SOLONS BLOCKED FOR PENSION MONEY

Austin, April 5.—Mired in its own maneuverings, the Texas legislature today, after two-thirds of a riotous session, was blocked at almost every turn in its search for old age pension revenue.

Stout blocs, aligned with and against various proposals revolving around the question of submitting the matter to the people or voting tax measures themselves, declined to budge.

The senate showed signs of loosening yesterday by reconsidering a Monday vote which turned down a constitutional amendment to finance expanded pensions.

The house, however, remained its old self on the question. The same bloc that killed the sales tax amendment last week wasn't strong enough yesterday to put over its statutory bill plan, failing twice to raise the two-thirds vote needed to get it on the floor.

It met, comparatively coolly, a new proposal by Rep. Ross Hardin to submit an amendment to the people calling for a one per cent gross receipts tax and increased natural resource levies.

Senator Clint Small of Amarillo fostered the movement in the senate to reconsider the killing vote on the constitutional amendment, contending he wanted to keep it alive so the senate might vote later to submit it in a referendum if it became necessary. The amendment, given Gov. O'Daniel's blessing, would levy a two per cent tax on retail sales and certain services and hike natural resource levies 25 per cent.

Rep. Hardin's proposal in the house was the biggest development of the day. He would levy a 1 per cent gross receipts tax on retail establishments, with the first $25,000 in business exempted; one-fourth of one per cent on wholesales; one-tenth of one per cent on gross income from money lending and 33 1-3 per cent on natural resources.

Hardin urged his colleagues to get to work on some pension plan, warning:

"If we don't quit stalling down here, the only constitutional amendment the people can vote on will be to increase our terms to four years and us $3,000 a year. The old people want this money, and they don't care where it comes from."

The Hardin proposal would also earmark two-thirds of the tax revenue from wine, beer and liquor permits, after Jan. 1, 1940, for the social security program.

Rep. Albert Derden of Marlin, foe of the constitutional amendment plan and supporter of the statutory bill bloc, bitterly opposed Hardin's amendment and said the house has given its answer on such measures.

Further action on the Hardin proposal was postponed until Tuesday. He had estimated it would raise $40,000,000 for the liberalized $30 net income he proposed.

DIES IN MISSISSIPPI

Mrs. J. R. Bradberry received a message Wednesday that her father, Mr. C. E. Couch, had passed away at his home in Houston, Mississippi, at five o'clock.

Mr. Couch was eighty-seven years of age and had been in good health. The cause of his death was not given in the telegram.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Couch of Vernon spent Sunday with Mr. Couch's sister, Mrs. John Bradberry, and other relatives here.

Several Knox City Lions will go to Abilene tonight to the district meeting.

NORTHERN STAR SEED SELLING IN PANHANDLE

S. N. Reed of O'Brien was caller at our office Monday and left an order for job printing.

He informed us that he had just returned from a trip to the Panhandle selling the celebrated Northern Star cotton seed and one firm in Hemphill county purchased 813 bushels which they will sell to farmers of that section at cost, to encourage the use of this grade of seed. He also informed us that he had sold ten truck loads to the farmers of the Lubbock section. This seed farm is getting to be famous in the Panhandle.

Three Held In Extortion Plot

Haskell, April 5.—An extortion note demanding $250 "not later than April 15" from W. D. Hinson, principal of the Weinert school, led to the arrest of three persons last night in their homes near Holiday in Archer county.

Sheriff Olin Dotson of Haskell, Sheriff C. P. Pryor of Archer City and Archer County Attorney M. I. Threlset brought the trio to the county jail here after working on the case with federal postal inspectors since the note was received Monday by the school principal.

Although the contents of the note were not further revealed, it was learned that the letter had been postmarked April 1 at Archer City and was given to Haskell officers Monday afternoon by Hinson.

The three under arrest were a young farm couple, the husband 24 and the wife 17, and another young man, 21.

Charges are pending completion of an investigation by the federal officers.

Miss Marlynne Herring, who is attending college at Denton, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herring.

Misses Mildred and Mary Belle Stevenson and Grace Orsborn, all of Dallas, spent the week end here with relatives and friends.

Henry Thompson returned Sunday from Dallas.

