Fire Girls Camping

The Fire Girls returned from their annual camping trip Monday. Everyone reported a good time.

The trip lasted one week, and it was very well planned. Every day was run by a schedule, and each girl had a special duty each day. The menu was planned before the trip, and the meals were well balanced. Everyone had plenty to do, and different duties for each day.

The girls washed dishes and prepared the food, and carried away the garbage and carried water.

The girls built all the fires, and prepared the after-dinner speeches.

They were switched about each day, and the girls worked in groups. Each girl did her duty well, and the trip seemed to be well planned.

The schedule for each day was as follows:

8 a. m. Get up and take morning bath.
9 a. m. Clean-up hour.
10 a. m. Business meeting and report by counselors.
11 a. m. Swimming and boating.

12 p. m. Recreation hour.
1 p. m. Lunch.
2 p. m. Rest hour.

3 p. m. Reading hour (anything may be read at this hour, provided it is in camp.)

4 p. m. Study hour.
5 p. m. Afternoon meal.
6 p. m. Swimming hour.

7 p. m. Dress and clean-up hour.
8 p. m. Supper.
9 p. m. Vesper hour.

10 p. m. Lights out.
Morning at 8:45 a short session was held. At this time the girls talked over the trip.

The counselors were very helpful, and the trip was a success.

Some of the swimming hours were given to the swimmers.

Among the Pollywog tests were Eliza Clarke, Jocile Russell, Emma Nail, Mrs. Emma Jean Evans, Wynell Edgely, Lou Graham and Odell.

Spelling Frog tests were given by Eliza Clarke, Jocile Russell, Emma Nail, Mrs. Emma Jean Evans, Wynell Edgely, Lou Graham and Odell.

Reading Flat tests were given by Eliza Clarke, Jocile Russell, Emma Nail, Mrs. Emma Jean Evans, Wynell Edgely, Lou Graham and Odell.

Madison will be given for the tests that were passed.

Afternoon at the study hour, the girls were studied, and games were played.

After study hour the afternoon was served. Different things were served, such as cookies, punch, lemonade and tea.

Vesper hour each evening sang different kinds of songs, legends, read poems and songs for the Council Fire.

After the girls went to bed, the girls hiked and read mysterious messages.

To Have Ice Cream Supper

At the meeting of the Christian Womans Association which was held at the Christian church here Monday afternoon plans were perfected for an ice cream supper which will be given on Tuesday night of next week on the lawn of the West Texas Utilities Station.

The Christian Womans Association which is composed of women of all churches of the town, plan to make the evening interesting and entertaining for all who attend the supper. The outstanding feature of entertainment will be the Waggoner Hawaiian quartet. The Camp Fire Girls are asked for a stunt and games will doubtless be played on the lawn.

The cream supper was planned by the ladies of the association following a most interesting program. Mrs. J. C. Mann gave the devotional, her theme being patriotism. Mrs. Hoke led the opening prayer which was followed by a duet given by Mrs. Rev. Smith and Miss Mary Reeder, being accompanied by Mrs. Victor Pyleatt.

The public is cordially invited to attend the ice cream supper next Tuesday night, July 7th on the lawn of the West Texas Utilities Station.

SURPRISED ON 89TH BIRTHDAY

Grandmother Jones, Mother of Mrs. Webb, was most delightfully surprised on Wednesday of last week with a party honoring her 89th birthday.

The party was given in the home of Mrs. M. A. Reeder, she being assisted by Mrs. Pope and Mrs. Webb. A very entertaining program was given which included a classical fairy dance by Yvonne Jamison, accompanied by Mrs. E. Q. Warren, a reading by Florence Wilson, a solo by Mary Leone Hoge accompanied by Lora Jean Propps.

The shower of birthday gifts were presented to Grandmother Jones by Miss Mary Reeder, following which ice cream and cake were served to the fifteen guests.

Mrs. Scott Dalton was able to be out Sunday. She attended Sunday School and church after an illness of six weeks. We are glad to see her at Sunday School and to see her able to be up.

Mrs. Minnie White and son, Mrs. E. C. Ferguson and daughter and Miss Pauline Cox all of Stephenville are here this week visiting Mother White and other relatives.

CARD OF THANKS

Words can never express the thankfulness and love we have in our hearts for those who so untriflingly helped us during the long, dark days of our darling little Eddie's illness and death.

We feel that every possible comforting word was spoken, and every kind deed done, that could make us feel better at such a sad time.

