players will include Mrs. Sam Johnston, Mrs. Elmo Stephens, Mrs. Grady Ellis, Mrs. Claudale Barnard, Mrs. Alton Hester, Mrs. Bud Carver, Mrs. Lynward Wilcox and others.

Among the players on the men's teams will be Milton Rowan Dempsey Emerson, Mart Hardin, Alton Hester, Claudale Barnard and James Hewitt. Everyone in the area was urged to attend.

Two Trustees File For Re-Election

Lloyd Waldrip and Bobby Burnett, members of the Knox City School board whose terms are expiring, both filed this week as candidates for re-election.

Horace Finley, president of the board whose term also expires had not filed Wednesday.

The school trustee election will be held Saturday, April 4. Waldrip has served seven years on the board, and Burnett is completing his first three-year term. Other members are Clyde Voss, John Crowover, M. H. Mansfield and Alton Fitzgerald.

Also to be named in the election are two members of the County Board of Trustees, one in this precinct and one in the Gilliland-Truscott precinct.

Forms for a concrete "spillway" were being constructed at Davis Lake this week. Excess water will go through the dam into the bed of Double Dutchman Creek.

FIELD DAY VISITORS SEE IMPROVED COTTON VARIETIES

More than 150 guests from Texas and Oklahoma were in O'Brien last Thursday for Northern Star Seed Farms annual field day program.

Following the noon meal the visitors enjoyed a program featuring the Plainsmen Quartet of Dallas and "Stuttering Sam" Hunter of Tulsa, Okla. But the highlight of the day's activities for cotton men was a tour of the company's breeding block and a view of new, improved cotton varieties.

A plot of about an acre contained two new Northern Star varieties. Planted in late May the cotton had been left unpicked for the field day.

One, known as Northern Star No. 5, was bred especially for machine gathering and stripping according to S. N. Reed, manager of the seed farm. It is a hardy type that proved itself fully stormproof by remaining in the burr through the winter and the hard winds of the past few weeks.

Before the breed can be registered it must remain in the experimental stage and be worked with three years. After being registered it will be called Storm Star Cotton, Reed said.

Another variety, No. 411, is a superior descendant of Northern Star No. 1 and is already registered. According to J. S. Mogford, former Texas A&M professor who is now cotton breeding specialist for Northern Star and its sister company, Waco Seed Farms at Waco, the No. 411 has been bred to the point that it is more stormproof, and has a more compact and erect stalk with fewer branches than the No. 11, making it ideal for the mechanical picker.

Reed said cotton men see the expanded use of mechanical pickers in the state, which is the reason for producing a cotton breed that will stand almost all weather conditions and still be easy to gather from the burr.

Mogford, who directed the experiments with the two varieties, said they received the standard application of fertilizer and were poisoned as needed to control insects. The Cotton was estimated to have produced two bales per acre after the winds and rains during the fall and winter had taken their toll.

The two varieties are to be planted in 1959 on about 16,000 acres in Texas. Experiments with No. 5 will be carried on at both O'Brien and Waco until it can be registered and bred to the most exacting standards, Mogford explained.

Benjamin Completes Annual Dimes Drive

Benjamin's contributions to the 1959 March of Dimes totaled $227.63, Mrs. H. C. Stone, community chairman, said Wednesday.

To aid the fund drive, an all-star basketball game was held in the school gymnasium, game night was held at the courthouse, and workers canvassed the town.

Don Hertel managed the basketball game. Assisting Mrs. Stone with the drive were Mmes. Jack Barker, J. D. Redwine, Leon Bivins, W. H. Dodd, and Rosellen Glenn.

County School Superintendents Oppose H.B. 101

County Superintendent Merick McGaughey was in Haskell Tuesday to attend a District VII County Superintendents' meeting.

The district is composed of 23 counties. They are Archer, Baylor, Callahan, Clay, Eastland, Fisher, Foard, Hardeman, Haskell, Jack, Jones, Montague, Nolan, Scurry, Shackelford, Stephens, Stonewall, Taylor, Throckmorton, Wichita, Young, Knox, and Wilbarger.