LARGE VOTE IN ELECTION TUESDAY

CAUSSEY THANKS VOTERS

O. W. Caussey, who was elected City Commissioner at the election Tuesday, called at our office yesterday and asked us to state to the people of Knox City that he greatly appreciated the confidence that the voters placed in him by electing him and that he expected to do everything within his power to give the city an economical administration and would be found at all times working for the best interest of the city. He resigned his position as school trustee at the regular meeting last night, but his successor has not yet been appointed. The citizens of the town are urging that L. W. Graham, the old member who retired last Saturday, be appointed as member again. Mr. Graham was not a candidate, but his many friends are urging that he serve the unexpired term of Mr. Caussey.

At the city election Tuesday one of the largest votes in several years was cast, being 215. Mayor Hoge, who was running without opposition, received 205 votes. J. J. Stephens, who was running for re-election as City Marshal, received 185 and J. O. Cook received 35 votes. In the race for City Commissioner, which was hot and no doubt called out the large vote, O. W. Caussey received 113 and Sam White, who was running for re-election, received 98 votes.

Both sides worked hard and it was a great surprise to the people when it was announced that 215 votes had been cast. Those who met defeat greeted it with a smile and are going to cooperate with the city in helping to make Knox City a better place in which to live.

NEW MECHANIC FOR CHEVROLET

The Ashcroft Chevrolet Co. has secured the services of Mr. S. C. Ball of Stamford, who has assumed charge of repair work in this garage. Mr. Ball is an approved Chevrolet mechanic and has had several years experience in Chevrolet work. He and his family have already moved to Knox City and will be permanent fixtures in the town. If your Chevrolet needs attention he requests that you drive it around and let him give it a thorough inspection.

WHITE THANKS VOTERS

I desire to thank my friends for the vote given me in the election Tuesday. While defeated, I hold no ill will toward anyone and stand ready to assist my opponent in every way possible. Let's forget and lay aside petty politics and all work for the best interest of Knox City.

Respectfully,
Sam White.

PARENT-TEACHERS ELECT OFFICERS

At the regular meeting of the Knox City Parent-Teachers Association yesterday afternoon, the following officers were elected to serve for the year.

President, Mrs. T. P. Frizzell; Vice President, Mrs. Joe Averitt; Secretary, Miss Ruth Rice, and Treasurer, Miss Pauline Benton.

The following delegates were elected to attend the district convention in Electra: Mrs. E. R. Carpenter, Mrs. T. F. Frizzell, Jr., Mrs. Joe Averitt and Mrs. A. M. Whittis.

TRUSTEE ELECTION

At the trustee election Saturday for the Knox City Independent School District, Lloyd Davis and Olvis Hamm were elected trustees to succeed G. D. McCarty and L. W. Graham. There were only 34 voters. Ben Farmer was elected county trustee from this Commissioners' precinct.

CO-OP GIN HOLDS ANNUAL ELECTION

The Cotton Growers Co-operative Gin Company of Knox City held their annual directors meeting last Saturday and the following were elected for another year:

O. T. McElroy, President; W. H. Cornett, Vice President; G. W. Hammons, Secretary; Treasurer; Barney Arnold, Manager.

The above gentlemen make up the board of directors, with the addition of A. C. Varnell and C. W. Armstrong.

This gin has made a wonderful record the past six years and has paid out to the stockholders more than $100,000. The gin is clear of debt and has enough money in the treasury to make all necessary repairs for another year. The stockholders the past year received $2.75 for each bale ginned there.

Surviving are the widow; two sons, George and R. C. Plants of Seymour; a daughter, Mrs. R. U. Robertson of Haskell, and numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

LAST LAP OF SCHOOL

Only six more weeks of school and the summer holidays will be here. Six more weeks in which to complete our work for the year and leave with a clean slate and successful work behind us. To be able to enjoy the three months of freedom and play, everyone of us should endeavor to do our best in order to go away with a feeling of accomplishment and work well done.

For some it will mean only a vacation from work. For others it will mean only the completion of four years work in Knox City high school. For the latter group it is doubly important that they be prepared in every way to leave the institution they have attended and be able to look back and see a record that tells of hard work and honest loyalty and sportsmanship.

It is important to be foremost in all events. Just to be capable of filling your own small place and filling it well is the determining factor in every well-rounded life. It is not the one who receives the great honors, but the one who gives the most and asks the least, that receives the real blessings in this life. It is not those things that one can see and hold, those things that shine and sparkle, that are the true rewards of this life; that reward is found only in loyal friends, joyful memories, and worthwhile things done and said.

KNOX CITY STUDENTS ATTEND DISTRICT MEET

Students winning places in the past county meet from Knox City will attend the district meet at Breckenridge in the near future.