May each of you enjoy the blessings that such true hearts deserve, and when you are called upon to bear such a burden as we are trying to bear just now, it is our hope that we may be able to stand by and help you grasp faith to go ahead, as you have helped us to do.

The floral offerings were beautiful and we wish to thank you especially for them.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Bohannon, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Bohannon, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Smullen, Mrs. Ruby Bohannon and children, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Smullen, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Buck.

Brother Harrison of Munday will preach here at the church of Christ Sunday evening, service at eight fifteen. Everyone is invited to come and hear him.

The Church of Christ has been having good attendance at the Sunday School and Sunday evening programs. It is hoped that the church will be filled Sunday evening to hear Brother Harrison.

The summer school, which has been conducted by Mrs. Horace Finley will come to a close Friday. This is examination week and Friday will be the last day of school. All credits received during this summer school will be accepted by the school without further examination.

Mrs. W. J. Jones Called in Death

Citizens of Knox City was greatly shocked Wednesday, July the first in the sudden death of Mrs. W. J. Jones. Relatives and friends are bowed in sorrow. As the body lies in waiting it is surrounded with huge clusters of flowers, bouquets, wreaths and sprays.

Arrangements are made for funeral services this afternoon, Thursday, at three o'clock in the Baptist Church. They will be conducted by the Reverend Stovall of this city and assisted by the Reverend Woodie W. Smith of Crowell. Interment will be made in the Odd Fellow cemetery, the burial park of Knox City.

The Herald extends its sympathy to the bereaved relatives and friends. A complete account will be given next week.

4H CLUB ORGANIZED AT UNION GROVE

On Friday, June the 19th the women of the Union Grove community gathered at the school house to organize a 4H club. Miss Nelson, the county demonstrator, was on time to find a large crowd awaiting her. She called the house to order and officers for the club were elected. They are Mrs. Campsey president, Mrs. Armstrong secretary and Mrs. McGee reporter.

The first and third Fridays of each month were selected as meeting days for the club. On the first Friday we will meet at the school house and on the third Friday we will meet in the house of one of the members.

Enrollment this first day revealed the membership to total twenty. We urge all the members to be present on July the third at which time we will meet at the school building.

4 H GIRLS HOLD ENCAMPMENT

The girls of the 4H club of Union Grove Community enjoyed an outing Friday night and Saturday in camping at the school house. Near fifty girls, members of the 4H club, with Mrs. William Griffith, Mrs. H. L. Lea and Mrs. J. C. McGee, chaperons went the night and most of Saturday there. Friday night, following the evening meal, all enjoyed playing games. Saturday lunch was furnished by the mothers, who have also organized into a 4H club.

All enjoyed the outing very much.

Hassle Huntsman of Cisco was at home here Saturday night and Sunday. Hassle is working for Mr. Nation in Cisco at the produce house.

Munday Defeated Edrie Bohannon 21 to 5

The Munday ball team was well defeated last Sunday when Knox City scored 21 to 5 in a game at Munday. The Munday boys, realizing early in the game that they were playing the losing side, showed little interest and pep.

This game leaves Knox City still in a tie with Goree for first place in the league.

Altho playing with a badly injured knee Frank Allred, local barber, and baseball player performed wonderful on the diamond Sunday.

Skipper and Manager Ed Shaver received a very painful bruise on the arm, by a pitched ball, and Lee Smith was knocked again on the right hook.

Keith the big little catcher was slightly off on hitting, as he only hit 4 out of 5 and Edwards fairly winged in another home run.

White the home run hitter, only runs three bases, and tries to outwit the boys for he fourth base.

It is generally understood that Knox City defeated Munday in a baseball game last Sunday at Munday.

Miss Buckholt, Mrs. E. Q. Warren, Roy Roger Smith and Joe Baker spent Thursday of last week in Wichita Falls. Joe caught the train there and returned to his home in Dallas. He has been here visiting Mrs. P. B. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Underwood moved Tuesday to Coleman. He has accepted a place in the Coleman High school for the coming school year.

There were flowers of every shade
And hue, scattered everywhere
And each small petal gently held
Word of whispered prayer.

There were little buds of sympathy
Strewn from pulpit to the wall,
But the bud which God had plucked
Was the rarest of them all.

He plucked it from the thorns of life
And placed it on His throne;
It's blooming now in heaven
And its hue shall never wane.