Purpose of the meeting was to discuss legislation pertaining to the county superintendents' office. The group went on record as opposing House Bill No. 101 which is a negative bill proposing to eliminate the offices of certain county superintendents, and delegating the duties to county judges, McGaughey said.

McGaughey, who is president of the district, said that if the bill passes, the Commissioners Court may order an election for the people to vote whether or not to eliminate the county superintendents' office in counties where there are four or less common school districts and where the scholastic population in a common district does not exceed 100.

Knox County has two common school districts, each with more than 100 scholastics. He said all of the superintendents present had from four to eight state cooperative teachers who are paid through their offices. Knox County has four cooperative teachers: librarian, music, nurse, and guidance counselor. Some schools also have cooperative band directors, supervisors of instruction, and vocational teachers.

"House Bill No. 101 is no economy measure. The county superintendents would favor something constructive to the educational program in Texas."

Funeral services were held today (Thursday) at the Knox City Baptist Church with Rev. Claude Stovall and Rev. Billy Frazier former pastors, officiating. Burial was in Knox City Cemetery under direction of Pinkard-Smith Funeral Home.

Mrs. Horton was born Aug. 16, 1868 in Mississippi. She was married July 18, 1896 to Joe Horton who preceded her in death April 30, 1934.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Carl Howard of Lubbock, Mrs. W. L. Robnett of Knox City and Mrs. Ellis Stevens of Oklahoma City; two sons Douglas Horton of Lubbock and Jimmy Horton of Whitharral; and a sister, Mrs. Ora Kell of Corsicana.

She was a member of the Baptist Church since 1910. She came to Knox City from Sulphur Springs in 1908.

Knox City, Benjamin Men Return From National REA Meet

Delegates of the Baylor-Knox Electric Co. of Seymour to the National Rural Electrification Association have returned from Washington, D. C., where the REA meeting was held from Monday, February 9 until noon the following Thursday.

J. H. Atterbury of Knox City one of the delegates, said the highlight of the convention was Wednesday of last week when President Eisenhower was principal speaker. The group met with a number of senators and representatives, including Senator Lyndon Johnson and Representatives Frank Ikard.

Other delegates from B-K were Oral Patterson of Benjamin, Henry Arledge of Seymour, and John Grindstaff of Rochester. Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Arledge, and Mrs. Grindstaff accompanied their husbands to Washington. Mrs. Atterbury visited her daughter, Mrs. Max J. Gardner, Jr., and family in Ft. Worth. Mr. and Mrs. Atterbury returned home Tuesday.

Lions Club Launches Swimming Pool Project

Members of the Knox City Lions Club took a decisive step Wednesday toward launching a project to construct a swimming pool.

The club voted to apply for incorporation as a non-profit organization, a step necessary if the club is to sell bonds for construction of a pool, as tentatively planned.

Club president Otto Lawson had previously appointed a committee to investigate costs and other details of the project. The committee is composed of Bill Sams, Joe Roy Smith, C. E. Williams, Doyle Graham and George Houston.

Lawson, Smith, Sams and Houston were in Sundown Tuesday to study a similar project sponsored by the Sundown Lions Club.

Houston reported that the 33-member Sundown club sold $21,000 in bonds, $17,000 of which have been paid off after three years' operation.

The group also conferred with engineers in Lubbock, and Lawson said more detailed plans and cost estimates will be announced next week.

The city has offered a portion of the city park as a pool site, Lawson added.

Weinert Takes First Game of Playoff Series

Weinert and O'Brien were both "cold" Tuesday night in the first game of their playoff series for the District 14-B basketball title.

Weinert won the opening game 37-26. The two teams will meet again in the Haskell gym tonight (Thursday) and if a third game is necessary it will be played at Haskell Saturday night.