The one-act play cast will meet the other leading plays of this district Wednesday, April 5. Bobby Armstrong, Odell Carver, L. N. Bridges, Geneva Walker, Margaret Dutton and Wynette Farmer make up the cast of the winning play, "Luncheon For Six." The players, under the direction of Mr.

Charles Shumaker, have been practicing daily in order to be in top form for the contest. Everyone is expecting to have a winning play.

The boys placing in the track events are in fine shape and should be able to make a fine showing. They are working diligently getting ready for the hard fight they expect to give the other contestants.

To everyone taking part in this advanced Interscholastic League work, the students and teachers of Knox City high school wish to extend their hearty good wishes and hopes for continued success.

BAND ENTERTAINS AT ASSEMBLY

Friday, March 31, the Greyhound Band presented a short concert of contest music which they will be required to play at the Band Convention at Abilene this week end. Every member of the band is working hard, and they should make a fine showing.

The Knox City students enjoyed "Military Overture," "Old Vienna," and "S. I. A. B." their warm-up march.

SENIORS ENTERTAINED AT BUFFET SUPPER

Misses Anna Lou Warr n, Geneva Walker and Emma Sue Thompson, members of the Senior class, entertained their classmates and guests at an informal buffet supper at the Warren home last Friday night March 31. The rooms were decorated in the Easter motif, with baskets of Easter eggs as centerpieces for each table cleverly arranged in a corresponding fashion.

The refreshments were very beautifully arranged and consisted of meat loaf with tomato sauce, cream peas, buttered carrots, creamed potatoes, vegetable salad, olives, pickles and hot rolls. The dessert was delectable slices of angel cake covered with lemon sauce. Coffee was served throughout the meal.

Those attending the supper were Odell Carver, Bobby

Armstrong, Mary Helen Evans, Paul Edward Benedict, Marie Darr, Melvin Dutton, Anna V. Carr, Johnny Thomasson, Nina Mae Davis, Pearl and Irene Hendrix, B. Hendrix, Wynette Farmer, Don Davis, Mary Frances Reeder, Doris Apple, Bobby McCarty, Doyle Graham, Truman Cypert, Supt. and Mrs. A. M. Whitis, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Q. Warren.

SPORTS BY SPUTTERS

About fourteen girls are working out for Junior High group one team and several substitutes will be chosen to represent Knox City in the county baseball tournament to be held in Benjamin, May 6.

Every day that is suitable the girls play from 2:45 until 3:30, and beginning this week, the girls in the band who are interested and are unable to play at 2:45 will play from 3:30 until 4:15.

On Monday afternoon there is a game scheduled with the O'Brien team, to be played on the home field.

THE LAST LEAVES

Just six more weeks and the weekly news bulletin from K. C. H. S. will come to an end. For this reason the students around this happy place seem to be slipping up on time itself.

Those glamorous young ladies, Jean Anne, Zena and Ernestine, were really slipping up on time or something Sunday afternoon. In a Model A Ford, too! Could it still be O'Brien?

Marjorie's blood pressure seemed to have hit bottom Sunday afternoon—especially when she saw a certain Mercury.

It is apparent, here of late, that Faye has a special interest in donkeys and Kodak pictures, especially the donkey.

Doyle and Truman are seen frequently discussing certain topics in private. You can't pull the wool over our eyes, boys, we know it is Goree.

It's certainly peculiar that Jack Warren is so popular with the girls! Could it be his permanent "wavy" hair?

Pearl and Irene Hendrix are looking forward to Senior play practice, which evidently will play a good part on the subject of a good place to go.

Until the next time,
Dipsy Doodle.