It's fragrance sweetens heaven
For the host who long have gone,
For Jesus cultivates it now and claims it for his own.

Angels plead for one small touch
Of its petals rich and rare,
But Jesus gently bids them go
And leave it in his care.
A friend.

POISON BAIT FOR SPARROWS

By W. E. Jones, County Agent

Of the different poisons for sparrows tested, the most satisfactory is strychnine, which is easy to prepare and acts quickly. Wheat has proved a good bait as well as an excellent vehicle for administering the drug. A convenient method of preparing poison bait is as follows:

Put one-eighth ounce of pulverized strychnine into three-fourths of a gill of hot water, add 1/2 teaspoonful of starch, or wheat flour, moistened with a few drops of cold water, and heat, stirring constantly till the mixture thickens. Pour the hot poison starch over 1 quart of wheat and stir until every kernel is coated. Small kernel wheat is ideal for grain, making sure it is reasonably clean. A 2 quart fruit jar is a good vessel to mix in, as it is easily shaken and allows the condition of the contents to be seen. If the coated wheat be spread thinly on a hard flat surface it will dry enough for use in a very short time. It should be dried thoroughly if it is to be put in fruit jars and kept for future use. Dishes employed in preparing poison may be safely cleansed by washing.

The poison should be well scattered so that many birds may eat at the same time as the poison which acts hurriedly will frighten off other sparrows. After a rain the poison will have to be replaced as it will be washed off. This poison should be placed on high places or out of reach of children and poultry. A good plan is to put out unpoisoned grain a few days then put the poisoned alternating to prevent the sparrow from becoming suspicious.

There may be a local law preventing the practice of poisoning birds in protection of the song birds. It would be well to inquire about this.

Sometimes only a few grains of poison will only paralyze the birds for a few hours and after that time they will recover, so it would be well to visit the feeding grounds several times a day to kill such birds.

Ed Shaver and Bill Smith made a trip to the plains Friday.

Most vacations are planned, not taken.

Let's be thankful the experts say times are getting better.

What we don't know is our business; what we do know is also our business. Thanks!

So far, be it noted no school child has raised a howl about being unemployed this summer.

Advertising is something that develops with faith; you can't tell anything about it until you try it.

Any Knox City husband can tell you who bosses his home, but he might try to lie to you.

Correct this sentence: "That's all right, old man; I don't need the money you owe me; take your time."

People are still trying to beat the locomotives to the crossing, but there will be fewer to repeat it next year.

Well, as far as we can see, despite the optimistic speeches, the present period of depression is with us yet.

Peedlers will soon learn to give Knox City a wide berth if the ladies here will teach them that there is no use to knock on the door.

Modern flappers have their own opinions of chaperons, and some of them even hint that there ought to be chaperons to chaperon the chaperons.

If you want to know how many people in Knox County can run this newspaper better than we can look up the last census figures and subtract two.

Now is the time to get up an argument on the prohibition or anything else. The hot weather will make the discussion hotter and probably end in a shooting scrape.

Unrepealed contributions, we repeat for the 4578th time, get into the wastebasket just as soon as we see them. If your communication does not appear in the Herald send it in again, with your name signed.

Several men of the town, which includes a barber and a groceryman, have succeeded in getting Mr. Moseley, the Tailor, to open his shop one night a week in order to "clean and press" the trousers of those who only have one pair.

That's keen. Looks like Mack the printer might get to wear a clean pair of trousers once in a while with that arrangement.

S. M. Clonts seems quite upset this week. He made a detailed news report to the Herald last week and when the same reached the post office and Sam got his copy, to his sad disappointment, found that his article did not appear in print as he reported it.

His report went like this: "E. O. Jamison spent Juneteenth in Fort Worth will all the rest of 'em".

But we have wondered since last week if Sam didn't join the celebration too.

There has been much discussion in town this week as to whether or not the stores would close Saturday, July the 4th. A petition to that effect has been carried over the town and all except three or four readily agreed to close Saturday, however, without the cooperation of all in such an endeavor is a failure.

The only information the Herald can give readers hereof, is that you will find out when you get to town Saturday if the stores are closed. Those closed will have the doors shut and a card reading, "we are closed for the 4th of July".

How's that for information? In all probability all the stores will be open all day Saturday.

Although Mr. Fred Cotman of the Union Grove community has had the misfortune and suffering to be sick the past eight weeks, a bit of luck came his way Monday. All the men of the community gathered at his farm and hoed out his cotton.