Weinert jumped into an early lead and never trailed in Tuesday night's game, leading by 33-11 at one point. O'Brien scored 12 points in a row, however, to make it 33-23 before Weinert staved off the threat.

At the free throw line Weinert hit nine of 20, and O'Brien only six of 21. Danny Walsworth, O'Brien's all-star, scored 19 of his team's 26 points. Top scorer for Weinert was Larry Walker with 10.

Winner of the playoff series will meet Knox City of District 13-B in the first round of regional play.

Air Rifles and Loud Mufflers Due Crackdown

City Marshal Eddie Carr said this week he has received several complaints about boys shooting air rifles in town.

In some instances, he said, boys have been reported shooting at dogs and chickens with the pellet guns.

He pointed out that there is a long-standing city ordinance prohibiting the shooting of air rifles within the city limits, and urged parents to stop their sons from shooting before other steps become necessary.

The city marshal also said numerous complaints are received about the noise from loud mufflers. These mufflers are also in violation of the law, he said, and are used mostly by youthful drivers. He warned all those with loud mufflers to remove them before the law is strictly enforced.

Methodist Parsonage Dedication Slated For Sunday, March 8

Bishop William C. Martin of the Dallas-Fort Worth area, will dedicate the new Methodist parsonage Sunday, March 8, Rev. Oran D. Smith announced Wednesday.

Indebtedness on the parsonage has been paid, he said. The house cost about $14,000 but was constructed as the money came in, with Rev. Walter Driver, former pastor, doing much of the actual construction. When the building was completed there was an indebtedness of about $1,500, Rev. Smith said.

Survivors are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis; two sisters, LaVon and June; and her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Lewis, all of Knox City.

Burial was in Knox City Cemetery under the direction of Pinkard-Smith.

Abilene Minister To Speak Tonight At Christian Church

Rev. Norman Conner, minister of the First Christian Church in Abilene, will speak at the local Christian Church tonight (Thursday), Rev. John Waddell, minister, has announced.

He will tell of the mission stations and their work in Mexico, participating in the observance of Mission Month by the Knox City Church.

Rev. Conner's speech will highlight an evening which will begin with a Family Dinner in the new educational building. The dinner, arranged by the Christian Women's Fellowship will begin at 6:45. Rev. Waddell urged every member of every family of the church to attend.

"Mr. Conner is an outstanding preacher. He will challenge you for Christ's sake. Come hear him," the minister said.

All classes, except two adult classes, will meet in the new building for Sunday School Sunday, when the building will be completed, Rev. Waddell said. Date of open house and dedication will be announced later.

The building, made of concrete blocks, houses a fellowship hall, a kitchen, a pastor's study, and five class rooms. Claude Richardson was contractor.

Sunday the church will observe Week of Compassion Sunday. Rev. Waddell will use as his sermon topic for the morning worship "God's Mercy—In Our Hands".

Funeral Services Held Monday For Effie Lewis, 21

Funeral services for Effie Lewis, 21, were held at 2 p. m. Monday at the First Methodist Church with Rev. Walter Driver of Roscoe, former pastor, officiating, assisted by Rev. Oran D. Smith, pastor.

Miss Lewis died in the Knox County Hospital Sunday at 5:30 a. m. She had entered the hospital Saturday night. She had suffered from a kidney ailment for some time but her death came unexpectedly.

She was born in Bridgeport July 20, 1938, but had lived in Knox City most of her life. She was a member of the 1958 graduating class of Knox City High School.

Survivors are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis; two sisters, LaVon and June; and her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Lewis, all of Knox City.

Burial was in Knox City Cemetery under the direction of Pinkard-Smith.

Toronto Lowers Knox Crude Price

Toronto Pipeline Co., which gathers about 10,500 barrels of oil daily in Knox and Baylor counties, last week dropped its price 7 cents a barrel to a new top of $3.01. The reduction is retroactive to Feb. 1, the date Indiana Oil Purchasing Co. made a like cut in Knox County.