Egg Marks The Spot, Officer

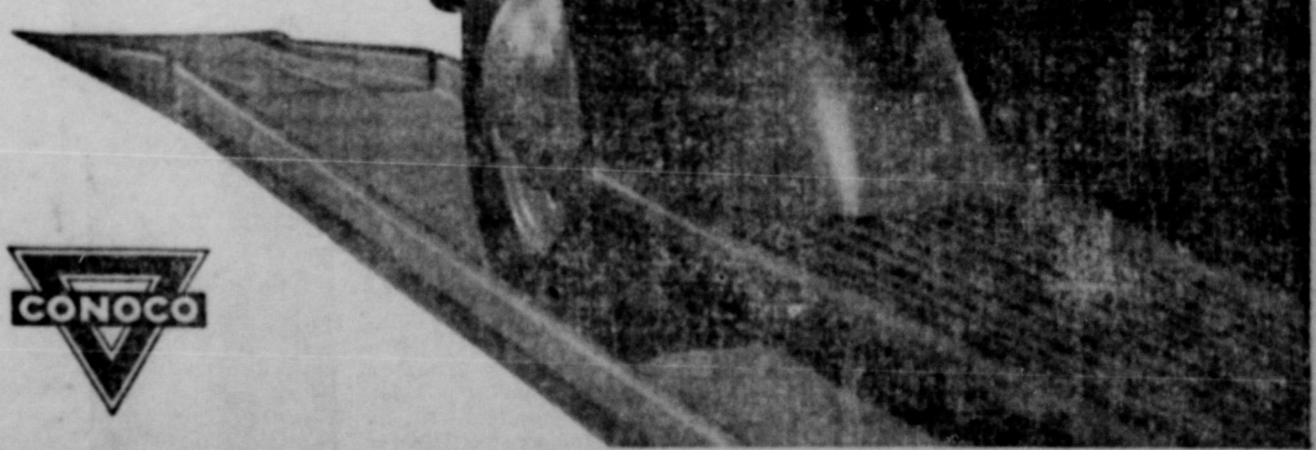

Patrolman Harold Nickerson of the Detroit Police put his ticket book away when Betty Dane, Wayne University student, explained that her driving with an egg was only part of a sorority initiation stunt. She did it, too, without breaking the egg, by using a Chevrolet, in which vacuum from the motor supplies nearly all the power necessary in shifting gears with the new steering-column shift lever.

How the plus of OIL-PLATING brings you more than an oil-change

YOU KNOW right off that the fresh oil needed in your crankcase today, isn't to lubricate the crankcase. Either your oil is in the bearings and up to the cylinder head every turn of your engine, or your lubrication isn't 100%.

Now what's the chance for any of the general run of oils to stay up while you've parked the car, for instance? Just about as much chance as there is for a geyser to stay up all by itself! Then every time you start, don't pistons get up to the top before oil gets up from the crankcase? You kill that risk by changing now to OIL-PLATING.

The "magnetic action" of Conoco Germ Processed oil—patented—makes OIL-PLATING stay on inner engine surfaces throughout all your stops, starts and runs this Summer. Your Germ Processed oil keeps a steady hold on the "Full" mark, too, as you'll see—by changing today to Your Mileage Merchant. Continental Oil Company

STILL FIGHTING FOR DEMOCRACY

SALES TAX MEETS DEATH IN BOTH OF THE HOUSES

Austin, April 5.—The plan of special interest lobbyists to saddle a $40,000,000 sales tax burden on the backs of the poor folks of Texas was shot to pieces this week following a shattering defeat in the House of Representatives, and the sales tax constitutional amendment by Alfred Petsch of Fredericksburg went down into oblivion with less than a bare majority of votes in its favor. It would require a two-thirds vote to have passed it, and the same vote would now be required to revive it, so it is dead for the session, so far as all practical purposes are concerned.

The sales tax lobby, badly shaken by the overwhelming house defeat, turned its attention to the Senate, where there are pending two other sales tax constitutional amendments. Both these measures, however, are much milder in form than the Petsch measure. Preliminary debate and test votes in the Senate indicate little likelihood that either can muster 21 votes necessary for adoption and the House situation makes any kind of a constitutional amendment carrying a sales levy very unlikely of ever reaching the voters, the best observers here believe. The Senate was to resume work on amendments this week, after a plea of Lieutenant Governor Coke Stevenson for harmony and a compromising attitude, but the best bet for additional social security revenue now seems to be a tax bill which would raise a maximum of $10,000,000 and must originate in the House, under the constitutional rule.

The House clearly does not intend to submit a sales tax in a constitutional amendment, and close observers here believe its members will never submit a sales tax in statutory form, unless their present attitude changes radically again before the end of this session. The Senate seems unwilling to accept an omnibus bill that does not carry provision for raising some revenue by a sales impost, although it may be possible that a selective sales tax, or luxury tax, that would exempt purchases of food and clothing up to a certain sum, might be the basis of a compromise.

There is still a strong possibility that a deadlock between the two houses may result without any tax-raising measure of any kind getting through. Although nearly 100 members of the House have signed a pledge to remain in session until the money is raised for social security purposes, this is discounted by many observers as a political gesture, which will not bind the members for very long, when the $10 a day pay drops to $5 a day, after the 120-day period of the regular session is over.