God still dwells in the hearts of men.

Miss Doris Ferguson of Stephenville is visiting her grandmother Mrs. W. L. White and relatives here.

EDRIE BOHANNAN

A darling one from us is gone To the fair land of joy and song; God has called her home to rest, What He may will is always best.

Yes dear Edrie, you have left us Never on this earth to roam, But some day we hope to meet you With the angels around God's throne.

Edrie, "I know you must be happy With God and His angels up there, While we stay here to weep, Just to see your vacant chair."

Edrie, we loved you so dearly, Because you were so kind and good, Why God took you from us We have not yet understood.

Yes Edrie, dear, you were The treasure of our hearts, And we will often be made to wonder Why in this way we had to part.

Perhaps God knew that you were Free from sin and ready to go, Perhaps He thought you'd lead another And thought it best to have it so.

How our hearts are torn and bleed With no Edrie with us to stay, We hope that God will comfort That it won't always be this way.

One by one we must follow, We must go the narrow way; For no sin can enter Heaven In that land of perfect day.

When we saw you in your casket Lying there so still and quiet, You seemed to be an angel, Edrie, With thy wings of snowy white.

You have gone to be with Jesus Edrie, And we know you are safe at home; Safe with Jesus up in Heaven Beckoning daddy and mother to come on.

Some day we hope to meet you Edrie, And take you by the hand; And to have a grand reunion Over in the Glory Land.

Will the circle be unbroken When we gather around the throne, There to live with Christ forever, When the trials of life are over?

In our dreams we see you Edrie, And this our request we make; That you watch and wait for us, At the beautiful golden gate.

Sleep on, Edrie, dear, And take your rest, We loved you dearly, But God loves you best.

July 4th Program Sponcered by Legionars

Wichita Falls, July 2—A complete day of recreation and enjoyment is promised the many thousands of people who will come to this city for the celebration of the nation's birthday, Saturday, July 4.

The big celebration here is being fostered by Pat Carrigan Post of the American Legion. The officials in charge of the celebration are starting the day with a big parade through the downtown section, in which will be featured richly decorated floats and hundreds of soldiers in uniform will appear. There will also be a display of artillery and machine guns and other machines of war.

The morning program will be held at Spudder Park, and these events will be of an athletic nature. Boy Scout troops will participate and there will be a baseball game between the two leading city teams.

The big program will be held at 8 o'clock at the Fair Park. It will feature a sham battle and display of fireworks. Scenes of the great battle of Verdun, fought on July 18, 1918, will be reproduced, giving the people who stayed at home a slight insight into the horrors of war, and renew to the boys who fought over there the scenes of fire through which they passed.

Wichita Falls is surrounded by the finest lakes and resort places in Northwest Texas. People can come here and camp at the lakes, spending a portion of Saturday fishing, if the desire, and an outing Sunday. Towns that will not observe the Fourth of July Monday will enable both businessmen and sales people to have a rare opportunity for a side outing either to Lake Wichita, Lake Kemp of the Devonian Lake.

Milton Gaines, general chairman of the celebration committee, stated that funds received from the bration will be used to defray the expense of sending the drum and bugle corps of Pat Carrigan Post to the state Legion convention to be held in El Paso during August. Wichita Falls is endeavoring to secure the 1932 convention and make it a reunion of Oklahoma and Texas boys who fought in the 36th and 90th divisions.

Many Legion posts over Northwest Texas and Southwestern Oklahoma have notified Chairman Gaines that their members will attend. Chairman Gaines suggests that each post in the area order immediately the number of tickets that will be desired. It is expected between 15,000 and 20,000 visitors will be in the city for the celebration.

Entertainment is being specially provided for the entertainment of women and children.

Mrs. Moseley, Mrs. Lee Smith and Mrs. John Smith visited in Wichita Falls Monday.

Misses Myrtle and Myrtle Evans are visiting their sister, Mrs. Moorehouse, in Oklahoma.

A well known local doctor received six pairs of silk hose from an eastern house with the following letter enclosed:

"Dear Sir: We are taking the liberty of sending you six pairs of these exceptionally good hose. Because these hose have the approval of thousands of discriminating dressers we know you'll like them."
 "Please send us $2.00."

Here is the doctor's reply: "I am taking the liberty of sending you $2.00 worth of extra fine pills. These pills have helped thousands and I am sure you will appreciate my thoughtfulness in sending them."

"Please accept them in payment for the hose sent me under date of May 3."