American Petrofina Co. also reduced its price for crude bought in 13 Texas counties, including Knox and Baylor.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Texas — The season of the "hard luck story" is in full swing.

Legislative committees having to do with taxing and spending are in almost constant sessions. On the one hand they hear from the state agencies that want more money—of their dire needs, of the gloomy future that awaits the state if their programs are under-financed.

Equally mournful are the stories of those who would be the targets of new taxes. It would be like putting up a "Keep Out of Texas" sign for new businesses and accompanying prosperity, say many business and civic leaders of the sharp new tax bites. Texas communities trying to build up their areas by bringing in money-making enterprises would have the rug pulled out from under them, say the tax critics.

In this arena of clashing viewpoints, the legislators must serve as both judge and jury. Few lawmakers expect to collect any nosebags for their efforts—no matter how sincere or well-considered. Some expect they may have to displease both groups—by cutting spending requests and raising taxes—all in one woeful session.

BANE TO BUSINESS—As expected, businesses, large and small, take a dim view of Gov. Price Daniel's proposal to increase corporation franchise taxes.

Industry spokesmen told of probable increases of from 50 to 250 per cent in the amount they would have to pay. They complained, too, that they'd have to pay a tax whether they were making money or not, since the tax would be on capital, rather than income.

Rep. J. E. Winfree of Houston, sponsor of the bill, told the business representatives, in effect, "It's this or something else."

UT PLEADS CASE—University of Texas "will sink back into mediocrity," declared exes and officials, unless the school gets a better appropriation than that proposed by the Legislative Budget Board.

University officials asked for a two-year appropriation of about $34,006,067. Budget Board recommended $27,920,624.

Dr. Logan Wilson told the House Appropriations Committee that people seemed willing to pay broad-based taxes for highways. Why not for higher education?

Herman Jones, Austin attorney and spokesman for alumni, emphasized the importance of improved education to this country's position in international affairs. "I don't want it put in the history books that this generation kept the budget low and let the nation die," said Jones.

UT officials also said they would be opposed to establishing a third medical branch—at San Antonio, Austin or elsewhere—until they have gotten enough money to make "first class" the existing Dallas and Gal-

PRISON PROBLEMS—Even more impassioned are the pleas of those concerned with appropriations for the Department of Corrections.

Texas Prison System is operated at about half the national average cost per inmate, says Supt. O. B. Ellis. For some years Board members have been warning of dangerously overcrowded conditions, and the need for more buildings.

A slash in funds and personnel, as proposed by the Legislative Budget Board, would bring sheer ruin to the bulging prisons, in Ellis' view.

Prison System has an even more immediate pinch in that it hasn't money to finish out this fiscal year. It had a crop failure last year, when floods wiped out cotton on the prison farms.

heavily dependent on its own production, it, like any hard-hit farmer, needs some "cash money"—about $300,000—to tide it over for this year.

SOMETHING'S GOTTA GO—We can't continue our present services and take a budget cut too, Texas A&M Extension Service officials told legislators.

Budget Board recommended a slightly lower Extension Service appropriation for 1960 than it had for 1959. Service had asked for sizeable increase to help off-set extensive loss of county agents to better-salaried jobs in industry.

Spokesmen for the Farm Bureau and numerous other rural groups appeared before the House Appropriations Committee to plead the importance of Extension Service work.

mittee, a creation of the last session, has until March 2 to complete its voluminous report.

Aft.: nearly 20 months of activity, the Committee had had 27 hearings, piled up 7,500 pages of testimony. All hearings were public, and some brought unsettling repercussions in the fields of insurance regulations and tax collecting.

Senator Charles Herring of Austin, chairman, is recommending such work be continued by a Joint House-Senate Committee. There must be some sort of "watch dog", Herring believes, for the state's billion-dollar-a-year business.

SLOW DOWN—Chronic speeders would soon find themselves getting around on shoe leather under a strict new measure proposed by Rep. Ben Lewis of Dallas.