One rather obvious conclusion that may be drawn pensioning system. That, they estimate, could be done for not more than $9,000,000 more than present pension revenue, or a total of $18,000,000 a year, with Federal matching, which would give a total of $36,000,000, or an average payment of $15 per month to 200,000 pensioners.

There were signs that the "solid front" of special interest who have sought to freeze a sales tax into the constitution has broken under the decisive House defeat. The oil lobby, never enthusiastic over the program, apparently is in open revolt. The oil lobbyists figure the constitutional amendment, carrying 33 1-3 per cent increase in the oil tax, offered them no advantage, as they can probably fight off any greater levy than this in an omnibus tax statute, and they would not be "stuck" with the tax frozen into the constitution. With its near-solid front broken by defeat, the special interest "program" lobby at the week end apparently was breaking up, with every man and every industry for himself, and Governor O'Daniel and his ambitious tax advisors "out on a limb" so far as the legislature is concerned. Meanwhile, economy advocates in both houses were awaiting a strategic moment to push forward their plans to save $5,000,000 a year by careful paring of departmental appropriation bills, when the dust from the tax fight clears up a little.

GREYHOUND BAND IN ABILENE CONTEST

Approximately 2,000 band

students will participate in the marching contest. Marching will begin at 7 p.m. and continue until after 10 o'clock, R. T. Bynum, general chairman for the events, has announced. Spectator admission will be 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for all students.

The annual competition began this morning and will close Saturday night. All solo events and orchestra competition were to be completed today. Junior high school, class C and D bands play at the Fair Park Auditorium Friday and class A and B bands play Saturday.

CEMETERY WORKING

The Cemetery Committee called at our office Tuesday and requested us to announce that next Monday the citizens were urged to meet there and spend the day working and cleaning up the cemetery. The committee has made arrangements whereby they can deed the cemetery over to the city, and then it will have the attention of the city dads. All who have relatives or friends buried there are urged to turn out next Monday and assist in this worthy cause.

Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Hudson and daughter Edna have returned home from a week's visit with their daughter, Mrs. J. A. Savage, at Soltillo, Texas, and a week visiting in Hill county, which is their old home. They returned home by way of Mineral Wells and the Postum Kingdom Dam, where they have a son. They report a most enjoyable trip.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Because it is Easter

The Jewish sabbath was Saturday. Sunday is observed by most Christians throughout the world as a Christian sabbath. This change came about because the resurrection occurred on the first day of the week. Since then the day has been hallowed by the remembrance of Jesus' victory over death and the tomb. It is often called the Lord's Day.

As intelligent and thoughtful sons of God we should appropriately use the day. It is a compliment to the spiritual perception that they feel they should attend church on Easter Day. A finer spiritual perception would lead them to appropriately observe every Lord's Day as they do Easter.

Go to church Easter Sunday and every Sunday, for it is in his church that you are most likely to meet the risen Lord.

WHO WROTE IT?

"Sonny Boy"

When there are gray skies,

HE was born in New York City, and taken at the age of two to Los Angeles, where he was brought up. He studied at Citrus Union High at Azusa, and later went to the University of Southern California, where his talent for music first became evident. Show business was in his blood, so he quit college and went to work at a country club in Los Angeles, singing and playing his own songs. He was discovered when he was a lifeguard one summer by Al Jolson. Jolson took him to New York, and he collaborated with George Gershwin and other composers. He was one of a famous team, which included Lew Brown and Ray Henderson. They turned out many fine popular songs, and songs for musical comedies and motion pictures. They eventually became publishers, but finally separated amicably. Brown and Henderson went their ways, but the lyric writer went into the movies, and eventually became the producer of the first Shirley Temple pictures. His membership in the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers followed the writing of such songs as "April Showers," "California, Here I Come," "Look For The Silver Lining," "A Cottage Small By A Waterfall," etc., etc. His name is "Sally" sp png

ANNUAL MEETING OF WEST TEXAS COTTON GROWERS ASSOCIATION

Notice is hereby given of the Annual Meeting of the members of the West Texas Cotton Growers Association to be held on April 11 at 1:00 p.m. in the County Courtroom at the Courthouse in Abilene. All members are invited to attend the meeting, at which time directors of the ensuing year will be elected. A strong program of interest is being prepared. Invitations have been extended to E. F. Creekmore, General Manager of American Cotton Cooperative Association and other ACCA officials to attend and participate in this important Membership Meeting. J. L. Wilkinson, Coleman, President of the Association, will preside at the meeting.