Jack Clarke was home a few days last and this week from his farming in Levelland.

FARMERS MAY HAVE BALES WRAPPED IN COTTON THIS YEAR

Austin, Texas July 2—Farmers may obtain cotton wrappers for their bales this year without penalizing themselves, as a result of efforts of the Association for the Increased Use of Cotton.

J. E. McDonald, commissioner of agriculture and vice-president of the national association, reported today that cotton mills of the south are "lining up enthusiastically" behind the proposal that they allow seven pounds extra weight to be added to all bales wrapped in standard 100 per cent cotton bagging, the added weight to offset the difference in weight between the jute and cotton bagging. This weight difference has been the principle barrier to the substitution of cotton for jute in making bagging.

The association first presented the matter of the seven pounds allowance to Cason J. Calloway, president of the American Cotton Manufacturing Association. Mr. Calloway not only agreed to make the mills with which he dealt but sent a letter to all in the south, requesting likewise.

"It is now squarely on the farmers to demand that bagging," McDonald said, "use up many thousands of tons this fall which have to depress the market. Conservatively estimated the pounds additional cotton summed if this type of bagging is generally adopted and used one in the South will have its effect on the market."

A prominent part in the very foundation of our government each received, as a reward from the people, elevation to their highest office. Having performed great labors in planning the theory of our government, it fell to their lot to set noble examples in putting the theory into practical effect.

These three Presidents were John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, and James Monroe. Indeed John Adams and Thomas Jefferson died almost at the same hour on July fourth, 1826. After many sharp differences of opinion, which had divided them during a part of their lives, Adams and Jefferson became not only reconciled but closely attached friends. The correspondence of their final years is one of the glories of American literature. Adams lived to be ninety Jefferson eighty-three. Neither knew how close to death was the other, and Adams' last words, when conscious that death was near, are said to have been, "Thomas Jefferson still lives." But Thomas Jefferson was already dead.

Before their Presidency, both these great men served as Vice President, and one of them as Vice President while the other was President. The older man, John Adams, was Vice President under George Washington himself. All three were closely associated with Washington during our formative days, and to one of them, John Adams, goes the credit for playing a major part in throwing George Washington into the arms of destiny.

It was largely the action of John Adams that led the Continental Congress to appoint George Washington as commander-in-chief of the Revolutionary forces. Before that time Washington had been an outstanding sectional figure, a man of the South. In command of the Continental forces, he became a man of the country, and history knows full well how he played the part.

James Monroe, a younger man, appeared on the scene of action after the great political groundwork of founding the nation had been accomplished. But as a young man he played a gallant part on the field of battle, as a follower of Washington.

Strange to say, he at first opposed the Constitution of the United States and, as a member of the Virginia Convention, elected to act on adoption of the Constitution, he voted against it. Yet he lived to become the President who enunciated a Doctrine that statesmen regard as no less a settled rule of American policy than the Constitution itself. James Monroe died on July 4, 1831; but the "Monroe Doctrine" is immortal.

The older men, Adams and Jefferson, are forever linked with George Washington as leaders in the movement that made America independent. Washington was distinctly the man of action, the soldier, the director of affairs, and without him the Revolution might never have moved to victory. But just as necessary were the philosophy of Jefferson in shaping our principles of government and the abilities of Adams in waking and training popular opinion, a labor in which he had few peers. Both Adams and Jefferson served on the committee to draft the Declaration. Both signed the Declaration, and to one of them, Thomas Jefferson, belongs the immortal honor of having written that timeless instrument.

In spite of their passing differences, these two giants of intellect and manhood were partners throughout their lives, in one of the greatest achievements for the progress of humanity. On the very birthday of our new charter they had brought to mankind, when the entire nation was celebrating its 50th anniversary, they died, within a few hours of each other. Had they been allowed to select the day of their passing, neither could have picked one more to his liking, or more fitting to the record they have left on American history.

As Independence Day is celebrated this year, the American people should spare a thought or two to this striking historic fact. In honoring the day as the beginnings of their liberties and privileges, they should also honor the memories of these three men who died, full of years of honors, on this birthday of a government that has enriched the records of the past as it has enriched the lives of a living people.

*A "Special Brand" tire is made by a manufacturer for distributors such as mail order houses, oil companies and others, under a name that does not identify the manufacturer to the public, usually because he builds his "best quality" tires under his own name. Firestone puts his name on every tire he makes.