Under the bill, the first speeding conviction would bring a 30-day license suspension; the second, a 60-day suspension; the third, six months; and all thereafter, one year. A record of each conviction would be carried on the driver's license.

Speeding, Lewis pointed out, is regarded as a leading cause of accidents.

ANTI-HAIRSPLITTING—"Harmless errors" would no longer be grounds for reversal of a criminal court conviction under a measure being sponsored by Rep. Tom James of Dallas.

Only "substantive errors" would require the throwing out of a trial court decision.

There has been some criticism in recent years of Court of Criminal Appeals decisions which nullified convictions because of such things as misspellings and typographical errors. James' bill was recommended by the Texas Law Enforcement Commission.

Garden Club Meets With Mrs. Houston

The Knox City Garden Club met Wednesday, Feb. 11, in the home of Mrs. George Houston with Mrs. J. C. McGee as co-hostess.

Mrs. Claud Reed, first vice-president, conducted the business session in the absence of the president, Mrs. Elwood Hackney. Roll call was answered by showing beautiful pieces of driftwood and rock.

Present were 14 members and two guests, Mrs. George Davis of Knox City and Mrs. Jim Reeves of Munday.

Driftwood arrangements on display were made by Mrs. T. S. Edwards and Mrs. Donald Tankersley. Mrs. L. W. Graham, chairman of the civic committee, reported that pecan trees had been ordered and would be planted on the hospital grounds in the near future. The beautification of the hospital grounds is one of the club's projects.

Mrs. Ance Waldrip told what to do in the garden now. Guest speaker was Arnold Brown, vocational agriculture teacher in the Knox City Schools. He was introduced by Mrs. Houston.

Uncle Ben from Benjamin says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I see by the papers this morning where some doctor from Boston says farming is the best way to make a living if you want to keep from getting high blood pressure. Of course, this fellow ain't doing no farming himself and it all depends on what kind of farmer he's talking about.

Fer instant, take a farmer like my neighbor down the road. If you want to git high blood pressure fer shore, just practice farming like he does it. He plans his work. That'll kill any farmer and most of 'em that does it dies from high blood pressure.

Fer example, maybe on Sunday he'll decide to start plowing the first thing Monday morning. That ruins Sunday fer him, because he'll step out ever few minutes to look at the sky and speculate on the chances of rain. He'll be all upset by bedtime Sunday night from worrying about the weather.

Monday morning he's up after a restless night, and after worrying if his tractor will start and wondering how the gas is, he starts plowing and worrying. He'll worry over the wind blowing, over the the ground drying out too fast, over whether he'll git through afore it rains. After three days of this, when he's about through, he begins worrying because it ain't rained yet. This goes on from season to season and in all the years I've knowed this neighbor he's been bent over with worrying and high blood pressure.

The best way to farm without high blood pressure is not let yourself, your old lady, or your banker know what you're going to do tomorrow, and if the notion strikes you when you git up in the morning, don't do nothing. I even know some city folks that follows that system and is pritty healthy. It works the same, town or country.

Looks like them Government carpenters is going to mess with the White House again. I see where one of them says it was "poorly planned and not substantially constructed in the first place." In other words, it was a Government project.

It ain't been too long since Harry had it fixed up and a front porch put on it to the tune of five million dollars. I can remember when five million would build a whole village, including a town pump, a watering trough, 20 hitching posts, and leave a couple million loot for the politicians to split. Fer another five million, I reckon we'll git a back porch and a picture window.

In the same paper where I was reading about the White House, I saw where four times as much liquor was drunk in Washington as in any city its size in the country. That don't explain everything going on there, but it helps.

CARD OF THANKS
Our sincere thanks to the people of Knox City for the food, flowers, and thoughtfulness expressed during the illness and death of our daughter and granddaughter. May God bless each of you.
The Family of Effie Lewis.

By the time you read this you will have heard a dozen explanations as to why cotton's support prices are lower than the trade generally expected... but there is only one real explanation: The Secretary of Agriculture is determined to reduce cotton surpluses in at least two ways... first, by not giving cotton a high support price he is trying to weed out inefficient producers... second, he is getting the sales price of cotton more in line with foreign growths and competitive synthetics.