SENIORS PRESENT—“MY MOTHER-IN-LAW”

The Senior play books have arrived and the characters have been selected. Already the strains of the play “My Mother-in-Law” are floating through the air.

The play will be presented on April 21 in the Sunset Auditorium.

Cast of characters:
 Peggy Armstrong, a baby-voice wife, Wardell Swentt.
 Art Armstrong, her devoted husband, E. G. Parkhill, Jr.
 Mrs. Stover, Peggy's mother, Dorothy Garrett.
 Shelia Stover, Peggy's sister, Traphene Wren.
 Alan Armstrong, Art's brother, J. E. Hunter.
 Beulah Hamtree, colored maid, Winters Groves.
 Fred Webb, Alan's employer, H. D. Matthews.
 Bernard J. Ledbetter, a literary agent, Orville Strickland.
 Laura Bradley, who lives on a higher plane, Hallie Phineas Clarke.
 Rose Caldwell, who wants to buy an automobile, Mary Herring.

SENIORS ON PARADE

Miss Mary Herring is five feet-five and one half inches tall, has black hair, brown eyes and weighs 125 pounds. She was born on July 17, 1920. Her childhood was spent in making mud-pies and paper dolls.

Mary started her pursuit of knowledge at the old League school. She went to school there two years, then spent one year in the Knox City institution of higher learning.

At the beginning of her fourth year in school, Mary's bright smiling face was seen in the halls of Sunset school. We haven't been able to get rid of her since that time. She has figured in her class functions several times since her advent here. Her athletic career was spent with the grammar school baseball team, and to the best of our memory she played on the high school team for two years. While in the Sophomore class, Mary won an honor medal for her good grades. In the Junior year she was class reporter, and during that time we'll always remember her for playing “Desdemona” in the Junior play.

Mary was elected reporter of the Senior class this year but, always a trader, she swapped that official position to H. D. Matthews for the job of class secretary and treasurer. Mary, along with our other Senior speller, won first place in the county spelling contest this year.

Mary plans to enter Texas Tech next fall.

GLENN MYERS GOES TO DISTRICT MEET

Glenn Myers is the one student from Sunset who will represent the school in the district Literary Meet at Breckenridge this year.

He has entered in declamation for the past four years. He won first place at the county meet last year, but did not go to Breckenridge because of a big snow. He also won first place this year, and is now making plans to go to Breckenridge Friday, April 14.

NEWS AMONG THE GRADES

The first grade pupils are happy to see the crops which they planted in their miniature farm coming up. Already they have made a red barn, a white cottage with red roof and shutters, a garage and a silo. A chicken house, a windmill and many other details are yet to be completed. Some of the girls made shrubbery for the yard. The boys are finishing a white paling fence.

They have a valuable farm book which at present contains eighteen pages of pictures and stories. Each child will finish a book.

The third and fifth grades are practicing a play, “The Magic Piper,” which will be presented April 14.

The fourth grade is practicing on an operetta, “Tomboy Joe,” which also will be presented April 14.

The sixth and seventh grades are practicing on an operetta, “Tom Sawyer.”

The seventh grade is proud of the pupils who won places in the county meet. Victor Thomas seems to have been the track star of the seventh grade. He made a total of thirteen and one half points in the following events: Junior boy relay, first place; 50-yd. dash, second; 100-yd. dash, second; high jump, second; broad jump, second.

Glenn Myers won third in chinning the bar.

JUNIOR BASEBALL GIRLS

The baseball girls are glad county meet is over so they may start playing baseball with other schools. They are really going to try to win first place. Frances Walling will be their captain. Their sponsor is Mrs. J. S. Shannon.

FRESHMAN NEWS

The Home Economics girls enjoyed their trip to Anson, as it was their first club rally. Everyone from the class got to go but Louise Mansfield, but she will hear all about it Friday at the club meeting.

The examinations are now in full swing and all the fish are very busy in their work. They all like the new schedule they are going to take their exams by.

SOPHOMORE REPORT

It is time for six weeks exams and the Sophs are ready for them—I hope, I hope, I hope!

In English the Sophomores have finished their Literature book and are going to study grammar for the remainder of the year.

In History they are studying about the Industrial revolution, and some of the students are beginning to write their term themes.

Several of the Sophomore Home Economics girls went to Anson Saturday to the District Home Economics meet. All of the girls reported having a grand time.

Mrs. Guy Milford is spending the week with relatives and friends in Spur.

Molly McGee

Well Again

Happiest man in all radio these days is your old friend Fibber McGee and the cause of that happiness is the complete recovery of one of radio's favorite actresses—Molly McGee. In private life they are Mr. and Mrs. James Jordan. Molly, accompanied by Jim, Jr., arrived in Hollywood last week and her doctors tell her that after a period of recuperation she will be able to return to the air. Fans in all walks of life have awaited this news for more than a year and despite the fact that Fibber's Tuesday night program is one of the two most popular half-hours on the air, the absence of Molly has been felt by both the company and the fans. Continued listener loyalty during her long illness is one of the finest tributes ever tendered any air entertainer.

Joe Emerson, Hymns of All Churches soloist, is back from a flying trip to South Carolina enthusing over his farm. He has planted two hundred additional apple trees and added to his herd of Aberdeen Angus cattle.

Betty Winkler, star of Girl Alone, and Tommy Riggs, with his voice-child, Betty Lou, will both be heard from Chicago this week when Tommy and company stop over there en route from Hollywood to New York.

Rumors have it that the sponsor of Orson Welles' Friday Playhouse is considering a switch to another spot on CBS, possibly to Sunday evening.

Soon cameras will start grinding on the filming of “Happy Ending”—the movie adaptation of the dramatic sketch by that name heard some weeks ago on the Star Theatre. It will be the first time that the talkies have turned to radio drama for material—the procedure usually being the reverse.

The Grouch Club, a variety show with a different twist, will make its bow to the national radio audience via both NBC and CBS on Sunday, April 16, after a sensational run on a coast network. It will have the same sponsor as Betty and Bob, Arnold Grimm's Daughter, Valiant Lady and other top-flight shows of that string.

Bob Hope's crack producer, Carl Stanton, is honeymooning in Palm Springs. He married Denver socialite Virginia Reynolds Ketchum.

Johnny Mercer's option has been picked up by Benny Goodman's Caravan bosses, so you'll be hearing his swell lyrics and parodies for another thirteen weeks.

Tom Grady has been added to the cast of Her Honor, Nancy James in the role of “James J. VanDyk.”

Tito Guiso's fans have been so persistent that the Mexican singer is back on the air via CBS Mondays and Wednesdays.

WHO SLAMMED THE DOOR IN PAPPY'S FACE?

Who slammed the door in the face of Governor W. Lee O'Daniel?

The Texas House wants to know and voted 78 to 51 last week to ask him.

The Governor in a speech at Houston charged that when he tried to get information relative to expenditures unnamed state officials "slammed the door" in his face.

Last week Rep. C. L. Harris of Spur sponsored a resolution which "suggested" to the Governor that he "disclose to us" who perpetrated this "discourtesy" and what state officials denied him any information.

"He was just making a speech," said Ross Hardin of Prairie Hill. "If he wanted us to go into it, he would have told us so."

"It was just windy that day," cracked Elmer Pope of Corpus Christi, "and the door blew shut in his face."

"This is a deliberate attempt to trip up the Governor," warned Reese Turner of Cameron.

"He's been trying to put us on the spot," answered W. J. Galbreath of Wharton. "He ought to back up his statements or shut up."

"The Governor ought to reflect carefully before he speaks," added Harvey Riviere of Port Arthur. "He didn't think twice before he put us on the spot. He ought to come out in the open."

"Don't you think this resolution ought to go," observed Henry Hull of Fort Worth, "to the committee on public health so we could also look into the 'pollution' up here?" In the same speech the Governor spoke of "pollution" in the state government and said he was glad to get away from Austin so he could get a breath of fresh air.

Senator Joe Hill of Henderson offered the same type of resolution in the Senate, but only five senators voted to suspend the rules to allow consideration of the proposal. The vote on suspension was 5 to 23.