The way supports were reduced was to figure parity differently from what was done in the past... trade didn't expect this as the Department of Agriculture had given no hint it was in the wind... this is the first revision of the parity formula since 1950. Along these same lines the Secretary announced that American cotton will have an export program that makes it competitive price-wise with foreign grown cotton.

As a producer you may weep over the low support price... but you must smile at the possibility of American cotton for the coming year... the lower price will not only encourage additional use of cotton in the U. S. and abroad but it will certainly tend to stop expansion of foreign production... already signs indicate a considerable reduction in Mexican cotton acreage... maybe as much as 35 per cent.

What About "B"?
How will the lower support price affect "B"? Choice of the cotton program? ... frankly we don't know and we don't believe anybody else does for a very simple reason... the decision to go "A" or "B" depends upon individual reasons that won't apply to everybody so you can't make any sort of a generalization... one thing, though, the spread in dollars between "B" cotton and "A" cotton supports is slightly narrower than it would have been had a higher parity figure been used... this could encourage "B" production.

March 16th
Now you better believe this no matter what anybody tells you... if you haven't notified your county committee in writing by March 16th that you are going the "B" route, then you are going to be among the "A's"... don't try to come in later with a sad story about what your intentions

DISTRICTS COMBINED FOR ONE-ACT PLAY CONTEST

Texas Interscholastic League one-act play contests for Districts 13-B and 14-B have been combined, and the meet will be held at Rochester March 24, it was announced this week.

Schools competing in the contest will be Knox City, Rhineland, Vera, O'Brien, Rochester, Rule and Weinert.

Supt. Elvin Mathis of O'Brien is director for the contest.

Mathis Gets New Contract at O'Brien

Elvin Mathis, superintendent of Carney Rural High School at O'Brien the past two years, was recently elected to another two-year term, ending June 30, 1961.

Before coming to O'Brien as superintendent Mathis had been superintendent at Mattson two years. He had teaching and coaching experience at O'Brien, San Angelo, Water Valley, Paint Rock and Baird. He graduated in 1941 from McMurry College where he was a member of Alpha Chi, national honor society. He received his master's degree in 1950 from Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, with a major in history and a minor in English.

During his administration at O'Brien a disastrous fire in January, 1958 destroyed the main classroom building and gymnasium. For the next year classes were held in churches and other nearby buildings. A new classroom building was occupied just after Christmas and the gym shortly afterward.

Mathis is married to the former Edith Dusek of Lowake and they have one daughter, Mary in the sixth grade.

Queens Named at Parade of Hearts

Receipts at the "Parade of Hearts," O'Brien School's carnival type entertainment Saturday night, totaled $586.29, according to Supt. Elvin Mathis.

About $200 of the receipts will go to the Community Circle to help pay for cellars under construction at the school, with the remainder going to individual classes, Mathis said.

The race for high school queen was won by the seniors, whose candidate was Joyce Denton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Denton. Her escort was Jerry Carver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyle Carver.

Grade school winner was Debra Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hayes. She was escorted by Steven Hunt, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hunt. Debra was the first grade's candidate.

The coronation ceremony was held in the school's new auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Beason began construction on a new house in town this week. Location is on the lots east of Samuel Tankersley. The Beasons now live west of town.

Streams In Desert Places

Ozelie Stephens

Is Jesus a stranger to you as He was the disciples who walked with Him on the road from Jerusalem to Emmaus? Their hearts and minds were so full of fear and anxiety until Jesus appeared as a stranger instead of their beloved Saviour. They walked six miles with Him bemoaning His death, and He was by their side every step of the way. Because their minds were closed their eyes holden, their vision blurred, they could not recognize their Saviour in His resurrection glory. Open your hearts to the truth of the Word and feel His presence each step of the way. He will never leave or forsake you.