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE QUESTION

It is never any trouble to convince the people of any class that the Government owes them something—even for merely having spent a designated number of years on earth in pursuit of a living. Neither does anyone ever draw down condemnation on his head by assuming the job of persuading the public that there is some special virtue in an existence of this kind that merits a reward. So it is understandable why political seekers of public favor devote so much time to this task, and it is equally understandable why so few care to risk the brickbats that adoption of an opposite attitude invites. Even so, so much has been said and written about the obligation of the government to provide a support for its elderly citizens that it is only fair that someone occasionally speak a word in behalf of the classes who are expected to bear the expense of the old age pension program, even though such a course rouses the displeasure of citizens who have had no difficulty in convincing themselves that an obligation of the above kind exists. Contrary to the impression being fostered by agitators for more and bigger pensions, it is not and never has been a question of pensions or starvation for the old people. The government has always recognized its obligation to provide for needy old age—

REG'LAR FELLERS

Bump Is A Musical Guy

By Gene Byrnes

and by need we mean a lack of living necessities—and while the kind of support provided may not have been the kind to invite general acceptance, it nevertheless did afford escape from any danger of starvation for destitute citizens whose pride would permit them to ask or accept public aid. In addition, the State of Texas now has in effect an old age assistance program sufficient to care for every legitimate case of need without the liberalization being sought, and still the beneficiaries selfishly persist in ignoring the right of the tax-burdened classes to some consideration in this matter. In recognition of the fact that there are two sides of this question of old age pensions, a former state senator, speaking in behalf of future taxpayers, points out that having dissipated the natural resources of their state, destroyed the prospects of business expansion and increased employment by their demands, and mortgaged the state, county, cities, road and school districts to the hilt during the 44 or more years since they became of age, the generation which bequeaths all these handicaps to the younger generation also wants to get on its back for a ride. "When I see the youth of the country thumbing rides and begging for jobs, wanting to go ahead as other Americans have," says this ex-senator, "I wonder if the old people know they are holding up the game. . . I yield to no man in my admiration and respect for the aged, but I realize there are others who ought to have a chance. Think of one 65 years old having more money given him than a younger man who is raising a family can earn." These are aspects of the situation that pension liberalizers would like to disregard, but they persist in obtruding, nevertheless. Helping one class to the hurt of another equally deserving and, perhaps, just as needy class, may be good politics but it is not good government regardless of what appears to be majority approval of the system.

WEAPONS TO FIGHT FIRE

Man has designed fine weapons with which to fight his ancient enemy, fire. But in too many cases man allows the weapons to deteriorate and become useless.

A careful home owner usually keeps hand fire extinguishers within easy reach in case of fire. These extinguishers are especially valuable on farms, where highly inflammable buildings and stored commodities exist. But many types of extinguishers must be refilled at definite intervals, whether they have been used or not, due to chemical changes that take place in the fluid used. If the owner forgets to do this, or lazily puts it off until tomorrow, he may find the extinguisher on which he pinned his faith, worthless when it is needed.

In the case of towns, community equipment such as water supply, fire engines and alarm systems should always be kept 100 per cent efficient, and replacements should be made immediately when required. Cutting down on the fire fighting budget is likely to prove the most expensive "economy" move any town can make, and cause loss of life.

Those public men who talk so much about "recovery," might think over these simple truisms:

We can't have recovery until the unemployed are absorbed by productive industry.

Industry cannot absorb the unemployed until it can expand and sell more goods.

Industry cannot expand until the people of this country feel sufficient faith in the future to risk their money in industrial undertakings, in the hope of making a profit.

People with savings are going to continue to "hoard" them so long as our governmental policy penalizes thrift and enterprise, through extortionate taxes and strait-jacket regulations.

PORTER & WHITE

At a meeting of the P.T.A. yesterday it was decided to ask the Lions Club to take over the Boy Scout movement in Knox City. The Boy Scouts were organized here about a year ago and were quite active for some time, but for the past three or four months they have not been meeting regularly possibly due to the assistant scout master being absent from town. C. E. Ball was the local scoutmaster, but his duties at the depot will not allow him the time to devote to the boys. It is not known at this time whether or not the Lions will assume the responsibility of sponsoring the scouts.

CHRISTIAN CHURCHES

We face the Easter season with the hope in our hearts engendered by the fact of the resurrection of Christ. We are praying that the people of our community will make every reasonable effort to be in the services in our community on this day. Here at Knox City we will begin with our usual Sun Rise prayer service. Music will begin at 5:45. We had a good attendance last year and those who were present found the early service a blessing. Will you come with us to seek fellowship with your risen Lord in this early hour?

Our regular morning preaching and worship service will be held at 9:45 with Bible School following. At Benjamin the Bible School at 9:45 will have an Easter program to be followed by the worship service at 11:15. The evening services will be at Benjamin and we urge our members to attend the evening services of other congregations in Knox City.

At Benjamin the C. E. programs will be at 5:30 and 7:15 and at Knox City at 7:30 Monday night.
